The officials of the Central Alabama Hospital announced Saturday that the electric elevator at the hospital was completed and was in operation. As we said before, this is the first electric elevator to be installed in Clanton, and we feel proud of the hospital management for making this forward step. This elevator will be used to carry patients up to the second floor, and will greatly facilitate this work for the attending physicians and nurses, also it will be much less strain on the patients.

We do not know of a concern in our city of which we are more proud than the Central Alabama Hospital. It is proving a splendid success from every point of view. In the first place it gives us access to a first-class hospital right here in our midst, saving the people near here lots of expense, and on the other hand it it a paying proposition to its stockholders. We are indeed proud of the wonderful success that this institution has already made.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. LAURA CONNELL

Mrs. Connell departed this life April 4, 1923, at Ensley, Ala. She was a good wife and mother. She leaves a husband, one daughter and four sons to mourn her absence. In her youth she united with the Baptist church and was a faithful and consistent member. All those who knew her could see in its full perfection the beauty of her character. Her life was a useful one. We all loved her and we miss her. She was ever ready to help the sick and needy. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother and a good neighbor. We will miss the kind and willing hands; we miss the smiling face. We may not be able to answer the question why she was taken from us, but we do know that God doeth all things well, and this act of Providence is but another token of God's love and sovereignty, and when we reach the other shore and see things in the light of eternity we can look back through time at the providences of God and discover His great love for us and see the wisdom of His every act. So I commend you bereft ones to the sympathetic Jesus, one who loves and a love can comfort us in our deep distress.

We mourn not with hope but are comforted by the thought that heaven is now her home where we can meet and enjoy life in; that happy home the Lord has prepared for all that love and serve Him.

The body was deposited in the cemetery at Cooper, Ala., her old home, there to wait the resurrection morn. She rests from her labors and her work. Do follow her.

A NEIGHBOR.

TOMMIE MADDOX HURT

Tommie Maddox of Walnut Creek happened to a rather painful and somewhat serious accident Friday morning when a mule kicked him in the face. The mule's hoof hit him just above his left eye, and it was reported that his skull was slightly fractured. He was rushed at once to the Central Alabama Hospital where he was treated for the injuries. Last reports say that he is recovering fast.

THE STATE HIGHWAY

Mr. Mayer, district engineer for the Alabama highway department came through Clanton recently and stated that the survey of the State highway through Chilton county is now definitely established, and that the contracts for the construction of the road will be let some time during the summer.

This route through the county is the same as the original survey, which was made about a year ago. The road will be on the east side of the railroad all the way from Wessington to Marbury. It will come into Clanton on Seventh street, turn up Second avenue one block, then take down Sixth street, the same as the present highway.

Mr. Mayer says that work is in rapid progress in Shelby county, but that it will be late in the summer before that section of the road will be finished.

RAY RUSHTON ANNOUNCES

Montgomery Lawyer Qualifies to Succeed Late Congressman Tyson

Montgomery, Ala., April 14.—Ray Rushton, of Montgomery, Friday filed with Secretary of State S. H. Blan his formal announcement as a candidate for representative in Congress from the Second Alabama District, to serve out the unexpired term of the late Congressman John R. Tyson. In his announcement, Mr. Rushton states that he will manage his own campaign. Mr. Rushton and Lister Hill, both of Montgomery, are the only two candidates so far definitely to enter the race, although there are rumors from all over the district that certain other prominent men will announce, also that Montgomery may produce one or two additional contenders.

On Tuesday morning Deputy Joe Gore, accompanied by Mr. Robert Jones, took Luther Jones and Leander Jones, two sons of the late J. Tom Jones to the Insane Asylum at Tuscaloosa. They went by automobile to Maplesville, and took the train there for Tuscaloosa.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIES LAST MONDAY

Mr. H. N. Mullins, better known as Nick Mullins, departed this earthly life on last Monday morning at 2:00 o'clock. He was living in Clanton, near Mr. Reese Mullins. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church Tuesday morning by Rev. Ezell, assisted by Rev. Wilkerson. The remains were laid to rest in Clanton Cemetery at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, immediately following the funeral. The following acted as pall bearers: C. Fenn Jones, J. Hance Alred, H. S. Shaw, Geo. C. Polk, O. M. Carter and W. S. Willis. J. Mell Martin, Undertaker, had charge of the burial.

The deceased was the son of Oliver Mullins of Jumbo, still living, and leaves a wife, two sons Clifton and Leon Mullins, and one daughter, Sarah Mullins, two brothers, C. Reese and Reed Mullins, and three sisters. The deceased was 53 years old, and will be missed by a host of friends.

LET'S MAKE CLANTON CLEAN

Our city officials have on a campaign to clean out the filthy, dirty corners of the town, and they are entreating the co-operation of the entire citizenry to help in this worthy move. If we are going to keep such things as garbage cans, pig pens, open closets, etc., let's keep them cleaned out and sterilized according to our state and municipal laws. You would hate mighty bad to know that the way you kept things around your premises was the cause of your neighbor's sickness and probably death. Well, no doubt, such things have happened numbers of times right here in Clanton; and unless proper precaution is taken the same thing will happen again. So let everyone do his part and keep his premises cleaned up according to law so as to make our town a decent place to live in. There is also a work in this direction which the town sanitation officials need to look after, but they are going to do their work, you can depend on that.

PRISONERS IN CONVICT CAMPS OF ALABAMA NOW TOTAL 3,024

Montgomery, Ala., April 16.—A total of fifty-three new prisoners were received into the Alabama penitentiary for the first ten days in April, according to records in the office of Roy L. Nolen, associate member of the state board of convict supervisors. This number compares with a total of 83 prisoners received during the full month of March of this year and with 118 committed during the full month of April, 1922.

There are now 3,024 convicts confined in the penitentiary. This figure compares with 3,021 on April 1, and with 3,046 one year ago. Of the 3,024 convicts now confined, 880 are white men, 2,005 are negro men, 9 are white women and 130 are negro women.

In Kilby prison are the largest number of penitentiary inmates with the number confined there reaching 653. The other prisoners are number in each follow:

Number of prisoners received in April of this year and counties from which received are: Jackson, 3; Madison 4; Clay 2, Geneva 3, Jefferson 5, Lauderdale 9, Blount 1, Fayette 1, Monroe 3, DeKalb 1, Cullman 1, Greene 1, Butler 3, Calhoun 7, Limestone 9.

O. D. Grooms of Maplesville paid Clanton a visit Saturday.

THE OLDEST BANK In Chilton County

A SICK MAN SAID:

"I wouldn't WORRY so much now, Doctor, if I had only saved more of my money for a time like this."

It often takes a touch of adversity to really open a man's eyes. The only trouble with that is it may then be too late. The time to save is now. The place for the savings is in our reliable Bank. Old age, sickness, death, these are as certain as youth, health and strength, and in every case a bang account comes in handy.

PRESIDENT HARDING'S FATHER AT BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham, Ala., April 14.—Dr. George T. Harding, father of President Harding, and a visitor in New Orleans during the reunion of the Confederate veterans, stopped over in Birmingham on his way back to his home in Marion, Ohio, today.

During the afternoon Dr. Harding expressed the opinion Birmingham was destined to become the "Queen City" of the South.

Dr. Harding, who was elected surgeon general of the Grand Army of the Republic last year, during his visit here wore a U. C. V. badge which was presented to him in New Orleans.

THREE STILLS DESTROYED

Sheriff Littlejohn reports that he, together with Deputy Culp, W. L. Dunn and Fred J. King, law enforcement officers, captured and destroyed three copper stills at Bledsoe Cut, near Union Grove on last Thursday. One was a 190-gallon outfit and the other two were 60-gallon ones. In all there was between 1,000 and 1,200 gallons of beer poured out at all three stills.

Signs around the stills showed that they were old outfits and that they had been in use for a long time. They showed that liquor had been made there only a short while before, but none was found. No arrests were made.

CLANTON WINS HER FOURTH STRAIGHT GAME

"Rip" Burnett, of Clanton, as usual, was the star of the game, with his pitching and hitting. He got three hits out of five times at bat. He only gave up four hits while he struck out thirteen men.

Alley of Marbury also starred at the bat, getting three of the four hits gathered by Marbury.

"Rip" Burnett has pitched four games this season and won all of them. He has struck out fifty men, given up eight hits and nine runs. He has gotten eleven hits out of fifteen times at bat.

Clanton line up was as follows:

STATE EXAMINATION BEING HELD HERE

Supt. Howard L. Foshee is this week conducting a state teachers examination in the Clanton Baptist Church. It was held in the church on account of court being held in the court house. There were twelve applicants for all grades of certificates.

DR. WILL S. WILSON

At a convention of the Alabama Dental Association in Birmingham last week, Dr. Will S. Wilson, former Clanton boy, but now located at Montevallo, was elected as a member of the executive committee of that body. Bill is a fine boy, and his many friends in Chilton county will be glad to learn of this honor being placed upon him.

Only a few years ago another Chilton boy, Dr. Sam Hopkins, was elected vice-president of this association. Clanton justly feels proud of these, her two sons.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH BUREAU OF PUBLICITY

Montgomery, Ala., April 16.—With the time drawing near for overhauling and repairing door and window screens to prevent the invasion of the home by flies and mosquitoes, the health authorities are stressing the importance of using screen wire of sixteen mesh or finer if the maximum of protection is desired.

The fourteen and twelve mesh wire screening will keep out flies but mosquitoes can go through the coarser mesh, and the additional cost of the finer mesh is more than worth the difference because it will not only keep out the flies, but also gives protection against malarial-carrying mosquitoes.

Women wage warfare unrelentingly upon the little bed bug and feel that they are disgraced if this little "retiring" pest is found on the place, while the fly is taking his toll in hundreds of lives annually by quietly and brazenly depositing deadly disease germs where they find their way into the human system.

The bed bug bites your toes;

Untold thousands of little graves throughout the country are filled with bodies of little tots who were unable to fight off the common house fly and died of "summer complaint." In addition to these, thousands die annually from typhoid fever, a large per cent of whom were infected by the activities of this same little household pe(s)t.

It has been said that the quickest way to win a war with a foreign foe is to first get the women folks mad. It is the policy of the State Health Department to stir up as much enmity among the good housewives of Alabama as possible against the house fly and "take no prisoners."

REPUB'NS CAN MAKE AGGRESSIVE CAMP'GN

G. O. P. Has Made Record to Which They Can Point With Much Pride.

Washington, April 19.—"In the campaign of 1924 the Republican party will not be at any moment on the defensive. It has a constructive record to its credit and can justly 'point with pride' to its achievements," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. The accomplishments of the Republican regime are thus enumerated:

"Taking charge of the economic policies of the nation at a time when there was great depression, particularly in agricultural industries, and when government securities were selling at a great discount, the Republican Administration adopted and put into effect policies which have restored confidence in all lines of industry and have brought agriculture far on the road to normal. There is now work at good wages for all who desire it.

"This Administration made a satisfactorily peace with Germany. Disputed questions in the Pacific were amicably settled and an international agreement arrived at for the limitation of armaments.

"The internal revenue laws were revised in such a manner as to reduce taxes for both the small taxpayer and the large taxpayer, diminishing the total tax upon the nation to the extent of approximately a billion dollars annually.

"A budget law was enacted under which revenues and expenditures are balanced and diminished appropriations from the Federal treasury are made possible.

"A Republican protective tariff law was enacted guarding American labor and American capital from disastrous competition with cheap products from abroad. Nevertheless, increased imports demonstrates that this law was not prohibitive, and increased exports demonstrate that the act was not detrimental to our export trade.

"The Republican administration formulated a plan for turning government ships over to private owners with assurance that they would be operated under the American flag in and out of American ports with a saving of $30,000,000 a year to the treasury as compared with present expenditures.

"Undesirable immigration has been restricted; an extensive system of farm credits has been established; a great reduction has been made in the personnel of the army and navy; one hundred thousand civilian employees have been taken from the public payrolls; adequate provision has been made for hospitalization and rehabilitation for the veterans of the world war.

"At the same time that we have been kept out of political alliances with Europe, our relations with European nations have been established on a most friendly basis except in the case of Russia where we have properly refused to recognize a government that fails to uphold the sanctity of contracts and of property rights.

"The record is one of which every Republican may well be proud. It calls for no excuses or explanations. It is a record which the Democrats may well 'view with alarm.' "

MRS. WILKINS HEADS RECESS COMMITTEE

Selma Woman Elected Chairman of Legislative Body on Education.

Mrs. J. G. Wilkins, of Selma, representative in the legislature from Dallas county, was unanimously elected chairman of the recess legislative committee on education at the organization meeting of that body held Monday afternoon in the hall of the house of representatives at the state capitol. Senator Walter S. McNeil, of Fayette was chosen vice-chairman.

During the course of the meeting, which lasted only a short while, the following sub-committee was appointed to consider and decide upon an itinerary to be carried out by the committee in the course of its investigations also a definite program. This committee will report when the recess committee reconvenes at the capitol Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The sub-committee is composed of Representative Mrs. J. G. Wilkins, Selma; Representative Walter S. McNeil, Fayette; Representative W. O. Walton, LaFayette, and Representative J. W. LeMaistre, Lockhart.

The joint legislative committee will investigate the needs of Alabama's educational system and report to the legislature when the lawmakers reconvene in July. In the course of these investigations, they will visit a number of schools throughout the state, as well as the higher institutions of learning.

TONIGHT AT THE WADESONIAN

Don't forget that tonight is the time for "Shadows" to be shown at the Wadesonian Theatre. Mr. Wade assures his patrons that this will be a fine pciture from every standpoint, and urges a good attendance.

Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Roble, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of

CARDUI

and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles .... and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me."

Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Roble mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 40 years. It should help you.

PLEASANT GROVE

Health of this community is very good at present.

We were glad to see so many out at Sunday school Sunday. Our Supt., Mr. E. T. Dawson was absent on account of his wife being sick. We hope that she will soon be well again.

Our Singing Society met Sunday afternoon with a very large crowd and did some very good singing. Directors for the afternoon were: Mr. G. W. Spivey, Prof. James Franklin, Burl Martin, Chester Maddox, Mrs. Eddie Childress and Harrison Hayes. Organists were: Mrs. Chester Maddox, Mae Maddox and Mrs. Eddie Childress.

We were glad to see so many visitors and invite all who will to come and be with us. We will meet again next first Sunday p.m.

There was quite a large crowd at Mr. James Franklin's last Sunday to attend the marriage at 1:30 p.m., of his daughter, Nora, to Mr. Chester Maddox. We wish them much joy and happiness in life.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wright were visitors at Mr. G. W. Spivey's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lenoir visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nix last Sunday.

Mr. Dudley Nix and wife of Maplesville and Misses Miriah Freeman and Ottis Merchant motored up to Pleasant Grove Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Z. Merchant are visiting their daughter this week, Mrs. D. B. Hodgens.

We hope to have our church repainted soon. We have had the paint for some time but on account of the bad weather have not had it painted yet.

Let's everybody come to church next Saturday and Sunday as these are our regular preaching days at this place.

WRILEY GROVE

Health of this place is very good at present, of which we are glad to say.

Everybody is hollering gee and haw now, as they are planting corn and cotton and are trying to make a good crop this year. I sure hope we succeed, too.

We were very sorry to see Messrs. Joe and John Motley leave us last Sunday. They were bound for Detroit, Michigan. We hope to see them back before long, as we miss them very much.

Misses Mary, LaVome, Frances and Tomie Alma Christian visited Miss Berniece Broadhead Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Robert Hayes of this place went to Fairview last Sunday to spend a few days with his aunts, Mrs. Nan Jones and Miss Fannie Milford.

Messrs. Clyde Christian and Harmon Broadhead went to the city of Maplesville Saturday.

Mr. Robert Foshee of this place was the guest of Miss Ollie Spaulding last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Sam Christian and Misses Mary and LaVome Christian motored to Clanton Sunday afternoon and brought Miss Cleo Broadhead back from there, where she has been visiting friends and relatives.

PROVIDENCE, BEAT 13

Everybody interested in Providence cemetery, Beat 13, are invited to appear at this place April 26th, for the purpose of putting up the new wire fence. We, the committee, do especially urge that everybody interested will turn out Thursday, April 26th, and let's finish this job that is so badly needed to be done.

W. R. Houlditch, W. G. Shaw, J. D. Sutley, W. F. Thompson and J. D. Harrell, Sec.-Treas.

The Variety Store makes you a special invitation to visit them. They sell a thousand and one things, ranging in price from 5c to $1.

LAWLEY NEWS

Since the last writing from this place, a very sad accident happened here, of which everyone has read; and some forgotten about it. But the people here are so deeply grieved over the loss of our dear relatives and friends, Mr. T. B. Collins and Mr. Henry Latham, who were killed in the accident. They were both men, whom everybody who knew them loved. T. B. Collins was buried here at Rehoboth. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Foster Mills of Tuscaloosa and the Masons. Henry Latham was buried at Pleasant Grove, Shoults community. The funeral services were also conducted by Rev. Mills and the Masons. Both men were buried the same day.

Our hearts are indeed sad and we can hardly realize that these men are now dead. But God doeth all things well and we can only look to Him for our comfort, and pray for Him to assuage the anguish of the many bereaved.

The last news received from Mr. Eugene Thompson, who was hurt in the accident, was that he is doing fine. His many friends hope he will soon be well again.

The literary school here will close about the last of April. The teachers are planning for a concert to be given at the close of the school. We will know later just when.

Mr. Bill Lowe of Birmingham was here last week visiting his sister, Mrs. T. B. Collins. He was also looking after some business for his sister while here.

Mr. Dolby Atkinson, who has been here some time with his daughter, is very low. Not expected to live long.

Mrs. Celia Hicks, daughter, Mamie and grandson, Dalton Hicks, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Minnie Collins.

Misses Ethel and Lilla Collins and Miss Grace Ward went to Montgomery a few days ago to do some shopping.

Mr. Hobson Head who had an operation some time ago, and came home thinking he was almost well, went back to Tuscaloosa last week to see the doctors. He is at home now but not able to be up. His friends learn this with regret.

Mrs. Sheb Holley left for Tuscaloosa last Sunday, where she will spend a few days with her son, Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Thompson and two little boys, R. F., Jr., and William of Shoults community, were here Sunday afternoon. They with Misses Pearl Jefferson and sister Cornelia, motored to Randolph, then to Maplesville.

Mr. Will Joe Mount has purchased himself a new Flivver.

Prof. Young Hayes, Misses Ethel Collins and Grace Ward, teachers of this place, motored to Blocton last Saturday.

Mr. Fonzo Friday of Plantersville, was here Sunday to see his cousin, Mr. Will Joe Mount.

Many of the people here are planning to attend the children's day exercises to be given at Tabernacle on the fifth Sunday of this month.

The W. M. U. members have ordered and paid for the carpet for the church. In a few days it will be here. The next meeting will be at school house next Saturday afternoon.

LIBERTY HILL NEWS

Health of this community is good at present.

Farming is progressing very well with the delay of rain.

Rev. Taylor delivered a good sermon Sunday morning. A good crowd attended but more should have attended. We want the people of this community to wake up and come to church and help out in Sunday school.

The Singing Society met with a good crowd and directors for the afternoon were Messrs. Zack Lowery, Leonard Culp, Glover Smith, Earl Williams and Misses Etta Foshee and Claudie Smith. Organists were Misses Gussie Littlejohn, Marie Morris and Lillie Smith.

The party at Mr. Walter Culp's was just fine Saturday night. The boys and girls furnished a splendid good supper of fruits, candies and cake.

Miss Senora Culp dined with Miss Lamurel Littlejohn Sunday.

Misses Gussie Littlejohn and Verbie D. Williams dined with Miss Birdie Bridges Sunday.

Mr. Floyd Littlejohn and family were the esteemed guest of Mr. Frank Littlejohn Sunday.

Mrs. Callie Culp was the guest of Mrs. Emma Culp Sunday.

Mrs. Lillie Culp and Miss Gussie and Lamurel Littlejohn and Verbie D. Williams went fishing Monday p.m. and caught seventeen fish and came back loaded with flowers.

We especially invite all directors and lovers of music to come and be with us and let's make this a most grand and glorious day. Also we are expecting the Clanton Quartette to be with us and extend a special invitation to them.

Also everybody is especially invited to come and bring flowers and take part in the Memorial Services. Come one and all, bring a well filled basket and let's make the fifth Sunday a real memorial and enjoyable day at Providence.

Also we expect good order on that day. Otherwise intruders will pay penalties.

J. H. Martin, Berl Martin, C. S. McCain, W. F. Thompson, Committee.

CHESTNUT SINGING

Our Singing Society met Sunday p.m. and did some good singing. We were glad to see so many visitors, for we are always glad to have them come and help us. We especially thank Mr. Henderson for his good talks. Directors for the day were: Prof. W. M. Devaughn, chm.; L. F. Cleckler, J. R. Robinson, Grover Gilliland, Jesse Jones, J. M. Taylor, Ralph D. Grant, R. T. Grant, L. T. Grant, L. N. Henderson, Archie Devaughn, O. L. Devaughn, S. M. Yates. Organists were: Lee Grant, Ralph D. Grant, Miss Lena Devaughn.

We will meet again the first Sunday, so come and help us. We especially invite our good editor to come down and see what we are doing.

Dr. George T. Harding, father of President Harding, passed through through Clanton Saturday on his way home in Marion, Ohio, from the Confederate Reunion in New Orleans.

MACEDONIA NEWS

Sunday and Sunday night was our regular preaching time, but our pastor failed to come, but had a large crowd at Sunday school. Everybody come back next Sunday and bring some one with you.

Farmers are making good use of these sun-shining days planting corn and getting ready to plant cotton.

Mrs. Sallie Gibson, who has been in ill health for several months, died last Thursday morning at 9 a.m. and was laid to rest in Macedonia cemetery Friday evening, April 13th. Rev. W. P. Lowery conducted the funeral services.

She leaves a husband, Mr. F. C. Gibson, two small children, a mother, six sisters, five brothers, and a host of relatives and friends who deeply mourn her loss. She will be greatly missed in the church and community by all who knew her.

Mr. Wallace Veazey, accompanied by his father, Mr. J. C. Veazey, left Sunday for Childersburg, where he has accepted a position with Rev. M. C. Crumpton. He will be greatly mssed by all, and especially his Sunday school class, but we wish him much success.

Boys and girls, there are only a few of us left to keep the home fires burning, but remember that God will bless individuals the same as multitudes, so let's pull together and brighten the corner where we are.

Mr. Emmett Waldrup, Mr. Espy of Montevallo, and Mr. W. L. Nix visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Waldrup near Randolph Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hicks of Lawley were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. Bill Veazey and son Renfroe, were visitors to church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nix of Mulberry visited Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Jones Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Atchison and little son Dimpsey, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fleeming.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Nix of Maplesville motored up to church Sunday in a new Dodge.

Mr. Willie Hayes spent Saturday in Jemison.

Mrs. Jewell McCary is visiting her mother, Mrs. Natie Watkins of Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Brown and children James and Frances, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Merchant.

Mr. Floyd Nix spent Sunday afternoon at Randolph.

G. O. FOSHEE BACK HOME

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Foshee, who moved away to Florida a few months ago have come back home—but not to stay, as most of them do. Mr. Foshee says that he is mighty well pleased with the land of flowers. But from what he says Florida is more a land of fish and oranges than of flowers. The stories that he tells about fishing down there make us want to go down and try it a little. It seems to us that as well as some of our people around here like to fish they would move to Florida and spend the rest of their days "dragging them in."

Firestone

will not increase prices until May 1st

Firestone Prices on Fabric and Cord Passenger Car Tires and Tubes, also Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires Will Advance May 1st

The postponement of this price revision is possible only because of our realization of the price danger in the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act which became effective November 1, 1922. We were fortunate in our rubber purchases before the Restriction Act increased the price of crude rubber 150%.

We have always endeavored to champion the cause of better made tires delivered at lowest cost to the tire user by economic manufacturing and distribution. And we are glad of the opportunity to give the car-owner the additional saving at this time.

Firestone Cords embody certain special processes which result in their producing mileage records, heretofore unheard-of in the industry. Among the more important of these superior methods are blending, tempering, air-bag cure and double gum-dipping.

Firestone Dealers are co-operating with us in our movement to supply your needs at present prices as long as their stock lasts and we have advised our dealers that we will supply them with additional tires this month only so far as our output will permit.

See the nearest Firestone Dealer. Purchase a set of these Gum-Dipped Cords. Prove for yourself their remarkable mileage advantages and easy riding qualities.

What has become of that cotton mill talk which was so rife only a few weeks ago? Let's not let the matter die, but keep on suckin' till we do succeed.

The Harding administration reduced the higher income tax rates and got more income. An oppressive rate of taxation kills its purpose by driving money out of industrial investment.

Do you remember ever hearing of so many tragedies and crimes as you do these days? You can't pick up a paper without a big headline reporting several deaths from some tragic cause staring you in the face.

Mr. W. W. Fox, chairman of the drainage project, says that he hopes to have another meeting in a few days and get that business started off in due form. Hurrah for Mr. Fox! Let's all the rest of us do our part and make the thing a go.

We notice that Henry Ford's friends in his home town are boosting him for President in 1924. We haven't heard them say yet what ticket he will run on. We wonder whether it will be Democratic, Republican, Socialist or Independent.

"Women and Democrats seem to be barred as Chilton County jurors." —Chilton County News. This is plain talk to our jury commissioners and circuit judge. And incidentally we notice that the circuit judge and all of the commissioners except one are Democrats.

President Harding's father, who fought in the Federal Army during the Civil War, was present at the Confederate Reunion at New Orleans last week. His presence there bears out the statement of Mr. Harding that sectional animosity between the North and South is gradually dwindling away.

There are reports coming in from nearly every county in the State to the effect that moonshiners and bootleggers are getting some plain instruction as to the meaning of the Volstead Act. It seems that our sheriffs and law enforcement officers are doing their duty now as never before. We say that it is high time something drastic is done in this connection.

It is with much interest that we read in a recent issue of the Literary Digest an article on the possibilities of the South. This writer depicts very explicitely the numerous inducements and advantages which the South offers. It not only deals with the industrial side of the question, but it explains several erroneous impressions which other sections of the country have of our Southland. It is interesting to read this writer's experiences and see what inaccurate conceptions some people over the country have of the South. The South is indebted to the Alabama Power Company for this splendid publicity. The power company has spent a lot of money and effort in advertising the advantages of the South.

A MISLEADING PROPOSAL

The chairman of the naval committee of the French senate makes what he hopes will be accepted as a most generous gesture for world peace. "I guarantee in the name of the French Parliament," he declares, "that France will suppress her entire fleet if other powers will do likewise." At first glance the offer seems eminently fair, but, in reality, it is a shrewd move for the benefit of France alone. Under the Washington treaty the basis of naval armaments was fixed at 5 for the United States and Great Britain, 3 for Japan, and 1 3-4 for France and Italy. If all navies were to be scrapped, the maritime strength of those five powers would be equalized, which is precisely what France most desires. Moreover, France admittedly leads the world in the development of her air forces, and with the navies gone she would be the dominant military power of the world. France would command greater respect among the nations if she would accept the Washington treaty as it is rather than indulge in ingenuous suggestions like that of the French senator.

PROSPERITY EXPANDS

The American Railway Association anticipates the heaviest traffic burden in the history of the country this year. To prepare for it, the roads have approved the expenditure of $1,540,000,000 for new tracks, locomotives, cars, and terminals. The Association is asking the public to aid the roads in their effort to meet the emergency. Shippers are urged to conserve space in cars, and keep the cars moving, everybody is asked to get his coal supply early in the summer, and road and construction work is being hurried up so that rail equipment will be ready for the crop movement later in the year. The announcement ought to inspire every good citizen to co-operate in removing obstacles to the prosperity wave that is sweeping the country. Efficient transportation is the key to the problem. So long as shipments can be made with regularity and speed our industries will function to capacity and everybody will have plenty of work at good wages.

ILLOGICAL PACIFISM

Secretary of War Weeks reminds the pacifists, who are spreading the statement that 85 per cent of all Federal expenditures go for war purposes, that when they address Congress they urge a reduction of only 13.5 per cent that is spent for national defense. Anybody who lays stress on the fact that 85 per cent of our money is spent for matters relating to war leaves the inference that there ought to be a reduction, yet nobody will ask that the national debt be left unpaid, that funds be denied the Veterans' Bureau, or that pensions be curtailed. The fact is that the cost of the national defense has been already reduced to a dangerous minimum.

ASK FOR MINUTES

I wish to ask if any one has a Minute of the Chilton County Baptist Association of the following dates: 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918. Any of the dates mentioned will be appreciated. If you will send to me by mail I will pay postage.

Yours truly,

CITY SANITATION LAWS TO BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED

Chief of Police Foshee authorizes us to publish to those who might be interested that the city ordinances regulating the sanitary conditions of the town will be enforced regardless of parties. This is a wise step for our officials, and it behooves every citizen to help them in seeing that these regulations are abided by to the dot.

Mr. Foshee said that the councilmen were going to act in the near future on the matter of pig pens, and it is almost certain that these will be prohibited altogether, but if they are permitted you can rest assured that they will be kept clean according to law.

Below we are reprinting the city ordinance regulating the keeping of open or dry closets. Your attention is invited to this law:

(An Ordinance)

That on and after the first day of January, 1916, it shall be unlawful for any occupant or owner, agent, representative or other person or corporation, having charge of any lot or building in the corporate limits of the Town of Clanton to permit any surface closet, dry closet of like character or kind, or any cess pool, receiving pool, closet pool, pool connected with any closet, or pool of like character or kind to exist, be maintained, used or operated upon said lot or maintained, used or operated in connection with said building on said lot.

Be it further ordained by the Town Council of the Town of Clanton, that any person, firm or corporation who permits said closets or pools to exist, be maintained, used or operated on any lot or in any building or in connection with any lot or building in the corporate limits of the Town of Clanton on or after the first day of January, 1916, shall, upon conviction therefor, be fined for each offense not less than one dollar nor more than one hundred dollars and may also be sentenced to hard labor for the Town of Clanton for not more than thirty days, one or both.

Passed and approved this November 1st, 1915.

Published in The Clanton Press November 4th, 1915.

CHILTON DEBATES THORSBY

The Thorsby Institute debating society came down Friday night and locked horns with the Chilton High society in a live and hotly fought debate. The subject was, "Resolved that the Picture Show is Beneficial." The Thorsby boys represented the affarmative and won the argument.

Mrs. Laura Aldridge of Clanton was suddenly stricken Friday morning with some ailment, and she has been very sick ever since.

MAPLESVILLE NEWS

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

OF INTEREST TO

Millions of Families

"I WILL BUILD A CAR FOR THE MULTITUDE"

Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read How the Fulfillment of That Prophecy is Now Made Possible Through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in The First National Bank of Clanton.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little. Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

SINGING AT REFUGE ON LAST SUNDAY AFTERNOON

On last Sunday afternoon the singing society met at this place with a large audience being with us, among whom were a lot of good singers. It seemed that everybody present enjoyed it. The program was as follows:

Prayer was offered by Bro. P. M. Robinson.

Directors for the evening were: O. P. Robinson, C. H. Robinson, Reuben Miller, Tom Wyatt, J. A. W. Mims, two songs each.

Call to order by chairman.

Directors: P. M. Robinson, P. E. Powell, C. P. Mims, J. E. Miner, Clyde Mims, two songs each.

We were glad to have a large number of visitors with us and we cordially invite all to come back again.

It was not thoroughly decided that all four churches would join in together as has been announced that they possibly would. I want to say a few words as to the cross that seemed to be at this place. There was some misunderstanding in regard to those meetings; that was why some of our church became undecided. As for myself I would be glad that we could meet together, but it will deprive a lot of our church and some around from getting to be in singing only once or twice a month. Now the question is, would this change be of more interest to all of our churches or would it be only for a few people. If it would be of more good for the young people of each church to change I say change it, if not, why should we change?

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Editor

Mrs. Luckie Hostess.

A profusion of dog wood, honeysuckle and crab apple blossoms were effectively used to decorate the home of Mrs. R. E. Luckie on last Wednesday when she was hostess to the Sewing Club and friends. Tables were arranged in the living and dining rooms for the game of "42." After some time spent playing games the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Armstrong and Gore, served a delightful salad plate.

Mrs. Callen Hostess.

Mrs. Frank Callen was a charming hostess on last Thursday afternoon, entertaining her Card Club and a few extra guests. Exquisite pink carnations adorned the reception rooms. After a series of games of bridge, Mrs. Victor Heard was awarded attractive score pads for high score. The hostess served a bounteous salad plate at the close of the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Davis were attendants at the funeral of Mr. Nick Mullins here Tuesday.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds, Mrs. Mattie Wooley, Mrs. Guy Roberts and Miss Willadean Reynolds motored over to Plantersville Monday to funeral services of an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Taylor have returned to Clanton after an extended stay in Mississippi.

It will be learned with deep regret that Miss Minnie Muse's aunt, Mrs. Smitherman, was buried in Colorado recently.

Mrs. McSwain Hostess.

A delightful meeting of the Wednesday Embroidery Club was held at the home of Mrs. T. C. McSwan on Tuesday afternoon. Early spring flowers together with pot plants made the living room very attractive. Finger work was nidulged in until late in the afternoon when a lovely salad plate with iced tea was served to Mesdames Steele, Hugh Jones, S. E. Alverson, Luckie, H. M. Simpson, M. A. Gore, D. Y. Johnston, Barney Roberts and Macy Jones.

The club will meet at a spend-the-day next Wednesday with Mrs. McSwain.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mullins from Mitchell Dam were visitors here this week, during the last ilnless of Mr. Mullins' father, Mr. Nick Mullins.

A HOME WELCOME PARTY

On last Tuesday p.m. at 5:30 o'clock, Mrs. Lela Williams arrived home from a two months visit in Birmingham, and found to her delight a new house, built and furnished for her by her son Leonard. Her home was built while she was gone, she not knowing anything about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams had quite a number of her friends present to welcome her home, and the beautiful numerous presents she received shows how much she is loved. She said she could never find words to express her appreciation for the useful gifts she received. Surely the giver of all will bless Mr. and Mrs. Williams in doing so much to make their mother happy in her last long journey of life, and as she has lived to raise a large family of splendid boys and girls may she not be disappointed in that great final day of gathering each and everyone together in that home not made with hands.

After about two hours of talking with each other, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Kicker, served delicious cream and cake, the same being passed to the guests by Delene and Gladis, the two sweet girls of the host and hostess. Those present to welcome Mrs. Williams home were: Rev. Ezell, Mesdames Laura White, Alice Calloway, Kicker, Lee Hayes, Mattie Williams, Bob Jones, Belle Jones, Dudley Tippett, Will Hayes, Hugh Thompson, J. L. Scroggins, Denson Williams, Misses Roberta Hayes and Lorene Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Mims, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Vance, Dr. and Mrs. Hinkle.

Made a Hit With Him

"My wife has taken your medicine and has been wonderfully benefited. For over four years she has had trouble with bloating and could scarcely eat any food because of this condition. Doctor's medicines did not help her an and operation was advised. Her brother, who is a druggist, sent her a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it helped her at once. I cannot praise your medicine enough." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Alred Drug Co.

STILLS SEIZED IN SHELBY

Located within a radius of a mile and a half, six stills were found in Shelby county Monday evening by Federal officers. No arrests were made. Sixty-four barrels of beer were seized.

AUNT FANNIE SMITHERMAN DEAD

Aunt Fannie Smitherman, an aunt of Miss Minnie Muse, formerly of Clanton, died in Maintou, Colorado, last Wednesday. The many friends of this good old lady in Clanton will regret to hear of her death. She moved with her daughter from here to Colorado some six or seven years ago.

A letter from W. M. Wyatt at Fort Payne says that he is liking his new location fine.

HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCES COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

With just a few more weeks of work the high school will close a very successful year. Students and teachers are busy plannnig for a very elaborate commencement season. The authorities of the school have been very successful in securing excellent speakers for commencement week. Commencement exercises will begin Sunday morning, May 13. The commencement sermon will be delivered by the Rev. H. C. Threadgill, pastor of the M. E. Church South of Andalusia, Ala. Mr. Threadgill will have the honor of preaching several commencement sermons this year and we are exceedingly fortunate in securing him for this occasion. On Tuesday evening following Miss Roberta Curry will present her music class in a recital. On Thursday evening the undergraduate play, "When East Meets West," will be presented. Graduating exercises will take place Friday evening. The address will be delivered by Dr. Spright Dowell, president of Alabama Polytechnic Institute of Auburn.

$5.00 Deposited in this Bank Will Enroll You in the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

Most of your neighbors drive motor cars. They can go where and when they please. Their cars play a large part in their daily life, furnishing them with quick and convenient transportation for both business and pleasure.

Realizing what the automobile means to the average family in bringing them greater enjoyment of life, we have arranged to extend the facilities of our bank to those who desire to become owners of Ford cars through the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Under this plan, you can begin with an initial deposit as low as $5.00. Then select the type of Ford car you want—Touring Car, Runabout, Coupe, Sedan, etc.—and arrange to make weekly deposits on same.

Come in and let us further explain the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan to you, or, if you wish, go to the Clanton Motor Car Co., Ford Dealer, for further details.

Start today, and before you realize it you will be driving your own car.

Better Flour—Better Biscuits

The best cook in the world can't make good biscuits with poor flour. You owe it to your reputation as a cook to use the highest grade of flour you can buy.

There is no better flour made than Gilster's Best. It costs a little more than ordinary flour, because we pay a premium for our wheat—and because the flour is ground finer and sifted oftener. But you can taste the quality in your biscuits.

If you prefer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

Boils

S.S.S. will prove to you in your own case the "how" and "why" of its remarkable Blood-Cleansing Power!

There is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It always wins! It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It builds nerve-power, thinking power, the tight-fisted power that whirls a man up into success. It gives women the health, the angelic complexion and the charm that moves the world! These are the reasons that have made S. S. S. today the great blood-cleanser, body-builder, success builder, and it's why results have made tears of joy flow from the souls of thousands! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th St., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

Try it yourself. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.

CLANTON, ALABAMA

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Although the spring has been unprecedentedly late, and frosts and cold winds and much rain have prevented much active farming, there is hope that we shall be able to produce something in "Thorsby Section" even though it be late. The most prominent and promising crop to be gathered in the near future is strawberries, which though seriously injured and delayed by late freezing weather, have so far recovered as to begin to show red berries here and there, and it is expected that shipping, at least in express lots, will begin early next week.

With a fruit growers association of upwards of 150 members and plantings of more than 250 acres, it is the intention of the management this season to put the crop on the market in up-to-date style. On Wednesday evening Mr. Carl C. Petersen, of the Fruit Growers Board of Directors, went to Castlebury one of the largest and most successful strawberry sections in Alabama, to investigate their methods and find, for the Thorsby Association, an experienced and competent inspector, who will grade their crop this season, without fear or favor, and so enable the Association to sell their fruit for what it actually is, and secure prices on that basis. There are many new members in the association this year who have been accustomed to be their own judge as to the quality of what they grow, and have had little experience in co-operative marketing which requires that there shall be standards of quality which must be adhered to no matter who grows the berries. Good stuff will most always sell at a good price, but let there be but a small percentage of inferior stock even in a carload and it is apt to fix the price of the whole lot. It takes a lot of patience and courage to be convinced that one man has not done as well as another, but if such is the fact and the judgment of an impartial inspector who has in view the ultimate success of the whole enterprise, it will be best for any such member to take his medicine and learn his lesson.

If we will we can profit a lot by the dearly bought experience of others who have long travelled the road which may be new to us.

Mr. Chester Maddox and Miss Nora Franklin were married last Sunday afternoon by Mr. Alfred Childress, J. P. Mr. Maddox was a graduate from Thorsby Institute in the class of '22 and was principal of Pate's Chapel school during the term recently closed.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. James oBsworth Thursday afternoon, April 19th.

Rev. J. W. Davenport and Mr. R. A. Eurner went to Birmingham Tuesday as delegates from the Congregational Sunday school to the State Sunday school convention at Birmingham. We made an effort to learn the names of delegates from other Sunday schools in Thorsby, but without success.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Williams have been quite ill for several days with flu. Mr. Williams was reported better Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Littleton and daughter Versie, have also had a visit from an unwelcome guest, the flu.

Mr. T. H. Bradford has sold his drug store in Thorsby to Mr. J. C. Jones, who for the past 26 years has been engaged in the drug business at various locations within the Birmingham district. Mr. Jones appears to be well posted in his business and withal of a pleasing personality, and we bespeak for him the cordial support of Thorsby people.

Miss Helen C. Jenkins, principal of Thorsby Institute, is planning to leave for New England about May 1st, in thhe interest of the school.

The Ladies' Guild of Thorsby will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ben Davenport Thursday afternoon, April 26th.

Mrs. Peter Gustafson, aged 86, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson where she had made her home for several months past. Her death occurred at 9 o'clock Monday morning and the funeral was held at the Johnson home at 2 o'clock p.m., Tuesday, Rev. E. W. Butler officiating. Mrs. Gustafson came to Thorsby about twenty years ago and was a woman who always attracted attention whenever she appeared on our streets by her unusual vigor for one so aged. Her husband left Thorsby about a year ago to enter an Old Folks Home at Chicago, but died before he reached the home.

Miss Anna Erdahl has taken a position in the office of Mr. Howard Foshee, county superintendent of education.

Last week was full of important happenings at Thorsby Institute or with matters connected therewith. On Tuesday the school picnic, in the Forsman woods. The day was ideal and fully occupied with the usual program for such an entertainment which was heartily enjoyed by all present.

On Thursday the regular quarterly meeting of the board of trustees was held at aBtes Hall. Rev. Lewis H. Keller, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga.; Rev. T. C. Casady of Birmingham; Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald, Mr. J. H. Goddard and Mr. A. E. Reagan, citizens of Thorsby, were elected trustees for a term of three years, all to succeed themselves. Officers elected for the ensuing year were Rev. Frank E. Jenkins, of Demorest, Ga., president; Rev. J. S. Eddins, vice-president, of Birmingham; Mr. S. E. Norton, secretary; Rev. E. W. Butler, treasurer; all to succeed themselves.

The following named persons were elected members of the faculty for the school year 1923-24: Mr. Owen Sappington, Mr. Waldemar Lefsted, Miss Catharine Perry, Miss Lois Leech, Miss E. J. Robinson and Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland. Miss Emily B. Ellsworth informed the board that she could not accept the position of associate principal for another term, much to the regret of the board. Miss Agnes and Miss Ruth Gerald have been active and efficient members of the faculty during the past year, but at their own request were not re-elected. Miss Ruth plans to go to college and Miss Agnes will probably take a position in North Carolina.

Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland, a member of the faculty detailed for field work, was also re-elected, and is expected to return to Thorsby at the end of April, to assist in carrying the faculty work during the absence of Miss Jenkins. Mrs. Martha B. Hunter was elected matron of the boys dormitory.

The Senior class of Thorsby Institute has chosen for their class hymn the song, I Would Be True. The words are as follows:

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love and ilft;
I would look up, and laugh, and love and lift.

The music has been written by Joseph Yates Peek and the words by Howard Arnold Walter, who gave his life in the World War.

Each of the classes in the school will choose a class hymn from the Hymnal for American Youth, a recent gift to the school.

The term examinations will be given on Thursday and Friday, April 19 and 20.

Preventative Medicine

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. Pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or attack of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the cold hangs on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.

Before Baby Comes--

EXPECTANT mothers do not undergo useless suffering any longer, and baby's birth can be made gloriously easier.

Mrs. Wm. Flack, 115 N. 12th St., Leavenworth, Kansas, says: "'Mother's Friend' is the best help in the world for an expectant mother. I am the mother of three children and have found 'Mother's Friend' fine."

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied about the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates wonderfully, and in this way allows the muscles and ligaments to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and at child-birth.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., DA-45, Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet containing valuable information every expectant mother should have.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. There is no substitute. Avoid useless greases and plain oils. Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better. "Mother's Friend" is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

This is a Studebaker Year

Studebaker outsold all other makes of cars in 1922 in Wayne County, Michigan (of which Detroit is the county seat) with the exception of two of the lowest priced ones.

To achieve a record like this in Detroit and Wayne County, which is admittedly one of the most discriminating motor car markets in the world, is a record of outstanding importance to Studebaker throughout the country.

Detroit knows motor cars and motor car values because the majority of the population is engaged directly or indirectly in some phase of the motor car industry. Detroit knows Studebaker because of the large production of Studebaker cars in that city and because of the high degree of satisfaction Studebaker cars give. And Detroit is partial to Studebaker cars for just one reason—the merit of the product. In St. Joseph County, Indiana of which South Bend is the county seat) a similar condition exists.

These records prove beyond any question of doubt that Studebaker is the best value on the market.

A LETTER FROM COOSA

April is here, spring is here, farmers are near; they fear the mud is so deep, they can't raise anything to eat; therefore they are making something to drink.

This county has three kinds of spirits—the good, the evil, and stimulating. The stimulating spirit far outnumbers others. The demand for this spirits is great. So there is much work to do. Let's hope there will soon be a change of spirits in Coosa county.

I am glad to see this beautiful spring day. It seems to me I enjoy spring best of all seasons of the year. I think we should appreciate all seasons and never complain of the weather, for it is God's will and His will is well. For me to appreciate nature's wonderful change, I take a walk over the beautiful hills of Gold-Branch. Nothing pleases me more than to hear the little birds singing in the trees above me while I gather the first flowers of spring on the ground, and note how fast the little buds of spring unfold, and the leaves grow.

I shall tell you about the people here. Our school closed about three weeks ago.

Mr. J. E. Womich and Miss Roumie Hammond were married and went to Elmore to live.

Mr. Oliver Culver and Miss Emma Johnson were married recently.

The sudden death of Mrs. R. A. Ezekiel was very sad of February 8, 1923.

Mrs. J. R. Smith was on the sick list but is better now.

Mrs. B. C. Hammond has not been feeling good for some time.

Mrs. Mag Duke is more feeble than usual.

Mr. Ben Calloway some times preaches at Vance's Chapel.

Mrs. J. D. Prater visited Mrs. R. F. —Johnson last Sunday.

Miss Lena Belle Plier is attending school at Marble Valley. She is expected to be home soon.

With best wishes to all.

ELIZABETH PRIM,
Weogufka, Alabama.

ENTERPRISE ITEMS

Health of this community is fairly good at present, except a few cases of measles.

Miss Emma Gray visited her cousin, Miss Vesta Gray Friday night.

Misses Mary and Emma Gray spent a few enjoyable hours with their sister, Mrs. W. D. Dykes Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dykes and two little sons Marion and Frank, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dykes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bone and little daughter Louise, spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. G. W. Gray.

Misses Mary, Verbie and Vesta Gray, Messrs. Sam Williams and Morris Bowles motored down to Indian Grave Sunday afternoon to the singing.

Miss Vesta Gray spent Sunday night with Miss Mary Gray.

Misses Bessie Logan and Emma Gray spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dykes.

Mrs. Eva Logan and children spent Sunday and Sunday night with Mrs. Martha Vinson.

NOT LEAVING

It having been reported that Mrs. D. O. Robinson was preparing to give up her music class and leave for the West, this is to correct that rumor.

Mrs. Robinson has no intention of that kind and is going to teach a summer class and be on hand ready for the Fall term.

She wishes to extend her thanks for your past liberal patronage and solicits like favors for the future.

LOCK 12 NOTES

Health of this community is very good at present, except measles.

MOONSHINERS PLANT TRAPS AND BELL TO WARN THEM OF RAID

New evidence of the moonshiners' ingenuity in protecting his still from the strong arm of the law was uncovered by a raiding party of state and county deputies in Shelby county Friday, when a still was found surrounded by a veritable labyrinth of steel traps, and with a bell engaged to ring out the alarm when the officers stepped on a concealed rope.

The still was captured but the scheme of defense adopted by the distillers worked well enough to give the men at the still a chance to make a get-away, which they availed themselves of without delay. According to reports received by Chief Walter K. McAdory, of the state law enforcement department, the rum-runners had a bell placed in a tree, while a concealed rope ran across the narrow pathway leading to the still, the rope being camouflaged with a thin covering af grass.

As the officers crept up the pass leading to the still, someone planted a husky boot on the hidden rope, and the bell promptly sounded forth the alarm. The moonshiners made a clean get-away as a result.

The ground around the still was found sown with bear traps, some of the officers narrowly escaped, and a sack full of additional traps was found at the still. The still, which was of 150-gallon capacity was destroyed, with 1,000 gallons of beer.

PROGRAM FOR UNION MEETING OF THE CLANTON MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

The union meeting of the Clanton Ladies' Missionary Societies will be held at the Baptist Church, Tuesday, May the first, at three-thirty o'clock.

Not only are the ladies of the city requested to be present but also the ladies from all near-by churches are cordially invited.

By changing the time of meeting from Monday to Tuesday afternoon, the committee has been fortunate enough to secure Miss Alice Huey as principal speaker. Miss Huey is a missionary, home on a furlough from the North China Mission, where she has been a most successful worker for many years. A treat is in store for us as Miss Huey is a very gifted peaker. Every one should make a special effort to be present.

MACEDONIA

This entire community was saddened by the death of Mrs. Sallie Gipson last Thursday. She bore her suffering with patience, never murmuring or complaining. She called her two little children, Briggs and Bronzell, to her just a few hours before her death and told them that their mother would have to die and leave them, and then told all at her bedside that she hated to leave them but she would have to die.

All was done for her that the faithful Dr. Woods and his wife and loving hands of her devoted husband, her many relatives and friends could do, but the Lord saw fit to call her from the walks of men.

She was a faithful member of the Baptist church, a devoted and loving wife and mother and a friend to all.

To know her was to love her. A place in the home is vacant that can never be filled.

Her relatives have our sincere condolence, but let's not grieve as those that have no hope, for we have the consolation that Sallie is safe in the arms of Jesus.

She has left us but her influence will live on. Funeral services were conducted by beloved pastor, Bro. W. P. Lowery.

A duet, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Veazey. Also "Death is Only a Dream." She was laid to rest in the Macedonia cemetery.

NOTICE TO ROAD OVERSEERS

In sending out road overseers commissions my clerk made a mistake in the time the commissions expire. They read that the commission expires in February, 1923, and should read expires in February, 1925.

The records are correct and shows that the commissions expires in February, 1925.

Each overseer is appointed for two years, and until their successors are appointed.

Respectfully,
L. H. REYNOLDS,
Judge of Probate.

Mrs. J. Mitchell Gains 30 Pounds

Long-Standing Stomach Trouble Completely Overcome By Tanlac, Declares Columbus Lady.

"I was sick for a year and lost thirty pounds, but the Tanlac treatment ended all my troubles, I regained my lost weight, and my wonderful improvement was the talk of all my friends," said Mrs. James Mitchell, 107 16th St., Columbus, Ga.

"I suffered with chronic indigestion, became dreadfully run-down and weak and I fell off until I was little more than a skeleton. My nerves were frightfully excited and I felt that life held nothing for me.

"What others said in the papers started me taking Tanlac and the way it built me up was astonishing. It gave me a good appetite, my indigestion has disappeared, my nerves are steady and I get plenty of sleep. I can work all day without getting too tired. Several of my friends have taken Tanlac on my advice and all have had splendid results. I am more grateful than I can express for the good it did me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

BETHANY FACTS

Health is very good at present, except the same trouble, a few bad colds.

We are indeed glad to state that Mrs. C. B. Huett, who has been in the hospital in Montgomery is back home now. She seems to be improving fairly well.

Mr. Robert Hines of this community was the first man o plant any cotton. I fear he shall have to plant again. However, we hope everybody will be successful in getting good germination from their seeds.

Several from this community went down to Indian Grave Sunday afternoon to the singing. All report a nice time.

On April 8th Mr. Tonnie Huett and Miss Carry Culpepper were happily united in marriage. We all hope them a happy life.

$25 REWARD

I will pay a reward of $25 for the arrest of Robert Moore, colored, 5 feet and 10-ins. tall, weight about 165 lbs., rough black, slab jaws and talks fine. Is wearing new overall suit and new pair of Star Brand shoes. Negro is wanted for skipping bond. Notify

OAK GROVE

We are glad to say that health in this community is very good at present. There has been several cases of the flu but are glad to say they are all doing fine.

Our Sunday school is growing very fast, as most of the older people are coming and taking a part which we are proud to see.

Sunday was singing evening here. There was a large crowd. Center Hill and Providence classes were with us. We were glad to have them here and ask them to come again. We had several directors who sang from two to three songs; one quartet by Mr. W. J. Northcutt, Miss Roberta Martin, Mr. Paul Wilson and Mr. Bill Cofer. Every first and thir Sunday are our regular singing days. Everybody has an invitation to come.

Our B. Y. P. U. is still growing very fast. We had some new members Sunday night. We had a very fine program. Miss Rosa Lee Martin was in charge. Had a good talk by Mrs. Falkner and many readers. We also had several good quartettes which everybody enjoyed. We are very proud of our B. Y. P. U., and want to make it grow more and more.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. We ask everybody to come. We are sure you will hear some good sermons.

The Y. W. A. will meet at the church Saturday evening. Ask all the young girls to come and join us.

Mr. Jess L. Matthews is at home again. Everyone is glad to see him back again.

Mr. Bob Williams was visiting his relatives here Sunday.

Mr. Walter Northcutt visited here Sunday.

Miss Ollie Glass spent the night with Lesta Cobb Saturday night.

The W. M. U. gave an all day program last Saturday. All that didn't come missed some good speaking and also a good dinner.

Mrs. C. L. Martin gave a singing Saturday night and everybody enjoyed the singing and string music.

THE ANNUAL MAY SINGING

Mr. J. W. Cleckler of Providence asks us to announce that the second annual May singing will be held at Providence Church, Beat 16, on the fourth Sunday in May. You will remember that this is the same singing that has been being held at Salem for the past twenty years, but as that church was forced to dissolve, their sister church, Providence, took up their singing for them. All singers and lovers of good music are invited to come.

Canning Factory Work Progresses

We are pleased to state through the paper that the elementary work of the canning factory is fast taking on concrete form now, and in a very few days everything will be in readiness to begin constructing the necessary buildings and placing the machinery. By the time this paper reaches you, doubtless all of the necessary capital will have been subscribed; and already more acreage of canable produce has been signed for than was at first hoped for.

Mr. Clay, the factory man in charge of the work, has decided to place a factory here of greater capacity than he first figured on, since he has been favored with such strong support for the proposition by both farmers and business men of Clanton. The plant will work thirty to fifty people and will have a capacity of 25,000 cans daily; it will operate about nine months each year.

At a meeting of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce Monday, it was decided that the business men of Clanton take it upon themselves to subscribe the remaining five thousand dollars which is now lacking on the subscription list. Already the farmers of the county have subscribed ten thousand dollars, and would take care of the other five thousand, but being that it is a co-operative plan, it was decided that the people in town ought to be given a chance to help. About a thousand dollars was subscribed at the meeting, and a committee was appointed to solicit among the other business men for the remainder. So if you have not already been waited on, you may get ready, for Vic Heard and two or three more will be around to your place of business in a day or two. They will be prepared to explain the matter to you thoroughly. I will state that no one is asked to donate anything, but that you will be asked to buy stock with the understanding that you be given a good interest on your money. We know Clanton will take care of the five thousand easily.

The United Farmers of America is a "going" organization, and it is going to show the people that the farmers are really and truly the backbone of our country. We are indeed glad that they saw fit to place their headquarters here, and also that they have made the canning factory a reality.

NEW BUSINESS HOUSE OPENED

Last week a brand new, nice and up-to-date dry goods store was opened up in the Wright Building, recently vacated by Main Street Garage. The building has been thoroughly renovated, and it has been changed into a beautiful little dry goods store. Mr. Sam Temerson, formerly of Birmingham, is the proprietor, and the name of the business is Temerson's Popular Price Store. Read his announcement in this paper.

TWO AGED SISTERS DIED AT SAME TIME IN COOSA THURSDAY

Goodwater, Ala., April 20.—Mrs. Calvin Beasley and Mrs. J. T. Spivey, residing near Hanover, both being very old, and sisters, died practically at the same time and were interred near the same place yesterday.

OAK HILL NEWS

The United Singing Society met in regular session at this place Sunday afternoon with such a large crowd of singers and spectators in attendance that one not accustomed to visiting our society would think that it was an all-day singing. The house was filled to its capacity, which is said to be about five hundred and we believe there were equally as many on the outside who could not find room in the church. Many stood at the windows and in the doors and listened so attentively to the sweet songs sung by that great class of singers, which was composed of the best singers from almost all parts of the county, and especially the Clanton quartette, which rendered five selections between each director and held that great audience almost spellbound, for all eyes were fixed on them and everyone listened with great interest to their sweet singing from the beginning to the end of each song. The United Singing Society's quartette rendered some fine selections which were also appreciated by all who heard them.

Those who directed were: Messrs. Bill Cofer, E. L. Glasscock, Burl Martin, E. H. Foshee, L. R. Cobb, Vester Campbell, A. H. Glasscock and Vernon Northcutt. There were other directors but they were excused by their own request.

Organists for the evening were Misses Lena Glasscock, Esther Atkinson, Flossie Cobb and Mrs. Velpo Mims.

President E. L. Glasscock, in his usual good natured way made us all feel welcome and perfectly at home and it was indeed a great pleasure to be there for the entire evening was a source of joy, peace and happiness, as is always the case where peace, harmony and brotherly love prevails.

The United Singing Society will meet with the Providence class at Providence Church, Beat 13, next Sunday, April 29th, and will meet with New Salem class on the first Sunday in May at New Salem. All the United Singing Society is requested and expected to attend each of the above named places and dates. All others who will are invited to go. Don't miss it, for if you do you will miss what we think to be the best time of your life.

We were very glad to have Mr. Vernon Northcutt with us again for it has been so long since we had the pleasure of seeing his smiling face and hearing his loving voice in our society; although we regret very much that his father, Mr. J. B. Northcutt is very ill at the Central Alabama Hospital at Clanton, but all of his friends hope for him a speedy recovery, that he may soon return home not only to fill his place around the fireside with his loved ones, but to fill his place in the United Singing Society where he is greatly missed.

FAMOUS VAUGHAN QUARTET WILL SING AT CLANTON

The music lovers of the county will be gratified to learn that the Vaughan Quartet which was here a year ago, will be on hand at the special session of the Chilton County Singing Convention to be held at the High School Building on Sunday, May 20th, the 3rd Sunday. We are requested to extend to everybody in reach a cordial invitation to be present, and the convention assures you that you will be royally entertained.

We regret to learn that Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wyatt are moving this week to Coopers.

THERE HAS BEEN NO GUMSHOEING

Washington, April 23.—"Whatever other political crimes the critics of the Republican party may charge against it, they certainly cannot truthfully charge it with gumshoeing," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "While the Republican party, under the leadership of President Harding, has not been attempting to ride roughshod over the people and the business of the country, neither has it tried to operate stealthily nor to evade important issues.

"Probably the most important issue presented to the Harding administration was that of the League of Nations. Mr. Harding met the issue frankly in the last campaign when he declared that Mr. Cox favored going into the league while he favored staying out. He has adhered to that position. That is not gumshoeing.

"At the beginning of his administration, Mr. Harding believed that relief for the agricultural industries was the first problem to be met, and he did not delay. He called a special session of Congress which enacted the emergency agricultural tariff and provided funds for the farm loan board. Harding put the War Finance Corporation into action to finance exports of farm products, and recommended and signed a farm credits law. That is not gumshoeing.

"One of the most discussed subjects in the nation today is the prohibition amendment and the prohibition enforcement law. Harding supported both the amendment and the enforcement law, is doing his utmost to secure the observance of both, and declares his opposition to change in the law. However much any man may differ with Harding on the merits of the question, no man can charge him with gumshoeing.

"Harding believed in a ship subsidy as a means of giving the United States a merchant marine at a greatly reduced cost to the treasury. He was defeated in Congress on that issue but he can scarcely be charged with gumshoeing on the subject.

"Harding wanted peace and limitation of armaments. He called a conference at Washington and secured treaties settling controversies which seemed likely to affect this country, and also agreements for reduction of armaments. That was not gumshoeing.

"Harding wanted reduction of Federal expenditures and on his recommendation the Republican Congress cut appropriations and repealed numerous taxes. The Harding administration has cut nearly 100,000 civilians off the public payroll. That was not done stealthily, but openly. It is not a species of gumshoeing.

"Harding has opposed recognition of the bolshevik regime in Russia and has said so openly. He declines to have diplomatic relations with nations that are notorious crooks. However much the enemies of the Republican party may differ with Harding on that matter, they cannot honestly charge him with gumshoeing.

"Harding has believed that every criminal act is an individual matter and he has refused to grant a group pardon to men convicted of interfering with the prosecution of the war. However much other men may differ with him on that matter, they cannot truthfully charge him with gumshoeing.

"And such is the record of the Republican administration under the Harding leadership, in whatever particular it be examined. Mr. Harding does not attempt to dictate, for he recognizes the constitution as the fundamental law of the land. Nor, on the other hand, does he proceed by that method commonly known in politics as gumshoeing."

TRANSMISSION LINE TO CONNECT TOWNS

Construction of an electric transmission line which will connect the towns of Centerville and Brent with the transmission system of the Alabama Power Company is contemplated in a petition filed with the Alabama Public Service Commission by the power company Thursday. The petition asks the issuance by the commission of a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing the proposed construction of the new transmission line. The matter will have the commission's formal consideration at a hearing to be held on April 25.

Our good old lady friend, Mrs. Annie V. Peters recently sent us word by her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Cleckler, to send her The Union-Banner. 100 CASES BEFORE BOARD PARDONS

Full List of Decisions Not Expected Within Next Thirty Days.

Montgomery, Ala., April 26.—The state pardon board, composed of Attorney-General Harwell Davis, Secretary of State Sid Blan, State Auditor W. B. Allgood, had before it at its April meeting on April 10 an even 100 cases. These cases are now being considered one by one, each member of the board reading carefully every file. It will likely take the rest of the month to conclude and hand down decisions in all of these cases, as each member of the board has his duties of office in addition to the pardon board work.

In March the board handled 64 cases, of which 53 wer edenied, eight recommended for paroles and three for full pardon, the latter three having been out of prison for some years and having "made good." The board has a fixed rule to first parole a prisoner and to watch his conduct for from two to four years before granting a full pardon and restoration of citizenship.

Cases heard by the board at the April session, an derimes for which the prisoners were convicted were as follows:

Violation prohibition laws, 34; murder, 21; grand larceny, 14; manslaughter, 10; burglary, 4; assault to murder, 4; forgery, 3; rape, 3; robbery, 3; arson, 2; carnal knowledge, 1; bigamy, 1.

NEW BUNGALOW GOING UP

Work began Monday morning on the big new bungalow of Mr. M. A. Gore on the corner of Second venue and Fourth Street, next to the residence of Mr. Luckie. Mr. Gore is building a house here for his own use, and says that he is going to construct a jam up one. It will contain six rooms and bath, all built in one story. We learn that he has already rented his old house where he now lives to Mr. A. N. Miner.

Mr. Gore is a hustling business man, and is always awake to the progress of the times. He has just recently added the second story to his store house on Main Street.

The building boom which Clanton entered a few weeks ago is still rushing on. There is more building of residences going on all over town naw that there ever was before.

JNO. T. ELLIS & SONS ARE APPOINTED BUICK DEALERS

Owing to the steady growth of Buick sales in Chilton county and to better serve the interests of Buick owners and prospective owners in this territory, the Atlanta Branch of the Buick Motor Company has appointed an Authorized Buick Dealer for Chilton county.

The announcement which appears in today's paper to the effect that John T. Ellis & Sons will handle the Buick franchise will meet with general approval, as these men have established an enviable record as reliable, enterprising business men.

The appointment of an authorized Buick dealer in Clanton means that Buick owners in this territory will have available quicker facilities for servce. John T. Ellis & Sons will maintain a Buick service department in charge of a reliable mechanic, who is well trained in Buick construction. The Buick company lays a great deal of stress on the quality of service rendered by Buick dealers, not because the Buick car needs unusual service attention, but to insure uninterrupted use of their Buick transportation by Buick owners.

The Ellis organization will also carry in stock at all times genuine Buick parts not only for the present models but for models several years back. They have access also to the immense stock carried by the Atlanta Branch and can secure in twenty-four hours any Buick part which they do not have in Clanton.

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

Clanton, Ala., April 15, 1923.

We, the Men's Bible Class, Clanton, Ala., to J. J. Pickens and wife, greetings:

1. We desire to express to you our thanks for your faithful labors as our teacher, and otherwise, while in our midst.

2. As a class we want to express our deep felt loss in your going from our midst.

3. We desire to express our heartfelt sympathey and interest in your trials and sorrows.

4. We want to express our hopes and prayers for a speedy recovery and return to our midst.

Your true friends,
H. S. SHAW, President.
S. E. ALVERSON, Teacher.
For the Class.

Federal Prohibition Agent, W. H. Gillespie of Montgomery was here to spend Saturday night and Sunday with his family.

Mr. Z. R. Mahan of Vida, Ala., with the Alabama Power Company, was in Clanton last week-end attending to business. Mr. Mahan has been with the power company for three years and has lost only two days during that time. By his fidelity he has attained a responsible job with this company.

HULL'S HULLABALOO

Washington, April 23.—"The minute the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee read in the newspapers that the price of sugar had gone up, he sent forth a blast against the new tariff, blaming it for high sugar," remarks the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "The tariff on sugar was increased one-fifth of a cent a pound over the emergency tariff rate. The increase in price, December to February was 3 1-2 cents a pound, or about 18 times the tariff increase. The sugar men themselves warned of sugar speculation, and the speculators admitted that was the cause of the increase, blaming a government prediction of shortage because speculation occurred. 'The government forecast, by the way, did not specify a shortage, but it did predict that there would be a smaller carry-over this year than last. However, the speculators interpreted that to suit themselves, so the Government is going back to look into their little game.

"Now, just about the time sugar was advancing, the price of crude rubber was also going up. It is surmised that the Democratic Chairman had made arrangements to blame that to the tariff when somebody tipped him that crude rubber was on the free list, so he had to call it off. British control of crude rubber was the chief reason for aviation in price, to which might be added the fact that the prosperity prospects are so great our automobile manufacturers are preparing for the biggest sales in history, and that means record rubber purchases for tires.

"When the Republicans put a protective tariff on potatoes, the Democrats declared this would add millions of dollars to the cost of living. They added the tariff to each bushel of potatoes consumed. The tariff on potatoes is about 30 cents a bushel, and the supply is so great that the growers have been receiving less per bushel than the tariff thereon. At the time the Democratic Chairman took his fling at the sugar tariff, potatoes were being advertised by a chain store right under his nose at about 3 cents a pound, or more than six times what the grower received for them. Freighting, handling, commissions, and profits had step-laddered the price. And one could go still further and point to the fact that a baked Idaho potato served in a Washington restaurant cost the consumer just about what a bushel of those potatoes sold for on the Idaho farm.

"The tariff was not even thought of in all these transactions. But if we had free potatoes, they would come pouring in just as soon as the price in this country warranted.

"Chairman Hull is wrong as usual."

NEW METHODIST CHURCH

Work began last week tearing down the old frame structure on the Methodist Church site. The old building will be out of the way in a few days, and work will begin at once on the new brick edifice. The new building is to cost around forty thousand dollars, and will be built of about the same material and kindly on the same order of the new Baptist Church. But of course, the Methodists say it will be just a little nicer.

Prominent Aged Citizen is Dead

William Job Reynolds, one of the pioneer citizens of Chilton county, departed this life at Jemison, Ala., on April 19, 1923. Mr. Reynolds was born in Macon county, Alabama, on March 24, 1844, where he spent his early boyhood days. He volunteered and joined the Confederate Army when he was 16 years of age, serving four years and was wounded at Perryville, Kentucky, just as he was going over the breast works, making a charge on the enemy. A minnie ball struck him in the face, lodging just above the right eye, and remained there for 48 years before it was extracted in 1912. The ball weighed two and one-half ounces. Shortly after the war he came to Chilton county and resided here until his death. During his early and middle age years he was a farmer by occupation, but about thirty years before his death he became a Baptist minister, and remained in this service until his death, having joined the Missionary Baptist Church when he was a young man. During his career as a minister he established and founded four Baptist churches.

He was a man of the old school, of the rugged and pioneer type, a man who believed in the teachings of Christianity, in the protection of country and home even until death itself. His life in a financial way was a struggle, but he was ever willing to share whatever he had to assist a needy brother. It is said of him that one of his outstanding characteristics was his unchanging patience, that he could look adversity and prosperity in the face and treat these two imposters just the same, that he accepted his lot without a murmur and was found steadfastly true to his trust even until the last breath of life had left his senile body. His work for the service of God, and his love for humanity, and his pertinacity to his trust mark for him a well spent and profitable life.

He leaves behind to mourn his death, a widow, his first wife having died in 1892, thirteen children, fifty-four grand children and twenty-five great grand children, and a host of friends.

He was laid to rest at Providence church where his first wife was buried and where his membership had been for fifty years, Brothers S. J. Ezell and C. C. Wilkerson of Clanton officiating.

In the death of this man, the county has lost a type of the passing Southern gentlemen, one of those old gentlemen who saw our State and Country in its formative period, and helped to instill those principles upon which we so much pride ourselves.

In the passing of this good old gentleman we can not mourn his loss with that spirit of reverential awe which he so rightly deserved. But we are consoled in the belief that he has passed over, like his other comrades in the cause, to that land from whose bourne no traveller ever returns, and where all is happiness and sunshine, to meet once again his comrades of old.

Mrs. W. A. Crowsdn and little daughter, who have been visiting their parents and grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Farley for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Gilbertown, Ala., Sunday. They were accompanied by Miss Marguerite Farley.

THE OLDEST BANK In Chilton County

A SICK MAN SAID:

"I wouldn't WORRY so much now, Doctor, if I had only saved more of my money for a time like this."

It often takes a touch of adversity to really open a man's eyes. The only trouble with that is it may then be too late. The time to save is now. The place for the savings is in our reliable Bank. Old age, sickness, death, these are as certain as youth, health and strength, and in every case a bang account comes in handy.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Reynolds and sons were the guests of relatives here last week.

Queer Feelings

"Some time ago, I was very irregular," writes Mrs. Cora Robie, of Pikeville, Ky. "I suffered a great deal, and knew I must do something for this condition. I suffered mostly with my back and a weakness in my limbs. I would have dreadful headaches. I had hot flashes and very queer feelings, and oh, how my head hurt! I read of

CARDUI

and of others, who seemed to have the same troubles I had, being benefited, so I began to use it. I found it most beneficial. I took several bottles .... and was made so much better I didn't have any more trouble of this kind. It regulated me."

Cardui has been found very helpful in the correction of many cases of painful female disorders, such as Mrs. Roble mentions above. If you suffer as she did, take Cardui—a purely vegetable, medicinal tonic, in use for more than 40 years. It should help you.

U. S. PROSPERITY IS NOT JUST A MERE COINCIDENCE

We Have it in Spite of Adverse Conditions Existing Elsewhere Through out the World; the Republican Administration and The Republican Tariff Policy Are Entitled to The Bulk of The Credit.

I want to call attention to the wave of business activity and prosperity that is now upon this nation, and in doing so I state very definitely that this prosperity is not the result of worldwide conditions nor is it mere coincidence. It has been stimulated by the enactment of needed tariff legislation and is brought to us in spite of adverse conditions existing elsewhere throughout the world.

In 1913 when the Underwood bill was in course of enactment we listened to the glowing predictions of the friends of free trade; they passed their tariff bill that fall and during the winter that followed we watched those glowing predictions go astray. They promised us increased export, but our exports declined; they promised us increased prosperity, but realization came in the form of bread lines and unemployment. We read newspaper accounts of the 4,000,000 unemployed and how the crowds storming the gates of Ford's factory were dispersed with the fire hose.

During the past year, while the new law was under consideration, we have heard the free trade predictions of calamity, and we have prosperity. They have predicted an abrupt end to our foreign trade, but our foreign trade has increased. Instead of reading of unemployment, the press tells us of labor shortage. As a patroatic duty and with all the earnestness in me, I urge upon all of you to consider the times. Why turn back again when the avenues to prosperity are so clearly indicated?

There is a menace to our national welfare that I would like to emphasize at this opportune time. The menace to which I refer has caused financial losses, suffering, and want in a measure too great to estimate. This menace, my friends, is the susceptibility of a considerable portion of our people to the pleasant but utterly fallacious argument that conditions can be created whereby everything we want to sell can be sold at a high price and everything we want to buy can be bought at a low price. May this dangerous but pleasant sounding contention, which is so impossible of fulfillment, never again lead this nation from the road of prosperity.

Depression and Prosperity

Business depression and lack of purchasing power go hand in hand, and with them come declining values, low wages, business failures, and unemployment. And we find with prosperity increased purchasing power, increased values, high wages, abundance of employment, and business activity and success.

We are well off when we can purchase what we want, and what better evidence is there of the nation's ability to purchase than actual increase of purchases? What better evidence of the ability of our people to have homes than the fact that the building of homes is increasing by leaps and bounds? What better evidence can there be of the ability of our people to ride in automobiles than the fact that more automobiles are being built and sold than ever before? The Department of Agriculture reports recently issued showed an increase in the consumption of meat in the United States of over 600,000,000 pounds in 1922 as compared with 1921—what better evidence of the ability of Americans to purchase meat? The Washington Post of January 30 reports that a survey of 77 per cent of savings institutions shows an increase in savings accounts accounts during the last year of $500,000,000—what better evidence can there be of our ability to provide for the future? The Post Office Department announces that in the six months ending December 31 last a billion more stamps were issued than during the corresponding six months one year previous, and as a result of the increasing demand for stamps the reserve supply has fallen to 200,000,000 below what is estimated as a safe margin. This is a barometer of prosperity. The Washington Post of January 28, quoting from reports of the Department of Commerce, shows that the record retail sales of the month of December were maintained in January.

During the past few years some faulty international free trade argument has found surprisingly fertile soil in the minds of many of our bankers of prominence. They have led especially in the large cities in predicting calamity as the result of increase of tariff rates, but even upon the unwilling prosperity has been thrust. A few days ago my attention fell upon the following headline in the morning paper, "Boom in industry reflected in banks," and below this heading is the report of the Comptroller of the Currency, showing an increase in the resources of the banks of the country of $2,031,215,000 during the year just ended.

The Emergency Tariff.

In the spring of 1921 a depression of major magnitude seemed imminent. Farmers were especially hard hit and their inability to purchase caused serious losses to retailers and manufacturers. In May the emergency tariff act was passed. It was hastily enacted and a makeshift, but it stemmed the tide. The indications of better times, however, were soon in evidence—increased purchases of agriculturists helped other lines of trade. It marked the beginning of business revival, and since then business improvement has been constant and certain. In September, 1922, a tariff law carefully studied out, was passed to take the place of the incomplete emergency act. It protected not only the product of the farm but also the product of the factory. The new law has now been in force for five months; they have been months of progress. Increase in building and in the consumption of food and clothing tell us the American people are better clothed, better fed, and that housing conditions are improving.

Since the war a new anti-protection argument has been concocted. It is as faulty as the rest. It is a plausible sounding contention that we cannot sell unless we buy from Europe; that free trade will aid Europe and thus aid us; and that Europe must pay her debt to us in goods. Analyze it. We find only the old proposal to surrender American markets to the product of lowly paid labor of other countries. The ultimate consequences of such a policy would neither be a help to Europe nor a help to ourselves. It would bring upon us a period of depression; and let me sound the warning that any policy that will bring business stagnation to the United States will only tend to add to the world's burdens. On the other hand, prosperity in America will reflect in Europe and place us in a position to help Europe. We can best aid Europe by seeing to it that all in America are well employed at high wages, for then America will be the best market in the world for foreign as well as domestic products. You have heard prophecies that high tariff rates will stop importations, but since the tariff law our importations have actually increased. That is evidence that when the purchasing power of America is high other countries find a ready market in the United States, and that it is our ability to purchase rather than tariff rates that influences our import trade.

Food For Thought.

Without stating causes or drawing conclusions, let me place before you a contrast as food for thought. In the United States last year the consumption of sugar was 102 pounds per capita, while in Russia the consumption of sugar was but 5 pounds per capita. This unvarnished statement should cause a person to think in the right direction. What a poor market is the country without industry and production.

When other arguments fail, the free trader talks of finding a market for our surplus production. They ask what will happen when our production exceeds domestic consumption. In reply, I would ask, when do we have surpluses? We have surpluses, my friends, when people right here in United States have their purchasing power diminished; we have surpluses when Americans are unemployed in the periods of business depression. During times of prosperity this question of surplus production far exceeds its consumpal analysis the market for the world's production is only the world. If one nation so shapes its policies that its production for exceeds its consumption it compels some other nation to consume more than it produces. With proper national policies, production in America will greatly increase, and with it will come increased consumption. Why talk of a surplus production in America while there is so much room for better homes, better schools, better streets, and highways, and publit buildings? To me increased production means increased earnings—not necessarily measured in dollars but in the comforts and enjoyments of life, and the time has not yet arrived when the American people have all the comforts, improvements, and advantages to which they are entitled. They can consume much more than at present of the product of effort in America. The consuming power of our people is almost without limit. Certainly labor in America can profitably be employed in caring for domestic needs without serious problems arising in connection with the disposal of surplus production.

Incomes and Income Taxes.

There are two ways of increasing income tax receipts—the first, and the unpleasant way, is to increase the rate of taxation; the second and the better way is to increase incomes. We are about to witness the result of the second method. Earnings in the year 1922, as compared with the year 1921, were increased and were reflected in the income-tax installment paid into the Treasury on March 15. This increase will balance our budget and place us on the right side of the ledger, and in no small measure is the tariff the cause. Of all tariff laws the emergency act and the more recent permanent act are revenue producers, direct and indirect, surpassing all expectations.

Customs receipts for the current fiscal year were first set at $350,000,000; they were later increased to $375,000,000, $400,000,000, then $410,000,000, then increased to $440,000,000 and to $450,000,000; recently it was estimated that they would reach $480,000,000, and now it appears that custims receipts will certainly exceed $500,000,000, and may possibly reach the sum of $530,000,000. Add to this the increase in income-tax receipts that will surely come from increased incomes, and you will have the results, from the standpoint of revenue, of a truly revenue - producing tariff law.—Joseph W. Fordney in National Republican.

CLOSING EXERCISES CLANTON PUBLIC SCHOOL, MAY 18

The final exercises of Clanton Public School will be held at the Court House on Friday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock. We cannot have these exercises earlier without serious bad effect and if we wait later, it will be after the close of the High school. To have our exercises follow theirs makes an undesirable contrast. We thank Sheriff Littlejohn for allowing us to use the Court House.

Don't forget the date, May 18th.

Firestone

Will Not Increase Prices on Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires Until May 1st

Never has Firestone been so well situated to give operators the greatest measure of Cushion, Traction and Mileage at the lowest cost.

Today, economical manufacturing and distribution are showing the fullest results. Our favorable purchases of rubber, in advance of the 150% increase brought about by the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act, aid further in maintaining the old price levels.

Whatever the Truck Service—the Firestone Dealer Has the Right Tire

Firestone developments of the past two years have made pace for the industry and set new records in sure, economical performance. Five tires—the Heavy Duty Cushion, the Truck Type Cord, the Maxi-Cushion, the Giant Solid and the High Type—cover the needs of motor haulage in all its forms. Each has a distinct work which it does best. Each possesses a definite and special value for the operator.

Truck owners, using pneumatic tires, will find the answer to every demand of rapid, economical transportation in the Firestone Truck Type Cords with the tread that increases carrying capacity and improves traction, and the powerful gum-dipped carcass construction.

Let the Firestone Service Dealers Keep Your Trucks Moving

There are 800 Firestone Service Dealers, located in the principal trucking centers, fitted by natural ability and a thorough knowledge of trucking, to help you choose the right tire for your roads, loads and service.

Price Protection as Long as Stocks Last

Additional tires will be supplied to Service Dealers only so far as our present output will permit. Consult the nearest Firestone Service Dealer at once regarding your truck tire needs. He is in an advantageous position to give you an unusual tire—a specialized service—and prices which may not be duplicated in months.

Our American bolshevists pretend to be for free speech but if they had the power they would hang every last one of their opponents.

If lots of new automobiles is any sign of prosperity, Chilton county is certainly on a boom; because on Saturday afternoon you can't get thru the streets for these gas wagons.

Clanton is helping the United Farmers build a canning factory now, and in a few months the United Farmers are going to reciprocate by helping Clanton build a cotton factory. Clanton is going to amount to something in spite of itself.

Samuel M. Vauclain, head of the Baldwin locomotive works, says the country will need a million homes in the next five years to take care of a million new married couples and a million babies. If that is so, Mr. Vauclain might do well to change his business from engines to baby carriages.—Mobile Mobilizer.

The municipal officers are doing their part toward making Clanton a fit place to love in. Are you backing them up? Eliminate that pig pen and open closet and install water works in your house. That is the only way to keep your place healthy and sanitary, and you owe it to yourself and your neighbor.

Entirely too many of our people waste all of their time crabbing about bad conditions and the faults of people. Save your steam and get busy trying to better things. What we need is more men of action and less men with their steam gauge registering around a thousand and continually popping off through the mouth.

The grand jury of Mobile county in a recent investigation of the "vice" conditions in the city of Mobile refuted the charges of the Mobile press that vice is rife in Mobile and has been allowed to flourish by reason of connivance of the police and Mayor Taylor and the city commissioners. They say a great injustice has been done the police and city officials.

This dancing business in our country has come to be a fright. At the present time the dance hall is the blackest abasement which the human race posseses. It is twice as bad as the liquor traffic ever was, because both sexes are being perverted by it into darkest disgrace. Who will be our Moses of the Twentieth Century and rescue our American society from this deadly ophidian?

DR. ARTHUR JOHNSON CHANGING THINGS

Another very extensive change was launched the first of this week, when Dr. Arthur Johnson began moving his present residence to the corner lot just east of where it has been standing. In the lot thus made vacant he is going to construct one or more nice brick business houses some time in the near future.

THE DeKALB REPUBLICAN

We have on our desk this week the first issue of a brand new newspaper, The DeKalb Republican. This publication comes from Fort Payne, Ala., and reflects the progressive spirit of that town and section. The publishers are W. M. Wyatt, Editor and M. D. Foshee, Business Manager. These men are well known in Chilton county, and their many warm friends here will be glad to learn of their splendid new adventure.

The DeKalb Republican possesses the right kind of pep from the start, which proves without a doubt that it is going to do great things for Fort Payne, DeKalb County and Alabama. Politically it is strictly Republican, but that is not all. It is going to use its utmost efforts toward the general improvement educationally, industrially, morally, and otherwise, of its community, county and State.

The men behind this paper are hustlers and know not what the word failure means. They are undertaking a big proposition, but they are going to work it to a finish, not only to their personal credit but to the repute and honor of the county and State. There is a great work of this kind to be done in Alabama, and we are proud to see Chilton county men assuming the responsibilities and marching forward, extending the battle line even beyond the Chilton county boundary. Go to it boys, and rest assured that old Chilton county will be continually backing you up and boosting you to the limit of our ability. We hate to lose you at home, but we know you are needed in other and broader fields; so good luck to you.

TAX LAWS AND TRUCKS

Out of 14,743,000 automobiles in the world, the United States has 12,364,000. Henry Ford says that 20 years from now freight will be moved by motor truck and in the air. The development of the motor industry in this country would indicate some truth to his statement. In the meantime, however, tax laws will have to be materially revised so that truck operators will pay a larger per centage of the cost of road building and maintenance. Railroads have been forced to build their own roadbeds with no help from the state, except in a few instances, while motor trucks pay in taxes but a small part of the value they get from the roads built by the taxpayers' money. As truck traffic increases, the taxpayers are entitled to a more equitable adjustment.

SUPERFLUOUS WARNING

Mr. Gompers warns the Republican party not to adopt any anti-organized labor plank in its 1924 platform. The warning is superfluous. When did any Republican ever announce himself as opposed to organized labor? Some of the practices vigorously championed by Mr. Gompers, in which organized labor has indulged, have been condemned by every right-minded person, Republican and Democrat alike. The denial of work to any person seeking employment unless that person happens to hold a union card is a proposition that cannot be supported for a moment, however much it may be endorsed by Mr. Gompers. The rejection of that proposition is not a denunciation of organized labor, but simply a restatement of the principle that every man is entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

STATEMENT

Of the Ownership, Management, etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of The Union-Banner, published weekly at Clanton, Alabama, for April 1, 1923.

State of Alabama, Chilton County, ss.

Before me, a Clerk of the Circuit Court, in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared T. E. Wyatt, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor and Publisher of The Union-Banner, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publisher, T. E. Wyatt, Clanton, Ala.

Editor, T. E. Wyatt, Clanton, Ala.

2. That the owners are:

W. M. Wyatt, Fort Payne, Ala.

T. E. Wyatt, Clanton, Ala.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:

First National Bank, Clanton, Ala.

Mergenthaler Linotype Co., New York City.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

OF INTEREST TO

Millions of Families

"I WILL BUILD A CAR FOR THE MULTITUDE"

Said Henry Ford in 1903—Read How the Fulfillment of That Prophecy is Now Made Possible Through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car—to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars have been placed in the hands of retail customers—more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months—and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford. And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in The First National Bank of Clanton.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it—father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little. Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

The union meeting of the Clanton Ladies' Missionary Societies will be held at the Baptist Church, Tuesday, May the first, at three-thirty o'clock.

Not only are the ladies of the city requested to be present but also the ladies from all near-by churches are cordially invited.

By changing the time of meeting from Monday to Tuesday afternoon, the committee has been fortunate enough to secure Miss Alice Huey as principal speaker. Miss Huey is a missionary, home on a furlough from the North China Mission, where she has been a most successful worker for many years. A treat is in store for us as Miss Huey is a very gifted peaker. Every one should make a special effort to be present.

Our friend N. A. Dennis from Route 6 was a caller on Saturday. He made the Banner man smile by paying up his subscription for another year.

W. W. Taylor Declares Tanlac Entirely Overcame Indigestion and Put Him Back on Feet.

W. W. Taylor, well-known locomotive engineer, living at 215 West Hill Ave., Valdosta, Ga., is still another who has found the Tanlac treatment a safe and sure means to health, strength and working efficiency.

Mr. Taylor has served the Southern railroad for twenty years and is highly respected. While discussing Tanlac, he sad:

"For a year I had suffered from nervous indigestion and was in a badly run-down condition, having lost 44 pounds. I realized my condition must be remedied or it might seriously interfere with my work.

"Tanlac seemed to help me at once so I continued until took six bottles. During the few weeks I was taking Tanlac, and a brief period after, I regained thirty-four pounds. I haven't a sign of my old troubles, I eat heavily at all times, and I consider Tanlac a great medicine. I have recommended it to many of my friends, who have told me they, too, were greatly helped by it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no stubstitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

The strawberry season seems to be opening up in pretty good shape. The hot weather of the past few days is hastening the opening of the berries. Express shipments began in earnest last Monday night, with 14 crates. If conditions remain favorable, the Fruit Growers Association will begin loadnig cars the latter part of this week or next Monday. The berries appear to be plentiful and of good size, but the season is likely to be very short. Mr. S. E. Gordon of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been buying Thorsby berries for several years, arrived Tuesday morning to keep in touch with the business.

Mr. W. H. Goodgame has purchased from Fred Howard, a piece of land near the railroad track, where he expects to erect a cotton gin.

Mr. J. Dudley Collins has leased from Mrs. Anna Villadsen, the land formerly occupied by the Villadsen planing mill, where he will set up a saw mill.

Mr. Waldeman Lefstead of Birmingham Southern College, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Johanna Lefstead.

Prof. C. M. Williams has been engaged as principal of the Public school for the coming year.

The Ladies' Guild ocial will be held with Mrs. Ben Davenport on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald and her daughters entertained a few friends Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan expect to move into their new house on Montgomery Road early next week.

PILGRIM'S REST NEWS

Last Sunday was our regular preaching day. Altogether it was a very enjoyable day. The singing class from Enterprise paid us a visit and the day was taken up in singing except the preaching hour.

Song service was called to order at 9:30 by Prof. A. D. Huett. Song by Prof. Huett. Prayer by Bro. G. B. Williams. The class was organized with Prof. A. D. Huett, chairman; R. W. Kendrick, secretary. Leaders for the morning service were: N. B. Williams, Prof. J. W. Cagle, Prof. G. C. Weldon, Prof. I. D. Huett, Prof. R. M. Brigance.

12:00. Adjourned until 1:30.

Singing began promptly at 1:30. The following directed a lesson of three songs each: R. W. Kendrick, Mr. Powell, Prof. Cagle, Prof. Brigance, Profs. I. D. and A. D. Huett. Prof. Brigance and Mrs. J. W. Cagle were the organists for the day. There were several special songs and quartets sung which added variety to the program.

We were glad to have the visitors with us and thank them very much for their good music. We hope the day was not unpleasant for them. Come again.

ANNOUNCING

OUR CO-OPERATION

IN THE NEW

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

Following out our policy of extending the facilities of this bank in whatever way we can to serve the public, we have arranged to give our co-operation to the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Realizing what the automobile means to the average family in bringing them greater enjoyment of life, we have arranged to extend the facilities of our bank to those who desire to become owners of Ford cars through the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Under this plan, you can begin with an initial deposit as low as $5.00. Then select the type of Ford car you want—Touring Car, Runnabout, Coupe, Sedan, etc.—and arrange to make weekly deposits on same.

Come in and let us further explain the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan to you, or, if you wish, go to the Clanton Motor Car Co., Ford Dealer, for further details.

Start today, and before you realize it you will be driving your own car.

DELEGATES FROM HERE TO HIGHWAY MEETING

A delegation of citizens of Chilton county, headed by Judge Reynolds and members of the Court of County Commissioners went to Montgomery Monday to appear before the State Highway Commission in the interest of the proposed State and Federal road from Selma up to Maplesville, and thence to Clanton. The Chilton delegation joined forces with a large body of officials and citizens from Dallas county and made a joint representation before the Highway Commission.

It is hoped that the Highway Commission will give due consideration to this road as its merits were so ably put before them by the delegation. It would be one of the most valuable pieces of road in thie state.

CORINTH NEWS

Health of this place is better now than it was a few days ago. But we are sorry to say that Mrs. W. B. Jones is no better but gradually getting weaker.

Glad to know that E. L. Jones is up and hope he will soon be able to get out again.

There is a great deal of whooping cough with us.

Our Singing Society met last Sunday afternoon with a large crowd. Directors were: A. M. Jones, E. F. Taylor, Archie Jones, N. J. Jones, A. L. Robinson, singing three songs each. Organists were: Amie Robinson, Archie Jones, Richard McKinney. We thank you visitors for your good help. Come back next second Sunday.

Hutson Williams and little daughter Mary Alice, were visitors to relatives in Clanton last Sunday.

AN APPRECIATION

The children and grandchildren of the deceased William Job Reynolds wish to extend their deepest appreciation to the many friends who were so kind and indulgent during the last sickness and death of our father and grandfather. We also wish to thank our friends for the beautiful floral offerings presented, and for their kind assistance at the interment. We are indeed grateful to Brothers Ezell and Wilkerson for the beautiful sermons rendered. May each of you enjoy a portion of God's richest blessings.

MR. JACKSON TO ATTEND COUNTY CONVENTION

Mr. A. A. Jackson of Birmingham, State President Alabama Musical Association, will be at the county convention at Lomax on the first day, May 5th.

QUARTERLY MEETING HELD

The W. M. U. Quarterly Meeting of Unity Association was held at Mt. Creek Baptist Church last Thursday, April 19th. Quite an interesting program was carried out.

We had with us Dr. Ezell, pastor of Clanton Baptist church, who made a splendid address on Great Tasks for Southern Baptist Women. Also Mrs. Rosemont, vice-president of the Western District, who spoke of the W. M. U. as a Light House.

Mrs. Broadhead made a very interesting talk on the 75 million campaign.

Six societies were represented. The banner was awarded to the Samaria W. M. S. for having the largest percentage present.

Mrs. Hayes, our young peoples leader, had a very inspiing report. The Sunbeams of Clanton also had a part in the program.

We feel very grateful to the W. M. S. of Mt. Creek for their generous hospitality, especially during the noon hour.

MRS. G. C. HARRIS,
Associational Secretary.

Mrs. Mattie Mims, who has been rather sick for seevral days, was carried to Montgomery yesterday to be treated by a skin specialist of that city. It is sincerely hoped that she will recover soon.

If you have lands in the swamps and have not signed the drainage petition, do so at once, so that the work may not be longer hindered.

Preventative Medicine

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. Pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or attack of the grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the cold hangs on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.

The subject of taxation is also of special interest now, for there is great complaint of taxes. When this subject is discussed, people think first of Federal taxes, because the war boosted Federal taxes faster than any others. But it is quite certain that when the Census Bureau gets through with its tabulations and tells the country just how much it is paying for government of all kinds, the taxpayers will be surprised to learn that Federal taxes are a minor part of their burdens.

CEDAR GROVE

Glad to say the sick ones of this community are improving.

Last Sunday was our regular preaching day. Brother G. B. Golden filled his appointment, and delivered a fine sermon.

Our Sunday school met at 10 o'clock with a very good attendance. Hope the old people will take more interest and we will have a school that will never go into winter quarters any more.

Our Singing Society met in the evening. Had a good crowd and some good singing. Our directors were: Mr. Harrison Hayes, Mr. Cassel, Miss Flora Hayes, Miss Mary Walley and Miss Tela Melton.

We are so thankful that we have some nice young boys and girls who are not ashamed to sing God's praise. We had a good many visitors. Were glad to have them. Come again; we are glad to have you with us. Miss Bonnie Littlejohn was the organist.

We were sorry to hear that Mr. T. Burnett is very ill.

LAWLEY NEWS

Mr. Dolby Atkinson, a resident of Shoults community, but who had been here some time with his daughter, Mrs. Viola Hicks, died last Thursday and was buried at Pine Hill Cemetery near Jemison on Friday afternoon. The deceased was over 80 years of age and a Confederate veteran, who fought through many battles during the Civil War. He left surviving him a wife, eight children and a host of grand children. He is going to be greatly missed, but we know his suffering is now over and that he has gone to the home that Jesus has prepared for him.

Those from here who accompanied the children and grand children with the corpse to Jemison were Mr. H. F. Head, Mrs. Celia Hicks, Mrs. Minnie Collins and Mrs. W. P. Hicks. On arriving at Jemison the corpse was carried to the home of Mrs. Mattie Shaw, a daughter of the deceased, then from there to Pine Hill Cemetery, where the funeral services were held.

Miss Mamie Hicks will leave next Sunday for Birmingham where she intends to spend a week with sisters and brothers.

Mrs. W. P. Collins, Mrs. H. F. Head and Mrs. James Bedford visited Montgomery last Saturday, where they did their Spring and Summer shopping.

The W. M. U. held an interesting meeting at the school house last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Oscar Hicks conducted the devotional service by giving a song, scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. W. P. Hicks presided over the business part of the meeting. Next Thursday was decided on by all present for a "clean up" day at the Church. Two new members were added to our roll Saturday. They were: Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. Davis Lawley. We are growing fast. We have new members almost every meeting. When we first organized there were just enough to organize. The president asked a certain lady of this community to join our W. M. U. She replied, "That thing will be dead in a little while." But now we have a large membership, have realized near $100.00 for our church, and are still growing. Of course if we all felt as this lady did, it would have died. But it takes prayer and work to accomplish anything. God is with us in our work, and will continue to be if we trust Him, and work.

The school concert will be given here at the school house next Saturday night, April 28th. Admission charges will be very little, if any. The expense will be all that will be asked for.

The members of the B. Y. P. U. here have arranged a special program to be given the first Sunday in May at the church. Some good singers from Eoline will be here. Mrs. Mary C. Allen, of West Blocton, county superintendent of W. M. U. work in Bibb county will be present to talk on W. M. U. work. Dinner will be served at the church. But everybody bring something to eat, or you might go home hungry; except the editor of the Union-Banner—if he comes we shall see that he gets plenty of dinner. Everyone remember first Sunday in May at Rehoboth church.

Miss Odell Moore, who is working at Brent, was a visitor to our Sunday school last Sunday. Miss Moore is an accomplished young lady of this community, but for the past few weeks has been away on account of her work. She was a teacher in the Sunday school here for many years. She gave her class over to Miss Nannie Bell Head, because she could not be here any longer as regular teacher. Everyone present enjoyed very much the wonderful talk and prayer that Miss Moore gave to the school. Many tears were shed because it was so sad to give up such a devoted Christian teacher that she has been. We know that she will do her part wherever she goes.

Mr. Eugene Thompson, who was injured in the grade crossing accident here, returned home last Saturday from Hill's infirmary at Montgomery. His many friends are delighted to see him back at home.

Mrs. Viola Hicks and step mother, Mrs. Dolby Atkinson, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Alex Latham, sister of Mrs. Hicks.

Mr. Manley Latham of Tuscaloosa was here last week looking after his saw mill business. Since the death of Mr. T. B. Collins the saw mill has been without a foreman. But Mr. Moodie Collins is now foreman in his brother's place.

I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you." There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system strengthener, nerve invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run-down, tired men and women, beautifies complexions, makes the flesh firmer. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all good drug stores. The larger size is more economical.

Three Dead, Two Hurt In Shooting at Helena

Allen Abernathy and Charlie Phillips Killed—Negro John Morgan King Slain After His House Had Been Dynamited and Fired By Aroused Posse.

Failure of a negro miner to receive his pay check resulted in three men, including the negro, being killed, and two others being wounded at Helena, Ala., Monday afternoon and night, after riot calls had been sent to the Shelby county seat at Columbiana and to the sheriff's office in Birmingham and a house in which the negro had barricaded himself had been dynamited and fired by a posse of nearly a hundred officers and citizens.

The dead are:

Allen Abernathy, 22 years old, Graymont, Birmingham.

Charlie Phillips, 22 years old, Roebuck, Ala.

The injured are:

J. W. Roy, farmer and former deputy sheriff, Helena, Ala.

Colley S. Roy, Helena, Ala.

The trouble began about 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon when King went to the time office and asked the time clerk, Abernathy, for his check for work done for the Paramount Coal company, owned by Thomas Abernathy, the dead young man's father, and J. M. Tennelson of Birmingham. Abernathy told him he would have to wait for his check. The negro made no comment, according to bystanders, and went out. He returned in a few minutes, drew a pistol and shot Abernathy in the side without speaking. He then ran from the office.

King barricaded himself in his house, about 300 yards from the time office, with a rifle, shotgun and the revolver with which he had killed Abernathy. His wife and daughter left the house.

Headed by the Helena chief of police a force of deputies and peace officers immediately went to King's home to arrest him. King's reply was to open fire, wounding Colley Roy in the arm and left side.

When the call came into Columbiana, the county seat, 45 miles away, Tom Williamson, state law enforcement officer, was there. He jumped into a car driven by G. G. Bishop, picked up Sheriff T. J. Falkner of Shelby county at Calera and rushed to the scene. Other officers came from Birmingham.

When reinforcements came, it was decided to dynamite and fire the house in an effort to dislodge King from his barricaded position. The officers finally succeeded in setting fire to the place. King was slowly forced from the house by the heat, taking refuge beneath. When the blaze became intolerable, he dragged himself from the house toward the gate, firing at random. His last shot struck Phillips, who was unarmed, standing on an embankment and looking down at the negro's house for signs of him. The bullet from King's rifle entered at the chin and ranged backward to the brain, killing Phillips, a driver in the mines, instantly. He fell back into a pool of water. This was at 8 o'clock at night, after the seige had endured more than four hours.

After killing Phillips, the negro crawled to the gate, where a bullet from a high-powered rifle struck him just above the right eye, killing him. His body was then taken to the negro lodge hall maintained by the company, where the white miners looked him over with the aid of a pocket flashlight in the hands of a deputy sheriff. A dozen rifle cartridges were taken from his pcokets. The only casket available was a rather expensive one, with a silver plate bearing the inscription "At Rest."

Negroes of Helena remained quiet during the shooting, although more than 2,000 rounds are estimated to have been fired. Grim miners who galloped to the scene astride their mules, their rifles and shotguns slung over a shoulder, bode evil to any further trouble.

SHELBY OFFICERS OUTRUN 'SHINERS

Columbiana, Ala., April 28.—Sheriff Falkner, with Deputies Clyde Gardner, Clay Moss and Law Enforcement Officers Clements and Williamson, invaded the territory around Acton, in the northern part of this county, Friday afternoon and captured Claude Elliott, Bob McClendon and Columbus Coker, seized a 150-gallon still and destroyed several hundred gallons of beer, according to their reports.

When the officers went down upon the men a footrace was participated in that would have done credit to the Romans. Curtis Falkner, son of the sheriff, added another star to his already enviable record as a sprinter. He caught one man in about a 300-yard chase, turned him over to one of his associates and asked where the others were. He was told that they had just gone over the mountain. No sooner than said Falkner was in high after the second man, he passed the other fellows that were chasing him. After a quarter of a mile chase he brought this fellow to a halt by catching him by the suspenders.

While this was going on Deputy Gardner was also making himself famous after the third man, which he captured in a three-quarter of a mile race. His prisoner was so fatigued when overtaken that it was half an hour before they could get him on his feet. They were all landed in the Shelby county jail.

CANNING SERVICE MAN HERE

The Peterman Construction Company have sent to Clanton another representative to assist and advise Mr. Clay in the work of organizing and arranging the preliminary work of the canning factory. This man is Mr. J. W. Norton, who is supervising three canning factories which are being built by the Peterman Company in Tennessee. Mr. Norton's work here is simply to assist Mr. Clay in getting the work properly started off.

The Peterman Construction Company is going to enormous expense to get this factory going here, and they are using every effort to get it started on the right basis. With the work they are puttinng here and the cash they are spending they cannot afford to let it fail to function and become a paying proposition; so no one need fear that the enterprise is going to be run on a slip-shod basis.

If you want to get something worth the money for nearly nothing, go to the One-Cent Sale at Upchurch's—Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

IS AMERICA GROWING MORE RELIGIOUS?

American churches report the greatest gains in membership in their history, during the fiscal year just closed. Churches of all denominations showed an increase of 1,220,428 members, fifty per cent more than the average of the preceding five years.

The total church membership is 47,461,558, of which 27,545,080 belong to the Protestant Evangelical churches and 18,104,804 to Catholic churches, the latter including in the count all baptized persons.

The total church population is now figured at 78,113,481 Protestants, 18,104,804 Roman Catholics, 1,600,000 Jews, 604,082 Mormons, 416,054 Greek Catholics—a total of 98,878,421. Of course all are not church members, more than half being classed as only church attendants. The number of actual church members is about 47,000,000. The gain of a million and a quarter during the past year is very significant.

Is America growing more religious? Are the figures here given proof that, despite appearances to the contrary, there is a very great increase in the power of religions and religious thought?

In discussing the influence of moral and spiritual forces of a nation, or of the world, it is invidious to compare different religions. Fortunate indeed is the United States in permitting absolute freedom of religious thought and worship; and in the first quarter of the twentieth century, it is perfectly clear that in America there is more religious tolerance now than ever.

Religion, embodying the moral and spiritual elements of a people, is the most powerful of all forces. While less than one half of the population of the United States is classed as "church members" nevertheless a large proportion of the other half has a mighty influence for good.

The atmosphere of religious thought is not confined to the church roll. The influence of righteousness is not limited to church membership. Religion is not sincere unless saturated with righteousness. There may be righteousness without church membership, but there cannot be real religion without righteousness.

Divorced from the powerful influence of the churches and all religions, our whole government would collapse because of the collapse of moral and spiritual foundations. There is far more good than bad in the world, more virtue than vice.

Every perplexing problem now facing Congress and the country, must be approached in the light of moral purity and religious illumination. The road is obscured if religion is shut out.

Is the world, is our country, growing better and more religious? If answered in the negative, then it were better to put the ship of state out of commission and quit altogether!

From the first international peace conference of 1843 to the present day, the moral and spiritual forces have been at work through religious institutions, trying to establish a Kingdom of Heaven on earth. But such a kingdom must be righteous; and righteousness often requires a conflict with injustice and evil—perhaps an armed conflict.

Yes, America is better, more moral and more religious every decade, despite evidences to the contrary, provided we judge from the inner consciousness and not the outer hate and jealousy.

The hope of America, the hope of the world, is in moral and spiritual forces working through religion and righteousness.—National Republican.

FOUR COUNTIES YIELD STILLS AND PRISONERS

Shelby county yielded seven stills, eight prisoners charged with illicit distilling, 6,050 gallons of beer and 47 gallons of whiskey to a raiding party, composed of state, county and federal officers, according to reports received Monday at headquarters of the state law enforcement department. Two stills were of 100 gallons capacity, one 150 gallons, three 200 gallons, and one 250 gallons.

Three fifty gallon stills were taken in Baldwin county with one man, 750 gallons of beer and six gallons of whiskey.

In St. Clair county state and county raiders captured an 80 gallon still and 200 gallons of beer, while an 80 gallon still and 800 gallons of beer were captured by state and county men in Talladega county. State and federal raiders captured a 50-gallon still and 1,000 gallons of beer in DeKalb county. In Jackson county six stills, one of 80 gallons and five of 40 gallons were captured, with 4,600 gallons of beer and 16 gallons of whiskey.

Today, Friday and Saturday, the Rexall Store is having a One-Cent Sale. Visit them.—Upchurch Drug Company.

HARK, FROM THE TOMBS SOME DOLEFUL CRIES

Speaking Monday evening at a banquet of the Florida Star Bar Association, where, due to the latitude, it was considered appropriate to deliver a partisan Democratic harangue, former Governor James M. Cox declared that the United States "was not enjoying the fruits of peace" because the American government had made a "craven and cowardly retreat from our responsibilities, and abandonment as well of the principles for which our heroic soldiers died."

This sounds like a left-over stump speech from Mr. Cox's 1920 campaign. Has Governor Cox so soon forgotten the verdict rendered by the American people upon such sentiments a little more than two years ago? Has he overlooked the fact that running on that sort of platform he received the worst "trimming" ever administered to a Democratic candidate for President since the birth of his party?

What sort of peace "fruit" does Governor Cox think American people are missing? The kind they are eating in Europe, under the blight of the stupid and disastrous peace treaty President Wilson helped to write, and which intelligent commentarians the world over now agree is directly responsible for the failure of Europe to progress toward normalcy?

If there has been a "craven and cowardly retaeat from our responsibilities" in Europe, whatever they may be in the opinion of our pro-Europeans, then the American people are the cravens and cowards responsible for the failure to involve this country in Europe's continued bankruptcy and bloodshed. After the booting Governor Cox received at the polls on his program of European entanglement, he may have a very poor opinion of the intelligence and courage of the American people, but he is not going to get anywhere politically by abusing his countrymen and defaming his country.—National Republican.

STATE EXAMINER AT COURT HOUSE

State Examiner Peabody is in Clanton making an examination of the books of the county officers. He was also here most of last week. So far as we have been able to learn, all of the offices have been reported in excellent shape with the exception of a little irregularity in the circuit clerk's records, most of which occurred while the office was in charge of Mr. M. D. Foshee. It is reported that the records of the probate judge's office were found in excellent shape—much better than the average probate office of the State.

MAHAN—ROBINSON

On April 29th, a number of intimate friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Robinson to witness the marriage of their daughter, Elsie, to Henry B. Mahan of Birmingham.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mahan left for a trip to Montgomery, Highland Home, Vida and other sections. Rev. Davis preformed the ceremony. Both bride and groom are widely known. They will make their future home in Birmingham. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

NEW CAFE CHANGES HANDS

The New Cafe, which has for the past year been operated by Mr. T. J. Beutell, has been taken back in charge by the owner, D. D. Easterling. The business will be run in the future by Mr. Easterling and Mr. Emmett Thomas.

EDUCATIONAL RECESS COMMITTEE HERE

The joint recess Educational Committee from the State Senate and House of Representatives was in Clanton Saturday for the purpose of looking over the educational conditions in this county. While here they visited several towns and communities and investigated the general sentiment of the people in respect to educational matters.

RESIDENCE CHANGES HANDS

Last week Mr. J. B. Downs sold to Mr. E. C. Powell the new bungalow on Fifth Street and Third Avenue South, formerly occupied by Mr. Joe Ben Downs. Mr. Powell has already moved into the house.

INFORMATION ON RAISING TOMATOES

The first thing to do in raising tomatoes is to get a good seed bed. To do this the ground ought to be plowed to the depth of seven or eight inches. That gives the ground a chance to settle down and become more compact. If plowed too shallow the roots will curl up and lay close to the surface and will not get the moisture they ought to have.

I would advise planting the seed in the hill, three and one-half or four feet apart each way and from three to four seed in a hill. Then when the plants are up five or six inches pull out all but one, leaving the best plant to stand.

Give the plants a thorough cultivation when small and as they grow cultivate more shallow. You must not get too close to the plant during the cultivation or you will tear off the little roots and injure your crop.

Do not stake or prune the plants. Let them go and grow in the way that nature intended for them. Do not put any straw under the plants as that will cause sunburn.

When your crop is ready to market the processor will visit the growers and instruct them as to the condition of the tomatoes and how they ought to be for canning purposes. He will go into details fully with you.

LEWIS HENDERSON HURT

Mr. Lewis Henderson, well known lumber man, was badly hurt Thursday afternoon, when a tree fell across his legs, completely breaking both of them just above the knees. Mr. Henderson was trying to dislodge a log which had just been sawed down but had not left the stump. By cutting the splinders with his axe the log was released, whereupon it jumped over and fell upon him.

The accident occurred near Mr. Henderson's saw mill, out a piece from Mitchell Dam. The wounded man was rushed to the hospital at Clanton, where medical treatment was given him.

STILL AND ONE MAN CAPTURED

Sheriff Littlejohn and his deputies came in Tuesday afternoon with one whiskey still and one man, Love Hudgens. The outfit was taken out of Hudgen's smoke house about five miles west of Jemison. There were three barrels of beer ready to be converted into spirits, but no whiskey had been made, and the still had not been put into operation when the officers took charge of it. The still was a 20-gallon copper outfit, well put together and in good working shape. Hudgens was released on bond.

Those participating in the raid were Sheriff Littlejohn, Chief Deputy Culp, Deputy Taylor and Chief of Police oFshee.

ONE-CENT SALE ON AT UPCHURCH'S

Dr. Upchurch, the Rexall man, is putting on a One-Cent Sale at his drug store the last three days of this week. It is being conducted on the same order as former sales of this kind have been, which heretofore have proven very satisfactory to the promoters. The sale is pu ton by the United Drug Company of Boston, Mass., through the local Rexall Store. You will miss a great money-saving opportunity if you fail to visit this sale.

Henry M. Mahan Died Suddenly Sunday P. M.

Prominent Citizen Passes Away Unexpectedly as Result of Hemorrhage of the Brain.

Mr. Henry M. Mahan died suddenly at his home seven miles north-east of Clanton on Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The old man was apparently in good health, except old age, and several times during the day Sunday had remarked that he was feeling exceedingly well. He had started down the back door steps and asked his wife if she wanted him to milk for her. He suddenly fell in the yard in front of the steps, and upon examination the body was found lifeless.

Physicians claim that death came as a result of hemorrhage of the brain, which probably was brought on by a lick which Mr. Mahan received on the head several years ago.

In the passing of this old gentleman, Chilton county is losing a citizen which she will sorely miss. Mr. Mahan is known by thousands of people, and we are sure that he has very few enemies. He was always kind and good to everybody, and worked hard up until a few years ago when age began to pull him down. Besides making hosts of friends he has made lots of money, which he never failed to use freely to help his country and fellowman. His chief characteristic was his generous spirit and his openhearted disposition. He has never been known to turn down a friend when they came to him in trouble, but has always lent a helping hand without expecting anything in return.

He had almost reached his seventy-second year, had been married three times and was the father of eleven children. Five of his children have already gone on before him. His living children are: Mrs. C. A. Giles, J. A. Mahan, Z. R. Mahan, Henry Mahan, and two smaller children at home. He leaves a living wife.

The funeral was preached at the Clanton Baptist Church Tuesday morning by Revs. S. J. Ezell and W. H. Cox and the body was laid to rest in the Clanton Cemetery. Undertaker Martin had charge of the burial.

ALL DAY SINGING AT WALNUT CREEK

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court. In Equity. April 24th, 1923.

Will Brown, Complainant, vs. Rosie Brown, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Omar Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Rosie Brown to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 28th day of May, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 24th day of April, 1923.

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.

MR. T. J. BEUTELL WITH WELDON DRUG & MUSIC CO.

Mr. T. J. Beutell, formerly manager of the New Cafe, has accepted a position with the Weldon Drug & Music Company as traveling salesman. Mr. Beutell intends to do most of his work in the county, but his territory has no limit, so he can go anywhere he pleases.

Mr. Beutell is a hustler and is already making some enviable records on the road. He says that he is going to put some kind of a music instrument in every home within his reach. He is specializing on Starr pianos and phonographs.

FARMERS NO LONGER BUYING GOLD BRICKS!

Former Justice Clarke, who resigned from the Supreme bench to manage the European League of Nations propaganda in the United States, says:

"The merican farmer's present economic prostration is plainly due to the proverty and confusion of Europe and its inability to purchase the food and clothing it so much needs. The farmer knows what isolation costs us. He is demanding the restoration of the European markets without which he cannot live."

What tommyrot! The American farmer is selling more of his products to Europe today than he did in pre-war days. Our official export statistics show this. The present chaotic condition in Europe, due to a persistent refusal to quit talking and fighting and begin working, is more due to the collapse of production than of consumption. Under normal conditions Europe is able to produce a far greater proportion of its food and clothing and everything it consumes, than it does now. Therefore in a normal, settled Europe the demand for American farm products will be less than it is now.

The prosperity of the American farmer is dependent upon the home, not the foreign market. Therefore the first duty of Americans is to maintain prosperity here, not sacrifice it here in the futile effort to force it on foreign peoples who will not go after it in the old-fashioned and only practical way of getting down to business.

The time has gone by when the farmers of the country are buying gold bricks and counterfeit money. The advocates of internationalism who are trying to fool the farmers with their fool propaganda ought to wake up to this fact. It would save a lot of wind and ink now being unnecessarily expended.

Genuine Rexall articles, ranging in price from 10c to $2.00 are selling the rest of this week at Upchurch's for only one cent.

SHOULTS NEWS

What is it that will make us realize and appreciate the real pleasure in life more than the little birds that sing their little songs, the beautiful flowers, the trees that are in their fullest foliage, and the beautiful sun rays that reflect upon them on a cool spring morning?

The farmers are made happy when they see the tiny plants growing, and soon they will be able to see them grown. We should look around us and think of the many blessings we have in life. We should learn to appreciate them more.

Our Sunday school is moving along nicely with Mr. H. R. Oden as superintendent. He has been superintendent of our school for several years, and has done much to improve it. We feel as tho we could not do without him. He is always ready and willing to do his part in anything for the upbuilding of the community. We have some others that are equally as good.

Plans are being made to enlarge the Baptist church this summer. A committee has been appointed to get subscriptions for same. There is a great need in doing this work. We can do it if we only put forth an effort. Bro. Edwards, our pastor, is a great worker and if he gets in behind you, it is hard to shirk your duty. We are going to let him know that we are workers too.

Shoults base ball team met Mulberry's team on Maplesville ground on last Saturday afternoon and played a very good game. Shoults kept Mulberry from getting a man to the second base for seven innings, they having ten scores at this time. Thru an error at the eighth inning, Mulberry made two scores, the game ending with a score of 12 to 2 in favor of Shoults.

All the Shoults boys played excellent ball, but attention should be called to the making of five scores by Brady McAfee, going to the bat six times.

Mulberry did her best to make Shoults suffer defeat but their opponents were too swift for them.

Just wait until our boys get more practice and they will show some teams how to play ball. The team is well organized with Johnnie McAfee as manager. He is doing all he can to get the team equipped with good tools, etc.

Mr. Wheeler Walker has been going to Maplesville very often for some time, but since he purchased a new Ford, the times are numerous. Brady McAfee says he isn't a bit sorry of the purchase Wheeler made. They must know sisters by this.

Many attended the closing exercises of the Lawley school Saturday night. The program was good and we only wish the house had been large enough to have seated the crowd.

The number at Sunday school was small Sunday, as many went to Tabernacle. They had Children's Day.

Mr. Homer Sewell and family from Maplesville visited their daughter and sister, Mrs. Silas Oden Sunday.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. Everybody come. We are sure you will hear a good sermon. The B. Y. P. U. promised Bro. Edwards a special program then. If nothing should happen, we are not going to disappoint him either.

MAPLESVILLE DOTS

Health of this community is fairly good at present, we are glad to report.

Farmers are now busy working and getting ready to hoe cotton. We are all glad to see this beautiful weather so the work can be carried on.

Our Sunday school is still progressing very nicely. We are glad to see as many present as we had Sunday. Hope to have more next Sunday.

We had a splendid B. Y. P. U. program Sunday night which everyone enjoyed.

The W. M. U. meets Wednesday p.m., May 2nd. We are expecting an excellent program and good attendance. We are hoping more parents will take interest and join us.

Next Sunday is regular preaching day at the Methodist church, by Rev. Jones. Hope to have a large attendance.

Mr. John Earnest of Tuscaloosa came to Maplesville Sunday, bringing the little daughter of Mr. Will Earnest to spend the day.

Mr. Ralph Calloway has bought himself a new Ford car, and has sure been trying it out.

Preacher Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Seales, Misses Elva Seales and Ethel Mize motored to Watley town Sunday p.m. to preach.

Mr. Paul McCrary, Misses eBrtie Lee Coleman, Gorea Calloway and Vennie Fox motored to Watley town Sunday.

Mr. R. M. Davis has bought himself a new Ford car.

Misses Oma and Eva Seales, Messrs. Messrs. Wheeler Walker and Brady McAfee motored to Lawley Saturday night to the concert. All reported a grand time.

Mr. Clarence Kemp has gone to Birmingham to work. We hope him much success.

Evils of Constipation

Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease, keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

PERCY'S PERSPECTIVE

The notorious Dr. Percy Grant's thirst for publicity has taken him quite outside the field of religion and his sermons are frequently mere political harangues. It appears that he is an advocate of government ownership, not only of railroads but of all industry and business. He expects to see our political democracy replaced by what he calls an "industrial democracy." Dr. Grant denies that his theories are bolshevistic, but his denial does not alter the truth. The fact is that "nationalization of industries and business," is precisely what has taken place in Russia. Inasmuch as the government could never raise money enough to buy our industries, it follows that they would have to be confiscated if they were to be nationalized, and that is just what the bolshevik leaders did in Russia. It is too bad that religion can be used as the cloak, and the pulpit the forum, from which to exstead of the church serving as one of the bulwarks of free and enlightened government, it becomes an active agency for its overthrow with radicals of the Dr. Grant type in the pulpit.

Chamberlain's Tablets Are Mild and Gentle in Effect

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Tablets is so mild and gentle that you can hardly realize that it has been produced by a medicine.

Mr. Guy DeShazo, formerly of Mulberry and later of Clanton, is in Fort Payne at work with The DeKalb Republican.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I wat flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

LOST—Brown purse containing one $5 bill, two $1 bills and one silver dollar; also P. O. Box rent receipt with K. N. Draper's name on it. Finder will please return to The Union-Banner office and get reward. 1t

TRADE VIA PANAMA CANAL

Washington, May 3.—That the Panama Canal, constructed under a Republican administration, has increased our trade with Asia, and that the recently enacted Republican tariff law has not hampered that portion of our trade, is the substance of a statement issued today by the Republican Publicity Association, thru its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. The Association says:

"Less than 5 per cent of our exports went to Asia in 1913, the year before the Panama Canal was opened. In 1920 Asia's share of our total exports was 9 per cent; in 1921 it was 12 per cent; and in 1922 about 12 per cent.

"Imports from Asia in 1913 totaled 15 per cent of our total, 26 1-2 per cent in the ten months ended October, 1922, and for the single month of October, the first month of the new tariff law, 29 per cent. That is a pretty good indication of the benefits derived from the Panama Canal, and it also goes to show that the present tariff law is not keeping Oriental goods out of our market. The total imports from that division for October, 1922, amounted to just about $100,000,000, compared with $45,000,000 for October, 1921, when the Democratic tariff law was in operation, or an increase of 111 per cent with a protective tariff law in effect. Imports from Oceania, the same months compared, showed an increase of 142 per cent.

"To assert that the present tariff law is a prohibitive measure is to tell an untruth.

"It is the lowest tariff ever enacted consistent with protection to America industry and agriculture."

Neither Sambo nor Rastus could read the time of day—or anything else—but Sambo had a nice big Ingersoll which he exhibited with a great air of superiority.

"What time am it?" said Rastus.

Sambo hesitated and then extended the time-piece saying: "Dar she am."

Rastus looked at it carefully and said: "Dam if she aint."

CLUB FORMED BY POWER CO. EMPLOYEES

Mitchell Dam Camp to be Converted Into Social and Outdoor Playground for Employees of Alabama Power Co.

Birmingham (Special).—The granting of a charter to The A. P. C. Club Corporation by the Judge of Probate of Jefferson County marks the completion of the organization of a social and recreational club by the employees of Alabama Power Company. The officers of the club as shown by the application for charter are W. R. Loyd, President, Birmingham; W. M. Stanley, 1st Vice-President, Huntsville; J. M. Barry, 2nd Vice-President, Montgomery; O. K. Seyforth, 3rd Vice-President, Anniston; C. B. McManus, 4th Vice-President, Birmingham; E. T. O'Connell, Secretary, Birmingham, and J. A Shepherd, Treasurer, Birmingham.

The club is supported and managed entirely by employees of the rank and file, no officers of the Power Company being eligible to hold office. A Board of Governors of 33 members, selected from the various towns in which the Power Company does business, will manage the club's affairs; the members electing the Governors and the Governors in turn electing the officers.

Only employees of the Alabama Power Company and its subsidiary companies are eligible for membership, and for the present the club's activities will be confined to making "Camp Mitchell," at Mitchell Dam, eight miles east of Verbena in Chilton County, one of the finest hunting, fishing and outdoor resorts in the South. The Power Company has donated to the club 34 houses, which were a part of the Mitchell Dam construction camp. It addition to remodeling and furnishing the houses completely, the Company will construct a concrete swimming pool, boat house, club house, dance hall, and provide many other facilities.

No finer site could be selected in Alabama for such a club. Much of the territory which lies contiguous to the Coosa, and the many creeks tributary to it, in Chilton and Coosa counties, is very wild and well adapted for a game and fish preserve, which it is the purpose of the club to form in cooperation with the State Department of Conservation. Mr. I. T. Quinn, Commissioner, has already very kindly offered the club his cooperation. The preserve will be stocked with various kinds of fish and game, and protection against violation of the fish and game laws will be afforded by having a number of persons deputized as game wardens. It is planned to affiliate with the Alabama Fishers and Hunters Association, and to join in every movement to provide more game and to uphold the game laws.

The formation of the club and the donation of its facilities on the part of the Alabama Power Company was fostered by Mr. Thomas W. Martin, President, and is an outgrowth of a desire on his part to establish a place where employees might go for vacations, week-ends, and other times at only the actual cost of railroad fare and board. It was found that very few employees were taking advantage of their vacation privileges, due to the prohibitive cost of going away to resorts.

The employees have evinced their appreciation of Mr. Martin's generosity by rushing to the support of the club, nearly four hundred having already applied for membership.

THE DECENNIAL INVENTORY

Washington, May 3, — (Special Correspondence)—To find out how much the American people are worth, in dollars, how much they owe, thru government, and how much taxes they pay for the maintenance of national, state, county, city and school district governments, is the chief task in which the Census Bureau is now engaged. The United States Census Bureau is the greatest statistical organization in the world. Once in ten years it takes a census of population with classifications as to nativity, race, sex, ages, marital relations, etc. Once in ten years the Bureau checks upon wealth, debt and taxes. Once in five years an accounting is made covering manufactures. At stated periods other statistics are compiled concerning other important subjects. The work is arranged in the matter of time so that the census force can be steadily employed to advantage with a minimum of change in personnel.

The census of wealth, debt and taxation is taken for each year that bears a number ending in "2." The last census of this kind was taken as of the year 1912, and this will be for the year 1922. Figures are now in process of tabulation. The totals for the smallest State in the Union will soon be completed and after that the Bureau will be announcing from time to time the to-

SEND FOR KEYLIST

For your guidance and to assist you in the solving of the "T Word" Puzzle Picture, we have prepared a list of nouns which start with the letter "T" and which are contained in Webster's New International Dictionary. This list contains every word which could possibly be in the picture and with its use you can readily compile a winning list. Just study over the picture carefully and by referring to the Key List you can easily determine whether or not the word is represented in the picture. This Key List will be given away free and will be mailed to all who will send 2c in postage or a self-addressed stamped envelope to cover the cost of mailing.

Follow These Rules

1—This puzzle game is open to any man, woman, boy or girl residing in the states of Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi who is not an employe of The Birmingham Age-Herald or a member of an employes' family. It costs nothing to take part in the game.

2—Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address at the top of each sheet. All answers must be mailed before midnight Monday, May 14th, 1923, and addressed to J. H. Brittan, Puzzle Manager, Birmingham Age-Herald, Birmingham, Ala.

3—Persons who have sent in answers or subscriptions before midnight May 14th, will be qualified for the larger prizes, providing subscription orders are received by midnight May 26, 1923.

4.—Only words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words will be counted as errors. If the singular of a word is used the plural can not be counted, and vice versa. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although any part of the object can also be named. Where more than one word is equally applicable to the picture, any one of them will count.

5—The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "T," naming visible objects shown in the picture, will win First Prize; second nearest, Second Prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in, and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission. This will be figured on a percentage basis. Neatness or style of handwriting will have no bearing upon the deciding of the winners.

6—All answers will receive the same consideration regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.

7—Persons may work together in preparing their list, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.

8—In the event of a tie for any prize offered the full amount of such prize will be paid to each person so tied. The correct list will be made up from the correct words submitted by the various contestants and will not consist of any "Master" or "Predetermined" list.

9—Three well known citizens of Birmingham, having no connection with The Age-Herald, will act as judges and award the prizes at the close of the puzzle game. They will use as reference Webster's New International Dictionary, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive.

10—These judges will meet directly following the close of the puzzle game and the names of the prize winners and the winning list of words, together with the correct list which is made up by the judges from the correct words submitted by the contestants will be published in The Birmingham Age-Herald and the prizes awarded just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.

How You Can Win $1000

It costs nothing to take part in the game and you don't have to send in a single subscription in order to win a prize. If your list of "T" Words is awarded First Prize by the judges you will win $50.00. However, if you would like to win more than $50.00 you can, by sending in one or two subscriptions to The Birmingham Age-Herald with remittance to cover and thus qualifying your answer for the BIG CASH PRIZES.

HOW? If you have sent in one 6 months subscription to The Daily and Sunday Age-Herald by mail at $5.00 or one 6 months daily and Sunday carrier subscription at $5.20 or one yearly rural route daily and Sunday subscription at $6.50 and your answer is awarded First Prize you will win $350.00. (See Prizes in Class B.)

YOUR BIG OPPORTUNITY is by sending in either one 12 months daily and Sunday mail subscription at $9.50 or one 12 months daily and Sunday carrier subscription at $10.40 or two yearly daily and Sunday rural route subscriptions at $6.60 each, then you will receive the BIG CASH PRIZE OF $1,000.00 instead of only $50, if your answer is awarded First Prize. (See Prizes in Class C.)

Note—Two subscriptions for 6 months each will count the same as one for a year.

JUST THINK! It takes but one yearly subscription or two for 6 months by mail or carrier to fully qualify your answer for the full $1,000.00 in cash. This is absolutely all you need. Your own subscription, either new or renewal, will count or you can easily secure one from some friend and your answer will be fully qualified for the big cash prizes. We can accept subscriptions to start at any future time.

The harder a public officer tries to do his duty irrespective of parties, prejudice, politics or malice, the more he is criticized—by those personages who want only their own whimsical, perverted cupidity satisfied.

Are the business men of Clanton going to let the measley amount of two thousand dollars stand between them and the United Farmers canning factory? You are unless you act within the next twenty-four hours.

The time is amply ripe for something to be done about Clanton's drainage program. What have the officers to offer? Are we going to let the question die a natural death again If we do it will never be revived again.

The Ku Klux Klan of Clanton has passed a resolution urging the enforcement of the Sunday laws in Clanton and Chilton county. We are strictly behind them in this move. We believe that a law becomes a detriment when its enforcement gets lax.

Only two thousand dollars is lacking on the petition of the canning factory. Clanton must raise that amount and do it now, or else let the world truthfully say that we haven't enough civic pride here to create a conversation between to humming birds.

At the rate the prohibition officers have been destroying stills in Shelby county for the past few months, they will soon have that county free of that menace. From newspaper reports they have averaged destroying around a dozen every week for the past two months.

President Thomas W. Martin of the Alabama Power Company has recently announced another extensive advertising campaign for Alabama in the widely circulated trade papers of the United States and Canada. This company is doing a great work in placing Alabama before the world, which will bring more business not only to the company but to all the industries of the State.

The business men of the town of Clanton are the hardest people in the world to be made to appreciate a good thing. But Clanton will become a good town some day, if such organizations as the United Farmers don't run out of patience. They will just simply make us amount to something in spite of our selfish, ungenerous selves. But we are proud to say that there are a few here who are always ready to do their part and the other fellow's too.

FORT PAYNE, ALA.

Since two of our well known citizens, one of which was the former editor of The Unoin-Banner and the other our ex-circuit clerk, have left Chilton county and located in Fort Payne, probably our readers would be interested to learn a little about that city, its people, customs, etc. Last week the editor of The Union-Banner had the pleasure of visiting Fort Payne and looking over the town, which visit was greatly enjoyed.

Fort Payne has a population of about 3,000 and is the county seat of DeKalb county. It is located ninety miles north-east of Birmingham and 40 miles south-west of Chattanooga, Tenn., on the A. G. S. Railroad. It lies in the valley between two high mountains, Lookout Mountain and Sand Mountain. The natural surroundings of the city are very picturesque, which makes it a most ideal place to live. The climate is fine, as the abundance of trees and mountains, rocks and brooks serve as purifiers of the air and a modulator of the atmosphere. The climate is especially ideal during the hot summer months, as there is always a continuous cool breeze coming down from the tops of the mountains sweeping over the little city.

The principal industries of the country there are about the same as they are here—farming, but the people take much pride in their apple farms around in the county. They raise a fine variety of apples there which are in great abundance. They claim that this industry is going to be developed so that it will become really attractive. In Fort Payne there is a large hosiery mill which works hundreds of people. There are some of the finest residences there that can be found anywhere in the country, most of which are large spacious, two and three htory buildings.

One of the most attractive things which we saw about the place is the manners and customs of the people. You don't see any of these modern stuck-up aristocrats who can't afford to associate with just common folks, but they are all sociable, kind, polite and respectable to everyone. There is one thing peculiar about the place—you see no Jews or Catholics, and very few negroes there. The business houses, which are numerous, are run mostly by natives of the town and county. They have two nice churches, Baptist and Methodist, both right in the heart of the town. These are brick and stone structures, and do credit to the city. The worst thing we saw about Fort Payne is too many old frame buildings, being used as business houses, but these are being continually torn away and replaced by more modern brick ones.

Viewing the place from every angle and considering every characteristic of the place, Fort Payne and DeKalb county are as desirable places to live as can be found anywhere.

A LOCAL ISSUE

The mayoralty vote in the Chicago wards that comprise the Second Congressional District was about equally divided between the Republican and Democratic candidates, but the Republican candidate for Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late James R. Mann won out by about 14,000 majority. The local issue was one of protest against the corrupt administration of the present mayor, nominally a Republican, but it is evident that thousands of voters registered their disapproval of local policies while recording their endorsement of the Harding administration at Washington. No other interpretation can be put on the election result. It indicates that the voters of the country are correctly appraising the change that has come since the inauguration of President Harding, and are giving him and the Republican party the credit they have earned.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

The Fifth Sunday Meeting at Thorsby Baptist Chuch was attended by delegates from all parts of the county. Dr. Milford of Howard College and Rev. Sam eHath, also of Howard, were with us. Brother Ezell of the Clanton Baptist Church was an honored guest. We were much delighted to have Mrs. Lambdin and Miss Northington, state workers, present during the day.

The meeting was a success from beginning to end. Saturday night, pril 28th, will be long remembered by all. A speech was given by Rev. T. J. Deason, after which Dr. Milford preached a splendid sermon.

On Sunday, April 29th, we had another glorious service. The morning service was composed of "A History of the Chilton County Baptist Association." The Sunday school activities were well discussed by Mrs. W. T. Edward. The W. M. U. work was explained by Miss Northington, who made an appeal for unpaid campaign pledges. This appeal met with responses from all parts of the house. Dr. Milford again delivered an admirable sermon.

A most delightful dinner was served at the noon hour by the ladies of the community.

The afternoon service was a great success. Speeches were made on "Stewardship" and many pledged themselves to "tithe" their incomes. A "Laymen's Movement" was organized in the Chilton County Association. The conferences that followed the close of the meeting were very helpful to the different branches of the Baptist work.

The results of this meeting will long be remembered by Alabama Baptists, especially the Chilton County Baptist Association.

"The Doo Dah" Minstrel will show in Bate's Hall Saturday night, May 5th, at 8 p.m. If you want to laugh come; if you don't, stay away. Will be the best show of its kind ever presented in Bates Hall. Admission, adults 35c, children 20c.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson's daughter Mildred, is expected from Chicago this week to visit her parents.

Mrs. Torngren, with her daughter and grand daughter, arrived Sunday morning from Chicago, to visit Mr. Carl Grenn and Mrs. Conrad Carlson.

Rev. S. H. Herbert, former principal of Thorsby Institute and pastor of Thorsby Congregational church, has received and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church at Fruita, Colorado, and will move there this week. Since leaving Thorsby several years ago Mr. Herbert has been engaged in Red Cross work.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid will met at the home of Mrs. S. E. Norton Thursday afternoon, May 3rd.

Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland, of Thorsby Institute faculty, who for nearly a year past has been engaged in field work, with headquarters in Chicago, arrived Saturday night to assist in class work during the absence of Miss Jenkins.

PROVIDENCE, BET 13

The Memorial Service at this place was most assuredly a success. Also we want to say that our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the management of C. S. McCain, superintendent, of whom we are all so well pleased with as a new comer of this community. Also we want to say the singing the 5th Sunday evening was a success, and was enjoyed by all present. The main feature of the day was the quartette singing by the Clanton quartette class of whom was the most welcome visitors Sunday evening.

Those who directed were: eMssrs. Frank Lowery, Burl Martin, eVster Campbell, Marvin Merchant, Bill Cofer, Lonnie Cobb, L. R. Cobb, Prof. A. H. Glasscock and Enoch Foshee.

Organists for the evening were: Misses Jewel Martin, Flossie Cobb, Mamie Cofer, Mrs. Velpo Mims and Mrs. Eva Childress.

The services were well attended by a large crowd from many parts of the county, and welcome visitors at Providence, and we especially invite you to come again, for we Providence folks certainly do welcome and enjoy the presence of all good people.

We also want to say a few words regarding the good order that was observed throughout the day. It was just fine, and we want to express our heartfelt thanks for same. So come one and all to Providence again and let's enjoy the pleasures of life in a humane and Christian like way—the way that God intends for us to and be blessed.

A Great Day for Thorsby

1450 crates of strawberries were delivered at Thorsby railroad station last Monday, and four cars were loaded and sent out under a plan which permits of starting carloads of berries as soon as loaded and while they are rolling towards some northern market a description of its contents as to number of crates, and quality of berries is wired to northern buyers in different cities, and sales are affected in time to divert the car to the buyers' destination where they will arrive much earlier than if sold before shipping. In this way an oversupply for any one market is avoided and better prices prevail. The strawberry season is now on in good earnest and pickers are scattered over the fields for miles around Thorsby and a force of handlers and inspectors at the station end keep them moving at a lively rate. In the ordinary course of a season beginning so late as it does this year, the business will be practically all crowded into a term of about thre weeks, and if the quality holds up to the present standard and bearing fulfills present promise the financial results will be far in advance of anything Thorsby has ever had.

250 acres of strawberries, which were thought to be ruined by the freeze of March 19th seem to have taken on new life and are furnishing the most, the biggest and sweetest berries ever harvested in this section.

As an example of the working of the selling system mentioned above, the four cars aggregating 1484 crates were sold before noon next day all to one buyer at $4 per crate f. o. b. Thorsby, a total of $5,936.00. Not a bad day's work for Thorsby communiyt.

Inquiry as to what is being done on the new school building project at Thorsby,. elicited the information from the building committee, that blue prints of plans and specifications are in hand and are being submitted to manufacturers of building material .to ascertain the cost of such structure as desired. When it is definitely known how much money will be needed, it is hoped that some plan may be devised to secure it.

Rev. J. W. Davenport, pastor of Thorsby Congregational church, returned Monday evening from Tallassee, where he had been assisting, for a week, in conducting revival meetings. He reports the attendance good and considerable interest awakened.

Miss Helen C. Jenkins left Tuesday night for Hartford, Conn., where she will make her headquarters for several months while working, speaking and visiting sections of New England in the interest of Thorsby Institute, which being a denominational school like the schools of all denominations, as well as private schools which may be operated chiefly as a money-making enterprise. No schools of this character wherever located and no matter what their grade can receive funds from the State wherein they are located, that is to say, private and denominational schools do not share in the public school fund of the State. Although for various reasons they teach the same subjects and from the authorized text books as are taught in the public schools, and their graduates have the same standing in regard to educational requirements for entry into the State supported educational institutions, they are at liberty to give religious and other instruction, not illegal, which is not permitted in schools supported by taxpayers who may be of all denominations or of no denomination. Because of this fact many prefer to send their children to church or denominational schools where they receive not only secular education but religious education, just now being stressed all over the land as "The Great Need of the Present Day."

There will be a minstrel Saturday night, May 5th at Bates Hall under the direction of Mr. Clarence E. Bice, benefit of Thorsby Baptist church. Admission 35c adult; 20c children.

Mr. Charlie Busby has purchased a new Star car.

Miss Delene Wright and Mr. Layton Gibson were married Sunday. Their many friends extend to them congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Attaway have as their guest the latter's mother, Mrs. Lodge of Bessemer.

Mr. Durward and Luther Foshee were callers in town Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Irby McNeill are visitors to relatives here this week.

While these denominational schools are organized chiefly to give the young people of the denomination secular and religious education, few of them are so hide bound as to require either of their faculty or students membership in or affiliation with the particular denomination whose "Trade Mark" the institution bears. In nearly all denominational schools of today sectarian bars are either very low or removed altogether, as at Thorsby Institute, where more than half the faculty and student body are not and not expected to become Congregationalists.

In the early days of Thorsby Institute the writer in conversation with the late Tipton Mullins, then a member of T. I. board of trustees, and was lamenting the fact that so few of the young people of Chilton county were taking advantage of the splendid facilities offered. This was before any other High school was established in Chilton county. Mr. Mullins replied, "The country is full of young people needing education and just as soon as you can establish confidence they will be forthcoming." How correct Mr. Mullins was is evident from the fact that out of the entire student body, now filling Bates Hall to capacity, more than 50 per cent of them are from Chilton county, notwithstanding that two other High schools are now operating in the county. It was about the same time Mr. Mullins made his prophecy, and before "confidence had been established" that the late R. S. Munger told the writer, "I would as soon put $5000 into Thorsby Institute as $5 if I was convinced it was a good place to spend money," and there are people scattered all over the country, who are willing to give money to help support worthy educational institutions, and Thorsby Institute has to send out people to find them. Miss Jenkins has been doing this work for many years and has been very successful with it, but nevertheless, it would greatly help her if she could say to these people, our own home folks are doing all they can to support the school.

Misses Anna Werniss and Inga Erdahl were week-end visitors in Thorsby.

On Saturday evening, May 12th, a meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society will be held at Bates Hall. The president of the Society, Robert H. Shepard, will preside. Since the meeting will be a union one of the three clubs the program will be presented by members of the Dramatic Club, the Debating Club and the Music Club.

Glover Smith, a member of the tenth grade at Thorsby Institute, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia is in a more comfortable condition. The abscence of Glover and his sister, Claudie, from the school is much regretted.

The strawberry picking has caused somewhat irregular attendance in the cases of some of the boys of the school.

Mrs. Ethel Loveland of Downers Grove, Illinois, who has been connected with Thorsby Institute for the past three years, has come to the school to remain for the rest of the school year.

At chapel on Monday morning the eighth grade sang Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult, the hymn which has been chosen as their class hymn. On Tuesday morning the ninth grade sang as their hymn, True-Hearted, Whole-Hearted. The four hymns that have been chosen by the four classes of the school are: I Would Be True; We March, We March, To Victory; True-Hearted, Whole-Hearted; and Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult.

WILLIAMS—LITTLEJOHN

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlejohn, near Lawley, Miss Ressie Littlejohn and Mr. George Williams were married at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, April 28th, in the presence of many friends and relatives of the young couple. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. E. H. Littlejohn of the Baptist church. The color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations. Ferns and potted plants formed a background for the bridal group.

The couple motored to the home of the groom's parents near Billingsley Sunday.

SARDIS NEWS

We are glad to report our Sunday school moving on nicely. We have just organized anew and elected Mr. H. L. Ratliff as superintendent, and Mrs. Ella Ratliff assistant superintendent; Mr. Posey dams teacher of the Bible class; Mrs. Ella Ratliff intermediate class, Mrs. Susie Roper junior class, Mrs. Laura Scott children's quarterly, and Miss Ida Short secretary. So now come on all and join in this good work and help make one of the best Sunday schools this church has ever known.

We also invited everyone to take part in our prayer meeting, both young and old.

What about our B. Y. P. U.? Do we intend to take it all out in talking. Come on good people and help our young people in this good work. We would be glad for someone to come organize for us, for many times our young people would be gone off some where else when the older people are to blame for not helping to keep them interested at their home church.

Mr. Toly Hayes of Corbin, Ky., is home for a few days visit to his mother.

Mr. A. V. Klinner of Burnsville, Ala., was a welcome visitor to homefolks Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Beulah McCary was the guest of her cousin, Miss Era Klinner last Sunday.

Mr. J. F. Klinner and wife have gone to visit their daughter near Selma.

Mr. Clauda McCary of Selma is at home for a month's visit.

Miss Anthel Ratliff was a welcome guest of her cousin, Miss Annie Ratliff, Sunday.

Mrs. Azalean Ratliff of Lawley is visiting relatives here this week.

Mrs. Susie Roper has gone for a week's visit to her son, Mr. Delos Roper of Maplesville, Route 1.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

It is but simple justice that we living should offer some tribute to the worthy dead. I therefore write these words in memory of Mrs. Minnie Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merchant.

She was born Feb. 11th, 1904, died April 20th, 1923, at the Central Alabama Hospital at Clanton. She was united in marriage to Aubrey Rodgers last September. Minnie was always good and kind to all. Her life was a bright ray of sunshine. We often wonder why it is that God so often comes to our homes and takes our loved ones so early in life. Tho it is taking our sweetest and transplanting them in the land of never-fading flowers, she has crossed over the chilly river and is home with Jesus, today in her newly made grave her folded hands rest, the stilled heart answers not the yearning cry of our affections. We leave her beneath the flowers she loved, the casket covering laden with flowers was borne by kind hands to Pleasant Grove church, where funeral services were held. The large crowd that assembled at the church and sat with tear dimmed eyes, as her pastor extolled her many virtues, bore strong evidence of the respect in which she was held by all. On the Sabbath her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Pleasant Grove, there to wait the dawn of that Sabbath that shall have no end.

To the husband and mother and father, brother and sisters, your dear one lives today and the sweet life lived here will, no doubt, ever be an inspiration to you to press on, and some sweet day when life's battles all be over and the last one of your loved ones comes to cross over, may circle be unbroken and undisturbed in sweetest bliss you may dwell together forever, where there shall be no sickness, sorrow and deaths; no sad goodbyes.

JACKSON'S CHAPEL

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely, but could be better. We need more of the young people's help, as well as the older ones help, so come on now, let's get together and make our Sunday school what it should be.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mims and two sons, Robert and Hosie, and Mr. and Mrs. Farlie Mims, motored to Billingsley Sunday.

We are proud indeed of the improvement of Mrs. F. A. Ellison. She has been ill so long, we are proud indeed to have her with us again.

Miss Lillie Mae Jones is visiting friends and relatives in Birmingham this week.

Miss Susie Wilson was the guest of Misses Nell and Vera Poole Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. William Jones was in town shopping Saturday.

Mrs. F. . Ellison motored to her mother's Friday, returning in the afternoon.

Quite a few from this community attended the singing at East View Sunday. All report a nice time.

Let's all go to New Salem Sunday, take our flowers and a well filled basket, try and make the day a grand success, singing praises to God, while loving hands decorate the graves of our loved ones, who have gone before.

Mrs. Farlie Mims was the guest of her mother Sunday, Mrs. Enoch Weldon, at Billingsley.

The many friends of Mr. Varnie Wyatt are proud to see him out again after having measles.

Mrs. George Adams of Birmingham is spending this week in Clanton visiting relatives.

A REMARKABLE RECORD

Washington, April 23.—"There has been considerable simplification of income tax returns as well as reduction of taxes since the Republicans assumed control of the Government," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "This is fulfillment of the promise of the platform of 1920, which said:

" 'But sound policy equally demands the early accomplishment of that real reduction of the tax burden which may be achieved by substituting simple for complex laws and procedure,' and 'we advocate the issuance of a simplified form of income return.'

"There is room, as all agree, for further improvement in simplifying collection, and with that in view the Treasury Department has begun a study of the administrative provisions, at the request of the Ways and Means Committee, the result of which will be presented for appropriate action in the next Congress, when the revision of the revenue laws is undertaken. The work now begun will be confined for the present to the administrative sections of the act.

"It is suggested by that statement that the Republicans have in view a general tax revision next session, and this recalls the second portion of the platform plank on this subject, advocating the substitution of—

" 'Prompt and certain determination of the tax liability for delay and uncertainty; tax laws which do not, for tax laws which do, excessively mulct the consumer or needlessly repress enterprise and thrift.'

" 'The best preparation for the grave task which will confront the Treasury in 1923 is a preceding record of debt extinguishment, ample provision for a sinking fund, and the assurance of current receipts sufficient or more than sufficient to meet current expenditures.'

"Budget economy, supported by Republican legislation, and the financial wizardry of Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, have achieved that record. Since August 31, 1919, when the war debt was at its peak, the national debt has been reduced something over $3,000,000,000. Appropriations for the fiscal 1924 include $345,000,000 for the sinking fund. Total appropriations for 1924 were $234,000,000 less than for 1923, and $2,748,000,000 less than those made in the 65th Congress (1920) under Democratic control. We entered the present fiscal year beginning July 1, 1922, with the prospect of a deficit of nearly $700,000,000. Extraordinary economies enabled the President to assure Congress late in January that 'a further reduction in the anticipated deficit for 1923 . . . indicates, as the situation exists today, an apparent deficit of $92,000,000 for the current fiscal year. . . . The adherence to the policy of economy and the effective coordination of routine business were important factors in reducing this estimated deficit.' There were indications that even this deficit would be wiped out by June 30, but in the meantime the Government has been burdened with obligations of about $70,000,000 on account of taxes improperly collected by the Democratic party, on which refund must be made. Considered in every respect the Republicans have chalked up a remarkable record."

NEWS OF JEMISON
(Mrs. Lloyd Eagle, Correspondent)

We wish to assure the people of Jemison that we appreciate their kindness and sympathy they have shown us during the illness and death of our wife and mother.

Mr. J. W. Sorrell and Children.

On last Thursday night, April 26, 1923, at 11:45, the death angel visited the home of Mr. J. W. Sorrell and called from our midst the spirit of his wife, Mrs. Mattie Sorrell. She had been ill about eight days. Everything known to medical science was done to arrest the progress of that dreaded disease, pneumonia, but all in vain. Mrs. Sorrell was born June 12, 1857, in Dale county. Before her marriage she was Miss Mattie Tyler. She was married Jan. 9, 1879 to J. W. Sorrell. To them were born three daughters and three sons: Mrs. Charlie Robinson, Mrs. Harvey Cleckler, deceased, and Mrs. C. C. Conway of Jemison; Dr. Hurley, deceased; Dr. Lewis of Birmingham and Joshua of Jemison.

The maternial affections were very marked in Mrs. Sorrell, her children were the greatest beings on earth to her. That love was not to be chilled by selfishness, weakened by worthlessness nor stifled by ingratitude. She glorified in their fame and exulted in their prosperity. Her purpose was fixed, she "conserved for them."

She leaves a devoted husband to mourn her loss. For forty-four years these two had labored side by side, having begun their married life without much of the goods of this world, but through their faithfulness and untiring efforts succeeded in providing well for their last days. They lived in Union Grove community for several years and moved to Jemison in 1917. Here they had beautified their home, but in the midst of this God called her to a still more beautiful home.

Not only has her relatives suffered a great loss, but her many friends and neighbors as well.

Her remains were laid to rest in Union Grove Cemetery Friday afternoon, April 27. Beautiful and appropriate scripture was read from the 1st Corinthians, 15th chapter, by Rev. Buford Lawrence. Following this Rev. S. J. Ezell of Clanton and Rev. Sam Adams of Thorsby made very touching and appropriate talks. Mr. W. H. Conway testified to her life as a very exemplary one as friend, neighbor and Christian. Mr. Conway was a co-member with her in Union Grove church for a number of years.

Our losss is heaven's gain. We are separated but not forever. Jesus said "If a Man Believe in Me, Tho He Were Dead, Yet, Shall He Live Again."

Mr. Columbus Conway and Geo. Collum went to Montgomery Tuesday to attend United State court.

The Legislative Educational Committee was here Saturday in order to learn what the schools of this section needed, o rin other words, what the people wanted in the way of legislation for the schools.

Mrs. C. C. Conway, who has been sick for several days is improving.

Jemison Hardware Co. has purchased the grist mill of C. C. Ray and it will now be in charge of Mr. Cobb McNeill.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Collum spent Sunday in Birmingham with relatives.

Mrs. Tom Gordon has returned home from a visit to her parents at Albany, Ala.

The remains of Dr. C. L. Wooley of Green Pond, la., were laid to rest here in Pine Hill Cemetery Friday, April 27.

Funeral services were held from the Baptist church with Rev. Sam Adams officiating.

Mrs. Paul Ousley spent Saturday in Birmingham shopping.

Mrs. Lige Glass is reported to be very ill.

Miss Nell Poole of Fairview spent Thursday in Clanton shopping.

Miss Vida Poole of Route 2 visited relatives here Saturday night and Sunday.

"Masters of Men"

At The Wadesonian Theatre Friday and Saturday

The greatest story of the sea ever written!

A thrilling story of he-men, men who wear hair on their chests, whose veins run hot with red fighting blood!

A blunt, vigorous yarn of a boy's fight upward against overwhelming odds, where fight means a hard fist and prime muscle, high courage and a ready wallop!

Shanghaied! Drugged by crimps and flung insensible into thee hellhole forward, where sweating, brow-, beaten men live like beasts scourged to their tasks with curses and belaying pin.

The sea! The flavor of salt in the nostrils; the odor of pitch in the air, the snapping of wind-swept canvas crackling like a machine gun; the creaking, singing wood straining as she rides the high waves! All the magic and lure of adventure, the Spanish Main and sailormen!

Love! A timid boy's unspoken dream of his heart's desire; a girl too old fashioned to offer love unbidden; a lad's sacrifice of youth's dearest possession—honor—to protect her from the shame of another's crime; the confusion of bitter misunderstandings that threaten lifelong broken hearts!

Uncle Sam's bluejackets! The fighting men of the greatest nation in the world, and what they think and how they live; their loyalty and cheer and youth, eternal, living, fighting youth! The careless devil-may-care "gob," incorrigible, loyal; impudent and loveable!

Romance! The sea spells romance. Red sunsets turn green waves to crashing mountains of blood; noon suns spread gold upon the bosom of the sea, gold that beckons and calls to youth to gather its riches; never-ending mirages of golden bowls at rainbows' ends. And, the sea gives no riches; only character and manhood, bitterly squeezed out of its cold, hard business.

Wholesome, clean, healthy! A boy's life of adventure, free from tawdry conflicts and sex illusions, based on fact gathered by one who served among men, who loved men, who admired men and who wished young America to so live that he might become a man! The trash of silly, social temptations has no place in this story of a boy who became the master of the man.

The Yankee ever has been master of the sea! Decatur, John Paul Jones—history has written the feats of great merican seamen into all time. Here is a story of the making of such men; men who acted annd argued later; men out of whom Dewey and Schley and Sampson and "Fighting Bob" Evans were chosen, each for his day's work for the Stars and Stripes. Shifty-footed men, with a right and left punch and a keen eye and a high sense of honor and guts to go the limit!

Dick Halpin is the lad you wanted to be; and I wanted to be! He's the fellow we dreamed of, whose fighting courage we envied. He's the boy that assumed another's petty crime and ran away to sea to live it down, that the girl he loved might not be shamed and humiliated by the revelation of her brother's weakness. He's the fellow you and I used to talk about; that lad of strength and honor we built with boyish imaginations up in the haymow, or while idling with a home-made fishin' rod down by the creek. He's your kind and my kind and because we had fathers and mothers to make our way easier we never managed to be him; but we wanted to and we'll live our dreams again with Dick Halpin in this vivid, living story, "Masters of Men."

A master of men wrote this great sea tale. A man whose l efiwas as hard as the diamonds he cut and who never wrote a line untl he had lved beyond an average man's age; a man who took a beating at the hands of a brutal second mate with a smile, and who administered a beating with equal cheerfulness; a man who knew the sea and a sailorman's life; who criticized rightfully Kipling and who wrote his first sea tale to prove that a man who knew the sea could write a better story of the sea; a man who earned little by his pen and who starved while hew rote; the greatest writer of sea stories in all literature.

Morgan Robertson, a master of men, wrote the last word in thrilling sea stories when he wrote "Masters of Men."

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

State of Alabama, Chilton County.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Omar L. Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said L. H. Foster, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 1st day of June, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, this 28th day of April, 1923.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

PRESIDENT ADMITS ACTING BOYISH PRANK

When 8-Year-Old Killed Gander, Allowed Gobbler to Take the Blame

Washington, April 30.—A new story about President Harding went the rounds in Washington Monday, and it was a true story because the president told it himself during his informal address before the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

The story was related by the president as one of the motivating influences which in his later life as editor of The Marion Star led to the adoption of a code of ethics for his newspaper. In the language of the president the story follows:

"When I was a boy of about eight years, it was my fortune every Summer to go to the home of my grandfather on the farm. One of my chores was to bring in the cows at milking time, and one evening I got my orders to go for the cows and was unwillingly complying, but as I skipped along, boylike, I picked up a stone that we called a 'sailor'—a thin stone, you will remember, that you throw and it sails in the air—and I let it go without any responsibility or design, at a flock of geese.

"And, by some misfortune of fate, the sharp edge of this stone struck a fine big gander in the right side of the head and he whirled a half dozen times and fell dead.

"In my excess of sorrow that I had killed the gander and my sense of injury to my grandfather, I rushed after the cows without making a word of explanation. And when I came back I found my grandmother plucking the gander to save the feathers and grandfather was orating. He had examined the dead bird and had concluded that it had been killed by a very ill-behaved turkey gobbler, and he reasoned out that the gobbler had struck him in the side of the head and had killed him, and thereupon decreed the gobbler should die.

"And there I stood, a boyish culprit and liar through omission, saying nothing in the gobbler's defense, and he went to the block, and helped to eat him, and a more innocent gobbler had never lived and died.

"It may seem strange, but that incident has recurred to me a thousand times in my life, and is ever impelling fair statement."

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

Two hundred Tuscaloosa children attended the Diamond theatre at Tuscaloosa on April 25th by paying their admission with tin cans. The management of the theatre had offered each child an admission ticket to the theatre for 10 tin cans. George Lancaster was the winner of a month's admission ticket for the largest number of cans brought during that day, he having gathered 389. The offer was made to rid Tuscaloosa of as much old junk as possibly. The total number of cans collected was 3,086.

Sportsmen in Marshall County are quietly beginning a fight against the automatic shot gun as a weapon for hunting game and it is probable that a movement will be started by them for the enactment of a law by the next session of the legislature to forbid the use of automatics by hunters. The automatic is charged with being the cause of the decrease of game throughout the country and sportsmen in many states are lining up against its use.

Railroads have no right to seize coal tendered to them for transportation to consignees or to apply such coal to their own uses, under a decision of the supreme court in the case of Samuel Zimmern versus the Southern Railway, which was transferred to Montgomery from the Mobile circuit court. During the coal shortage several months ago Alabama railroads diverted shipments of coal to their own uses, contending that their supplies were not sufficient to maintain their trains.

Governor Brandon has announced that the state will pay a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of a man named Clark, who is charged with being one of a trio which inflicted serious wounds on A. P. Nelson, sheriff of Franklin county, and a Mississippi officer when they attempted to raid a moonshine still on the border of Alabama and Mississippi recently.

Assurances of support to Anniston's board of education, which is facing a deficit of $11,000 in the operation of the Aniston schools for the present year, has been voted by the Anniston Exchange club, which has announced that the club stands ready to cooperate with the board and the citizens' committee in raising money to prevent embarrassment in the conduct of Anniston's schools.

Plans are now on foot to bring an extension of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad from 18 miles distance from Albany and Decatur to the Twin Cities as well as construction of a branch line of the L. & N. railroad through Lawrence county, according to a report made to the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce recently.

Alabama public service commission and State Attorney General Harwell G. Davis filed a motion in federal court at Montgomery asking for the dismissal of the bill of the Alabama Power Company seeking an injunction against the commission to prevent the enforcement of the commission's order for a seasonal ice manufacturer's power rate.

Loafing at the passenger stations at Huntsville is being broken up by police who have made several arrests. Police have set out to stop the congregation of the aimless persons who make up much of the crowds that congest the depots, and those who are arrested and proved to be guilty of vagrancy are being fined heavily by the Mayor.

Ashville celebrated the greatest event in her history on April 26th, with thousands present. The event being the one-hundredth anniversary of the founding of Ashville and in addition a Confederate monument was unveiled in line with Memorial Day exercises.

John P. Preston, 58 years old, former member of the Alabama legislature from Etowah county and one of the best known school teachers of the Gadsden district, died at his home in Attalla on April 26th.

Prof. W. I. Powers who has been principal of the Jasper grammar schools for two years, has been elected principal of the Walker County High school.

The city schools of Anniston will hold their annual field day meet on Friday, May 4.

ECONOMY PLEDGE HOLDING GOOD

Washington, April 23.—"The results of harmonious co-operation between the Executive and Legislative branches of the government in reducing public expenditures will be highly gratifying to the taxpayers of the United States," says the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "Figures are usually dry reading matter, but people who have just finished making their income tax returns ought to be interested in the showing that has been made by Senator Warren, Chairman of the appropriations Committee in the Senate, and Representative Madden, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee in the House.

"According to the presentation they have made, based upon the records, the total appropriations for the fiscal year 1924 are nearly $234,000,000 less than for the fiscal year 1923. This reduction was accomplished notwithstanding the fact that the 1923 appropriations marked an enormous decrease over the year 1922.

"The care with which the executive departments and the Budget Bureau prepared their estimates of the amounts needed is evidenced by the fact that when Congress passed the appropriation bills the net decrease of appropriations as compared with estimates was less than one per cent of the total amount requested. That is the sort of business management that gives assurance to the American people that the affairs of their government are in the hands of competent and conscientious men.

"But it is not alone in the reduction of the total amount of appropriations that improvement is seen in the manner of conducting the public business. For many years it has been the practice of the executive departments to send in their regular estimates and then after Congress has met and after public attention has been diverted from the estimates, send in supplemental estimates running into the hundreds of millions. Under the budget system, which the Republican Congress enacted and which the Republican administration has put into practical effect, the aggregate of supplemental estimates submitted to the recent session of Congress was only slightly more than one million dollars. Any business man will agree that it takes exceedingly good management and a high order of business ability to make estimates several months in advance which later require a revision of only one-thirtieth of one per cent.

"All this has not been accomplished without hard work. It has required close attention on the part of the heads of the administrative bureaus, on the part of the Director of the Budget, and on the part of the Appropriation Committees of both Senate and House. Moreover, it has required faithful adherence to the pledge of economy on which the Republican Congress was elected in 1920.

"The Republicans suffered a number of reverses in the Congressional elections of 1922. They have the satisfaction of knowing, however, that those reverses were not justified by the record of accomplishment."

WAS A GOOD JUDGE OF LIQUOR

"Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try Mayr's Wonderfu' Remedy, and I am now as good as new." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes.

Note: Write for valuable free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend," to Bradfield Regulator Company, BA-23, Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

TOMATO GROWERS TAKE NOTICE!

I wish to call attention of the tomato growers to the letter of Mr. J. W. Norton elsewhere in this paper, giving instructions as to the preparation of the soil, planting the seed, cultivation, etc., of the tomatoes.

No doubt it will be of much interest to the growers to take note that Mr. Norton, who has had thirty years experience in growing and canning tomatoes, advises that tomatoes should not be staked or pruned. We figure that this cuts off nearly half the work and will give the grower a much better profit for the work done.

The seed have been ordered and are expected to arrive by the latter part of this week or the first of next. The required amount of seed for each community will be furnished the Business gent and you will get your seed from him.

I take this opportunity to say if there are others, either union or non-union men whom we have not seen, and who desire to plant tomatoes or take stock in the plant, please advise us at once.

MULBERRY W. M. U. MEETS

The W. M. U. of Mulberry Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. D. O. Manning Saturday afternoon, April 28. A short program was rendered.

Song, How Firm a Foundation.
Scripture Reading.
Prayer by Mrs. J. H. Wells.

The first chapter of Matthew was studied and discussed by members.

The president, Mrs. D. O. Manning presided over the business meeting. Part of the work for the year was planned. Two new members were added to the roll.

Before the Society was dismissed by sentence prayer, the hostess served refreshments to Mesdames C. C. Williams, A. D. Martin, R. J. Williams, E. M. McCraw and J. H. Wells. Besides the members present was Mrs. J. H. Wells of Ensley.

On account of sickness some could not go, but we invited as many of our ladies who can come to be at our next meeting, which will be at the church Saturday afternoon, May 12.

THE LAST ONE WAS A FARM CONGRESS

As the dust settles after the passing of the Sixty-seventh Congress the spokesmen for the farmers are examining the results of the session and pronouncing them good. They have reason so to pronounce. They were amazingly successful in getting what they asked. While they are getting ready to ask for more, much more, they made a grand start on a special code of legslatiion for the benefit, use and special behoof of the man between the plow handles.

Just how great that start was may be seen from a summary of farm legislation passed between April, 1921, and March, 1923, as prepared by the American Farm Bureau Federation, the daddy of the farm bloc. It reads:

1. Provided intermediate farm credit, affording the farmer a new channel for credit running from six months to three years. * * *

2. Increased amount individuals may borrow on farm mortgages through co-operative Federal Farm Loan Banks from $10,000 to $25,000.

3. Placed meat-packing industry under Federal supervision. * * *

4. Placed a tax on trading in grain futures, supervised grain exchanges and legalized membership of co-operatives on grain exchanges.

5. Legalized co-operative marketing * * * thus relieving the constant shadow of the court which menaced all co-operative marketing activities.

6. Furnished farm-to-market highway program and appropriated funds to be used during next three years.

7. Increased working capital of Federal Farm Loan System, making it possible to float bond issues more easily.

8. Provided increase to 5 1-2 per cent interest on farm loan bonds.

9. Revised the tax schedule; reduced the surtax.

10. Limited immigration * * * barring hundreds of thousands of undesirables.

11. Prohibited manufacture and sale of filled milk, thus protecting dairy industry to extent of many millions annually.

12. Created an 80 per cent fat standard of butter.

13. Appropriated money for credit to Northwest farmers having crop failures and defining crop failures.

14. Strengthened warehouse act, making it apply to all agricultural products, and making warehouse receipts useful in banking channels.

15. Placed representative of farmers * * * on Federal Reserve Booard.

16. Recreated War Finance Corporation, extending its usefulness in advancing credits on agricultural products.

17. Appropriated funds for the Department of Agriculture.

18. Enacted an emergency tariff, followed by a permanent tariff.

Farm bloc or no farm bloc, several of these measures would have passed; but the farmers assert they put their own mark on them. While they lost the Muscle Shoals project, the Truth-in-Fabric Bill and a few other pet measures, altogether it was a great session for them, and to an amazing degree they stamped it as a "Farm Congress." Some of the measures were justified, others set dangerous precedents and were unjustified, but never before in any session has the farmer come so near getting what he demanded.

If the farm bloc can hold together against the "insurgency" that is pulling it a half-dozen ways at once it will be back next December to get what it was unable to carry off in the last session. Now its main problem is in deciding just what it does want, how far it is willing to go and how peace shall be kept in its own ranks. Guaranteed crop prices, Federal rail ownership, low freight rates for farmers and high freight rates for manufacturers are on the agenda of some of its members who believe in "gittin' a plenty while you are a gittin.'"—Philadelphia Pub. Ledger.

Canning Factory For Chilton County Assured

Sufficient Number of Subscriptions Received to Start the Ball to Rolling.

Messrs. Baxley and Clay came into our offce Monday morning with broad smiles on their faces, and reported to us that although a few more shares would have to be sold later, enough names had been secured to the petitions to call a meeting of the subscribers and elect an Executive Committee and officers of the company. Cards have been mailed out to those signing the petitions urging them to be present at the county court house on Thursday, May 10, at 2 p.m. So, you can tell your friends to plant their tomatoes and get ready to harvest a big crop of them, because the United Farmers have pulled the thing over. We are going to have a canning factory.

A few more shares remain yet to be sold, but Mr. Heard, secretary of the Clanton Chamber of Commerce, agreed to keep working among the business men of Clanton until he gets the remainder of them disposed of. You see, we business men of Clanton are different from the people out in the country. We have to have lots of time to consider and ponder over these propositions into which we are putting so much of our cash. We can't afford to put out a few dollars to help bring more business to our town, until we have ample time to digest every phase of the scheme and see whether or not it is going to help our particular line. But if you will just use plenty of patience with us, we will finally see the point and come out of the crack.

The United Farmers of this county are to be highly congratulated for the splendid work they have done in this behalf. They foresaw in the beginning of this enterprise that it meant something to them, and did not hesitate a minute to enter it. They went into it to win, and they have won, despite the fact that they have received little encouragement from the town people. This farmers organization is a thing to be proud of. It is bringing to the farmers just what they have been sorely needing for all time past, and that is co-operative marketing and buying. The farmers have always taken what the other fellow wanted to give for his products and paid what the other fellow wanted him to pay for his goods. By means of the United Farmers they are going to have something to say about what they get for their produce and what they pay for the stuff they buy. By co-operating the farmer can be the most independent man in the world, and if they will only stick to this organization, this position will be realized within the period of a few years.

Now just a word to the business men of Clanton. Quite a few have responded nobly to the work of raising our part of the stock, and to these we will say that we are indeed proud to have such citizens in our midst. You have shown that you have an interest in our town and county and also in this splendid farmers organization. But to those who have the means to buy stock but not the sufficient interest in the advancement and progress of our town and county, we say that you do not deserve to live in even as good a town as Clanton is today. You are not showing to your fellowman any appreciation for what he has done for you. You want Clanton to build some large factories and bring lots of people and money here, but you want the other fellow to bear all the expenses and do all the work. If we can't put five thousand dollars into a canning factory, how in the world are we ever going to have anything here worth while?

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION MONDAY

The May term of county court was in session at the court house on Monday, May 7, Judge L. H. Reynolds presiding. The following cases were disposed of:

Cull Goodwyn, violating prohibition law; agreed to plead guilty at next term of court.

Edgar Gilbert, burglary; bound over to grand jury.

George W. Hudgens, making whiskey and having still in possession; appealed to circuit court.

NOTICE TO WHISKEY DEALERS

In cases where people are caught violating the prohibition law, we are often asked by the violators not to say anything about it through the paper. In a few cases we have complied with their requests, they being good friends of ours and we not desiring to hurt anyone's feelings. But to such people we say now and here, that unless you want some free newspaper publicity, you will have to stay out of the way of the law enforcement officers. We dislike to refuse anyone a favor, but when we refrain from publishing the truth about such cases, we feel that we are to an extent sheltering crime, which we believe no law-abiding citizen should do at all. So if you have the misfortune to get caught by the law, please avoid embarrassment to us and to yourself by not asking us to leave your name out of print.

SUPREME COURT SAYS 4 PERSONS MUST SOON HANG

Decision of Lower Courts is Affirmed —One Woman to Die on Murder Charge.

Four persons, one woman and three men, will hang in Alabama June 8, unless the pardoning board intervenes. The supreme court in decisions handed down Thursday in four separate cases in which the defendants had been sentenced to pay the death penalty affirmed the decision of the lower courts in each case, and fixed the date of execution for each defendant on June 8.

Nellie Bestor, negro woman, was convicted of killing her husband, evidence showing that he was killed with an axe, his body dissevered, mutilated, partly burned, and the remains finally submerged in a stream. The case was appealed from the Bibb circuit court.

Tom Wilson, of Limestone county, was convicted of the killing of Kirby Cole.

Ben Moore, Chambers county, used an axe on his victim, according to the testimony which convicted him, he being sentenced to hang for killing J. A. Taylor.

SEMI-ANNUAL SINGING CONVENTION HELD

The Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony Singing Convention, holding its semi-annual session at New Harmony Church, near Lomax, on Saturday and Sunday, May 5th and 6th, was crowned with success.

Saturday was very good, despite the unfair weather, and many visitors were present, whom we gladly welcomed in our midst.

During the afternoon business matters were attended to and officers for the ensuing year were renominated and re-elected as follows:

Z. J. Jones, president; T. J. Jackson, vice-president, and Era Sanders, secretary.

A committee, which was formed in the beginning of the session arranged for the directors. Also time given each director—being fifteen minutes each.

Sunday was particularly good. It seemed that the supreme influence guided the destiny of that Sabbath day, as the very first bright face we beheld upon rising was that of "Old Sol." And we hustled around to comply with the wish of our good president, Mr. Jones, to meet at the church at exactly 8:60.

The convention was called to order by singing "Canaan's Land," directed by the vice president, T. J. Jackson, followed with prayer by J. W. Hayes.

Directors for the day were: The vice-president, the secretary, J. W. Hayes, J. H. Martin, A. A. Jackson, Misses Ida Scott and Edna Jackson, Mrs. Essie Cleckler, Mrs. Sarah Bates, C. C. Calloway, Rev. Lawley, T. C. Jackson, J. L. and W. A. Hayes, T. J. Baker, H. Scott, Jack Langston, W. L. Sanders, W. L. Jackson, Will Morris and Prof. J. W. Evans.

Prof. Evans is of Fort Payne. We appreciated his good help in the song service, and wish to extend an invitation to him to meet with us in all the other conventions that we may have the pleasure of attending; also to the good singers of Birmingham, who so greatly contributed to the service. We thank you for your kind assistance and wish to assure you that your presence on this occasion was inspiring.

The music was sweet and uplifting —sung by such a large number of singers, and it affords us great pleasure whenever we think of the vast audience of listeners.

The hospitality of the surrounding community was unstinted and we feel sure that everyone did his best toward making the convention a success.

May we meet in many more just such good conventions, is the earnest wish of

THE SECRETARY.

A CORRECTION

In the article which we published in last week's paper about the state examiner being at the court house, it may be inferred that the examiner found some discrepancies in the records of our present circuit clerk, Mr. J. Z. Mims. In this regard we will state it was reported to us that Mr. Mims charged a fee of $10.00 each for three Sunday gaming cases. When the examiner found this he thought that the fee should have been $15.00 each, and wrote up a shortage against Mr. Mims of $15.00 on the three cases. But when the examiner went back to Montgomery he looked up the law on the matter and found that Mr. Mims was right in the first place, and that he had charged the proper fee according to law. So then this was not a fault of Mr. Mims at all. Therefore, so far as we can ascertain, nothing was found irregular in the records of Mr. Mims.

ALABAMA POWER CO. SHOWN ON THE SCREEN

Special Attraction at The Wadesonian Theatre Friday Night.

Quite an attraction at the Wade Theatre Friday night was the two reels of pictures of the developments of the Alabama Power Company in this State. The pictures took up Lock 12, Mitchell Dam, and the company's steam reserve plants, explaining each with vivid and interesting scenes. It also showed a map of the State together with all of the transmission lines of the company.

The officers of the company were shown, the first of whom was old Captain Lay, the daddy of it all. Also the pictures of the president, Thos. W. Martin and Chief Engineer Thurlow were shown. To see this picture is the only way to thoroughly appreciate the huge amount of work the company is doing in Alabama.

The average citizen does not realize what the Alabama Power Company means to the development of the State. It is the greatest thing that has ever come to our State.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

Commencement exercises will begin at the high school next Sunday with a class of twenty-seven graduating on the following Friday night. The commencement sermon will be delivered by Rev. H. C. Treadgill, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Andalusia, Ala. Mr. Treadgill has been in great demand this season for commencement sermons and we may expect a masterful sermon on that day.

Miss Roberta Curry will present her pupils in the annual high school recital Tuesday evening beginning at 8:15 o'clock. This program will be a splendid feature of commencement.

The Undergraduate play, "When East Meets West," will be presented Thursday evening. This is expected to be the best play of the year. Every character has had quite a bit of previous experience in dramatics. You will see a high class performance on this night.

The culminating event will be the graduation exercises on Friday night. The auditorium will not hold the people on that night. Very fortunate indeed were we to secure Dr. Spright Dowell, president of Auburn, for this occasion. Dr. Dowell knows the school situation of Alabama from the smallest country school to the highest college of the State. We may count on him for a splendid address to the graduating class.

BIG CITY PROPERTY DEAL

A city property deal involving the most cash which has been pulled for several years was effected this week when J. T. Rockett purchased the vacant Chestnut block on Fourth street and Second avenue. This is by far the most valuable residence property now vacant anywhere in the town, and Mr. Rockett took a wise step when he purchased the same. There have been several men heretofore trying to buy this property, but failed.

It is Mr. Rockett's intention to build residences on most of the lots, but we presume that some of them will be split up and sold.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL

Mr. John T. Ellis recently consummated one of the largest land deals which has happened around here in some time, when he purchased of Mr. Clarence Mullins of Birmingham all of the real estate holdings of the old defunct Clanton Bank. The land in all includes about 1,600 acres all lying in the eastern part of the county. All of the property is composed of the old John Jones tract of land lying all the way from a short distance below Lock 12 nearly to Mitchell Dam. It also takes in the old Red Jones tract on Hog Creek.

Nearly all of this land is covered with the finest timber in the world, and what is not now well timbered will be within the course of a few years. Mr. Ellis is a wide awake business man, and he never fails to latch on to a good thing when it comes within his grasp. This deal will make him lots of money in later years.

MAPLE SPRINGS

There will be singing at this place next Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at 2 o'clock. We expect to have some good singing and we give everybody a cordial invitation to come and assist us. Your help will be appreciated by us, and the Lord will be praised.

Prominent Citizen of Clanton Dies Suddenly

Joseph P. VanDerveer, Well Known Citizen and Official, Passes Away Saturday Evening.

Late Saturday afternoon all of Clanton was severely shocked when the news was broadcast that death had come suddenly to one of the best known and highest respected citizens of Clanton and Chilton county, Joseph P. VanDerveer. Reports say that Mr. VanDerveer had been slightly sick all day Saturday, but some time during the afternoon went down in town. After returning to the house he ate supper and took his rocking chair in the room where a paper hanger was at work hanging paper. He sat [illegible] some time watching the man work. After a while Mrs. VanDerveer came into the room and at once detected something wrong with Mr. VanDerveer. Dr. Gragg was summoned and arrived at the house in a few minutes, finding that the old gentleman was practically lifeless. Death seemed to have come just as if he had dropped off to sleep, giving no sign of pain whatsoever.

Doubtless no person in Chilton county is more universally known than the deceased. And more than that, his friends rank just as high as his acquaintances. He was always friendly to everybody, and was admired by all. Chilton county can give up such a citizen as the above named only with great misfortune and hurt to our town, county and state.

Mr. VanDerveer was born in the city of Montgomery, at the spot where the Masonic Temple now stands, in the year 1858, which made him at his death 64 years old. He has lived in Chilton county for the past 45 years. He lived in and near Jemison 15 years and in Clanton for the other thirty. He served one term as circuit clerk of this county, and was county tax commissioner for eight years. Was mayor of Clanton for several years and city clerk for some time. All these offices he filled to the perfect satisfaction of the public.

Shortly after he came to this county he was married to Miss Nelia McMath of the northern part of the county. To them were born five children—Willie, who died twelve years ago; John, now living in Clanton; Pattie, who was married to Mr. J. R. Powell of Birmingham; Joe, who died of influenza in 1918; and Bessie, who married Mr. Alex Richards of Jackson, Tenn. He is also survived by his wife.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Monday at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. J. Ezell preaching the funeral. The Knights Templar, assisted by the Masons, conducted the services. This was indeed one of the most impressive funeral services ever held in this locality, and was attended by hosts of people, all of which went to show with what esteem the deceased was held among his fellow beings. Interment was made in the Clanton Cemetery.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

The family and relatives of the late Joseph P. VanDerveer ask us to express through our paper their heartfelt thanks and deepest appreciation to their friends and neighbors for their tender help and sympathy shown them during their recent bereavement.

CULVER—SCHLOEMER

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foshee of Clanton, Ala., announce the engagement of their daughter, Eula Bell Culver to Mr. Louis A. Schloemer of Louisville, Ky., the wedding to be an event of June 2nd.

Mrs. S. P. McElreath of Norwood, entertained Friday evening in honor of Miss Eula Bell Culver, of this city. The evening was spent in games and dancing. The dining room was decorated appropriate for the occasion. The center piece was an owl with a scroll under his wing, which when opened by the hostess contained the following: "To whoo! To whoo! To whom it may concern; Who to! Who to! To you that you may learn; The two, the two engaged I do affirm Eula Bell Culver and Louis A. Schloemer. Above the owl hung a bird's nest with two birds inside. A contest was entered into and the prize, a pair of silver salt and pepper shakers, was won by Mr. Ajax Moody and presented by him to the bride-to-be. Sixty guests enjoyed the evening.

THE BULLS OF J. BULL

The British people are said to be borne down by a tax rate that is stifling industry and killing individual initiative. There appears to be little reason for such a heavy burden, however, and the application of some enlightened American economic principles would speedy relief. Instead of decreasing the national revenue with a substantial tax cut, and then straining every nerve to avoid a government deficit, which has been the Republican program at Washington, the British allow their tax rate to stand while a big surplus accumulates. The surplus for the British fiscal year, just closed, is about $500,000,000. The government is also expending about $500,000,000 a year in cash doles for the support of the unemployed. If the surplus and the doles were abolished, and British taxes lowered a billion dollars a year, it is probable that industry would pick up at once, unemployment would rapidly disappear, and the sources of taxation would be so increased that still further tax reductions could be granted. Such has been the program in this country. We had no doles, but a drastic tax reduction of $800,000,000 was ordered by statute, and then the Harding administration proceeded to cut the cost of government to fit the lowered revenues. The result has been the elimination of unemployment, and a rapid increase in income tax receipts as industry has revived.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.

ASKS AUTHORITY TO USE POWER AT LOCK 17 DAM

Birmingham (Special).—A petition has been filed with the Federal Power Commission by Alabama Power Company for license to develop power at the Government's navigation dam, Lock 17, on the Warrior River, about 20 miles above Tuscaloosa, according to an announcement by Thomas W. Martin, Presidnt.

It was also announced that a similar petition had been filed with the Alabama Public Service Commission requesting the approval of that body of the proposed development.

While the dam at Lock 17 is 63 feet high and 1200 feet long, the flow of the Warrior is so varied that its use for the development of power has long been considered economically impractical, and officials of the Power Company state that any power development of any kind at that point is possible only because of the Company's ability to tie-in the proposed Lock 17 plant with its six other hydro-electric and steam generating stations. While at certain seasons of the year the Warrior is a raging torrent, capable of generating several thousand horsepower of electricity, at other seasons the stream flow is barely sufficient to turn the water wheels. During these times, however, it could do what is known as "float" the generators on the line, making the plant valuable as a voltage booster for the Tuscaloosa District, which is at the end of a single-circuit line. The proposed use of Lock 17 by the Power Company is considered a boom to Tuscaloosa, as it will be the means of bettering the power service of that city.

Belief is expressed that the application of the Power Company will be granted, especially in view of the fact that it is the sole agency in the state with sufficient reserve steam plant capacity to make use of seasonal power, such as that at Lock 17. It is pointed out that when the water is low in the Warrior, the shortage could be supplied from the Power Company's reserve steam plants at Gorgas or Gadsden, or from the Muscle Shoals plant leased from the Government, and that when there is sufficient water in the Warrior of operate the Lock 17 plant, its use would be the means of saving many tons of coal.

In addition, the Govenment would derive some revenue from the use of this power, which has been going to waste since the completion of the dam in 1915. A powerhouse would have to be constructed by the Power Company and water wheels installed, calling for a large expenditure of money, giving employment to several hundred men and ultimately resulting in the payment of taxes to the State and County on the investment made.

No details are available as to the size of the proposed development, it being necessary for the engineers of the Power Company to work these out in conjunction with the Federal Power Commission. It is understood, however, that work would be undertaken as shortly after the granting of a license as is possible.

Hon. F. A. Gulledge of Verbena was in Clanton attending to business matters Monday.

Mrs. W. M. Wyatt and children left Saturday morning for their new home in Fort Payne, Ala.

WILLIAM MARTIN WRITES ABOUT TRIP TO GEORGIA

Thomaston, Ga., May 6, 1923.
Editor Union-Banner:

Allow us a small space in your paper to say a few words about our trip to Georgia. On Wednesday, May 2, at 10:30 a.m., we left Clanton, and arrived at Thomaston, Ga., at 12:30 that night. Had a nice trip, and lots of fun. Was awful tired and sleepy when we arrived, altho we are feeling good now and like our camp just fine, which is one mile from the center of the State. We have a beautiful camp, and a good one too. The work is going on nicely although the weather has been bad for the past few days.

On Saturday night Mr. E. L. Sunberg and J. F. Parker, accompanied by Mr. W. M. Martin, went fishing. (They call going to see the girls, going fishing). All they need to get by with is Mr. Ernest Eiland. On Saturday afternoon two beautiful young ladies motored out to camp from Thomaston in a new Nash asking for Mr. Ernest Eiland (better known here by the name of Felix, Jr.)

Mrs. D. N. Robinson and daughter Lena, went out fishing Saturday afternoon. Caught more fish in one hour than the men could eat for supper and breakfast. They both say there isn't anything in Alabama for them more than a visit to their friends twice a year.

Messrs. Hoyt Williams, Dolby and Lester Robinson spent Saturday at Thomaston. Think they found them a "jane" out there, the way they are hustling around here this a.m.

We have music every night by Mr. E. L. Sunberg (accordian); dancing by the crowd and visitors. Oh, boys! back in Alabama—you are missing your life by not being with us. We have with us Mr. Vatelle Barren, the master mechanic. He's helping us with our bridge work now, but just a few weeks and we will help him with his peaches, as he has over a hundred acres in orchard. Oh, Georgia is some State. No, thank you people at Thorsby and Collins Chapel, we don't want any more strawberries; these May peaches are just fine.

We are planning to motor over to Columbus, Ga., this afternoon, and next Sunday if the weather is favorable. We will spend the day at Atlanta, Ga., where we are expecting a grand time. The roads here are just fine and we are planning to use them some.

We would be glad to receive letters from any of our friends back home.

"A HAPPY CROWD."

It takes a high-grade flour like Gilster's Best to make tender, flaky pie crust and light, delicate cake. Of course, Gilster's Best costs a little more than ordinary flour, but good cooks know that it is worth it.

In baking with Gilster's Best, be sure to use less lard than you ordinarily would. Because of its high quality and the extreme fineness to which it is ground, Gilster's Best requires less shortening.

If you perfer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

Now that the canning factory is assured, let all hands and the cook get busy on our drainage project.

Clanton's program is first to drain our creek swamps and then build a cotton factory. The capital is right here in Clanton, so what else do we need?

If the record of the Republican administration were as devoid of praise as the southern press tries to make it, Mr. Harding might as well come down; but it is different in the eyes of those who are not blinded with petty, narrow, stale prejudices.

Opp and Geneva are each building a large $300,000 cotton mill, and Fayette has almost completed a huge drainage project. But Clanton can't even subscribe $5,000 to a canning factory. This is indeed a shame on the moneyed men of Clanton.

A firm old friend of the Banner, in the person of Mr. Wallace C. Edler of Thorsby, was in Clanton Monday attending to business matters. Mr. Edler is a life-long friend of this paper, he having given several of his best years to the early upbuilding of the paper. He was editor and manager of the Union until it was consolidated with the Banner in 1912.

The Pan-American conference at Santiago is considering the adoption of a code of American international law, a feature of which will be the amplification of the principles of the Monroe Doctrine. One of the provisions is to the effect that no state may intervene in the interior or exterior affairs of an American state against its will. What becomes of the league of nations covenant in its application to the New World if that provision is adopted? Friends of the league have taken pains to point out that almost every government represented at Santiago, except the United States, is a member of the league. But those countries have long since discarded the covenant as of no benefit to them, and their convictions in that regard are now to be incorporated in a formal treaty. The covenant is essentially a program for the application of force for the preservation of peace, but the new American international law code is a declaration that the application of Old World force to the republics of the New World will not be tolerated.

CLEAN-UP CLANTON MOVE

The ladies of Clanton have instituted a move the purpose of which is to make Clanton a clean and fit place to live in. The Union-Banner hereby gives its hearty endorsement to this move, and we join them in urging every citizen to help in the undertaking. The time proclaimed is the last half of this month, and this is sufficient time in which Clanton could be made the beauty spot of Alabama, if all the people living here will only do a little work around your premises. Haven't you enough pride to want things clean and attractive around your home?

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

"Clean-up Weeks, May 15th to May 30th

In the interest of public health, civic pride and civic beauty, I am asking the hearty co-operation of every resident of our town to join us in a united effort to make Clanton one of the cleanest and healthiest towns in Alabama. I am therefore proclaiming May 15th to May 30th as "Clean-up Weeks."

t is not scriptual to say "That Cleanliness is Next to Godliness," but it is of the essence of truth. It is also true "That a Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever." "Clanton Clean and Beautiful" is our goal.

To reach this end, we must have the united co-operation of every family and every business house of the town. The ladies of the Civic League have offered and are giving their hearty co-operation to make Clanton a clean town. I am asking them to make a City-wide inspection of all business lots, vacant lots, and premises on May 31st. The lots and premises which show a worthy co-operation will be awarded a white flag to be displayed as an award of honor for one week.

V. J. GRAGG,
Mayor of Clanton.
This the 9th day day May, 1923.

SAM PARRISH ILL

On last Saturday night when starting to retire at his home in Clanton, Sam Parrish was stricken with a spell of some kind of paralysis. He was taken all at once and fell in the floor apparently dead, which state he remained in for several minutes. A physician was called and after some hard strenuous work the sick man was revived somewhat.

It is reported that he is still in a somewhat serious condition, but is gradually regaining his strength.

Evils of Constipation

Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease, keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Prosperity of no mean order is prevalent in and about Thorsby these days, everybody seems to be busy gathering in the dollars that are the reward of industry. The leader just now is strawberries, of which the sales for the past week have aggregated about $25,000. In spite of excessive rains the latter part of last week the berries were gathered in such condition that most of them were sold at a good price. The supply and quality still hold good and prices at this writing are quite satisfactory.

The industry next in importance is lumber, aggregating probably $10,000 a week and furnishes employment to a small army of people in the woods or at the mills and in hauling logs and lumber, and all drawing good pay.

Of the lesser industries the growing of flowers is by no means small and the area covered by shipments is much more extended than one unfamiliar with the business would think possible.

Just now sweet potato plants are "ripe" and the growers are exceedingly busy filling orders which will require nearly a million plants.

Our merchants are kept on the jump to wait on customers who are buying liberally and making satisfactory collections of old accounts.

Scientists tell us that one of the great needs of plant life is nitrogen. Iso that there is more nitrogen in the air over every county than ever has been or will be shipped from Chili, our present chief source of supply, but how to secure it in available form for use on the average farm is a problem, which although solved to an extent which makes it commercially practicable, is held up by a dilatory government, which has invested many millions of the money furnished by taxation, and have equipment, capable of large production, and upwards of three million bushels of the stuff now stored at their plant and like "A dog in a manger," neither use this (plant food) themselves or permit others to make or use it. Not a pound of the stuff is available for the farmers and not a wheel is being turned to produce more, whereas it is estimated, by good authority that if the plant were run to capacity it would add to the wealth of the nation in nitrate with its increase of crops to pay its entire cost in one year. While this holdup prevails, the farmer has a partial remedy in his own hands if he will but use the forces of nature so liberally provided in the earth and air. The various plants known as legumes, are all potent workers in gathering nitrogen from the air, and afford a mine of wealth to any farmer who will grow them, and after gathering the seed, leave every bit of leaves, stalks and roots to be plowed in for use of the soil in the making of another crop. The practice of gleaning all vegetation off our sandy soil is like drawing on a bank account and never making a deposit.

The soil needs just such material not only as a fertilizer but as humus to form a mulch that will prevent rapid drying out in hot weather.

In our long growing season it is possible on any well managed farm to have at least one crop, on a good part of it, to ploy under. Only those who have tried this system know how generously mother earth responds to the gift of such real food in the crops which follow "green manuring."

Mrs. Forsman and daughter Rosa, left Thorsby Monday night for New York where on May 12th they expect to sail for Sweden to make a somewhat extended visit among relatives and old friends.

On account of berry picking the regular monthly social of the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will be omitted. But you should remember that next Sunday is "Mothers Day" and also preaching Sunday, morning and evening, when Rev. Sam Heath will preach at the Baptist church.

Many of the students are absent temporarily from classes because of the need for strawberry pickers.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aaid Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Johanna Lefstead Thursday, May 17th, when she will be assisted by her daughter, Miss Alma Lefstead.

Rev. J. S. Eddins, of Birmingham, vice-president of Thorsby Institute board of trustees, was in town Monday to attend a special meeting of the board. He also visited some of the classes and seemed well pleased with what he saw.

On Saturday night, Mry 5th, "The Doo Dah Minstrel," composed of home talent and directed by C. E. Bice, who for three years was director of the orchestra on the Brown & Bowers Minstrel, played to a large and appreciative audience at Bates Hall. Mr. Bice wishes to thank the people for their liberal patronage, also the members of the company for their co-operation in helping make the play a success. He especially wishes to thank the members of the orchestra and Mr. N. O. Sappington for their help and faithful attendance at rehearsals. The minstrel was given for the benefit of the Baptist church, and was a decided success, $50.00 clear being realized. Mr. Bice also wishes to state that the minstrel will be presented again at an early date, but the exact date and place has not been definitely decided.

The union meeting of the clubs of the Helen Keller Literary Society will be held on Saturday evening, May 12, 7.30, at Bates Hall. The program will consist of a Latin play, presented by students in the Latin department of the school, readings by Mrs. Loveland and the play, The Maker of Dreams, by members of the Dramatic Club. Admission of 10c for non-members of the society will be charged as usual.

At the chapel exercises on the morning of May 8th, the anniversary of the first singing of "Home Sweet Home," in London, Miss May Maddox gave a sketch of the life of John Howard Payne, Miss Agnes Gerald sang "Home Sweet Home."

The students of the dormitory department were present at a strawberry party on Tuesday afternoon, given at the strawberry patch of Mr. R. A. Turner. Many strawberries were picked and eaten without delay.

Mr. Plato Deason and Miss Bertha Bowles spent Sunday in Lomax with members of their families at the Sacred Harp singing.

In the storm of last week two of the trees on the campus were blown down, much to the regret of the people who admire the trees, as one of the chief beauties of the campus.

Most of the seniors have handed in their commencement essays. From the essays submitted tw owill be chosen to be read at the commencement exercises on June 1st.

Last Sunday night at the Congregational church after the Christian Endeavor meeting, a moving picture film entitled "The Lord Will Provide" was used as a part of the evening service. This film was furnished by the Southern Church Film Society, and aside from its deeply religious character, it was a work of art of a high order, and the mechanism used in its presentation, in charge of Rev. J. M. Graham, worked so perfectly that there was no jerkiness, flicker or eye strain. We are well aware that there is in the minds of many people a strong sentiment against the use of moving pictures in church services. We also know that instrumental music in church services was once under the ban but from the crowded condition of all available space in the church at that service it appears that serious objection to such services is fast dying out.

Mr. Robert Shepard of Thorsby Institute will spend the week-end in Montevallo as the guest of his sister, who graduates this year from the Montevallo Technical Institute.

It is with great pleasure that we are able to announce the engagement of Miss Nell Shannon to succeed Miss Ruth Gerald, who goes to college next fall, as faculty secretary and head of the business and shorthand department of Thorsby Institute for the ensuing school year. Miss Shannon will be remembered as very capably filling this position for several months a few years ago. She is withal a young woman of pleasing personality who has many warm friends in Thorsby waiting to greet her return t oour community.

What Every Expectant Mother Should Know--

Mrs. Laura Hendrix, Gracemont, Okla., says: "I want to express my appreciation of "Mother's Friend." I am the mother of six children, expecting another one soon. I have used "Mother's Friend" with every one of my babies. I think it is the grandest help that has ever been discovered for the expectant mother. I can't do without it. I recommend it to all expectant mothers. I can't say too much for it."

"Mother's Friend" was originated by an eminent physician. It has saved thousands of expectant mothers from useless suffering. It is externally applied; aids the muscles and tissues to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and up to the moment baby arrives.

"Mother's Friend" is safe and beneficial, and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. Avoid mere greases and useless substitutes.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-14, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores —everywhere.

143 STILLS SEIZED IN STATE IN APRIL

Report of Law Enforcement Department Shows 238 Arrests During Month.

Montgomery, Ala., May 7.—One hundred and forty-three stills, 108,512 gallons of beer, 1,014 gallons of whiskey and 449 bottles of beer were captured and destroyed by state law enforcement officers during the month of April, and 238 arrests were made in the same period. These are some of the results shown by Chief Walter K. McAdory, of the state law enforcement department, in his report for the month of April, which has just been submitted to Gov. Wm. W. Brandon.

The 238 arrests were made for the following offenses: Operating a still, 35; having still in possession, 7; violating the prohibition laws, 91; bigamy, 1; public drunkenness, 9; reckless driving 2; desertion, 1; statutory offense, 1, carrying concealed weapons, 7, violating license law, 13; gaming, 20, assault with intent to murder, 5, murder, 2; abusive language, 4; kidnaping, 10; malicious mischief, 5; grand larceny, 1; obstructing justice, 4; conspiracy, 19; violating game laws, 1. Property confiscated included three Ford cars, one Chalmers, one Essex, a mule, a horse and a wagon.

Disposition during the month of old cases shows 45 convictions and five cases non-prossed, and of new cases, 52 convictions and one case nolprossed. In connection with disposition of the old cases there were two sentences of from one to two years and one for a year and a day. In the new cases there were one sentence of 10 years, eight of 90 days, tw of 13 months and one each for 18, 14, 6, 12 and 16 months, respectively.

Cash fines assessed in old cases totaled $3,262.64, and in new cases $4,269.25, or an aggregate of $7,531.89. Expenses, including salaries of $2,983.34 and other expenses of $2,069.05, or a total of $5,052.39. The excess of receipts over expenditures for the month was therefore $2,479.50.

CHESTNUT CREEK SINGING SOCIETY

Chestnut Creek Singing Society met Sunday p.m., May 6th, and as usual did some mighty good singing. The directors for the evening were: Huffman Burkhalter, Malburn Taylor, J. R. Robinson, Mack Boswell, O. L. Devaughn, Ralph D. Grant, T. L. Robinson, L. T. Grant, Archie M. Devaughn, W. M. Devaughn.

Organists were. Misses Lena Devaughn, Lela Taylor, Letha Mims and Messrs. Ralph D. Grant and Lee Grant. The Cooper quartet rendered some good songs, but the best feature of the evening was a mixed quartet rendered by Misses Genie Grant and Lena Devaughn and Messrs. Ralph D. Grant and Archie M. Devaughn.

We read of many good societies from all parts of the county of which we are very glad, but we really believe that we have the best in the county. If you have any doubt about it, just come and be with us and we will show you. We are always glad to have visitors to come and help us and especially would we be glad to have you, Mr. Editor, come and be with us some. We meet the first and third Sundays at 2 o'clock p.m. So come and be with us.

SHILOH NEWS

A goodly number of our people attended church Saturday and Sunday. Bro. Henry Reed of Jones, Ala. preached a good sermon Saturday night. Prayer meeting was a success Sunday night.

Messrs. William Deason and Henry Reed were the week-end guests of Rev. T. J. Deason.

Miss Alsie Dobbs was the week-end guest of Miss Jettie Popwell.

Miss Katie Dobbs spent the past week in Thorsby.

Misses Bertha and Nettie Dennis, Alsie Dobbs and Mr. Elba Deason were the guests of Miss Jettie Popwell Sunday.

The singing at Rev. T. J. Deason's Sunday p.m. was a success.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I wat flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

WE OFFER YOU BIG ADVANTAGES

1. A full line of Dry Goods and Groceries that are up to the highest standard of quality.
2. Prices that are fair and reasonable, and as low as can be made on goods of merit.
3. With each dollar purchase a chance to win a fine set of dishes.

MAPLESVILLE DOTS

We are indeed glad to report this week that health of this community is excellent.

We had a good Sunday school program Sunday by the adult convention class and are glad to see the number present that was; hoping to have more next Sunday.

There was preaching by Rev. Jones at the Methodist church Sunday a.m. and p.m., which was attended by a very large crowd.

We didn't have any B. Y. P. U. program Sunday night, on account of the members being too late to begin and attend preaching too.

Our school is progressing very nicely at present; only we have a few absent on account of working on the farm. We are all studying and willing for final examinations. Only have three more weeks. We are hoping to render two excellent plays, "The Safety First" and "The Deacon."

Miss Mable Williams, our missionary, is back at home for a month. We are indeed glad to see her home.

Mr. Donald Merchant of Howard College spent the week-end with parents. We were very glad to have him with us in Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atchison and children of Cox spent the week-end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Spivey.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Langston and family are spending a few days in Jemison with relatives.

Misses Alma and Gladys Sexton, Ila and Willie Lee and Clemie Heagler and Leslie Jacks, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Sexton motored to Adams Saturday p.m. visiting relatives, and to attend preaching services, and returned home Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mize, Misses Ethel and Ruth Mize, eMssrs. Allen and Oliver Mize motored to Shoults Sunday p.m. to attend preaching services by our pastor, Bro. Edwards.

good many from here attended the W. M. U. program and singing at Rehoboth near Lawley Sunday.

Mr. Ralph Calloway has at last finished his brick building. We learn that it will be occupied by a garage and store.

Mr. F. H. Brown is having a brick building put up near the bank, which we learn is going to be used as a store.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kanipe and Miss Annie Perry motored to Shoults Sunday p.m.

Mr. Hollie Lockler of Shoults was the guest of Miss Elvia Seales Sunday evening.

Mr. Ernest Ratliff of Sardis was in town Sunday a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smitherman and little sons, Henry and Edward spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hicks.

TWO ALABAMA POWER CO. MEN ARE ELECTROCUTED

Birmingham, Ala., May 5.—Doctors worked in vain for three hours early today in an effort to restore life to two employees of the Alabama Power Company who accidentally came in contact with a 44,000-volt electric oil switch at the company's sub-station here.

Pulmoters were used continuously but the shock was fo such severity that at no time was there even the slightest sign of hope as a reward for the heroic measures pursued.

The men, Fred McDonald of Columbia, S. C., and William S. Thompson of Demopolis, Ala., were working together when they came in contact with the high voltage, according to fellow workers who removed the bodies from the current.

McDonald is survived by a bride of three months who is with relatives at Peterson, Ala. Compton is survived by a wife and two children. Both families were living temporarily in West End, Birmingham.

Both men were skilled electricians.

J. V. Compton of Selma, brother of William S. Compton, was rendered unconscious in pulling a switch to release the victims of the accident but he was not seriously injured. He was removed to a Birmingham hospital, however, for treatment.

Dr. S. R. Benedict, chief surgeon for the company in desperate effort to save McDonald's life opened the victim's body and attempted to restore heart action by manipulating that organ with the naked hand. The operation like that of using the pulmoter was unsuccessful in inducing respiration.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE UNDER EXECUTION

State of Alabama, Chilton County.

In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama, on a judgment rendered therein against John B. INFORMATION FOR TOMATO GROWERS

The tomato seed for those who have subscribed for acreage for the canning factory, has arrived. Every subscriber is urged to get his seed immediately from his local business agent. If your business agent has not yet received the seed, call at the U. F. of A. County Office at Clanton and get your seed. As it is advisable to have all of the seed planted as nearly as possible at the same time everyone is requested to plant the seed between May 9th and 16th.

In regard to fertilizer, will say that successful tomato growers recommend an 8-4-4 mixture applied at the rate of 300 to 500 lbs. per acre according to the nature of the ground. A mixture composed of one part of kainit, one part of nitrate of soda and two parts of acid phosphate is very good. Care should be taken that the fertilizer does not come in contact with the seed as it will injure them and possibly cause a poor stand.

STATE NEWS OF INTEREST

The Monroe farm bureau has under way a number of experiments in the use of fertilizers which are expected to prove of value to the farmers. Different varieties of cotton are being tested out in different communities and different fertilizer mixtures are being tried, to determine which are the best suited to the soils of Monroe county.

The Troy Chamber of Commerce is planning to put on an expansion campaign. The chamber has at present a membership of 120 men which is barely 50 per cent of the business men of the city. An effort will be made to secure every business man and woman in the city as active members of the chamber.

Vollations of the prohibition laws are said to be few and far between in Selma and Dallas county as a result of the combined efforts of police and sheriff's forces, who, working in conjunction, have spread a reign of terror among makers of moonshine whiskey in Dallas county.

In keeping with the growth of the city the Tuscaloosa Railway and Utilities company has just completed the erection of a large ice storage plant in connection with the ice plant and creamery at Tuscaloosa. The new plant cost approximately $15,000.

Coincident with commencement exercises held at Marion a military demonstration and sham battle was staged which was pronounced a great success. More than 1,000 persons from the schools and colleges of the town viewed the battle.

Requisition papers for B. R. Thomas, wanted at Meridian, Miss., on a charge of embezzlement, have been received by Sheriff Paul Cazalas at Mobile from Gov. Lee Russell. Thomas is in the county jail at Mobile on an additional charge of embezzlement.

The Fayette High School will end on May 15, after a most successful session. The attendance has been the largest in the history of the school and great work has been done in all departments. A class of 36 will receive their diplomas.

Alabama City has called for sealed bids to be opened May 15 for the construction of one and one-fifth miles of asphalt concrete paving. The city will also offer for sale $35,000 in public improvement bonds at the same time.

The Acuff Milling company of Jasper has increased its capital stock $75,000 and is preparing to increase the output of its plant. This company manufactures and sells special brands of corn meal, cow feed and poultry feed.

Dr. D. H. Wright, prominent physician, and Prof. J. F. Scofield, principal of the high school of Berry, Ala., were injured seriously when their automobile was struck by a freight train when they were crossing the railroad track at Berry.

Dredge No 2, the second to be launched for work on the Fayette and Lamar County Drainage District No. 1, has been set into the waters of the east prong of the Luxapallila river near Winfield, in Marion county.

The United States Overall company last week made its first pair of overalls at Talladega. They were made by experienced operatives who were brought to Talladega for the purpose of teaching inexperienced girls and women in the work.

Receipts of the Gadsden post office for April amounted to $3,782.27 as compared to $3,376.89 for the same month a year ago. The increase of 13 per cent is said to be about normal and indicates the city is enjoying its usual prosperity.

Business is good as usual is the sign hung out by Sheriff Pool at his county-owned boarding place. The Morgan county jail now houses 24 prisoners, a large number compared with the same month of past year.

JUDSON STROCK WRITES OF LATE HENRY MAHAN

Editor Union-Banner:—

I read your comments on Mr. Mahan. We are inclined to say too much in praise of our friends after they die, but I want to say that I believe everything you said is true. Mr. Henry Mahan was a fine character and will be sadly missed by lots of folks. Yes, he was charitable towards his friends—and he was not a man to harbor malice towards his fellowman.

Respectfully,
JUDSON STROCK.

Our good old friend, Louis T. Dennis of Verbena, R. 2, was in Clanton Monday on business.

WEST CHILTON NEWS

Several from here attended the singing convention at Lomax last Sunday, and from their viewpoint it was the best ever held in Chilton county.

Waves of glory seemed to be continually passing over the singers.

Some of the State's finest directors were there. Miss Edna Mae Jackson of Birmingham was the center of attraction as a director. There was the Peerless Calloway of Birmingham. His singing held the people spell-bound.

It seemed as if the Heavens almost kissed the earth, as they sang the compositions of Hall, Shumway and Reese, calling on the aerial songsters, on every creature on earth, with life consecrated, to sing peans of praise to Jehovah "Till suns shall rise and set no more."

Mr. John Hayes of Mobile was there. He drove his car all that distance through mud and water, but the convention joys paid for all those inconveniences.

It was indeed a great session.

T. C. Jackson of Sylacauga, Mr. Evans of Fort Payne, and the State president were there.

Dinner was a bounty—rich and free to all. Attendance large.

Times are good, work is plentiful, money is ample. What is the reason, war? No, it is a protective tariff and a thrifty administration.

SHOULTS NEWS

Rain! Rain! Can you think of the farmers smiling over it? They oftimes become discouraged but when the sun can be seen the smile can be seen. A man remarked a few days ago that the grass was outgrowing his cotton. He must be wishing for less rain too.

On last Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday p.m. at 3 o'clock, Bro. W. T. Edwards delivered two of the most interesting and inspiring sermons that have ever been preached at this place. We wish every person in the community could have heard them. We cannot express our appreciation for having as pastor an able preacher as Bro. Edwards. We can make him realize this by working with him. By co-operation success is ours in the things we undertake for the upbuilding of the community.

The B. Y. P. U. gave their program Sunday sight. Only a few of the boys and girls of the community were absent. A reason for some of them being absent was because they had nobody to come with them. Much interest was shown and a very good program rendered. We want our union to be a band of co-workers—we fully believe it will be soon. Bro. Edwards talked of staying over for the program last Sunday night and if he had stayed we don't believe he would have regretted it. B. Y. P. U. will meet next Sunday p.m. at 3:00 o'clock.

A large number from here attesded services at Rehoboth Sunday. They had a fine thing of it. Good speaking, special music, and above all a fine dinner. There was plenty of chicken. We saw in the Lawley news a few weeks ago, that if the editor would come he could be assured of getting dinner. I am sure the correspondent meant every word of this as there was dinner left.

Mr. Paul Odens, blind son of Mr. W. M. Oden, had as his guest last week Harry Hill from Selma. You should hear them play and sing. They are both fine musicians and Paul is a great singer too.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mize and family of Maplesville were among the visitors that attended church Sunday. They are formerly of this community and we are always glad to have them with us. We extend a warm welcome to them at all times.

Messrs. Bord Lawrence and Brooks Shoults, employees of the M. & O. railroad, spent the week-end with home folks.

Cow bells were to be heard from every direction last Saturday morning. It was dipping day, and from the looks of the parasites that were the the cows, we believe the cows will soon feel better over the dipping, if the men do not.

Mr. Otis Moore of Lawley spent Sunday with his brother, Noah Moore of this community.

NOTICE

The Chilton County Board of Education will meet at the Courthouse on Friday, May 25 1923 for the purpose of selecting a county superintendent for the term beginning July 1st of this year.

Anyone desiring to apply for the place should present their application to any member of the Board or to me on or before the day set for the election.

In addition to the above the Board will consider any other matters that may come before them on the date mentioned.

HOWARD L. FOSHEE,
5-10-3t. County Supt. Education.

MOUNTAIN SPRINGS

I wish to announce that there will be preaching at this place on the third Sunday, May 20th, and Saturday night before, by Rev. N. A. Long of Seman, Ala. Everybody is invited to come and assist in these services, especially all who claim themselves as members of this church. Come one and all.

S.S.S. routs Eczema

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it. Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unreachable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting giants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1826! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together,—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs eczema, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

BETHANY NEWS

Heatth is tolerable well around here now except a few cases of measles. Everybody is afraid of everybody else. We truly hope that they will soon die out and the people who are having so much trouble with them will soon be in position to resume their former occupation of pea patching.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Huett and daughter Mary, are spending a few days visiting relatives in Coosa county. They left early Saturday morning, and have not returned yet. We hope them an enjoyable time.

All the farmers of this community are doing all they can to keep their work up with the other farmers.

Several from this community attended the fruit supper and singing at the home of Miss Jettie Adams of Indian Grave community Saturday night and report a nice time.

Mrs. C. B. Huett is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Morris, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Terrell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Huett Sunday.

A truck load of people from this community went to the great homecoming singing to be at Rockford, Coosa county, Sunday, but for some unknown reason they all came back with long faces. However the mystery was self-explanatory when we inform you that all ate a hearty supper.

Study Club Meets.

Mrs. J. A. Hester was hostess to the regular monthly meeting of the Study Club on May 4th. Mrs. B. M. Roberts, club president, presided and quite a large number of members were present.

The club is studying art this year and after attending to business an interesting program on "China and Pottery" was given.

Different kinds of pottery was discussed and illustrations shown—Indian pottery, Mrs. Grover Harris; English pottery, Mrs. Hart; French pottery, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, and German pottery, Mrs. McSwain.

Wednesday Card Club Entertained.

Mrs. Heard entertained the Card Club Wednesday afternoon.

At the conclusion of several interesting games of auction bridge, played at three tables, the score prize a hand embroidered buffet set was awarded to Mrs. N. S. Johnson. Miss Bettie Mullins won the guest prize, an embroidered tea towel.

Sandwiches and iced tea were served.

Besides the club members the guests were: Mesdames Guy Higgins, Guy Roberts, Hugh Jones and Miss Bettie Mullins.

Miss Bessie McCrary of Montevallo was among the out-of-town attendants at the funeral of Mr. J. P. VanDerveer.

Mrs. John Gore Hostess.

The Woman's Missionary Society held their regular monthly social and business meeting at the home of Mrs. John Gore. Exquisite red poppies and baskets of roses adorned the living room. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. C. Jones, who conducted the devotional exercises. Favorable reports from all circleAs were heard. Committees by the social service chairman were named as follows: School, Mrs. Elbert Littlejohn, Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Bob Jones; Citizenship, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Macy Jones; Charity Committee, Mesdames Broadhead, Fox, John Gore, Nix, O. O. Roper and Kate nderson; Racial Committee, Mesdames M. Wilson, N. A. Kicker, Miller, Wilkerson, White and J. C. Jones.

A refreshing ice course was served to about twenty members.

Mr. Tom Scott of Montgomery was among the visitors to Clanton Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. Sims of Jasper returned to her home Tuesday after a week's stay with her parents here.

Mrs. Ed Plier is spending some time with relatives in Helena.

Mr. Scott Chestnut was in Clanton this week transacting a business deal.

Mrs. Hugh Foshee has as her guest Mrs. W. C. Martin of Birmingham.

A Square Deal is Our Motto

Civic Club Meets.

The Civic Club held its final meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Watts Moore on Tuesday, thereby bringing to a close one of the most successful club years of its history. After the minutes and adoption of the various committee reports, (none of which was received more enthusiastically than that of the chairman of the committee serving refreshments at the Alms house) ten dollars was turned over to secretary for maintenance fund for A. F. W. C. It is very gratifying to know that the club has nearly completed this fund. The club also voted to make each member a committee of one to enlist interest of every citizen in the cemetery clean-up, which will last until May 15th, and from May 15th to 30th the club is desirous of securing the support of every citizen in the "Town Clean-up." A committee to inspect business houses and residences and have a white flag where the premises are o.k.

Mothers' Day is to be observed by the club by a committee to bring cheer into the hearts of the less fortunate. Baby week was carried out in the program which consisted of two ten-minute sessions. Discussing the child, its traising, the parents part, teaching the Biological facts of life. The summary of each discussion was given by Mrs. McDavid and Mrs. Hugh Jones. The programme was brought to a close by one of the rarest treats it has ever been the privilege of the club members to enjoy, an address by Dr. Ezell, How to Build Up Alabama. Dr. Ezell is a pleasing, forceful speaker and treated his subject from every angle, inspiring everyone present with higher resolves.

A refreshing ice course was served during the evening. The new officers to be installed in the October meeting are: Mrs. R. C. McDavid, president; Mrs. Hugh Jones, vice-president; Mrs. Yates, secretary, Mrs. Hayes, treasurer. The club will have able leadership in its officers, particularly in its president, Mrs. McDavid, who is unusually gifted with the charm of doing things well. She is also enhanced with a most pleasing personality and we are sure that we bespeak the sentiment of every club member when we say that she will bring to the club a wide-awake interest and find a pleeasing co-operation.

Rev. H. C. Threadgill of Andalusia will deliver the commencement address at the High school auditorium on next Sunday at 11 o'clock. The public is invited.

Mrs. Moore Hostess.

A pretty and enjoyable affair of last Thursday was a spend-the-day party given by Mrs. Watts Moore, celebrating her birthday anniversary. Baskets of fragrant sweet peas adorned the reception rooms, and a bowl of sweet peas and ferns graced the dining table around which were seated Mesdames Hance Alred, Macy Jones, Thad McSwain, S. E. Alverson, Hugh Simpson, R. E. Luckie, Hugh Jones, Clyde Jones, Misses Kathleen Mullins and Roberta Curry, and Mr. J. Watts Moore. The guests served during the day for the hostess.

Mrs. Claud Reynolds and boys returned home Tuesday from a visit to her parents in Montgomery.

Mrs. Macy Jones is spending this week with her mother in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Richards from Jackson, Tenn., are the guests of Mrs. J. P. VanDerveer this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reynolds arrived Sunday for a visit to the former's parents this week.

Mrs. L. H. Reynolds spent several days in Birmingham last week as the guest of Mrs. J. O. Newell.

Mrs. J. R. Mullins and Miss Marzelle Mullins spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mrs. W. I. Mullins returned home Friday from a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins in Birmingham.

Mrs. Howard, nee Miss Estelle Holland, spent the week-end in Montgomery.

Dr. and Mrs. Robt. Powe were visitors to Clanton Monday, having been called here on account of the sudden death of Mrs. Powe's father, Mr. J. P. VanDerveer.

Mr. L. C. Reynolds will arrive today for a few days visit to his family here.

An announcement of wedding of which caused unusual interest was that of Miss Estelle Holland and Mr. Howard which occurred on March 8, at tlanta, Ga. The bride is a young woman of much charm and has many friends here who wish her much happiness. She has been one of our splendid high school teachers during this term.

Mrs. Simpson Hostess.

Mrs. Hugh Simpson was a lovely hostess on last Wednesday, entertaining the Wednesday Sewing Club at a spend-the-day party. Sewing for the hostess was done and at the noon hour a bounteous dinner was served, the table being centered with a vase of exquisite rose buds. Several garments were completed during the day.

Mr. Scott Chestnut of Birmingham, the once famous baseball umpire of the Southern League, was in Clanton Tuesday transacting business. He sold to Mr. Tom Rockett street.

Birthday Party Enjoyed.

On last Thursday afternoon a number of the little folks enjoyed a pretty party given by Master Robert Luckie when he celebrated hi ssixth birthday anniversary.

Various juvenile games were enjoyed, the most enjoyed being pinning on the donkey's tail. For this Miss Hilda Hart won the girls' prize, a fan, and Alex Hayes a box of candy for boys' prize. Late in the afternoon the little guests were invited into the dining room which was prettily decorated in a color note of pink and green. Shaded lights lent a soft glow over the affair. The table held as its central ornament a cake holding six lighted tapers. Here an ice course was served. Much merriment was enjoyed when ribbon tied to the birthday symbols were drawn. Miss Clyde Jones drew the ring, Joe Moore the needle, Elizabeth McSwain the button, Nell Neighbors the thimble.

INFORMATION ON RAISING TOMATOES

The first thing to do in raising tomatoes is to get a good seed bed. To do this the ground ought to be plowed to the depth of seven or eight inches. That gives the ground a chance to settle down and become more compact. If plowed too shallow the roots will curl up and lay close to the surface and will not get the moisture they ought to have.

I would advise planting the seed in the hill, three and one-half or four feet apart each way and from three to four seed in a hill. Then when the plants are up five or six inches pull out all but one, leaving the best plant to stand.

Give the plants a thorough cultivation when small and as they grow cultivate more shallow. You must not get too close to the plant during the cultivation or you will tear off the little roots and injure your crop.

Do not stake or prune the plants. Let them do and grow in the way that nature intended for them. Do not put any straw under the plants as that will cause sunburn.

When your crop is ready to market the processor will visit the growers and instruct them as to the condition of the tomatoes and how they ought to be for canning purposes. He will go into details fully with you.

NEWS OF JEMISON

(Mrs. Lloyd Eagle, Correspondent)

Miss Laura, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Darby, entertained from 8 to 11 o'clock Friday evening at a lovely party given in honor of her eighteenth birthday. The home was beautifully decorated with roses and carnations, pink and white being the predominating colors. An advertising contest was quite interesting and the prize, a box of candy, was won by Miss Estelle Webb. Music and different games were enjoyed throughout the evening. Ice cream and cake was served from a most attractively decorated table in the dining room. The following guests were present. Lucille Glass, Charles Glass, Hazel Collum, Mary Johnson, R. B. Johnson, Clayton Letcher, Reese Wells, Hubert Campbell, Estelle Webb, Vesta Campbell, Leonard Glass, Ralph Glass, Elizabeth Edwards, Lena Glass, Lois Glass, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Edwards and Mrs. Henry Jefferies and daughter, little Mildred.

The Senior class of Jemison High school gave the principal, Mr. Buford Lawrence, a surprise party Monday night and presented him with a lovely set of Masonic cuff links.

Mrs. Fred Smyth of Leeds, Ia., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Attaway.

Miss Guanita tkinson is spending a few days in Clanton as guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Gore.

Mrs. Lige Glass, who has been ill for several days, is reported to be still very sick.

Mrs. Columbus Conway was taken to South Highlands infirmary Sunday morning, and a telegram has just been received from her brother, Dr. Sorrell, stating that she underwent an operation for appendicitis today, which was very successful. The many friends of Mrs. Conway certainly hope that she will soon be able to return home, with her health much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Collum were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris of Inglenook Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shaw were visitors to relatives in Birmingham Saturday and Sunday.

LAWLEY NEWS

The heavy rains of last week has delayed the farmers to a considerable extent in this community, and did quite a lot of damage to the roads and farms, to say nothing of the many gardens. The roads are in a very bad condition and the county officers of Bibb county claim there is no money for our roads. The people in Bibb pay a very heavy tax, but where does it go?

Mrs. W. P. Collins and children of this community started to Antioch last Friday night to attend the concert, but they were turned back above Randolph by an overflowing creek.

The plays given here last Saturday night by the school was a grand success. Mr. Ollie Oakley, Mr. Ellison, members of the County Board of Education, were here and made an interesting talk; also Prof. Ralph Thomas, principal of Bibb high school was with us to talk. Mr. Herb. Jones, county superintendent of education, made an interesting talk on education. He also awarded the medals given by Prof. Young Hayes, to the pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the term of eight months. The two who won were Alvis Latham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Latham, and Cozy Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lawrence. Prof. Hayes has returned to his home at Woodstock, Ala. Miss Grace Ward has returned to Centerville. They are going to be sadly missed by this entire community, for they have won many warm friends here by their faithful work and Christian character.

Miss Ethel Collins, another of the splendid teachers, resides here. We are grateful to have her still be with us. We only hope that we can be able to have these same teachers with us to teach next year. But Prof. Hayes says he is thinking of going to school.

Mrs. Fred McGee and two little boys of Plantersville, left last Wednesday, after spending a few days here with her mother, Mrs. Celia Hicks.

Mr. Ed Lowe of Birmingham was here last week looking after some business for his sister, Mrs. T. B. Collins.

Mr. W. P. Collins, a prominent merchant of this place, has began to have some lumber sawed for his new home here in Lawley.

The all-day services held here at the church last Sunday was a very enjoyable day for all who attended. The capacity of the church was taxed to take care of the crowd. Rev. Foster Mills of Tuscaloosa preached an excellent sermon before noon. A bountiful dinner was spread.

In the afternoon an interesting play was given by some members of the B. Y. P. U. They were Messrs. Jack Collins, Perk Mount, Gordon Adams, Pervis Hicks, eJssie Barnes, Clint Latham, and Misses Mary Mount, Feraba Latham. The play was something concerning eJsus and His wonderful healing while here on earth. These young people gave the performance in a most creditable manner. They are indeed to be highly complimented.

Mrs. Mary C. Allen of eWst Blocton was also present and delivered a very interesting and touching talk on W. M. U. work. This day at Reboboth will long be remembered by all present.

Miss Mamie Hicks, who has been visiting in Birmingham, returned home last Sunday night.

Mr. Bill Caldwell and granddaughter from out West, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jefferson for a few weeks.

Mr. Wheeler Walker, Miss Oma Seales, Mr. Brady McAfee and Miss Eva Seales of Maplesville were here Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Shoults of Shoults community spent a few days of last week with her sister, Mrs. W. P. Hicks of this place.

Mrs. T. B. Collins is planning to go to Birmingham this week to visit brothers and sisters.

Chamberlain's Tablets Are Mild and Gentle in Effect

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Tablets is so mild and gentle that you can hardly realize that it has been produced by a medicine.

SILENT AND SAWING WOOD

According to a staff correspondent of the New York Times, (Dem.) the weakness of President Harding is his lack of skill in getting publicity. Harding is described as the poorest publicity getter who has occupied the White House in many years.

This characterization of President Harding is undoubtedly correct. It would be difficult to find any other administration which, by a careful comparison of records, could show more accomplishments to its credit than the Republican Administration under the leadership of President Harding. It would also be difficult to find any other administration that had secured less public credit than has the administration now in power.

The explanation for this may very probably be found in the fact that Harding was trained as a newspaper man. People outside of the newspaper profession would naturally suppose that a newspaper man would be one of the best publicity getters. It is true that newspaper men are effective as managers of publicity for others, but it is also notoriously true that newspaper men acquire the habit of avoiding publicity for themselves. From the time a youth enters the journalistic field as a cub reporter until he reaches the top of the profession in the chair of the editor in chief, he forms the habit of setting forth facts regarding others and concealing his own identity and his own connection with public affairs. In the course of time this becomes a mental characteristic and it is a characteristic not easily changed. During the greater part of his life Mr. Harding has been a newspaper man. While no one probably appreciates more than he the value of publicity, he can not in a short space of time overcome the habits formed in a lifetime of service in a newspaer office.

It is said that Mr. Harding has confidence that if he does his work well, and if the country enjoys the benefits of sound economic policies and efficient administration, he and his associates will get the credit to which they are entitled. Experience has shown that this is far from true. Since the adjournment of the recent session of Congress the Democrats have published far and wide the broad assertion that this is a "do-nothing" administration. That is a false statement easily made and easily repeated. Constant repetition gives the impression that the statement is true. Refutation of such a statement requires an elaborate presentation of facts not so easily laid before the people of the country either through the press or from the speaker's platform.

The people of the country ought to perceive that the campaign of 1924 is not Harding's campaign, it is their campaign. Harding ought not to be under necessity of seeking publicity for the record of his administration. The citizens of the country, whose government this is and who bear its burdens, should take the initiative in ascertaining exactly what has been accomplished and should feel an interest in disseminating that information to those who may be negligent in keeping informed regarding public affairs. A list of the major Republican accomplishments has been published from time to time. Every citizen, regardless of politics, who desires to be fair in the discussion of public questions should familiarize himself with the facts in this regard in order that he may intelligently and fairly pass judgment upon the record of the party in power.

The Harding administration should be judged not by its ability as a publicity-getter but by its achievements for the general welfare.

REYNOLDS AND REYNOLDS MOVE OFFICES

Early this week Grady and Omar Reynolds began moving their law offices from the Smith Building into the second story of the new Gore Building, which has just been completed. We understand that the Reynoldses have leased nearly all of the second story of this building for the next five years. This is an ideal place for law offices, as it is in easy reach of the court house.

The money received by the counties is to be placed to the credit of their road and bridge funds.

DEATH OF CLAYTON DENNIS

The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Dennis and took from them their little son, Clayton.

Little Clayton was three years and ten months old. He had been sick all of his life with heart trouble. All that was done by the physician, father and mother, and help of friends did no good. God saw fit to take him from this world of suffering. It was hard to give him up but God loved him best. He gave him rest; something we couldn't do. The Lord knows best; He does all things well. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

The funeral services were conducted by Elder Joe Rains at Old Friendship Monday afternoon.

We mourn with the father, mother and relatives. May the Lord bless them with his rich blessings.

HARDING TO ENTER 1924 CAMPAIGN AS 100 PER CENT DRY

President to Battle Against Weakening of Volstead Law.

Washington, May 17.—At the time when politicians are wondering whether dry sentiment is weakening, President Harding has stepped forward with a significant word that indicates he will stand as a 100 per cent dry in his campaign for re-election and will back the dry program in Congress. The effect of this will be to stiffen wavering republicans who have been disturbed by various indications of wet sentiment like the repeal of the New York state enforcement act.

The President made known his position in a letter approving the resolution adopted at a recent congress of mother and parent-teacher associations at Louisville. The women declared themselves 100 per cent for use of the navy against the rum fleet for upholding the present Volstead act. In addition to these feature resolutions, the women indorsed the world court, entrance into some permanent organization of nations to minimize future wars, and protective legislation for women and children.

"I do not want to be regarded as committing myself in detail to everything you suggest as having commanded the unanimous support of the convention," the President wrote, "but I do want you to know that you have pretty nearly written my platform, so far as you have gone."

The letter was addressed to Mrs. William Tilton, legislative chairman of the women's organization. It has been interpreted as indicating Harding will oppose the expected effort in the next Congress to weaken the Volstead act, and that, therefore, he will support the program of the drys for overcoming the effect of recent court decisions permitting American ships to carry liquor when outside the three-mile limit and removing the restrictions on the amount of intoxicants physicians may prescribe to patients.

However, the demand that the three-mile limit be pushed out to 12 miles from the shore line is likely to be opposed by the President. Secretary of State Hughes sees international complications if any attempt is made to change this present rule of international law.

CLANTON POST OFFICE PROMOTED

Postmaster W. M. Bean showed us a letter from the postoffice department at Washington declaring a raise in the class of the Clanton postoffice. This office has heretofore been a third class office, but is now a second class one. The reason given for advancing the grade of the office was that the volume of business passing through the same was sufficient to measure up to the second class requirements.

Mr. Bean is to be commended for the splendid way he is taking care of the affairs of the postoffice at Clanton. He is devoting to the management of this office his most careful attention, and the thousands receiving service through him are fortunate in having such a business-like man at the head of their postoffice.

The change above mentioned will permit one more clerk in the office, giving the postmaster two helpers where he now has only one. This will enable the office to do its work even more thoroughly than it can under present conditions.

MR. DIXON PLACED HERE IN CHARGE OF CANNING FACTORY

The construction engineer for the canning factory is now in Clanton and has taken charge of the building of the canning factory. Mr. Dixon is widely experienced in this work, and he knows how to make things move. He will begin immediately to buying the material for the buildings, and will rush the work on as hastily as possible. Mr. Dixon will remain here till the plant is ready for operation, when another man will be sent here to take charge and run the factory until some local man learns the business so that he can take care of it.

MR. CLAY LEAVES

Mr. Harry Clay of the Peterman Construction Company, who has been here for the past two months working in the interest of the canning factory, left for his home in Chicago Monday. Mr. Clay is a good mixer besides being a hustling business man. While here he won hundreds of friends all over the county. We disliked much to see him leave our midst, but as he had completed his work here he was compelled to move on to other fields.

CHANGES IN SCHOOL DISTRICTS AND TAXES

At the request of the Superintendent of Education Howard L. Foshee, Sheriff Littlejohn is calling a special election to be held on the 15th day of June in School Districts 58, 37, 38, 4, 65, 66, 42, 44, and 70, for the purpose of levying a special three-mill school tax in the districts named, and also to make other changes in the school business of these districts. A full explanation of the changes to be made will be found in the sheriff's notices in this issue of The Union-Banner.

ISABELLA VOCATIONAL SCHOOL TO HAVE EXCELLENT TEACHER

We have been informed that the county board of education has employed Mr. R. M. Satterfield to teach the Vocational subjects at the new Vocational Department for the Isabella Rural High School.

Mr. Satterfield lacked only six weeks of graduating from the State Normal School at Jacksonville, Alabama, when the call to the colors came during the recent war. He was drafted to the army where he spent two full years. After he received his discharge, he went to the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, where he has remained. He will receive his Bachelor of Science (B. S.) degree from that college in June and will receive his Master of Science (M. S.) degree from there in latter part of August. He will hold the highest degree of any teacher employed in the teaching work in Chilton County. This progressive community can justly feel proud of having one so well trained for this work.

He was born and reared in the hills of Clay county, near Ashland and has had fifteen years of actual farm experience.

LAWLEY NEWS

Mrs. J. V. Mount conducted the W. M. U. services last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. W. P. Hicks, president and Mrs. James Bedford, vice-president, were both absent. The W. M. U. members sent a very nice box of flowers to Mr. Melvin Lawley, who is sick in hospital at Tuscaloosa with typhoid fever. Melvin is one of our home boys, son of Mrs. Davis Lawley, and his many friends hope he will soon be well again.

The closing exercises at Antioch last Friday night week was postponed until last Friday night on account of the rain. Ten car loads from here attended. They reported that it was just grand.

Last Sunday Mr. Charlie Collins went to Centerville to visit a friend of his there.

Mr. Garland Holley and his attractive young wife, who have been here for some time with Garland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheb Holley, have now moved to Tuscaloosa, where they will reside in the future. Garland has a position with the M. & O. R. R. Co.

Mr. Jim Lawrence, who has been in Florida for several months, is at home now with his family for a few days. He is doing carpenter work for some saw mill company there, and said that work is plentiful and wages good there. He will return in a few days to resume his work.

Miss Roberta Lawrence is now at Centerville doing sewing for the B. C. H. S. pupils. Roberta is an accomplished young lady of this place, and has more work than she can do. We need more such girls at and around Lawley. But most of the girls of today only think about the pleasure they think they obtain from car riding. Car rides are all right if they are for the right purpose. We say again we need more girls like Miss Roberta Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks and three little boys, Lumon, Layden and Philip, spent last Saturday night and Sunday at Centerville visiting relatives there.

Mrs. Rena aLtham has been in a critical condition from an attack of rheumatism but she is much improved now. Her many friends are glad she is improving. We miss her very much in W. M. U. and church services.

Quite a number of people from here are planning to attend the singing at Clanton next Sunday.

Mrs. T. B. Collins left last Tuesday for Birmingham, where she will visit brothers and sisters.

HAMPTON NEWS

We are expecting all the good singers to meet with us the fourth Sunday in this month. Come and bring your 1923 song books with you and let's spend the day in singing.

Folks, we want your help and encouragement to rebuild our singings at this place.

We have reorganized our Sunday school at this place and interest and attendance is good; getting better every Sunday.

Mrs. Parson has been on the sick list this week, but hope for her a speedy recovery.

Miss Ida Scott attended the Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony singing at Lomax last Saturday and Sunday and reports one of the grandest conventions ever held in Chilton county.

Mrs. Logan was the guest of Mrs. Parson Friday.

Mrs. J. H. Stange made a business trip to Verbena Saturday p.m.

Don't forget our singing the 4th Sunday. Everybody come with your song books and a well filled basket and help us sing praises to God.

BETHANY NEWS

Health is very good at present, except some more of the people are being bothered about the measles. Some of them are afraid they will catch them, while some of them are afraid they will give them to some one else.

Farming is progressing around these parts like a German whirlwind. Farmers are not saying much about the planting of their crops, but they are now worrying about how they are to manage "General Green" and his mighty forces.

We are of the honest opinion that if the rain continues we are going to make a very bountiful hay crop around this old place this year.

Mr. Wilbert Neeley spent Saturday night with his cousin, Dewey Huett.

A student of the Clanton High school spent Saturday night with Miss Myrtle Keel. The young lady's name is unknown to the writer.

We were all seriously grieved last Friday night when the death angel visited the home of Mr. George Pierce and carried him from these low grounds of sorrow to the better world. Mr. Pierce was a very good friend and neighbor to people who lived near him. He leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. His remains were laid to rest in Bethsalem cemetery Saturday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. D. Hughes.

Mr. Johnnie Huett and wife of New Prospect were visitors to this community Saturday and Sunday.

Several from this place attended the all-day singing at Walnut Creek last Sunday. All came back looking lively and express thanks to the many people for their bountiful lunch.

UNION GROVE

Sunday was our regular preaching day. We had a very large crowd, which we are always glad to see. We listened to one of the best sermons ever heard. The eyes of everyone present were filled with tears when it was explained what is meant by "Mother's Day," and how we all should honor our mothers.

The United Singing Society met in regular session Sunday p.m., with a large crowd, and some more good singing. Directors for the afternoon were: Messrs. A. H. Glasscock, Vester Campbell and J. P. Bean. Organists were: Misses Lena Glasscock and Myrtle Dorminey, and Mrs. Carrie Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oslin of Collins Chapel dined with Rev. and Mrs. Wiley Davis Sunday.

Miss Carrie Mae Retherford was the guest of Miss Euna Davis Sunday.

Miss Pearl Chandler was the guest of Miss Flossie Robinson Sunday.

Miss Mollie Vinzant dined with Misses Iris and Edna Robinson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robinson are the proud parents of a fine baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson of Clanton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robinson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Martin have as their Mr. J. R. Marler of Birmingham. We are glad to have him with us again.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gore and little daughter Mildred, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robinson awhile Sunday afternoon.

We had a large crowd at prayer meeting Sunday night.

PLETCHER NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Abbott spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abbott.

Miss Ethel Chandler, accompanied by Miss Gladys Williams, spent the week-end at her home near Billingsley.

The ice cream supper at Mr. Sidney Chandler's Saturday night was enjoyed by a large crowd. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves fine.

Miss Ethel Chandler and mother will leave Monday for a few days visit at Birmingham.

Mrs. G. B. Williams and little son and daughters, Orville, Madgil and Dalene spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abbott.

Misses Gracie and Jewel Abbott spent Sunday with Miss Ruth Abbott.

Mr. Jasper Traywick, who holds a position at Birmingham, is visiting parents here.

We were glad to see so many out at Sunday school Sunday. We invite all to come every Sunday and bring some one with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chandler of Adams spent the week-end with Mrs. Chandler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kendrick.

Miss Gertrude McGee spent Saturday night with Miss Ethel Chandler.

Mr. Jay K. Hughes, formerly circulation manager of The Tuscaloosa News, stopped over in Clanton a few minutes Tuesday with his friend, E. C. Powell, at The Union-Banner office. Mr. Hughes was on his way to Montgomery, where he goes to take chage of the city circulation department of The Montgomery Advertiser.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF CHILTON HIGH SCHOOL

The first program of the closing exercises of the Chilton County High School was held at the high school auditorium Sunday at 11:00 o'clock when Dr. Threadgill, pastor of the Methodist Church at Andalusia delivered the commencement sermon. All three of the Clanton churches gave up their regular services and joined together with the high school in this service. A good crowd was present, and Dr. Threadgill delivered a sermon which was very select and appropriate for the occasion.

The music recital of Miss Curry's music class was the event of Tuesday night. This entertainment measured up well to the standard of similar occasion which have been held previously. Tonight is the time allotted to the undergraduates, when they will present 'Where East Meets West.' This promises to be quite an attraction. On Friday night comes the biggest thing of all—the graduation exercises. On this occasion Dr. Spright Dowell of Auburn will deliver the baccalaureate address, and diplomas of graduation will be given to twenty-seven seniors. The high school teachers are certainly to be commended for these splendid public exercises, which are true exponents of the efficient work which the school has been doing.

SINGNG AT HIGH SCHOOL

Let's not overlook the big all-day singing which is to be at the high school building next Sunday. The Chilton County Singing Convention will meet in special session, and the famous Vaughan Quartet from Lawrenceburg, Tenn., will be there. If you want to hear the best singing of the year, don't miss it.

DRAINAGE APPROVED

Big Project in Mobile County Will Redeem 3,500 Acres.

Mobile, Ala., May 17.—Fowl River is to be drained. The first drainage project in this county was formally approved Tuesday by Judge Price Williams of the probate court. The project will cost $25,000. Commissioners will be appointed to sell bonds to this amount. Terrain redeemed will include 3,500 acres.

MARS HILL

Our Sunday school is doing nicely. We have a good many on roll, and hope to have more. So everybody come on, both young and old, and let's all go to Sunday school.

We are planning to have a concert later for the benefit of our church. Further announcements will be made.

We regret to say that Mr. Boom Posey is in the hospital at Birmingham, but we all hope for him a speedy recovery.

The boys and girls all met Saturday night at the church to practice, and on account of the rain, all went out to C. W. Scott's and enjoyed themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scott spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Watson Sunday.

There will not be any Sunday school next Sunday, the 3rd, as most everybody is planning to go to Clanton to the singing. I am sure that we will never regret going, for we will hear some good singing.

WORK BEGINS SOON ON NEW PAVEMENT TO CAHABA RIVER

Will Cost $320,000 And Is Another Link in Route to Montgomery.

Work to complete paving of the Montgomery highway from the top of Shades mountain to the Cahaba river at the Shelby county line will be commenced in about two months, according to announcement of the board of revenue that C. J. Rogers, county engineer, had been authorized Tuesday to begin an immediate survey of the route of the highway. While the present highway will be followed almost entirely, a few changes will be made to eliminate bad grades and dangerous curves.

Paving of the eight-mile stretch between the end of the present paved portion at the summit of Shades mountain to the Shelby line will cost approximately $320,000. This amount is to be paid through the federal and state highway aid fund. Plans are to be submitted by surveyors within 30 days and state and government approval may be expected within another month, J. H. Scruggs, member of the state highway commission, told the board last week.

Work may be expected to begin in about two or two and a half months, it was stated, and completion is expected by January 1, 1924. By that time the paved road through Shelby county is scheduled to be finished and with roads commencing soon through Chilton and Autauga counties, a complete paved highway to Montgomery will be completed some time in 1924, it was stated.

COMMISSIONERS COURT IN SESSION

The Commissioners of Chilton county were in regular quarterly session here at the Court House the first of this week. All the members were on hand early Monday morning ready to begin transacting the big raft of business which had accumulated since they last met.

JUST FROM SHOULTS

Tother day while Cap and I was hunting cattle to dip cause next day was dip day, Cap just bout run he self down and when we was crossing Blue Branch Cap tangle up in some vines and down he went in de mud and he say Remus, I don't feel like I can get one foot before tother but when he looked down and saw dat big cotton mouth snake liing side him he got both feet before tother, and when he got out de swamp de cows dun got away from him and he throw his hat on de ground and say Remus, if dey want to dip dem cows dey can dip em, I am going home and when he got home de lighting rod agent had ben dare and put lighting rods all over his house and de agent dun fix a paper long as my arm for him to sign. I looked round to see if de was any woman folks hearing what Cap was saying to him cause he wasn't saying Sunday school words to dat agent; bout dat time old Miss had dun ring de bell and Cap didn't ax dat man to stay for dinner either, but old Miss had sweet milk and strawberries, and when Cap got thru with the berries and smoke his pipe and cool off he say he didn't know which he liked the best, agents or dipping cattle. Cap sho is one sight.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court. In Equity. April 24th, 1923.

Will Brown, Complainant, vs. Rosie Brown, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Omar Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said Rosie Brown to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 28th day of May, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 24th day of April, 1923.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

BANK BOOSTS ALABAMA

Manhattan Circular Calls Attention to Resources of State.

The Bank of Manhattan, which has numbers of correspondents in Alabama, has issued a circular letter to its patrons in which special attention is called to the progress of this state. In summarizing some of Alabama's leading claims to distinction the circular says:

"Conceded a high place in agriculture, Alabama during the last 25 years surprised the country by forging to the front in mine and factory production as well. At the last census she was second in graphite, third in iron ore, seventh in coal, and of a $492,000,000 industrial total, $145,000,000 was in iron and steel products. Her $304,000,000 agricultural return is made up of sorghum and peanuts, in which she leads, sweet potatoes, sugar cane, cattle and cotton.

"The broadening out of Alabama's enterprise has called for greater markets and more intricate financing."

"Well! Strong!"

Mrs. Anna Clover, of R. F. D. 5, Winfield, Kans., says: "I began to suffer some months ago with womanly troubles, and I was afraid I was going to get in bed. Each month I suffered with my head, back and sides—a weak, aching, nervous feeling. I began to try medicines as I knew I was getting worse. I did not seem to find the right remedy until someone told me of

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I used two bottles before I could see any great change, but after that it was remarkable how much better I got. I am now well and strong. I can recommend Cardui, for it certainly benefited me."

If you have been experimenting on yourself with all kinds of different remedies, better get back to good, old, reliable Cardui, the medicine for women, about which you have always heard, which has helped many thousands of others, and which should help you, too. Ask your neighbor about it; she has probably used it.

MONSTER MOONSHINE STILL IS DESTROYED

The largest single still ever captured in Montgomery county yielded its contents to the fishes of a small branch near which it was situated at noon Friday, when pick axes in the hands of Sheriff Robert C. Phelps' deputies went through the sides of the monster vat.

Sheriff Phelps and Deputies L. Vaughan, J. F. Tucker and H. E. Sellers discovered and captured the distilling plant at 11 o'clock Friday morning on the Rich property, about seven miles from the city on the Hayneville road.

Hearing of the discovery shortly after it took place, a representative of The Advertiser, accompanied by a staff photographer, went to the scene in time to see the 1,250 gallon vat tapped and to see and get a long whiff of the sour aroma of mash as it cascaded into a nearby branch.

Empty oak casks and the trough in which the worm rested when a run was in progress went into a huge bonfire kindled on the spot by Sheriff Phelps and his deputies.

Sheriff Phelps and his predecessor, the present Deputy John L. Scogin, declared Friday that the still was the largest they had ever taken. The vat which was completely full of beer was encased in a shell of brick and mortar which left an air space of two or three inches for the cooking fire. The vat itself was made of galvanized iron. It measured six feet across the top and was six feet deep.

A spring bubbling out of the hillside a few feet away was buttressed with solid masonry and had a pipe which maintained a steady flow of water into the trough built to accomodate the worm. The top of the vat was equipped with a hinged door and a hasp, which was padlocked. According to the raiding officers, the plant was one of the most complete and elaborate ever discovered.

From the time the point of a pick tapped the bottom of the vat until the contents had emptied, thirty minutes elapsed. As the sour mash poured inlto the short ditch which gave into a branch, fishes in the latter began to react to the inebriating flood. Minnows were the first to become intoxicated, and many were observed floating away, belly up. Before the raiding party left the scene, cat and perch had succumbed to the effects of the beer, and one of the visitors to the scene of the erstwhile moonshining activities went away with a string of fish, the largest of which measured 10 inches in length.

No arrests resulted and no statement was made by the sheriff to indicate that the finger of suspicion pointed in any definite direction. No one was seen in proximity to the scene of whiskey making.

The worm, which is an essential part of moonshining paraphernalia, was missing; and a thorough search by Sheriff Phelps and his deputies failed to locate the missing mechanism. Distilled whiskey, another object of the same search, remained secure in its place of concealment.

The search of the officers carried them into a nearby negro house. The residents, who had lived for some time in the immediate vicinity of the plant, vehemently denied any knowledge of illicit booze manufacture and were surprised, ostensibly, that any such operations could be carried on in their back yard, so to speak. The still was little over 200 yards from the house. The latter is on the right side of the Hayneville road, about two miles beyond Catoma creek, traveling from Montgomery.

When Sheriff Phelps and his men discovered the still Friday morning, the former left Deputies Sellers and Tucker in charge and returned to the city for the remainder of his force. A negro was secured in the city to act as pick and axe bearer. The party that returned to the scene around noon included Sheriff Phelps, Deputy Scogin, Deputy Vaughan, T. F. Sexton, and a representative of The Advertiser.

Indications in the immediate vicinity of the still were that mash had been hauled to the vat in a wagon. Nothing could be found to point to the hiding place of probable liquor. An interesting discovery, which was interesting and nothing more, was a series of notches in a pine board, where steps had been raised for crossing the fence encircling the pasture in which the still was located.

Pointing to these markers which had been made evidently with a pocket knife, the sheriff expressed opinion that each indicated some given amount of whiskey transported from the home-made distillery. It was recalled by a member of the party that negroes often use a similar system of bookkeeping when taking corn from the crib.

A well-beaten path led from the negro house to the fence crossing, and thence to the still itself. While the barrels and other woodwork of the illicit plant in burning were sending their smoke up as a signal that the prohibition law is being enforced, an aged negro came to the spot where the huge vat of beer had stood a few hours before.

When he saw the freshet of mash which was fast swelling the creek, he lost no time in turning the heads of a herd of cows in another direction. When the officers left, the old boy was carefully guarding the poisoned stream lest some of his valued kine should drink and die.

THIRTY-YEAR-OLD GRANDMOTHER IN BIRMINGHAM

Youngest American Born Woman With Grandchild is Found.

Records are matters of relativity. Athletic records carrying the inference of physical prowess may puff the average youth with pride, and yet may pass unobserved by the T. B. M. who takes delight in a poor score at golf simply because he made the score.

And so it is a case of relativity along the lines of relatives.

Announcement was made some short time ago that the youngest grandmother on record attained that status at the age of 36. Shortly thereafter came the announcement that the record was broken, and that a new grandmother had been found who became such at the age of 33.

Sunday afternoon, T. M. Plunkett, 105 Third avenue, Pratt City, walked into The Age-Herald office and declared that his sister, Mrs. D. L. Jenkins, Tupelo, Miss., became a grandmother when only 30 years old.

"Guess she ought to take the terrapin's trundle for juvenile grandmother's," he observed.

This despite recent reports of a 26-year-old grandmother, who is barred because she was born in Russia.

Mobile county has launched a huge drainage program, which consists of a river swamp. If they can drain a river, surely Clanton can afford to ditch a little old creek swamp.

These swamps around Clanton are going to be drained. The land owners who haven't signed the petition, should come on and do so, as this is an opportunity we can't afford to let pass.

It is interesting to note how the Democratic papers are trying to effect a split in the Republican ranks in 1924. They realize that their only hope lies not in their unity but in the division of their opponents.

The required percentage of the property affected has already been subscribed for on the drainage petition, but we want every land owner to have a whack at it. This means so much to the interest of all that no one can afford not to lend his support to the enterprise. Let's get it going at once.

Actions speak louder than words. This is doubly true in reference to the coming presidential and congressional fights. The Republicans have deeds on which to wage their campaign, while the Democrats have only flowery oratory and baseless charges of Republican incompetency to place before the public.

THE MONTGOMERY JOURNAL

We notice a recent marked improvement in the make-up and general appearance of the Montgomery Journal. For several years it has been lingering along in the same old path without getting any better or worse, but for the last few weeks we can detect a distinct improvement. It now looks like a real afternoon city daily, which is a creditable reflection of the progressive spirit and industrial development of the Capital City.

A southern democrat says he can't see how a southerner can be anything but a Democrat. To us it is a profound mystery how any thoughtful man living in the South and seeing every day the inefficiency of a political machine which has had the reins of our state government for over half a century can afford to waste his vote just for the sake of a few old worn-out partisan prejudices which lost their effectiveness fifty years ago. Our forefathers fought for what they considered their interest at that time. Haven't we the same pivilege today? What our "Solid South" needs to do is to consider what is best for us NOW and not what was best for our grandfathers sixty years ago. Things have changed since then. The South today is at least fifty years behind the North in the progress of industry, education, commerce, and everything else. Is there any sane logical reason for this? We must necessarily say there is not. The reason the South lags behind the other sections of the country is because we fool away our sacred inalienable rights at the polls by splitting hairs over the issues that confronted our countrymen fifty years ago and neglect the things which would bring us progress and better times in our own day. No political party will give its best service to a people when it is not held in check by a strong opposing party. That is the reason our state government serves a few bosses instead of the masses of people—they know we poor ignoramuses will shut our eyes, hold our noses and vote the Democratic ticket regardless of whether they give us anything in return or not. The result is, the machine heads get rich from our tax money and leave us out in the cold with no privileges save voting solid the dear old Democratic ticket.

CLANTON BUILDING UP

Clanton is now in the midst of the biggest building boom which it has ever experienced in its history. During the past two months there have been around a hundred new residences built in the residence sections, all of which are nice, modern completely equipped bungalows. But there is no surplus of such houses here yet, as all these new ones are now occupied, and you still hear clamors for houses to rent.

The Methodists of the city have under construction a forty-thousand dollar church, which when completed will have no equal in Alabama save in the large cities. This structure is to be made of pressed brick and stone and will be built on the most modern plans available. The new building is being put up on the same lot where the old Methodist church stood, and they hope to have it ready for occupancy about July 1st.

The United Farmers of America are beginning to build a fifteen-thousand dollar canning factory here, which will be in operation in time to take care of the present crop of tomatoes, potatoes, etc. This is the most advanced step the farmers of any county have ever taken, and this new farmers organization bids fair to become one of the strongest organizations in all the country.

Another enterprise the importance of which cannot be overlooked is that which the land owners in and near Clanton have on whereby they will drain off fifteen miles of marshy creek swamps within a three-mile radius of the city. When this project is completed between four and five hundred acres of the best bottom land in the whole county will be redeemed and put in shape for cultivation. And more than that the elimination of these marshy swamps will make the little city of Clanton a much more healthy place to live in.

And too, the citizens of Clanton are determined that a cotton factory be located here. Just as soon as these other projects are worked out, the Chamber of Commerce backed by the entire town and county, is going to see to it that a cotton factory is located here. Clanton is going to become a real little city in spite of itself.

MONTGOMERY FAVORS WEST ELMORE ROUTE

Montgomery, Ala., May 17.—Endorsement of what is known as the West Elmore route for the Montgomery to Birmingham Highway has been given by the Montgomery Chamber of Commerce.

Resolutions adopted by the board of directors express the sense of the business interests of Montgomery as favoring the direct route by way of Millbrook, Elmore, Speigner and other established communities in preference to the route by Reese's bridge as advocated by the people of Prattville.

This controversy has been before the Alabama Highway Commission for almost two years.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Freight Wreck at Thorsby

It is not often that a freight wreck frolic is staged so conveniently as the one which occurred near the depot at Thorsby in the early hours of last Tuesday morning, when a brake beam became detached from a car, loaded with sand, and consequently very heavy, tore up ties and track for a distance of several rods on the main line of the L. & N. R. R. just south of Thorsby station. It also disarranged the wires of the block signal for north bound trains. The train was north bound and the car near the engine which fortunately had not passed the switches for the short spur and the long side track, both a short distance north of the station, this ficilitated the removal of the cars between the wrecked car and the engine onto the short spur track leaving the long switch open for free passing of trains either way. A wrecking crew and outfit were rushed from Montgomery and the sand unloaded alongside the track after which the car, with its debris was cut loose and shunted onto the spur track after removal of the few cars previously placed there. Every man of the wrecking crew seemed to know just what he was doing, and was doing it fast, and it was a fine exhibition of team work. The track was cleared and all damage to road bed and rails repaired by ten o'clock a.m. with the only evidence of what had happened, that was visible, being the wrecked car on the spur and the piles of sand along the track.

Marriage of a Veteran

For some time past Thorsby people have been curious to know why Mr. aron Danielson, a veteran of the Civil War, who recently celebrated the 80th anniversary of his birth, was so assiduously fixing up his house and grounds even to the laying of cement walks and front steps, and rumors were abroad that he must be intending to marry, and grow up with the community, but no one was sure about it, apparently, not even Danielson himself, until the recent arrival of "The Lady From New York" in the person of Mrs. Marie Anderson, aged 65, a widow who had known Danielson for many years, being a niece of his late wife, but no blood kin to Danielson. Mrs. Anderson came with the avowed purpose of seeing for herself before accepting what Danielson had to offer. She found what appeared to her to be a situation likely to prove to be of advantage to each of them. Danielson, aged, clean and with a comfortable home, herself, with all her children grown, somewhat dependent on them for a home. Being a woman of mature age and some sense she decided it would be best for both if they joined forces and travel life's remaining part of their journey together. So they went to Clanton Monday morning, accompanied by Mr. W. C. Edler, another Civil War veteran, and like Danielson, a G. A. R. man, as a witness they proceeded to the court house and in the office of Probate Judge L. H. Reynolds, who performed the ceremony, they were made man and wife, and we offer our sincere congratulations to the groom and wish the bride much joy in her new venture. Danielson has been living alone for several years and is esteemed by all who know him. His new wife was heard to remark that she thought he would eat less of canned goods than had been his custom. Youth are apt to take as a joke the marriage of people advanced in years, but we believe that few people are more happy in the marriage relation than elderly people, who are congenial, and by marriage secure home comforts and companionship during their declining years.

The strawberry business in Thorsby still remains good, 30 carloads having been shipped, besides express shipments aggregating several hundred crates, up to Tuesday morning of this week, and if the weather remains favorable there will be one or two more big days this week, provided they can be picked. Owing to so much rain grass is getting well started among the cotton fields and must be given prompt attention, which will draw heavily on strawberry pickers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan left Thorsby Sunday night to spend a week in Atlanta, where Mr. Reagan will attend the Southern Hardware convention. They were accompanied by Miss Naemi Turnquist, Mrs. Reagan's sister, and Miss Esther Berlin, a recent graduate as a trained nurse. Miss Berlin lived many years in Thorsby and has a lot of friends here among the young people. The young ladies will visit a married sister of Miss Berlin, Mrs. Anna Biggs, and her interesting baby. Her husband being a traveling man, is liable to be away from their home. Mrs. Biggs will be remembered as Miss Anna Berlin, who also lived in Thorsby before her marriage.

Miss Agnes Leary, who has been spending the past six months at Mobile, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Leary in Thorsby, on Friday of last week, where she will probably spend the summer months. If she knows what she will do after that she is not telling.

Miss Catherine Shepard who recently graduated from the Montevallo Alabama Technical Institute and College for Women, has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Robert Shepard of Thorsby Institute.

The people of Thorsby are greatly favored in the matter of entertainment all this week by having a first class theatrical show, which is housed in a large tent, which are giving a high class play every night for all the week. The management seem to have great confidence in their method of advertising by the liberal use of free tickets for ladies of Thorsby and vicinity on certain nights, and it seems to work pretty well as they are playing to a full house each night.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid will be held on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. Johanna Lefstead.

On Thursday afternoon, May 24th, the Ladies' Guild of Thorsby will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Chas. S. Howard.

At the Congregational Church last Sunday morning Rev. J. W. Davenport, the pastor, delivered a strong and interesting "Mother's Day" sermon. On account of its being preaching day and an evening service at the Baptist church, the "Mother's Day" program which was to have been given at the Congregational church last Sunday evening, was postponed to next Sunday night after the Christian Endeavor meeting which is to convene at 6:45 and will last about an hour. The public is cordially invited to this "Mother's Day" service.

The last public meeting of the Helen Keller Literary Society (for the school year) was held on Saturday evening at Bates Hall. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Codie D. Bell, in the absence of the president, Robert H. Shepard. The vice-president appointed Miss Annie Hughes as secretary pro-tem, since the Secretary of the society, Miss Opal Garrick, was also absent. Devotions were conducted by Rev. E. W. Butler. After a brief business meeting the program of the evening was presented. Mr. Butler gave an interesting explanation of the setting for the first three numbers on the program, consisting of the song Adeste Fideles, the Scripture and the Lord's Supper, all of which were given in Latin. The Latin play, Perseus and Andromeda was presented by the members of the Latin classes of the school. Much attention has been given to the details of the acting and of the costumes and the results were very pleasing. As usual, Mrs. Loveland pleased the audience with a reading consisting of a story appropriate to the recent observance of the first singing of Home Sweet Home. The Misses Agnes and Ruth Gerald played a duet to an appreciative audience. The last number of the program was the one act play, "The Maker of Dreams." In an introduction read by Miss Annie Hughes, the characters, Pierrette, Miss Myrtle Jones; Pierrot, Mr. Forrest Glenn; and the Manufacturer, Mr. Gresham Lowery, were introduced to the audience. The play was produced in a most pleasing manner and reflected much credit on the work done by Miss Perry, who had charge of the production.

On Saturday evening, May 19th, Miss Agnes Gerald will present her pupils in a recital to be held at Bates Hall, at 7:30 o'clock. All friends of the school and of the students who are interested in music are invited to attend this recital. There will be no admission fee.

Mrs. Sereno Norton and Mrs. Hattie Gerald will entertain the members of the Senior class on Friday evening, May 18th, at the home of Mrs. Norton.

What Every Expectant Mother Should Know--

Mrs. Laura Hendrix, Gracemont, Okla., says: "I want to express my appreciation of "Mother's Friend." I am the mother of six children, expecting another one soon. I have used "Mother's Friend" with every one of my babies. I think it is the grandest help that has ever been discovered for the expectant mother. I can't do without it. I recommend it to all expectant mothers. I can't say too much for it."

"Mother's Friend" was originated by an eminent physician. It has saved thousands of expectant mothers from useless suffering. It is externally applied; aids the muscles and tissues to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and up to the moment baby arrives.

"Mother's Friend" is safe and beneficial, and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. Avoid mere greases and useless substitutes.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-44, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores everywhere.

THE MAN AT OUR BANK WINDOW

is always glad to see you. He likes to credit your deposits. It pleases him to see your account grow. Cheerfully he counts out currency for you when you need it. He misses you when you do not call.

If he does not always openly show his pleasure, if sometimes you think he doesn't seem sociable, it is because his duty is strict and his work exacting. He can't afford to risk any mistakes. First of all you want him to be dependable.

The bank window is a little theater of real life. Back of each deposit slip is an unspoken drama. Romance is written between the lines of pass books. Sometimes tragedy stalks the stage. The "teller" sees but he never tells.

Gum-Dipped Cords
Gaining New Fame for Service
194% Sales Increase in Last Six Months Shows Trend Toward Firestone

The public has emphatically spoken. The popular preference in all territories is unmistakably the Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

A standard of service has been set by these famous tires without parallel in the past. It has brought a sales increase of 194% for the past six months over the same period of a year ago—the greatest gain in all Firestone history.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord is the mighty achievement which has enabled Firestone to break the tremendous record of past Firestone success.

The tire buying public has been aroused to the results in economical mileage of the Firestone process of double gum-dipping. The buying-swing toward Firestone shows how it has advanced the public's standard of tire value.

Ask owners about Firestone performance on their cars. Note the big taxicab fleets Firestone-equipped. Watch the new cars you see—just from the factories; Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords are seen everywhere in fast increasing numbers.

Get the maximum extra mileage that only the Firestone name assures you. Only by insisting on this name can you be sure of getting the genuine gum-dipped construction.

MILT TOLBERT SHOW HERE NEXT WEEK

Commencing Monday, May 21, the Milt Tolbert Show will play a week's engagement in Clanton, offering a complete change of program each night. The Tolbert Show was in Talladega last week and the Daily Home of May 8th has the following to say regarding their performances:

One of the largest crowds ever seen in Talladega greeted the Milt Tolbert Show at the big tent last night.

The management has recently added 200 additional seats to their already large seating capacity, yet there was scarcely a seat available last night after the curtain went up on that delightful and refreshing comedy drama, "Putting It Over." The Tolbert players proved themselves equal to the occasion and more than "Put It Over." The large crowd showed their appreciation by rounds of applause and laughter throughout the entire evening.

This company under the management of Mr. Boyd Holloway and Mrs. Milt Tolbert Holloway, have spared nothing in the way of scenery and equipment as well as a selection of artists seldom seen with a tent show.

The Milt Tolbert show has been bringing high class entertainment to Talladega for a number of years, and has always pleased the audiences. This year the company seems to be bigger and stronger in every way. Last night's performance puts them in the ranks of real artists in every sense of the word. The feature comedian, Mr. Hi Washburn, was ably supported by a clever and versatile cast.

Tonight the thrilling melodrama, "Cross Roads of Life," or "A Lady of Twilight," will be the offering. This play has been a decided success wherever presented, being the story of a girl who was stolen by a band of thieves from her aristocratic home in England and brought over to America as the daughter of the leader of the band. After living a life of crime through fear of being killed by her supposed father the heroine renounces the band and plans to leave for New York and start her life over again—but is rescued by a detective who is a childhood playmate and who takes her back to her English home where she is happily married to this playmate "with whom she played a keeping house" in her early years.

SEEK TEXTILE MILLS

Alabama Will Be Well Represented at Richmond Exposition.

Birmingham and Alabama will be well represented at the Southern Textile exposition which will be held in Richmond, Va., May 16 and 17. Two representatives of the Alabama Power company, who are thoroughly conversant with Alabama's advantages, have been sent to Richmond, well provided with literature expounding the opportunities offered by Alabama to the cotton mill owner or manufacturer of cotton fabrics. In addition to distributing literature and advertising the state with the spoked word, the Alabamians will exhibit two of the company's pictures, "King Cotton" and "Minerals and Metals." These two films are being shown throughout the country and have always opened the eyes of residents of distant states as to the superiorities of Alabama.

Inasmuch as officials from practically every large textile mill of the United States will attend the convention, it is believed highly probable that additional capital will be induced to move to this state. The great textile centers of New England will be especially well represented and it is believed that from these states the greatest tide of industry may be turned southward.

OAK GROVE

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. We had a large crowd Sunday, and several new members. We ask more to come.

We had a large crowd at the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night, and also a good program. Bro. Bailey rendered a good sermon after B. Y. P. U., which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

As Sunday was not our singing day most of our singing class wen to Minooka to the Mother's Day services in the afternoon. There were two wagon loads and several car loads. Had some good singing in the afternoon.

Mr. Vollie and Ollie Glass gave a party Saturday night. A large crowd attended. Everybody had a nice time. Played several games and some good string music, which everybody enjoyed.

Mr. C. S. Martin of Wylam, Ala., was at home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Faulkner were away Saturday and Sunday visiting his relatives.

Mr. Edgar Barnett of Birmingham was at B. Y. P. U. Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bean and family visited Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Satterwhite Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Pearmon and family, H. N. Beasley and family visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Glass Sunday.

Mr. Faulkner has almost finished his new house. Moved in last week.

Next Sunday is our regular singing evening and Sunday night preaching. Everybody come and bring some one with you.

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

The Huntsville city board of education wants a municipal bond issue of $100,000 and the Chamber of Commerce, Parent-Teacher Association and other organizations and citizens want an issue in the sum of $200,000, and because of a conflict of desires the city council has postponed action on the proposal to call a special bond election. Some maintain that $100,000 would not be enough to make the necessary improvements in school facilities and others claim that the burden would be too heavy if an issue of double that amount would be authorized.

Notice of an embargo on the Warrior division of the Mississippi-Warrior Federal Barge Line to and from Demopolis, Tuscaloosa and Cordova, Ala., which is said to mean virtual discontinuance of the service, has been received from General Freight Agent W. M. Hough, with headquarters at New Orleans. The embargo is effective at once and includes shipment of all character of freight to the three river cities named, with the expection of shipments of coal and coke, which are exempted in the embargo.

"Alabama" should be pronounced with a short "a" and poetic license only will permit the use of the broad "a" as in "alms," according to the decision of Dr. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education. Dr. Abercrimbie was asked by a publishing company to furnish the correct pronunciation. Few Alabamians us the broad "a" but many persons of the north persist in its use.

The Chambers of Commerce of Uniontown, Demopolis, Marion, Tuscaloosa and Jasper have jointly petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington to permit the refinancing of the Muscle Shoals, Birmingham and Pensacola railroad, which eventually would extend itself to Jasper, thence into the Muscle Shoals district. The railroad now runs from Pensacola to Kimbrough, Wilcox county, Alabama.

Phenix City and Girard will be consolidated when the Alabama legislature meets early in July. This has been made certain by the signing of petitions by the qualified voters in both cities, asking that the cities be merged. Fifty per cent of the voters is required for legislative action. It is stated that the committees named by General Chairman T. W. Britton have more than 50 per cent listed.

G. C. Starcher, horticulturist for the Piedmont peach growers, with headquarters at Opelika, has issued the statement that Lee county's peach trees have a fine crop on them, better than in other parts of the country. Mr. Starcher is directing the spraying of trees for all members of the association, and he predicts a splendid crop of peaches for Lee county this year.

Selmians are aroused over a report that the directors of the Dinkins' military academy are looking over sites in other nearby cities with a view to locating there, reason being given that the building now being used by them is not suitable and not being able to find one in Selma, they are forced to look elsewhere for a location.

Tuscaloosa's new traffic posts with concrete basis to be set at street corners have arrived. The large metal sign to mark the school zones of the city, have also arrived, and will be placed in the vicinity of schools at once.

Walter Matlock, wanted at Scottsboro for kidnapping thirteen-year old Estelle Roden, has been arrested at Norma, Tenn., by Deputy Sheriff Mack Thomas, and placed in jail at Scottsboro.

The first hampers of cucumbers to be shipped this season from Baldwin county was shipped on May 9th by express. The Robertsdale-Silverhill section, from which the shipment was made, has a nation-wide reputation for its cucumbers.

A 20-year-old boys who says his name is Alonzo L. Bennett has surrendered to police at Gadsden as a deserter from the United States Marines. He was half famished and said he had been dodging around the country for four months.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I wat flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

STILL IS FOUND ON TWENTIETH STREET IN BIRMINGHAM

Officers Get Complete Outfit in Basement of Residence.

Are the moonshiners moving into the city? This was the question which officers asked Monday morning when two copper stills, one in operation, were discovered in the Southside residential district at 938 South Twentieth Street. J. B. Fiffin was arrested at the stills. There were 30 gallons of alleged whisky and 16 barrels of mash seized by Officers Patton, McGill and Watson, who conducted the raid.

A 200-gallon still was in operation when the raid was made at 11 o'clock Monday morning, according to the officers. It had been running all night, it was said, while a 50-gallon still, nearby, had apparently been discarded. Both stills were made of copper with copper worms.

The outfit was in the basement of the house, is is claimed, and an arrangement whereby the fumes were carried up through the chimney is said to be a feature of it. Charcoal was used in its operation.

Fiffin was being held at the police headquarters Monday morning charged with distilling, until a warrant can be issued.

Messrs. Tom and Levy Teel of Sylacauga visited relatives here the first of this week.

NEW CITY DUMP TRUCK

City Clerk J. B. Atkinson has had built a jam up new steel dump body fastened on a Ford truck, which the city is to use in hauling gravel and dirt and all other kind of hauling which is always plentiful around town. The large steel bin which will hold about four or five cubic yards of dirt, is fastened on the back end of the truck and so arranged that the front end may be raised and thus unloaded without the contents having to be handled. This is a much needed improvement to the street working machinery of the city.

TALLADEGA GIRL GETS GOOD APPOINTMENT

Achievements of Alabamians are noted far and wide. The May issue of "The Business Woman," a magazine of 75,000 circulation published in New York, carried a beautiful photograph of Miss Maria Whitson, of Talladega.

Miss Whitson has the unique distinction of being the first woman who has ever graduated in electrical engineering in any Alabama institution, and this fact was stated in the magazine, along with her picture and her business connection.

Miss Whitson will receive her diploma from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute this month, and immediately upon her graduation will accept a position with the Alabama Power Company at Birmingham.

The photograph of Miss Whitson appeared in "The Business Woman" under the caption "Interesting Women of the World." The other four women pictured were figures of national and international importance, and it is very gratifying to the many friends of this charming Alabama girl to know that she has had such an honor bestowed upon her.

Tentative offers were made for the services of Miss Whitson by representatives of both the General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Company, but she chose the position with the Alabama Power Company, and enters upon her unique career with unbounded enthusiasm and interest.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

To Be Held in School Districts No. 37 and No. 38 of Chilton County, Alabama.

Notice is hereby given that a special election will be held at the Isabella School House in the Isabella District No. 37 and at J. H. Davenport's house in District No. 38 of Chilton County, Alabama, on the 15th day of June, 1923, to determine whether or not these two Districts shall consolidate into one District and whether or not a special district tax of thirty cents on each one hundred dollars worth of taxable property shall be levied and collected annually on the taxable property of this consolidated district for the present tax year and continuing for a period of seven years. Said levy is proposed to be made for public school purposes within said consolidated district. The consolidated District will be known as Isabella District No. 37 and the boundary of said District is as follows:

NOTICE

The Chilton County Board of Education will meet at the Courthouse on Friday, May 25 1923 for the purpose of selecting a county superintendent for the term beginning July 1st of this year.

Anyone desiring to apply for the place should present their application to any member of the Board or to me on or before the day set for the election.

In addition to the above the Board will consider any other matters that may come before them on the date mentioned.

HOWARD L. FOSHEE,
5-10-3t. County Supt. Education.

S.S.S. keeps away Pimples

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!

Did you ever know how big cities make the hydrant water fit for you to drink? That's what S. S. S. does to the blood in your own blood-pipes. It makes it fit to circulate. S. S. S. is acknowledged to be one of the most powerful, rapid and effective blood-cleansers known. You don't have to use some new fad treatment that is mere guesswork, you don't have to smear things on your face in a vain effort to get rid of eruptions. Eruptions come from blood impurities and a lack of rich blood-cells. S. S. S. builds new blood-cells. This is why S. S. S. routs out of your system the impurities which cause boils, pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetter, rash. That's why S. S. S. has done such wonderful work in freeing thousands from the scourge of rheumatism. S. S. S. is also a remarkable flesh-builder. That's why underweight people can quickly build up their lost flesh, get back their normal weight, pink, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and "pep." S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.

WOMEN OF STATE TO MEET

Miss Mary V. Robinson of Washington, D. C., Among Prominent Speakers.

Mrs. Charles Bricken, State President of the Alabama League of Women Voters is sending out her official call to the Annual Convention of the League, which will be held in Montgomery May 22, 23, and 24.

Mrs. Bricken and Mrs. Solon Jacobs who were Alabama's delegates to the National Convention of the League of Women Voters in Des Moines, Iowa, will bring the messages from that convention. Miss Eleanor Laird, Field Worker for the National League will also be present at the convention and speak on the work of the National League.

Mrs. Bricken is planning a most interesting and instructive program for the convention. Many prominent men and woman from various parts of the country are expected to appear on the program. Miss Mary V. Robinson of the Women's Bureau in Washington will speak on Women at Work and the limitation of hours. The League is very fortunate in securing Miss Robinson for the convention. The League expects to promote a bill in the legislature which will provide for a shorter working day for women in Alabama, this is one of a number of bills which the League is interested in that will come before the legislature.

A speaker on international co-operation to prevent war and several speakers on the convict system are expected and will be announced later. Miss Elliott Cheatham of Atlanta, a member of the National Board and Mrs. Chamberlain, president of the Georgia League of Women Voters will be among those present who will speak.

League officers are expecting a good attendance and the prospects for a large gathering of interested women seems assured. Special committees are at work upon plans for facilitating the work of the convention and welcoming the women to Montgomery. Information may be obtained by writing to the Alabama League Headquarters, 612 1st National Bank, Montgomery, Alabama.

POOR ORIGINAL

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Editor

Miss Elizabeth Duncan celebrated her 16th birthday anniversary on last Friday, May 11, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lucien Duncan. The rooms were prettily decorated with potted plants. A very interesting contest, "The Wedding of the Flowers," was won by Miss Willadean Reynolds. Late in the evening delicious cream and cake was served to the following guests: Misses Pauline Clackley, Aurabelle Martin, Alma Klinner, Alma Wingo, Alma Robinson, Sarah Jones, Mary Popwell, Estelle Littlejohn and Willadean Reynolds, Messrs. Arthur Littlejohn, Latham Ellis, Buroin Mullins, Ernest Arant, Clebert Jones, J. P. Crumpton, Arthur Broadhead, Udah Curlee, James Higgins, Leo Alred, Julius Burnett and Joseph Hester.

Juniors Entertain.

On May 4th the Junior class of Chilton Hi delightfully entertained the Seniors at the Hi school. A color scheme of pink and green, which is the Senior class colors, was carried out. Japanese lanterns were used as part of the decoration. Many beautiful potted plants were on the stage. Numerous contests were held during the evening. One of the most enjoyable was the moulding contest of which Miss Jewel Armstrong was winner. Music on the Victrola was also enjoyed. Late in the evening an ice course was served to about forty guests.

Dr. and Mrs. N. S. Johnson have returned home from a visit to Nashville and Athens.

Clean-up Week Extended.

Owing to the inclement weather the cemetery clean-up has been extended to June 1st. Will every citizen of Clanton please enlist the sympathy of every other citizen in this much needed campaign for a more sightly cemetery for Clanton? The existing condition is intolerable. Please go down and see for yourself, and while there if the civic committee has chanced to clean your enclosure kindly clean someone's and thereby help this worthy cause. A member of the committee saw Mrs. Laura White (one of our oldest citizens) help to clean eight enclosures this week. In view of this would any one say they cannot help? If you cannot clean your own enclosure, why not contribute towards having it done?

The cemetery as it now is, should be a disgrace to Clanton.

Miss Maud Wagoner Hostess.

The Y. W. A. met on May 2nd, with Maude Wagoner and the following program was rendered:

All business.
Roll call and reading of minutes.
Song.
Prayer, Mrs. Ezell.
Song.
Devotional, Gen. 28:10-17, Jewel Minor.
Song, Nearer My God to Thee.
Talk on the "House Beautiful," by Mrs. Ezell.
Angle of Love, Alice Connell.
Angle of Noble Example, Lorene Parrish.
Song, "The Old Rugged Cross," Inez Harris and Grace Duncan.
Angle of Service for Others, Pearl Harris.
Song.
Watchword.

After the program, salad and tea was served.

"The Hustlers" big show—don't forget the date—May 15th to 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pitts spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pitts at Sylacauga, and the entire party motored down to Jacksonville to spend Sunday with the Messrs. Potts' mother.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson motored up Monday for a visit to their daughter, Mrs. L. C. Reynolds.

After a two week's stay with relatives in Helena, Mrs. Ed Plier returned home Monday, accompanied by her father, Mr. Nunnally.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald announce the arrival of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Luckie had as their guest the first of the week, the former's mother, Mrs. A. C. Luckie, from Pine Apple.

Wednesday Sewing Club Meets.

At the home of Mrs. J. Watts Moore the Wednesday Sewing Club enjoyed a lovely afternoon on last Wednesday. The apartments were lavishly decorated with flowering plants and vases of sweet peas. Fancy sewing was done during the afternoon and later a refreshing salad course was served to Mesdames McSwain, John Armstrong, John Ezell, W. Z. Hodges, Grady Broadhead, M. L. White, S. E. Alverson, R. E. Luckie, H. F. Downs, M. A. Gore, H. M. Simpson and Hugh Jones.

Mrs. N. S. Johnson Hostess.

On last Thursday Mrs. N. S. Johnson entertained a number of friends at a sewing party. Four machines were kept running. A number of garments were completed. At the noon hour a lovely dinner was served. Covers were laid for Mesdames T. C. McSwain, Hugh Simpson, Watts Moore, S. E. Alverson, Arthur Johnson, John Browder and Horace Alred.

The Vaughan Quartette will be here next Sunday and Sunday night and during the first of the week they will give a concert benefit of the new Methodist church fund.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mullins of Birmingham announce the arrival of a son, whom they have named W. K., Jr.

MAPLE SPRINGS SINGING

The singing at Maple Springs last Sunday was fine. There was a good attendance. The opening prayer led by J. E. George. Organists, Mr. Amzie Boswell and Miss Letha Mims. Directors, O. L. Devaughn, S. M. Yates, Mack Boswell, L. T. Grant, Amzie Boswell and W. M. Devaughn.

Recess ten minutes.

Special quartette by L. T. Grant, W. M. Devaughn, Misses Gennie Grant, Letha Mims. Organist, Amzie Boswell.

We extend a cordial invitation to them to be with us second and third Sunday evenings in each month.

We invite every one to be with us in our song service, in singing God's praises as Jesus sang on His way to Gethsemena, and also verified the cradle song which the angel sung, Glory to God in the highest peace on earth, good will towards men, as it will be our daily occupation when we reach the great beyond around God's throne.

Dismissed with prayer

GAS ON STOMACH WON'T LET YOU SLEEP

Gas often presses on heart and other organs, causing a restless, nervous feeling which prevents sleep. Simple buckthorn bark, gylcerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels gas and relieves pressure almost INSTANTLY, inducing restful sleep. Adlerika often removes surprising old matter from BOTH upper and lower bowel which poisoned stomach and caused gas. EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Upchurch Drug Co.

CLOSING OF HIGH SCHOOL

With final examinations out of the way and two more days of commencement festivities the high school will close a very successful year. From the standpoint of scholarship some excellent standards have been set in each class and the average is far better than any previous year. And although a high standard of work has been insisted upon there will be fewer failures this year than any previous year. Five students of the Senior class, Willie Higgins, Clara Vines, Ely Daniel, Clara Holley, and Gladys Kemp have made the distinguished record of an average of above 90 per cent for the past four years. The Senior class outnumbers the class of last year by ten members. The average of work in the graduating class has been unusually good.

The undergraduates have made all arrangements for a splendid play tonight (Thursday). The cast is made up of students who are experienced in dramatics and the best play of the year is anticipated. A small fee of 15 and 25 cents will be charged for this entertainment. For entertainment this will be the best program of commencement week.

The graduating class numbering twenty-seven are through with examinations and are anxiously awaiting the hour when they will receive their reward for four years of hard work. The graduating exercises is always the most beautiful of the commencement exercises. Dr. Spright Dowell of Auburn will deliver the graduating address.

You don't know what you are missing unless you visit The Variety Store every day.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

State of Alabama, Chilton County.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Omar L. Reynolds, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that his place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the County of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said L. H. Foster, to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 1st day of June, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against him.

Done at office in Clanton, this 28th day of April, 1923.

REPORT OF THE STATE EXAMINER

Clanton, Ala., May 21st, 1923
Editor Union-Banner,
Clanton, Ala.
Dear Sir:

If you will please allow me the space in your paper I will publish the report of Mr. Frank Peabody, Assistant State Examiner of Accounts, as shown by the examination under date of May 3rd, 1923. The report is as follows:

Clanton, Ala., May 3, 1923.
Hon. William W. Brandon,
Governor of Alabama,
Montgomery, Ala.
Dear Sir:

In obedience to instructions received from the office through Hon. Chas. E. McCall, chief examiner of accounts, I have examined the records of the Commissioners Court of Chilton County from Feb. 1st, 1922, to March 31st, 1923, and beg to submit the following as my report:

The Court is composed of the following:

Hon. L. H. Reynolds, Probate Judge, Chairman.
Hon. T. J. Dorminey, Commissioner
Hon. J. Wiley Littlejohn, Commissioner.
Hon. C. T. Walker, Commissioner.
Hon. D. H. Gentry, Commissioner.

The minute record of the Court was carefully checked and all claims against the County were in order, itemized and sworn to and the proper entry made of the same.

List of official bonds of the different county officers is herewith attached.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK PEABODY,
Asst. Examiner of Accounts.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 3rd day of May, 1923.
J. Z. MIMS,
Circuit Clerk Chilton County.

Clanton, Ala., May 3rd, 1923.
Hon. William W. Brandon,
Governor of Alabama,
Montgomery, Ala.
Dear Sir:

In obedience to instructions received from the Executive Office through Hon. Chas. E. McCall, chief examiner of accounts, I have examined the books, accounts and vouchers of Hon. L. H. Reynolds, Judge of Probate of Chilton County, from Feb. 1st, 1923, to March 31st, 1923, and beg to submit the following as my report:

The records in this office were neat and correctly kept and a record has been prepared by the Judge in which he is keeping account of all fees paid in the Probate Office, this record is in addition to the Probate Fee Book and the Cash book and all such records are in his office for public inspection.

All money collected by the Probate Judge has been remitted promptly to the State and County Treasurers and after a very careful audit of the books it was found that only a few corrections had to be made and the amounts that have been charged in my report to Judge Reynolds were for Privilege Tax on Mortgages left off the mortgage record.

To the State (paid) $5.12
To the County (paid) $1.56
$6.68

And for Motorcycle License No. 261, year 1922-23, not reported, amounting to
For the State (paid) $4.00
For Town of Thorsby (paid) $1.00
$5.00

Due to the fact that during the last few months Judge Reynolds has had to make several changes in his clerical force all such omissions can be accounted for.

The State is due the Probate Judge, on Charter Fees, over-remitted $0.25

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK PEABODY,
Asst. Examiner of Accounts.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 3rd day of May, 1923.

SHERIFF'S FORCE GOES AFTER 'EM

During the past week Sheriff Littlejohn and his force of deputies, with the aid of the federal agents, succeeded in running down several violators of the prohibition laws over the county.

Last Thursday afternoon Sheriff Littlejohn, together with Federal Agent Gillespie, Deputy Gardner of Shelby county and one state deputy, went across Waxahatchie into Shelby county and captured a big copper still, 13 barrels of beer and 72 gallons of whiskey. Two men were at the still, but only one of them, John Ellison, was caught, the other one escaping. Ellison was carried to Columbiana.

Friday evening Sheriff Littlejohn and Deputies Taylor and Johnson got 5 gallons of whiskey from a stump hole near the home of Andrew Ellison in the edge of Stumps Hills. No arrests were made.

Saturday night Sheriff Littlejohn and Gillespie located and took possession of 5 gallons of whiskey at Thorsby, and arrested George Freeman and Chester Bice. The whiskey was found in Freeman's warehouse in the town of Thorsby.

Sunday p.m. the officers located at Thorsby Dewey Collier, who was drunk. Collier left Thorsby in a Ford car headed south. The officers pursued him and overtook him near the Duncan place on the Highway between Clanton and Thorsby, when one of the front wheels of his car ran off and he was forced to stop. He was brought and put in jail, but later made bond.

Monday Littlejohn, Gillespie and Will Hayes went out in the western part of the county, near the Splawn place, and found one gallon of whiskey in the house of Clarence Hayes. Hayes was brought to Clanton and made bond.

Deputy Culp was down in the Poole's Cross Roads community Tuesday and happened up on Jim Weldon with a half-gallon fruit jar full of whiskey in a sack and a half pint in his pocket. He was brought to Clanton and placed in jail, but soon made bond.

It seems from the above that the officers are camping on the trails of the whiskey heads of this county. They don't care who they catch nor where they catch them.

I hope this report comes to the attention of every man and woman in the county, as I am anxious that the people of the county know of the manner in which the business of your county is conducted.

I have always invited and desired an examination of the Probate Office. I wish it were possible to have these examinations at least twice yearly, as we could then give to the people more often the exact condition of the county's affairs. I feel that a public officer, elected by the people, is the servant of the people, and that his actions in office should be under the watch care of the people, for by so doing it tends to make public officers more diligent in their work.

There were some few who seemed especially anxious to have my records examined, not because of any errors they suspected, but simply to attempt to embarrass and harrass me, just because I happen to differ with them politically, and because I am a Republican officer. I will venture to say that if I had been of a different political faith, they would have been perfectly satisfied without an examination. I am especially anxious that this report might come to their attention, in order that some of their predictions may be proven untrue, and their criticism unfounded.

I strive at all times to treat all the people with courtesy, and attend to their business promptly and efficiently, and the official actions of the Probate Office are always open for inspection to the public.

I want to take this opportunity of thanking the good people of this county for the loyal friendship you have shown me in the past. I have always had some loyal friends, who have taken my side, when there were some few who see fit to criticize me, many times without any foundation whatever, as in the case I just mentioned above. I am glad to say however, that in the three terms I have served as your Probate Judge, the office has always come up to the dollar, which I believe has given my friends added confidence in my honesty and ability to manage the office. I have always felt that if the affairs of the office were not run properly, it would cast reflection on my friends, who have stood by me.

I would like to state to the people, that I am contemplating taking a trip through the country to see my daughter, who resides in Richmond, Virginia, and will probably be away three weeks and possibly a month. The clerks however, will attend to the usual business in the office, during my absence. I am,

Yours very truly,
L. H. REYNOLDS.

BIG SINGING HERE ON LAST SUNDAY

The largest social gathering in this vicinity for several months occurred here Sunday when the Chilton County Singing Convention met in session at the County High school building. This was a special session of that body, but the attendance was greater than that of any previous session. The spaceous auditorium was filled to overflowing in the forenoon; but in the afternoon the building would nothing like accommodate the crowd. The greatest number present any time during the day would easily reach 3,500, and there were at least four hundred automobiles around the building. People were present from every county between Birmingham and Montgomery, several being there from these two cities.

The singing was begun promptly at 10 o'clock, when the opening song was sung by County Chairman, W. G. Culp. Prayer was offered by Prof. J. L. Johnson, after which the singing proper began. The huge choir was seated on the large stage of the auditorium, and there were hundreds of other singers eager to help but could find no vacant space in the choir.

The most attractive feature of the affair was the famous Vaughan Quartet from Lawrenceburg, Tenn. These four men, Messrs. Collins, Seals, Vaughan and Bernard held the huge crowd spell bound every time they took charge of the floor, which was about every twenty minutes during the day. The singing was kept up until about 3:30, when the chairman spoke a few very select and pointed words to the convention and closed with prayer.

This is an occasion long to be remembered not only by the music lovers of Chilton county but by all those who were present from almost all over Alabama. Praises to God were sung in spirit and in truth, and everyone present seemed to enjoy it to the utmost. One of the most beautiful parts of the occasion was the splendid conduct of everybody. There was not the least misbehavior by anyone.

The directors for the day were: Jesse Jones, James Franklin, Ammie Boswell, J. W. Cagle, Clint Veasey, Arthur Beaird, Jasper Robinson, J. L. Gore, G. D. Retherford, I. D. Huett, O. R. Robinson, A. H. Glasscock, T. L. Robinson.

MR. JOHN WOOLLEY DEAD.

Mr. John Woolley, age about 60 years, of the Mulberry community, died at a hospital in Selma Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. He was carried there for an operation for stomach trouble, from which he had been suffering for only a few days. The operation was performed Saturday afternoon.

The deceased leaves a wife, one son, Horace living in the State of Oregon, and five daughters. The oldest daughter is married and lives in Bibb county; the others are Mrs. Jake Wallace of Maplesville, Mrs. E. S. Jones of Mulberry, and Miss Mary Belle, unmarried and living at home.

The remains were buried at Antioch, in Bibb county, the old home place of Mr. Woolley, Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

This man was well known in the Mulberry community and stood high in the estimation of his numerous acquaintances.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF ALABAMA, Chilton County. Probate Court.
To Mary Lane Rhodes, Athens, Ga.:

You will please take notice, that on the 15th day of May, 1923, a certain paper in writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Joseph P. VanDerveer, was filed in my office for Probate, by Mrs. Cornelia E. VanDerveer, and that the 18th day of June, 1923, was appointed a day for the hearing thereof, at which time you can appear and contest the same if you see proper.

Given under my hand this 21st day of May, 1923.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
5-24-3t. Judge of Probate.

Mr. Claud Marcus is in Clanton visiting his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Marcus.

If The Union-Banner could raise money as well as we can flying ants we would soon get rich.

MORE BUILDING

Two more nice brick buildings are being constructed on the old Minnie Muse lot, beside the new store of Tom Parrish. One of these buildings is being built by Mr. Grover Walker, to be used as a store house, and the other one by Dr. Eiland. We understand that Dr. Eiland will use his building for his office when it is completed.

Mr. Dixon is rushing the canning factory building in the Gowan Addition. The foundation is now being placed, and the material being assembled for the building.

The fills are about completed for the new bridge across the railroad at Maddox's warehouse. The railroad company will begin work on the bridge in a short while.

PINEDALE NEWS

Everybody is busy chopping cotton now.

Miss Lilla Heflin spent Wednesday night with Miss Lishie Heflin.

Mrs. Florence Rhodes and Mrs. Emma Lee Thompson were visitors around Pinedale Sunday.

A few from this place attended the singing at Clanton Sunday p.m. and reported a nice time.

Next Saturday night and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Everybody come.

COOSA AND CHILTON BOUNDARY

It is reported that Coosa County has a delegation before the State Department of Engineers with the object in view of changing the boundary line between Chilton and Coosa counties, so that they may be able to take in Lock 12 and Mitchell Dam in their county. As this is a question of great concern to Chilton county, Judge Reynolds asked us to announce a meeting of everybody interested to be held at the court house Friday night at 8 o'clock. So if anyone has any information as to this matter or any plan to offer, let them be present at this meeting. We are going to try to have our senator and representative present, if possible.

VERBENA BAPTIST W. M. S.

We are so glad to have in our Society new members, Mrs. Caffey, wife of Dr. Caffey, who recently moved to Verbena, and Mrs. Chambers, a talented young teacher and a splendid Christian worker. Mrs. Chambers has recently been elected chairman for our Y. W. A. We feel that she will be a successful leader.

On last meeting the Mission Study class met at the home of Mrs. Joe Gaines. As usual, an interesting lesson was led by our mission study class leader, Mrs. Horace Davis. Mrs. Prescott was a very welcome visitor. After the lesson delicious sandwiches of two kinds and coffee were served to the following ladies: Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Horace Davis, Mrs. Stonecipher, Mrs. Will Strock, Mrs. H. B. Oliver, Mrs. Judson Strock, Mrs. Guy Caffey, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. W. T. Murrey, Mrs. Driver, Mrs. Abernathy and Mrs. Vinson.

On next Thursday the Mission Study class will meet with Mrs. W. T. Murrey. This being the last chapter in the book, all taking the course should be present if possible. There will be an examination given soon after Thursday. So if we get credit for our work there is still another task.

MRS. EFFIE VINSON.

FACULTY CHOSEN CLANTON SCHOOL

The faculty for the Clanton Elementary School for 1923-24 has been selected. They are all teachers of experience from one to eight years. Most of them are old enough to be steady under severe strain. The list follows:

Mr. Walter Martin, Seventh Grade, and Man Principal.
Miss Cassie Beck, Bowdon, Ga., 6th grade.
Mrs. Curry D. Thomas, 5th grade, and Lady Principal.
Mrs. R. D. Horton, utility, grade not assigned yet.
Miss Exa Jones, Highland Home, Ala., 4th grade.
Miss Bessie Floyd, Clayton, 3rd grade.
Miss Alice Selman, Goodwater, Ala., 1st grade.

I appreciate the crowd who came out to see our seventh grade get their diplomas. The end does not always justify the means, but I believe that was true in this case.

I wish to thank each person who let us have pot flowers for the occasion. Also thank those pupils who worked so arduously to arrange the flowers.

The library will be open at least one day each week during the summer. Mrs. John VanDerveer has kindly agreed to check out the books and check them in. As a caution to the pupils to bring the books back on time and to take good care of them we are going to require each pupil to pay fifty cents. If a pupil has not lost or destroyed any book, the fifty cents will be given back to the pupil next September when school opens. So, you see the fifty cents is just put up as a guarantee that the books will be returned and taken care of properly. The books are there and I hope you let your children put up the fifty cents and use these books during their vacatoin.

If you will help put over the three mill tax election on the 15th day of June, it will help our school considerably. The school law guarantees that we get all we now get and entitles us to a share of the tax on Lock 12. It can not raise the tax here for this district has all the tax allowed under the law. If Clanton turns this down, it will not share in the tax on Lock 12. Let me urge everybody to vote "YES."

Sincerely,
IRA PEGUES.

REYNOLDSES TO GO ON TRIP

Leaving next Friday, Judge Reynolds, accompanied by his wife and son, Omer, will leave for an extended trip in the North and East. They will go first to Macon, where they will visit Mrs. Reynolds' people. From there they will go to Richmond to see their daughter and sister, Mrs. John M. Bridges. They will be in Washington at the time of the national Shriners meeting, which they expect to attend. From the Capital City they will go to New York and probably Atlantic City. The return trip will be made through Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The entire trip will be made in their automobile, and they will be away for three weeks or a month. This will be indeed a fine trip, as their mode of travel will permit them to see all of the beautiful country through which they will pass. The Union-Banner wishes for them a very delightful outing.

The GRAY has looks, comfort and durability.

SHOULTS NEWS

This community was made sad one day last week when they learned of Mr. John Lawrence of Jemison being carried to a hospital in Birmingham for an operation. Mr. Lawrence was born and reared here and made his home at this place until about two years ago. He is a good man and was loved by all here. His many friends are wishing for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram, little daughter Ollie, spent last Sunday with Mrs. John Ed eBarden, a sister of Mr. Ingram, at Maplesville.

Mr. Noah Moore and sister, Fannie visited their father, Mr. Lenza Moore last week-end.

For some reason Plantersville ball team called the game off with Shoults. We are sorry they did not get to play as we had already determined to have the game. We hope we will get to play them later.

They are planning for a game with Brent Saturday.

Messrs. Bird Lawrence and Brooks Shoults, who have a position with the M. & O. railroad, spent Sunday with homefolks. They do not fail to put that Dodge and Star thru when they have the chance.

Mr. Denson, Misses Eva, Rosa and Etta Mae Hall, Miss Myrtle Ingram visited Mr. Jim Bearden and family of Stanton last Sunday.

Miss Myrtle McAfee received a letter from an aunt of her's in Oklahoma one day last week telling that she would visit her this summer. She is a sister of Mr. McAfee, and while visiting here two years ago made many friends. They will be very glad to know that she is coming back.

On the first Saturday in June, we are to have a Home Coming Day at the Baptist Church. Everybody is invited, especially the members of the church and those that once lived here. We will have some good speakers with us and hope to have special music. We will also have dinner on the ground, and during the day get subscriptions and free-will offerings to make an addition to the church this summer.

MR. MANN BURIED HERE

Mr. Mann of Birmingham, the son-in-law of Mr. Homer Lowe, was buried in the Clanton Cemetery last Sunday. Rev. C. C. Wilkerson conducted the funeral.

OAK HILL

In order that the United Singing Society may attend the all-day singing at Pleasant Grove next Sunday, there will be no singing at this place Sunday evening. We are always ready and willing to co-operate with other communities in advancing the cause of music. We have visited Pleasant Grove several times and have always been given a hearty welcome by the good people of that community, so let's all go and help to make the day a great success and all have a good time together, singing praises to our Creator from whom all good tidings commeth.

Remember, the United Singing Society is not only invited but requested to go and carry your Showalter books as well as your Vaughan books for we feel sure that both books will be used. Don't miss it!

We are planning to have Children's Day exercises at this place on the second Sunday in June. Further announcements will be made later.

E. Y. P. U. SOCIAL

The Collins Chapel B. Y. P. U. will give a social at the church Saturday night, May 26th.

NOTICE

of Filing of Bill of Complaint Against One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile.

State of Alabama, Complainant, vs. One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, Respondent. In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama, In Equity.

The Bill of Complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of G. C Walker, as County Solicitor of Chilton County, against One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, being exhibited to me and the Bill as Amended, and it appearing therefrom that on the 16th day of February, 1923, Lenwood Klinner did transport in the said, One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, certain prohibited liquors and beverages, from one point in the State of Alabama to another, and that said automobile was on said day seized by the Sheriff of Chilton County, Alabama, and said Bill praying that said automobile be forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof:

It is therefore ordered and decreed that notice of the filing of said Bill of Complaint be given for three successive weeks in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 21st day of June, 1923, and that failing so to do, the said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

Given under my hand this the 21st day of May, 1923.

GEO. L. SMOOT,
Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit of the State of Alabama.

JEMISON NEWS

(By E. L. Glasscock)

Messrs. Hubert Campbell and Leonard Glasscock made a business trip to Birmingham a few days ago.

Mr. Charles Glasscock has accepted a position with the Sloss Sheffield Steel & Iron Co. at their great by-product plant at North Birmingham.

Mrs. Ellen Harrell is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. L. Glasscock, who has been very sick for the past five weeks.

Mr. Robert Williams of Bessemer spent a few days at the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Glasscock, who is still very sick.

Mr. Hubert Campbell had to carry a full car load to the singing at Clanton Sunday to get to carry his best girl.

Messrs. Leonard Glasscock and Clayton Letcher made a trip to Thorsby Sunday evening.

Miss Lena Glasscock is spending the week with her uncle, getting ready for the commencement at the High school this week.

Mr. W. H. Conway has resigned his position as town marshall and Mr. W. C. Erwin has resigned as clerk, and Mr. H. P. Cooper has been appointed to fill the office.

We hear that there is a negotiation on for a bank here which would be a great help to our little town.

Mrs. Huston Rodgers is visiting relatives in North Alabama this week.

Mr. J. N. Scott attended the old-time singing at Birmingham Saturday and Sunday and reports a good time.

Many familiar faces are seen around here as Mr. Hyatt's camp cars are stationed here for a week or ten days and the mechants report an increase in business, and especially the drug stores.

SECOND MITCHELL DAM UNIT STARTS

Work on Third Unit is Under Way; Expect Completion in the Next Five Weeks.

According to an announcement by Col. R. A. Mitchell, vice-president of the Alabama Power Company, the second unit of Mitchell Dam, developing a maximum of 24,000 horspower, has "gone on the line." The monster runner of the water wheel, weighing alone in excess of 47 tons, today went smoothly into action and the power generated was injected into the power company's without mishap of any kind.

This is the second of four units generating a maximum of 24,000 horsepower each to be installed at Mitchell Dam. O. G. Thurlow, chief engineer, announced that work on the third unit was in progress and that it would be ready for operation in about five weeks. The first unit was installed March 28, and marked a milestone in the industrial progress of Alabama.

The water wheel runner is over 45 feet in circumference and is connected with the generator above by a 25-inch steel shaft, having a length of 83 feet. All moving parts are supported by a single 56-inch spring thrust bearing, housed above the moving parts.

Power from Mitchell Dam enters the Alabama Power Company's system at Lock 12, which is located 14 miles up the river from Mitchell Dam.

Installation of the units marks the final stage of construction of this mammoth power producer, which stands as a monument to Alabama men and Alabama materials.

NOTICE TO WHISKEY DEALERS

In cases where people are caught violating the prohibition law, we are often asked by the violators not to say anything about it through the paper. In a few cases we have complied with their requests, they being good friends of ours and we not desiring to hurt anyone's feelings. But to such people we say now and here, that unless you want some free newspaper publicity, you will have to stay out of the way of the law enforcement officers. We dislike to refuse anyone a favor, but when we refrain from publishing the truth about such cases, we feel that we are to an extent sheltering crime, which we believe no law-abiding citizen should do at all. So if you have the misfortune to get caught by the law, and written up on the court record, please avoid embarrassment to us and to yourself by not asking us to leave your name out of print.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Wingard motored over to Columbiana to attend the graduation exercises there Monday night.

A "Four" That Sets A New Standard

The 1923 Buick Four Touring—$885

In beauty of appearance, dependability and economy of operation the Buick four-cylinder five-passenger Touring has established an entirely new standard for four-cylinder cars.

Its low body with its clean, straight lines, accentuated by the high radiator and straight hood, give it a long, racy appearance that is new to cars of its class. Massive crown fenders add to this distinction, as do the snug-fitting, shapely top and the handsome drum-type head and cowl lamps.

And with this beauty has come a new riding comfort. The seats are deep and low with full leg room in both compartments. The steering column has been changed in position to increase driving ease and the gear shift lever has been raised to meet the driver's hand. A transmission lock, a windshield adjustable from the inside, and a transmission-driven speedometer likewise are among the many new refinements of this model.

Material changes also have been made in motor, chassis, and body construction which contribute still further to the wonderful performance record characteristic of Buick cars for twenty years.

The Buick line for 1923 comprises fourteen models: Fours—2 Pass. Roadster, $865; 5 Pass. Touring, $885; 3 Pass. Coupe, $1175; 5 Pass. Sedan, $1395; 5 Pass. Touring Sedan, $1[illegible]. Sixes—2 Pass. Roadster, $1175; 5 Pass. Touring, $11[illegible]; 5 Pass. Touring Sedan, $1935; 5 Pass. Sedan, $1[illegible]; 4 Pass. Coupe, $1895; 7 Pass. Touring, $1435; 7 Pass. Sedan, $2195; Sport Roadster, $1625; Sport Touring, $1075. Prices f. o. b. Flint. Ask about the G. M. A. C. Purchase Plan, which provides for Deferred Payments.

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH BUREAU OF PUBLICITY

Montgomery, Ala., May 21.—"Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?" John 12:5. This question, asked nearly two thousand years ago is again being repeated in Alabama, not literally, but figuratively.

Because the State Board of Health is spending $150,000 per annum in saving lives and preventing disease throughout Alabama, there are critics who advocate the elimination of this appropriation, according to one or more Alabama newspapers. According to figures on file in the office of the State Board of Health and which were submitted to one of the leaders in this movement, the saving in human lives in one county alone from just one disease amounts to more than the total cost of the entire board.

The people of Alabama should know where their tax money goes, is the contention of those who are attacking the various state departments. Official heads of the various departments express a willingness to submit to examinations in addition to those required by law to be made. They have also requested that investigators tell the people what results are accomplished.

"Not only the truth, but the whole truth" is the answer of one department head.

CAUGHT A BIG'UN

Mr. Charley Smitherman of Cane Creek came into town Saturday with a big yellow cat weighing a fraction over sixty pounds, which he caught a little distance below Lock 12 Friday night. This was about the biggest catch we have seen this season. And too, this is no fish tale either, for the editor of The Union-Banner saw this one with his own eyes.

SOME MATHEMATICS

He was teaching her arithmetic,
And said it was his mission,
He kissed her once, he kissed her twice,
And said, "now that's addition.
He look at her, and each one smiled
In perfect satisfaction,
He let his arms relax,
And said, "now that's subtraction."
But Pa appeared upon the scene,
And made a quick decision,
He kicked that boy three blocks away,
And said, "That's long division."

Costs a Little More

Gilster's Best is not a cheap flour. It is a quality product, made for those who know and appreciate finer flour. It costs more to manufacture, and sells for a few cents more than cheaper flours.

But the delicious flavor, the dependability of your baking, and the fact that Gilster's Best requires less lard—more than make up for the slight difference in cost.

If you prefer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

The man who thinks the world owes him a living generally has a pretty hard time collecting.

A country is made large by its number of square miles, but it is made great by its number of square people.

Read the report of the State Examiner on the records of the Probate Judge, and despite politics and prejudices, give credit where credit belongs.

Some people are raising sand about the Alabama Power Company making any power developments anywhere in the neighborhood of Muscle Shoals for fear Henry Ford will get offended at it.

Our sheriff is going after the law violators of the county, for which he is to be highly commended. It is the duty of every law-abiding citizen to stand behind him and help him out in his efforts to rid our county of its lawlessness.

Our City Mayor, Dr. V. J. Gragg, informs us that he has the drainage petition in his charge now, and after he is able to see two or three more property owners, the thing will be ready for delivery over to the Probate Judge for approval. These swamps are going to be drained, and that is all there is to it.

The "dole" system in England has proven a colossal failure from every viewpoint, as any thoughtful person might have anticipated. It puts a premium upon idleness. The only plan of a paternalistic nature that can possibly do any good is one that puts a premium on work. What folly it would be to offer a prize in school to the pupil who stood at the foot of his class.

The people around Florence and Sheffield say that the Alabama Power Company has no interest in the development of industry in the State. It seems to us that this is an unjust charge against the power company, as they are now fostering the biggest advertising campaign for Alabama that the state has ever had. We have our doubts about Henry Ford taking this much interest in the development of the State if he should be given a hand in our water power development.

We invite the attention of our readers this week to the report of the state examiner on the books of the Board of County Commissioners and the Probate Judge's office. From these reports one can readily see that both these offices are being managed on the strictest and most business like basis. Judge Reynolds and his clerical force and the Board of County Commissioners are certainly to be commended for the neatness and accuracy with which these records have been kept, which is far above the average of the counties of the State.

A card from Rev. E. A. Norris, who is attending the Southern Baptist Convention at Kansas City, says that he is having the time of his life up there among all those preachers and Baptists.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Mrs. G. W. Freeman Very Ill

The people of Thorsby were shocked last week (Wednesday) to learn that Mrs. Freeman was being taken to Birmingham to have an operation for appendicitis, which had arrived at such an advanced stage before her arrival there that there seemed little hope that anything could be done to save her life.

After hovering between life and death for several days there appeared to be some little improvement in her condition and it is now hoped that she will recover, although she is still a very sick woman. The family as well as the patient have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

An Object Lesson

Newspaper accounts of the terrible sacrifice of human lives at the Cleveland School house in Camden, South Carolina, when 73 persons out of about 300 assembled in an upper room for commencement exercises, were either burned to death or crushed under the weight of a mass of people who were making frantic efforts to escape from the fire, which started from a fallen lamp on the stage and quickly spread to the flimsy draperies hung for a stage setting, so that in a moment the whole end of the building was a mass of roaring flame, and the only means of exit a narrow and flimsy stairway. How fragile the stairway really was was indicated by the fact that it soon fell with its load of struggling humanity, while many more were crowded off the floor by the frantic crowd behind them, and fell into the yawning chasm of death. Others leaped or were thrown from the windows, sustaining more or less serious injury even if they escaped death. Some of the gruesome result of the fire was manifest on last Sunday when 63 unidentified dead were buried, in one big grave, in the Camden Cemetery. The others who were caught in the "death trap" and those who may yet die of their injuries were cared for by a stricken community.

All of these people will have died in vain if those of other communities do not learn from their experience where danger lurks in fancied safety.

In the first place, most of the country school houses of the South were built by men who had never had either training or experience as architects or carpenters beyond what was self taught. And partly from ignorance and partly on account of lack of funds, the structures they have made and in which our boys and girls are crowded to receive their education, are not so constructed as to be either suitable or safe for the purpose intended, and there are too many counterparts of that Camden school house scattered all about us. The public school building at Thorsby is one of them, as originally built, the joists under both floors were too light and far apart, this matter has been in some degree remedied. The front stairway, to save room, is very steep and although wide enough, has no suitable hand rails. An excited pushing crowd trying to get down from the upper floor would certainly knock down and trample on or fall over those ahead. For a long time there was no other provision whatever for escape from the top floor, until public opinion became somewhat aroused and demanded a remedy.

A wooden stairway was provided, running alongside the building, with the bottom step three feet from the ground, and the top platform adjacent to one of the windows, NOT A DOOR. This platform was supported by 4x4 up-rights resting on a 2x6 sill 14 feet long, which also supports one 2x4 upright near the middle of the stairway. An examination of this structure reveals the fact that only the nails driven thru the riser strip int the building prevents this so-called "fire escape" from falling by its own weight. As a matter of fact that 2x6 sill does not rest on anything except for about six inches at the end fartherest from the platform. As it stands today it is a delusion and a snare.

Let us pass on to Collins Chapel school house and then to Cross Roads, both these buildings are almost a fac-similie of that Camden school house. Narrow inside stairways, the only means of getting in or out of a place where the community holds most of its public gatherings and where their young people assemble for instruction and entertainment. The condition as described is what prevailed at Collins Chapel school house when the writes last visited it. If any improvement has been made since, we are not aware of it.

There are various ways in which a fire may be started in suih a building, and were it only the flames that had to be avoided, many could escape, but it is smiply incredible, to those without experience, how small a fire will fill a room with pungent, blinding, strangling smoke, from which there is no escape except outside.

It was our privilege to be present at chapel service in Thorsby Institute on a recent morning, when the syren sounded a fire alarm. Bates Hall was well filled with faculty and students, and in less than two minutes all had marched out in orderly fashion and were on the ground at some distance from the building. This trained element, it is believed, will be able to control and guide to safety, any audience that may be assembled in Bates Hall, no matter how serious the danger from fire and smoke. There are ample exits and a lot of people in any audience likely to gather there wyho know just what to do when there is danger, and where to find the exits, so there need be no panic.

With the possible exception of Pates Chapel school house, all the public school buildings within four miles of Thorsby are inadequate and unfit for the use for which they are intended. The obvious remedy is a new modern building and a consolidated school for all the young people in these districts. This can be done if the leaders in each district will study the situation and learn the advantages other communities receive, from such a course, and then agitate the mater among heir people. Unitey of effort, and a spirit of co-operatino, coupled with determination to give our boys and girls modern educational facilities will put the thing over.

We are pleased to note that Collins and Jones have started up their new saw mill at Thorsby, and it sure is "a hummer."

Messrs. Earl Leary, Arnold Littleton and Julius Smith left Thorsby last Tuesday morning for Waverly, Talladega county, Ala., where they have secured employment with The Alabama Power Company as surveyors assistants.

Mr. C. R. Foss, cashier at The Bank of Thorsby, will take a rest for a couple of weeks and there will be a new face at the bank window, and behind that face Mr. W. F. Nawl, formerly with the First National Bank of Troy, Ala., but now connected with The First National Bank of Fayette under Mr. A. W. Grimsley, who is also one of the principal stockholders of The Bank of Thorsby.

It gives one confidence to know that "the man at the window" understands his business.

On Sunday, May 27th, Reverend Wilhelm Petterson, pastor of the Lutheran Church of this town, will deliver a baccalaureate sermon to the Senior class of Thorsby Institute and the congregation. Mr. Petterson will use as his text: Hebrews 13-13, "Let us go forth therefore unto Him without the camp, bearing His reproach." The exercises will be held in the Congregational Church.

Of the essays written by members of the Senior class the Voice of the Soul by Mary Ella Gerald and How To Be Happy by Ena Grenn will be read at the commencement exercises on June 1st. The other members of the Senior class have read their essays at the chapel exercises.

The class night exercises of the class of 1923 of Thorsby Institute will be held on Thursday night, May 31st at 8 o'clock. In addition to the class song, poem, Will and Prophecy, the members of the Senior class will present The Laughing Cure.

The story deals with the recovery of Mrs. Hanson through the medium of laughter. The play has been very carefully prepared and it is expected that the evening's entertainment will be one of the best that has been given in Bates Hall. Since the Hall is too small to accommodate all the people who might like to attend the Class Night Exercises it has been decided to charge an admission fee of ten cents for children and twenty-five cents for adults. Each of the Seniors will distribute complimentary teikets to their families.

The Chapel Exercises on Monday morning were in charge of the members of the Eighth Grade with Miss Boona Lee Woods as leader.

Commencement exercises of Thorsby Institute will be held on June 1st at 8 o'clock in Bates Hall. The address of the evening will be given by Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge, of the Central Congregational Church, Atlanta, Georgia.

On Monday evening, May 21, Mrs. S. E. Norton and Mrs. Hattie eGrald, entertained the members of the Senior class at the home of Mrs. Norton. All of the seniors were present and the evening was spent most pleasantly with games, contests, and music. Just after refreshments were served Mrs. Norton was presented with a large bouquet of roses by the president of the class. The rose is the Senior class flower and upon the discovery of the fact that the day was Mrs. Norton's birthday the class of 1923 extended their class flowers to her with the wish that she might have many happy returns of the day.

The noted Vaughan Quartet of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., will give a concert at Thorsby on Saturday night, May 26, at 8 o'clock. Everybody come if you want to be really entertained. The admission is 25c and 35c.

No superstitious fears troubled Joe T. Bryan and Flora J. Wynn when they were marred by Judge Dan A. Greene in the Jefferson county chancery court. In the same room in which on the previous day Judge C. B. Smith granted 25 divorces, establishing a new record for the number issued in a single day in Jefferson county, the couple took the vows of matrimony entirely unmindful of the separation proceedings which took place there the day before. A number of court house employes witnessed the ceremony.

In the baloon contest, staged at Troy, April 28 by Folmar Bros., the first prize of $10 was won by Ralph Lee Horn of Goshen, whose baloon traveled 350 miles. Miss Evelyn Wilkerson took second prize, her baloon traveled 350 miles, and Sam Cohen won third prize for a journey of 275 miles. The capital prize of a $50 Victory bond will go to some one in Montgomery or Birmingham, as baloons have traveled 400 miles from these offices.

Birmingham druggists have been informed by Dr. R. F. Lovelady president of the Retail Druggists division of the Chamber of Commerce, that four of the five members of the budget committee of the state legislature are opposed to levying a tax on soda fountain drinks and states his belief that no effort to levy such a tax will be made. The druggists have opposed this tax proposal and made representations to the budget committee protesting against it.

The court of county commissioners of Chambers county has agreed to assist the town of LaFayette in the paving of the square around the court house. A survey has already been made by the town, and the actual work will begin at some time soon. This much needed improvement will add much to the convenience of the people of Chambers county, as well as adding a great deal to the attractiveness of the town.

Official endorsement and enthusiastic approval has been given by the Anniston Chamber of Comerce to two important civic projects, the first being the bringing of the local infantry unit of the Alabama national guard up to its required minimum strength and the other being approval of the plan to provide a suitable polo field at Oxford lake on which games between the Anniston clubs and the polo teams at Camp McClellan will be played during the summer.

The Corona company's houses at Townley are being occupied by workmen and their families as rapidly as they can be repaired, according to Frank Barks of that place. The company lacks only 80 feet of having the new slope completed at Townley, Mr. Sparks says. It is estimated that the output of this mine will be 2,000 tons of coal daily when the slope is completed and new machinery installed.

Creation of a Birmingham county, saving $2,000,000 a year, selling bonds at lower interest rates city and county consolidating many expenses in a jointly owned building, abolition of dual boards and the salvage of $150,000 annually in lost automobile licenses, were the high lights of talks President D. E. McLendon of the city commission made before realtors at their weekly luncheon at the Tutwiler hotel.

State laws fixing the age limit for drivers of automobiles, and requiring a rigid examination covering traffic regulations of applicants for drivers permits, are being urged by the triffic committee of the Tuscaloosa Junior Chamber of Commerce. The comittee blames ignorance for many accidents.

Miss Sarah King, home demonstration agent for Clay county, is holding demonstrations in sewing and millinery in various sections of the county. Girls are making attractive gingham and silk hats at a saving over ready made ones.

Farmers have been able to make splendid progress in cutting out the grass from cotton and corn crops over Covington cunty and in most sections of the county both corn and cotton have already gotten a good stand, it is reported.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I wat flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

THE ANNUAL MAY SINGING

We wish to remind the singers of the county that next Sunday is the time for the regular annual Fourth Sunday in May Singing, to be held at Providence, Beat 16. As has already been stated, this is the same singing which has been held every fourth Sunday in May for the past twenty-odd years at Salem, but has been transferred to Providence on account of Salem being flooded by the back water from Mitchell Dam. This is always the biggest singing event of the year.

$45,000,000 WORTH OF STUDE-BAKER BIG-SIXES IN 1922

The public paid more than forty-five million dollars for new Studebaker Big-Six automobiles in 1922, buying more of this model than of any other car selling in the same price field.

In the entire world, there were only seven other automobile manufacturers whose total sale of all models equaled the sale of Studebaker Big-Sixes for 1922, and no other manufacturer sold as many cars of the Big-Six class. In addition to the Big-Six, Studebaker builds the Special-Six and Light-Six in large volume.

For the first quarter of 1923, Big-Six sales showed an increase of 70 per cent over the same period of 1922, evidencing the growing popularity of this model.

PROOF OF PROSPERITY

The latest issue of Treasury notes has been oversubscribed about two and a half times. A part of the subscriptions was represented by the exchange of Victory Notes that fell due on May 20, but the entire amount is surplus funds that the people are willing to lend to the government. The huge excess offering is the direct result of the tremendous prosperity that the country is enjoying.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS

is often caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over Forty Years.

Mother To-Be!

Do You Realize this Fact?

AN eminent physician has shown why there is so much useless suffering on the part of many expectant mothers, for months before baby comes, as well as when baby actually arrives. This same great doctor found the way to avoid much of this suffering. Mother, your baby's nerves, its whole structure should be free from any influence caused by your months of useless misery and pain. You yourself can be free from much of it. Here is a little message to all expectant mothers:

Mrs. Ida Milton, 108 N. Tremont St., Kansas, Ill., says: "I am forced to say something in regard to your wonderful 'Mother's Friend.' Just one application gave me such relief I could hardly realize I was in pregnancy. Before I used it I was suffering with pains all over, and today, I am able to do my house-work with all ease and without pain."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally, and enables the muscles, nerves and tissues to relax and readjust themselves with the growing changes during pregnancy, and at child-birth. It should be used for some time before baby comes—the sooner the better.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

AMERICAN RED CROSS NEWS SERVICE

Washington, May 24.—Crediting the newspapers of the South and their intelligent reading constituency with the major part of the credit for what social progress made there thru the American Red Cross, Joseph C. Logan, Atlanta sociologist and Red Cross head, in a paper read today before the National Conference of Social Work in session here, declared that no welfare program however worthy could be made effective unless backed by understanding, approving public opinion.

The paper "Rural Social Work and Health," written in collaboration with Jane De Vrede, eminent Southern Public Health authority in charge of Red Cross nursing service, pointed to the rural South as a field for welfare work even more complicated than the slums problem that agitated the pioneer settlement work begun so many years ago.

Possibilities for extending this service are unlimited, Mr. Logan asserted, insisting that despite a half-century's history of social and health work on convergent lines the Southern rural districts hold problems still untouched. These will yield rapidly once public sentiment becomes aggressive rather than passive in inviting solution through agencies such as the Red Cross that are working toward a contented ruralty and the day when the "back to the land" movement becomes an actuality. This will never be, be held, until exchanged for the empty-sounding slogans is real consrtuctive local action that will make the farm an abode where the child has a real chance to develop in healthy and social environment equal to that offered by the cities.

Pointing to what has been done already, the stress is laid by Mr. Logan on the importance of making sporadic effort continuous and taking full advantage of the experimental work where private agencies and governmental subsidies have demonstrated public health and social solutions for some of the ills of the rural community. Red Cross chapters' organization makes an ideal channel thru which contributions are applied to local work on largely volunteer responsibility that also serves to counteract the tendency of welfare legislation by the state relieving the willing volunteer's conscience of further responsibility.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

Weak Back

Mrs. Mildred Pipkin, of R. F. D. 8, Columbia, Tenn., says: "My experience with Cardui has covered a number of years. Nineteen years ago . . . I got down with weak back. I was run-down and so weak and nervous I had to stay in bed. I read of

CARDUI

and sent for it. I took only one bottle at that time, and it helped me; seemed to strengthen and build me right up. So that is how I first knew of Cardui. After that, . . . when I began to get weak and 'no account', I sent right for Cardui, and it never failed to help me."

If you are weak and suffering from womanly ailments, Cardui may be just what you need. Take Cardui. It has helped thousands, and ought to help you.

HOMESICK COUPLE WED AND 'GO BACK TO ALABAM'

When the midnight choo-choo left last night for "Alabam" it carried a happy young honeymoon couple, even if they were homesick. A few hours before, Justice of the Peace Robert Scott had made them one. They were Miss Helen Pierini and Claude E. Marcus, both from the South and both employees in the office of the University of Southern California.

The young couple had known each other only a short time, but as both were homesick they had a lot in common, and just before Marcus left for his vacation in Alabama, he proposed, and now they are going back together.—Los Angeles (California) Examiner.

SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

A card from Rev. S. J. Ezell says that he will be back to Clanton in time to take care of the regular church services Sunday. We are sure that he will have a message worth your hearing, and probably he will tell us something about his experiences at the Southern Baptist convention.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, President Harding, and various members of the cabinet and national administration are entitled to a word of appreciation and approval for such handling of the nation's finances as has brought forth the official prediction of a surplus of more than $125,000,000 for the present fiscal year.

That is a new story of government, and one especially welcome in these days of high taxes and heavy expenses. It may be credited to various influences. One, perhaps, is the adoption of the budget system. We do not know how much money that has saved the government, but inasmuch as it is the only thoroughly business-like control of government expenditures ever known in this country it probably is largely responsible.

Other factors involved may not be so commendable. Cutting of army and navy expenditures below the margin of safety, while it may have increased our cash surplus, might easily prove a loss rather than a profit in emergency. It costs more to build an army and navy than to maintain one.

But a point for which credit must be given to the administration is the increase of revenue through reduction of the tax burden. This revealed financial vision and statesmanship of high order. Popular protests and demagogic fulminations insisted that the rich must be taxed to the limit to give exemption to the poor. Despite this uproar the graduated excess profits taxes were removed and the higher brackets of the income tax reduced. With this burden eliminated from business, the total tax receipts have increased, instead of fallen. The increase, of course, is not due entirely to that, but it is due to it to a large extent.

That should give weight to proposals for further reduction of income taxes which the $125,000,000 surplus is likely to make possible.

The influence of the tariff on the general prosperity from which taxes are derived and its direct value as a producer of revenue is a subject unto itself. The outstanding points of the situation are that revenue has increased while tax rates have diminished under the present administration, and the increased revenue has been used with more care and less waste under the administration's budget system. Approval for such results cannot be refused.—Chicago Tribune.

NOTICE

of Filing of Bill of Complaint Against J. A. Grooms, and One Five-Passenger Automobile.

State of Alabama, Complainant, vs. J. A. Grooms, and one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile. In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama. In Equity.

The Bill of Complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of G. C. Walker, as County Solicitor of Chilton County, against J. A. Grooms and one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 4th day of May, 1923, said J. A. Grooms did transport in one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile, 1923 Model, certain prohibited liquors and beverages, from one point in the State of Alabama to another, and that said automobile was on said day seized by the Sheriff of said County, and said Bill praying that said automobile be declared forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof:

It is therefore ordered and decreed that notice of the filing of said Bill of Complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 21st day of June, 1923, and that failing so to do, the said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

Given under my hand this the 18th day of May, 1923.

MILT TOLBERT'S TENT THEATRE

The famous Milt Tolbert's traveling vaudeville show is performing in Clanton every night this week. Up to the present time they have put on some mighty good shows, and they promise the best yet to come. Their feature play is to appear Friday night, "Why Girls Leave Home." They claim that this is a very fine story and that it will be played in a way that will be approved by the most fastidious. This show is above the average traveling tent performers.

NO JAIL DELIVERY

It is a fact not generally known that most of the Federal prisoners convicted under the espionage law could be liberated and return to their homes at once if they were willing to take an oath to support and defend the Constitution. They are serving out their full sentences because they refuse to abandon their attacks on the peace and order of the community. To release them now would be to set free avowed enemies of the government, who would quite likely take up their plottings where they were interrupted by their arrests. Of course they will get their liberty at the expiration of their terms, but there is every reason for not anticipating that time by a premature jail delivery now.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

In handling the names of fifteen hundred subscribers, we cannot avoid making some mistakes; so we ask our subscribers, when something goes wrong with your paper, or if we send you a notice of expiration before your time is out, please do not think that we are trying to frisk you, because no one wants you to have your paper more than we do. Sometimes our records get crossed, and when such thing happens, if you will just kindly notify us we will be more than glad to straighten it up. We are always anxious to adjust all errors we may make from time to time.

The Ku Klux Klan of Clanton appeared in open parade here Tuesday night. There seemed to be at least fifty in number and they wore their uniforms. This is the first time we have heard of the Klanton Klan appearing on the streets in uniform.

BANDIT RECRUITS

One of the terms of agreement between the Chinese government and the bandits is said to be that the latter would be enrolled in the national army. Inasmuch as the robber band is understood to have numbered 1,600, it is apparently a question whether the bandits will join the army or the army join the bandits. In either case the next train looting will probably have a certain amount of government sanction.

For several years the Chinese government has been in a state of flux. Civil war has flourished, with consequent laxity in law enforcement, the collection of taxes, and the other elements that contribute to orderly government. There is little hope of stability and the development of the rich natural resources of the country until American and other friendly influences have made themselves felt. The Chinese people readily accommodate themselves to conditions, and are naturally honest and industrious. The friendly feeling between the United States and China ought to point the way for development under American direction that would bring peace and contentment to the Chinese and a reasonable profit to the capital invested.

UNION GROVE

Farmers are not doing very much in their crops on account of so much rain.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely. Also our prayer meeting is doing fine. Everybody seems to be doing better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Langston and son Harvey, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hall.

The singing at Mr. T. D. Hall's Sunday afternoon was enjoyed by a very large crowd.

Miss Florence Cofer spent Sunday with Miss Leone Hall.

Mrs. Belle Dorminey spent a few hours with Mrs. W. F. Langston Saturday p.m.

Mr. J. R. Marler has returned to his home in Birmingham. Hope he will come again soon.

Mr. Harvey Langston spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. James Vinzant.

Mr. A. P. Robinson and little son Grover, spent Sunday p.m. with Mr. T. D. Hall.

There will be prayer meeting at this place every Sunday night. Everybody is invited to come and join us, and help us to build up our community. Come on young people; leave off your awful bad drink—come to church and try to live better.

"My Rheumatism is gone—"

There's glorious joy in knowing this:—that more Red-Blood-Cells stops Rheumatism, and that S.S.S. builds Blood-Cells!

"There are thousands of you men and women, just like myself, slaves to rheumatism, muscle pains, joint pains, and horrible stiffness. I had the wrong idea about rheumatism for 15 years. I didn't realize that increasing blood-cells had the effect of completely knocking out rheumatic impurities from the system. That is why I began using S. S. S.! Say what you will, I never knew such startling results were possible. Well, folks, besides knocking out my rheumatism it gave me back some of the strength I used to have way back! I've got a better color in my face, my appetite is dandy, I don't use my crutches any more. I'm walking around straight-up on two young legs!" S. S. S. makes people talk about themselves the way it builds up their strength. By building blood-cells it builds nerve strength for young folks who ought to have more, and for older people who have little. It stops pimples, boils, blackheads, eczema, chases away blood impurities. You can always rely on it. Start S. S. S. today for that rheumatism. You'll feel the difference shortly. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.

WEEVILNIP

is a thick liquid composed of poisoned molasses, and other ingredients for the purpose of making it stick and to attract the weevils.

Just apply to cotton with a hand mop made with a rag and a stick. Costs about $5.00 an acre or less for the entire season including labor, and will enable you to make a good crop if you begin early and follow directions.

WEEVILNIP is a tried and true product, now in its third year on the market.

Read these letters from reliable men who used WEEVILNIP.

Smith & Crane, of Augusta, Ga., 1922 users of WEEVILNIP have bought a car for use in 1923.

W. C. Edler, who used WEEVILNIP in 1922 has bought 100 barrels for use in 1923, and has them in his warehouse, ready for use.

G. W. Parker of Gainesville, Fla., who used two barrels in 1922 has bought 45 barrels for his 1923 crop.

J. E. Harrison, of Alachua, Fla., used three barrels in 1922 and has bought 45 barrels for 1923.

Zebulon, Ga., Dec. 29, 1922.
I purchased a car of WEEVILNIP late this season—too late to give it a fair test and while this WEEVILNIP was not guaranteed to me I did not desire to put off a "humbug" on my neighbors, so I sold it in small quantities on a strict guarantee that if it did not rain within three days and did not kill all their weevils within three days to come right back and get their money. Not a single customer asked for the return of his money.

FACTS AND FANCIES

Listen to the wail of Walsh of Massachusetts, a Democrat of rare personal beauty, but somewhat unreliable when he attacks the tariff: "Business is still groaning under war taxation and the cost of production is higher than ever, due to the profiteers' tariff on raw materials. The temporary and slight business revival, as any student of business affairs knows, is due to depleted stocks in nearly all lines of business; it is only the filling of empty shelves. The country still suffers the loss of European trade, first, because nothing has been done to restore it, and, secondly, because new trade barriers have been erected by Republican legislation."

And now listen to a few facts in rebuttal: The Republican revenue law of 1921 lowered the maximum surtax rates to 50 per cent with corresponding reductions in the lower schedules. Just recently Secretary Mellon ascribed the $70,000,000 increase over estimated receipts for March 15th to the cut in surtaxes which, he declared, encouraged the investment of capital in productive enterprises. Taxes as a whole were lowered something like $800,000,000.

There are more raw semi-crude materials on the free list today than at any time under the protective policy. This is evidenced by the fact the average ad valorem rate of duty on all imports from September 22, 1922, when the new law became operative, to January 31, 1923, was 14.7 per cent, or a trifle lower than that of the Democratic tariff law during its first year, while the rate on dutiable goods is no higher than was that of the Democratic law. No less than 210 paragraphs of the new tariff are required to enumerate the articles on the free list, which run well into the thousands.

Practically every business man of consequence in the country, who has been asked to express an opinion, has expressed his conviction that the business revival is great and gives every promise of being lasting.

Exports to Europe, October 1922 to January 1923, inclusive, totaled $798,000,000, compared with $653,000,000 for the corresponding period 1921-22 under the Democratic law, an increase of 22 per cent. Imports from Europe comparing the last three months of 1922 with the same period of 1921, increased 40 per cent.

These are official facts which confront Senator Walsh's political fancies.

DEATH AND BIRTH RATE OF COUNTY

Births and Deaths Are Not Being Reported As They Should Be.

As will be seen from the following letter, the doctors, midwives and undertakers of Chilton county are not reporting, all the deaths and births of the county.

Montgomery, Ala., May 23, 1923
Mr. Victor J. Heard,
Clanton, Ala.
Dear Sir:—

We are in receipt of your favor of the 18th requesting the death rate of your city and county. The returns for Chilton County as a whole are very unsatisfactory. am sure that we are not getting reports of all the deaths that occur. This is not true, however, of precinct 4 in which Clanton is situated.

Mrs. V. J. Gragg is the local registrar of precinct 4 and I think she has a record of every death that took place in the city of Clanton and also in the precinct. I think the best way for you to get a correct death rate for your muncipality is to ask Mrs. Gragg to give you from her record the number of deaths of persons living in the city of Clanton for last year and then divide by the population.

In this office we have not kept separate records for municipalities under five thousand and owing to the fact that our death certificates are filed by county and by month it would be a considerable undertaking to trace down every death which has been reported from your municipality.

The reported death rate for Chilton county last year was 9.8 per thousand of population, which, as I stated above, I have reason to believe incomplete. The death rate for precinct 4 including the town of Clanton is 17.4 per thousand of population based on a population of 5,243. The total number of deaths reported from the county was 222, the number of deaths reported from precinct 4 was 92.

I note that you claim 1,700 population. The 1920 census gives you 1,411, the 1910 census 1,123, making an increase in the 10 years of 288, or 29 a year. For the three years that would make 87 which added to 1,411 would give 1,498 as your estimated population for the year 1923. I congratulate you that your town has outgrown its average for the previous ten years.

If there is any other information that we can give you please call on us.

Your letter indicates that you realize the importance of complete registration of births and deaths. I would be pleased for you to put on a campaign in your county, demanding of the doctors, midwives and undertakers that every birth and death be reported. We are doing our level best to get complete reports for the whole state. Your assistance would be of much value to your community and to your county.

Very truly yours,
H. G. PERRY, M. D.
State Registrar.

This is a matter of great importance, and should be looked after by those in authority.

CHEAP POWER IS BIG INDUCEMENT, BANKER DECLARES

Montgomery, Ala., May 26.—New England cotton mills are turning southward and Alabama is receiving most favorable consideration from northern owners, according to M. B. Wellborn, governor of the Sixth District Federal Reserve Bank, Atlanta, who made an address before the closing session of the Alabama Bankers' Association at Mitchell Dam Saturday afternoon.

"Some of the textile men have talked with me in Atlanta about prospects and they are more interested in Alabama than in any other southern state, because the price of power is cheaper in Alabama," Governor Wellborn stated. He mentioned the advantages offered by Alabama both from its cheap water power and abundant coal, as offering greater inducements than other southern states. Anniston has already captured a big cotton mill, Governor Wellborn stated, and he predicted a great development along this line for other parts of Alabama.—(News Item, The Birmingham Age-Herald, May 20, 1923.)

COUNTY EDUCATION BOARD MET FRIDAY

The county board of education at their regular meeting last Friday nominated Prof. Ira Pegues as principal of the county high school for next year and also recommended Mr. J. A. Peterson as first assistant.

The board voted to appropriate the sum of $1500 to the county high school for next year with the provision in the motion that payment of same would be conditioned upon the complete abolition of the practice of hazing in the school.

The board voted to call an election in the Fairview and Popwell districts for a consolidation.

The superintendent was instructed to notify all trustees to please make their selections of teachers for next year by July 1st and in no case to wait later than Aug. 1st to do so and to notify the superintendent as soon as selection is made.

The salary schedule for next year was adopted which is the same as last two years for all teachers except principals, in which slight changes were made.

Howard L. Foshee was re-elected superintendent for a period of two years.

MRS. W. W. ROBINSON IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Cora Robinson, wife of Rev. W. W. Robinson of Providence, was brought to the Central Alabama Hospital last Thursday afternoon, where she underwent an operation shortly after arriving. Dr. Benedict of Birmingham, assisted by Dr. N. S. Johnson, performed the operation. Although Mrs. Robinson will have to remain in the hospital for several days, she is reported to be in a very fine condition.

The many friends of the preacher and his loving wife wish for her a rapid and complete recovery, and that she may be restored to her much wanted health.

BODY RECOVERED

Unidentified Skeleton Taken From River at Montgomery.

Police headquarters report the finding of the body of an unidentified white man, floating in the river at the foot of Commerce street, shortly after noon Monday. From the condition of the body, it was stated that it must have been in the river for more than two months.

A coroner's inquest was held, but there was so little flesh left on the skeleton no identification could be made and no marks of foul play were found on the body. Diffly took charge of the body and it was buried in Oakwood cemetery Monday afternoon.

WALNUT AND REFUGE

We are requested to announce that there will be singing every second and fourth Sunday afternoons at Walnut Creek and every first and third Sunday afternoons at Refuge. They invite all singers to help them.

FRIENDSHIP SUNDAY NIGHT

By request we announce that there will be a meeting at Friendship Church next Sunday night at 7:30, to attend to some business. All the members are urged to come, especially the male members.

PROVIDENCE ANNUAL SINGING

The second session of the Providence annual singing was held the fourth Sunday. Singing called to order by Chairman R. Robinson and sang No. 244 in the 1923 song book, and prayer was offered by chairman. Then the program committee was appointed as follows: G. C. Powell, Hiram Devaughn and L. F. Clackler, and they arranged directors for the day as follows: R. M. Robinson, 3 songs; R. T. Grant, 3 songs; L. F. Clackler, 3 songs, C. H. Robinson, 3 songs, G. Gilliland, 3 songs. Recess 15 minues. W. H. Robinson, 3 songs; J. W. Clackler, 3 songs. Quartet by the Clanton Quartet. Recess for dinner. A bountiful dinner was served.

Afternoon session—G. C. Powell 3 songs; quartet. J. R. Robinson 3 songs; quartet; Newton Gilliland 3 songs; quartet; A. L. Collins 3 songs; quartet; Jesse Jones, 3 songs; quartet; G. D. Retherford, 3 songs; J. Z. Mims, 3 songs; L. F. Clackler, 3 songs; quartet.

We had some good talks by visiting brethren. Everybody seemed to have a good day. Organists for the day were C. H. Robinson, L. F. Clecklerand Mrs. Maggie Robinson and Jennie Collins. The closing song was sung by chairman: God Be With You Till We Meet Again. Dismissed by prayer, by Rev. M. J. Parrish, till the fourth Sunday in May, 1924.

HAMPTON NEWS

The all-day singing at this place was well attended Sunday, despite the inclement weather.

Singing began at 10 o'clock; elected Prof. J. M. Williams chairman for the day and Miss Ida Scott secretary.

Program for the day was as follows:

I. D. Huett, J. M. Taylor, Curtis Hand, J. M. Williams, R. M. Brigance and J. W. Cagle, three songs each, followed by a male quartette. O. L. Devaughn, H. T. Carter and W. B. Williams, each three songs.

Adjourned 1 hour 30 minutes for noon hour.

Dinner was bountifully served by the good people, after which we again met in the house and program for the evening was G. C. Weldon, J. H. Burkhalter, Lee Robinson, Trull Smith, L. Powell, L. T. Grant, O. L. Devaughn, Dewie Huett, J. W. Cagle and H. T. Carter, three songs each.

Organists for the day were Miss Leila Taylor, Mrs. J. W. Cagle, Mrs. H. T. Carter and Messrs. Trull Smith, Lee Robinson and J. M. Williams.

We wish to thank the good singers from both Autauga and Chilton counties who so cheerfully responded to our invitation to help us make the singing a success and hope to have you with us again.

We feel that this was one of the best singings of the season. Attendance was very large and nice behaviour prevailed among all the people.

God be with you all till we meet again.

SECRETARY.

Mr. J. M. Smith of Thorsby, Route 1, was in Clanton Saturday attending to business for the Thorsby Fruit & Truck Growers Association, of which body he is secretary.

START CANNING FACTORY

Brewton, Ala., May 28.—Work has begun on the construction of the new canning factory to be located in Brewton. This company was formed here several weeks ago by the aid and co-operation of some 60 of the farmers over the county as stockholders. The supervisor, who has charge of the construction for the firm in Chicago contracting for the plant, has been in the city several days and work is expected to be completed in ample time to care for the products to be canned.

THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY NORTH AND SOUTH

Charlotte, N. C., May 26.—Fall River, Mass., one of the greatest textile centers in New England, was not affected by the series of strikes in the Northern mills a few months ago. It was about the only textile center in New England in which the mills were not shut down by strikes. The mills of Fall River about that time or later granted a 12 1-2 per cent increase in wages to their operatives. And now comes news from that great cotton manufacturing center that the textile industry there is facing ruin, with 12 of its largest mills closing down last Saturday night for an indefinite period and more to take similar action within a very few weeks.

It is of special interest to note that inability to compete with the Southern mills is given as the chief reason for the shut-down and the imminent ruin of the industry around Fall River. It is equally interesting to note that it is declared that the closing down of a dozen mills is but the initial move in the transfer of the operations of a number of big textile companies to the South. The sudden move affecting more than 15,000 workers, is declared not to have been unexpected, because business has been on a steady decline and orders have fallen steadily ever since the granting of the 12 1-2 per cent increase in wages. The manufacturers have refused to buy cotton and store up manufactured goods in their warehouses, it is explained, owing to the condition of the cotton market and the attitude of buyers in the cloth market. The few orders lately filled, it is declared, have been filled at a loss, manufacturers and brokers joining in the assertion that it is impossible to compete with the cotton industry of the South.

"Frankly, we are up against it," an official of the Fall River Cotton Manufacturers Association is quoted as having declared Saturday night. "Conferences are useless, we can operate only at a loss, and if we are to remain in business, there is but one thing we can do, follow the general move to the South, to the Carolinas."

"We might have held out longer, but for the change in the condition of the cloth market. It is not what it was several weeks ago. Some of the local corporations had excellent contracts at the time, but these have been filled, and no others have been received. Several of these contracts, because of the wage increase, were completed at an actual loss, and the owners do not see anything else but the action taken today. While others are to continue operations under curtailment for several weeks, it is generally understood to be for the purpose of completing their contracts only. To compete with Southern mills and New England labor conditions, is impossible, even the attempt is suicide."

There is nothing more certain now in the realm of future development than that the textile industry in New England is on the decline while it is growing by leaps and bounds in the South. It is the more unfortunate, therefore, that just at such a time the Southern Power Company should find it impracticable, because of the cost of construction, to go forward with its plans for further great development of hydro-electric power to supply the ever-increasing demand. The halt in the development of hydro-electric power plants is going to arrest the development of the textile and other industries in the piedmont section of the Carolinas, temporarily at least, just at a time when there are, or were, prospects of the greatest period of growth and extension of the industry in the history of the Carolinas. The explanation for the halt is that the cost of materials and labor have reached such a level that a reasonable profit on the investment cannot be made by the rates the company is permitted to charge for power, especially in view of the fact that the power sites that were susceptible of development at the lowest cost already have been utilized and that those remaining will cost more to develop, per thousand horsepower, even though the rate of material and labor cost were unchanged.—(News Item, The Charlotte Observer, May 15, 1923.)

AN INTERESTING TALK

At Friendship Church last Sunday night Rev. Norris made a very interesting talk on the work of the Southern Baptist Convention at Kansas City. Bro. Norris attended that convention, and was very deeply impressed with the work of the Southern Baptists.

FISH HATCHERY AT DAM IS PLANNED

Alabama Power Company Joins With State in Effort to Replenish Streams.

Responding to an appeal made to it by I. T. Quinn, commissioner of conservation and executives of the Fishermen and Hunters Association, officials of the Alabama Power Company announced Saturday that their company would establish and operate on its reservations at Mitchell Dam a fish hatchery. Work will begin as soon as a suitable location is agreed upon and experts can advise as to proper plans.

This will be the first and only industry of its kind ever established in Alabama, and one of the few in the South. It is understood that the power company will have the benefit of government experts, and that members and executives of the Fishermen and Hunters Association will be consulted as to how the hatchery should be maintained. The state department of conservation, through Commissioner Quinn, will assist in both the construction and operation of the new industry.—(News Item, The Birmingham News, May 20, 1923.)

FARMERS FACING SERIOUS CONDITION

The farmers of this section are facing a serious condition, as a result of the incessant wet weather. The acreage planted to cotton is very heavy, and a very small per cent of the crop has been chopped as yet. The cotton is looking bad and the grass is growing in leaps and bounds. Several farmers are talking of plowing up their cotton and planting something else instead, as soon as the ground gets dry enough.

So much rain is also very injurious to the corn crop. Most of the corn is planted in the bottoms and low lands, and the ground has been too wet for any work to be done for several weeks. The corn is turning yellow, while the grass and weeds have formed a green mass over the entire fields. Unless the rain ceases soon, the crops of Chilton county will be cut short considerably.

STATE DEPUTY WEDS JUDGE'S DAUGHTER OF COLUMBIANA

Thomas P. Williamson, deputy of the state law enforcement department was married in Birmingham Sunday to Miss Jessica Riddle, daughter of Judge L. B. Riddle, probate judge of Shelby county, whose home is at Columbiana.

Mr. Williamson was on duty running down 'shiners in Shelby county when he met his bride. He is a popular young officer always excepting the illicit distillers and bootleggers of the state, who have a profound distaste for him along with others of Chief McAdory's men.

BODY OF BROWN RECOVERED

The body of James Brown, age 23, who was knocked from Mitchell Dam and drowned last Wednesday morning, May 23, was recovered Saturday afternoon just below Knight's Ferry. The body was taken in charge by Martin, Undertaker, and brought to Clanton, and prepared for shipment. It was shipped on No. 2 Sunday to Leorner, Tenn., the original home of the dead man.

Mr. Brown is survived by a wife 19 years old, and father, mother and several brothers and sisters.

BIG LIQUOR RAID MADE IN STATE

Four Hundred and Ten Quarts of Liquor Taken in Raids.

Two automobiles, one a Buick, the other a Ford, also 410 quarts of liquor were seized, and six men arrested on charges of violating the prohibition law, in raids, Monday, by state, county and federal officers.

The Ford car was captured in Shelby county by state and county officers. When captured, the machine was found to contain two men and 41 gallons of whiskey. The whiskey and auto were seized and the men arrested.

The Buick car was seized for confiscation in Limestone county by state, county and federal officers, who upon searching the interior of the vehicle discovered six suit cases and two trunks which were immediately opened. Their contents consisted of 250 quarts of imported Holland gin. Four men were placed under arrest in connection with this raid.

COTTON MARKET SOARING

After the recent government report on the cotton crop the price of the staple has made big advances. The New Orleans market closed Tuesday at 28.25, an advance of 25 points. The New York market closed the same day at 28.75. The rising condition of the market is due to the heavy rains in the central and eastern portions of the cotton belt. The forecast for showery weather for the belt was held to be unfavorable except in Texas, where it is said rain will be decidedly beneficial.

LITTLE CURTIS WILLARD EASTERLING

The little 15-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Easterling died at their home in Auburn Monday morning at 5 o'clock. The body was brought to Clanton Monday afternoon and it lay in state at the home of Mr. Easterling's mother, Mrs. Lawley Monday night. The remains were buried at Walnut Creek Church Tuesday afternoon.

THE GOSPEL TRAIN

Dear Mr. Editor:

I want to say a few words through your paper. I have returned from the convention held at Kansas City, Mo., and a wonderful meeting it was. As the thousands sang the great thrilling music it made one feel as if he were nearing heaven.

I have often heard of the Gospel Train, but now it ceases to be a story with me, and becomes a reality, as I actually took a ride on the Gospel Train. As we were returning home we began to gather from the many coaches into one coach until it could receive no more, after which we began to sing and pray, followed by a wonderful sermon delivered by Dr. Cru of Georgia; text, "My Grace Is Sufficient For Thee," 2 Corinthians 12:9. As this man brought the message of the great promises of God to His children, we were made to realize the presence of God and that He was guiding while the busy train was measuring the miles in Kansas. When the sermon was over we had a testimonial and proclamations of determination by many that was present. Such a service no one in the coach had ever witnessed.

So Mr. Editor, the experience on the Gospel Train is what I came to tell your readers about.

Yours truly,
E. A. NORRIS.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Editor

Thought For the Day.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Finds us farther than today.

Mr. Tom Jones of Montgomery spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mrs. P. I. Hopkins and little Miss Lillian Matthews were the guests of Mrs. E. E. Upchurch last week.

Mrs. Anna Chestnut returned home Tuesday after a few days visit to Miss French Evans.

Mrs. E. E. Upchurch had as her guest several days last week her mother, Mrs. Latham from Montevallo.

Come to that barbecue and help us build that new Methodist church, —our schools and churches are our county's biggest asset.

Prof. and Mrs. S. E. Alverson left Wednesday for a visit to relatives in Chattanooga before going to Jacksonville, where Prof. Alverson will teach during the summer months. We regret to give up this couple from our midst. They will be at Oxford for the next school term.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Turner left Tuesday for Gorgas, where they will make their future home.

Mr. Clarence Evans came down Tuesday for a brief visit to his mother, Mrs. Eugene Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell Roper arrived Tuesday for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roper.

Miss Mary Upchurch arrived home Tuesday from the Judson, where she was a student the past season.

We want everybody and his brother at that 4th of July barbecue.

Mr. Earl Gore will arrive home Friday from Bell Buckle, Tenn., where he did splendid work at Webb's University.

Miss Lessie Reynolds has returned home from Lincoln, where she taught last winter.

Miss Beverly Hester will leave in a short time for Howard College, where she will teach music during summer school.

Mr. Frank Mullins will attend summer school at Howard College.

Mrs. Reed of Birmingham was an honored guest of the local Eastern Star on last Thursday when they had a "school of instruction" here. A representative body from Thorsby and Maplesville were present. Mrs. Reed is worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. Salter of Birmingham were visitors to the Clanton Eastern Star order on last Thursday.

Mrs. Jatie Middleton and little daughter, Mayme Maroney are visiting relatives here this week.

Misses Roberta Curry and Kathleen Mullins and Mr. John Deramus motored to Montgomery Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Lancaster has returned to her home in Birmingham after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Williams.

Miss Roberta Curry spent a couple of days in Birmnigham this week as the guest of Mrs. Hughes Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones and Mr. G. C. Walker motored to Montgomery Monday.

Miss Bessie Thomas has returned home from Andalusia, where she taught the past winter.

A wonderful line of PEP CAPS at PARRISH'S.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Roper of Garnsey motored to Clanton last week for a couple of days visit to relatives.

If you are old, you will feel young, If you are young, you will feel younger; and everybody will be glad they are living, when that 4th of July barbecue comes off.

Mr. and Mrs. John Browder enjoyed a motor trip to Montgomery Sunday.

Misses Sallye and Jean Johnson returned home Wednesday from Randolph-Macon.

Dr. J. P. Hayes and Mr. R. C. McDavid will return home the last of this week from a business and pleasure trip to various points in Florida.

Haven't you heard about it? Well we're going to tell you about it: It's coming to Clanton on July the 4th—the biggest crowd Chilton county has ever seen. There's going to be speaking, music, singing, greasy poles, races, balloons, lemonade, ball games and a barbecue. You just can't afford to miss it—so come!

Miss Marzelle Mullins arrived home this week from Montgomery, where she spent the winter, a student, of the Woman's College.

Mrs. Newson of Montgomery, grand secretary of the Grand Chapter of Alabama, was a visitor to Clanton lodge on last Thursday.

Miss Margaret Hester will leave soon for special work at the Howard College.

Misses Lessie and Willadean Reynolds will leave soon for Montevallo to do special work at the summer school.

Mrs. John Gore Hostess.

On last Friday afternoon the Philathia S. S. class of the M. E. Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Gore.

The apartments were made bright with baskets of Dorothy Perkins roses. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Macy Jones, opening with the reading of the 91 Psalm. Roll call and minutes were read. Reports from outstanding committees were heard.

The subject for the afternoon study was Soul. Interesting papers were given by Mrs. Chas. Wilkerson and Mrs. Luckie.

Thursday Embroidery Club Meets.

A delightful meeting of the Thursday Embroidery club was held at the home of Mrs. Macy Jones on last Thursday.

The apartments were tastefully decorated with lovely rose buds, and tables were arranged for the game of "42."

Wednesday Card Club Meets.

On last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Napoleon Johnson was a charming hostess, having as her guests the members of her card club. Tables were placed in the spacious living room, made attractive with bowls of bright colored Nasturtiems. Mrs. Arthur Johnson held high score and was presented with a deck of cards. At the conclusion of the game a lovely salad plate with iced tea was served.

Entertains for Visitors.

As a special courtesy to her sister, Mrs. Roy Supple, of Montgomery, Mrs. Hugh Jones entertained at a lovely bridge party on last Saturday afternoon.

Three tables were arranged in the living room, decorated with Dorothy Perkins roses, which lent an air of fragrance and beauty to the apartments.

Mrs. John Browder held highest score and was given a box of powder. A delicious salad plate with tea was served at the close of the game.

Mrs. Roy Supple of Montgomery was a recent visitor to her sister, Mrs. Hugh Jones, enroute home from Washington, Indiana and points in Ohio, where she has been visiting.

Mrs. Ellis Entertains.

Never before was a home more beautiful than was the home of Mrs. John T. Ellis on last Friday evening when she entertained at a dinner, a few members of the younger set.

The dining room was artistically decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Music was rendered by Mrs. Jatie Middleton. Among those enjoying the occasion were: Misses Inez Harris, Jewel Minor and Aurabelle Martin; Messrs. Mack Wyatt, Harry Margolis and Latham Ellis.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER GIVEN BY MRS. McELREATH

Mrs. S. P. McElreath, of Norwood, entertained with a miscellaneous shower, at her home, Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Eula Bell Culver, a popular bride-elect.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens. Three spacious rooms were thrown together where seventy-five guests were entertained in various ways. Mrs. T. S. Atkinson and little Frances McElreath gave several readings. Miss Fay Watkins won first prize, a beautiful cut glass bud vase, and Mrs. Rufus Edward McFerrin the consolation prize, in the penny contest. The bride-elect was presented with a handsome sliver fruit bowl by the hostess. Miss Virginia Shelburne presided at the bride's book and Miss Fay Watkins at the wishing well. The bride-elect was conducted down the winding stairs by the following little girls, dressed as cupids: Billie Suttles, Elonoir Gay, Evelyn Williams and Frances McElreath. As she passed under an arch way of roses, rice was showered upon her, by Miss Clarice Harper. As she was seated in a bridal chair, decorated with pink roses and white ribbons, little Rufus McFerrin, dressed as a cupid presented her with the lovely gifts from a decorated baby buggy. From the chandelier in the dining room hung a silver moon, in which was seated a cupid dressed as a bride. Miss Glenora Alexander presided over the punch bowl, and Misses Racile Gwaltney and Eevelyn Neelens presided over the other dainty refreshments. The bride-elect was dressed in a beautiful green voile dress, with shoes and hose to match. Miss Fay Watkins was dressed in a flowered chiffon and Miss Virginia Shelburne in a voile foulard, Miss Glenora Alexander in a pink silk georgette, Miss Racele Gwaltney in a black lace afternoon frock, and Miss Evelyn Neelens was dressed in a dainty brown Canton crepe. The hostess, Mrs. McElreath was dressed in a lovely brown Canton crepe, with shoes and hose to match. The shower was continued from three o'clock to eleven o'clock.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.

STRAY CATTLE—On May 12 I took up four heifer yearlings and one cow, unmarked but branded on the left hip with an "E." The cow is a Holstein; one heifer is dark red about 18 months old, one is light Jersey color about 2 years old, one is a yellow Jersey color about 15 months old, the other is dark blue about 15 months old. These cattle were taken up on my premises six miles east of Clanton near Refuge Church. The claim is $10.50 for damages and feeding.—Lewis Mims. 1t.

Mr. W. E. Owens of Route 3 was a visitor to town Tuesday. He was among those to pay up his subscription.

Buick Service Protects Buick Owners Everywhere

Buick owners everywhere recognize this blue and white emblem of authorized service as further assurance of dependable Buick performance.

Experience has shown Buick owners that "authorized" service means a conscientious, helpful interest in the continued and perfect operation of their Buicks.

Authorized service is a guarantee of skilled labor from mechanics of long experience on Buick cars, and that every new part is genuine, factory-made of the same high quality as the original unit.

It is an assurance that the establishment is conducted to serve Buick owners first, last, and always in the way that will continue the dependable performance built into every Buick car.

AUBURN SUMMER SCHOOL

Auburn, Ala., May 26.—Advance enrollment of students for the summer school session beginning June 4 indicates a record breaking attendance according to statement today by Prof. John B. Clark, director. Prof. Clark said he had received hundreds of inquiries in regard to reservations for rooms. A large number of regular students have also registered.

Director Clark announced today several new features including the appointment of Miss Zoe Dobbs, a regular member of the college faculty, as social director for the young women who will attend the summer school. Miss Dobbs will give practically all her time during the summer to this phase of the work, enabling the young women students to profit to the utmost while attending the summer school. Several hundred women are expected to enroll for the summer work.

Another special feature of the summer school announced today is the observation and practice teaching work in the high school division. Prof. I. R. Obenchain, principal of one of the large grammar schools in Birmingham will give his entire time to this phase of the work. J. H. Hunt, principal of the high school division, will assist also in the observation and practice teaching. Under the supervision of these school men the young men and women who expect to teach will have an excellent opportunity to do the work required of them for secondary certificates by the state department of education, it was stated.

Several other courses not included in the first announcement will be offered also. One of these is a course in freehand drawing under the direction of N. A. Cannon.

As already announced a strong corps of special lecturers has been provided, two of whom, Dr. Geo. S. Counts of Yale and Dr. David Snedden of Columbia University, will not only lecture daily at convocation hour but will offer courses in secondary education primarily for high school principals, superintendents and teachers. Both of these men are educators of national reputation, and according to Prof. Clark their presence offers Alabama teachers a splendid opportunity to get at first hand the most improved methods of teaching as offered in two of the leading educational institutions of the country.

IF STOMACH IS SOUR, FOOD WON'T DIGEST

No stomach filled with sour poisons can digest food. Everything you eat turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels all sour poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. Removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused sour and gassy stomach. Adlerika is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Upchurch Drug Co.

The Ku Klux Klan is always opposed by Catholics, crooks, bootleggers and law violators. This is a strong indication that the Klan is out for a noble cause.

How about those booklets the Chamber of Commerce was going to have printed to advertise Clanton? Now is the opportune time for some of them to be distributed.

If the questions confronting our County Board of Education had been submitted to the vote of the people, would the same action been taken as was taken by the Board?

However much hyphenated Americans may admire the governments of other nations, they must admit that there is no other place on earth where there is so much liberty as there is here.

A campaign is going to be launched soon to enlighten the South in the advantages of a protective tariff. The South is simply biting the hand that's feeding it when it votes against the protective tariff.

Our County Board of Education is keeping the schools out of politics all right. They are so unbiased (?) politically that from their actions no one would ever suspect that every one of them were put in office by the Republican voters of Chilton county.

In states where there are two political parties of about the same strength school funds are appropriated proportionally among all counties and all classes. In Alabama pupils of the higher institutions get $150 each, while public school pupils get only $4.00 each.

Our friend Doty of the Lafayette Sun is giving some of our state departments a round up for wasting our tax money. Brother, you needn't expect anything else so long as Alabama has only one political party. There is where the trouble lies, and there is where the adjustment will have to be made before any permanent good will be accomplished.

Power and labor conditions in the northeast are forcing textile industries to hunt other fields. They are selecting the South. Alabama is said to have the cheapest power in the country on account of its abundant water power. Clanton is the nearest town to Lock 12 and Mitchell Dam. What is the obvious conclusion? Clanton is the best location in the world for a cotton mill.

RESULTS OF U. S. LEADERSHIP

The revenues of Cahaba for the current fiscal year will be about 20 per cent greater than those for the last year. Under the able management of Gen. Crowder, who has been acting as the personal representative of President Harding in the island, expenditures have been sharply curtailed and the whole Cuban fiscal system revised along sound lines. Gen. Crowder is now United States Ambassador to Cuba and in a position to continue his helpful aid in the rehabilitation of its affairs.

SOME THINGS WE DON'T NEED

While Clanton is building up and putting on new and necessary industrial development, we notice together with this some few establishments being developed which we could get along much better without. We have reference principally to our pool parlors and swimming ponds. Both of these outfits within themselves are not necessarily very degrading to a community, but the elements which are always found contingent to such institutions certainly do not contribute to the beneficent advancement of a people.

The pool parlor might be conducted in such a way as not to be the means of leading many people astray, but we have our first one to hear of yet which was run this way. They are invariably a resort for those who have little respect for decent and respectable aspirations, and in the course of time are the means of causing at least some men and boys to be led into paths of degredation.

The swimming pool likewise, might be conducted in a way that would be pleasing as a place of public amusement and recreation, but as mentioned above, we do not know of any mixed bathing establishments which are conducted this way. From all of them there eminates a degree of sinfulness and corruption. And especially is this true where they are allowed to be used on Sundays. Sunday is God's day, and should be used to His glory.

SOME GENIUS IN AMERICA, ALSO

A magazine that advertises itself as "America's Leading Journal of Art and Letters" presents a list of its most important articles, among them one by Germany's foremost man of letters, one by France's greatest contemporary writer, one by the most striking personality in modern Germany, one by a new star in Scandinavian literature, one by a German author of short stories, and a review of the life and writings of a prominent British writer. Only one article in the list seems to be by an American author, and even that is not advertised as American. Apparently American art and letters must go to Europe for all inspiration. We guess not.

THE PERSONAL EQUATION

Mr. Gompers thinks he could make better use of the millions that have been turned into communistic channels for propaganda purposes. Well, there are a lot of us who think we could make better use of the fund, and we might not agree with Gompers as to ways of spending, either.

MORE PROSPERITY AHEAD

The Atlantic Coast Line is to spend about $26,000,000 for new stations, shops, shop equipment, rails, yards, locomotives, and freight and passenger cars, the whole to be ready for servise by November 1 of this year. The program is warranted by the rapidly growing prosperity of the country as a whole, and is specially significant of the development of the industries of the South, a part of which territory is served by the road.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Last Sunday was Baccalaureate day for Thorsby Institute, and the service held at 11 o'clock a.m. at the Congregational Church, was one that will long be remembered by most of the participants.

The graduating class, twelve in number, occupied front seats. The house was beautifully decorated with red and white roses, the class emblem, and every available seat was filled. Rev. Wilhelm Petterson, pastor of Thorsby Lutheran Church, who for several years was a college professor, preached a strong and inspiring sermon, in which he pointed out the privileges and responsibilities of those who receive a Christian education, and how after spending years in the companionship and under the instruction of teachers of high ideals, there is no limit to what they may accomplish if they make their life motto the title of their class hymn, "We Will Be True."

The Christian Endeavor Society meeting Sunday night at the Congregational Church, was one of unusual interest. The leaders were Misses Verona East and Etta Foshee, and the subject was "Medical Missions at Home and Abroad."

Miss Fairbanks gave an interesting story of the experiences of some of her friends who were Medical Missionaries in the interior of China, where one woman doctor was the only physician available for several millions of Chinese women, as their social customs never permit of a woman being attended by a man doctor. She also related how her friends while making a long river trip by boat were captured by bandits who demanded $5000 for ransom of the man after they had plundered the entire company of all their belongings, except the clothes they wore, but finally being convinced that they would get no more they let the people go. Miss Lillian McKee, in costume, gave an interesting sketch of an Oriental woman's experiences, and how the Missionaries combine helpful medical attention with the Gospel Story, and so plant the seed that is spreading Christian influences among millions of people who never heard of Jesus.

The catalogues for the school year of 1923-24 of Thorsby Institute have arrived and are being distributed.

The annual class night exercises of the class of 1923 will be held on Thursday evening, May 31, at 8 o'clock. An admission fee of ten cents for children and twenty-five cents for adults will be asked of all persons who are not members of the school or who do not hold tickets distributed by the seniors.

The commencement exercises will be held in Bates Hall, Friday, June 1st. Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge of the Central Congregational Church of Atlanta will deliver the address of the evening. Seats have been reserved in Bates Hall for the trustees and for the families of the graduates. All friends of the school are invited to attend the commencement exercises.

It is hoped that Friday, June 1st, will be a pleasant day for the big commencement picnic that is planned by the Ladies' Guild and the students of the school to be held on the campus. The annual track meet will be held on that day and the girls of the school will give a gymnasium exhibit. It is expected that dinner will be served out of doors. All friends are cordially invited to be present on the campus and to help make the picnic a splendid community success. Needless to say, well filled luncheon baskets will be needed.

Because of the very unusually high record that has been made by the members of the senior class for the past school year, the faculty has decided to exempt the seniors from final examinations. There has been much rejoicing among the seniors.

The final examinations for the last semester began on Tuesday mornisg and will continue through Thursday.

Mrs. Martha Hunter of the faculty of Thorsby Institute, left on Saturday morning for Fort Recovery, where she will attend a reunion of the G. A. R. Later she will go to Scranton, Penn., to Michigan and then to Los Angeles. Mrs. Hunter expects to return to Thorsby in the Fall.

Miss Edna Turnipseed will leave Thorsby on Friday morning for Montgomery and later will go to Richmond, Indiana, where she will take up her residence.

Miss Catherine Perry will leave Thorsby soon after the close of school for Falmouth, Mass., where she will join her mother for the summer.

Mrs. Sam Grenn has come to Thorsby to attend the commencement exercises at Thorsby Institute. Her daughter, Miss Ena Grenn, is one of the graduates.

Miss Annie Hughes, Mr. Truman Pierce, and Mr. Yancey Kelley are expecting members of their families to be their guests for the commencement festivities.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson, the Librarian of Thorsby Institute, will go to Birmingham on Saturday. Miss Robinson will return to Thorsby in the Fall.

J. D. Clekler & Co. are building a metal covered warehouse 28x46 on a lot across the alley from the rear of their store.

Misses Anna and Inga Erdahl of Birmingham and Miss Della McJunken of Baker, Fla., who is a student at a business college in Birmingham, all former students of Thorsby Institute, spent Sunday with Mrs. Erdahl in Thorsby.

Mrs. Johanna Lefstead has as her guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Lefstead of Eau Claire, Wis. Mr. Lefstead is a nephew of their hostess.

Mr. Waldemar H. Lefstead, who graduates from Birmingham-Southern College this week will return to the home of his mother, Mrs. Johanna Lefstead, in Thorsby, where he will probably spend the summer and take up his work as a member of Thorsby Institute faculty when the school opens in the fall. Mr. Lefstead is among the former students and graduates of Thorsby Institute who take up teaching after graduation from some college.

Miss Lucy E. Sturdivant of Mobile, Ala., is a guest of Mrs. E. W. Butler this week. When she returns to her home she will be accompanied by Miss Fairbanks of Thorsby Institute.

Mr. Walter Morgan and wife, nee Olga Soberg, with their two children were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Morgan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Soberg.

Mrs. Martha B. Hunter, house mother at the Boys' Dormitory, left Saturday morning for an extended tour during vacation days, going east as far as Scranton, Pa., north to Chicago and west to Los Angeles, Cal. She expects to return and take up her work when school opens in September.

Mrs. Forrest Woods, of Birmingham, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Robinson.

Miss Lucille Adams, who while a student in Thorsby Institute took their business course, and secured a good position in Birmingham, which she has held for the past four years, was married in that city last Saturday, but without changing her family name. Miss Louise Adams, her sister, went to Birmingham Saturday to attend the wedding.

Mr. Alfred Lefstead, who with his wife, is visiting the Lefstead family in Thorsby, has a position as an appraiser with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad company.

Mr. Albert Anderson arrived in Thorsby last Friday evening to be present at a surprise party, given by a number of the relatives and friends of Mr. Magne Anderson, in celebration of his 75th birthday anniversary on Friday evening.

Mr. D. J. Flummer was a week-end visitor from Birmingham.

Miss Lorena Graham having finished, with success, her year's work as a teacher in high school at Enterprise, Ala., has returned to her home in Thorsby, where she expects to spend the summer with her mother. Her father, Rev. J. M. Graham is away from home most of the time engaged in anti-tuberculosis work as an organizer of county campaigns to fight the White Plague.

Mr. J. Almon Graham spent a week at home from Alabama University and left Saturday night to take a position with Alabama Power company during vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garrick, of Birmingham, spent several days the past week visiting Mrs. Garrick's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Lowery.

Mr. Emil Peterson, of Gary, Ind., arrived Saturday night for an extended visit at the home of Mr. J. O. Johnson. His wife, formerly Miss Mildred oJhnsos, with their baby, arrived several weeks ago.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Guild, held at the home of Mrs. Chas. S. Howard last Thursday, Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald, president of the Guild, who expects to be absent from Thorsby for the next few months, received a gift from members of the Guild as a token of their esteem and friendship, for one who has long been associated with them and found faithful.

Friday night of this week will bring to a close one of the most successful years in the history of Thorsby Institute. The graduatnig class this year has twelve members, four men and eight young ladies who have completed the prescribed course with credit to themselves and the school. Some expect to continue their studies in college, others will become teachers, while yet others will take up some kind of business. They are a fine group of young folks and will no doubt give a good account of themselves wherever they go.

The Doctor Was Right

When the good old family doctor was asked about baking powders, he said:

"Use Royal. It is made from Cream of Tartar and is absolutely pure. You could dissolve a couple of teaspoons of Royal in water and drink it with benefit. That's a health test mighty few baking powders can meet."

The doctor was right.

NOTICE OF DAY SET FOR HEARING PROBATE OF WILL

To Mrs. Clara Henderson, 1804 2nd Ave., Columbus, Ga.; James Howell, San Antonio, Texas; Drew Howell, Tampa, Florida; Mrs. Mattie Howell, San Antonio, Texas; and Mrs. Lillie S. Fling, Gabberts, Georgia:

You will please take notice, that on the 29th day of May, 1923, a certain paper in writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Sims, was filed in my office for Probate, by B. S. Sims, and that the 30th day of June, 1923, was appointed a day for the hearing thereof, at which time you can appear and contest the same if you see proper.

Given under my hand this 29th day of May, 1923.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
5-31-3t-c. Judge of Probate.

CUT THOSE WEEDS

Uncle Jim Baker is waging a strenuous war against the weeds and grass on the streets and side walks of the town. Everybody in town should co-operate with him by cutting the weeds around your yards. Especially should the vacant lots of the town be looked after. Let everybody help out in this move.

Mr. J. W. Pitts, formerly of this county but now of Autauga, was in Clanton Tuesday attending to business matters. He came to see the editor and had us to send him the paper.

BETHANY NEWS

Health is very good at present, except Miss Lena Dykes, who has the measles. She is the only one in this vicinity who has them. Everybody hopes for her a speedy recovery.

Almost everybody from around here and elsewhere, attended the all-day singing at Hampton, and if every one of them didn't have a good time singing it was their own fault.

Prof. J. W. Cagle has secured a very pleasing position at the Mitchell Dam.

Mr. Sam Dykes went to the home of Mr. Luther Davis Saturday night to a music entertainment. He says there was no music but he reports a nice time just the same.

Mrs. I. D. Huett spent Sunday with Mrs. C. W. Gray.

Mr. Dewey Huett was a very unlucky guy last Sunday afternoon when he faced the terrible ordeal of a runaway. Messrs. I. D. Huett, John Mullins and Dewey Huett were returning from the Hampton singing when Mr. Mullins' horse made a gallant runaway. None were injured except Mr. Dewey Huett, who made an attempt to jump from the speeding vehicle, thus hurting his leg in the leap.

DR. PARRISH SPEAKS

Dr. W. D. Parrish of Nashville, Tenn., a champion of American ideals, spoke at the court house Tuesday night in the interest of the Ku Klux Klan. This noted speaker made a very fine talk on the work of the Klan. This same man spoke at the Baptist Church here about a year ago.

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

A $50,000 addition to the state capitol in the form of a two-story annex in the rear of the present building is considered probable, if the legislature at the session will give the needed authorization. Plans for such an addition are in the hands of the recess code committee, of which the matter of making recommendations for relieving congestion at the capitol was referred. The committee will devote some time to a study of the plans, which were prepared by a local architect before reaching a decision.

In a report submitted to Semmes Camp No. 11, United Confederate Veterans, T. E. Spotswood, who was appointed as a delegate from the camp to appear before the budget committee in Montgomery in interest of a petition for increased pensions for Confederate veterans in Alabama, stated that he received assurance that the application will be favorably considered if such action can be taken without conflicting with the taxation limits prescribed by the constitution.

Announcements was made following a special meeting of the Alabama public service commission of the issuance of an order by the commission, directing J. H. Aldredge, the commission's rate expert, as special examiner to prepare from the evidence submitted a report on the pending case involving coal and coke rates between all Alabama points. Mr. Aldredge is instructed to file a report on the matter with the commission at the earliest practicable date.

Supreme confidence that Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals will be accepted by Congress at its next session was expressed in a speech at Albany by W. G. Waldo, right hand man of Col. J. W. Worthington, secretary of the Tennessee Improvement association. Mr. Waldo went to Albany for a conference with John W. Knight, local chairman in connection with the association campaign for funds to carry on its work in behalf of the Tennessee river.

Colonel William P. Screws, inspector-instructor of the Alabama National Guard, has issued a memorandum to all officers of the state staff corps and departments on the holding of schools of instruction for officers and non-commissioned officers. He states that the commissioned officer's school will be held in the office of the adjutant general at the state capitol at 7:30 P. M. on the last two Mondays in each month.

Another industry, and this time one out of the ordinary, is slated to open in Montgomery soon The Montgomery Window Washing Company, according to advices from its manager to the local chamber of commerce, expects to do business in Montgomery. The company plans to make a specialty of office buildings, and will also clean store windows, residential windows, woodwork and kindred furnishings.

L. L. Shertzer, of Demopolis, grand vice-chancellor of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, was advanced to the grand chancellorship at the annual meeting of the grand lodge and R. A. Burleson of Hartselle, was started through the chairs of the grand lodge by his electeion to the office of grand outer guard.

It will cost a labor agent a pile of money to do business in Gadsden if the city, county and state laws are enforced. In addition to the $3,750 state and county license charged to each agent, the city is now levying a similar tax of $6,600. This makes a total charge of $10,350 for soliciting labor to leave the city.

Chief of Police, W. A. Lewis, of Florala, states that prospects for fishing were never finer in the Florala vicinity than they are at the present time.

Colonel E. B. Fishburne has accepted the presidency of the Presbyterian University School for Boys at Anniston and will assume the duties of the office June 1.

Mrs. Edgienora Parker, aged 72, of Headland, shot and killed a negro prowler in her back yard, with a pistol.

Lumbago

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I wat flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

Peter Weldon, a good old Republican friend on Route 1, was in to see us Tuesday morning. His mission was to keep the Banner coming.

Mr. J. M. Ellison of Jemison, R. 2, was in Clanton last week attending to business.

LAWLEY NEWS

The farmers here are indeed very blue over the weather conditions. So much rain has put them far behind with their work. The hail one day last week did quite a lot of damage to the gardens and young corn in this community. But we should not worry about the things we cannot help. We should worry about things we can help.

Misses Ethel and Lilla Collins spent a few days last week at Centerville, attending commencement exercises. They are former graduates of B. C. H. S. While there they were the guests of Misses Grace and Jettie Ward. Ethel and Lilla will leave in a few days for Tuscaloosa, where they will be in school at the University during the summer months. The people of this place will greatly miss these girls, especially will they be missed in Sunday school, as they are both teachers in our Sunday school and leaders in B. Y. P. U. But we wish them much success with school work.

Mrs. Jim Lawrence attended the graduation exercises at Centerville last week, where her daughter, Ruby was one of the graduates.

Mrs. Cost of Jemison is here visiting her son, Mr. Will Cost, for a few days.

Mr. McKinney of Centerville has bought the old gins here and is now repairing them for work next fall. This is indeed going to be a great help to the farmers of this section as the gins have been closed for several years, the farmers having to haul their cotton to Randolph or Maplesville.

Some say if the rain keeps up we will not need any gin.

Mr. Sidney Collins, who has been at the University at Tuscaloosa the past year, is now at home to spend his vacation.

Miss Cornelia Jefferson is planning to go to Florida in a few days to visit her brother, Cliff for a few weeks.

Several from here are planning to attend the home coming day at Shoults next Saturday.

Mrs. John Henderson was very sick last week. Dr. Williams of Centerville was called to see her. But we are glad she is much better now. We need a doctor here at Lawley very bad all the time. We can't see why some doctor does not locate here. When we need a doctor one has to be called from Centerville or Maplesville, as there is no doctor at Randolph either.

The W. M. U. could not have their meeting last Saturday afternoon, because of so much rain. But they will meet next Saturday afternoon at the church. We now have fifteen members. We hope to give an ice cream supper soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaborn Latham and two little daughters, Lorane and Mary Elizabeth spent a few days of last week at Tuscaloosa.

Before Baby Comes

THERE are thousands of expectant mothers who undergo much useless suffering for months before, as well as at the moment when delivery occurs. These months of suffering, with nerves and vital organs weakened, leave their effect upon the child. An eminent physician found the way to stop much of this unnecessary suffering—the same easy way which thousands of mothers have used for three generations.

Mrs. Walter S. Hadley, Bridgeport, Ind., says: "Before my little boy came I was so paralyzed in my hips and limbs I could hardly walk, and some days after a little extra exertion I couldn't walk a step. I felt it coming on this time; in fact, I could hardly get up when I sat down, but now, after using one bottle of Mother's Friend, I am so much better. I feel that I almost owe my life to Mother's Friend."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally to the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates remarkably, permitting the easier relaxation and distension of muscles, nerves, tissues and ligaments, and their constant easier readjustment during expectancy and at child-birth. Have no more fear or dread, mother! Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor, because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

Pay Kash and Pay Less

Today every woman is striving to economize. She wants every dollar to buy as nearly as possible what it would buy before the war. She dislikes to pay war prices. Striving to get the utmost in value for your money is one of your problems—one way is to buy goods which represent a saving in price without a sacrifice in quality—

Rain! Yes, rain! But everybody knows that—farm work backward.

Everybody went to the singing Sunday at Pleasant Grove, but just as dinner was spread a rain came down and all had to run to shelter, so that part of the program was blocked. But it was a great singing.

The noted Vaughan Quartet of Tennessee was there. Prof. Franklin was chairman. The crowd was immense. The compositions rendered by the quartette and the numerous other poetic productions rendered pointed to the fact that the heart of this world is yearning for the beautiful approaching day.

Pleasant Grove Church was founded in the early Seventies by R. M. Honeycutt. In her early history she was noted for her great piety, humility and earnestness. Her first convert became a minister and resides at Randolph, Ala. She produced other ministers later, J. M. Gothard, Thomas Maroney, A. J. Lee. She once had the best Sunday school we ever saw, superintended by D. C. Hubbard. Her pastors have been R. M. Honeycutt, S. M. Adams in his youthful days; A. E. Burns, L. B. Pounds, S. Smitherman, G. W. Freeman, J. H. Thomas, Mr. Carlton, Mr. Deason, Mr. Connell, Mr. Dykes, Mr. Champion and others.

Great music teachers have taught her children. Prof. John S. Terry of Sacred Harp fame; Prof. Lawley, Prof. Veazey, Prof. Logan, Prof. Eagle, Prof. Franklin.

Her early membership was largely composed of the Ward, Smitherman, Thomas, Franklin, Gothard, and Davenport families.

Among the many noted visitors at the singing were our honorable and faithful Sheriff Tom Littlejohn and W. G. Culp of Clanton; J. P. Barnett, A. F. Childress and Ben Franklin of Thorsby; C. G. Glass and J. C. Veazey of Macedonia; Mr. Lon Brown and W. M. Merchant of West Chilton; Burl Martin of Providence; C. L. Scott of Mars Hill; Mr. W. E. Glass of Jemison; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crumpton of Six Mile.

The lesson by Vester Campbell was quite impressive.

The month of May is noted for its great singings, beginning at Lomax with that never-to-be-forgotten feast of song, then on to Clanton, then to Pleasant Grove. Memory will cherish those gatherings while we linger this side the river.

Let POLK BROS. show you a GRAY today.

TO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Editor Union-Banner:—

School is out and most of the boys and girls do not care for more study now. But if any of the Chilton county young people want to tackle a problem in Algebra,—for fun or for fame, or for a dollar—here is the chance.

I am offering a prize of one dollar open to any one, who has been a pupil in a Chilton county school durling the past year, who will solve, unassisted, the problem below and send the solution to reach me before Sunday, June 25. Send with your solution the statement that you solved the problem without aid, also the name of your school and teacher. If you wish to have a correct solution sent you, in case yours is incorrect, enclose a stamped envelope. If more than one original and correct solution is received two dollars will be divided between the successful contestants.

Here is the problem:—A farmer, breaking a rectangular piece of ground, twice as long as it is wide, begins at one corner, and plows 15 times around the field to break up one acre. In the next 16 rounds he breaks another acre—what is the acreage of the field, and what is the width, in inches, of his furrows? Give answers correct to two decimal places

PLETCHER ITEMS

Health of this vicinity is very well at present.

Chopping cotton is all the go with the farmers.

Mrs. Hettie Reed and daughter of Plantersville spent the week-end with friends and relatives here.

Miss Gracie Abbott spent Thursday night with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Poole.

Mrs. Sula Williams and daughters, Gladys, Dalene and Madgie visited Mrs. Lily Anderson Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Reedie Hayes visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Abbott Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Judy visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abbott Thursday night.

Miss Erma Judy was the guest of Miss Ruth Abbott Thursday night.

Mrs. G. B. Williams and children dined with Mrs. J. T. Abbott Wednesday.

Sunday was our regular preaching day.

Quite a crowd of young folks spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Willie Poole and reported a nice time.

Misses Ruth Abbott and Sudie Keen dined with Miss Gladys Williams Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Keen of Shiloh spent the week-end with Mr. Keen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Keen.

MAPLESVILLE DOTS

Mrs. Goodman Smitherman, age about 70 years, of this place, died last Wednesday a.m., about 11 o'clock. She had been ill about two months with Brights disease. She died at her home. The deceased leaves a husband and two sons, Ennie, living at this place and Aunice of Vermont.

The remains were buried at Cox in Bibb county Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Smitherman was well known and stood high in the estimation of her numerous acquaintances and was loved by everybody that knew her.

The farmers were made blue on last Thursday p.m. when the storm of hail and rain came. The hail swept through this community four miles wide, ruining everything as it went—cotton, corn and everything. The farmers have gone to work planting the cotton again, so I suppose we will be chopping cotton in July. It seems as if there can be anything made this year as it is said to be an unlucky year. But the Lord doeth all things well.

This community was made sad last week when they learned of Miss Nell Potts being carried to a hospital in Selma for an operation.

She is a good girl and is loved by all here and her many friends are wishing her a quick recovery.

Our school was out on last Friday, May 25th. We are all very scrry to have to part from our teachers and school mates but we are all tired of school for this session. We all enjoyed the closing exercises. Everyone that taken the examinations received a promotion. All averaged good grades. All the seventh grade that taken state examination received a diploma.

Our Sunday school is still progressing nicely. We are very glad to see as many present as there were last Sunday. Dr. H. M. Nix's class was in the lead last Sunday. They rendered an excellent program; Mrs. J. E. Dennis' being in lead next Sunday.

We have a very good B. Y. P. U. Had a very good program Sunday night with Mrs. Jessie Blass' group No. 1 being in lead. All you young people come and take a part with us. We would be glad to have more join us.

Miss Bertie Teel of Clanton spent a few days with Miss Bertie Lee Coleman last week.

Mr. Fred McCarty of Birmingham is visiting his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coleman.

Mrs. Will D. Brandenbury of Birmingham was visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Scales last week.

Miss Stella McGee of Shoults spent last Wednesday night with Miss Elina Scales.

Dr. Fred Cobern is at home spending a few weeks with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Cobern.

Messrs. Elmer and Rother Harris are at home now from the University. We are very glad to have them with us in Sunday school.

Miss Lucy Walker of Shoults spent last Tuesday night with Misses Oma and Ena Scales.

Miss Mattie McAfee of Shoults dined with Miss Annie Spivey last Thursday.

Misses Leslie Jacks and Frances Brown spent last Saturday night with Misses Myrtle, Mattie and Fae McAfee of Shoults.

Mrs. P. C. Pullian and family spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Scales.

Miss Vergie Nell Foshee has returned home now, as her school is out.

A letter from W. M. Wyatt at Fort Payne says that everything up there is moving on nicely. They are printing their paper at home every week now, and say that they have lots of work to do.

A Wish

"I have taken Cardui for run-down, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak, too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of

CARDUI

and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard for us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work."

GRAY WINS AGAIN!

Reprint From Gloucester (Mass.) Times.

The economy test for automobiles held by Pierce N. Hodgkins at Rockport on Thursday proved interesting, brought out many people and 12 entries, Gray, Oldsmobile, Willys-Knight, Buick Four and six-cylinder models, Driggs, Overland, and Chevrolet machines. The test was won by a Gray car, driven by Lester Greenwood.

The 12 entries were as follows, being given in the order in which they finished and distance covered:

Gray 1922 Model—Lester Greenwood, 8.3 miles.

The latter car had trouble in gasoline feeding and did not get the entire consumption of gas.

Chevrolet touring—Rudolph Anderson 3.7 miles, also had gas trouble.

The cars were started at the Rockport Boston & Maine station at noon and started for Gloucester by way of Pigeon Cove and Lanesville. All the gasoline was drawn out of the cars and a quart put in each car. Mr. Greenwood reached the Addison Gilbert Hospital with his Gray. The second car got as far as Riverdale monument, and the third reached Annisquam Willows.

The gas measurements were absolutely correct and so acknowledged by the chauffeurs before starting. A prize of a tire was given to Mr. Greenwood and a special prize was awarded to Mr. Silva. The weight of the Gray was approximately 1500 pounds and the second car was about 4000 pounds.

SINGERS INVITED

Mr. T. C. Jackson, formerly of Collins Chapel, now of Sylacauga, cordially invites the singers of Chilton county to a union singing in the old books at Sylacauga, first Sunday in June, (June 3rd). He extends a welcome to all to come and feel at home.

Commencement Exercises at the University School

The commencement exercises of the University School were held last Friday. The graduating class comprising Messrs. J. Renfroe Mullins, J. W. Logan, and H. W. Ticknor, were presented with their certificates after a short and touching talk from the principal.

The highest honors of the school awarded for attendance and excellence in studies was awarded to J. Renfroe Mullins. The principal medal for oratory was given J. Osmond Middleton after an able and interesting contest. The "Banner" medal for extemperaneous composition was awarded to J. Wiley Logan. The W. L. Sampey medal for English was awarded J. Renfroe Mullins.

After a splendid basket dinner served by the ladies of Clanton on the school campus, the annual oration was delivered by the Hon. Percy Clark of Selma.

A big Sunday school convention was held at Valley Creek in Beat 8 on May 28 and 29.

In this issue appears the announcements of W. B. Green for circuit clerk and S. L. Aldridge and W. A. B. Falkner for representative.

CITIZEN'S MEETING AT JACKSON'S CHAPEL

A citizen's meeting at Jackson's Chapel is called for next Saturday night, at 7:30 o'clock, June 2nd, to discuss the pending three mill tax issue. Everyone who is interested is earnestly urged to be present, and listen to a number of competent speakers who will be on hand to discuss the question.

Come and learn what the issues are.

A DOUBTFUL PROJECT

Repeated efforts to induce American citizens to contribute to a fund of $1,000,000 to be paid to the present owner of the old Jefferson home, Monticello, have thus far been unsuccessful. The failure is not due to any lack of appreciation of the worth of Jefferson and the value of his services to his country. But there is evidently much difference of opinion as to the proper method of expressing the appreciation.

CANE CREEK

Our Sunday school is doing nicely. We have a good many on roll. Had a large crowd Sunday, and a few new members. We ask everybody to come.

Farmers are all worrying about the grassy fields. We are of the honest opinion that if the rain continues, we are going to make a very bountiful hay crop this year.

Next Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Everybody come. We are expecting to hear some good sermons, as usual.

Mrs. Lula Giles taken dinner with Mrs. Gentry Sunday.

Misses Pearl Giles, Hermie Gentry and Bertha Giles spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Sara and Delene Lambert.

Several from here attended the singing at Providence last Sunday and report a nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Miner Monday night.

Miss Zula Willis spent an enjoyable afternoon with Misses Nora and Zora Miner Sunday.

Miss Derendie Hadnot was visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. George Williamson visited the latter's parents Sunday. They were called to the bedside of Mrs. Williamson's mother, who is very ill.

MRS. ROBERTS TO TEACH MUSIC IN BOTH SCHOOLS DURING NEXT YEAR

I believe in keeping the public informed as to school work. Having been officially notified of my election as principal of the county high school, I can now announce two of the faculty. Mr. J. A. Peterson will be assistant principal and teacher of science. He holds a bachelor of science degree from Auburn; is old enough to be firm in discipline, and has had four years experience as a teacher.

The music department will be in charge of Mrs. Barney M. Roberts. Mrs. Roberts will have charge of the music in the Public school also. She has studied for the past two years with Mrs. Edna Gockel Gussen, one of the South's leading musicians. I consider Mrs. Roberts qualified to give her pupils the very latest improvements in either class work or in private teaching.

At the present time I am about to secure two extra good lady teachers for literary subjects. They will be announced as soon as can secure approval of the proper authorities.

Respectfully,
IRA PEGUES.

U. S. ENGINEER APPROVES REESE FERRY BRIDGE

Federal Aid, It Is Said, Only Be Given to Reese Ferry Project; Matter Closed Now.

Location of the bridge over the Alabama River at Reese's Ferry in preference to the proposed L. & N. bridge route was approved Tuesday by United States District Engineer A. E. Loder, whose decision is expected to terminate the long-standing controversy as to the location of a bridge on the Montgomery-Birmingham Highway.

Under the proposal which met the approval of engineer Loder the highway between Montgomery and a point about Verbena will be abandoned and the new road constructed. This would cut off the state's cotton mill at Speigner and numerous towns along the Louisville and Nashville railroad from the Birmingham-Montgomery highway. In announcing his decision to the bureau of public road Mr. Loder gave report of his investigations and a statement regarding good points which he found in the two routes. After the minute report, Mr. Loder expressed the opinion that the Reese's Ferry route is preferable to the Louisville and Nashville railroad bridge route.

Mr. Loder's decision, which was made known to the state highway department Tuesday afternoon, consisted in the approval of a project statement submitted to the federal engineer for the construction of a bridge at Reese's Ferry. After requesting federal aid on the Reese's Ferry project, a division arose as to location in the state highway department and the matter has since been deadlocked. It was considered that a decision by the federal engineer would settle matters, for Mr. Loder's approval carries with it the desired 50 per cent federal aid, and even if the state highway department should decide on another location it would be without federal approval and consequently without federal aid.

The advantages of the Reese's Ferry route from the standpoint of high water and grade crossings constituted important factors in Mr. Loder's decision, as announced in his written recommendation to the chief of the bureau of public roads.

"THE NINETY AND NINE"

The above is the name of the feature picture to be shown at the Wadesonian Theatre next Friday and Saturday. Mr. Wade says that this is a still better picture than his former features, and invites everybody to come and see it. Read full announcement elsewhere in this issue.

ABOUT SCHOOL TAX

Thorsby, Ala., May 29th, 1923.

You have read of the special election to be held June 15th for the purpose of combining several school districts into one, to be known as district "A," and to vote a three mill tax in this entire district. This will not change the running of the schools in the least, and the poll tax will be used in the districts where paid as is the case now. Those districts now paying a special 3 mill school tax will not increase their taxes one cent, as 3 mills is the limit which the law allows us to tax ourselves for school purposes. The tax money already voted in these districts will continue to be used for the schools therein.

The idea of combining these districts is to give a greater number of schools the benefit of the tax to be paid by the Alabama Power company. This is a good idea for the one or two schools which would otherwise receive this money would have much more than they would have any use for.

Since nothing but benefit can come from carrying this election I trust that every district will vote "yes" to a big majority. The districts now having the 3 mill school tax will not raise their taxes one cent, and those not having it, will find their's so slightly raised they will scarcely feel it, and when you think of the great benefit the schools will receive, why, there should not be one desenting vote in the whole election. We shall each receive our proper share of this tax, so let us not forget the date, June 15th, and all go and vote "yes."

MRS. C. S. HOWARD.

JEMISON NEWS

Jemison high school celebrated its first commencement last week. This marked the most successful year of school work Jemison has ever had.

On Wednesday night Dr. J. O. Williams of Athens, Ala., preached the commencement sermon. It was a great sermon. We wish we could hear such sermons more often.

Thursday night the senior play was given. This was a great success. Thanks to Mrs. Edwards for her fine work in connection with this play.

On Frdiay night we had the graduating exercises. Dr. B. T. Waifs of Bessemer made the graduating address. He came recommended to us as one of the leading preachers of the state. He lived up to his name.

Diplomas were awarded to eight students of the school, by the principal.

How to build up your Weight

Increase your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the sure way! S.S.S. builds Blood-Cells; this means strength!

Do you know why insurance companies refuse to insure a great many men because they are under weight? Simply because to be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus energy, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Hollow cheeks fill out. You stop being a calamity-looker. You inspire confidence. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them. Take S. S. S. It contains only pure vegetable medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.

"A Dead Shot"

is a thick liquid composed of poisoned molasses, and other ingredients for the purpose of making it stick and to attract the weevils.

Just apply to cotton with a hand mop made with a rag and a stick. Costs about $5.00 an acre or less for the entire season including labor, and will enable you to make a good crop if you begin early and follow directions.

WEEVILNIP is a tried and true product, now in its third year on the market.

Read these letters from reliable men who used WEEVILNIP.

Smith & Crane, of Augusta, Ga., 1922 users of WEEVILNIP have bought a car for use in 1923.

W. C. Edler, who used WEEVILNIP in 1922 has bought 100 barrels for use in 1923, and has them in his warehouse, ready for use.

G. W. Parker of Gainesville, Fla., who used two barrels in 1922 has bought 45 barrels for his 1923 crop.

J. E. Harrison, of Alachua, Fla., used three barrels in 1922 and has bought 45 barrels for 1923.

Zebulon, Ga., Dec. 29, 1922.
I purchased a car of WEEVILNIP late this season—too late to give it a fair test and while this WEEVILNIP was not guaranteed to me I did not desire to put off a "humbug" on my neighbors, so I sold it in small quantities on a strict guarantee that if it did not rain within three days and did not kill all their weevils within three days to come right back and get their money. Not a single customer asked for the return of his money.

G. D. DOMINECK.

Marshallville, Ga., Oct. 5, 1922.
It gives us great pleasure to say to you that WEEVILNIP helped our cotton very much. We used other poisons but yours was far superior to any of them. We expect to use it again another season.

I am one of the mony users of WEEVLNIP in the Rio Grande Valley. Am using on whole crop. The wonderful results as shown in testimonials from Georgia and other states for last season are fully sustained and that WEEVILNIP is a wonder we are wholly convinced.

OVER A HUNDRED STILLS DESTROYED

One hundred and three stills, 58,410 gallons of beer and 1,571 gallons of whiskey, also 18 bottles of home brew and 12 cases of alcohol were destroyed, and 203 arrests made by the state law enforcement officers during the month of May. These are some of the many interesting facts contained in his report for the month of May to Governor William W. Brandon by Chief Walter K. McAdory, of the state law enforcement department.

The 203 arrests were made for the following offenses: Distilling 28; possessing still 6; violation of prohibition laws 87; murder 2; violating license law 5; carrying concealed weapons 5; gaming 41; disturbing public worship 1; public drunkenness 6; operating gaming house 1; impersonating officer 1; conspiracy 6; assault and battery 2; burglary 1; larceny 3; disorderly conduct 5; vagrancy 2; abusive language 1.

In addition to the stills, beer, whiskey, home brew and alcohol destroyed, property confiscated shows 5 Ford touring cars, 1 Nash touring car, 1 Buick touring car, 1 Ford truck, 1 wagon and 2 mules. Under the heading of disposition of May cases, 42 convictions are shown with only one acquittal and one case nolle prossed; one case was abated by death.

Under the disposition of old cases is shown 58 convictions, 5 nolle prossed and 7 acquittals. Sentences imposed in many cases include 3 to 12 months imprisonment, and one each for 16 months; 5 years, two to 3 years, 4 years, 13 to 15 months and a year and a day. Sentences imposed in old cases were one each for 1 to 4 years, 2 to 4 years, 10 years, a year and a day, 22 months, 13 to 15 months, 18 months to 2 years and 15 to 18 months.

Cash fines in May cases, aggregated $285.55 and in old cases $3810.05, or a total of $6,66.60. Expenses including salaries of $283.33 and other expenses of $1,888.08, or a total of $4,872.41, leaving an excess of receipts over expenditures of $177.1.

MAY MARRIAGES

The following marriage licenses were issued from the probate office of Chilton county during the month of May:

Augustus Caton and Miss Hilda Mae Johnson.

Wilbert Lee Boone and Miss Levie Barron.

Sie Watley and Miss Welthas Robinson..

A. A. Danielson and Mrs. Mary Anderson.

Enoch Adams and Miss Luna Belle Mims.

J. C. Headley and Mrs. Sallie Maddox.

Lorenzo E. Blalock and Miss Elsie Bee Miller.

Eural Roy and Miss Margaret Gothard.

Truman Lockhart and Miss Jettie Hester.

William E. Petty and Miss Lula Belle Bates.

Preston H. Milling and Miss Eula Gray Sample.

Marvin P. Davenport and Miss Carrie Billingsley.

We are proud to report that Mrs. W. W. Robinson, who was operated on at the Central Alabama Hospital week before last is still getting along fine. She hopes to be released now in about a week.

Sheriff Littlejohn and Gillespie in More Raids

Sheriff Littlejohn, with the aid of Deputy Taylor and Federal Agent Gillespie, succeeded Saturday in capturing two negroes, who have for the past several months been suspicioned by officers of furnishing a large portion of the illicit liquor in this section. The negroes were T. S. Peavey and Joseph Leonard, and they were arrested at Peavey's home on the Higgins place, 7 miles southwest of Clanton. The still, a 60-gallon galvanized outfit, was found in a small hedge 150 yards from the house in which Peavey lived. The condenser when found was still warm from the run which had just been completed. One gallon of whiskey and three barrels of beer were destroyed by the officers. Peavey and Leonard were both brought to Clanton and lodged in the county jail.

The officers of this county are sparing no efforts to run down the violators of the prohibition laws. During the past ten days eight men and two negro women have been arrested and brought before the court facing the charge of violating the prohibition laws.

JOE KIMBALL ARRESTED

S. L. Hawk, night policeman of Clanton, Monday night arrested Joe Kimball in West End for public drunkenness. With the aid of Chief of Police Foshee and Sheriff Littlejohn, the drunken man was brought to the county jail and placed therein.

The city police force deserve to be commended for their vigilance in seeing that the laws inside the corporate limits are recognized. We note that they are in hearty co-operation with the county officers in working outside of Clanton, and the county force in turn is always ready to help the city officers. This is a fine way for them to work together, for in unity there is strength. When these two forces combine and get in behind a lawless person, he had better be mighty sharp lest he be apprehended and caught.

MORE WHISKY HEADS CAUGHT

Last Sunday Sheriff Littlejohn and Deputy Johnson raided the house of Bolling Robinson at the old Sebe Robinson place. No whiskey was found in the house, but while the officers were talking with Robinson outside Mrs. Robinson escaped from the house with some whiskey. The officers overtook her just as she broke the jug. The woman was later placed under bond.

Late Sunday afternoon Deputy Culp and Gillespie caught Johnnie Burnett, R. C. Burnett and Jim Knight with one gallon and one quart of whiskey in a large automobile owned by Knight. This occurred between Collins Chapel and Stumps Hills. The car was taken in charge by the officers. Knight was placed in jail and the Burnetts were released on bond.

SOME BULL FROG

A certain fellow who lives close to Providence in Beat 16 is always happening to something unusual. One time, if we remember correctly, he got a watermelon off the Christmas tree. But this one beats that to death. He now brings to town the bona fide report that he has around his place a bull frog that had the nerve to catch a frying size chicken the other day. If you want to know the details of the thing, ask Monroe Parrish.

BIG 4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION HERE

Edior Union-Banner:

We would like to have space in your paper to announce our program for the 4th of July celebration here. We want everybody in the county (and outside of the county too) to be here as a committee on music and entertainment. We have decided to have a contest on singing. To do this we want each community in the county to get up a class of about 20 and to make it interesting we will have a contest on the best male quartet and the best mixed quartet.

Now, we know that there is some good singers in this county, so select your director and get busy. All that want to get in on this contest, please let us know not later than June the 24th, so we will know how to make arrangements.

We would like for each community to get in this contest. We know we can't all get the blue ribbon, but let's make the crowd that does get it stand up and take notice. For further information, write either of the following committee:

J. L. GORE,
T. J. LITTLEJOHN,
W. G. CULP,

ABOUT SCHOOL ELECTION

Editor Union-Banner:

Permit me to say just a thing or two about our election we are to have in proposed school district A on June the 15th. I understand that there is a report prevalent among some of our people that it means consolidation of our schools. That is a mistake. We people at Jemison have almost completed a building at a cost of about $11,000. If it meant the consolidation of our school with Clanton or any toher school, commonsense would tell you I would oppose it. I suppose that I was about the firs o advoctae the now proposed district. I did that because I felt it unfair for Clanton and a few other schools to share alone the taxes to be derived from Lock 12. I was born and reared in the rural communities and love hte people in them, and am advocating this plan in order that these people may be helped. The boys and girls in these communities are just as bright as those in any other place in the world and I want them to have a chance to make good.

I trust that every community in the proposed district will vote in favor of this plan.

B. LAWRENCE.

THE DEATH OF MR. J. D. OUSLEY

It was during the quietness and stillness of the early morning hour of May 30, 1923, that our Heavenly Father sent His death angel to visit the Baptist Hospital of Selma, and took away the sweet spirit of our neighbor and friend, Mr. John Ousley, who was born Dec. 12, 1854.

All was done that children, doctors and nurses could do but we can only submit to the will of God who wants us to trust and obey.

Mr. Ousley rendered to this community a long life of loving and faithful service, ever ready to lend a helping hand when it was necessary.

He was a member of the Baptist church for 42 years and part of this time he served as a deacon. The appreciation of his love was shown in many ways on the day of his funeral by the presence of so many friends and many beautiful flowers.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. John Deramus. The Scripture readings were from Corinthians 13 chapter. The body was laid to rest in the Alpine Cemetery.

The deceased is survived by seven sons, five daughters, a number of grandchildren, two brothers and two sisters.

We extend our greatest sympathy to the bereaved family and may they find comfort in serving God and preparing to meet their loved one where heartaches shall be no more.

Therefore be it resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Alabama Baptist for publication.

Mrs. C. Harris, Mrs. A. B. Jones, Miss Mamie Walker, Committee.

ALL-DAY SINGING AT REFUGE

There will be an all-day singing at this place the third Sunday in June. All singers are cordially invited to come, and all others are welcome. Come all and bring your 1923 song books of each kind and let us all join in together in singing praises to our redeemer.

MRS. HOLLOWAY DEAD

Reports reached Clanton Tuesday of the sudden death of Mrs. Holloway, who was the leading lady in the Milt Tolbert Show, which showed in Clanton a few days ago. Mrs. Holloway was the widow of Milt Tolbert, who died in 1920, until she later became the wife of the leading player of the show, Mr. Holloway. We are indeed sorry to learn of this lady's misfortune, as she made a number of friends while she played in Clanton.

The Milt Tolbert Show is playing in Hartselle, Ala., this week, where Mrs. Holloway died Monday.

SIXTY-FOUR STILLS DESTROYED; OVER A HUNDRED ARRESTED

Chief W. K. McAdory in Clean-up Campaign at Girard and Phenix City.—Reports to Governor.

Chief Walter K. McAdory of the state law enforcement department has just submitted a report to Governor W. W. Brandon on results obtained in prohibition law enforcement in and near Girard and Phenix City, Ala., which is considered remarkable, if indeed it has even been parelleled in this state.

This report shows that the law enforcement department in co-operation with the sheriffs of the counties of Lee and Russell, and federal agents, within the past 90 days, have destroyed 64 stills, confiscated eight automobiles, arrested approximately 120 persons for violation of the prohibition laws, and sworn out 60 warrants for vagrancy.

In addition the report states by circuit court injunction, eight places used as "bootlegging joints," in Girard have been permanently closed, also that two "well known places" in Montgomery, have likewise been closed through federal court injunction.

This statement of results forms a part of Chief McAdory's report to the governor on the work of the state law enforcement department for the month of May, and is attached thereto. Following is the full text of the statement:

Report on Conditions

"In reference to conditions in Girard and Phenix City, Russell and Lee counties, Alabama, I beg to report that during the past ninety days, with the aid of Sheriff Moon of Lee county, Sheriff Daniel of Russell county and federal prohibition agents, we have raided and destroyed in Lee and Russell counties as follows: 64 stills, ranging in capacity from 500 to 1,800 gallons each, arrested 41 men, confiscated eight automobiles, 1 wagon and 2 mules, arrested approximately 120 persons for violation of the prohibition laws, and have sworn out warrants for 60 people for vagrancy. Have caused warrants to be issued in Girard for conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, and they have each been held to the United States grand jury at Opelika, Alabama, under five hundred dollar (500) bonds. Have caused eight injunctions to be issued out of the circuit court of Russell county, Alabama, against well known places used exclusively as 'bootlegging joints' in Girard, and with the aid of Circuit Solicitor T. M. Patterson and County Solicitor B. G. Waddell, all of these places have been permanently closed under an order from Judge J. S. Williams of the circuit court of Russell county, Alabama.

Federal Action

"I beg to report further, that with the aid of T. D. Samford, U. S. attorney for this district, we applied for injunctions in the United States court of Montgomery, Alabama, to close two well known places in Montgomery, Alabama. On hearing before Henry D. Clayton, U. S. district judge for this district, these injunctions were granted. Mr. Samford intimated to me that all places in this district brought to his attention, where the evidence justified and warranted, similar action would be taken in the United States court. In this connection I desire to thank Henry D. Clayton, Judge, and T. D. Samford, U. S. district attorney, for their hearty co-operation in aiding the state law enforcement department.

"I have had the hearty co-operation of Charles M. Sartain, federal prohibition director of Alabama, and our departments have worked together for one common end, viz., the better enforcement of the prohibition laws.

"I beg to report further, that I have had the hearty co-operation of practically all of the sheriffs in the state."

EARLY MORNING FIRE IN SYLACAUGA WIPES OUT DRY GOODS STORE

Loss of $27,000 Suffered With Only $10,000 Insurance.

Sylacauga, Ala., June 4.—Early morning fire was discovered in the rear of H. Start Dry Goods company, and it soon spread over hte entire building. Before it was possible to get water into the building it became evident that the place was doomed, and all he firemen could do was to hold the flames to that building. The building with all contents was practically destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown. The store carried about $27,000 stock with $10,000 insurance. The building was owned by T. L. Hagan, and was partly covered by insurance.

On either side of this store was the Sylacauga Furniture company, and the Hammett Grocery Store. The damage to the Hammett store was only slight which consisted of damage to front and roof. However, the smoke filled the entire double store building of the Sylacauga Furniture company both up and down stairs, doing considerable damage in this manner. It is hard to estimate the ramage done here as practically everything in the store is smoke stained. The heat was so intense that the furniture store was in serious danger for a while.

Mrs. Carrie Calloway of New Mexico spent the week-end with Mrs. Burns Goodgame of Clanton.

ANOTHER FARMERS INDUSTRY

Mr. A. B. Baxley, the wide-awake and hustling manager of the United Farmers of this county, has figured out another scheme whereby the farmers can make some more money without raising cotton. His object, as explained in his letter, is to demonstrate to the farmers what can be done here by raising broom corn and putting up a small broom factory here in connection with the canning factory. We are not prepared to say what there is to this move, but from what we can see, this will prove to be about the easiest and most money-making concern at all. The machinery will not cost very much, and this corn is a very easy crop to make. It seems to us that $150 for less than two acres will be quite a nice pick-up. Read his letter elsewhere in this paper.

MONTGOMERIANS AT MITCHELL DAM

Club Members and Many Lady Friends Are Guests of the Power Company.

Civitans, their ladies and friends laid their troubles, business and otherwise, aside, Friday, for a frolic and barbecue at Mitchell's dam, as guests of the Alabama Power company.

The party, some 150 in number, traveled to and from the dam in a specially chartered train, furnished by the power company. The train left Montgomery at 9 o'clock in the morning, returning at 5 in the afternoon.

Such a frolic is unusual with the Civitan club. In the past their annual social events have been in the form of ladies' nights, celebrated in the city. A sojourn in the woods, away from the city's turmoil proved a novelty.

Upon arriving at the dam, attaches of the power company took the party in hand. They were showed over the premises; had the club rooms thrown open to them and were carried over the project, where they saw the great dynamos at which the electric power supplying a great part of this section is generated. Capacity of the two units they saw at work is 48,000 horse power.

Impromptu talks featured the luncheon hour, at which barbecue with all the trimmings were served. Following invocation by Rabbi Swartz the guests were welcomed in a short address by J. M. Barrie, manager of the southern division of the Alabama Power company, assistant chief engineer at the time Mitchell dam was constructed. R. M. Johnston, of the power company, repeated Mr. Barrie's words of welcome.

Musical numbers with Mrs. W. O. Washburn, Mrs. Charles Ingalls and Mrs. J. C. Haygood were on the program.

Marion Rushton, president of the Civitans, delivered a short address in which he outlined the hopes of the club in a civic way and reviewed in part the club's activities in the past.

He was followed by Mayor William A. Gunter. Mayor Gunter dispensed witticisms and warned that he "is now mayor" and things were in a fair way t oimprove within the incorporate limits of the Capitol City.

Civitans, upon their return to Montgomery, voiced their pleasure unanimously at the outing, with the general observance, Friday, wouldn't be forgotten soon by those present.

ED PLIER BUILDING HOUSES

Mr. Ed Plier is doing a noble work in the building business. After hiring Mr. Osce Rich and his father to clean off the old shacks on his lots on Fourth Street and First Avenue, Mr. Plier is proceeding to put up several nice modern bungalows there. This is a work in Clanton which has been needed doing for a long time.

MEETING AT COURT HOUSE NEXT SATURDAY P. M.

A meeting will be held at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the matter of the boundary line between this and Coosa county. The people of Coosa county are awake to this matter, and Chilton had better look after her interests now.

CLANTON ON JULY FOURTH

Boys and Girls—Don't Fail to Read This.

We are going to offer a prize of $5.00 to the boy or girl anywhere in Chilton county, who will make us the best poster advertising our Fourth of July Celebration. If you want to enter this contest see Mr. Wilkerson and he will tell you more about it. Posters must be finished and turned in to Mr. Wilkerson by June 18th.

Mr. J. C. Jones made a business trip to Montgomery on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. Baumheim of Mobile will be the guest of Miss Bettie Mullins and mother for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Plier of Mitchell Dam spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Plier.

Miss Kathleen Mullins will leave today for a visit to Mrs. Hughes Kennedy in Birmingham.

See Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk—a riot of fun and laughter.

Missionary Society Meets.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Eric Hart on last Monday. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. J. C. Jones. Outstanding committees were heard and Circle reports were all favorable. Definite plans for the 4th of July picnic were made and committee appointed for same. The hostess served sandwiches and tea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Page left Sunday for a motor trip to various Florida cities.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Parrish of Deland, Fla., were the guestts of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Luckie a few days this week.

Lost.

You will have lost the opportunity of a life-time, to have a good time and lots of fun if you miss that barbecue at Clanton on July Fourth.

Miss Roberta Curry will leave Saturday for a week's visit to Dr. and Mrs. Joe oJhnson in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Misses Maud Wagoner and Lona Thompson left this week for Jacksonville to attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Horn of Troy were visitors to Clanton this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Gerald.

Mr. Frank Mullins left Sunday for Birmingham and will attend Howard College during the summer.

Miss Helen Sewell of Deland, Fla., is spending this week as the guest of Miss Sara Luckie.

Wanted.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie spent last Friday with her mother in Montgomery.

Mrs. T. C. McSwain has as her guest for several days Mrs. Arden Allen of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dum of Montgomery are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. N. A. Kicker.

Mr. Grady Reynolds made a business trip to Birmingham Tuesday.

Mrs. Renfroe Mullins and sons returned home from Montgomery last Friday.

Read This.

We extend an invitation to all Clanton and its vicinity and to Verbena, Thorsby, Jemison, Maplesville, Marbury and all our neighboring towns to come to Clanton on July the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk makes other home talent plays look like a last year's almanac.

Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk will be present at Chilton County High school on June 22.

Card Club Meets.

On last Wednesday afternoon Miss Kathleen Mullins was a charming hostess to the members of her card club and friends. Those enjoying the affair were received on the spacious porch, made inviting with ferns and cut flowers. After a series of games, Mrs. Hance Alred was given a pretty flower jar for highest score, and a salad plate with iced tea was served to Mrs. Hance Alred, Mrs. Frank Callen, Mrs. Grady Reynolds, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. T. C. McSwain and Miss Bettie Mullins.

Picnic at Verbena.

A party of Clanton folks were guests of Verbena friends at a picnic there Monday. Those invited to come down were Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. Hance Alred, Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Mrs. John Browder, Mrs. Parrish, Missts Kathleen Mullins and Roberta Curry, Chas. Moore and Helen and Joe Moore.

Found.

You will have found how much fun a fellow can get out of life if you come to that Fourth of July barbecue.

Miss Irene Jones has gone to Montevallo to attend summer school.

Mrs. Luckie Hostess.

On last Thursday, Mrs. R. E. Luckie opened the doors of her hospitable home to the members of the Sewing Club and spent the day sewing for Miss Roberta Curry. The home was attractive with bowls of bright colored nasturtrims and fragrant sweet peas. At the noon hour a bounteous luncheon was served. Enjoying the affair were Rev. Mrs. Chas. Wilkerson, Mrs. Barney Roberts, Mrs. Macy Jones, Mrs. Hugh Simpson, Mrs. John Armstrong, Mrs. M. A. Gore, Mrs. Watts Moore, Mrs. T. C. McSwain, Misses Kathleen Mullins and Roberta Curry.

MISS EULA BELL CULVER MARRIED IN BIRMINGHAM

Quite a surprise took place last Tuesday when Miss Eula Bell Culver, formerly of Clanton, and Mr. Louis A. Schloemer of Louisville, Ky., were married at the home of Mrs. S. P. McElreath of Norwood.

The marriage was announced for June 2nd, but at the regular Bible class, held on Tuesday evening, the crowd, assisted by the pleadings of the groom, overcame the timidity of the bride and they were made man and wife by Rev. W. P. McLennan.

They will be at home after June 15th at No. 1124 North 32nd Street, Birmingham, Ala.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment? The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

NOTICE

of Filing of Bill of Complaint Against One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile.

State of Alabama, Complainant, vs. One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, Respondent. In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama, In Equity.

The Bill of Complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of G. C Walker, as County Solicitor of Chilton County, against One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, being exhibited to me and the Bill as Amended, and it appearing therefrom that on the 16th day of February, 1923, Lenwood Klinner did transport in the said, One Five-Passenger Ford Automobile, certain prohibited liquors and beverages, from one point in the State of Alabama to another, and that said automobile was on said day seized by the Sheriff of Chilton County, Alabama, and said Bill praying that said automobile be forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof:

It is therefore ordered and decreed that notice of the filing of said Bill of Complaint be given for three successive weeks in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 21st day of June, 1923, and that failing so to do, the said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

Given under my hand this the 21st day of May, 1923.

Mr. Luther Bean of Clanton spent Saturday night with his cousin, Miss Lessie Vinzant.

Next Saturday night and Sunday are our regular preaching days. We invite everybody to come and be with us.

There will be pabtizing at this place next Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

LIBERTY HILL

Health of this community is not so good just now, as the measles are very popular. Several cases have put in their appearence, others are expected, which will interfere with the progress of farm work in some families, as much so as the rainy weather has caused. Lots of farmers have the "blues" but hope their faces will soon wear a smile when "Old Sol" shows his face enough to kill the grass.

Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. was more popular than usual as there was a large crowd attended Sunday a.m.

The singing was very good in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gardner and daughter of Verbena were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ward, attending the singing here Sunday, also the Saturday night entertainment at Miss Avelene Littlejohn's was an enjoyable affair.

Mrs. Ethel Scarbrough of Birmingham and children are visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Foshee.

Miss Lilly Smith leaves this week for Jacksonville, where she will attend normal school there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mims were visitors to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Taylor Sunday.

Mr. Ed Ward of Lomax was a visitor to his father Sunday.

Mr. N. G. Ward and Miss Birdie Bridges were the guests of the Misses Gussie and Lamurel Littlejohn Sunday.

Miss Marie Morris and Paul Littlejohn were among the many at this place Sunday.

Mr Lecroy of Mulberry was the guest of Miss Eula Giles Sunday.

Mr. Jim Smith and family of near Clanton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes one day last week.

Mr. Oliver Duke went over to Coosa county to visit his mother Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Adams and little son of Shelby are visitors at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes for several days.

ANOTHER WAY TO MAKE MONEY

Editor Union-Banner:

I wish to say through the columns of your paper that I have made a number of investigations of different things that our farmers here could make money out of by turning a little time and attention that way.

First of all I believe in making a living at home. If we would think more about making a living instead of thinking so much about putting in a big cotton acreage to make lots of money, I am positively sure that we would get along better. Yet it is not best to put the whole crop in beans or potatoes or any other one crop. The only reasonable remedy for the South is diversification.

No living human can tell what the result of a year like this will be. It could be this or that and we should prepare for whatever it may be.

A letter of this kind may seem a bit out of season and yet there is plenty of time for a number of late crops. Most farmers have a field or patch of oats that is now being cleared of its first crop, and a second crop can be made to pay as well or better than the first. This second crop may be peas, beans, or clovers.

Another thing that will make a good crop after oats is broom corn, and I might say here that this is one of the things that I have investigated and am fully convinced that we can make some money on the side by growing it. I have talked with a number of farmers here who have grown it on a small scale and they tell me that this soil produces an extra fine grade of broom corn. Reports show that this will be worth about $150.00 or $150.00 per ton.

After talking with a number of farmers, we have decided to plant a small acreage in broom corn here this year and build a Broom Factory to manufacture the brooms this fall.

Any farmer who may have some ground not yet planted to something else may plant it in broom corn and be assured of a market for it, or he may plant part of his stubble land for brooms.

Several farmers that I have mentioned this to have agreed to plant from one to three and one-half acres. Twenty-five acres will be enough to demonstrate what can be done along this line. There is one thing I know, the boll weevil will not get your broom corn.

Farmers who have the seed for sale will please bring them to my office in Clanton at once. If you are interested in trying some broom corn and want some seed, please notify me at once.

Yours for co-operation and success,

A. B. BAXLEY.

GRAY TOWN NEWS

Miss Lena Dykes, who has the measles, is on foot again, we are glad to say.

The farmers are in grass so after all of the rains recently, they hardly stop work to eat dinner nowadays.

Rev. B. F. Dykes from Thorsby spent a few hours in his mother's home here Sunday a.m.

Misses Mary and Emma Gray spent the day Sunday with their cousins, Misses Verbie and Vesta Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Anderson from Irondale were down on a short visit recently. We were all glad to see them.

NEW SALEM

Last Sunday was our regular preaching day here. Quite a large crowd attended the service.

Sunday evening was our regular singing evening. Several were present. Directors for the afternoon were Mr. Henderson Hays, Mr. Gip Melton, Mr. Tommie Maddox, Miss Ivy Bean, Miss Pauline Maddox, and Mr. Henry Hays. Organists were Miss Inez Hays, Mrs. Mandie Cox and Miss Pauline Maddox. A mixed quartette was rendered by some of the home singers.

Our singing meets every first Sunday afternoon. We invite all the singers to come and help us out in our singing.

Miss Loutishie Bean, Mr. Roy Huett, Miss Pearl Cox, Mr. Edgar Huett, Miss Claudie Davis, Miss Estelle Collins and Miss Essie Mae Cox were the guests of Miss Pauline Maddox Sunday.

Miss Ivy Bean was the guest of Miss Inez Hays Sunday.

CANE CREEK

The measles have about died out in this community.

The rain still continues at this writing, and Gen. Green is making a head-long raid on the farmers, but they are still in hope that the rain will cease before it's too late.

Rev. Parrish filled his regular appointment here Sunday, delivering one of the finest sermons, we believe, we ever heard. We had quite a number of visitors to whom we express our many thanks and cordially invite them to come again.

Next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock we shall meet here and organize a singing society to meet on certain afternoons in each month. We especially urge all who are interested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Clackler attended the singing at Lomax Sunday afternoon.

Misses Nora and Zora Miner spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Zula Willis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ellison visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williamson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson visited at Mr. J. N. Miner's Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of the deceased, Mr. J. N. Woolley, wish to take this means of conveying our deepest appreciation and heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their nice and courteous assistance during the illness and death of our beloved father and husband who has gone to greet the loved ones gone before and is beckoning to us all to follow in his righteous path. May we so live that we can all join him in that celestial city.

Mrs. J. N. Woolley and Family.

A KLANSMAN'S PETITION

Teach me that sixty minutes make an hour, sixteen ounces one pound and one hundred cents one dollar.

Help me so to live that I can lie down at night and have a clear conscience, without a gun under my pillow and unhaunted by the faces of those to whom I have brought pain.

Grant that I may earn my meal ticket on the square and that in earning it I may do unto others as I would have them do unto me.

Deafen me to the jingle of tainted money and to the rustle of unholy skirts.

Blind me to the faults of the other fellow but reveal to me my own.

Guide me so that each night, when I look across the dinner table at my wife, who has been a blessing to me, I shall have nothing to conceal.

Keep me young enough to laugh with little children and sympathetic enough to be considerate of old age.

And when comes the day of darkened shades and the smell of flowers—the tread of soft footsteps and the crunching of wheels in the yard—make the ceremony short and the epitaph simple. Here lies a Klansman.—The Imperial Night-Hawk.

GETS 100TH STILL

Sheriff Falkner, of Shelby County, Makes Record Since January

Columbiana, Ala., June 4.—Sheriff Falkner has now rounded out the capture of his one hundredth still in Shelby county since he became sheriff in January. His forces captured two large stills Thursday, two the day before and landed four men in jail.

No sheriff in Alabama has a better record than Falkner, it is believed. He has had to contend perhaps with the worst stilling districts in the state. His record as a law enforcement officer is talked of and recognized in almost every nook and corner in the state.

SOLDIERS' HOME TO CELEBRATE ON 4TH

The Soldiers' Home will celebrate the 4th of July, 1923, in a becoming manner.

Rev. Haglett will deliver an address. There will be an all-day singing and refreshments on the ground.

Mrs. J. T. Fowler has been appointed a committee of one to attend to details.

The Home will be glad to welcome visitors. The grounds and building will be open to all.

Capt. [illegible], commandant of Camp 1911, U. C. V., will be glad to welcome all who come and assist old confederates to observe the day we celebrate.

CAUGHT SUNDAY GAMING

The sheriff's force, early Sunday morning, caught Jim Connell, Dock Gamble and Ernest Stone, engaged in gaming at Connell's home two miles east of Clanton. The three were placed under arrest and brought to jail, but later procured bond and were released, awaiting trial.

Before Baby Comes

THERE are thousands of expectant mothers who undergo much useless suffering for months before, as well as at the moment when delivery occurs. These months of suffering, with nerves and vital organs weakened, leave their effect upon the child. An eminent physician found the way to stop much of this unnecessary suffering—the same easy way which thousands of mothers have used for three generations.

Mrs. Walter S. Hadley, Bridgeport, Ind., says: "Before my little boy came I was so paralyzed in my hips and limbs I could hardly walk, and some days after a little extra exertion I couldn't walk a step. I felt it coming on this time; in fact, I could hardly get up when I sat down, but now, after using one bottle of Mother's Friend, I am so much better. I feel that I almost owe my life to Mother's Friend."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally to the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates remarkably, permitting the easier relaxation and distension of muscles, nerves, tissues and ligaments, and their constant easier readjustment during expectancy and at child-birth. Have no more fear or dread, mother! Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better.

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse, and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor, because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. For three generations "Mother's Friend" has relieved expectant mothers of much useless suffering. Mother! you must avoid mere greases and useless substitutes. Begin using "Mother's Friend" today. It is sold at drug stores—everywhere.

It must be super-alluring bait which the Democrats of Chilton county use to catch some of our semi-conscious Republicans, for they swallowed the bait, sinker, cork and all.

It's a hard matter for us and Brother Fox to keep up with that drainage petition, but we are not going to let it get lost. We are going to drain these swamps if it takes till 1999.

When a "Republican" official gets exorbitant laudatory praise in a Democratic newspaper, there is prima facie evidence that there is something rotten somewhere.

The Masons have their big conventions in Washington when the Republicans are in power, but the Knights of Columbus have theirs there when the Democrats are in control at the Capital.

The Republican party is united on Harding for their standard-bearer in 1924. He has a record behind him that is decidedly laudable, and he has expressed himself as unreservedly "dry." A good combination.

The Democratic party seems to be rather nervous over the recent action of Governor Smith of New York, in which he gives a big lift to the wets. We imagine this action doesn't set very well with Mr. Bryan and his followers.

We are publishing this week the bill before the State legislature regarding Sunday observance. We hope our readers will take time to read it, as this will be an important matter before the law makers when they meet again in July.

A few so-called "Republicans" in Chliton county are using their efforts officially and otherwise to put the Democrats in power in our county. And unless the Republicans of the county open their eyes and quit putting these whim-whammers in office, our party is destined to the rocks. A wolf dressed in a sheep's clothing is dangerous.

THE SCHOOL ELECTION

We wish to call the attention of the voters of the districts effected to the election on school matters which will be held on June 15th. We need at all times to do all we can to make our educational facilities better, and the voters of these districts should investigate the matter and come out and vote for what is to the best interest of your schools.

To those of our subscribers who want The Union-Banner for less than the regular price of $1.50 a year, we will make you the paper either three years for $3.00 or we will take a club of three subscriptions for one dollar each. We like to accommodate our friends just as much so as we possibly can, but we simply can't get out the class of paper which we are giving you and do it for one dollar a year straight. So please do not ask us to do this. We wish that we could sell it for even less than a dollar a year, but we simply cannot do it and live; so please do not try to jew us.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

To prohibit any person, firm or corporation from operating certain entertainments or amusements on Sunday where an admission fee is charged or received, or where any contribution or donation is accepted for admittance to such entertainment or amusement, to provide penalties and punishments for violation thereof, and to repeal all laws, general, local, special, or municipal in conflict with the provisions hereof, and to fix the time when this Act shall become effective.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to play or cause to be played at any place within the State any baseball game on Sunday where any fee or admission is charged, or received, or where any contribution or donation is accepted; provided, that this Section shall not apply to any person who is only a visitor or spectator.

Section 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to operate at any place within this State any moving picture show or any other theatre or show on Sunday where an admission fee is charged or received, or where any contribution or donation is accepted; provided, this Section shall not apply to purely church, school or eleemosynary associations, where the entire proceeds are used exclusively for such church, school or eleemosynary organization, free of any private or personal gain or advancement.

Section 3. Any person, firm or corporation that violates any of the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for the first offense; for a second offense hereunder any such person, firm or corporation shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars and shall also be sentenced to imprisonment or hard labor for not less than thirty days nor more than three months.

Section 4. That all laws and parts of laws, whether general, local, or special, or municipal in conflict with the provisions of this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Section 5. If any part of this Act shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not affect the remainder of same.

Section 6. This Act shall be effective sixty days after its approval by the Governor.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

At the commencement exercises on Friday night, the announcement was made of several interesting facts in regard to the graduating class at Thorsby Institute. Of the twelve members of the class, nine are residents of Thorsby and three are residents of other counties of the State of Alabama. Nine of the graduating class have done all their high school work in Thorsby Institute, so that Thorsby Institute can well claim these young men and women as Thorsby students. The senior class has made an unusually high scholarship standing, not only for the senior year but for the entire high school course. For the senior year at Thorsby Institute the highest average was 96 per cent, and there was no average lower than 88 per cent. Eight members of the class had an average of 90 or above for the senior year. For the entire high school course at Thorsby Institute the highest average was 95 per cent, and the lowest average was 86 per cent. Nine members of the class had an average of 90 per cent or above for the entire high school course. The faculty of the school has felt that this record is an unusually fine one. It is hoped that many of the students of the class will enter college and it is expected that they will make enviable records as at Thorsby Institute. The two scholarship prizes given by the class of 1923 for the next year will keep before the minds of the students of the school the example in scholarship standing set by the class of 1923.

The class night exercises that were held on Thursday evening, May 31, were carried out very successfully by the members of the class of 1923. The class responded well to the efforts that had been made by the committees and the faculty to have the program one of unqualified success. The singing, the reading of the class will and the class prophecy and the acting of the two act play, The Laughing Cure, were all given in a way that seemed very pleasant to the large audience that was gathered in the hall.

The weather proved most auspicious for the community picnic that was held on Friday, June 1st. The annual track meet and the tennis tournament proved interesting to many people. Immediately after the dinner had been served on the campus, forty girls dressed in white suits, decorated with the Thorsby colors of blue and gold, gave a gymnastic exhibition under the direction of Miss Catherine Perry, who has had charge of the gymnasium work during the past year.

The commencement exercises were held on Friday evening, June 1st, at 8 o'clock. By careful planning it was possible to seat the large number of relatives and friends who were present because of their interest in the largest graduating class that Thorsby Institute has ever sent out. The entire student body, headed by the Senior class, entered the hall to the singing of "I Heard a Sound of Voices." The processional was carried out in a finished manner. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. J. W. Davenport, pastor of the United Protestant Church of Thorsby. After the rendering of "Springtime" by the school chorus, the essay, "The Voice of the Soul" was read by Miss Mary Ella Gerald. "Leafy June is Here in Beauty," which was rendered by the girls' chorus gave credit to the training of Miss Agnes Gerald, teacher of music at Thorsby Institute. Miss Ena Grenn read the essay "How To Be Happy." These two essays had been chosen from the twelve submitted by the members of the Senior class. Both essays were considered unusually fine as high school essays and they were read in a very pleasing manner.

The address of the evening was given by the Rev. D. Witherspoon Dodge, pastor of the Congregational Church of Atlanta, Ga. This address will long b eremembered by the audience because of its inspiring eloquence. Dr. Dodge gave to the school a copy of the collection of poems entitled "It Can Be Done." Several of the poems which he recited are to be found in this collection. Following the address by Mr. Dodge, Miss Emily Ellsworth, the associate principal of Thorsby Institute, delivered the diplomas to the members of the graduating class. In a few words several outstanding facts in regard to the unusual standing of thae class were given to the audience. Miss Ellsworth also awarded the annual prizes to the members of the school. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. E. W. Butler, of Thorsby, Ala.

Town students at Thorsby Institute may go to the office for report cards from Thursday morning until Saturday noon.

Rev. B. F. Dykes, Mr. N. O. Sappington and Mr. Ralph Whittle left Thorsby on Monday morning for Montevallo, where they will conduct a business campaign for some days.

Before leaving Thorsby Mrs. Gerald was given a surprise party by ladies of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society who presented her with a token of their esteem and good will.

Let us do your job printing.

Mr. Thirwell Nolen of Alexander City, came to Thorsby to attend the commencement festivities.

Miss Annie Hughes entertained her mother and brother during commencement.

Mr. Yancey Kelley had members of his family as his guests for commencement.

Mrs. Hattie M. Gerald, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Mary Ella and Iola Gerald, left Thorsby on Saturday for Demorest, Ga., to be present at the commencement exercises of Piedmont College. Mr. Sumner Gerald is a member of the graduating class. Later Mrs. Gerald and daughters will go to North Carolina to spend the summer.

The library at Thorsby Institute will be open to the public on every Friday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. A librarian will be in attendance at that time and it is hoped that the residents of Thorsby will avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy the splendid facilities of the library.

Mr. Luther Davenport has moved his family from Jemison, where he was employed in Wm. E. Goodgame's planing mill. Mr. Davenport has rented one of Mrs. Villadsen's cottages and will take up work on the new gin house which Mr. Goodgame will erect at Thorsby.

Mr. Sumner Gerald intends to spend most of his vacation in the harvest fields in northern states. In the Fall he will return to Demorest, Ga., where he has secured a good position as a member of the high school faculty at that place.

Richard Hastings Butler Prizes

A letter from Edward Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Howard, informs his parents that he secures his discharge from the U. S. Navy June 1st, as a first-class electrician, and has already received an offer of a good position in the employ of the Edison company. Mr. Howard is expected to make a visit to his people before taking up any employment. He is one of our Thorsby boys who has taken advantage of the opportunity offered by our U. S. Navy for a four years term of travel and education in some vocation that will fit young men to fill responsible positions when their term of enlistment expires. Mr. Howard appears to be one of that class who has "made good."

NEW SALEM BITS

Health is good around here, so far as we know.

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days, but on account of so much rain and work to do, we had no service Saturday, but had a real good sermon Sunday, and singing in the afternoon was also good.

Our revival services begins on Saturday before the first Sunday in August.

Mrs. Cora Smith had for her dinner guests Sunday quite a crowd of her Sunday school scholars.

Mr. and Mrs. Clary Burnett visited Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Maddox Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Snoten Hays visited his sister, Mrs. Lillie Bean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hays were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Caton Sunday.

Mr. Alonzo Robinson and wife of Clanton were at preaching Sunday. Mr. Robinson was gladly received into our church as one of our members. We welcome them back again.

Mr. Wm. Martin, who is working in Georgia, is visiting his home folks for a few days this week.

We want to remind the social members that we meet still on Thursday afternoon before the 3rd Sunday in each month. It seems that most of them have forgotten the time, as they have almost quit coming. Remember the time now and come next time and see what we are doing. You may get behind if you don't come.

Chamberlian's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy

Every family should keep this preparation at hand during the hot of the summer months. It is almost sure to be neded, and when that time comes, is worth many times its cost. Buy it now.

The New Cafe

I have taken back in charge the management of The New Cafe next to Ellis Filling Station and will operate the same in the future. I intend to give first-class service and guarantee to serve sanitary and wholesome meals. My prices are consistent with the times.

"A Dead Shot"
WEEVILNIP
is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors for the purpose of attracting the boll weevils and killing them.

Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.

WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

John O'Keefe of Sharon, Ga., sold and used 20 barrels in 1922 and has bought 35 barrels for 1923.

George A. Zellner, Forsyth, Ga., used 5 barrels in 1922 and bought 45 barrels for 1923 to be shipped April first.

J. W. Wilson, of Dacula, Ga., from results of a five-gallon keg shipped in 1922 to A. M. Wilson Co., bought one car for April first shipment.

Read the following letters from reliable men who saved their crops of cotton by using WEEVILNIP:

Pharr, Texas, May 28, 1923.
Having applied WEEVILNIP to my cotton where weevils were plentiful making three different tests in my own way and find the weevils have been entirely eliminated so far as I can tell and with these tests have to admit that I believe WEEVILNIP will do what you claim for it.
CHAS. CARMICHAEL.

Colfax, La., May 28, 1923.
After fair test WEEVILNIP has cleaned my field of boll weevils.
R. B. ROACH.

Clanton, Ala., R. No. 4, Dec. 25, 1922
"This is the first crop of cotton I have made since the boll weevil first came into this section of the country, although I have made every effort possible. I don't think I will ever try to raise another cotton crop without WEEVILNIP."
J. W. MIMS.

Thorsby, Ala., R. No. 1, Dec. 25, 1922
"It was late in the season when I received my WEEVILNIP and the boll weevils were knocking off all the fruitage of the cotton plants. I made one application on Saturday, July 1st, 1922, and the next day it came a pretty heavy rain, but in spite of the rain the 'NIP' destroyed all that crop of weviels and caused the cotton to hold all the squares it put on until about July 25th. Thsi one application resulted in the production of 965 pounds lint cotton on 2 1-2 acres."
A. L. FOSHEE.

Winterville, Ga., July 15, 1922.
"After three or four days (after using WEEVILNIP) I offered $10.00 for each weevil that was found on my cotton. Several people came and looked for them but found not a single weevil."
T. L. IVESTOR.

PRICES OF WEEVILNIP

New Orleans Cotton

New Orleans, June 4.—Declines and advances were mixed otgether in the trading in cotton today as the result of a conflict of inflences. A much better opening of the weather over the belt was against values, while more inquiry for spots was with them and had the effect of strengthening the July position. The close was characeristic of the whole session, it being 19 points up to 11 points up net for the day, July closing at the range of 26.33c to 26.34c a pound, while October closed at 22.52c to 22.54c. On the close July was up, while the new crop positions were down.

Momentarily, on the opening, July was strong, standing 16 points up in sympathy with a better Liverpool than due, and spot sales there of 14,000 bales, the largest spot sales in many days in the English market. Reports of rains in Texas and fair weather in the eastern belt, just conditions desired in those sections, almost immediately caused heavy selling and the whole list sank under it. Lowest levels for the entire session soon were reached, July dropping to 25.78c and October to 22c. Here the list was 36 to 58 points under the close of last week.

Recoveries of $1 to $1.50 a bale resulted when official weather returns did not show as much rain in Texas as privately reported, but recoveries were followed by fresh breaks and from then on to the close it was a series of ups and downs. Spot news soon after midsession had prices at their highest, at gains over Saturday's close of 7 to 24 points, July standing at 26.38c and October at 22.67c.

A Wish

"I have taken Cardui for rundown, worn-out condition, nervousness and sleeplessness, and I was weak, too," says Mrs. Silvie Estes, of Jennings, Okla. "Cardui did me just lots of good—so much that I gave it to my daughter. She complained of a soreness in her sides and back. She took three bottles of

CARDUI

and her condition was much better.

"We have lived here, near Jennings, for 26 years, and now we have our own home in town. I have had to work pretty hard, as this country wasn't built up, and it made it hard for us.

"I WISH I could tell weak women of Cardui—the medicine that helped give me the strength to go on and do my work."

LAWLEY NEWS

Rev. Foster Mills of Tuscaloosa preached a wonderful sermon here last Sunday at the church. Many more people attended services Sunday than for a long time; the house was almost full. We are indeed glad to see the people becoming more interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliffton McGee and three children of Randolph were among the visitors here last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Latham are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine 9-lb. baby boy last Wednesday, who they have named Forrest Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cost are the proud parents of a fine baby girl born last Thursday.

Dr. Cleveland of this place has been in Birmingham for some time with his daughter, Olene, who is very low with pneumonia. The last news received was that she isn't expected to live. This is indeed very sad news to her many friends, for she is a very young girl whom everybody loves. We only pray that there may be a chance for her to live. She is such a bright and noble girl. Olene had been in Birmingham since her graduation at B. C. H. S., and held a good position there.

Miss Ruth Terry and a friend of hers from Plantersville were here Sunday visiting Mr. Will Joe and sister, Miss Virginia Mount.

Miss Olivia Latham entertained a number of her friends last Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Latham. All who attended report a very pleasant time. Olivia is noted for her hospitality, and it is indeed a privilege to be invited to her home.

Mr. Eugene Adams was called to the bedside of his father, Mr. Frank Adams of Maplesville last Sunday. The news came here that he is very sick. This is very sad news to the people of this community, as Mr. Adams is a former resident of this place. Mrs. M. E. McGee is also at Maplesville at this time with Mr. Adams, her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGee of Plantersville motored to this community Sunday to visit Mrs. Celia Hicks, mother of Mrs. McGee.

Mrs. W. P. Hicks attended the home coming day at Pleasant Grove, Shoults community, last Saturday, and she says that it was indeed a very pleasant day. The speeches and music was something wonderful, and the bountiful dinner which the good ladies of that community spread at the noon hour was something fine. The people of that community are to be commended for their hospitality and for their devotion to their church.

Mr. Lum Hicks, who has been working in Florida for some time, is at home with his family for a few days.

Mr. Irvin Johnson and little brother, Earl Clifton, left last Saturday to visit their sister, Mrs. Dewey Vinson of near Clanton.

Miss Nannie Bell Head of Centerville spent last week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Head.

Mr. Dalton Hicks and Mr. Charles Jefferson attended the home coming day at Pleasant Grove last Saturday.

Mrs. Rena Latham, who has been sick for some time, was able to attend preaching services Sunday. Her many friends are glad to see her out again.

SARDIS DOINGS

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely under the able management of Brother H. B. Ratliff, who is the superintendent. We have good attendance every Sunday morning. We cordially invite everyone to come and help us make our Sunday school better.

Misses Rosie and Alice Courtney, Mr. Dewey Deason and Mr. Edgar Headley motored to Lock 12 Sunday and epoted a nice time.

Mr. John Cherie and wife visited Mr. Homer Ratliff and wife Sunday.

Miss Eva Klinner was the guest of Misses Mattie and Beulah Chambers of Adams Sunday.

Mr. Freddie and Monroe Short motored to Fairview Sunday afternoon.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day. Everyone is invited to come. Rev. C. A. Taylor of Verbena is our pastor.

CONCERT AT MARS HILL

There will be a concert at this place Saturday night, June the 9th. The plays will be, the great turkey stealing case of water melon (Co.), and one, the waiting for the train; also a good nice movie. Good scenery for the little folks. Admission 15c, from seven years old up. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the church.

C. W. SCOTT.

NOTICE TO SENIORS OF CHILTON COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

After consulting the assistant principal, we have decided to give notice to all who expect to finish Chilton County High School next session that no pupil will be allowed to carry more than five courses. This means if you enter school next September with less than eleven units, it will be impossible for you to graduate. Do not get the idea that you can carry five studies in class and then work off one or two by examination. You will not be allowed to get credit on more than five units during the year, in all ways. You know how many units work you have. If you do not have eleven, prepare to go to a summer school at some normal or other standard school. If you can secure any person who has had two or more years of college work to "coach" you on a subject which you have taken in class an entire year, but peradventure did not pass, I will give you an examination the latter part of August to see if you can pass.

The county superintendent probably has the records for safe keeping. He will tell you, if you are in doubt about your work. See or write him. Records are not to be turned over to me until July 1, but I think you should know now how you stand for next year. Please tell any who might not see this.

IRA PEGUES.

SARDIS NEWS

The people of this community are very busy now in their crops.

Our Sunday school at this place is prospering now and we have a fine prayer service at Sardis every Sunday morning. Come and join us and help sing praises to God. We sure would like to see more of the older people come and take a part in our Sunday school and prayer services. Come on young people and let's see if we can get a B. Y. P. U. started at this place. I think it would be a fine thing. So come on and let's start it now.

Mr. Tommie McDaniel's grave was unveiled by the Woodmen Sunday and there was a large crowd who attended the services.

Misses Bertha Rainwater and Gracie Abbott were the guests of Miss Myrtle Sewell Sunday.

Misses Minnie and Linnie Headley were the guests of Misses Irene and Irona Headley Sunday.

Mr. M. M. Headley has some cotton squares in his cotton. They first appeared on the 1st day of June.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day at this place. Everybody come and help to sing praises to God.

ALL-DAY SINGING

There will be an all-day singing at Corinth Church, five miles east of Verbena on the third Sunday in June. We invite everybody to come and help us sing praises to God. Bring your 1923 Showalter and Vaughan song books, and a well filled basket.

SOLVED THE PROBLEM

"I was almost distracted with stomach trouble, gas and colic attacks and didn't know what to do. I had tried everything I heard of, and the doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and it has solved the problem, as I can now eat anything and have no distress." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Aired Drug Co. and druggists everywhere.

BETHSALEM NEWS

We are glad to say that last Sunday was our regular singing evening. We had a very large crowd with us, and we all had a fine singing. Everybody seemed to enjoy the sermon by Rev. J. D. Hughes.

Miss Bertha Bowles has returned from Thorsby high school. This is her regular home here, but it doesn't seem like it to us now, for she has been away for three months.

Miss Earmer Mae Downs of Billingsley spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Mae Bowles.

Miss Myrtle Mims spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bertha Bowles.

Mrs. Susan Moore spent Sunday with Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Vinson motored to Billingsley Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wilkins and family spent the afternoon with Mrs. Wilkin's mother and father Sunday.

We are glad to say that next Sunday is our regular preaching day and we invite everybody to come, and we know that they will hear a good sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Vinson of Billingsley spent the week-end with his mother and family.

Messrs. Newt Vinson and Oscar Davis were the guests of Misses Mae Bowles and Earmer Mae Downs Sunday afternoon.

Mr. G. Vinson and his mother spent last week with Mrs. D. Vinson, and they returned home at Prattville last Sunday.

Mr. J. A. Davis was the guest of Misses Girtie and Estelle Friday Sunday afternoon.

Everybody remember our preaching days next Saturday and Sunday. Everybody is invited to come about 10 or 10:30 for Sunday school.

We have been having prayer meeting every Sunday night for a long time and it seems to get better every time. We invite everybody to come and help us make it a success.

Cheap Flour is False Economy

It is a fact that a high-grade flour requires less shortening, less baking powder, fewer eggs. Good cooks have told us that they use just half as much lard when baking with Gilster's Best Flour.

The small difference in cost between Gilster's Best and ordinary flours, is more than made up in the saving on ingredients. It is real economy to use Gilster's Best Flour.

If you prefer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

SHOULTS NEWS

Everybody had on a smile Saturday and Sunday and you can guess why without many guesses. Did you see the sunshine? It was hot enough to make us want to wear a hat and you can think of cotton growing, and do not forget, a little grass had some time to grow too. The farmers are just hoping that we will have some good weather for at least two weeks with a shower along too. Then you can see whether they thought best to leave the grass and have a hay crop or take it out and raise some cotton for Mr. Weevil.

Health is one of the most or most important things in life. Life cannot be a success without good health. We are glad to bring a report that has none sick in our community at this time. This is a great blessing.

O, just wish you all could have been over at the home coming day at the Baptist Church last Saturday. Editor, you missed a piece of chicken, but we had several preachers with us and you may know we did not have to throw any away. We had a great day! We had some fine speaking, special music and late in the afternoon we saw a ball game.

The program was as follows:

10:10 a.m.—Welcome Address, H. R. Oden.

10:20 a.m.—The Relation of the B. Y. P. U. to a Wise Choice, Miss Mabel Williams.

11:20 a.m.—A Sermon on Home, Mother, Church, and Heaven, Rev. J. W. Mitchen.

12:20—Dinner.

1:20 p.m.—The Origin, Work and Importance of a Sunday School, Mrs. W. T. Edwards.

2:00 p.m.—Problems of the Country Church, Rev. Jones.

2:45 p.m.—The Need of a W. M. U. in Every Church, Mrs. C. N. Parnell.

After this a talk by the pastor, Rev. W. T. Edwards ended the program.

Just before the noon hour little Elizabeth Parnell gave a recital, "Mr. Horner that lived on Grumble's Corner." In the end of her speech we were glad to hear that Mr. Horner moved over on Thanksgiving Street. How about more of us moving on this street? The speech was fine, and a great lesson is to be gotten from it. All the speeches were enjoyed and from them we are inspired to do greater and nobler things. We hope to have more days like this.

On last Saturday afternoon about 3:20 o'clock Shoults ball team made Maplesville boys realize they were going up against a strong team when playing Shoults. Our boys went on the grounds with a full determination of winning the victory. For five innings Maplesville did not score, Shoults having four. The game ended with a score of eight to four in favor of Shoults. The entire team of Shoults is due high praise for their excellent playing. Maplesville boys played a fine game but their opponents were too swift for them.

We have a good team and if you do not believe it, some of you other teams just they them out. Out of four games they have won three.

Next Saturday they go to Brent, and with intentions of winning.

Just one good thing we had almost forgotten about, Shoults got seven three base hits, Brady McAfee getting three of them, going to bat four times.

Shoults folks are waking up—they haven't been asleep, but dosing. They are working, yes, working and planning on building that annex to the Baptist church this summer, as soon as their crops are finished. The subscription committee has been doing most of the work; now the building and finance committee are working, and also everybody else. The B. Y. P. U. has been working and I believe they lead the older ones. They had some window panes and gas lights put in the church a short time back, amounting to $50.00. They have subscribed to pay $100.00 on the addition that will be made to the church. If you don't believe they are working come over in the latter part of August and it will be proven to you.

The B. Y. P. U. rendered an excellent program last Sunday night. Bro. W. T. Edwards, our pastor, was with us, we are glad to say. He is a great worker and you see it is hard for us to get out of work.

Our Union is growing rapidly, and new interest being taken. Bro. Edwards has five churches with a B. Y. P. U. in each one. He is planning, with us that knew it, suggested only last Sunday, for each B. Y. P. U. to meet at some convenient place for a big picnic the second Saturday in July. We are right up for that; always like to be learning new folks.

Last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Mood McGee entertained at their home the ball team. Fine music was played by Messrs. Grady and Leonard McGee, Mr. Jim McGee and son, Clarence with a violin and guitar. A large crowd was present and all reported a nice time.

Barbecue,—yes, a big barbecue will be at Shoults school house the 14th of July, given for the benefit of church. Thtre will be ball games, races, refreshments sold and many other things to have a good time. We will tell you more about it later. We invite preachers too, as there will be barbecued chicken.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

NOTICE

of Filing of Bill of Complaint Against J. A. Grooms, and One Five-Passenger Automobile.

State of Alabama, Complainant, vs. J. A. Grooms, and one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile. In the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama. In Equity.

The Bill of Complaint of the State of Alabama, on the relation of G. C. Walker, as County Solicitor of Chilton County, against J. A. Grooms and one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile, being exhibited to me, and it appearing therefrom that on the 4th day of May, 1923, said J. A. Grooms did transport in one Five-Passenger Buick Automobile, 1923 Model, certain prohibited liquors and beverages, from one point in the State of Alabama to another, and that said automobile was on said day seized by the Sheriff of said County, and said Bill praying that said automobile be declared forfeited to the State of Alabama, and for an order of condemnation and sale thereof:

It is therefore ordered and decreed that notice of the filing of said Bill of Complaint be given for three successive weeks in the Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, and that all persons claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in said automobile be required to appear and assert such claim by the 21st day of June, 1923, and that failing so to do, the said right, title or interest will be forever barred.

Given under my hand this the 18th day of May, 1923.
GEO. L. SMOOT,
Judge 19th Judicial Circuit.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

There will be a real honest-to-goodness Fourth of July celebration in Clanton on that date. The Methodist ladies of the town are going to be in charge of it, and it will be something worth attending. Read about it elsewhere in this paper, and look for future announcements.

ABOUT SCHOOL ELECTION

Sure you have read the call for an election for the several districts in the northeastern part of the county for a special 3-mill tax for these several districts and to combine them into one district to be known as district "A" of Chilton county. This combining of districts into one will in no way affect the running of the schools where now located or will it effect the poll tax or other matters of your several schools, only to give you an additional amount of funds derived from the taxes of the Alabama Power Co., and the L. & N. R. R. Co., Western Union and Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Schools now located in the territory set out in the call will remain at their present sites and will not have to consolidate with any other school of the said district "A."

We admit the 3-mill tax will apply to you as to every one in the district, but will not be more than you are now paying for incidental fees in many cases. At a number of your schools you are paying a supplement to the teachers and I feel sure if the 3-mill tax carries you will not have to pay either supplement or incidental expense at a single school in the combined territory.

Districts now enjoying the use of the 3-mill tax will not have their taxes raised one penny as they are now paying all they can be assessed, and the ones not now getting the benefit of this will only have to pay 30 cents on each $100.00 of assessed property, yet you will all get the benefit of the taxes paid by the large corporations in this part of the county.

I believe this to be one of the greatest opportunities the people of this district has ever had to improve their schools, have better teachers, better equipment, etc. I trust you will every one go to the election on the 15th and vote to have the tax and thereby open the way to better education for the boys and girls of Chilton county.

Yours for better schools,
L. A. CALLOWAY.

MOUNT PISGAH

There will be a Children's Day program at Mount Pisgah Methodist Church, 4 miles south of Clanton on the fourth Sunday of this month, June 24th. There will be dinner. Everybody invited to come and bring somebody with them and enjoy the day and make it one to be long remembered by the children of our district.

The vote for Evans was 13,635, against 12,100 for Daughton, in 217 out of 223 precincts.

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.

BIG STILL FOUND IN MACON COUNTY

BIGGEST STILL IN THE STATE IS DESTROYED

Sheriff Phelps Makes Big Haul Near Macon County Border.

When darkness fell Saturday night two beds of glowing embers a few rods from Line creek which divides Montgomery county from Macon county, marked the spot where the largest illicit distilling plant ever discovered by sheriff or state law enforcement officer in Alabama had been producing corn whiskey for at least two years.

From early afternoon until evening Sheriff Bob Phelps and his deputies, aided by negroes plied axe and pick. Seventy barrels, forty-two of them filled with sour mash, went up in two bon fires. Twin stills, each holding 1,400 gallons of mash, were riddled with blows from picks, while their evil smelling contents gushed into a nearby branch.

Situated in the depths of a swamp about 20 miles from Montgomery, off the Mt. Meigs road, the moonshining stronghold dismantled Saturday, was easily the largest ever found in Montgomery county, and it is believed, in the abscence of accurate records, to be the largest and most elaborate ever destroyed in Alabama. Approximately 5,000 gallons of mash was found.

Two vats, more than six feet in depth and of a diameter no less, stood within a few yards of each other. Between them a well had been sunk and fitted with a pitcher pump which gave into a forty foot trough. Tarpauling stretched between the trees sheltered a bounteous store of bran and sugar. Twenty-odd new oak kegs formed a tier of containers for the finished product.

Well Organized Distillery

First arrivals at the spot saw in the almost impenetrable depths of a swamp, a well organized distillery with every facility for turning out contraband booze.

Those who were last to leave after the descent of the sheriff saw flames leaping from burning barrels piled high on either side of a loblolly of mash and black earth. A two inch iron pipe jutted from the ground where the raiders had dismantled the moonshiner's well. The pump was on a two horse wagon which also held the new kegs. Two huge cylinders that had once been vats looked more like milady's collander, and a row of trestles stood without the trough they had once borne, while the spiritous flow trickled from the worm. Its inch thick boards had fed the flames. Pervading all was the unmistakeable odor of fermentation.

The distillery was discovered some time Saturday morning after an all night search on the part of several deputies. That it was discovered at all, may be put down to an unusual diligence. After the last stretch of passable roads is left, one is forced to fight his way through swamp land with a rank growth of poisonius vine and reeds to reach the sylvan retreat of the moonshiners.

Dim Trail Found

There is little on the approach to indicate the nature of operations. Returning after the destruction, however, Sheriff Phelps and his deputies noted that an almost indistingishable trail had been marked by blazed pine trees. A wagon track led through mud and underbrush. It was over this that the kegs and a sixty gallon tank of galvanized iron were hauled to the Mt. Meigs road and here they were transferred to a truck for the trip to Montgomery county jail.

No arrests were made. Negroes in the vicinity professed utter ignorance and no effort was made to intimidate them. News of the discovery, however, travelled fast, and what Sheriff Phelps thought was fairly secret, met him in the mouths of many along the Mt. Meigs road while he was en route from the city to the location of the still.

THE BOUNDARY LINE MEET

At the meeting at the court house Saturday to consider the matter of the boundary line between this and Coosa county, Mr. J. W. E. Gulledge acted as chairman of the meeting. A standing committee was appointed for the purpose of making investigations and receiving information regarding the matter. This committee consisted of: Grady Reynolds, Chm., J. L. Johnson, Percy M. Pitts, Joel Gulledge, and J. B. Atkinson.

Anyone having any knowledge or data concerning the exact location of this boundary line should impart same to some member of this committee at once. They will also make investigations at the State tax commissioner's office to ascertain whether and how the property of the Alabama Power company has been assessed with reference to the two counties.

HARDINGS RETURN TO WASHINGTON MONDAY

Washington, June 11.—President and Mrs. Harding and members of their party returned to Washington early today aboard the Mayflower, the presidential yacht, docking at the navy yard shortly after 7:30 o'clock. The yacht was boarded at Lewes, Del., early Sunday morning for the return from the trip through that state on which the presidential party left by train Saturday morning.

JOHN MIMS CAUGHT WITH WHISKEY

The Sheriff laid hands on John Mims, son of Else Mims, who lives near the head of the Vida road about a mile from the Cove on the river. A part of a quart of whiskey was found in his car in Clanton, but the car was not moving, so it was not taken. The whiskey was taken by the Sheriff and Mims was placed in jail for violating the prohibition law. At the time we go to press he had not made bond.

TOY STILL FOUND IN COVINGTON COUNTY

Said to Be the Smallest Plant Ever Raided in State of Alabama.

Besides destroying scores of the biggest distilling outfits on record, state law enforcement officers have succeeded in locating the smallest. Its capacity is exactly just one quart. The miniature moonshine manufactury was seized Monday in Covington county. With it was a quart of "regulation" mash. It was complete in every respect; it included cap and worm.

In fact the federal and state officers reported it was an exact duplicate of an average size still which with 200 gallons of beer, stood nearby. Two men were arrested in the raid in which the "smallest" still and the big one were seized. Both men were charged with moonshining.

The "littlest" still is said to have belonged to the young son of one of the alleged "moonshiners." Rather an odd toy, if that's what it was intended to be, certainly a dangerous one.

MESSER - REYNOLDS CONTEST IS BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

Supreme Court Reverses Lower Court's Decision and Dismisses Petition of Mandamus.

[AN EDITORIAL]

The contest which C. D. Messer filed against L. H. Reynolds as judge of probate of Chilton County in the last general election came to a close last Thursday when the Supreme Court of Alabama reversed the action of the trial court in granting a petition for a writ of mandamus in the case, and rendered judgment dismissing the petition.

Messer's contest of the election of Reynolds was filed in the circuit court, together with bond as security of costs. Later M. D. Foshee, as clerk of the court required that acknowledgement be made by the sureties of the bond. One of the sureties, the record showed, was verified, but the contestant, in effect, declined to verify the signatures of the other sureites.

Application for a writ of mandamus was eventually filed by Messer in the lower court, seeking to require Foshee as circuit clerk to enter the contest case on the trial docket, and approve the bond furnished. The writ was granted, and Foshee appealed. Thursday, the supreme court in reversing and rendering the case, held that the circuit clerk's position was not arbitrary and was properly taken.

The above decision will be learned of with much interest by the Republicans of Chilton county. This epoch brings to a close one more of the many efforts of the greedy, ravenous machinators of Clanton to "get the political scalp of Judge Reynolds." This effort, like all of their former ones, has failed, simply because there was no solid ground on which the contentions were made. Judge Reynolds was lawfully and legally elected by a majority of the people of Chilton county, and for that reason his right to the office is unassailable. Despite the conspiracy of the demagogic ring in Clanton (and a few from other parts of the county,) the will of the majority MUST STAND.

We hope that the citizens of Chilton county will give this matter enough thought to digest its significance. The efforts on the part of the Democrats show plainly that they are not willing for a majority to rule. They feel that their select few know more about what the people need than the people do themselves. Let me ask you the question—are you willing to trust the affairs of your county in the hands of such a gang of hoodwinkers as this?

This element in Chilton county has always opposed Judge Reynolds simply because he was too much of a man-of-his-own to listen to their petty dictations. They know that through him they cannot carry on their selfish, illiberal designs, therefore they have incessantly used their strategy against him.

During all the time Judge Reynolds has been the chief custodian of our county affairs, his records have been several times examined by Democratic State Examiners, and not one time have they found any discrepancies in his official acts or any misuse of the county's money. All of their reports give him credit for keeping his records in excellent shape and for making accurate handling of the county's finances. All the phases of this contest case was passed upon by Democratic courts, yet he has come out victor. If there were any mismanagement in his affairs these Democrats certainly would have found them.

It has always been the custom of Judge Reynolds to do what the masses of the citizens of the county want done. Before passing upon any matters of importance where the interest of the whole county is at stake, he always makes it a point to invite the people of the county to come out and express publicly their wishes regarding such matters. He carefully considers their views and tries to do the will of the majority. Judge Reynolds has never been a man that can be influenced and led by a few bosses, but is always guided in his official acts by the wishes of the masses.

These were the grounds upon which the Messer contest was filed. This is the reason it has fallen to the ground like the withered leaves. The failure of this contest to function is not so much a success of Judge Reynolds, because he has used little effort to prevent it, but is just another example of the timely and trusted old adage that "right will win." It is not so much a victory of the Republicans of Chilton county, but it is simply a stamp of affirmation placed upon the victory which they won in the last general election.

ARGUMENT IN REVERSE

Washington, June 11.—It is rather laughable to see a Democratic newspaper making an attack on the Fordney-McCumber tariff law because under that law imports have been recording a phenomenal increase. Of course increased imports are in accord with Democratic policy, and the tariff laws of that party have always been directed to that end. The Leavenworth 'Times', for example, reverses Democratic beliefs and aspirations by attacking the new tariff law for permitting imports to increase. "Why is it," asks the 'Times,' "that importations still continue largely in excess of exportations, notwithstanding the high tariff? We suspect there is more than one reason but we feel sure that one reason is the high cost of production over here. And the question to be answered is, will we ever be able to compete with the foreigner and recover the markets we are losing?"

Is the first place the Fordney-McCumber law is not a high tariff. If it were, the increase in imports about which the Times complains would not occur. Democratic leaders asserted when the law was under debate that it would prohibit imports. Possibly the high cost of production over here may have something to do with the increase in imports, but the high cost of production is due primarily to the high wages received, and those high wages mean a larger purchasing power. That it exists is evidenced by the fact that for some time past domestic mills have been unable to meet domestic demands. Such a situation has been known under Democratic tariffs, but that was because domestic mills were closed down by foreign competition and what was left of the purchasing public turned to foreign wares which for a time remained comparatively cheap, but rose in price as domestic competition was destroyed.

As for the last question asked by the Leavenworth editor, the answer is yes. For two years prior to the passage of the Fordney-McCumber law buying on the part of the American people was severely curtailed. Compared with 1920 the national income from salaries and wages fell off $8,000,000,000 in 1921, while that from investments fell off correspondingly. In 1922 it started to pick up again as the beneficence of Republican policies began to be felt, and following the passage of the tariff law, September 22, 1922, there was a rapid rise in national income so that for the current year it is estimated by experts at not less than $50,000,000,000. People who scrimped and denied themselves in 1921 have for the past few months been satisfying the wants which were suppressed. That is the reason the mills and the farms have been strained to meet home demands. But no one expects this to continue indefinitely. Very soon domestic purchases will return to normal, a normal which will permit our producers to function at or near capacity. Capacity production means lowered unit cost, and that means enhanced ability to compete in foreign fields. But, even here, alarm would be premature. Our exports for the first half year of the new law totaled $2,079,000,000 compared with $1,793,000,000 for the corresponding period under the old law.

The truth is that the Fordney-McCumber tariff law is the lowest ever passed consihtent with protection, and it is the most satisfactory in its operation, viewed from every standpoint. As a political issue it is too hot for the Democrats to handle.

CHILTON ROAD TO BE PAVED SOON

CONTRACT WILL BE LET IN JULY FOR 34 MILES OF CHILTON COUNTY ROAD

Big Bridge to Span Alabama River Near Montgomery Will Also be Contracted For.

Plans are nearly completed for the section of the Birmingham-Montgomery highway through Chilton county, and the highway department will probably advertise for bids on the project during July, according to Col. W. A. McCalla, assistant state highway engineer. Plans are for a paved road approximately 34 miles long and the cost is estimated at around $1,000,000.

In case final approval is given by the highway commission at its June meeting to the location of the Alabama River bridge at Reese's ferry, the department will advertise for bids on the big bridge within 60 to 90 days. The commission at its last meeting voted nine to two in favor of locating the Alabama river crossing of the Birmingham-Montgomery highway at Reese's ferry, and notice of a motion to reconsider was given.

Location of the bridge at Reese's ferry will materially change the route of the southern part of the Birmingham-Montgomery highway. Plans examined at the state highway department Friday showed the new highway following the present route along the line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad to a point about one mile above Marbury and just across the Chilton county line from that town. At this point the road will leave the present route of the highway and pass through eastern Autauga county via Gates Mill and Liberty church to Reese's ferry and Montgomery, running one and three-fourths miles east of Prattville, with a branch to that town.

Good progress is reported on the section of the Montgomery-Birmingham highway through Shelby county. A report received at the highway department Friday showed that the W. T. Taylor Construction company of Wilsonville, which has the Shelby county contract, has completed 50 per cent of the grading through the county and is now employing more than 100 teams and 200 men. Completion of the road through Shelby county is expected by January 1.

THIS ADVERTISING

Some of our local merchants are wailing about dull business, and for that reason can't afford to do a little advertising. We refer such local merchants to the adv. we are carrying this week for Louis Pizitz in Birmingham. Are you going to sit here with your legs crossed and chew Browns Mule and let these out-of-town merchants come in and get the trade right away from your own doors? Well, you are unless you wake up and invite the people to trade with you. The time to advertise is when business is dull. If you had all you could do, there would be no use to advertise.

AL SMITH ARRESTED

Al Smith of Maplesville (not Governor Al Smith of New York) was taken into custody by the Sheriff Sunday afternoon for public drunkenness at Maplesville. Smith was brought to Clanton and placed in jail. So far he has not made bond.

COTTON PRICES SOAR ON REPORT OF RAINS

New York, June 11.—Cotton prices soared this morning on a big general movement induced by reports of heavy rains in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Georgia.

Opening 20 to 65 points higher, the market quickly advanced 72 to 87 points above the Saturday closing, led by July, which sold up to 28.65. October jumped to 25.15 and December to 24.44.

Besides commission houses, Liverpool and New Orleans were large buyers in the first hour.

JUDGE REYNOLDS RETURNS

Judge L. H. Reynolds, who for the past three weeks has been visiting in Washingaon, D. C., and other points between here and there, returned home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Reynolds and Omar, who accompanied the Judge on the trip returned also. They report a very pleasant trip, and had scarcely any car trouble on the way there and back. They say the roads after one gets out of Alabama are a picturesque scene to look at and more than a pleasure to ride upon. South Carolina, they say, has the best roads of any state through which they passed.

Mrs. W. W. Robinson was released from the Central Alabama Hospital last Saturday, after undergoing an operation three weeks ago. The doctors and nurses pronounced her in excellent condition.

BIG DAY AT JEMISON SATURDAY, JUNE 30

There will be a picnic and barbecue at Jemison on Saturday, June 30th. The Governor and other prominent men of the state will be there. The new school building will be dedicated; officers of the Masonic Lodge installed, ball games and other attractions. Everybody come.

ALL-DAY SINGING

There will be an all-day singing at Pleasant Hill Church the third Sunday in this month. All singers and lovers of music are cordially invited to come and bring your 1923 song books and a well filled basket. Remember the day, June the 17th. We are all expecting a nice time on that day.

CLANTON LICKS PRATTVILLE

In a hotly contested battle of base ball in Clanton last Friday afternoon, the home team won over the Prattville team 10 to 3. Albert Pyron pitched for Clanton and Red Wagoner caught behind the bat. Broadus Connatser played first base.

This was a rather unique game, as the pitchers on both sides were brothers, Luther Pyron pitching for the visitors. The Clanton hurler fooled his opposing batters by throwing easy delusive strikes.

All of the Clanton boys did excellent playing throughout the entire game. The batting of the home team was exceptionally good.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

In the closing weeks of the school year at Thorsby Institute some very interesting things happened that have not yet been published, because so much space was occupied with what appeared to be more in the nature of news matter which should be published while fresh if at all.

There was a lot of humor and some very good sense in some parts of the program for class night which gives some idea of the quality of work which individual members and the graduating class as a whole possessed the capacity to put over. The class prophecy, will and poem, each make very interesting reading.

Last Sunday was regular preaching day at the Baptist church, when Rev. Sam Heath, the pastor, was present and delivered stirring sermons morning and evening. On Monday the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union, held an interesting meeting at the church. Plans were made to have a state worker here in the near future to give a training course in Christian service.

Sunday, June 10th, was children's day at the Congregational church and a very interesting program, "Let the Children Come," published by the Pilgrim Press, was faithfully rendered at the hour of morning service.

On Sunday night, June 17th, there will be delivered an illustrated lecture, at the hour of evening service, entitled "From Scrooby to New England." The lecture will be illustrated by many beautiful lantern slide pictures, and a collection will be taken to defray the expense of transportation of the slides to and from Thorsby.

Prof. C. M. Williams had as his guest for the week-end his brother, Mr. Palmer Williams.

Miss Emily B. Ellsworth, Miss Lois Leech and Mrs. Ethel Wright Loveland, all of Thorsby Institute, left Thorsby last Saturday night for their homes in northern cities.

Mr. Wm. C. Neal has returned from his visit to Indiana and is looking after his Thorsby interests and greeting old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Horsley, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mann of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Littleton were guests of Mrs. Aaron Littleton last Sunday.

Senior Class Prophecy

Only a short while ago, when you bestowed upon me the honor of class prophet, I was exceedingly glad to and appreciated the distinction. After studying and considering the task set for me, I came to the conclusion that it was not such an easy thing to write the future life of each pupil in this wonderful class, and that the wrong prophet had been chosen.

Sitting on my honeysuckled covered veranda on the south side of the house at twilight and wondering what to write in this prophecy, I saw something afar off in the air which reminded me of a large bird with huge wings. It came close and closer, then I could hear a loud noise, and oh! it was a passenger aeroplane driven by a small fairy clad in spotless white. The passengers were joyously conversing and pretended not to see me but the little fairy smiled and threw me a small package. Can you guess what it was? Do you think it was a note saying that Miss Jenkins had removed the social rules of Thorsby Institute? No! indeed not! A diamond ring? No! A message announcing the marriage of Mr. Sappington? No! It was a round robin letter telling me so perfectly the things I desired to know. It explained my task so exactly that I shall now prove with my prophecy in perfect ease and safety.

The handwriting of the first letter seemed unfamiliar to me and I was startled almost out of my senses when I found that I had received a letter from perhaps the most brilliant statesman and orator of the world, Mr. Truman Pierce. By his speeches, as eloquent as those of Cicero, he says that he has succeeded in obtaining the entrance to United States in the league of nations.

The next one was indeed familiar for why should I not know the writing of dear little old pierette or Myrtle Jones, who after gaining a wide reputation in the successful play, entitled "The Maker of Dreams" is progressing splendidly as a kindergarden teacher in Jefferson county. Just imagine the thrilling fairy and ghost stories of her own make that she tells the eager children and the wonderful kempies that she draws for them! She even originates dialogues and interests the children so much that very small ones memorize the parts and carry them out so successfully that prominent men often visit her classes.

The next was a neatly addressed envelope containing a letter from that delicate little Pearl Carlson who had actually outgrown her pettish ways and now is the greatest American musician. Her marriage to a poet had recently been announced. This happy couple has produced some of the most wonderful masterpieces of the world. After a while, she went to Chicago, with her husband to live in a most beautiful marble mansion in which there is to be always room for the members of the class of 1923.

Another one was from Mr. Arnold Soberg, who tells me that he is now president of the W. S. Y. radio broadcasting station of the U. S. He has just passed a new set of regulations which will be of more benefit to the country than any previous ones. His regulations have divided the broadcasting stations into three classes, with one class being for stations which choose to continue their present wave length and the other two classes for extra short and extra long wave length stations. Through these regulations, the W. S. Y. is to be enabled to broadcast weather reports and other government information. Before the passage of these rules, all government matter was required to be broadcost over a wave length of 485 meters while under the able management of its president, the W. S. Y. wave length is only 360 meters. All government information may be broadcast along with concerts and other recreational entertainments. The weather reports are being broadcast by the W. S. Y.

Another one was from Annie Hughes, who possesses such a gentle and sympathetic heart. She tells me that she was called to be a missionary to the poor heathens of China. She responded in the affirmative. Annie says: "I am answering my country's call and adding stars to my crown." She is the first young lady of the world to receive a medal of honod for her most serviceable work. She says that she hopes to say as Paul said: "I have fought the good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."

And there was another who is doing most valuable work—our devoted friend and beloved classmate, Miss Edith Robinson. After attaining her college degree she, like Pearl Corlson, chose her future helper. After the death of the president of the president of John Hopkins University, Edith's husband was elected president, and Edith now holds the position as the highest lady of the college.

Then comes our wonderful electrican engineer, Mr. Wilbur Peterson. He and his faithful secretary, Miss Ena Green, have recently been able to carry no conversation with the people of Mars. They say these people have four eyes and feet that walk either way at the same time. These people get their food by breathing and do not have to trouble with the preparation of meals. They only sleep once a year and "get over with it and do something else" so they say. The women of Mars choose their husbands and manage the business affairs while the men are left to do the housework. Many honors have come to htem for this discovery and they are working for a further invention and probably some day they will be able to visit these people.

And htere was Miss Mary Ella Gerald, who says that she has just received her college degree and has specialized for an elocutionist. She proved very satisfactory in many different colleges as instructor in dramatics. She is perhaps the most brilliant elocutionis of the day. She has now accepted a position in a famous London school of expression as a tutor in elocution.

And next came Esther Johnson. I well remember her because she was "little but loud." And such a very dear friend at T. I. She says that at present she is occupying the position as instructor in voice in the Musical Conservatory in Chicago. She ranks among the best in the world. Her husband has often said of her:

"Her very foot has music in it
As she comes up the stair."

Esther has become very popular in New York as well as Chicago.

And this business letter? What is the meaning of that? Upon opening it, I find a program of the national education association which is to be held in San Francisco in the summer. Upon inspection of the program, I find that Mr. Yancey M. Kelley is listed in an important place to speak on the subject, "The Future of Vocational Training." Remembering that he had written his senior essay on a smiilar suject the knowledge of this speech strengthened my determination to be present at that convention, especially since I had been elected a delegate of the educational association from Alabama. There seems to be a possibility of a class reunion. The several members of the class who have become identified with the teaching profession might be there, and I am determined to do all in my power to bring about a reunion of the entire class of 1923 in that far away western ity with the pleasant knowledge that soon I shall be among all my classmates and know in detail of the useful career of each one of them.

San Francisco, August 1.

Much to our delight every member of the class of 1923 is here in San Francisco. Yesterday when we met together for the first time, the subject, "What can I do for Thorsby Institute?" was immediately brought up for discussion. Each one was very decided in his wish to do something for the school.

Littler persuasion was needed for Esther to decide to go to Thorsby as a teacher the next year. Arnold offers to have a radio installed in the school and make it possible for classes in instruction in radio to be held. The long hoped for industrial work is at last introduced, since Yancey Kelley has promised to see that vocational work of several different kinds is made possible. Wilbur's offer to furnish money for a new school building was quickly accepted as well as Edith's scholarships at oJhn Hopkins for graduates of Thorsby Institute. The love for music of the students will soon be given an outlet since Pearl has agreed to give a Grand piana. Mary Ella promised to go to Thorsby Institute on the next tour and there to give a recital to the students who are attending school and also to use her influence upon the minds of the students the value of the study of voice and expression.

In her next furlough in this country, Annie said she would visit the school and try to interest the girls in making their lives of real service.

Ena, Myrtle and Truman havce formed themselves into an Alumni Committee, whose purpose it shall be to spread information in regard to the splendid educational institute that is located in Thorsby, Alabama.

With all these bright prospects in view, we hope that Thorsby Institute shall increase in size and influence until its name is known throughout the whole country and the fame of its students shall be world wide.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. 780 STUDEBAKERS ARE SHIPPED ON BANNER DAY OF CORPORATION

Big Plants at South Bend and Detroit Bending Every Effort to Meet Country-Wide Demand For More Studebakers.

When the whistles of the mammoth Studebaker plants at South Bend and Detroit sounded on the evening of May 29 and 20,000 Studebaker employes started homeward, a new record for a single day's production and shipments had been made, for on that day 780 Studebaker cars were forwarded to Studebaker dealers throughout the country. Of the total, 189 were driven overland.

This record represents a single day's production and was achieved without permitting cars to accumulate purposely to establish a new mark. The only extra incentive involved was an effort to more adequately meet the insistent demand from every section of the country for more Studebakers, but this is a daily endeavor because of the thousands of unfilled orders on hand for immediate shipment.

While the production of 780 cars in one day establishes a record for Studebaker, the total is only a little above regular, daily shipments since the additional facilities provided by seven new Studebaker factory units completed and tooled and manned early this Spring, reached capacity production. Although Studebaker's present output is 15,000 cars a month or at the rate of 180,000 cars annually, the demand is far in excess of production and additional factory facilities, begun this Spring and to cost $5,000,000, are being rushed to completion.

Studebaker manufactures six-cylinder cars exclusively, in three models—the Big-Six, Special-Six and the Light-Six—which are offered in twelve body types. 780 cars, in one day, therefore, represents the biggest day's shipment of six-cylinder cars ever made by any manufacturer.

The increasing popularity of Studebaker cars, which is a subject of common conversation even outside of the automobile industry, is attested by the yearly record of production and sales. In 1918 Studebaker sold 23,864 cars. The following year sales increased to a total of 39,356 cars. In 1920 sales amounted to 51,474 cars.

1921, the year of general business depression, was the biggest in Studebaker's history (up to 1922) when sales reached a total of 66,643 cars. Stated otherwise, the sales of Studebaker cars in 1921 were 29 per cent greater than in 1920, notwithstanding the fact that the total number of cars sold of all other makes, except Ford, was 40 per cent less than 1920. Studebaker again established a new record in 1922 with the sale of 110,269 cars. This year will see still another Studebaker record established. Up to July 1 Studebaker will have produced and sold about 80,000 cars, or an increase of 50 per cent over the same period of 1922.

"There are a number of reasons for the universal popularity of Studebaker cars," according to Polk Bros., local Studebaker dealers. "But chiefly:

"(1). Because of their quality, durability and dependable performance in owners' use.

"(2). Because by manufacturing sixes exclusively on a large scale and by building all vital parts in its own plants, Studebaker can effect economies and save the middlemen's profits, and thereby provide maximum value and quality at a low price.

"(3). Because, in the three models of Studebaker cars we have a car of the exact size, style and price to suit every buyer.

"(4). Because with $85,000,000 of actual net assets, including $45,000,000 of plant facilities, Studebaker stands unsurpassed in ability and resources to manufacture economically and give the greatest intrinsic value possible for a given price.

"(5). Because of the name Studebaker, which for 71 years, has stood for high grade transportation, integrity, quality, value and comfort."

PAYING FOR THE HOME

"Up to two years ago my money all went to doctors and medicine for my stomach trouble. I was constantly filled with gas and no medicine helped me permanently until I tried a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy at that time with excellent results. Now I am using my money in paying for a home." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Alred Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.

OPEN SEA NOW ONLY REFUGE FOR LIQUORS

Midnight Saturday is Zero Hour at Which Regulations, Governing Bringing Liquor Into U. S. Waters Become Effective.

Washington, D. C., June 11.—Beverage liquor, which found asylum aboard foreign merchantmen in American waters after it had been shunted from American soil by the Volstead act, now is officially driven out into the open sea.

After the stroke of midnight Saturday, under regulations drafted by the treasury to make effective the mandate of the supreme court, there is no substantial legal foothold for alcoholic drinks within the jurisdiction of continental United States, ashore or afloat.

A reminder of the zero hour, as fixed in the regulations was given by treasury officials today to "all concerned with prohibition enforcement." It was pointed out, too, that the regulations, in the face of representations by most of the maritime powers of the world, are to be applied as rigidly as a literal reading of the highest court's opinion will warrant.

The only ameliorating provisos are strictly of an emergency and temporary character. Incoming vessels at sea when the effective hour arrives may bring liquor inside the three mile limit for the last time, but it must remain under seal until the homeward voyage has started. Ships in distress may seek refuge in American ports under the same condition, and there is the usual exemption for medicinal, "diplomatic" and sacramental shipments. But in all other cases ships which cross the deadlines must cast into Davey Jones' locker whatever intoxicants they have aboard.

Under the regulation customs officers are authorized along with prohibition agents to seize and confiscate outlawed liquor. A ship's owner and her master are alike amenable to the full penal provisions of the Volstead act, upon conviction of violation.

Already informal advices have reached the treasury that most of the foreign shipping companies intend making every effort to comply with the law. Most officials agree its enforcement will continue to prove embarrassing to international commerce for some months to come, but the treasury has only one hope of alleviating the condition, and that is by congressional action. Even that hope is not entertained generally.

SOLDIERS HOME TO OBSERVE 4TH OF JULY

Arrangements have been completed to observe July 4, 1923, at the Alabama Old Soldiers Home fittingly as follows:

A speaker has been engaged to deliver a short address.

The grounds have been cleared off and are in splendid condition.

Guests are requested to bring lunch baskets containing for their own use eatables.

A place to park automobiles will be designated.

The auditorium and cottages will remain for the reception of visitors. So, now come and stroll over the camps,—you are welcome!

A VICTORY FOR AMERICAN MOTORISTS

The Crude Rubber Monopoly weakened when it came into contact with aroused public sentiment. The press of the country today reflects the determination of the American motorist that tire prices shall stay at a reasonable level—and that America must produce its own rubber.

Firestone

CUTS TIRE PRICES 10 PER CENT

EFFECTIVE JUNE 11

We announce a ten per cent (10%) reduction in tires and tubes effective June eleven (11). The lowered cost of crude rubber and the special Firestone manufacturing and distribution advantages make this possible.

Firestone factories are organized on a basis of larger volume and effective production. Costs are down but quality is at its peak. Stockholder workmen are daily building many thousand of Gum-Dipped Cords—the best Firestone ever produced and, we believe, the leader of the market today.

Firestone Cords took the first four places and eight of the ten money positions in the Indianapolis sweepstakes, May 13th, without a single tire failure.

Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords have set new standards in mileage, traction, comfort and safety. Car owners have expressed their approval of the extra value in Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords by increasing their purchases one hundred and ninety-four per cent (194%) in the past six months.

We have replaced many expensive branches with warehouses. We now have one hundred and eight (108) distributing points which are delivering Firestone Tires to the consumer at the lowest cost in our history.

Follow the tide of economical tire buying—equip with Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords—and learn what Most Miles per Dollar means to you today.

Don't fail to come to Clanton July 4th and get your part of the celebration festivities which will be in great abundance here on that day.

Let it be a blow at states rights or even national rights, prohibition of intoxicating liquors is the most forward step toward civilization this country has ever taken.

There is a movement on to make two states of the State of Florida. Some of the Democrats object to it because they figure if it is cut in two the southern part will be Republican.

The people in the districts around the edge of the county are asking why the three-mill special tax on Lock 12 cannot be divided among all the school districts of the county. What about it, School Board?

Governor Brandon says that no convict system can be instituted that will beat the present one. There has been a great deal of criticism and comment made upon the present convict system of the state.

We just wonder why it is that Clanton can't have at least one street paved. This dust and mud is certainly awful. We have water works, electric lights and everything. Why can't we do a little street paving too?

After July 1st the tax adjusters in Alabama will be a thing of the past, according to Governor Brandon's statement a few days ago. This work will be done in the future by the tax assessors and the state tax commission.

It seems that the wet and dry issue is going to play an important part in the coming national campaign. Harding has made himself clear as being dry, while Woodrow Wilson says the only chance for the Democrats is to line up with the wets.

Father Walter A. Grace, a Catholic priest of Denver, was indicted Monday for fraudulently signing a revenue paper. The same priest was arrested once before in connection with some liquor. This is a common thing among the Roman Catholics.

Ed Doty got on to the tick inspectors last week. He advises that the $50,000 which the state spends every four years for this purpose be appropriated to the public schools. A brilliant idea, but will the solid Democratic ring at Montgomery heed it?

The Union-Banner wishes to commend the mayor of the city of Montgomery for refusing the use of the city hall of that city by the Marathon dancers. This endurance dancing business is a disgrace to civilization, and should be treated everywhere just as it was by Mayor Gunter.

Vice-President Coolidge, it is universally assumed, will not run for that office in 1924, but will give way to someone from the pogressive wing of the party—probably Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Theodore Roosevelt. Harding and Roosevelt will certainly do some running as standard bearer for the G. O. P.

The promoters of the Messer-Reynolds contest in Chilton county have failed in their arduous attempt to "purge" the ballot boxes of Chilton county. Take the beam out of thine own eye, brothers, then you will be more competent to remove the mote from thy neighbor's eye.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many compliments the present management of The Union-Banner is getting for the class of paper we are putting out. It takes a lot of hard work to get out a good newspaper, and it is encouraging to know that our efforts are being appreciated by the public. It is our intention to publish a paper that will measure up to the standard of other industries in Chilton county and to do it in a way that will reflect the progressive spirit which is dominant in our town and county. It is our paramount aim to make Chilton county a better and brighter place to live in, and we feelingly appreciate the encouragement and subsidy which we are daily receiving in return for our efforts.

SIXTH STREET, CLANTON

We suppose one reason we see so much happening every day on Sixth street is because we live on it, but for the past year this part of town has certainly put on new life. If the business section of this street were only a little longer Second avenue would have to hand over to us their long possessed title of Main street, for according to our length of business houses, we sure have got them beat in the amount of business carried on. Every Saturday afternoon cars are stacked against the curbing just as thick as they can stand, and too we most generally observe the parking laws here too. You scarcely ever see a car standing parallel with the street, but are most always angled against the curbing in due form.

The street working force is working our street for us this week, which is something badly needed.

PROSPERITY FIXED

The Fur Merchants Sales Company held a big semi-annual auction sale of furs May 30th and the organization reports "bidding during the entire sale was active and the interest was keen." A year or so ago the sale was dull and spiritless. The jobbers are buying for the department stores and other retailers, who are looking for large business the coming fall and winter. They are a shrewd lot and they do not load up with furs unless they can see sales ahead. In looking forward to good business in the fur trade for the fall and winter they are adding evidence to what other merchandising activities expect, namely, prosperity. The politicians who are trying to make us believe the present prosperity will break in a very few months are not as reliable weather prophets as are the men who deal in furs.

PREMATURE GLOOM

The Democratic president of the American Farm Bureau Federation began his campaign against the Republican protective tariff law a little too soon. Before the next political campaign comes around the people of the country will get a true line on the political prejudices of the head of the farm organization and will discredit his figures. In fact, the Farm Bureau Federation safeguards itself by admitting that the figures may be far from correct.

RUN YOUR OWN PARTY

Unable to run their own party affairs to the satisfaction of their own party members, Democratic leaders are now trying to tell the Republican National Committee what to do and how to do it. The Republican party did not build up its strength taking suggestions from Democratic bosses.

STILL GROWS

Joseph C. Grew, American Minister to Switzerland, who did more than any other diplomat to unsnarl the tangles of the Lausanne Conference and bring Turkey and Greece to a compromise, has been given full powers by the Administration to negotiate a treaty or treaties of amity and commerce between the United States and Turkey. It is pleasant to see the confidence of European diplomats, the State Department, and the American people grow in Grew.

JUDGE REYNOLDS WRITES OF TRIP TO WASHINGTON

Our trip through the country to Washington included the Southeastern Atlantic States,—Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, and also the District of Columbia, taking in all about five days going and four days returning. As to the roads, I found that North Carolina had all the other States outclassed. The roads in North Carolina were of the character of concrete, asphalt and sand clay, the latter being a very excellent running road. We travelled practically every national highway in North Carolina and we found her roads to be of this uniform character. In my opinion South Carolina came next in line but her roads having more clay in them were not quite so good in wet weather. The roads of eGorgia and South Carolina are about on a par, possibly Georgia has a little better roads, judging by the ones that we travelled. Alabama, according to my opinion, has the poorest roads of these several States mentioned.

As to the crops we found those of Alabama in about as good condition as those of the other States, but Alabama and Georgia being very badly damaged by the excessive rain. One noticeable feature about the farms of Georgia was the great amount of farms lying idle and the many farm houses vacated. On information from some of the farmers and business men as well, we learned that this was due to the efflux of the negro laborer to the northern and eastern States. In conversation with one prosperous farmer of Georgia we learned that he had only one negro tenant, whereas before he had customarily kept four or five. It is conservatively estimated by some Georgians that 50 per cent of the negro population has migrated to the north. The crops of Georgia from a cursory observation, are the same character as those of Alabama, the two States growing practically the same crops, in South and North Carolina we found more industries and especially in the latter state, as there, practically every town has a number of cotton mills and other factories. It made me wonder why it is that Alabama with her natural resources unexplored and with the two greatest hydro-electircal plants in the country and with the commodities could not have the number of industries and mills that North and South Carolina and eGorgia have. The people of the north realize the untold wealth of Alabama more than we do, however the people of our State are waking up to the fact that Alabama looms to be one of the greatest industrial states of the Union, and it seems to me that Chilton county, the site of two of the greatest power plants in he country and with the revenue derived from this source is destined to forge to the front not only in Alabama but in the South as well.

In Virginia we found a good many of the crops that are grown in Alabama, with the addition that Virginia is one of our biggest tobacco growing states.

We stayed three days in Washington attending the Shriners annual convention and we were favorably impressed with the courtesy with which visitors were received. The White House, the President's mansion was thrown wide open for the reception of visitors, and they were allowed to visit and inspect practically every room of this beautiful and notable structure. One of the President's guards, stated that it was the first time that such great liberties had been allowed. We visited practically every public building appertaining to the national government and were received with great courtesy and consideration.

Our route back took us by the way of Asheville, North Carolina, crossing the foot of the Blue Ridge Mountains at the junction of the Southern Mountain, the scenery of which is said to surpass anything east of the Rockies and its scenic beauty is said to be very similar to that of Switzerland and Italy. The trip included eighteen days and 2500 miles, and every minute of it was spent in an enjoyable and interesting manner, but we were all glad to get home again.

Facts About Child-Birth

AN eminent physician has shown to thousands of expectant mothers just how to be free from dread, and from much of the suffering which many mothers experience for months, right up to the moment when the Little One arrives!

Mrs. Wm. Washington, 107 Louise Ave., Nashville, Tenn., says: "There is positively no woman on earth that would be without 'Mother's Friend' during expectancy if she only knew the value of comfort."

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied to the region of the abdomen, back and hips. It relieves the tension on nerves and ligaments as month follows month. Finally, it makes child-birth a joy instead of a painful dread.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA-47, Atlanta, Ga., for a free wonderful book containing information every expectant mother should have.

WEEVILNIP

is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors for the purpose of attracting the boll weevils and killing them.

Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.

WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

John O'Keefe of Sharon, Ga., sold and used 20 barrels in 1922 and has bought 35 barrels for 1923.

George A. Zellner, Forsyth, Ga., used 5 barrels in 1922 and bought 45 barrels for 1923 to be shipped April first.

J. W. Wilson, of Dacula, Ga., from results of a five-gallon keg shipped in 1922 to A. M. Wilson Co., bought one car for April first shipment.

Read the following letters from reliable men who saved their crops of cotton by using WEEVILNIP:

Pharr, Texas, May 28, 1923.

Having applied WEEVILNIP to my cotton where weevils were plentiful making three different tests in my own way and find the weevils have been entirely eliminated so far as I can tell and with these tests have to admit that I believe WEEVILNIP will do what you claim for it.

"It was late in the season when I received my WEEVILNIP and the boll weevils were knocking off all the fruitage of the cotton plants. I made one application on Saturday, July 1st, 1922, and the next day it came a pretty heavy rain, but in spite o fthe rain the 'NIP' destroyed all that crop of weevils and caused the cotton to hold all the squares it put on until about July 25th. This one application resulted in the production of 965 pounds lint cotton on 2 1-2 acres."

A. L. FOSHEE.

Winterville, Ga., July 15, 1922.

"After three or four days (after using WEEVILNIP) I offered $10.00 for each weevil that was found on my cotton. Several people came and looked for them but found not a single weevil."

NEGRO PRISONER ESCAPES

A handcuffed negro, being carried from Columbiana to Lowndes county to work out a sentence in a big farm and saw mill camp there decided he had rather join the bird gang in preference to the chain gang, so he jumped out the window on fast train No. 3 a mile below Clanton last night. The train was making 35 miles hour. The negro was in charge of the contractor of the Lowndes county camp, Mr. Johnson. As soon as it was discovered that the negro had escaped, the train was stopped and Johnson got off to make a search for him. Dogs were called from Spigener and put on the track, but at daylight Wednesday morning he had not been caught, however it was reported that the escaped convict was seen still wearing the handcuffs in Thorsby about 4 o'clock in the morning. Chilton county deputies joined the contractor in the search, but the negro had not been found Wednesday noon.

The negro was sentenced to serve a term of two years for burglary committed in Calera a few weeks ago.

MAPLESVILLE NEWS

The farmers of this community are smiling now, even if they were discouraged for a while about the hail and rain. They are working every day possible and they will be up with the rest of the farmers if the sun keeps shining.

We are very glad to know that our Maplesville high school will be finished by Mr. R. T. Mullican. Hope it will be ready for us by the next term.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. Frank Adams is very ill. Hope him a speedy recovery.

We are very sorry to learn that Miss Nell Potts isn't improving as we hoped she would.

Miss Ethel Mize has gone to Montevallo to school this summer. We miss her very much from Sunday school.

Miss Lena Nelson of Selma spent the week-end with Mrs. Frank Thomas.

Miss Vivian Foshee is home now. She has been teaching school in Montevallo. We are very glad to have her in Sunday school with us.

Mrs. P. C. Pullian has returned home from Mississippi, where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. Charley Walker and Mr. Genie McGee of Shoults were over visiting Mr. Frank Adams Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Horton and Mrs. Robert Atchison have been visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Atchison.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Adams were the guests of Mrs. J. E. Dennis this week-end.

Little Miss Vivian Pigler is to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. J. E. eDnnis.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Senton and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Seales and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Blass motored to Sardis Sunday to spend the day.

SILURIA DEFEATS CLANTON

Tuesday afternoon Clanton baseball fans had the pleasure of witnessing another very interesting game. The visitors were from Siluria, and they walked away with five scores, leaving Clanton with only three. Siluria never scored until the last inning, when it began drizzling rain and the ball got slick so that the Clanton pitcher couldn't throw where he looked. This was the only reason Siluria was permitted to score at all.

Webb Parrish pitched for Clanton and Dick Scott for the visitors.

DIPPING VAT BLOWN UP

A dipping vat in the Mulberry community, which was completed only a few days was recently blown up with dynamite. This vat was built to dip a few tick-infected cattle which were reported to be running on the Mulberry range. The sentiment in some sections of the county is very high against the dipping business.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed find my check ($3.00), three dollars, for 3 years subscription to your paper, as per your offer this week. I cannot ge along without some Republican news as I live in a solid Democrat county. Of course there are few Republicans here but not many.

I feel this county is somewhat behind and especially on big frogs and Xmas watermelons. Crops are grassy and from 2 to 3 weeks late.

Keep my paper coming and the good work go on.

Respectfully,
C. J. EILAND.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the people for their kindness shown us during the sickness and death of our loving son Albert Raeford Chandler.

DO YOU FEEL TIRED AFTER EATING?

A tired, nervous feeling may be a sign of poisons in your system which prevent proper digestion. Food turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. Removes old matter you never thought was in your system which poisoned stomach and made you tired and nervous. Adlerika is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Upchurch Drug Co.

LAWLEY NEWS

The death of Miss Olene Cleveland, last Sunday at a hospital in Birmingham, caused this community very much grief. She was formerly of this place, but had been working in Birmingham for some time. Olene was young, yet in her teens, and such a dear sweet girl that all who knew her, loved her. She was only sick a short time with pneumonia. We should not grieve, for her life was such that we feel assured that she has gone to a better home. Left to mourn her loss is a mother and father several brothers and sisters and a host of relatives and friends. May this cause the dear boys and girls of this community who loved Olene so much to strive to live nearer God than ever before, for life is so uncertain. The remains were buried at Sandy several miles from here last Tuesday.

The B. Y. P. U. here has as their group leaders now Mr. Gordon Adams and Miss Mamie Hicks, and they are always planning to make the meetings more interesting and their plans are always put into reality. We feel proud of the splendid attendance and interest that is shown.

Miss Laura Smitherman of Birmingham was here last week to attend the funeral of her niece, Miss Olene Cleveland. She returned Sunday to Birmingham, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mirk Smitherman.

Misses Ethel and Lilla Collins, Feraba Latham and Maggie Mae Head left last Tuesday for Tuscaloosa, where they are to attend school this summer.

The W. M. U. gave an interesting program Saturday afternoon. The attendance was larger than ever before. Mrs. W. P. Hicks, president, presided over the meeting. Mr. James Bedford gave a very good reading on "Faithful Service." Some interesting talks were made by Mrs. Mount, Mrs. Head, Mrs. Fannie Latham, Mrs. Oscar Hicks. Closing prayer by Mrs. James Wright.

Miss Nellie Holley, who is working at Tuscaloosa, spent last Sunday here with relatives.

Mrs. Lela Latham and two children returned to their home at Tuscaloosa last Thursday, after spending a week here with her father, Mr. Alex Latham.

Uncle Ted Attends Shrine Convention

"Well, it is time for you children to get in the house and get ready for bed, now," said Jack's mother.

"When can we play out here in the yard if we can't play in the daytime because it is too hot and can't play at night because it is bedtime?" asked Ruth.

"Never mind about that, Ruth," answered her mother. "Uncle Ted is on his way up from the station and I know he will tell you a story. You can sit on the back porch where it is cool and when the story is finished it is off to bed with you both."

"I don't mind coming in if Uncle Ted tells us a story," said Jack.

"You don't eh? said Uncle Ted as he came into the room. "My I'm glad to see you. Just as soon as I get washed and get a bite to eat I will tell you something of my trip."

"You see, kiddies, I have been to Washington where I attended the Shriners convention and incidentally roasted to death and then I went to New York and from there back home. The Shrine meeting was really wonderful. Famous Pennsylvania Avenue was lighted all the way from the capital clear past the White House with thousands of lights hung across the Avenue in festoons. President Harding, who is a Shriner, was on hand to help receive the visitors. He wore his fez on the first day of the meeting when he stood in the big reviewing stand in front of the White House and acknowledged the cheers of more than 100,000 men who marched through the Avenue, where at that point it had been made into a garden—in fact it was the 'Garden of Allah!' The day before, he spoke at the dedication of the Zero Milestone, a stone erected just south of the White House to mark the hub of all our highway system. After that he made a beautiful talk when a little house built near the Treasury, a replica of the boyhood home of John Howard Payne the author of 'Home Sweet Home,' was dedicated. This marked the opening of 'Better Homes Week in America.' It was an odd contrast too watch this scene. Here was a pretty little home, with vines growing over the door representative of the real American home, erected in the midst of a great city and surrounded by thousands of visitors from practically every state in the Union and from Canada.

"You kiddie would have enjoyed the hundreds of bands marching in that big parade, the fireworks and the beautiful floats in the two night parades. Truly Washington, the capital of the nation, was converted into a real 'Mecca.' The quiet everyday life of Washington was completely eliminated and in its place a rollicking, fun-making crowd of good natured Americans enjoying their Capital as no crowd ever has enjoyed it before.

"Now there are two or three things I want to tell you about that convention because they prove some things of interest to people who may not be at all interested in the Shrine, which is a secret organization in which only its members participate directly. Of course all the people got the enjoyment of the parade and the music.

"One thing I want to tell you is that this was the biggest convention crowd ever gathered anywhere in the United States, and the capital of our nation took care of the crowd without any trouble whatever. The railway companies laid down miles of temporary side tracks and switched Pullman cars on those tracks and visitors occupied them while they were in Washington. There wasn't a single train delayed. That shows how our railroad managers understand their business.

"Lots of people thought that because that was the biggest crowd ever gathered at a convention extortionate charges would be made for places to sleep. Well, there were some people who paid high prices for hotel rooms, but they did not need to. The men who were planning the Shrine convention asked the people of Washington to rent their rooms to visitors, and there never were more liberal people than the residents of Washington. When the convention opened there was a long list of available rooms at from $1.50 to $3 a day.

"One of the important things about Americans is the way they meet emergencies and keep smiling even if they do have to put up with some inconvenience.

"Lots of people thought Washington could not handle the crowds at the Shrine convention. It is immensely gratifying to know that the National Capital can take care of some 300,000 visitors for nearly a week."

DODGED QUERIES

Those were some highly important questions which were put to the rail valuation conference recently held by the radicals, and which they dismissed as "a highly impertinent set of dishonest inquiries." The Chicago business men asked why the railroad valuation, which we were assured in 1910 would cost but $2,400,000, has not yet been completed, although $85,000,000 had bne espent on it, and with farm property increasing in value from $20,000,000 in 1900 to $77,000,000,000 in 1920 and the spot value of farm products from $5,000,000,000 to $18,000,000,000, why should there not have been legitimate increases in the value of railroad property? Naturally the conference dodged the queries.

COMMISSIONERS OF THE CAPITAL CITY DENY REQUEST TO PERMIT DANCING

Staid old Montgomery, with her traditions, aristocratic families and historic buildings was to be the scene of a marathon dance, open to all contenders in the terpischorean art from any point in the United States, until the promoter from Savannah, Ga., called on Mayor W. A. Gunter, Jr., and his colleagues at the city hall late Wednesday afternoon.

The plan for the long distance dance was laid before the city fathers, calling for a lease on the city auditorium for a sufficient number of days and nights to determine the most proficient dancer or dancers. Mayor Bill decided to stand by traditions and not give Montgomery what was termed as adverse publicity, and was supported in his declaration by Commissioners Orum and Hardaway. Mayor Gunter went further to say that if necessary, an ordinance would be adopted at an early date prohibiting such affairs. The present city code however, gives the commission supreme power on such questions.

NOTICE—SUMMER SCHOOL

Clanton, Ala., June 12, 1923.

To those pupils who wrote the seventh grade examination this year and were conditioned on one or more subjects and to high school pupils who wish to make up conditions on some subject on which they failed to pass:

I have had several requests from pupils to give a six weeks course of instruction in order that they might pass off the subjects on which they were conditioned, therefore, I am writing to you to ascertain whether or not you would be interested in a course of this nature.

The term will begin July 9th and continue for six weeks and will be given at Clanton. The fee will be six dollars, payable in advance, for the entire term.

If interested please advise me at once in order that I may arrange to enroll you.

Respectfully,
J. L. WILSON.

WEST CHILTON

To say everybody is busy is putting it mildly—they are in a rush. Weather dry for the past week.

Cleveland Martin of Herrin, Ill., is visiting here now.

Has the Macedonia correspondent gone on a vacation?

A goodly number from this part attended the Center Hill singing Sunday. They report a great time; large crowd, rich and bountiful dinner, sweet singing, good will abounding. The Center Hill people never do things by halves. They have a fine citizenship; the Cobb, McGraw, Scott, Sims, Abbott and other families are fine people, and know how to make visitors feel at home. Among the visitors were T. J. Jackson and family; the Hayes brothers of Lomax, Prof. Franklin of Thorsby, and the accomplished county convention Secretary, Miss Era Sanders. Her fine singing attracted considerable attention. It was an enjoyable time. Those Sunday singings just about make up the social life of our country now, and if we should say spiritual life we would not be far from correct. The beautiful poetry, the sweet music, often sweet reminders of loved ones of bygone days are real sources of inspiration, lifting us up to a holier atmosphere. No wonder we love the singings. Time has been here when no Sunday singings were held. Now it is no trouble. Just a line in the Union-Banner and they gather by hundreds. Let us be sure to appreciate the privilege.

ALL-DAY SINGING HELD AT CENTER HILL

Inasmuch as the Honorable Jack Jones of West Chilton has expressed his appreciation and gratification, personally, to those who helped make this the glorious day that it has been, he kindly requested me to inform the kind editor to allow me space that I might make a few remarks concerning the splendid Christian harmony singing held at Center Hill Church near Jemison, on this day—June 10th.

It was indeed a success, many singers being present, who were encouraged the more whenever their eyes rested upon the vast audience of listeners.

We want to assure you, good people of Center Hill, that we feel truly thankful and appreciative of your own participation in this service, and of your genial hospitality rendered otherwise—the bountiful dinner which was spread at the noon hour—unstintingly and free to all.

Please accept our thanks for all this kindness, and may you be the recipients of the reward that we feel due you, is the heartiest wish of us all who basked for one day in the sunshine of your welcome.

ERA SANDERS, Sec.

Tam Miller, Lloyd Teel, Joe Franklin and Walter Teel all went to Vredenburgh Sunday to visit Robert Teel. They report a nice trip and say they found Robert getting along fine.

ALL-DAY SINGING

There will be an all-day singing at Floyd Church the first Sunday in July. We invite all singers to come and bring their 1923 song books and a well filled basket, and also the Clanton Quartet especially.

Third.—We bequeath to the Juniors now bursting into full bloom, all precious peculiar, exclusive, advantageous, hard earned benefits and perogatives known as senior privileges; certain provisions to be carefully met and adhered to, namely:

1. Trips into the city of Thorsby provided no conversation is held with the opposite sex.

2. Holding of conversations in assembly hall without permission gained by the raising of the fore finger of the right hand, providing all said conversations shall relate to lessons only.

3. Free access to the Library providing all fiction or books dealing with affairs of the heart be carefully shunned.

4. Leaving of assembly providing there is no lingering in the halls or upon stairs and that heads are held erect.

Fourth.—We bequeath further to these sisters and brothers choice of seats in the assembly with the suggestions that they sit thereon with dignity least their choice be ignored by the honorable faculty.

Fifth.—We bequeath to the members of the student body of Thorsby Institute the privilege of being shining lights and examples providing they in no wise outshine the class of 1923.

Sixth.—I, Yancey Kelley, bequeath one blue coffee pot, which has given three years of excellent service in boiling egges, peanuts, sweet potatoes and in making cocoa to Plato Deason. I bequeath my position as general work supervisor and heartless attitude toward all who work under me to Codie Bell.

Seventh.—I, Truman Pierce, bequeath my silver-tongued oratorical ability to James Chapman with hopes for all future success.

Eighth.—I, Annie Hughes, bequeath my dignified bearing and excellent poise to Lillian McKee.

Tenth.—Wilbur ePterson, the capricious blonde have now decided in my fickleness to give up my love for the Turnipseed industry as I probably will go where it is too cold for the cultivation of such tender plants, my heating equipment for this business being limited to the Armstrong Heater which I feel would not be sufficient for the absorbing subject. Therefore, with much regret and sadness I will the care of this tender plant to Mr. Spurgeon Kelley, who is a very industrious young fellow.

Eleventh.—I, Esther Johnson, bequeath my mental cavity for history, to Mr. Sapping'on with the hope that he may be able to fill it.

Twelfth.—I, Ena Grenn bequeath to Opal Garrick, my monograph on How to Hold the Human Hand. Although considerably worn I hope it will be appreciated.

Thiteenth.—I, Edith Robinson, bequeath my permanent wave to Floy Jackson and my pride to Mary Moore.

Fourteenth.—I, Myrtle Jones, bequeath my power and ability in telling stories to Forrest Glenn to be substituted for his stories of a different nature.

Fifteenth.—I, Jessie Mims, bequeath my volumnious voice to Olene Mims; also my recipe to become six feet tall to Marvin Lowery.

Eighteenth.—We, the class of 1923, bequeath to Miss Helen C. Jenkins, our principal, our continued loyalty, and the devotion to the furtherance of the Thorsby spirit.

Seventeenth.—To our beloved faculty the class of 1923, respectfully bequeath our good will, devotion, loyalty and the training of our posterity.

Nineteenth.—We, the Senior class, will to Miss Ellsworth, our associate principal, the release from worry of granting us so many requests and permissions and wish her much success for the remainder of her life, for our love and admiration will always fololw her.

Twentieth.—We, the class of 1923, do hereby bequeath to Thorsby Institute the sum of thirty dollars to be used as the faculty may see fit for the improvement of the school.

Witness our hands this 31st day of May, 1923, A. D. Signed Senior Class, under the Seal of Thorsby Institute, State of Alabama, County of Chilton, Town of Thorsby.

Signed in the presence of each other.

UNION GROVE NEWS

Health of this community is very good at present.

Our Sunday school and prayer meeting is stil doing fine.

Sunday was our regular preaching day. We had a large crowd and listened to one of the best sermons ever heard delivered by our pastor, Rev. Wiley Davis.

The United Singing Society met in regular session at this place Sunday afternoon and had some more good singing. We had the Clanton quartet with us again which we were very glad to see. Directors for the afternoon were our President, Mr. E. L. Glasscock, Messrs. Akins Collins, Vester Campbell, Green Retherford and A. H. Glasscock. A quartet was rendered between each director.

Miss Claudie Davis was the guest of Miss Leone Hall Sunday.

Miss Lula Cofer spent Sunday with Miss Delene Collum.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Chandler and little son Leonard, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robinson Sunday.

The singing society meets at Collins Chapel next Sunday. We invite all singers to be with us.

Mr. T. G. Robinson of Lomax removed his family this week to Leeds, Ala., where he will work for the Vida Lumber company's mill there.

NOTICE, TOMATO GROWERS

Anyone who is growingtomatoes for the canning factory at Clanton and is having any trouble with bugs eating the plants should see someone at the county office of the United Farmers or Mr. Dixon at the factory and they will be given help that will enable them to get rid of the bugs.

O. H. MASTIN.

Mr. Thos. E. Pavey has been placed here as Secretary-Treasurer of the Alabama Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, in the place of Mr. B. C. Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. aMstin are leaving today for a visit of a few days to relatives in Butler county. While down in that section Mr. Mastin will visit some of the cotton mills and make arrangements to dispose of next year's crop of cotton for the United Farmers.

THE DIPPING BUSINESS

The sooner our people realize that this cattle dipping law is going to be enforced, the better it will be for us. This is a State and Federal law, and our local county officers have got to see that those laws are carried out just the same as all other laws. There have been a few men in the county who have refused to dip their cattle, and a warrant was sworn out for them. The sheriff is compelled to execute all warrants. This cannot cause anything except trouble and unnecessary expense to those who refuse to abide by the law. We all dislike the dipping business, but the quickest and only way to ever get out of it is to dip our ticky cattel and get the quarantine lifted from our county. Where vats are blown up, it only means extra expense to the county in rebuilding them and also a lot of extra trouble to the people of such community, who will necessarily have to drive their cows probably several miles to the nearest vat. So let's go ahead and dip our cattle according to law, and get through with the plegged thing, and thereby avoid expense to the county and trouble to ourselves and our neighbors.

In line with its policy of doing everything possible for the farmers of Tuscaloosa County and territory in general, the First National Bank of Tuscaloosa has employed B. R Holstun, an Auburn graduate, as a special agricultural agent for the bank, according to an announcement by Frank M. Moody, president.

One of the features of the South Lowell Reunion at Jasper, recently was Whit Denson's band. The band consists of Whit Denson and his two daughters, Eula, 13, and Virnelle, 11; and son, Master Oyel, 10. The Denison family reside at Alrey in Winston County. They have just returned from a trip up North.

Work has begun on the 2,000-spindle addition to the Avondale Mills at Alexander City, which will give employment to several hundred laborers during the summer months. The big addition means an investment of something like $1,000,000, including the building, equipment and cottages for the employes.

As a result of the conflicting legislation passed by the legislature of 1919 relating to Morgan county, Sam Brown, convicted of violating the prohibition law, was ordered discharged by the court of appeals in a decision rendered, the court holding, that a justice of the peace of Morgan county has no authority to issue warrants.

John Gore, negro, residing near Phenix City, seems to have a decided liking for the state penitentiary. He had just been released from that institution after serving two years for distilling, when he was arrested for a cimilar offense. A brand new outfit for the making of moonshine was destroyed near his home, officers say.

The Alabama Power Company is reported to have offered to purchase the electric lighting plant at Boaz, and the city council has ordered an election for June 26 for the purpose of ratifying the tentative contract. The city officials are said to be in favor of the sale. The price named is $14,800.

Arrested while preaching a sermon on the evils of liquor, to a gathering of negroes on the Southside, Birmingham, Rev. Amen Thornton negro, pastor of a church at Johns, Ala., was adjudged drunk by Recorder Henry J. Martin and fined $5.00.

Annual convention of the Rainbow divisions veterans of Alabama will be held in Montgomery August 4, according to announcement by Col. George Glenn, president of the state Rainbow veterans' chapter.

CANNING FACTORY COMING

We are pleased to report that the work on the canning factory is making fast progress. The work has been hindered a little on account of not being able to get some required lumber, the roads being so bad it could not be hauled. But the work is moving on, and the plant wil lbe in operation in plenty of time to take care of the demands.

Better Flour—Better Biscuits

The best cook in the world can't make good biscuits with poor flour. You owe it to your reputation as a cook to use the highest grade of flour you can buy.

There is no better flour made than Gilster's Best. It costs a little more than ordinary flour, because we pay a premium for our wheat—and because the flour is ground finer and sifted oftener. But you can taste the quality in your biscuits.

HARDING IS SURE; DEMOCRAT CHOICE STILL PERPLEXING

Political Writer, Robert J. Bender Gives Forecast As He Sees It.

(By Robert J. Bender, in the Birmingham Age-Herald)

New York, June 11.—Political events are rapidly shaping now to place these three presidential tickets before the public a year hence:

Republican ticket: Warren G. Harding and Theodore Roosevelt.

Democratic ticket: Senator Samuel Ralston and Gov. Al Smith.

Farmer-Labor: Senator James Reed and Perley Christensen.

Henry Ford will not be a candidate for the Presidential nomination of any of these tickets; and, because he knows that writing in his name on ballots will not elect him without a powerful organization behind him, he will not be a candidate on any independent ticket.

In suggesting the above tickets as possible of confirmation within the next ten months, the writer is influenced by the opinion of political leaders of proved experience. President Harding of course will be re-nominated as standard bearer of the G. O. P. because, as Senator Jim Watson recently explained, no one else can run on the Harding administration record. Because Vice-President Coolidge is regarded by party spokesmen as lacking a personality to arouse the electorate, it is freely predicted that Coolidge will not run for re-election with Harding but will give way to someone from the progressive wing of the party—probably Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Roosevelt. With Harding and Roosevelt, there will be the replica of the campaign in which McKinley and Roosevelt, Sr., rode to victory 24 years ago.

Smith For Second Place

Despite all the clamor that has been raised over Gov. Al Smith's action in signing the state prohibition enforcement law repealer, he will not be the democratic nominee or even a powerful contender for the nomination as party standard bearer next year. Rather, because of his personal popularity, it is more likely he will be in second place on a ticket, headed by some compromise candidate between the several factions within the party—and such a compromise now would strongly favor Senator Ralston of Indiana. Ralston and Smith would constitute a team with a positive progressive flavor, with an appeal to farmer and worker, respectively, and with that conservative record, too, that would command a confidence in the business world such as perhaps no other combination of candidates could muster within the democratic party.

In going beyond the two old parties, political leaders are hesitant to predict what might happen. They do not see Ford as a candidate of any party or independent group, despite considerable popular agitation for him, and the fact that straw polls usually find him out in front. The recent declaration of William Randolph Hearst that he favored Senator James Reed of Missouri as a presidential nominee foretells the possibility of Hearst attempting to support a third party ticket behind Reed. Reed cannot get the democratic nomination, in view of the bitterness within his own state against him and the open opposition of Woodrow Wilson. Were he to be railroaded into the democratic nomination—and there is a powerful movement right now originating in California to accomplish this—it would split the democratic party wide open.

May Be Third Party

There is a greater likelihood of Reed leading a third party ticket. He and Perley Christensen, who headed a so-called farmer-labor party ticket in 1920, might run together on a similar ticket.

Christensen has called a meeting for next month in Chicago to start the wheels of such a party going. Ford couldn't be expected to receive the nomination of such a group because, while the farmers might be for him, labor has never subscribed to his standards.

The possibility of Reed, LaFollette or any other smart politician accepting the nomination of a third party next year, however, depends entirely on wether such a third party can be organized. LaFollette shied at the farmer-labor party in 1920 because it was nothing but a scrap of paper. Neither LaFollette nor Reed would batter his head against a wall, but either might run on new party if they were sure of its financial security.

NEW BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Business men from other places are taking notice of the industrial advantages afforded them in Clanton. They realize that Clanton is a hustling town, and has every indication of becoming a wide-awake little city in a very short time. This time the new business under discussion is the Miles Garage. Messrs. R. J. Miles and J. P. Miles of Columbiana have leased the automobile shop of Mr. C. W. Wade, and will build up there a first-class repair shop for all kinds of automobiles. These two gentlemen are now and have been for sime time operating the Calumbiana Hardware Company. Mr. R. J. Miles will stay on at Columbiana until he can dispose of his hardware business there, in the meantime his son, J. P. Miles will be the manager of the garage here. Mr. R. J. Miles intends to move his family here just as soon as he can make the proper disposition of his home and business at Columbiana.

The new concern will still keep the sub-agency for Chevrolet cars, but for the present will have no salesmen on the road. The young Mr. Miles will be assisted in the garage by Mr. Walter L. Culp of Clanton, who is a graduate of the Sweney Auto School. The manager of the business is also a good mechanic, being a product of the same school.

SHOULTS NEWS

Health of this community is good.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely, under the management of Bro. H. R. Oden. One of our teachers, Miss Myrtle McAfee left Sunday night for Selma, where she will take up her position as telephone operator. She will be missed, not only by her pupils but by all. She was a splendid teacher for the little ones. They all loved her and was sorry to see her leave.

Miss Ena Hall will take the little class on a picnic Sunday a.m. about 10 o'clock. She will meet them at the school house. She wants all who are in that class to meet her there and bring a small lunch with them.

Miss Evelyn Kelley was among the visitors in the intermediate class last Sunday. She is the little daughter of Mrs. Kate Kelley, formerly of this community. She now lives in Tuscaloosa.

Miss Ena Hall was the guest of Miss Annie McGee Sunday.

Mr. M. C. Thacker and Mr. Velmon Sewell of Maplesville were the guests of Mr. Denson Sewell Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Latham entertained the young people at their home Saturday night with a cream supper. Everyone present seemed to enjoy themselves.

Mr. Dorris Cook of Stanton was a visitor in our community Sunday p.m.

There will be a box supper at Shoults school house Saturday night, given by the B. Y. P. U. Everybody come.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

REGISTER BETWEEN JULY 7TH AND 18TH

We are carrying elsewhere in this issue the announcement of the Board of Registrars that they will be at the court house from July 7th to July 18th inclusive, for the purpose of registering those who are qualified to register in this county. So if you are qualified otherwise as a voter in this county and expect to vote in the coming elections, you had better take advantage of this opportunity.

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

Forty-three thousand and nine Alabamians paid the federal government in the form of income taxes for 1921, $2,713,826, it is officially announced. The total income of those who paid was $117,108,806, as against $156,604,933 in 1920. The percentage of the population paying income taxes in 1921 was only 1.83. The average net income was $2,722.89, and the average tax $63-10. Alabama cities making more than 1,000 returns were Birmingham, 14,800; Mobile, 4,500; Montgomery, 4,350; Selma, 1,320 and Bessemer, 1.041.

At a meeting of the town council a contract was awarded to the Southern Roads Co., of Birmingham, for about a mile of street paving in Geneva, on Commerce Street and Town Street. The material for this paving is to be bithulithic on concrete base. A contract was also awarded to J. P. Carter of Geneva for the building of about five miles of side walks, gutters and curbing on Commerce Street, North Commerce Street, Church Street, and Live Oak Street.

When appeales are taken from trial courts to the Alabama Court of Appeals, jurisdiction of such appealed cases is transferred to the higher court. Trial courts having no jurisdiction in which appeals are pending, cannot, therefore, grant a new trial in such cases. The Alabama Court of Appeals laid down this rule in the case of the state ex rel attorney general, etc., vs. the judge of the Fifth judicial circuit, Tallapoosa Circuit Court.

According to Government report for May, Alabama temperatures averaged slightly below normal with showers general on four days, being locally heavy. Farm work was delayed and fields are grassy in many sections. The progress of cotton varied from fair to deterioration; plants are generally small and condition of crop mostly poor to fair; chopping continues; weevil appearing in a few scattered places.

Russell Hunter, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hunter, of Houston, a small village north of Jasper, was fatally kicked by a mule He and his brother going home from the field, came to a fence, dismounted and let the mule through. After fastening up the fence, Louie walked behind the mule when it kicked him in the stomach. He lived only a few hours.

The Dadeville Cotton and Gin Company is remodelling its gin department, installing new machinery, etc., and when finished will be one of the most modern and best equipped plants in the state. It is to be operated by electric power furnished by the Alabama Power Company. The operators are Wm. Craig, Jr., W. C. Stone, of Dadeville; W. D. Graves, of Alexander City.

Montgomery Legionnaires after vigorously condemning the action of those who challenged indiscriminately the vote of former servie men during the recent municipal election, in a resolution adopted at the June meeting of the post, resolved to ask for legislation that will make such action a misdemeanor.

Bids on $250,000 of the $1,000,000 bond issue for schools has been asked by the Montgomery City Commission. The bonds offered in this connection will be dated July 1, 1923, and will mature in 30 years, bearing 5 per cent interest, it is said by commissioners.

A big barbecue is the latest feature to be added to the unveiling home coming and Memorial Day exercises that take place in Alexander City June 14, when Senator Heflin and Governor Brandon will be the principal speakers of the day.

The county commissioners of Marshall County have ordered an election to be held at Boaz Saturday, June 23, for the purpose of determining whether the town shall levy a three-mill tax for school purposes.

Public instruction in the respect due the American flag will be begun soon by the United Memorial Day Association of Birmingham, in accordance with a recent decision, using the method of lectures in public schools and before civic organizations.

Suit has been filed for $25,000 damages in the circuit court of Talladega County by G. W. Bise vs. M. C. Matthews, Lumus Matthews, Hewell Billingsley and Dixon Coleman Bice claims that the defendants on Dec. 24, 1922, assaulted, bruised and punished him, and as a result he lost a great deal of time from his work and was compelled to spend a good sum of money for doctors and medical attention.

A bill to provide for the state taking over the old Cahaba Cemetery, now in a sadly neglected condition, will be introduced at the July session of the legislature by Senator J. B. Ellis, who will seek to induce the adoption of the measure by which the state will claim as its own property, and properly provide for its upkeep, the historic burying ground of the state's first capital.

The Corona Coal Co. is building a pike road from Coal Valley to Townley. The Corona Company is preparing to reopen mine No. 1 at Townley, and the company wants the Townley mine connected by a good road with its other mines at Coal Valley, Patton and Corona in the southern part of Walker county, it is stated.

Police officers of Anniston made a total of 198 arrests during the month of May, the report of City Warden J. W. Wakely shows. Of this number 92 were white males, 16 white females, 69 negro males and 16 negro females. It was also shown in the report that 1,358 meals were served to city prisoners during the month.

The Opp Weekly News is now in its new quarters on Railroad Ave., just opposite the L. & N. Station. The editors, E E. Johnson and Gus Byran, have recently installed a new typesetting machine and new press and are now in position to make noticeable improveemnts in the appearance of the paper.

The Jefferson County Medical Society adopted resolutions condemning the courtroom disorders which took place at the close of the trial of E. G. Jacks, one of the nine men indicted as an alleged member of the party who abducted and flogged Dr. J. D. Dowling, city and county health officer, May 17, 1922.

GOVERNOR SMITH NOT SO STRONG

Wet Tide Expected After Signing Dry Law Repealer Fails to Materialize.

Washington, June 16.—The tide of "wetness" which many persons thought would sweep the country on the heels of Gov. Al Smith's action in signing the dry law repealer in New York State, has signally failed to materialize.

Even Gov. Smith himself has found it necessary to drop the intimation to some of his more enthusiastic followers that "the general sentiment of the country still seems to be dry."

An attempt to rush a dry law repealer through the Illinois Legislature came to grief. A similar attempt in supposedly wet Wisconsin has been met with a significant delay.

Gov. Smith's arrival at French Lick, Ind., has not found any violent movement in progress to make him the wet candidate for president of the United States on the Democratic ticket. On the other hand, even so "damp" an enthusiast as Tom Taggart himself has issued a statement saying that Indiana is for Samuel L. Ralston first, last and all the time—and Senator Ralston is a dry.

The developments of the week in Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin are both significant and interesting. They indicate very plainly that a wet wave cannot get very far from the Northern Atlantic seaboard.

Therefore the freely made predictions of the last few days that the next presidential campaign will be fought out on the wet and dry question, leaving other national and international issues in the discard, are not based upon a knowledge of conditions in the country at large.

G. O. P. "Bone Dry"

It is conceded that the Republican party will be "bone dry" in the next campaign. President Harding and various other leaders have said so. The G. O. P. will stand on a platform for prohibition enforcement up to the hilt.

It is also certain that various wet elements within the Democratic party—and some of these elements have great influence—will make an effort to capture the Democratic convention of 1924, both in the matter of platform declarations and the naming of a candidate of exceedingly liberal views.

But, disappointing as it may be to the wet adherents, even the most casual survey shows that the Democratic party nationally will repulse all wet onslaughts and will come before the people almost if not quite as dry as the Republicans.

It is all very well to say that a wet Democratic candidate, carrying a few of the populous states of the East and the solid South could be elected to the presidency; it is all very well to assume that the South will vote for a Democrat, be he wet or be he dry, but the amateur politicians who are fixing things up so beautifully have first got to figure out how an avowed wet can win the Democratic nomination over the protest of the dry West and the still dryer South.

It requires a two-thirds vote to win the Democratic presidential nomination.

There is absolutely no possibility of two-thirds of the delegates to the next Democratic convention being wet, or even moderately damp. It is doubtful if even one-third will be wet or damp. Therefore there will issue from the convention neither a wet platform nor a wet candidate. This situation is thoroughly understood by the old hands at the Democratic wheel.

Wilson Could Win

It is admitted that if he were physically capable, Woodrow Wilson might win a third Democratic nomination, but he is the only moderately wet person who could. In Wilson's case, the larger policies to which he would be expected to devote himself, would outweigh his liberal views on prohibition.

NEW TRIPS URGED UPON PRESIDENT

G. O. P. Leaders Tell Harding He Should Make Three Other Journeys.

Washington, June 16.—On the eve of his departure for Alaska, President Harding was besieged by Republican leaders with urgent pleas to make a series of political speaking tours in the Fall. As a result, the president Saturday night was understood seriously to be considering making at least one or three other trips urged upon him by advisers. They are:

(1). A trip into New England, including Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

(2). A tour of the mid-West and Northwest, including Iowa, the Dakotas, Michigan and Ohio.

(3). A trip into the Southwest, touching Kentucky, Tennessee and Oklahoma. In the event of Mexican recognition he might go to El Paso, Tex., and meet President Obregon on the international bridge.

Plans for all these trips are still tentative, and much depends upon the political situation when the president returns from Alaska, two months hence, it was said.

Congress convening in December with the world court, transportation legislation and all the supply bills in addition to a full program to get out of the way, will probably prevent the president from making more than one trip, it was pointed out.

NEW LAW FIRM

We are pleased to announce that Mr. A. C. Smith is coming back to Clanton to practice his profession as lawyer. He and his son C. B. Smith, who recently graduated in law at the University of Alabama, will be the members of the firm, the style of which is Smith & Smith. Mr. A. C. Smith is well known in this section, having practiced law here for a number of years up to about two years ago, when bad health forced him to temporarily give up his profession. Cecil B. is a bright promising young man, and with the aid and tutelage of his experienced father, he will very likely make an enviable success in the law business.

Mr. Smith will not move his family away from Coopers until probably the latter part of the summer. They will go back and forth in their automobile.

NEW MACHINE IN CLANTON

Mr. G. W. Marcus has recently taken a big step forward in the building of a better equipped place for his meat market. He has purchased a refrigerator and cold storage plant which requires no ice to operate, but which does the work in perfect fashion. The total cost of the new equipment is about $1,700, and this market, when finally completed will be equal to any in the large cities. Mr. Marcus believes in keeping his business up with the times, and is therefore, joining in with all the other more advanced industries by doing his work with electricity.

CLANTON, JULY FOURTH

That big day in Clanton is less than two weeks off now. Bear that in mind, and make your arrangements to come here on that day. The fun will start early in the morning, so don't wait too late, lest you miss some of the best stunts of the day. You need not stand back for fear that you will get thirsty and can find nothing to drink, for ample provision will be made for you. There will be enough drinkables and eatables to satisfy just as many as are present that day. But plenty to eat and drink is not all. They have prepared a program of stunts and performances as long as your arm, which will be coming off all times of the day. One thing of importance on the program will be a speech by a representative of the U. F. of A.

You just simply can't afford not to be here, because if you do you will miss the time of your life. Come early and bring all the folks prepared to spend the entire day.

BIG DAY AT JEMISON SATURDAY, JUNE 30

There will be a picnic and barbecue at Jemison on Saturday, June 30th. The Governor and other prominent men of the state will be there. The new school building will be dedicated; officers of the Masonic Lodge installed, ball games and other attractions. Everybody come.

Uncle Jimmie Mims of Collins Chapel was here Monday helping count the ballots cast in the school election last week.

WEEVILNIP VS. WEEVILS

We have been running a series of advertisements for a new kind of boll weevil killer, called Weevilnip. This preparation is highly praised by those who have used it, as is shown by the testimonials given in their advertisements. Several farmers in Chilton county have used the preparation, and they speak well of the results obtained.

We wish to call your attention to the fact that this preparation was perfected by a Chilton county young man, namely Mr. Wm. J. Mims. Mr. Mims is the son of Mr. Johhnie Mims of Route 4, and spent most of his time up to a few years ago teaching in different parts of the state.

We are proud to see that Mr. Mims is making a success in his undertaking. The destruction of the boll weevil is a thing of considerable benefit to the cotton farmers of the country. We feel that especially the farmers of this county should give Mr. Mims' remedy a trial. Read the full particulars of it in his advertisement.

Miss Alice Wyatt is back on her job at Bean Brothers, after a two-weeks vacation spent with the measles.

Wilbert Hayes was married to Miss Bessie Floyd of Clayton last week at the latter's home. Wilbert, better known as "Dick" is the well known son of Dr. J. P. Hayes of Clanton, while his bride taught in the city grammar school here last session. We join their host of friends in wishing them a long, happy married life.

HIGH VOLTAGE LINE PETITION DISALLOWED

Needs of Section Served by Huntsville-Sheffield Circuit Would Not Be Served, Utilities Board Says

Plans of the Alabama Power Company for immediate additions to its equipment were given a blow by the public service commission late Monday afternoon when it handed down a decision denying the company's application for permission to construct a high-voltage transmission line from Huntsville to Sheffield and another decision postponing action on the company's petition for the right to develop a hydro-electric unit at Lock 17, Warrior river.

In denying the petition for the construction of the transmission line from Huntsville to Sheffield, the public service commission held that the expenditure of more than $600,000 on a project which might be of temporary efficacy was not warranted and that the immediate needs of the section which would be served by the new line were not great enough to call for the development.

In reaching its decision to postpone action on the petition for the right to develop a hydro-electric unit at Lock 17, the commission announced that action would not be taken until the legislature had considered the subject of a water power policy and until there was a better indication that a market would be found for the power which would be generated at the Lock 17 plant.

REV S. J. EZELL CONDUCTING BIG REVIVAL AT FAIRFAX

Beginning last Monday, Rev. S. J. Ezell, pastor of the Clanton Baptist Church, is conducting a revival at Fairfax in Chambers County. Rev. C. H. Lane, pastor of the Fairfax Methodist Church, will have charge of the services Sunday, and Rev. Ezell, who will be the evangelist during the revival, will take charge Monday.

The people of Fairfax are very fortunate in getting such a splendid preacher to conduct their revival. We predict that they will enjoy a general awakening in religion while Rev. Ezell is in their midst.

ALEXANDER CITY WELCOMES DAM

Alabama Power Co. $7,000,000 Development Pleases Tallapoosa Citizens.

Alexander City, Ala., June 16.—The announcement that the Alabama Power Company will build a $7,000,000 dam across the Tallapoosa River at Cherokee Bluffs, near this city, was received with delight by the people of this city and section.

Tallapoosa County is putting forth every possible effort to induce people to invest in cotton mills in the county, and they realize that an abundance of power is one of the greatest inducements that can be offered, and it is for this reason that the people of Alexander City and the surrounding territory feel that with much power right at their doors, their chances of obtaining enterprises will be better.

Then, too, the county has just granted exemptions to cotton mills and additions to mills already in existence of 5,000 or more spindles from county taxes for a period of five years. It is felt that this, within itself, will be an inducement to have capital come in and invest in cotton mills.

In the meantime, however, the people of the county are not waiting for outside capital to come in and build their mills for them, but they are building them with home capital. Tallapoosa County now has about one-tenth of all the spindles of the state and 20,000 spindles are being added to one mill already in Alexander City and a new mill will be started during the present Summer, which will give her a still greater proportion unless there is much building done by some other sections of the state.

CAR WASHING PLACE

The Clanton Motor Car Company is building a car washing place on the Hayes lot just across the alley from their garage. They are going to put a cover over it so that when the cars are being washed the baking sun will not dry them faster than they can be washed.

BILL DRAFTED TO END HANGING AND SUBSTITUTE CHAIR

Senator Inzer's Measure Provides for Electrocution of Condemned

The electric chair will be substituted for the gallows in Alabama if a bill prepared by Senator J. C. Inzer of Etowah becomes a law. The draft of the measure was completed and will be introduced at the July session of the legislature. It provides for the electrocution of all condemned prisoners at Kilby prison at Montgomery and authorizes the state convict board to provide the necessary equipment. It also stipulates that the warden at Kilby prison will be the executioner and that nobody may witness an execution except a few state officials, two physicians, a spiritual adviser of the condemned and members of his or her family.

SCHOOL ELECTION CARRIED

The school election held in several various districts of the county last Friday carried. The number voting was very small, but a majority was cast in favor of the proposed changes in every district except the consolidation of Isabella and Mt. Carmel districts, where we learn, the vote tied, which means the proposition in these two districts fell down.

The Voice of the Soul

By Miss Mary Ella Gerald

Great song writers and poets have poured out their souls in wonderful expressions. These outpourings of their thoughts may well be termed the "Voice of the Soul." As one writer has said:

"Prayer is the soul's sincere desire, Uttered or unexpressed."

A large number of hymns are prayers which have been uttered by people wher their souls have been deeply stirred. Hymns have brought peace and comfort to sad hearts. They have brought faith and hope to the despairing and unbelieving. Many souls have found their Savior through these songs. Hymns serve to draw people closer together, to inspire, to teach, and to arouse them to action.

The first recorded expression of the Voice of the Soul in hymn form was in the Song of Miriam after the children of Israel had crossed the Red Sea. She was so moved that she poured out her soul in a song of thanks and praise. The Psalms of David are the most beautiful songs that have ever been written. In poetic value and as masterpieces of world literature they constitute a collection of hymns which has never been equalled. No works of any other author have surpassed them in variety. They contain that which brings comfort and cheer to people in all times of need. The Song of Soloman is another great expression that comes from the depth of the soul. It shows forth the joy of rtue religion, and sings praises of the church.

The Reformation gave a great impulse to the writing of sacred songs. It marked the beginning of the world's richest hymnology. The Reformation was a religious revival and the people suffered many trials and persecutions. People were greatly affected thereby and many voiced their feelings in hymns. Martin Luther, the greatest hymn writer, had a great influence because he introduced the language of everyday life for hymns. His greatest hymn is A Mighty Fortress Is Our God. He based it on the Forty-sixth Psalm. The occasion which prompted this hymn is uncertain. Whatever its origin, it immediately influenced all Germany. Everybody sang it, children on the streets, men and women in the fields, congregations i churches, ad soldiers in battle. When he was in great peril, it was an inspiration to Luther himself. When his great cause seemed almost lost, he was comforted by turning to his friend, Melancthon, and saying, "Come, Philip, let us sing the Forty-sixth Psalm."

The influence of the hymn did not cease when Luther died. Melancthon, Jonas, and Crueiger, when banished from Wittenberg in 1547, heard a little girl singing it as they entered Weimar. Thus their hearts were comforted and gladdened.

After the battle of Sedan some German troops were lodged in a church. They were worn out and excited, and sleep seemed impossible. Some one began to play Luther's hymn on the organ. The soldiers united in singing the hymn and after this they fell into peaceful slumber. This is only one of the many instances in which hymns have brought rest to wearied souls.

Before the time of Isaac Watts there were few metrical songs which people could unite in singing. The psalm-singing of the Puritan fathers was monotonous. In Alice Morse Earle's book, The Sabbath in Puritan New England, is an incident that serves to show the condition of Church hymnology in the early part of the eighteenth century. It is told of the Reverend Doctor Weht, who preached at Dartmouth in 1726. One Sabbath morning he forgot to bring his sermon to meeting. He gave out a Psalm to be chanted, walked a quarter of a mile to his home, got hsi sermon and was back in his pulpit before the Psalm was finished.

Isaac Watts, Charles Wesley and Fanny Crosby constitute the three greatest writers of English hymnology. Watts was the founder of it. When sixteen years old, he was so bright in school and lovable in disposition that he was offered a free education in a university. If he had accepted this offer it would have meant the eventual ordination in the Established Church. This was the crisis of his life. Watts did not believe in this church and he had the will power to refuse the high honors that the university would confer on him and remain in the church of his parents. This determined the soul-standard of the coming man. If this decision had not been made, Watts might never have become the founder of our Christian hymnology.

When he came home from church one morning, he complained to his father that the hymns were very dull and said that he believed he could write better hymns himself. His father urged him to try. His first hymn was eBhold the Glories of the Lamb. This hymn began Watt's triumph in hmyn writing. His greatest hymn is When I Survey the Wond'rous Cross. All of his hymns have had a profound influence on people. In 1830, James Delaney, a British artilleryman was doing service in India. His command was stationed at Maulmain, where he heard the remarkable preaching of Eugenia Kincaid. At one of the services he heard for the first time When I Survey the Wond'rous Cross. The hymn stirred his soul as nothing ever had. He had led a life insensible to religious influences; but the song so deeply moved him that his course of life was changed at once. His conversion was complete and he was baptized within a few weeks. Later he came to the United States. He became a Baptist missionary and afterwards a regular preacher. The good he accomplished was no less remarkable than his conversion.

Although Watts was the founder of English hymnology, the sacred songs which stirred the hearts of men most were not written until Charles Wesley's time. When he was fifteen years old, a wealthy man, Garret Wesley, an Irish member of Parliament, wanted to adopt him. His father let him decide and he declined. In 1735 he became a clergyman of the church of England, and went on a missionary journey to Georgia with his brother John. Within a year, broken in health and discouraged, he came back to England. He had found no one who could tell him how the hunger of his soul could be satisfied. He soon learned what true religion was from Peter Bohler, a Moravian minister, and Thomas Bray, an unlearned mechanic, who knew eJsus Christ. On the day of his conversion he celebrated his triumph over spiritual gloom by writing a song of rejoicing.

In 1744 the spirit of persecution was strong in some parts of England against the Wesleys. Charles was driven from his church. In these troublous times he wrote many of his beautiful hymns. His masterpiece is eJsus Lover of My Soul, which all Christian churches honor. This hymn has brought comfort to innumerable deathbeds.

In connection with the Civil War a beautiful story is told of this hymn. In a company of old soldiers, from the Union and Confederate armies, a former Confederate was telling of one night when he saw a sentry of the opposing army on the opposite bank of the river. He was about to shoot when the sentry began to sing, "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The Confederate soldier listened and when the Union soldier came to the words, "Cover my defenseless head, With the Shadow of Thy Sing," the hidden Confederate lowered his gun and stole away. "I can't kill that man," said he, "though he were ten times my enemy."

In the company was an old Union soldier who asked,

"Was that in the Atlanta campaign of '64?"

"Yes," said the Confederate soldier.

"Then I was the Union sentry!"

Then the Union soldier told of his depression that night because he knew he was in great danger. He had begun to sing that song to keep up his courage. When he had finished he was not afraid. Through the hymn God had spoken to two souls.

Fanny Crosby, one of the world's greatest hymn-writers, was blind from early infancy. In spite of this handicap she was always happy and refused to be pitied because of her affliction. She wrote more than three thousand hymns. A large number of these seem destined to live forever. Thousands of lives have been blessed by them, and there is scarcely one which has not won many souls to the Savior. Saved by Grace is one of her greatest revival hymns. Rescue the Perishing is her most powerful song in mission enterprises. It has rescued many lives from wretchedness and crime.

There are many famous hymns written by various authors. Rock of Ages, written by Toplady, is a direct and personal appeal to God. Toplady had a vigorous mind but a weak body. The last two years of his life were a struggle against consumption. It was during this time that he wrote his immortal hymn, Rock of Ages. In it he shows us the only remedy for sin.

Nearer My God, To Thee is the greatest hymn ever written by a woman. It was written by Mrs. Sarah Flower Adams. She and her sister, Eliza, inherited a weak constitution from their mother, who died of consumption. Life was hard struggle for the two sisters, and in her great affliction Sarah expresed her heart's desire in Nearer, My God, To Thee. which has touched the hearts of mankind in all parts of the world.

O Love That Will Not eLt Me Go was written by George Matheson. He was engaged to a young lady ,but upon obtaining her from the engagement. Some time later when he came home from the wedding of one of his relatives, he thought of the things that he would miss and the lonely life he would lead. Then he wrote O Love That Will Not eLt Me Go, which chered and ecmforted his sorrowful soul.

Lead Kindly Light was written by oJhn Henry Newman. It is the prayer of a storm-tossed soul for guidance to the light. Newman had ben ien southern Europe because of il lhealth, on his way home while the ship was becalmed he wrote Lead Kindly Light. It has become a favorite hymn of many people.

The Voice of the Soul will never be silent. As long as there is darkness and sin in the korld, there will be heard the voices of those who like the psalmists of old bring comfort, encouragement and the blessing or salvation to those in need, until, in the words of Isaac Watt's hymn.

Jesus shall reign wher'er the sun
Does his succesive journeys run;
His Kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

If it isn't Thedford's it isn't BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine.

CORINTH SINGING

We had a good singing last Sunday. We organized at 9:30. Song by N. J. Jones, chairman. Prayer by S. M. Yates. Arranging committee, A. M. Jones, J. S. Jones, J. J. Boone. Directors for the morning service were: N. J. Jones, A. L. Robinson, Archie Jones, S. M. Yates, J. M. D. Gulledge, T. L. Robinson, Lee Robinson. Recess for 15 minutes. We then returned to the house for preaching service. Rev. J. D. Hughes delivered us a wonderful sermon. The text was: The Saved Life. We adjourned till 1:30 for refreshments.

We are taught that United We Stand, Divided We Fall, and it seemed as we were divided at noon.

We were called to order at 1:30 by Chairman. Directors for the afternoon were: John McCord, J. J. Boone, L. F. Clakeler, I. D. Huett, A. M. Jones, William White, Archie Devaughn, E. F. Taylor, Alfred Jones. Each director 3 songs. Mixed quartet by Lee Robinson, L. F. Clakeler, Claudie Hughes, Alma Barrett. Male quartet by Lee Robinson, Archie Jones, L. F. Clakeler, I. D. Huett. Organists for the day were: Lee Robinson, Archie Jones, Richard McKinney, Annie Boswell, Lola Jones, Claudie Hughes.

Dismissed by prayer by Rev. W. A. Goss.

We wish to thank the people for their good behavior and the singers for their good help. The day was spent in singing praises to God.

We ask all to come back and help us again next year. And remember our singing society meets every 2nd and 4th Sunday afternoon.

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

A fight with a burglar resulted in Mrs. L. A. Thomas being under a physician's care at her home at Ensley. According to reports made to police headquarters, Mrs. Thomas was awakened by a man standing beside her bed holding a gun. The young woman seized the gun and grappled with the burglar, who had in the meantime extracted a pocketbook containing a quantity of bills from her husband's pockets. A fight followed, during which Mr. Thomas did not awaken until the intruder jumped through a screen and made his getaway.

Permission to expend approximately $10,000,000 in the erection of a hydroelectric dam on the Tallapoosa river near Tallassee, Ala., has been granted the Alabama Power Company by the Alabama Public Service Commission. The dam when completed will be one of the largest hydroelectric plants in Alabama, developing 132,000 horsepower, officials of the power company have stated. Construction on the dam will begin at once, the public service commission members have been told.

State law enforcement officers and the forces of the sheriff of Elmore county have captured a 750-gallon still near Coosa dam and only a few miles from Montgomery. A smaller still of 150 gallons capacity was also taken. In Lee county a 400-gallon still has been destroyed near the celebrated Goatrock, and a 60-gallon still captured in Limestone county, state, county and federal deputies participating in both raids.

With the announcement by Governor Brandon that an election would be held in Mobile county on July 14 to fill the vacancies in Mobile's delegation to the Alabama legislature, caused by the regisnation of R. E. Cunningham and John J. Russell, the names of two Mobilians have been mentioned in connection with the office as follows: William H. Holcombe, Jr., former sheriff of Mobile County, and Vincent Kilborn, a Mobile attorney.

Charging that after she had asked a conductor to notify her when the train reached Lynn's Crossing, Ala., and put her off at that point, he failed to do so and brought her to Birmingham, where she was a stranger and without means, Floy Bell has filed suit in the circuit court at Montgomery for $3,000 damages against the Southern Railway company.

J. A. Bowdoin, representing the A. C. L. Railroad, has appealed to members of the Chamber of Commerce of Montgomery to assist the railroads in moving what they believe will be the greatest traffic in the nation's history. Mr. Bowdoin says indications are that the movement of next fall will be greater than any time in the past.

Owing to recent new business industries developed at Fort Deposit, property owners are meeting with a serious problem, inasmuch as there is not a vacant residence within the corporate limits of the town. It is predicted that the population of Fort Deposit will be doubled within 12 months if suitable homes can be provided.

At a meeting of the Walker county board of education at Jasper, county superintendent of education, J. Alex Moore, has been authorized to construct 10 new school houses in Walker county at the following places: Beach Grove, Price Springs, Fairview, Aldridge, Galloway, Wyatt, Patton Hill Gravleeton, Hillard and Sarragossa.

The following commissions have been issued by S. H. Blan, secretary of state: Mark Shirley, Pelham; W M. Davison, Birmingham; V. G. Wilson and S. B. Sightleer, Montgomery; R. L. Leonard, Dora, and Miss Sarah Cunningham, Talladega, notaries public.

Tuesday, June 19, was celebrated as National Guard day at Talladega when units from a number of towns about Talladega participated as well as from Camp McClellan.

E. G. Britton, of Choctaw, has been appointed license inspector for Choctaw County by the state tax commission.

The Walker county highway commission has advertised for bids for the construction of two miles of gravel road on the Marylee road near South Lowell.

A UNIQUE SCHOOL

The Coley-Blacksher Vocational School for Boys, of which Dr. J. M. Shofner, Brewton, Ala., is president, seems to be answering a definite need in the educational system of Alabama.

It has for its athletics, work on the Farm, erecting buildings, etc.

While Coley-Blacksher is only two years old it has fifty-eight acres of land now under cultivation, forty of which were cleared by the Boys of the boarding department.

Under a supervisor, these boys erected a wing to the dormitory during the past session.

We are developing a dairy, with three cows, also a Hog farm, with thirty hogs, in connection with the School.

A Summer School is now in session. It is the plan of the president to conduct school twelve months in the year, divided into four terms of three months each.

HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

The 5-room home and furnishings of V. M. Price and family, 2 1-2 miles west of Verbena, was destroyed by fire about 7:30 on Thursday night, June 7th. The fire which started in a lower room, fanned by a remittant wind, spread rapidly over the entire building. Everything is in the ruins of the building, with the exception of one bed and mattresses, two trunks, machine and a few wearing apparels.

There will be an all-day singing here next second Sunday, July the 8th. Everybody is invited to come and bring your 1923 song books and a well filled basket.

JOYFUL FAMILY REUNION

"Two of my brothers, a sister, as well as myself have been chronic sufferers from gas in stomach, indigestion, pain in right side near appendix and liver trouble for many years. My sister tried Mayr's Wonderful Remedy with such good results that we all took a course of it and it helped in each case. Last Sunday we had a family reunion in celebration of our recovery and what we all did eat." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Allred Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.

Winston, the largest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Powell, was carried to the Central Alabama Hospital last Thursday to have his tonsils and adenoids removed. He stood the operation fine, and is doing well now.

The Banner force was glad to have as one of our visitors Saturday Mr. B. L. Cobb of Jemison, Route 1. Mr. Cobb is a staunch Republican and is always found working for the success of the party.

Henry Ford issued the statement in Springfield recently that "I have no desire to become president of the United States." He evidently meant to say that he had no hopes to become president.

We hear it in the air that the Ku Klux have been doing a little clean up work in Clanton recently. We say hurrah for them. We hope they will rid Clanton of all of its meaness and crookedness.

It seems that Gov. Al Smith's action against the prohibition law has not brought him the popularity which he figured on. He has already conceded since his action that there are more "drys" in the country than there are "wets."

From what we can hear, the Democrats in session here last Friday got somewhat divided and split up. We presume that they were not all exactly satisfied with the recent decision of the Supreme Court in regard to the contest.

If our prisons were made to comply with the wishes of some, it would be more desirable to be a convict than a good citizen, and life would be more enjoyable there than in most of our homes. If we are going to quit punishing criminals, we might as well abolish officers, courts and all.

We read with interest a nice article in the Manufacturers Record by Mr. W. J. Baldwin of the Alabama Power Company on the possibilities of the South. It is a shame that the other large corporations of Alabama and the South do not wake up and try to put Alabama before the world as the Alabama Power Company is doing. Advertising is the mother of progress, and if more of it were used on our state you would see things begin to move. We might be able to change our state motto from "Here We Rest" to "Here We Move."

The DeKalk Republican last week very fittingly and truthfully told the Foley Onlooker and The Lafayette Sun how to clean out the Democratic party of Alabama. It said the only way to do it was to kick the Democrats out altogether and substitute in their stead the Republican party. As The Union-Banner has said time and again, this is the only sure remedy for the corruptness of our State government. The Democratic party has been patched up until there is nothing but patches left to patch. The whole structure, patches and all is rotten; so there is no way to fix it up in dependable form.

THE T. W. K. MONTHLY

We are pleased to get the announcement that we are to have an official State Klan publication. The name of this publication is to be The T. W. K. Monthly, and it is to be published at Birmingham by Mr. R. L. Holbart. The first issue will be out about July 1st.

If it's new and it's in pumps and oxfords—we have it.—PARRISH'S.

THE "G" STANDS FOR GALL

Close political friends of William G McAdoo say he will soon make formal announcement of his presidential candidacy. One cannot but admire his courage in the face of the fresh public memory of his recent connection with the government. More than any other man, Mr. McAdoo is personally responsible for the wild scrambling of the railroads from which our transportation system is just recovering, and he was a prominent member of a cabinet that approved the wasting of billions of the people's money in reckless expenditures.

IS BRYN MAWR RED-EYED?

The president of Byrn Mawr college says that the radicals charge her institution with being too conservative, while the conservatives say it is too radical. "When the extremes of society disagree it is logically certain that we are keeping in the middle of the road." The lady's logic is sound only if we assume that radicals and conservatives are of equal strength in this country, which, of course, is not the fact. The radicals are a loud and militant minority, while the conservatives are overwhelmingly in the majority and are quietly safeguarding our institutions. The Bryn Mawr official's remark that she is keeping the middle of the road between radicalism and conservatism is really a confession of near-radicalism, of which the institution has already been indicted by competent and patriotic observers.

A PROUD RECORD

Washington, June 18.—"President Harding's administration has been so constructive in its plans and so successful in its execution that the Republican party has no greater asset than its record of accomplishment," declares the Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "While there should never have been any doubt about Mr. Harding's renomination, if he retains his health, yet the recent announcement that he will be a candidate, apparently with his approval, should serve a beneficial purpose in removing that subject from discussion. The Republican party, on the one hand, could not fail to offer him the nomination, and he, recognizing his duty as a citizen and as a Republican once highly honored by his party, could not refuse it.

"Under the leadership of Mr. Harding the Republicans can go into the campaign of 1924 with no excuses, explanations or apologies but with pride in the achievements of a Republican Congress and a Republican President. During the first two years of the Harding Administration the public debt has been reduced; Federal taxes have been cut; prosperity has been restored to American industry; unemployment has been eliminated; agriculture has been rescued from the depths of depression; our international standing has been regained; the British debt has been funded; a beginning has been made in the limitation of armaments; menacing disputes in the Orient have been settled; the tendeney towards paternalism has been checked; the 'America First' protective tariff system has been restored; the Federal Reserve Board has been strengthened in public confidence; a hundred thousand needless government employees have been taken off the payrolls; the railroad system of the country has been restored to efficiency under private management; provision has been made for adequate care for disabled veterans; the affairs of the government have been placed on a business basis under the Budget Bureau; harmonious co-operation has been established between Congress and the Executive departments, and the Socialistic element has been disconnected from its close association with high offices of government. The record is one of which not only Republicans in particular but Americans in general may well be proud.

"Republicans will record their endorsement in the next National Convention and the voters of the country will register their aproval in the next national election."

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Editor

Joint Hostess Entertain for Bride.

A beautiful affair of last Thursday was the kitchen shower given by Mesdames Hugh Jones and Grady Broadhead for Mrs. Wilber Hayes, a recent bride. A profusion of pot plants, nasturtrims and carnations were used effectively to decorate the home. The guests were greeted by Mrs. Watts Moore. Punch was served in the sun parlor by Misses Warrene Spigener and Marzelle Mullins and Mary Upchurch. A feature of the entertainment was a kitchen contest, successfully conducted by Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. W. Z. Hodges having won the prize, an aluminum boiler. The guests later assembled in the dining room where an elaborate display of every useful kitchen was on display. Later in the evening delicious sandwiches and tea were served.

"Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk" was written for laughing purposes only, so if you have a broken rib or a split lip, better stay at home.

Mrs. Chas. Baumheim of Mobile arrived Wednesday for a visit to Miss Bettie Mullins and mother.

Dr. Clarence Roper and wife from Garnsey were the guests of his parents here Sunday.

Mrs. Victor Heard is on an extended visit to relatives in Gulfport, Miss.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Apperson from Billingsley were among the visitors here Sunday.

See Father Time and Dame Fashion in "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Callen had as their guests for the week-end Messrs. Alex Callen, Addison Merrille, W. J. Duncan and Russell Denslar.

Mrs. J. S. Hubbard, Misses Bettie Baldwin, Shepherd and Baldwin, of Verbena were visitors to Clanton Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Roper of Marbury were guests of relatives here Sunday.

Well, you'll certainly have the world with you if you attend "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk." It is a knock-out from start to finish.

Girls, don't let the boys kid you about your lip-sticks. They will be using them in 1975. See "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk."

Mesdames Deas and D. I. Deramus of Verbena motored up to Clanton Sunday.

Mr. A. C. Harper from Columbus, Ga., was a visitor to Clanton on last Tuesday.

Mrs. C. B. White and daughters, Misses Evelyn and Kathryn are visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Pack up your troubles and store them away. The "Polly Tickk" family are to be with us Friday.

After a delightful week's stay in Montevallo, Mrs. Jatie L. Middleton has returned to Clanton.

Miss Roberta Curry returned Saturday from a week's visit to Dr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Mary Sue Mullins is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Johnson in Chattanooga.

What do the people want? No one has ever been able to answer that question satisfactory. You may get some idea from "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk."

Rev. Renfroe Curry of Montevallo is spending a few days with his brother, Mr. T. A. Curry at his camp on Yellow Leaf.

Mr. Frank Smith from Colorado is visiting his mother, Mrs. P. C. Smith.

Mrs. Sam Johnson of Raleigh, N. C., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. C. Harper.

Could any combination of circumstances induce a man to surrender his pants? This important question will be discussed at "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk."

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gore, accompanied by Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Luckie motored to Montgomery Friday.

Mrs. J. C. Sewell from Deland, Fla., will arrive today for a visit to Mrs. R. E. Luckie.

Messrs. Bill Minor and Billie Smith spent Wednesday in Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Headley of Bessemer spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Littlejohn.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith have as their guests Vaughn and Lillia Williford.

Mrs. G. L. Phillips left Monday for a two weeks stay with relatives in Prattville.

Does your "Hubby Dubby" scrub the floor? If not, you have no idea what a charming scrubbing maid he makes. See at "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk."

Mr. Clarence Evans spent the week-end with his mother here.

"Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk" makes other home talent plays look like a last year's almanac.

Mr. and Mrs. Arkie Roper from Greenville, Tex., motored to Clanton for a couple of weeks stay with relatives here.

Mrs. G. O. McKee from Montgomery was a visitor to Clanton for a few days last week.

Misses Mary Goodwin and Clyde Jones are spending some time with relatives in Birmingham.

Mrs. H. C. McDonald and Mrs. Henry Crumpton, who are both former residents of Clanton, were visitors here last week.

Mrs. George Polk returned home Saturday from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Williams in Birmingham.

Mr. L. C. Henley from Grady, Ala., was a visitor to friends in Clanton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Page have returned from a lovely motor trip to points of interest in Florida.

Mr. Bill Lanier from Tallahassee, visited friends in Clanton Sunday.

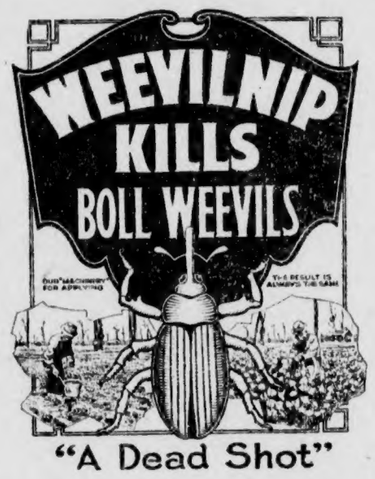
What Is Weevilnip?



"A Dead Shot"

It is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors designed to attract the boll weevils and kill them.

Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.

WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

WEEVILNIP sure shot. Killed all weevils the first application.

J. W. DUNCAN.

"December 25th, 1922, Thorsby, Ala.—I received my shipment of WEEVILNIP too late to give it a complete test—but on July 6th, 1922, I made a good heavy application on some cotton which was heavily infested with the bool weevils and which apparently would have been totally ruined in a few days longer. The weather was fair and favorable for six days afterwards, giving the "NIP" a good chance to get "set" on the plants, and to attract the weevils before the rain came on the seventh day. I kept the cotton examined closely and regularly after this application so I could put on more WEEVILNIP as soon as signs of the reappearance of the weevils might be found. But not a single weevil could be found until September 8th, when I found one. In a few days the second one was found. These two weevils were the only ones ever found after the first application of WEEVILNIP. Of course this made it unnecessary to use a second application. . . . According to my best judgment this application of WEEVILNIP added fifty per cent to my cotton yield.

Respectfully,

A. F. MIMS."

"Heflin, La., Route No. 2, Oct. 16th, 192..

I used WEEVILNIP on fourteen acres of cotton the latter part of July that was thoroughly infested with weevils and the forms were falling off badly. Shortly after I applied the "NIP" I could find every kind of bug, fly, caterpillar, and in fact, all kinds of insects that stay in the cotton field, dead on the ground. . . . Mr. J. H. McCoy, a neighbor, applied WEEVILNIP to a small crop of cotton at the same time I did and he says he added two bales to his crop by using it, and killed caterpillars by the bushels.

Yours very truly,

MAPLESVILLE DOTS

This community was made sad on last Sunday p.m. when we learned of the death of Mrs. John Doss. She had been ill for a long time. She was about the age of 68. She died at her home about a mile north of Maplesville. Mrs. Doss is survived by a husband and three sons and five daughters. The remains were buried at Hardshell in Bibb county Tuesday evening. Mrs. Doss was well known and stood high in the estimation of her numerous acquaintances and was loved by everybody that knew her. She was prepared to die and had been a long time.

We are very glad to learn this week that Mr. Frank Adams is improving fast.

We are also very glad to know that Miss Nell Potts is some better and improving.

We are all very glad to see this beautiful sunny weather so the farmers can carry on their work. They are working every day.

On next Tuesday night, June 26th, the ladies of Maplesville will have a negro minstrel in town. The time will be about two hours at the least. It is given for the benefit of our high school. Everybody come and bring some one with you. Admission will be 25c and 35c.

There was preaching at the Baptist Church Sunday a.m. by Bro. Paul Oden and Sunday by Dr. Crumpton. The services were enjoyed by everybody.

The adult class rendered a very good program Sunday a.m. at Sunday school. A solo was sung by Bro. Paul Oden Sunday a.m. and p.m.

Our B. Y. P. U. isn't doing much now. Seems as if the boys and grils are not inetrested. All of you boys and grils come and make a good B. Y. P. U.

During the hour of service Sunday night the dipping vat at Mrs. John Edd Bearden's was blown up, or rather the fence around it was blown up. They will have to try it again to get the vat.

A good many from here went to the box supper at Shoults Saturday night. All reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Perry were visiting here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kemp and Mrs. Ethel Adams were visiting relatives in Montgomery Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Esther Nix was visiting her brother, Dr. H. M. Nix Sunday. Also Dr. Nix's father was here Sunday.

Mr. Clyde Kanipe, who has been in the navy three months, is home on a fifteen days furlough. He seems as if he is enjoying himself fine. He says he likes the navy fine.

Bro. Gilbert has moved his family to Birmingham. We are very sorry he has left Maplesville.

It has been quite a while since we have seen anything from our little town concerning the business of the town. You have often heard someone make the remark that such and such a place is getting more like New York every day. Well we can easily say that and tell the truth.

There has been quite a bit of work done on the Bank of Maplesville. It has an addition of about 8 feet in front and on the side. This helps the looks so much, and also gives more room.

Mr. Brown has his brick work for his building finished. He is having a concrete floor. This new building joins the bank and Mr. Brown's old building.

Mr. Calloway's beautiful brick building is occupied with a first class garage by Ed Goodgame. He is putting in a light plant to furnish lights for the garage and for the store which is in the other half of Mr. Calloway's building, which is occupied by Mr. R. M. Davis. Mr. Goodgame and Mr. Davis are doing good business in our little town.

Mr. Stanley Hayes has a first class barber shop and pressing club in Maplesville, which is nice and clean. He will appreciate the trade of the people in and around Maplesville.

Mrs. H. C. Bearden has recently had her old mill house torn down, where we hope some day soon there will be a nice brick building.

Miss Vivian Gwin of Selma is visiting her aunt here this week, Mrs. J. W. Gwin.

Miss Ethel Mize of Montevallo spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mize.

Misses Vennye Fox and Ollie Bearden have had as their guest last week Mrs. John Santora of Birmingham.

Miss Bertie Lee Coleman left a few weeks ago for Troy, where she is going to summer school.

Miss Goree Calloway, a popular young lady of Maplesville, spent last week in Clanton, where she has a host of friends and relatives.

Messrs. Luther Bearden and Leighton Parnell of Tuscaloosa spent last week-end in Maplesville with relatives and friends. Leighton is a popular young man at the University. Luther is mill foreman at Henderson Lumber company.

Miss Mollie Mae Thomas spent a few days last week in Centerville.

Mr. Burr Cobern of Birmingham spent last week-end in Maplesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Lamberson and children of Cox visited Mrs. Calloway last Sunday.

NOTICE OF DAY SET FOR HEARING PROBATE OF WILL

THE STATE OF ALABAMA, Chilton County. Probate Court.

To Mrs. Clara Henderson, 1804 2nd Ave., Columbus, Ga.; James Howell, San Antonio, Texas; Drew Howell, Tampa, Florida; Mrs. Mattie Howell, San Antonio, Texas; and Mrs. Lillie S. Fling, Gabberts, Georgia:

You will please take notice, that on the 29th day of May, 1923, a certain paper in writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Mrs. Elizabeth Sims, was filed in my office for Probate, by B. S. Sims, and that the 30th day of June, 1923, was appointed a day for the hearing thereof, at which time you can appear and contest the same if you see proper.

Given under my hand this 29th day of May, 1923.

L. H. REYNOLDS,
5-31-3t-c. Judge of Probate.

Child-birth

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

SHOULTS NEWS

Whew! Some of the folks here are almost ready to move. On last Monday a cyclone came through, carrying trees as it went, or at least got them by the roots. It just missed many houses. Besides all of this, somebody knows how to use dynamites. The McAfee and Walker vats were blown up Wednesday or Thursday night. On Wednesday the vats were full of water. We do not see how it could have been done without some of the families that live near the vats hearing it. The fellow that did it is up on his job because he certainly did not fail to tear the vats to pieces.

Bro. Edwards, the Baptist pastor, did not fill his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday, due to the fact he was in Mentone, but Bro. Paul Oden filled it instead. He made two fine talks. Those that were present should try to become stronger spiritually by taking to heart what he said.

This community was made sad last week when the news came that Mr. John Lawrence of Jemison was not expected to live but a short time. Mr. Lawrence lived in this community up until three years ago. He has many friends here and they are hoping there is yet a chance for him to recover.

The box supper given by the B. Y. P. U. on last Saturday was quite a success. The amount of nineteen dollars and fifty cents was realized. Not a box brought under two dollars. In a short while they will have enough money in the treasury to pay that subscription of $100.00 for the addition that is to be made to the church in July.

On Saturday night, July 30th, the B. Y. P. U. will give a miscellaneous program at the school house. Music plays, readings and other things that will make you enjoy being there. Also cream, drinks and sandwiches will be sold. The B. Y. P. U. will do their best to entertain you and make you want to come back again. We will tell you more about it next week.

We were glad to have the large crowd from Maplesville Saturday night. Come back the 30th.

Miss Myrtle McAfee, who has been teacher of the primary class for more than three years, gave them a picnic at the school house last Sunday. Misses Eva Hall and Stella McGee helped to entertain them. There were eighteen primaries and six juniors present. Many interesting games were played. They also sang some little songs. At 12 o'clock the dinner was spread on a table out in the shade of large oak trees. It was a joy to see the little boys and girls lined up around the table. They had a fine dinner and seemed to enjoy it very much. They went to Sunday school and church in the afternoon. The teacher appreciates the kindness of Misses Stella and Eva in helping entertain them.

Mr. Durand Stone of Centerville called on Miss Myrtle McAfee Saturday night.

Messrs. Horton and Wheeler Walker, who have positions with the M. & O. R. R. Co., spent the week-end with homefolks.

Mrs. W. P. Hicks visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Walker last week. She was present at the box supper Saturday night. She is formerly of this place and we are always glad to have her with us.

The big barbelue that will be given at the slhool house will be July 21st, instead of the 14th. The writer did not understand it when first told about it.

MT. CARMEL

The Cemetery at Mt. Carmel will be cleaned off Saturday, the 23rd inst., and everybody interested in the same please come and bring suitable tools to work with.

There will be an ice cream supper at Mr. John Sexton's Saturday night, June 23rd, the proceeds to go to get lights for Mt. Carmel Church. Everybody that is not interested in the cemetery, come to the cream supper.

MRS. CLARA RUCKER.
Pres. Woman's Missionary Union,
Mt. Carmel Church.

OAK GROVE

There will be a Sunday school convention at this place, 2 miles north of Jemison, the 2nd Sunday in July, the 8th, in the afternoon. All in District No. 1 are requested to meet this convention and represent their schools.

WILL J. NORTHCUTT.

REPUBLICANVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Blow spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Blow's father in Shelby county.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Gray of Clanton visited Mr. J. H. Williams' family last Sunday.

Miss Roberta Collins from Cedar Grove spent part of last week with her brother, Dewey Collins.

Mr. R. F. Duffey and family of Mountain Creek were visitors in our community last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Williams spent Sunday at Rube Williams.

Captain Hutchinson had a visitor from Birmingham last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Collins spent Sunday with Mr. Jess Hays.

The Republican who was elected sheriff of Cleburne county and his election was contested by a Democrat won out, and now Judge Reynolds has won out here for judge against the Democrats in a contest, speaks well for the Republicans.

JONAH AND THE WHALE

By J. S. Walker, Birmingham, Ala.

(We are reproducing this poem at the request of Uncle Dock Wells. We have always thought that Uncle Dock was a Methodist, but from this poem, he must be a Missionary Baptist.)

A Bible lesson that I read when a youth
Is a big fish story, but every word truth.
Just listen right good, I'll tell you the tale,
How Jonah, the prophet, got caught by the whale.
Now Jonah had sinned and strayed from the fold
And a big fish caught him and swallowed him whole.

There's a part of the story that's awfully sad,
For the city of Niniver had gone to the bad;
And the Lord looked down on their wicked ways
In hope of repentance in forty more days;
And the Lord said to Jonah, "Go, preach my word
To that wicked city, that it may be heard."

"If they don't repent of their wicked ways
I'll destroy their city in forty more days."
When the Lord called Jonah, old Jonah said, "No;
I'm a Hard Shell Baptist, and I just can't go.
Them people of Niniver are nothing to me;
I'm no foreign missionary; never will be.

So he went to Jopy in greatest of haste
And boarded a ship for a different place.
And the Lord looked down, so the Bible records,
And saw Jonah running away from the Lord.
He set the wind blowing, endangered the sail,
And the efforts of Jonah were beginning to fail.

The ship was a-rocking and tossed by the way,
And Jonah was sorry he didn't obey.
Then Jonah confessed it was caused by his sin.
The crew threw him out and the whale took him in.
The whale said to Jonah, "Old fellow, don't fret;
I'm sent here to take you in out of the wet.

"You're going to get punished now for your sin."
And he opened his mouth and Jonah went in.
And the funniest sight that ever was seen
Was Jonah going off in his new submarine.

And the sinners of Niniver failed to repent,
For the message of warning to them was missent.
On beds of the sea the whale tried to rest;
He swallowed his food, but it didn't digest;
He got mighty restless and sorely afraid;
He rumbled inside while the prophet prayed.

So you see how God's message to Niniver lays
In the dead letter office three nights and days.
The prophet shut in just as tight as a lock,
But things will come open sure as you knock.
The third day the whale rose up from his bed,
Sick at his stomach and a pain in his head.

And he said to himself, I must have air quick,
For this old sinner is making me sick.
So he winked his eyes and he wiggled his tail,
And he pulled for the shore to deliver his mail.
He got to the shore and he looked all around,
And he vomited Jonah clean out on the ground.

Then Jonah thanked God for His mercy and grace.
And looked at the whale with a great long face,
And said, "After three days and nights you found
A good man, old sucker, is hard to hold down."
He then looked around with a wishful eye,
Sit down in the sunshine. his clothing to dry.

And thought how much better his preaching to be,
From a whale seminary, a prophet set free.
After resting himself and dried in the sun,
He started for Niniver, hard as he could run.
And said, I must hurry, and try not to sin,
I'm sure I don't want to get swallowed again.

He arrived in the city just about a week late,
And preached from the time he entered the gate.
Till the whole population repented and prayed,
And the great hand of justice and vengeance was stayed.

CEDAR GROVE

Health of this community is very good at present, except the grass is very sick from last week's war.

There will not be any children's day service at this place next Saturday as had been announced. There will be preaching Saturday and Sunday. The singing society will meet Sunday p.m. at 2:30. Everybody is invited to be here. We will have singing in the old books every third Sunday p.m., so we invite the old people especially to be present.

MARS HILL

To all who are interested in the Mars Hill Cemetery, please meet on Friday, June 29th, to clean off the graveyard, also scrub and clean up the church.

We are going to have an all-day singing on Sunday, July 1st. Everybody is invited to come, especially all good singers. Come and bring the Showalter 1923 song books. The Clanton quartet band has a special invitation. We would be glad to have everyone who wishes to come and be with us to bring some dinner and enjoy the day.

How to build up your Weight

TO be under weight often proves low fighting-power in the body. It often means you are minus nerve-power, minus red-cells in your blood, minus health, minus vitality. It is serious to be minus, but the moment you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, you begin to become plus. That's why S. S. S., since 1826, has meant to thousands of underweight men and women, a plus in their strength. Your body fills to the point of power, your flesh becomes firmer, the age lines that come from thinness disappear. You look younger, firmer, happier, and you feel it, too, all over your body. More red-blood-cells! S. S. S. will build them.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Reception for Bride.

One of the most elaborate parties of the summer was given on last Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. J. P. Hayes was hostess entertaining at a reception in honor of her new daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Hayes.

The handsome Hayes home was never more beautiful than on this occasion. A profusion of flowering plants and cut flowers were used throughout the entire apartments. The guests were met by Mesdames Guy Higgins and Watts Moore and ushered to the drawing room where a delicious beverage was served from a table banked with bright colored garden flowers, ferns and daisies. The push table was presided over by Misses Warrene Spigener and Marzelle Mullins. Then they were invited to the living room where the receiving line composed of Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Wilbur Hayes, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. Andy Jones and Miss Katheryn Hayes stood. Later the guests were invited into the dining room. Here a miniature bride was the central table ornament. A refreshing ice course was served in a color note of pink and white, Pink and white sweet peas being used as favors.

The many friends of Mrs. Jimmie McMorris will regret to learn she has gone to Prattville to live.

Mrs. Miller's Round Table.

On last Sunday afternoon Mrs. Daily Miller held an interesting group of children for an hour's story of the preceding S. S. lesson. The children all enjoyed this treat and are invited back each Sunday to bring a larger crowd at 4 o'clock.

Don't fail to come to Clanton for a good barbecue dinner served by the ladies for 50 cents a plate.

Mrs. Grady Broadhead left Wednesday for Mentone, where she will spend a couple of weeks as a S. S. delegate.

Mr. Ernest Askins from Alexander City is spending several weeks with relatives here.

Ford Employees Enjoy Picnic.

On last Wednesday afternoon the employees of the Clanton Motor Car Company enjoyed a lovely outing at Mr. Gore's swimming pond. After a delightful swim a lovely picnic lunch was enjoyed.

Mrs. McSwain Entertains.

The home of Mrs. T. C. McSwain was the scene of a merry gathering of the younger set on last Wednesday afternoon when she entertained in honor of Miss Helen Sewell.

Numerous games were enjoyed and music was rendered during the evening. Later a delicious ice course was served to about thirty of the younger crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Hance Aired will leave soon for a few days vacation to Selma.

Mr. D. M. Apperson of Maplesville tells us that his son, Crichton Apperson, editor of the Grocers Journal of Birmingham, is leaving in a few days for a trip to Yellowstone National Park, and other points of national interest. Young Apperson is a hustling business man, although he has not been a "man of his own" very long.

Miscellaneous Shower Given.

Mrs. J. C. Jones was a lovely hostess on last Tuesday entertaining at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. J. Wilbur Hayes.

The entire lower floor was thrown together and beautifully decorated in flowering geraniums and bright colored garden flowers. Upon arriving the guests registered in the bride's book. Punch was dispensed in the library from a prettily appointed table, presided over by Misses Warrene Spigener and Marzelle Mullins.

The numerous useful gifts were on display in the dining room.

An interesting flower contest was enjoyed. On a cut for the prize, Mrs. R. C. McDavid was awarded a hand painted tea bell, which she presented to the bride. An ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Eric Hart, Hosea Downs, Jake Shepherd, Guy Roberts and McDavid.

About seventy-five guests called during the evening.

NEW ROAD ABOUT COMPLETED

Commissioner Littlejohn informed us yesterday that the new road which the county is building through by Corinth church below Mitchell Dam down to the Ferry is almost completed. The only place they lack now is about a quarter of a mile between the top of the hill and the river. This hill is so steep that the road will have to be made to curve around kindly in the shape of the letter "M," so as to make the slope gradually. Robert Popwell has the construction in charge, and Mr. Littlejohn says that it will be a fine road when finished. All told, the new road will be between one and a half and two miles long.

MORE VILLAGES GO UNDER SEA OF LAVA IN STRICKEN ITALY

King Victor Emmanuel Dashes to Scene of Disaster to Direct Fight to Save Isolated Hamlets.

Rome, June 19.—Twelve eruptive mouths are hurling lava floods down the slopes of Mt. Etna, according to dispatches from Messina late Tuesday night.

Two additional villages have been wiped out; two more are threatened with destruction. Terror has swept the island of Sicily. The monstrous spectacle of the flame-torn mountain is visible from Siracussa to Palermo.

King Victor Emmanuel left Rome at 7:30 p.m. for Naples, where he planned to embark on a battleship to dash to Catania and superintend the fight to save isolated hamlets threatened with destruction.

Early in the day it was learned that he planned to visit the danger zone. His delay resulted from the fact that Queen Marguerita, his mother, was undergoing a second operation for a cataract in her right eye. As soon as it was evident that the operation was successful he departed from Naples.

All new eruptive mouths are located on the slope facing Mt. Roose and Mt. Cacciatore, buttresses of the mighty pile of Etna.

Tuesday afternoon the lava flow destroyed all farm houses around Cerro, but it is believed that Linguaglossa will be saved, the lava having swerved into the dry bed of a stream.

At 5:00 p.m. the lava was 60 feet from Casliglione.

Pope Pius XI has donated 50,000 lire for relief.

Blazing Lake Seen

A terrifying spectacle is reported between Mt. Rossa and Mt. Roselle two small promonories on the slopes of Etna.

A cascade of lava from the plateau that is formed by the twin mouths is falling, in a torrent of fire, over a 600-foot slope, forming a blazing lake in the woods below.

Commissioner Mercanti, head of the Department of Civil Aviation, has directed an airplane escardrille to keep constant scouting patrols above the eruption swept area, gathering information on the direction of volcanic streams, and photographing every detail of the phenomenon.

The aviators will supply water, foodstuffs and medicines to inhabitants of places blocked by lava.

Montgomery may furnish the bones of animals 10,000 years old, Dr. L. W. Stephenson of the United States geological survey, will spend several days in making investigations. Fossil remains were found in Montgomery in 1894, but no attention was paid to it at Washington until two months ago, when other discoveries were made. Dr. Stephesnson was directed to come to Montgomery for an inquiry.

Plans are being formulated to submit to the people of Jefferson county special election this year a bond issue to cover the building of a new court house. At least $500,000 will be asked for in the bond issue, and possibly $1,000,000. It is planned to build the court house on a new location, if the election carries, and the money derived from the sale of the old building and lot will be applied to the cost of the new building

"The I. W. W. is a nihilistic organization, and cannot exist in this city," was the verdict of Recorder D. H. Edington in the Mobile police court after assessing fines of $101 and costs or 50 days with 30 days additional hard labor against two members of that organization and the same without the hard labor against two other members after a trial of violating the state anti-boycotting law.

The new annex to Tutwiler hall at the State University is nearing completion. The outside framework is almost completed and the roofing is being put on. The new annex is the second wing that has been built to Tutwiler hall since the original structure was erected. It will relieve the congestion that has existed this year among women students. The new annex is expected to be used by summer school girls.

The Gadsden creamery sent out checks to Etowah county farmers for cream delivered during the last two weeks, the total being the largest in the history of the plant. One man owning six cows got $53 for two weeks' deliveries. President Crossfield states that many farmers in the district are now engaged in dairying as the result of the establishment of the creamery.

"The Convention City" is the name that many have applied to Montgomery during the past few months and during last week the name has forced attention on the citizenry of Alabama, six conventions having been held there, numbering the realtors,. opticians, insurance men, bankers, farm bureau members and the Southern intercollegiate conference track and field meet.

Solicitor Grady Wilson of the Fourteenth judicial circuit stated that he would request the court to call a session of the Fayette county grand jury at an early date to make a thorough investigation into allegations of Wiley Maddox, 15-year-old son of the late Posey Maddox, that his father and associates had killed and disposed of the bodies of eight men on his father's farm.

A mortgage amounting to $50'000,000, secured by bonds payable in 1943, Armour & Co., of Deleware to the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings bank, the Chase National bank of the city of New York and William P. Kopf, trustees, were filed in the Jefferson county probate office.

Lizzie Bestor, negress, the first woman sentenced to death in Alabama for about fifty years, will appeal to the board of pardons and Governor Brandon for the commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment. The woman is scheduled to be hanged in the Bibb county jail at Centerville, June 8.

The county commissioners of Ettowah county have called an election for June 22, to determine whether or not the John Jones, Elliot and Morgan's Cross Roads school shall consolidate and also whether or not the two districts in which they are located shall levy a special three-mill tax for school purposes.

Since Governor Brandon was inaugurated 1,345 commissions have been issued by S. H. Blan, secretary of state, to public officials of Alabama, according to records of his office. The commissions went to state, county and beat officers. During 1922, 1,997 commissions were issued.

At a session of the Lee county board of education, it was decided to establish three new consolidated schools in the county. These schools will be located at Loachopoka, Beauregard and in the eastern part of the county near Mechanicsville.

Mad dogs have been numerous in Clay county and one was killed in Lineville, while running down Main street.

An attractive and much needed addition to the Scottsboro grammar school is the auditorium, which will be ready for use by September 1. The structure, which will be of brick, will cost approximately $7,500. Three years ago, after voting a three-mill tax, Scottsboro added a new steam heating system and two new class rooms to the grammar school building.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

THE SMITH REPEALER

The repeal of the Mullan-Gage law in New York, through the approval of the repealer bill by Governor Smith, is of little moment in itself. It only means that hereafter persons arrested for violation of the Federal liquor laws must be tried in the Federal courts instead of the state courts. The Volstead act is as much a part of the laws of the State of New York as any act passed by the New York legislature, and the enforcement officers of the state are in duty bound to enforce it just as they are bound to enforce local statutes. Gov. Smith's mention of that fact is simply a restatement of a well recognized principle. The ban against bootlegging and against the transportation, manufacture, and sale of liquor containing more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol is just as much in force in New York State today as it ever has been.

The significance in the memorandum with which Governor Smith accompanied his approval of the Mullan-Gage repealer lies in the recommendations he saw fit to make to Congress for changes in the Volstead act. He believes the Federal law making body should fix a limit on alcoholic content substantially higher than that now contained in the Volstead law, and then permit each state to prescribe the percentage of alcohol which it will allow, subject only to the maximum limitation fixed by Congress. Of the law now on the statute books he has this to say: "It is impossible to divorce from the public mind the impression that the definition of an intoxicating beverage as containing not more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol was written by the fanatical drys in defiance of the general experience of mankind and of actual fact."

That is pretty strong language. In effect it brands the Congress of the United States for the last four years as a group of "fanatical drys," and their acts as a "defiance of the general experience of mankind and of actual fact." The Volstead act limiting beverages to an alcoholic content of one-hanf of one per cent became a law on October 28, 1919, after it had been passed by a two-thirds vote of both Houses over the veto of President Wilson. The Volstead act was passed, and repassed over the President's veto, only after the most exhaustive debate. Every possible argument both for and against the measure was laid before Congress, and communications were received from the "folks back home" that emphatically presented their views. The intent and meaning of the bill were familiar to every Congressman who cast his vote for it, and he became as much the author of the measure as the man who prepared the first draft. The governor's charge that Congress defied experience and fact falls to the ground in the face of that overwhelming vote. You cannot indict a nation.

The Volstead law has remained on the statute books for almost four years, during which time it has successfully withstood the assaults against it. The people have sent men to Washington who have steadfastly refused to amend or repeal it. In the last analysis it is Congress which decides the policies of the Nation. Even if President Harding disagreed with the Volstead law, which he does not, he would be in duty bound to stand vigorously behind a principle so clearly enunciated by his party and by the country. Governor Smith has issued the challenge, and is the outstanding leader of the wets today. President Harding represents the law as it has stood for years. The issue is clear and Republicans will await the outcome with confidence.

BRITISH COTTON SUBSIDY

It is the announced policy of the London government to make the British Empire self-supporting. Commercially and from a military standpoint the nation that can find within its borders all the elements of modern life has a tremendous advantage over countries that must look to others for their support. The World War demonstrated that fact. The allies would have been helpless had they not been able to procure supplies from the United States, while Germany was able to hold her own, even though cut off from the rest of the world, because she found most of her supplies at home.

The Republican party has long recognized the wisdom of developing every natural product that our soil and climate can be made to produce, and of enrouraging a diversity of manufacturing wide enuogh to supply all our needs. A protective tariff has been the chief means toward that end. Great Britain is going even farther, and has a bill pending in Parliament that proposes a subsidy for cotton production. It is said that the proposition is backed throughout the empire, not only by cotton manufacturers, but by the Federation of British Industries.

People in this country should watch with the closest attention the effort of the British to make their country self-sufficient. There are many weak spots in our own economic structure that must be strengthened if the United States is to enjoy a similar independence. President Harding and his administration tried to apply a remedy in the last Congress through the ship aid bill that would have given the country an independent merchant marine, but a Democratic filibuster succeeded in beating it. But the need is just as imperative as before, and the President will strive to meet it with authority already granted him.

CHILTON CONTEST CASE REINSTATED

Fight Between Judge L. H. Reynolds and C. D. Messer Again Before Court.

Reinstatement of the contest case involving the probate judgeship in Chilton county, is the result of a decision rendered on rehearing Saturday by the Alabama supreme court, in the case appealed from the Chilton county circuit court, of M. D. Foshee, as clerk, etc., vs. state, ex rel, C. D. Messer.

Messer and L. H. Reynolds were candidates for probate judge of Chilton county in the general election of November 7, 1922. Reynolds was declared the winner, and thereafter Messer filed a contest, together with the usual bond as security of costs, with M. D. Foshee, then circuit clerk. Foshee, according to the evidence in the case, declined to approve the bond without verification of all the names of sureties appearing thereon.

Mandamus proceedings were then brought by Messer in the circuit court to compel Foshee to approve the bond and place the contest on the regular docket of cases. The trial court granted the writ of mandamus and Foshee appealed. In the original decision, the supreme court reversed the trial court's action, the effect of the decision being to bring the contest proceedings to a close. Application for rehearing was then filed.

This application for rehearing was granted by the supreme court Saturday. The judgment of reversal was set aside and the trial court's ruling upheld, on the ground that Foshee disapproved the security of costs before a proper opportunity for obtaining approval was given, and that his action in so doing was arbitrary.

An application for rehearing in regard to this decision of the supreme court was immediately filed by Judge Reynolds. The supreme court has already adjourned until fall, so no further action will be taken by this body until that time.

DRAINAGE LAWS IN STATE WILL BE CONSIDERED SOON

Agricultural Committee to Meet in Montgomery July 6 and Will Study Drainage Laws.

Consideration of the present drainage laws, enacted in Alabama in 1915, the needs for revision in the laws are being studied and will be discussed by the legislative agricultural committee when it meets in final session, July 6, previous to the opening of the legislature for its summer session.

According to Commissioner of Agriculture J. M. Moore, author of the present drainage laws and who is studying the needs at present:

"Back in January, we called a conference in Montgomery for consideration of this act as to needful changes. The attorney for Fayette and Lamar counties; District Manager Lewis A. Jones, representing the drainage division of the United States Department of Agriculture; B. B. Wooten, of Jackson, Tenn; Professor Nichols, head of the department of chemical engineering at Auburn and others were present at the session.

"We decided that the best interest of land owners and drainage work in the state would be served by a revision of the present drainage act. We then set to work to get our proposed changes before the best drainage authorities.

"It was agreed upon to follow the revised drainage laws of the state of Missouri. The laws of Alabama were tested in detail by both the state and federal supreme courts. After consideration by the American Bankers' association, contractors, engineers, and drainage authorities of the United States department of agriculture, we met at Fayette with Attorney W. W. Monroe to further perfect the proposed measure to the legislative recess committee on agriculture.

"Jones, of federal department said in connection with the Fayette conference 'that the department knew of no proposed drainage legislation that had been so thoroughly considered.'

"The measure is now prepared for consideration by the recess committee and will be thoroughly examined when it again meets for the short session.

"At Fayette, a forty-two-mile channel is being excavated, modern dredges and other implements being used in the drainage project of the bottom lands. These dredges are expected to complete the canal in the course of 18 to 20 months. Five other projects in the section are also underway.

Commissioner Moore is secretary of the legislative recess committee on agriculture.

W. M. WYATT BACK HOME

We are glad to have back with us Mr. W. M. Wyatt, his wife and children from Fort Payne. Mr. Wyatt will remain here until he goes to Montgomery as our Representative in the Legislature. While he is in Montgomery his wife and children will remain here with relatives.

THE BIG BARBECUE

On account of the Banner force taking the Fourth Wednesday we have been unable to get in a full report of the proceedings of the big day in Clanton, but we will make a full report of it next week.

Mr. Will Burnett of Billingsley was here Monday on business. Mr. Burnett says he has never located his negro yet that he paid out of jail several weeks ago.

PLANNING WORLD TRADE CAMPAIGN

Washington, June 30.—In the last session of Congress the sum of $1,000,000 was made as an increase to the regular annual appropriation for the Department of Commerce, with the purpose in view of undertaking an extensive campaign to expand our overseas trade.

The Department of Commerce, it is understood, has practically completed its program for 1924 to carry this purpose into effect. The program calls for the establishment of a number of new foreign offices, the strengthening of others, and the initiation of several new surveys with a view to developing additional markets for American products.

The plan, as approved by Secretary Hoover, includes a new foreign trade office at Batavia, Java, where the chief subject of study will be the rubber resources of that territory, crude rubber being one of the commodities which we must purchase from abroad. We imported 569,000,000 pounds during the nine months ending March 31, at a cost of $98,000,000, nearly 90 per cent of it coming from the British and Dutch East Indies. To balance up on this trade the bureau will study the markets there for American implements, machinery, etc.

At Manila, P. I., the office is to be strengthened in personnel with a view to encouraging greater purchases from the United States, and also to increase our imports of copra, hemp, and other commodities peculiar to the insular possessions. A new office at Pernambuco will cover Northern Brazil and the office at Buenos Aires, Argentina, is to be enlarged, while an additional office at Montevideo will cover Uruguay. Total trade with these four countries during the nine months ended March was, Brazil, $144,000,000, Argentina $166,000,000, Uruguay $29,000,000, and the Philippines $82,000,000. Added personnel will be given to the Colombian service, our trade with that country being $46,000,000.

In Central America an exhaustive survey will be made of trade conditions and steps will be taken to combat the anti-American trade propaganda which has been prevalent there, one of the charges made being to the effect that we are slighting that territory. These charges are not borne out by our statistics, for while trade for 1921-2 totaled $53,000,000 for the nine months ending March, in the 1922-3 period it reached $61,000,000, there being a comfortable increase in both imports from and exports to the Central American countries.

With the West Indies the growth of our trade has been enormous—from $275,000,000 to $411,000,000, but the Department feels that this can be still further increased and steps will be taken to make it effective.

In Milan the bureau's forces will be increased, to cover Northern Italy with special emphasis on industrial possibilities, while an office at Barcelona will maintain watch over the industrial development of Northern Spain. For the period above-named trade with Italy has increased from $153,000,000 to $199,000,000; with Spain from $70,000,000 to $74,000,000.

The staff will be added to in Great Britain in order to make a study of the northern parts of the British Isles, while a special study is to be made of the lumber industry in France, Holland, and Belgium a special industrial trade commission is to be added to the staff in France, and a chemical expert will study the general situation in continental Europe. A new offie is to be started in Alexandria, Egypt, and two specialists will be sent to India, one to study textiles and the other machinery.

The campaign for greater overseas trade will soon be under way. And the ties of trade are the ties which bind.

STATEMENT FROM MR. GULLEDGE ON REGISTRATION

Mr. J. W. E. Gulledge, the chairman of the Board of Registrars of Chilton county, has requested us to call the attention of the people of Chilton county to the sitting of the Board of Registrars this month for the purpose of registering all voters who are entitled to register.

Mr. Gulledge further requested us to state to the voters for him that he desires everybody who is entitled to do so to register, regardless of political faith, and wishes to assure everybody that he is willing and ready to render every assistance possible in helping any voter to properly qualify to vote.

OAK GROVE NEWS

This community was made very sad Sunday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when a car struck two girls, knocking them almost dead for a few minutes. They were on their way to church and were almost in front of the school building. Three more girls were just a few steps behind them. The car passed them, and hit both the other girls. One was hit on the head and raising a large knot, and on the left side; the other was hit in the back, bruising her almost all over. The doctor said they were seriously hurt, but would get over it in a few days. Those who were in the car were Misses Evla Barnett, Gladys Northcutt, Mr. Tavie Gentry. Those who were hurt were Misses Ola Glass, Myrtle Martin.

Our Sunday school is progressing very nicely, as we elected new officers and teachers. We had to divide one class as there were so many until it made two very large classes. Mr. W. J. Northcutt was elected superintendent. He has been a wonderful superintendent. Every one likes him.

As Sunday was our regular singing evening there wasn't very many here, as most of the people attended the all-day singing at Mars Hill and reported a nice time, and heard some good singing.

Our B. Y. P. U. is progressing very nicely. We have only 48 on roll now as some of our members have left this community. Mrs. C. L. Martin is still our president. Mrs. Martin has been so good we don't see how we could do without her.

Mr. C. L. Martin is spending a few days at home this week.

Several of this place attended the barbecue at Jemison Saturday.

Our revival meeting starts the fourth Sunday in July. Everybody invited to come.

COTTON ACREAGE SHOWS INCREASE OVER LAST YEAR

Condition is 68 Per Cent of Normal, Exactly as Was Shown at the Same Period for 1922.

Increased acreage in cotton, condition equal to that of this time last year and generally favorable outlook is carried in the following statement issued by Statistician F. W. Gist of the agricultural department Monday:

The acreage found planted and growing to cotton in Alabama on the 25th of June this year, with a condition of 68 per cent of normal, indicates a crop of 894,000 bales, if conditions remain the same until the crop is picked. The acreage of 3,312,000 is an increase of 18 per cent over the acreage planted last year, 2,807,000 as finally revised.

The condition of 68 per cent of normal is exactly the same as last year at the same date. Reports all agree that the plant looks much better than it did a year ago, but that weevils are much more numerous. Stands are good in most sections, the plant is healthy and fields are clean and well worked. This in spite of unfavorable weather during May and the first half of June and also in the face of a decided labor shortage. It means that farmers have put forth their best efforts in cultivation and have taken advantage of more efficient methods of work, while putting in longer hours. The indicated yield at this time is 129 pounds compared with 142 pounds finally picked last season.

Should conditions continue as good or better the crop in Alabama this year will be larger than last; continued weevil activity can easily leave us a crop smaller than last year.

In making the acreage estimate this year 7,250 fields were actually counted; reports of individual acreage were received from 1,500 farmers; and the judgment of 250 regular crop reporters, 350 rural mail carriers, 150 bankers, 75 farm bureau directors, and numerous private persons regarding the comparative acreage were used. The condition figures were received from regular crop reporters and rural carriers.

RECORD CAPTURE OF WHISKY MADE

State and Federal Men Get Big Quantities of Liquor in Three Counties.

The biggest capture of whiskey ever reported to the headquarters of the state law enforcement department in connection with a still raid was made in Cleburne county Thursday, when state, county and federal deputies got two 90 and one 100 gallon still, 675 gallons of beer and 101 1-2 gallons of whiskey and arrested two men, in this raid. Seizure of whiskey in raids of this kind seldom amount to more than a few gallons.

Another big whiskey seizure was reported from Shelby county where 65 gallons of corn liquor was taken in connection with the capture of two 75 and one 80 gallon still, and 300 gallons of beer. Four men were in the Shelby county raids made by state and county deputies.

In Fayette county one 35 and one 40 gallon still were captured Thursday, with 400 gallons of beer; in Walker county, one 35 gallon still; Tuscaloosa county, a 100 gallon still, 300 gallons of beer, and one man.

SETS DATE OF WOMAN'S EXECUTION IN BIBB

The supreme court Thursday overruled the application for a rehearing in the case of Nellie Bestor, Bibb county negro woman, sentenced to hang for the murder of her husband. The date of execution was set for Friday, August 10. An appeal for clemency for the woman is pending before the pardon board. She was at first sentenced to hang June 8, but a stay was obtained when an application for rehearing was filed.

HOW'S THIS FOR FISHING?

When it gets so you can just tie a string of hooks on a line and drag it through the water, without any bait on the hooks, and drag in big ones, little ones and all kinds, then that is real fishing. Well, that is the way reports say they have been catching them at the river lately while the water was low. That's one way to catch 'em.

MRS. E. H. PARRISH

Early last Sunday morning occurred the death of a good Christian old lady, Mrs. Charlotte Elizabeth Parrish, the beloved wife of Mr. Elijah H. Parrish. Death overtook her at the age of 74 after a short illness.

At the age of 18 she was married to Mr. Parrish, and for 56 years has proven to be a wife and a mother deserving of every quality that the term implies. Mrs. Parrish died at the very place where the happy couple has lived together ever since they were united in marriage.

The esteemed old lady leaves as her immediate family an aged husband, three sons, J. Sam, Prof. John M. and Dr. W. L. Parrish, and three daughters, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. E. H. Mims, and Miss Julia Parrish. For 34 years she has been a devoted member of the Baptist church, and has lived a life that has been as noble as that of any wife and mother that has ever trod this terrestrial ball.

The remains were buried Monday morning at Concord cemetery, Rev. C. J. Bentley officiating, assisted by Rev. S. J. Ezell, Rev. M. J. Parrish and Rev. W. J. Armstrong. Undertaker Martin had charge of the body.

Alabama Rivers

Early efforts toward their improvement

EARLY TRANSPORTATION ON THE COOSA

LOCK 1—FIRST STEP TOWARD RIVER IMPROVEMENT ON COOSA

The improvement of Alabama's rivers was first advocated with the sole view to securing navigation. Many efforts, looking to their improvement by the Government, failed because of the unwillingness of Congress to appropriate the millions of dollars necessary to carry out the plans presented.

For nearly one hundred years river improvement was agitated. In that time was evolved the policy of the several states, including Alabama, and the Government to permit the development of water power by private capital, so as to bring about the improvement of navigation and the control of destructive floods, at no cost to the Government except for purely navigation structures.

A history of the early movements which resulted in this present day policy of the State and the Federal Government is essential to a clear understanding of the subject.

The first known project for the improvement of rivers in Alabama contemplated a continuous waterway from the Mississippi to the Atlantic Ocean. The proposed route was via the Ohio, Tennessee, Coosa, Etowah, Ocmulgee and Altamaha Rivers, with connecting canals.

The Alabama Legislature took cognizance of the plans sometime prior to 1823 and passed an act to improve the Coosa and aid in its connection with the Tennessee. In 1824 Congress assumed control of the project under its constitutional power to regulate interstate commerce, rivers being natural arteries of traffic between the states. But the project was considered impracticable and was never undertaken.

There were no railroads in that day. The rivers were the only arteries of commerce other than the trails which connected the towns and trading posts. Transportation was as vital to the people of that time as it is today.

The earliest known commercial use of Alabama's rivers was flat-boating. Agricultural products were transported from the Upper Coosa, over the perilous rapids from Greensport to Wetumpka, and down the Alabama to the Mobile market. Among the pioneers in flat-boating on the Coosa was John Lay, the grandfather of Capt. W. P. Lay of Gadsden.

About 1838, with the growth of the State, steam navigation was begun on the upper Coosa. Capt. Lay's father, C. M. Lay, was quick to see its possibilities and took up steam boating between Rome and Greensport about 1840. A great part of the commerce of the Cahaba Valley, including Elyton (before the founding of Birmingham), was hauled by boat to Greensport and thence to destination by wagon.

With the coming of the railroads, there arose a demand for through navigation to Mobile. While steamers plied between Rome and Greensport, and between Wetumpka and Mobile, the navigation of the rapids between Greensport and Wetumpka with steam boats was impossible. It was realized that quick and unobstructed navigation was necessary if river transportation were to survive.

As a result of this agitation, the first known instrumental survey of the Coosa was ordered. It was undertaken by Major Walter McFarland, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, at Wetumpka, in September, 1870, and concluded at a point near Greensport, in August, 1872. Major McFarland recommended certain low-lift dams to carry navigation over the rapids.

Thereafter certain work of improving the Coosa was undertaken by U. S. Engineers. Locks and Dams 1, 2 and 3; and a dam at Lock 4 were built with annual appropriations by Congress, and from the data of the McFarland survey.

On March 15, 1887, a Coosa River improvement convention met at Montgomery and memoralized Congress to continue the opening of the Coosa and Alabama Rivers to through navigation.

As a result, by Act of August 11, 1888, Congress directed that a resurvey and revised estimates be made for the improvement of the Coosa from Lock 4 to Wetumpka. This work was undertaken by Capt. Philip M. Price, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army. Capt. Price made the first known maps of the Coosa from the notes of the surveys previously referred to. He designed a system of 27 low-lift locks and dams, which, with Locks 1, 2, 3 and 4, made a total of 31 locks and dams. They were so planned as to open the Coosa to navigation from Rome, Ga., to Wetumpka. The estimated cost of constructing these 27 locks and dams was $6,038,219.

When the Price plan was submitted, Congress refused to appropriate the necessary funds for carrying it out on the grounds that the traffic on the rivers was not sufficient to warrant the expense.

So, with the completion of Lock 4, in the year 1891 or 1892, all improvement of navigation on the Coosa ceased until the construction of Lock 12 by Alabama Power Company. This development opened 25 miles of the Coosa to navigation, at no expense to the State or the Government.

Power developments on Alabama's rivers have been, and must be, in accordance with the laws of Alabama and of the United States, and with the approval of State and Federal regulatory bodies. Each such development is constructed under a separate fifty-year grant from the Federal Power Commission, containing restrictions amply protecting the public interest. Each project is an integral part of a well-defined and comprehensive plan, which, if followed, will ultimately result in Alabama's rivers being made navigable within the boundaries of the State, in the most efficient development of hydro-electric power, and the control of destructive floods.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Rev. J. W. Davenport preached a forceful sermon Sunday morning at the Congregational church on Christ and the individual, calling attention to the many personal interviews he held with all sorts of people during the years of his ministry. The speaker laid emphasis on these manifestations of care on the part of Jesus for each unit of humanity as well as the masses.

After the Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening Mr. Davenport delivered an illustrated lecture on "Passion Week" in the life and death of Jesus. The pictures were upwards of fifty in number and all made from life, representing scenes in what is known the world over as "The Passion Play at Oberomergan, a small town in the mountain section of Bavaria, where from among residents of the town of 1500 people, nearly half of them are participants in some part of this great religious drama which for nearly 300 years has been presented during a somewhat extended season once in ten years. The last presentation for the present decade was given in 1922 when nearly 300,000 people visited the little mountain town to witness the presentation of this soul-stirring religious drama. People of all parts of the world, nearly half of them from America.

The pictures are as beautiful and clear, colored Stereopticon slides, not moving pictures, as the writer has ever seen, and he has had opportunity to see many good ones and the whole combination of lecture and pictures is so forceful in presentation through the medium of eyes and ears the graphic story of those days and scenes in the life of Jesus Christ that no one need have any scruples about attending such a lecture in a church or elsewhere.

Dr. Davenport now owns this set of slides and the apparatus for presenting them in connection with his lecture on this great subject. It is his intention to carry them to any community, within easy reach of Thorsby, who may desire to have him do so, provided sufficient notice is given him to make the necessary arrangements. There will be no paid admission entertainments, but since the outfit has cost him a lot of money there will be an opportunity given to make an offering to meet expenses and for promotion of the work to carry to others what the audience has enjoyed.

On Saturday evening Messrs. W. L. Leary, A. E. Reagan, W. M. Parnell, C. R. Foss, C. P. Turnquist and C. S. Howard went to Steel Bridge, near Shelby county line and Coosa river, for a boating and fishing outing. They got plenty of boating but no fish, but in spite of that report a very enjoyable play spell.

On Tuesday a lot of Thorsby young people went to Lock 12 for a basket picnic, among them were: Misses Jennye Robinson, Edith Robinson, Marie and Gladys Flummer, Agnes and Ruth Gerald, the Lessleys, Jewell and Ruth Martin, Agnes Leary, with Mrs. Reno Villadsen, chaperon; Messrs. Arthur Villadsen, Sylvester Robinson, Relius and Horace Franklin, Lessley, and Eugene Davenport.

Miss Naemi Turnquist was hostess at a party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan, given in honor of little Miss Dorothy Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson, the mother being a sister of Miss Turnquist. The guests were invited to spend the night and gave themselves heartily to games and other forms of amusement until bedtime. The little guests were Katharine and Edith Foss, Christine Bosworth, Edith Johnson, Helen Diefenderfer, and Ella Howard.

Miss Lorena Graham left Tuesday for a visit to friends in Birmingham and Anniston.

Quite a number of Thorsby young people are employed in Birmingham and Clanton, the latter making daily trips to and from their Thorsby homes, and others pay frequent wqeekend visits here. Misses Louise Adams, Palma Dahl, Ruth Peterson, Hattie Davenport, Inga Erdahl and Mrs. Nolia Robinson Woods, are in Birmingham, while for the men there are Mr. L. C. Robinson, D. J. Flummer, J. M. Graham, Ivey Horn, and B. L. Davenport. Our Clanton contingent are Misses Bertha Littleton, Gene Collins, Delene Burnett, Naemi Turnquist, and Messrs. W. M. Parnell and L. E. Diefenderfer.

On Sunday, July 8th, and continuing two weeks the Thorsby Baptist Church will hold revival services daily morning and evening, conducted by Rev. Theo Harris, evangelist, of Birmingham, and Rev. B. F. Atkins, director of music, together with Rev. Samuel L. Heath, pastor of the church. Everybody invited. Messrs. Harper and Billingsley will close their store daily during the morning service.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl C. Peterson Thursday afternoon, July 5th.

Rev. E. W. Butler went to Union Church, seven miles east of Mountain Creek, Sunday to preach in place of N. U. Long, their regular minister who is taking a vacation.

Mr. Ernest Eiland is back at home for a few days. He has been working in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodgame and Mrs. Littleton and daughters, Bertha and Vescie, spent the day at T. K. Littleton's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Billingsley and Emmett Billingsley dined at B. L. Davenport's Sunday.

Miss Leora Goodgame is spending several days visiting friends in Birmingham.

UNION GROVE NEWS

LYNCHING RECORD FOR THE FIRST SIX MONTHS, 1923

Figures Compiled by Tuskegee Institute in the Department of Records and Research

Tuskegee, Ala., July 2, 1923.
Editor Union-Banner:

I send you the following information concerning lynchings for the first six months of this year. I find according to the records compiled by Tuskegee Institute in the Department of Records and Research, Monroe N. Work in charge, that in the first six months of 1923 there were 15 lynchings. This is 15 less than the number 30 for the first six months of 1922 and 21 less than the number 36 for the first six months of 1921.

Of those lynched, two were whites and thirteen were negroes. One of the latter was a woman. One of those put to death was charged with the crime of rape. The other offenses charged were: Murder, 2; killing officer of the law, 2; wounding officer of the law, 2; no charge reported, 2; assisting man charged with rape to escape, 1; trying to pass for white, 1; resisting posse searching for man charged with rape, 1; participating in depredations connected with railroad strike, 1; cattle stealing, 1; trying to act like white man and not knowing his place, 1.

The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Arkansas, 1; Florida, 7; Georgia, 2; Louisiana, 1; Mississippi, 2; Missouri, 1; and Texas, 1.

Yours very truly,
R. R. MOTON, Principal.

UNCLE DOCK'S RHYMES

We have made arrangements with Uncle Dock Wells to get some of his "rippling rhymes" for publication in The Union-Banner. Nearly everybody in the county knows Uncle Dock and we believe our readers will enjoy reading his rhyming paragraphs.

I thought I would commence in time
To compose a riddle and make it rhyme.

There was a man of Adam's race,
Who had a curious dwelling place—
A house that was all covered o'er,
Where never man did dwell before.

Neither on earth, in heaven or hell;
Pray, tell me where this man did dwell.

Put on your studying cap just right,
And let me know by Wednesday night.
If anyone of you can tell
I will give you one next week
On the old Hot Well.
Yours truly,
UNCLE DOCK WELLS.

Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

GRAY CAR HAS REMARKABLE FIRST YEAR

New Motor Car Firm Gets Volume Production and World-Wide Distribution Within 12 Months.

(By J. W. BECKMAN)
Associate Editor, Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record.

Aside from the fact that more and more Gray cars have been observed on the streets from time to time, and the fact that every one at the Gray factory is almost too busy to talk, little has been known by the public at large about what the Gray Motor Co. has done. The progress of Gray, however, is one of the remarkable things in the history of the automobile business. Astatement of a few facts will readily make this apparent. The first anniversary of the production of Gray cars will not be marked until June of this year.

It was at the New York automobile show, January, 1922, that the first Gray car was displayed at the Hotel Commodore. It was a hand made job, and was eagerly looked over by the public because of the interest in what Frank L. Klingensmith, formerly of the Ford Motor Co., intended to produce.

It was from then, January, 1922, to June, 1922, before Mr. Klingensmith and Mr. Beall, would allow a Gray car to go into production. They demanded that the car be a finished product before it got into the hands of the public. They made it an inviolable rule that they and not the public should make the experiment with the new car. So over a period of three or four months, three Gray cars were run continuosuly twenty-four hours a day, with three sets of drivers working in three shifts of eight hours each. By June, they were satisfied that the car met all expectations and would perform satisfactorily in the hands of the public, and production was begun.

Gray, today is thousands of orders behind, and probably will not be able to fill anywhere near all the orders that will be placed for Gray cars this year through their dealer organization. The reason for this tremendous success of Gray is that the car has come into a field hitherto untouched by giving the public what it has wanted, and long waited for, a light weight, quality automobile at a very moderate price. This feat was possible through the fortunate combination of two men at the head of Gray who represented both quantity and quality production.

Frank L. Klingensmith for a numbe rof years was vice-president and treasurer of the Ford Motor Co., and at the time of his resignation to take over the presidency of the Gray Motor Co., in 1920, was one of the three directors of the Ford Motor Co., which consisted of Henry and Edsel Ford and himself. Klingensmith was largely responsible for a great many of the successful policies that the Ford organization adopted, and was one of the leaders in quantity production. F. F. Beall, vice-president, was for years vice-president of the Packard Motor Car Co., in charge of the manufacture. Mr. Beall adds that touch of quality which is making one of the strong selling points for Gray cars. Quality has been built right into the Gray from the start. The result is that this and foreign countries are clamoring for this type of car.

FEEDING OUR HUNGRY MILLS

Washington, June 30.—Some idea of the tremendously increased mill consumption which has taken place since the Republican tariff law began its work of stabilizing industry can be arrived at by scanning the tables of imports for the nine months period ending March 31, 1923, the greater part of which period, and the part during which time these increases became pronounced, was under the Fordney-McCumber tariff law.

To begin with hides and skins: We imported 502,384,000 pounds, worth $99,500,000, an increase of over 80 per cent of the quantity imported for the nine months ending March 31, 1922, when the Democratic tariff law was in operation. This was, of course, due to the increased production of our boot and shoe factories, makers of harness and saddlery, belting, etc. Leather, which is a commodity for further use in manufacturing, increased from $7,255,000 in value for the 1922, to $10,416,000 for the 1923 period. Furs and manufacturers of fur increased from $35,750,000 to $61,180,000, and there was a large increase in the number of undressed furs imported.

The value of oil seeds increased from $27,000,000 to $40,000,000, copra increasing from 191,000,000 to 216,000,000 pounds, and a large increase in flaxseed. The value of oil imports increased from $38,000,000 to $42,000,000 among the largest items showing increases being palm oil 29 to 73 million pounds, linseed oil, 13 to 31, and soya bean oil, 1 and a half to 14 million pounds. There was a 12 per cent drop in coconut oil imports.

Cane sugar imports increased from five to six billion pounds, the vast bulk of it still coming from Cuba. Crude rubber increased from 438,000,000 to 569,000,000 pounds. Gums, resins, etc., from $18,000,000 to $28,000,000. The value of imported tobacco rose from $45,000,000 to $60,000,000, and we imported nearly 200,000,000 pounds of cotton compared with 158,000,000 in the 1922 period, most of it long staple. Cotton and rubber imports reflect auto manufacture.

In the textile crudes we find jute and manufactures increased from $33,000,000 to $59,000,000 in value. This includes jute raw, burlaps, bagging, etc. Raw wool increased from 166,000,000 to 371,000,000 pounds, carpet wool from 110,000,000 to 128,000,000. Raw silk increased from 36,000,000 to 42,500,000 pounds.

There were large increases in imports of wood and manufactures, including paper, all along the line. Coal imports were surprisingly great, anthracite increasing from 11,000 to 344,000 tons, and bituminous from 999,000 to nearly 5,000,000 tons. The strike in the coal mines is echoed by this trade. The value of clay products increased from $10,600,000 to $12,760,000, suggesting greater activity in the pottery plants. Asbestos increased from 57,000 to 113,000 tons.

The increases under the head of ores and metals are truly remarkable, testifying to industrial appetite. Iron ore increased from 98,000 to 1,443,000 tons, iron and steel from $12,000,000 to $30,000,000 in value, and the ferros, chromes, and maganeses show large increases. Grouped together copper for manufacture increased from 253,000,000 to 473,000,000 pounds; lead from 96,000,000 to 167,000,000; block and bar tin from 69,000,000 to 113,000,000 pounds, and large increases in zinc. The value of chemicals and allied products increased from $53,000,000 to $91,000,000.

All these imports indicate plainly that American industry is on the job again, and so are the workmen.

GASOLINE TAX IS SHOWING INCREASE

Total of $104,885 Was Collected in State During May; Half Goes to Counties.

State Tax Commissioner F. C. Marquis announced Thursday the total collections from the tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline, for the month of May as $104,855. The proportion of this amount to be divided among the 67 counties, is $52,427.50.

A similar amount goes into the general fund of the state under the provisions of the act levying the tax, which specifies that one-half of the total collections is to be divided among the several counties and the other half is to go to the state.

Some idea of the growth in the returns from the gasoline tax since the first month during which it was effective, March, 1923, is gained from the fact that from the March collections, the share of each county was $627.80; for the month of April $732.34; and for the month of May $782.50.

Checks for the equal share of each individual county, was mailed to the respective county treasurers, Saturday by State Treasurer George W. Ellis.

Judge Reynolds would lose $300 a year if the county court were abolished; but the county would lose around ten thousand. Does this look consistent to the tax payers?

There is a bill to come up before the State Legislature to pass a statewide stock law. We believe if this were done, it would greatly facilitate the eradication of the cattle tick.

A measley dozen men in this county, behind closed doors, have framed a scheme that would rob the tax payers of Chilton county of ten or twelve thousand dollars, just simply because they have some petty grievances against some of our county officials.

Our Democratic friends who work themselves into a fury because Mr. Lasker spent $13,000 taking some guests on the trial trip of the Leviathan, did not even bat an eye when the Democratic managers of the Shipping Board wasted a few hundreds of millions.

The farmers of Alabama are gradually adopting the plan of diversification. As will be seen in the article we are publishing this week by Mr. Luther E. Little about the strawberry business around Castleberry, it pays the farmers to plant other crops besides cotton alone.

Can we afford to sacrifice ten thousand dollars a year in order to save three hundred? That is just what we will be doing if the county court is abolished and all the cases tried in circuit court. A comparison of the receipts and disbursements of these two courts will be published in The Union-Banner in the near future.

It seems that the promoters of the bill to abolish the county court have kindly gotten crossed up on the matter of the county solicitor. We understand that they promised to protect him if the bill passed; however, they are using the elimination of his salary as an argument in favor of the bill. Why not let's call a mass meeting and have all these things explained?

We ought to have a meeting of the citizens of the county in the near future, and show to our Senator and Representative whether or not the people of the county endorse the proposed bills to abolish the county court and the commissioners court. We don't approve of the idea of a dozen men getting behind closed doors and dictating the laws and courts of our county. Let's come out in the open with it.

Some of the good Democrats of Chilton county seem to favor the idea of states rights not only from a national standpoint but from a county standpoint as well. They are trying to give the state executive the power to say who our county officers are to be and how the county government is to be run. The truth of the matter is, they are perfectly willing to sacrifice ALL the rights of the people just in order to have their own personal, petty jealousies satisfied.

Envy.—The Poet—"The editor's bought my 'Ode to a Sparrer'—he was crazy to print it."

The Critic—"That's what I thought when I read it!"—Sydney Bulletin, (Australia).

We have authorative information that Senator Adams will not support the Commissioners Court bill in the State Senate. He also says that he will not support the move to abolish the county court unless a majority of the people of the county want it done. The way to find out how the people stand on these matters is to invite them out to a mass meeting and let them express their views. Would it not be fair to have a meeting of all the citizens of the county at the court house and let both sides present speakers to explain the merits and demerits of the measures?

IF COUNTY COURT IS ABOLISHED IN CHILTON

In introducing a bill before the legislature to abolish the county court of Chilton county, the Democrats are only living up to their established policy of increasing public expenses. At present our county court clears for the county every year between three and four thousand dollars, which money is used to defray the various expenses of the county. On the other hand, the circuit court of the county nothing like pays for itself, due to the fact that the expenses of such court is so heavy and so little is derived in the way of fines. Now, any one can readily see what it would mean to the county in a financial way to abolish the county court and have all these small cases tried by the circuit court. This deficit, of course, would have to be paid for out of the tax money paid in by the people of the county.

So far as Judge Reynolds is concerned, the passage of this bill would not hurt him, since he serves as Judge of the county court for the meagre sum of $25.00 a month, which is very small pay for the amount of work which he has to do. But the trouble would be the tremendous increase in the court expenses of the county. The county can't afford to make this change, from a financial standpoint.

COMMISSIONERS COURT BILL

The desire of the Democrats of Chilton county to abolish the Court of County Commissioners and have in its stead appointed a Board of Revenue is nothing more nor less than a scheme to get the treasury of our county in the hands of a few grabbers of Clanton. If this bill becomes a law, what money the county has together with its credit and good name will go up in blue smoke. This bill provides for five members of the Board of Revenue, a clerk, a purchasing agent and a county engineer. This would place on the county's pay roll four more officers than we now have, but that is not the half of it. What salary are all eight of these officers going to draw? This question is to be answered by the members of the board themselves, and there is no limit in the bill as to what these salaries shall be. Even a fool can see the danger of such a proposition as this.

We wonder what it is that is unsatisfactory about the present Court of County Commissioners. So far as we know, there has never been a straighter bunch of men anywhere than those whom we have for this work. The work which they have done for the county is absolutely beyond reproach, and according to state examiners is without equal in the State of Alabama. The trouble is simply this: They are guarding the treasury of Chilton county with an iron hand, and will not let the money be wasted. Whenever unjust claims are presented to them for payment they promptly turn them down, then of course these claimants get sore because they were halted in their attempt to rob the tax payers. The people of the county cannot afford to sit still and let such actions as this be taken against them.

We believe it would be a good idea to have a mass meeting of the people of the county, and let everybody come out and express their views in regard to this action. Also let the men who are fathering this move be present and show up the merits of the proposed changes.

WORTH THE INITIATION

There appears to be great indignation among certain members of the British House of Commons over the treatment of British immigrants at Ellis Island. The complaint is made that British citizens have been compelled to wait in a large room with 150 people of other nationalities until their cases had been disposed of. The debate in the House of Commons did not bring out any charge that British subjects were not treated as well as the immigrants from other nations, but the impression seemed to prevail that they should have preferential treatment.

If the United States should undertake to provide special comforts for British immigrants, justifiable criticism could be brought by every other nation whose people come to our shores. It is admitted that conditions at Ellis Island are not ideal from the point of view of the immigrant, but immigrants will always be subject to more or less annoyance and disappointment so long as the United States exercises a control over the number and quality of those admitted. British subjects will continue to be treated on an absolute equality with those of other countries, and will be detained at Ellis Island just so long, and no longer, as may be necessary to determine their right of admission. The British government, of course, has no similar problem of its own, because Americans appreciate the relative merits of the United States, and their emigration to England is practically nil.

CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED

"America is trying to be a democracy, and America doesn't know how to be a democracy. America can't think in democratic terms. America still thinks in terms of privilege and possession and position and social clique." Thus spoke the president of Amherst College, whereupon he was properly and promptly deposed by the trustees of that institution. There are two general meanings of "democracy." In the United States it is generally understood to mean a government that derives its powers from the consent of the governed. In Europe it connotes a society based on political, economic, and social equality. There is no question but that we have a democracy according to the former definition, hence the Amherst official must favor a democracy as it is known in Europe. He is not alone in advocating such a change, as there are scores of other radicals of the same mind, many of them holding responsible positions in our institutions of learning. They lack consistency in that they do not take up their abode in Russia, where they will find practical application of their theories.

PRIZE OFFERED

"Our politicians are badly in need of a new baptism of understanding with respect to 'radicalism,' remarks the editor of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. "Insistently proclaiming solicitous interest in the welfare of the farmer they proceeded to place upon the statute books a tariff law that has unavoidably deeply injured the agricultural industry." The editor aforesaid will be entitled to one large, red apple for every honest-to-goodness farmer he can bring forward who will vote against the present tariff rates on farm products, and if he will point to a solitary instance in which the agricultural industry has been injured by the tariff, we will peel that apple for him.

NEW DRIVE POSTS FOR CLANTON

Chief of Police Foshee informs us that the town will put up in a few days five drive-to-the-right posts on the most important corners of the streets of Clanton. One of these posts will be located in front of the Wilson Hotel, one in front of Upchurch Drug Co., one in front of the court house, one at the post office, and one below Lawrence's Garage.

Mr. Foshee also informs us that when these posts are put up, the traffic laws will be rigidly enforced. If he finds a car parked contrary to the regulations, the number of the license will be taken, and the owner of the car will be asked to report to the Mayor's office. It will certainly help traffic conditions here for this law to be enforced.

What Is Weevilnip?

It is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors designed to attract the boll weevils and kill them.
Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.
WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

TEST MADE ON FARM OF J. H. ALLEN
EDGEFIELD, S. C.

On June the 21st at about 11 o'clock a.m., WEEVILNIP was applied to about 1-4 of an acre of cotton on the farm of Mr. J. H. Allen, Edgefield, S. C. The cotton was about knee high and contained plenty of squares and forms. Weevils were found to be plentiful, and infestation very heavy.

The same afternoon about six o'clock the cotton was examined by Mr. Allen who says that he was unable to find a single weevil on the part poisoned, either dead or alive, but on cotton in the same field that had not been poisoned weevils were found just as they were in the morning.

The following morning at 10:30 a.m. the field was examined by W. F. Holson, J. S. Scurry, J. L. Prince and J. G. Alford. No live weevils was found on cotton that had been poisoned and one dead weevil was found under a stalk. The cotton was looked closely and no weevil could be found on poisoned cotton, but on the unpoisoned cotton there were plenty of them just as the poisoned cotton was before applying.

While applying the poison it was noticed that a weevil was out on a leaf apparently eating the WEEVILNIP. This weevil was watched closely and in about three hours it was dead.

The Weevilnip Co., Macon Ga.
Gentlemen:

I thought that I would drop you a line and let you know the results that I am obtaining this season from the use of WEEVILNIP.

I have got a field of cotton that I have been using WEEVILNIP on ever since it was chopped out. It's been raining ever since the last of April most every day. But once in a while we would get a day or two of fair weather and I would apply WEEVILNIP and I feel safe to say that I have at least a 90 per cent control of the Boll Weevils and I positively know that a man can control the Boll Weevils if he will use WEEVILNIP according to instructions.

I remain, yours very truly,

Pecan trees of Tuscaloosa County, a considerable number in recent years, are said to be suffering considerable damage as a result of the activities of tent caterpillars which are filling the trees with webs and doing considerable damage to the foliage. The result will not only be the loss of the crop, but a loss of strength and vitality to the trees, which will materially damage next year's crop also.

Acting upon a petition of 1,500 citizens, the board of commissioners of Blount county has called an election for Tuesday, July 31, to determine whether or not the county will continue to levy the three-mill tax for school purposes. At the same time, the people will vote on the question of renewing the special one-mill tax which was allowed to expire last year.

As an example of what may be accomplished in the way of cooperative marketing, even in small beginning, it is announced that $400 worth of poultry and eggs have been sold by the farmers of Lee county under the direction of the county demonstration agents, Wells and Miss Ruth Whorton, home demonstration agent, during the past two months. These sales were of broilers and fresh eggs.

A decision of interest to Opelika is that handed down by Judge Henry D. Clayton of the United States district court in which a permanent injunction was granted in favor of the Opelika Sewer company, restraining the city of Opelika from interferring with the installing of new sewer rates, which are said to be about double the former rates.

For the consideration of $30,000 cash, L. J. Smith, general manager of the Nadawah Lumber company, of Wilcox county, purchased from the Lee Timber Sales company 7,500,000 feet of growing pine timber. The timber is located near Pleasant Hill in Dallas county, land in which it stands being owned by residents of the village.

A pine box believed to contain the bones of William Drue Connor, of Choctaw county, who was killed, his body wired to a tree and cremated in December, 1921, was carried to Mobile by R. E. Hunt, special investigator of the state attorney general's office, and W. B. NeSmith, federal prohibition agent, in an effort to clear up the mysterious death of Connor.

Malaria control work in the state resulted in the construction of 27 miles of new ditches and the expenditure of $9,000 in combating mosquitoes, from Jan. 1 to May 31, according to reports of the state health department. Rules for malaria control were taught in 337 schools, to 46,652 children; and 739 places were stocked with top minnows.

Applications for a rehearing in the case of Nellie Bestor, Bibb County negro woman, sentenced to hang, were overruled in a decision rendered by the supreme court The woman was sentenced to hang for the murder of her husband. The supreme court set the new date for execution as August 10.

A petition is being prepared for presentation to the merchants of Huntsville to have them close their stores every Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock during the months of July and August in order to give their employes a half holiday each week during the warmest period of the Summer.

Zach C. Smith, general industrial agent for the Southern railway, announced that his department will cooperate with the Gadsden Chamber of Commerce in its campaign for more manufacturing plants. He has written Secretary Butler that he wants a conference with the chamber soon after July 15.

Mrs. Bertie Campbell, formerly Miss Dossett, through her attorneys, Gordon and Edington, has asked the Mobile School Board for $66 a month from November last. Mrs. Campbell alleges she was dismissed on two weeks' notice when she married during the life of her teaching contract

Sixty hundred and twenty-five students are enrolled in the Howard College Summer School. This is the largest summer school enrollment in its history.

The state treasurer has mailed checks in the sum of $129,465 to registered holders of state bonds for semi-annual interest due July 1.

Day & Sachs of Birmingham were awarded the contract to built the Birmingham auditorium, by unanimous vote of the city commission. Their bid was $409,100.

NEW SALEM

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Two very interesting sermons were delivered. Bro. Durbin from Thorsby preached for us on Saturday as our pastor, Bro. Dykes could not be here.

A large crowd attended the singing Sunday afternoon which was real good. Those who directed were: Mr. Henderson Hayes, Mr. E. L. Glasscock, Mr. Vester Campbell, Mr. Gip Melton and Mr. A. H. Glasscock. Organists were: Misses Pauline Maddox, Myrtle Dorminey, Inez Hayes, and Mrs. Maud Cox.

There will be singing here every first Sunday afternoon.

Let's not forget the social on Thursday before the 3rd Sunday. Would be glad for every member to be present and bring some one with you, as Bro. Dykes is expected to be with us. Am sure he has got something good to tell us, so let's go and see what it is.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hayes dined with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Caton took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Benson Sunday.

Miss Pearl Thacker and Miss Pauline Maddox were the guests of Miss Loutishie Bean Sunday.

HOW TO KILL THE BUGS

Bugs on tomato plants can be killed by using either of the following on your plants:

Dissolve two teasnoonfulls of arsenate of lead in each gallon of water used. Spray or sprinkle on plants.

Another good spray can be prepared by using one pound of rock lime and one pound of bluestone. Air slack the lime and powder the bluestone, then mix both thoroughly in ten gallons of water and apply on plants.

Most drug stores have prepared powders which can be dusted on the plants and will destroy the bugs.

The Value of Land Abstracts

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO STRAWBERRY GROWERS

(By Luther E. Little)

Since there are already some people in Chilton county growing truck crops and others contemplating doing so in the near future, probably it would be beneficial as well as interesting to know what other people are actually doing in this line.

Since there are so many people ready to argue such things as I would like to say in regard to the success of growing such things as strawberries and potatoes in South Alabama, I am having some clippings reprinted from a Conecuh county paper, which I, personally, compared with the books of the Association and found approximately correct.

Special attention should be given to the reports of Mr. E. N. Partin and I. S. Robinson, as these figures are correct.

My motive for writing this is to show the people here what is being done just a short distance South. Also the same things can be raised in Chilton county just as successfully. But perfect co-operation must be manifested to make a total success:

$100,000 Disbursed for Castleberry Berries

It is reported that the paymaster made Castleberry berry growers a happy lot of mortals early this month, disbursing to the Association members something like $100,000. This it is understood, is net to the growers, after deducting advances for fertilizer, crates, labor, etc. A sum of this proportion, distributed among a membership of 115, means a spring purchasing ability not to be sneeded at in a town of Castleberry's size, with a population of about 1,000.

But this is only a part of Castleberry's berry income. The Association shipped about 225 cars, the Lee and Clark organizations about 115 cars, from the same point, and the former about 30 cars from Owassa, making about 370 cars in all from Conecuh county.

Castleberry's total net income from its strawberry operations this season probably approximates $200,000.

Castleberry, Ala., June 8, 1923.
Editor Everpreen Courant:

Here is a true statement of the value of my 1923 berry crop. I had just two acres in strawberries from which I gathered 320 crates.

Gross income	$1236.48
Plant'g and cultivat'g	$ 50.00
Fertilizer	85.00
Mulching	20.00
Crates and gathering	320.00
	$475.00
Net profits	$761.48

You may publish this if you wish.
Yours truly,
E. N. PARTIN.

The Humble Moneymaker

One of the too-large landowners of South Alabama said a few days ago, "Considering the value of my holdings, as strictly farming operations they are unprofitable. Formerly, when there was an abundance of labor available at almost any price and on any terms, and no boll weevils, large acreages made money for their owners, even when inefficiently handled. Now there is keen competition for labor and the worst of it is that when you need hands worst maybe you cannot get them at any price. On top of this there is not the old surety that after the work is done a cotton crop will be produced. In that corner of the field my children found a whole host of weevils this week. If they are showing up this early what may we expect when the crop develops, giving them something to feast on?"

In the sticks, four miles from Castleberry, off the Brooklyn road, is the 95 acre farm of Mr. Isaac S. Roberson, 70 acres in cultivation. This season Mr. Roberson had 6 acres in berries. His yield was about 900 crates that brought him, f.o.b. Castleberry, around $3.50 per crate. On account of his original method of cultivation, this grower used only about half the fertilizer that the average grower used—or to be exact, 1,200 lbs. per acre—and, since his acreage was not large, did all his between-season work without engaging additional labor. Fertilizer cost him 22c per crate, picking 50c, crates 28c. Larger growers figure it costs anywhere from $1.50 to $2.50 per crate to make their berries and put them aboard cars. Possibly Mr. Roberson's bookkeeping is more primitive but, anyhow, he estimates that his patch of 6 acres of berries netted him nearly enough to cover the cost of his entire 95 acres of land. Then he also produces oats, cotton, corn, velvet beans, cowpeas, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, sugar cane, hay, hogs, cattle, poultry, all kinds of vegetables, figs, peaches, apples, melons, canteloupes, goats, sheep, etc.

"Paradise Enow"

Four miles from Repton is the splendidly domiciled and developed little farm of B. F. Giddens, 154 acres in all, of which 100 acres are in cultivation, 75 acres clear of stumps. This farmer raises oats, corn, cotton, velvet beans, cowpeas, peanuts, sugar cane, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, hogs, cattle, poultry, all kinds of vegetables, including lima beans for market, pecans, apples, plums, cherries, grapes, figs, melons, canteloupes, and some Satsuma oranges. Nuts off one of the 300 pecan trees sold last season for $30, which does not miss much what the place was bought for, per acre, five years ago.

Among Mr. Giddens' numerous crops this season are 10 acres of Irish potatoes (with cotton between rows). Recently, Mr. Giddens sold his potato crop, still in the ground, for $1250.00, or $125 an acre, and expects a bale of cotton to the acre out of the same field.

Last year Mr. Giddens' potatoes yeilded 128 bushels per acre and this season's production promises to beat the previous record.

Unfortunately, the Giddens' farm does not produce flour, coffee and wearing apparel. Even so, parroting Omar, it might be said this is "Paradise Enow." Where in civilization could folks get so much on so small an investment?

The Spuds Are Moving

The Irish potato movement is in swing. So far the E. C. Lee Farms Co. has shipped between fifty and sixty cars, from its three loading points, Owassa, Castleberry, and Evergreen. Their aggregate for the season will approximate one hundred cars. The same company, by the way, has shipped eight cars of cabbage from Owassa, a sample of which was handed the editor Saturday by our good friend, E. W. Braxton, who ships through the Lee organization. The head, which was not one of the largest, weighed nine pounds.

The season for Conecuh county's potato growers and truckers promises to be quite satisfactory in most respects. The potato yield ranges all the way from 80 to nearly 200 bushels per acre. Over the line, beyond Repton, Geo. Wasden is 'mopping up' and setting a new high record. Joe Skinner and others in the Castleberry district, have fine potatoes. Express shipments of truck from Evergreen have been heavy but only intelligent organization, along some line, will develop this industry to anything like its true possibilities. A central packing shed, with a commercial pack under the supervision of experts and a get-together that will enable the shipment of carloads, are prime essential. The Chamber of Commerce should be on the job 300 days in the year, in such matters. The growers would then have just so much more money to spend with the merchants.

FACTS TO A CANDID WORLD

Washington, July 2.—Republican leaders in Washington are immensely pleased over the character of speeches President Harding has been making during his Western tour. They are pleased because he has dealt directly with facts and has not attempted to substitute oratory for argumentation. Instead of endeavoring to make a special appeal to the selfish interests of different sections of the country, he has courageously presented issues in localities where they are likely to be least popular. This course leaves the Republicans nothing to explain or retract or modify when the campaign for election comes around next year.

There is a general feeling of satisfaction because the President has not endeavored to create high-sounding phrases which might arouse enthusiasm for the moment but lead to reaction later. Not in a single instance has the Democratic press undertaken to controvert any statement President Harding has made regarding the record of his Administration, or the attitude of the Republican party on national issues. Nevertheless, the reluctance of Democratic leaders to make any acknowledgement of the success of the Harding Administration and the high character of President Harding's addresses, is indicated by the statement made by one of the leading Democratic papers of the country which said, editorially,

"What his Administration has done to reduce taxes, which is not much, and to cut down extravagant public expenditures, which is a great deal more, constitutes a real claim to public approval."

This is an unwilling acknowledgement of the cut in taxes made by the Republicans soon after they came into power. It is an even greater acknowledgement that by cutting extravagant expenditures the Administration has paved the way for further reduction in taxes which may not, however, be accomplished before the next campaign has been completed. That this accomplishment "constitutes a real claim to public approval" is a very considerable admission from Democratic leaders who a few months ago were claiming that the Republican Administration had "done nothing" during its more than two years' incumbency.

Democratic leaders are also compelled to admit that although American agriculture has not entirely recovered from the depression it suffered during the closing months of the Wilson Administration, yet the Republican Administration has done everything that could be done by the government to relieve the farming communities. They are forced to admit also that under private management of the railroads as provided for by the Transportation Act, the government has been relieved from a great financial burden which it was bearing under the system of government operation. Since the failure to find purchasers for the government owned merchant ships, Democratic leaders manifest little inclination to further criticize the Republican proposal for a ship subsidy measure. They have nothing better to suggest in its place. Forced to acknowledge the success of the Administration in handling domestic affairs and in securing efficiency and economy in the government service, there are only two issues on which the Democrats now seek to criticize the Republican Administration. One of these is continued refusal to join the League of Nations, and the other is the attitude of the Harding dministration in favor of the maintenance of the prohibition amendment and the enforcement of the prohibition law. At the present time those seem likely to be the leading issues of the 1924 campaign.

POOR ORIGINAL

Many things are being said about the railroads to-day. They are being blamed for whatever goes wrong, by politicians who want to get votes, and by people who are sincere but who do not know anything about railroad problems.

In order that the public may know the truth, the L. & N. Railroad is going to run every week a series of advertisements giving you the facts about the railroad situation. The L. & N., serving a great part of the South and reaching into the heart of the Middle West, has no "axe to grind" in telling you these things. It realizes, however, that many people are making unjust criticisms of the railroads and it simply wants everyone to know the facts. It realizes that when the truth is known the railroads will not be erroneously judged.

Read these advertisements every week. They will tell what the railroads mean to you and why you should be interested in them.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Hall of Clanton Lodge, Number 428, A. F. & A. M.

Clanton, Ala., June 19, 1923.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Clanton Lodge Number 423, A. F. & A. M.

We, the undersigned committee, respectfully beg leave to submit for your approval and adoption the following preambles and resolutions:—

Our departed friend and brother, Joseph P. VanDerveer was born in the city of Montgomery on November 30th, 1858, on the identical site where the Masonic Temple of that city now stands. Here brother VanDerveer spent his boyhood and early manhood days, receiving a good training and a generous education at the hands of his parents. He graduated from Georgetown College about the time he atained his majority, and soon afterwards moved to Clear Creek, where he resided and engaged in farming until about thirty years of age. It was here that his lot was cast with Miss Cornelia E. McMath of Montevallo, Alabama, in the year 1880, who now survives his death. From here our brother moved to Jemison, Alabama, sojourning there only two years, and it was here that he received his first degrees of Masonry, receiving the three degrees in the year 1891, from Jemison Lodge Number 411. Also while residing brother VanDerveer was elected to the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama. Shortly afterwards tre Fates decreed that he should cast his lot in the town of Clanton, Alabama, where he was destined to spend his last reclining years. For a period of thirty-two years our esteemed brother moulded his influence and character into the people of Clanton and Chilton county so deeply that the power of Father Time himself is impotent to remove the impression. The first six years he served as Circuit Clerk, for the next fifteen years he served in the capacity of Tax Adjuster and Abstracting Land Titles until that office was abolished four years ago. Since that time and until his death he was engaged in the Real Estate and Insurance business.

He removed his membership from the Jemison Lodge and affiliated with Clanton Lodge, August the 6th, 1898, where his membership remained until his death. His public activities were numerous and extensive. He was the author of the charter of the town of Clanton of 1897, under which the town now operates, also serving as Mayor and Councilman of Clanton. Another important feature of his life was the installation and operation of the first electric light plant in Clanton and Chilton county, about 1908. He was elected Worshipful Master of Clanton Lodge in 1901, also serving in many other capacities in the Lodge. Brother VanDerveer received the Baptismal Rites of the Baptist Church of Clanton along with his younger daughter, Bessie about fifteen years before his death.

Brother VanDerveer is survived by one son, John M., and two daughters, Mrs. Pattie May Powe and Mrs. Bessie Richards, and by his widow, Mrs. Cornelia E. VanDerveer, two of his sons, William P. and oJseph P. Jr., having preceded him in death.

The Great Giver of life deemed it necessary to take from our esteemed friend and brother the life with which he was so richly blessed, and on Saturday afternoon in the peaceful town of Clanton, the 5th day of the month of May in the year of our Lord, 1923, within the joy of his own home and the confines of his very room, at peace with the world, and prepared to go, just as the twilight of the closing day was approaching and as the golden sun set was sinking beyond the western horizon, so it was in the big heart of our noble friend and brother, the evening sun of his life was closing, and as the shades of night hovered upon the earth as a great protector, so it was that darkness came upon our brother, only to give forth brightness and a new day with undiminished lustre, brighter and happier than any earthly one.

His remains were laid to rest with Masonic honors at Clanton cemetery on May 7th, 1923. The Knight Templars officiating with Clanton Blue Lodge assisting, accompanied by members of Jemison Lodge and other Masons and numerous friends. The Reverend S. J. Ezell of the Clanton Baptist Church conducted the funeral services, assisted by the Reverend Charles C. Wilkerson of the Clanton Methodist Church.

Therefore Be It Resolved, by this Lodge that in the death of brother VanDerveer the community has lost a good and valuable citizen, one who was loved and trusted.

Be It Further Resolved, by this Lodge that in the death of brother VanDerveer his family has lost a kind and affectionate husband and father and that in this their great loss and in this their hour of bereavement may their pangs of sorrow be ameliorated by the Divine thought that he lived the life on this earth, acceptable in the eyes of God, and now resides in those celestial heights above where all is gladness. We extend to the heart-broken widow and to the bereaved children our heartfelt condolence and may the soothing hand of Time remove the sting of death from the grave and place a crown of victory there.

Be It Lastly Resolved, by Clanton Lodge that in the death of our brother a void has been made, a chair left vacant that will always be felt. As a Mason he was, in all sense of the word, what the name implies, loyal, honest and true even until the breath of life had left his wordly body. His life was lead gy the spirits of gentleness, justice and mercy, and in his daily walks of life he had a smile and a kind word for the rich and the poor, the high and low alike, thinking of all mankind as a common brotherhood, thus recognizing the continuity of the Divine and the solidarity of the human life. His smile and loving kindness were features of respect from all those who knew him. In his early life he learned that to be a Mason one must be good and true, and this principle he never deviated from but beautifully as he lived and nobly as he died he was found to be good and true. He was always ready to stretch out a helping hand for fallen brother, with a heart full of sympathy and consolation. He won for himself the love of faithful friends who went with him unmoved into the darkening shadows of life's closing day. He was a man and citizen of rare culture and a source of honest information to the old and young alike, of strong convictions, of high intelligence and great significance. And it was said of him that he could see something of good in everyone, a true friend to the defenseless and oppressed. He was truly the passing Southern entleman of sterling character and chivalrous actions, and like the Rock og ges he remained true to his Masonic trust. One of his outstanding characteristics was his faithful devotion to his Lodge, time nor the elements or anw circumstances ever diminished his great loyalty and love for Masonry, he was always on hand to attend the sick and bury the dead. His life upon this earth was beautiful and good and all through his life it remained so, growing old gracefully, he died as manfully and beautifulyl as he lived. His big heart now lies stilled in the grip of death, but its beat shal lbe felt until the time shall be no more.

We beg to suggest that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the widow and family of our deceased brother.

Respectfully submitted,
GROCER C. HARRIS,
C. FENN JONES,

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

A Reproduction of News Items, as Published In The Banner July 7, 1898

There was singing and speaking at Baker school house the Fourth of July. Dock Ayres was elected chairman and L. B. Pounds spoke at 11 o'clock.

Prof. Robert L. Veazey has accepted the school at Deason's school house, and began teaching last Tuesday.

The Fourth was spent in a thoroughly patriotic manner throughout the country, and the glorious news of the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago helped to swell the enthusiasm.

The gallant Alabamian, Richmond P. Hobson has been released from Spanish prison and is again with the colors.

Messrs. Duke, Williamson and Merriwater of Verbena are spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Katie Stanfield is at home during the vacation of the Female College at Troy.

Mr. Caldwell McMorris is at home again after a pleasant vacation in South Alabama.

Mr. Ben Teel is at home again after having finished his work at Tuscaloosa.

The wife of Mr. George Goodson, who was in the insane asylum, jumped from a window of the asylum and killed herself.

Mr. W. T. Bean was married to Miss L. M. Martin this week.

Mules hitched to a wagon the Fourth ran away near N. J. Calloway's place and injured Miss Annie White, Miss Era Higgins and Miss Bettie Calloway.

Mr. Ernest C. Groom of Union Grove was attending county court here Monday.

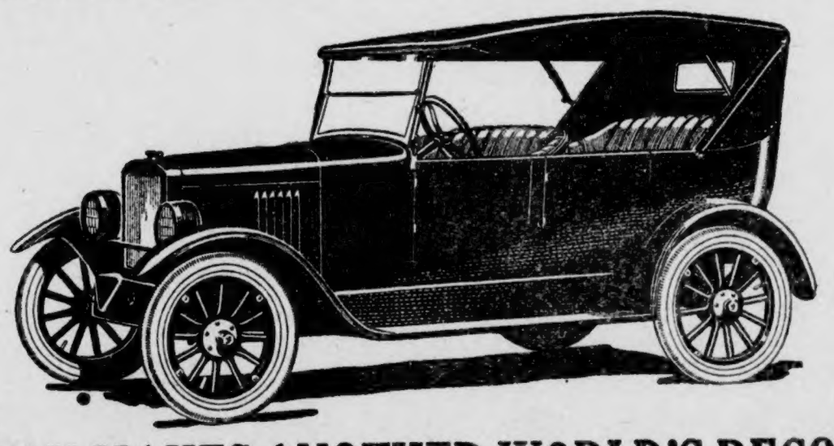
IT'S A GRAY—THE WORLD'S ECONOMY CAR



GRAY MAKES ANOTHER WORLD'S RECORD

The Gray Motor Company, in eleven months, has established a national dealer organization that places it among the leaders in national distribution.

It is exporting cars to about 30 different countries and adding to the number constantly.

Additions to the plant have been made regularly to take care of increased demand.

Plan to construct assembling plants in the South, East, West and Southwest.

The company is one of the strongest backed financially in the industry.

Account of the great demand for Gray cars, we have been experiencing a great shortage of these cars.

We will have a carload in this week, so you will be able to have your new Gray for the 4th. Let us give you a demonstration today.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

From 25,000 to 30,000 yards of cloth has been manufactured at the state mill at Kilby prison, the manufacture of shirts has begun there and the state's cotton mill is running full capacity, though not with a maximum output owing to the fact that labor is "green," according to information from the state board of convict supervisors. A piece from the first bolt of cloth made in the prison has been framed and hangs on the office wall of Roy L. Nolen, associate member of the convict board, and another such specimen was presented to the department of archives and history.

A wonderful change is being wrought at Townley this spring, according to Rev. B. F. Tingle, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. Carpenters are repairing houses and families are moving into them as rapidly as the houses can be repaired. Several hundred men are at work in and about mine No. 1, which will be reopened within 30 days, it is said. Dr. Steel Shores has opened a new drug store there. Townley Methodist church is being remodeled and enlarged, and, in fact, the town is in the midst of a real boom, Rev. Tingle says.

It is an interesting sight to see the trucks from the Notasulga canning factory as they go out into every section of Macon county each afternoon to gather up the blackberries that are ripening in every nook and corner. These berries are being picked mostly by the women and children, and are placed in large tubs where the truck can pick them up. The crop is not very good this year, but the factory at Notasulga is doing a splendid business. This new industry is bringing many dollars into the rural section.

George A. Lawyer, chief United States game warden, will visit Montgomery for a conference with Commissioner of Conservation I. T Quinn, on a proposed change in the open season for doves in Alabama. It is stated that while the season in Alaabma does not open until October 16, in Mississippi and Louisiana doves may be shot by September 16, and many sportsmen wish to advance the Alabama season to be on a par with the neighboring states.

A Civil war relic found near Decatur by Thomas Prosser, a local blacksmith, in the shape of a bombshell attracted much interest. The powder in the shell, which had been there since the Civil war, was found to burn with a flash when a match was applied to it. The shell had to be broken open, due to rust. It was nearly 12 inches in circumference and was over five inches long. It contained 18 minnie balls.

A bill giving county boards of revenue and the state of Alabama authority to make appropriations to be used by the Greater Alabama Association, in advertising Alabama and its resources, is being drafted to be introduced in the summer session of the state legislature, according to O. L. Bunn, general manager of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the executive committee of this recently organized association.

Business men of Troy have been invited by the Alabama Power company to join the party of Kiwanis and Rotary club members July 12, when they will visit Mitchell dam. They will make the trip from Troy in a special train and will be entertained by the company at luncheon at the dam.

Mrs. E. L. Cross, proprietress of the Gables hotel at Fairhope, has placed the contract for a new hotel structure, to be located at the corner of Fairhope avenue and Summit street. The new building, it is understood, will be of fireproof construction, two stories in height, and will have 15 rooms.

The sentence of Tom Wilson, scheduled to hang last Friday for the killing of Kirby Cole, was commuted by Governor Brandon the day before the date of execution, and Wilson is now in Kilby prison serving a life sentence.

JOHN F. HARRIS

On Thursday morning, June 28, 1923, at Plantersville, Ala., death called from the land of the living John F. Harris.

He was 62 years old, and had been afflicted for more than two years; but he bore his suffering with great patience, never murmuring against the dear Father's will. All that loving hands could do was done for him, tut God in His infinite love saw fit to remove him to a home where suffering is unknown.

He was an independent thinker, and, although having an open mind, he was a true forward-looking citizen, a tender devoted husband and a gentle loving father.

He left a heart-broken companion, two sons, Byron and Horace; three daughters, Mamie, Annie Lou and Josephine; four brothers and one sister to mourn his loss.

He was laid to rest at Plantersville cemetery, Brother Jones conducting the services.

May the companion, children, relatives and friends be comforted by the hopes of a future reunion some day.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils. Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

FOUR DRAINAGE PROJECTS IN STATE

Fifty Thousand Acres to be Reclaimed in Fayette and Other Counties.

Auburn, Ala., June 21.—Fifty thousand acres of rich Alabama land are to be drained by projects either in progress or proposed. A detailed report of drainage situation in the state has been prepared by P. T. Simons, drainage engineer for the extension service, showing that at least four districts have been formed with work started in three of them and that the others are merely proposed, with indications that they will be organized.

The Fayette-Lamar drainage district No. 1, which is the biggest in the State, comprises 24,000 acres, and on it drainage and other work has actually begun. The second largest is the Fayette-Lamar district No. 2, 10,000 acres. It is also in progress, and nearby is the Marion county district No. 1 for 3,000 acres—making a total of 37,000 acres to be drained in one section of the State.

In Mobile county the Fowl River district has been organized and is now requesting bids on the drainage of 3,000 acres of fertile land. This will be followed by the sale of bonds and the beginning of the work.

To control overflow water and to drain free water a district is now proposed by the farmers who will be affected thereby in Clay county. It will comprise about 3,000 acres and further steps toward organization are to be taken at an early date.

In Greene county two districts are proposed for the purpose of draining 400 and 500 acres, respectively, of rich land and thereby prevent overflowing and practically insuring a crop each year.

According to Mr. Simons, the cost of these projects will be considerably more than half a million dollars and it is believed that other districts needing drainage will organize in the near future.

REV. S. SMITHERMAN

This section was made sad Sunday morning when the news came that Rev. Sutton Smitherman of Randolph was dead. He went to Dogwood Saturday to his appointment, became sick and died there Saturday night. He was buried at Randolph Sunday afternoon by the Masonic fraternity. Funeral by Rev. John Mitchell. A great concourse of people attended the burial. Music was directed by Prof. M. V. Lawley of Shelby, consisting of selections from the old book—"Pizgah, Hicks, Farewell, Lone Pilgrim."

There was a profusion of beautiful floral offerings. Pall bearers were his immediate relatives.

His early life was spent in Chilton around Pleasant Grove near Jemison. He was well known in Chilton, having been pastor at Liberty Hill, Mars Hill and Pleasant Grove. He left a loving message for his family, that he was ready to go.

ICE PLANT CLOSED SUNDAYS

Hereafter the Wade Ice Plant will be closed on Sundays, except from 7 to 10 a.m. Ice will be sold only between these hours, except in cases of sickness, when an order from a physician will be necessary.

GOOD PLAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

The feature musical comedy play of the season was put on last Friday night at the county high school auditorium. All of the characters of the play were home talent, but it was under the direction of the Wayne P. Sewell Producing Lyceum Company of Atlanta, which company has had a director here for the past two weeks coaching the practice of the characters. The title of the play was "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk," and the main plot of the comedy was a comparison between the people and customs of the year 1850 and what they will be in 1975. These points were very strikingly brought out by the characteristic modes of dress and manners in these two times.

For one to appreciate the dramatic talent that is in the young people of Clanton, it was necessary to see this performance. All the parts of the play, from the leading characters down to the chorus girls, were acted in a way that shows rare skill and endowment on the part of the performers. The leading parts were played by Burton Higgins, Mrs. Macy Jones, Johnnie Plier, Warrene Spigener, Clay Marcus and Roberta Curry, all of whom certainly did credit to themselves as well as to the parts which they carried in the play.

The play was put on under the auspices of the new Methodist Church, which is now under construction. There was good attendance, and a very neat sum was realized after paying all the expenses.

GOVERNOR BRANDON APPROVES REWARD

(The following letter has just been received by Sheriff T. J. Littlejohn, from Governor Brandon, and fully explains itself):

Montgomery, Ala., June 25, 1923

Mr. T. J. Littlejohn,
Sheriff of Chilton County,
Clanton, Alabama.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of June 21st, with reference to the destroying of dipping vats in your county, I wish to advise that I will approve a reward of $200.00 for the arrest and conviction of those parties who are guilty of such practice in your county. I hope you may be able to bring them to justice.

Very truly yours,
WM. W. BRANDON, Governor.

MOVING OLD BAPTIST CHURCH

Carpenters have been at work for the past week moving the old Baptist Church from where it has been to the next lot east of it. The old building belongs to Mr. C. W. Wade, but the moving was done by John T. Ellis, so as to get the old wooden building further from his gasoline station.

It is reported that Mr. Wade will soon put up a nice modern brick structure on the lot where the old church was. We learn that Mr. Wade will use the first floor of the new building for his picture show, while the second story will be used by him and his family to live in.

HARP AND HARMONY

Editor Union-Banner:

Please state in the Banner that the Harp and Harmony singers of Chilton county are invited by M. W. Brown of Mountain Creek to sing at the Soldiers' Home July 4th.

THE MEANING OF OUR FOURTH OF JULY

The underlying cause of the American Revolution was the desire of Americans to cut loose from Europe and work out their destiny free from the domination of European political and economic influences. Washington and his compatriots freed America from the economic and political influences which made Europe a war continent, and in the establishment of the United States made this a peace continent.

Europe was and is a crazy quilt of contending nationalities; here was established union rather than disunion of states. The Civil war made certain the perpetuation of a political system described in our national motto: "E pluribus unum"—"Out of many, one,"—out of many states, one nation, out of many races, creeds and nationalities, one people.

The wide spaces of two oceans providentially separated America from the age-old rivalries and hatreds of nations which persist in that system of disunion, of multiplied nationalities based upon deep rooted and seemingly ineradicable prejudices that keep Europe an armed camp.

Another Independence Day approaches and we find many Americans who believe themselves above celebrating it, on the ground that they are too broad to be patriotic. They are so broad, in fact, that they have run thin in their comprehension of what this nation, this civilization, means, and in their loyalty to it. They would undo the work of Washington and his compatriots by making American peace, security and prosperity dependent upon that of Europe.

With full assurance, furnished by the events of the past few years, that Europe has no intention of abandoning the system which makes periodical wars inevitable, or of accepting our advice or leadership in abandoning that system, our home-grown European provincials insist that it is the "duty" of the American people to enter into arrangements which would permanently offer up our blood and treasure upon the altar of European militarism whenever European necessity may require.

Propagandists, some of them consciously doing the work of alien and domestic institutions which believe there is profit in internationalism for them, some of them sentimental dupes of more cunning and less scrupulous foes of American political and economic freedom, are insisting that we should turn our backs on the Washington policy and cast in our lot with Europe. Curiously enough these propagandists assert that if we abandon our own peace producing national policy and involve ourselves in the war producing policies of Europe, it will "keep us out of war," being quite weak minded enough to find that slogan still impressive after the use to which it was put in 1916.

We are told that because we became involved in war under the George Washington system in 1917, we will inevitably become involved in all future European wars. But the American government was headed during the World War by an internationalist, a pacifist and a disbeliever in the Washington theory. Through wiggling and wobbling we were pushed into the European war as combatants, whereas under an executive like Hughes, with a Roosevelt as his Secretary of State (so we were warned in 1916) this nation might have been able by bloodless intervention to settle the European war on a basis far more productive of peace and prosperity to every power involved than that which was created in the unspeakably stupid treaty of Versailles.

The struggle for American independence, for American ideals, for American nationality must be kept up. There must be no surrender to those who, whether they place profits above patriotism or are merely the dupes of a spurious internationalism, would denationalize the United States of America.

However much it may annoy those who think they are bigger than their country, too broad to be patriotic and too full of idealism to have any room left for common sense, we must continue not only to celebrate Independence Day, but to keep aflame the fires lit on the altars of American liberty by the heroes and sages of our triumphant Revolution.

SENATOR J. TOM HEFLIN RECOMMENDS HIMSELF VERY HIGHLY AND ABUSES PRESS

Before an audience of about fifty listeners Monday night in Birmingham, J. Thomas Heflin, United States Senator from Alabama by grace of a primary law which permits a minority choice to slip into office—he being elected by 26.7 per cent of the voting strength of the State of Alabama—devoted most of the time to recommending himself highly and abusing the newspapers which have appraised him at their opinion of his true worth as a public official.

Tom charged that the newspapers that did not like him were "subsidized"—the one standby of the small-bore politician who on analysis assays 90 per cent wind and the rest ignorance and bumptious self-esteem. Doubtless if The News printed all of the self-laudatory stuff sent out by Mr. Heflin in his frantic bid for notoriety and those who are aiding and abetting him in his monomania on one subject, it would have his high esteem. Not doing so, Tom says the paper is "subsidized."

Whether he is clear in his mind as to whether a state of being subsidized is a disease or something to eat—judging by his utterances on the Federal Reserve question he is liable to be muddled on this as well as the Federal Reserve—The News cannot say. At any rate, Tom and The News can't get up any quarrel, because who can quarrel with anyone who, in his profoundest moments, is a monumental joke?

If Tom did not take himself so seriously there might be some hope for him, but alas, it is gravely feared that our sartorially effulgen Senator is fundamentally endowed with a superabundance of ego in his cosmos!—Birmingham News.

Mr. Grover A. Bice, postmaster at Thorsby, was in Clanton Monday attending to business matters.

PLAY AT MAPLESVILLE

The ladies of the town of Maplesville will put on a play entitled "Marindy's Minstrels" in Brown's new store building in Maplesville next Saturday night. The characters in the play will all be women, and the proceeds will be used for the new school building. An admission of 20c and 35c will be charged. Everybody come.

BIG RATTLE SNAKE

Mr. F. W. Johnson of Billingsley brought us the report that he killed last Tuesday near Billingsley the largest rattle snake that has been reported lately. He had with him the fifteen rattles which he took from the snake after he killed him—at least we don't imagine he amputated them until the snake was dead. Mr. Johnson said that the reptile measured six and a half feet besides the rattles.

NEW BUILDINGS

J. T. Rockett and Dewey Rockett are engaged in tearing down and moving the old Chestnut house on the lot which they recently bought. They intend to build two new bungalows on the old Chestnut property facing Second Avenue. They will be nice modern structures and will be located in the finest residence section in Clanton.

FIRST COTTON BLOOM

Mr. Jasper Edwards of Clanton, Route 6, has the honor of presenting the first cotton bloom this season. This report is only a few days behind the first one reported in the State.

Rev. W. S. Cox of Route 3 also sent in one Tuesday.

REV. CARTER IN EUROPE

Mobile, Ala., June 21, 1923.

Editor Union-Banner:

I am leaving for England and Europe today 21st, on the S. S. Afoundria from Mobile, expecting to reach England about July 10th, and then continuing on to France, Battle Fields, Flanders, Brussels and Stockholm, Sweden, to attend the World's Baptist Alliance. I shall hope in my travels to visit Paris, and Versailles. After fifteen years absence I am naturally looking forward to this trip, and by kind permission of the U. S. Shipping Board am able to go over at a very reasonable rate. In view of my leaving Mobile, it will not be necessary to send me your valuable paper any further, at least to the present address. I appreciate very much the kindness of the Union-Banner in sending me this paper. I am still very much interested in Clanton, and note with a great deal of pleasure its rapid progress, some of which is due to the foundation laid in the organization and continuation of the Chamber of Commerce and erection of a fine new church and hospital. I also note with pleasure the high moral tone of the Union-Banner, in its dignified attitude against the swimming pools and Sabbath day desecration. Also its hearty co-operation in the enforcement of prohibition. Sheriff Littlejohn is to be highly congratulated and encouraged in the splendid work he is doing for the enforcement of the laws. I wish we had him down here as Chief of Police for Mobile is rotten along this line. May the good work continue.

On my return from Europe I shall hope to visit Clanton, and see the fine new Methodist Church, and other evidences of Clanton's rapid growth. I shall then doubtless have much to say regarding my travels.

With kind regards to all my friends and best wishes for the continued success of the Union-Banner, I remain,

Your very truly,
P. G. CARTER.

W. P. CLECKLEY DEAD

The death of Mr. W. Pink Cleckley of Mineral Springs last Sunday morning was not any surprise to the people of that community. He had been very sick with cancer of the liver for several weeks, and had been expected to die for some time.

Mr. Cleckley was a prominent farmer and saw mill man, and was known by lots of people of this county. He was about 60 years old, and leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. The sons are Harvey Cleckley of Orville, Ala., and Hosey Cleckley of Mineral Springs. The daughters are Mrs. Bob Middlebrooks of Brent, Ala. and Mrs. Otto Atkins of Jemison.

The remains were intered in the Robinson Graveyard Monday afternoon. The funeral was preached by Rev. J. T. Daniel. The burial rites were administered by the Odd Fellows, to which order he has belonged for several years. J. Mell Martin, undertaker, had charge of the corpse.

Mrs. Jatie L. Middleton, teacher of piano, Violin and chorus, will open studio in Clanton Sept. 1st. Your patronage solicited. tf.

EIGHT 'WET' SHIPS ARRIVE NEW YORK

London Worries Lest Spat Leads to Ill-Feelings; Baldwin Calm.

New York, June 25.—Two more "wet" liners steamed into port today while United States government officials were preparing to move on six other vessels which had docked over the week-end, with liquor transported over the three mile line in defianre of the treasury department's dry ruling. The latest arrivals were the Anchor liner Tuscania and the French liner Suffrea.

Public health service officials, in making out permits for the retention by foreign ships of "medicinal" and crew ration liquor supplies must be guided at present, according to Surgeon General White, by sworn statements of the masters of vessels, setting forth their understanding of the foreign laws under which they are operating.

The service, Dr. White explained, has been unable to obtain copies of the foreign laws dealing with liquor supplies on ships and its only recourse under the treasury department instructions to comply with these requirements is to rely on the master's interpretation.

Four trans-Atlantic liners which docked yesterday were waiting government action today toward the seizure of the supplies above the amount to be allotted them for medicinal use. They were: The White Star liner Cedric, the Cunard liner Caronia; the Italian liner Verdi, making her maiden trip to the United States, and the French liner Providence. In addition, the two steamships Beregaria, and Paris were waiting for action.

No attempt was made by authorities yesterday to seize the liquor, and with the exception of affixing seals on the lockers no inspection was made.

In London newspapers there is a decided note of anxiety lest the controversy over the seizure of liquor on British vessels at New York lead to serious ill-feelings. The newspapers express the hope people here will refrain from intemperate and uninformed criticism of a purely legal question.

The hasty condemnation of the supreme court's liquor ruling which marked some of the earlier comment also is deprecated in a section of the press, which pay high tribute to the exalted legal and moral status of the court.

The Daily Telegraph urges "recourse to arbitration and suspension of the new regulations pending the decision of a chosen tribunal."

CLANTON VS. B. R. L. & P.

One of the mainest attractions booked here for the Fourth of July is two games of baseball, one in the morning and one after noon, between Clanton and the Birmingham Railway, Light & Power Company of Birmingham. This will be by far the most interesting game of the season, and these games alone will be well worth your trouble in coming to Clanton that day. The Clanton boys will have their hands full, as this is a stiff team, but you can rest assured that they will make it interesting for the visitors at least.

The Public and Alabama Power Company

"Tell the Public"

"Next to doing a thing right, the most important factor in the success of any business is the telling of the public what you are doing. My one regret is that I did not learn this fundamental of success earlier in life."
—John D. Rockefeller.

WITH FULL REALIZATION of its threefold responsibility: First, to the people of Alabama; second, to its employes; third, to its stock and bond holders; it is the policy of Alabama Power Company to create a closer relationship between its organization and the public which it serves; to promote and foster a better understanding of its activities and their effects upon the economic and industrial life of Alabama; and to develop a more pronounced spirit of co-operation in the upbuilding of our State.

SO MANY THOUSANDS of Alabamians are daily dependent upon its service, many of whom have shown their faith by investing in its stocks and bonds, that Alabama Power Company believes the people of Alabama are entitled to a full knowledge of its affairs.

WITH THIS IN MIND, a series of advertisements will be published in the newspapers of the State, setting forth as clearly and concisely as possible, facts relating to the operation of Alabama Power Company, and how these things affect the individual citizenship of the State.

THE ALABAMA HOMES which use our service, the wheels of industry which it turns, the wage earners who gain their livelihood through the activities of this institution, are so numerous and so closely related to it, that what Alabama Power Company HAS DONE, IS DOING and HOPES TO DO, is of vital importance to the citizens of this entire section.

IN PRESENTING these advertisements, subjects will be discussed which are matters of record in the offices of the Alabama Public Service Commission and other public offices, but which are not generally understood.

We want you to know us better. We therefore hope you will read these messages carefully, appreciating the sincerity of our purposes.

The first of this series of advertisements will appear in this newspaper next week.

Rev. E. W. Butler celebrated his birthday anniversary Wednesday by taking his family to Montgomery to spent the day with his son, Clarence T. Butler and family.

At the Congregational Church next Sunday evening, 8 p.m., Rev. J. M. Davenport will deliver an illustrated lecture on The Life of Christ.

Miss E. Parnell from Birmingham is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sterling Wood, convalescent from a recent operation.

Mrs. A. Parnell is expected to visit her daughter, Mrs. Wood next week, for a few days, on her way to Florence, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson of Gary, Ind., who have bene visiting Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson, for several weeks past, have been recipients of considerable social attention during the past week as they will be leaving for home on Wednesday of this week. Tuesday evening, June 26th, they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan where thehy met several invited guests. All passed a very enjoyable evening with social chat, music and refreshments. Those present were: Mesdames J. O. Johnson, E. G. Hanson, John Johnson, Robert Johnson, Chas. S. Howard, C. R. Foss, James Nosworth, Emil Peterson, Miss Beatrice Johnson. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. James Bosworth entertained in honor of Mrs. Peterson and Sunday at dinner they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Howard. Last Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Carlson entertained The Thorsby Concert Band, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson. The Band was in good form and furnished a variety of very enjoyable music. Coffee, cakes and ice cream were served for refreshments and greatly enjoyed, especially by members of the band as it was their first real treat since organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Petersen, with little Jack, returned Saturday from their visit to Albert Petersen and wife in New York.

Rev. N. A. Long and family left for a visit at the home of Mr. Long's parents, near Ozark, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Long will stay only a few days but his wife and children will remain two or three wekse.

Mrs. Walter Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Soberg, arrived Sunday night with her two children, from her home in Ensley, to remain about two months while Mr. and Mrs. Soberg make a somewhat extended visit in Chicago and Wisconsin. They will leave Thorsby on Friday of this week. It is expected that Mr. Morgan will make frequent week-end visits to Thorsby during the summer.

Mrs. J. A. Eckblad will leave early in July for a visit to friends in Rockford, Ill., Chicago and other places. This is her first visit to her friends at the north since coming to Thorsby more than 20 years ago.

Mrs. Johanna Lefstead is also among the pioneers of Thorsby who are to enjoy a sojourfn among northern friends this summer. She expects to leave with Mr. and Mrs. Soberg on Friday of this week.

Misses Agnes and Ruth Gerald expect to leave next week, going first to Troy, Ala., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Philip Horn, thence to Barnesville, Ga., where they have friends, from there they will probably go to Demorest, Ga., where their brother, Sumner Gerald is employed, from there they go to Hendersonville, N. C. to join their mother and sisters, Mary Ella and Iola, who are spending the summer at the home of Miss Elizabeth Hoopes, formerly of Thorsby.

With every $2.50 purchase of other merchandise we will give 5 pounds granulated sugar for 45c, or with every $5.00 purchase of other merchandise, 10 pounds sugar for 90c.—W. Z. Hodges Dry Goods Co., Clanton, Ala.

Last week, Wednesday night, Miss Naomi Turnquist was hostess to a group of young people in honor of Misses Agnes and Ruth Gerald, who will soon leave Thorsby for an indefinite time. During the evening music and refreshments were provided for the following guests: The Misses Agnes and Ruth Gerald, Lorena Graham, eBatrice Johnson, Anna Erdahl, Mabel Howard, Edith and Jennye Robinson, Agnes Leary, Messrs. Robert Carlson, Martin Nelson, Palmer Lefstead, Arnold Soberg, W. M. Parnell, George Johnson, Walter Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Howard and Rev. Wilhelm Petterson, who made a short talk in which he expressed for the company and Thorsby citizens generally, sincere regret at losing from their accustomed places among us, two sisters who have contributed so much, for several years past, to the making of life worth living in their home town.

THE ALASKA RAILROAD

The government railroad in Alaska is operated at a deficit. So were our great transcontinental lines before the West was settled and developed. The government built the Alaskan road and aided in building the western roads. It is a proper Federal function thus to stimulate the opening up of new country, but it is not a proper function to operate railroads when private capital is ready and willing to do so. President Harding's forthcoming visit to Alaska will hasten the time when its resources will be made available and the traffic on the railroad will show a steady increase.

Hard on Dobbin.—Before our agrarian population had taken so enthusiastically to the automobile, two farmers drove into town in an old spring wagon pulled by a very bony nag. The little burg had just been incorporated, and among the evidences of this was a brand-new sign at the town line: "Speed limit, 10 miles an hour." Observing this, the driver began whipping up his steed vigorously.

"What's yo' hurry?" demanded his companion in mild astonishment.

"See that sign?" returned the other. "But I dunno if I can make it or not."—Everybody's Magazine.

PROGRESS IS MADE ON SHELBY COUNTY ROAD

Columbiana, Ala., June 25.—The W. T. Taylor Construction Company, of Wilsonville, now has about 85 per cent of the grading on the state highway from Cahaba River through Shelby county completed and already has begun putting down the crush rock as the bed preparatory to laying the pavement. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Mr. Taylor says that when this work is done Shelby county will have a stretch of the best road in Alabama. This is a part of the main highway from Birmingham to Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Keener Roper of Pletcher were in Clanton Monday.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

If it isn't Thedford's it isn't BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine.

NEW SALEM

We are glad to report that there is none sick in our community at present.

Our revival will begin on the first Sunday in August. And remember, our singing society meets here every first Sunday afternoon. We are expecting Mr. Glass to be with us. We ask all others who will to come and be with us.

Mr. William Bean of Columbiana was a visitor at this place this week.

Let's don't forget the picnic at New Salem Church on July the 4th. Everybody is invited to come and spend the day with us.

Miss Estelle Benson spent the week-end with Miss Jewel Bean.

Mr. Ervin Mims and family of Jemison spent Sunday at Mr. J. D. Bean's.

Miss Birdie Teel was a visitor at our Sunday school Sunday.

Miss Pearl Thacker spent Saturday night with Miss Pauline Maddox.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Maddox visited Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bean Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pauline Maddox visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hays Saturday afternoon.

Miss Inez Hays was the guest of Miss Loutishie Bean Sunday.

Saturday and Sunday are our regular preaching days. Let's everybody go, especially to the singing Sunday afternoon.

ACCIDENT MARS HARDING'S TRIP

Three Dead and One Injured When Auto Goes Over Cliff.

Denver, Col., June 25.—Three are dead and one man is injured as the result of an accident Sunday afternoon when an automobile in which visiting newspaper correspondents with President Harding were riding, went over a cliff in Bear Creek canyon, dropping 75 feet into the creek bed. The dead:

Sumner Curtiss, representative of the Republican national committee.

Tommie French, a statistician for the Great Western Sugar Company, of Denver, who was driving.

Thomas W. Dawson, Colorado State historian and newspaper man, who died early Monday in a hospital from his injuries.

The injured man is Donald A. Craig, The New York Herald.

Monday morning it was said Mr. Craig would recover unless complications developed.

The car was rounding Looking Glass curve, one of the sharp bends in the road, when it was seen to swerve, crash through a retaining wall and roll down the rocky incline. It is believed that a broken steering knuckle caused the car to become unmanageable.

Curtis was pinned beneath the car and Craig was thrown clear. French was found a few feet from the wrecked automobile, and Dawson about 50 feet down the incline. It is believed that Curtis was killed instantly. French was alive when other members of the party reached victims of the accident, but died before he could be brought to Denver.

Shortly before leaving his hotel Sunday afternoon Curtis sat in his room and talked to his wife in Washington over long distance telephone.

President Harding was greatly shocked when informed of the accident.

"I am unutterably distressed that such an accident should have occurred," he said. "It brings a sorrow upon what has been a happy trip. Only Sunday morning Mr. Curtis was telling me of the joy he was experiencing. He was always a gentleman and a very able newspaper man. My regret is beyond expression, but there is consolation in the hope that the injured men will recover."

The body of Mr. Curtis will be taken to Chicago by John F. Vivian, federal prohibition director, where it will be met by friends and taken probably to Washington for burial.

Due to the fatal accident President Harding Monday faced his program with a heavy heart. He was compelled by necessity and lack of time to carry on as the original plans for his stay required. These included a parade through the city, a greeting of school children at the state house, formal address at the auditorium, and a visit to Cheyenne, Wyo., later in the day, where another address was to be delivered.

COMMISSIONERS CONSIDER TICKS

The Commissioners Court of Chilton county was in session Monday trying to devise some means whereby the tick law might be complied with. We have not learned what conclusion they reached in regard to the matter. This dipping question is becoming a serious one in some parts of the county. It is costing the county lots of money and very little good is being accomplished.

THE RED BIRD IS HERE

That wonderful new car, the Overland Red Bird, which you have been hearing J. P. Lawrence and Olvin McSwain blow so much about lately has actually arrived in Clanton. The demand for this new Overland has been so great that the Clanton agency like never to have gotton one, but Olvin McSwain went up to Birmingham Saturday and didn't come back without one. He said he had to hold up a fellow up there to get it, but he got it just the same. Mr. Lawrence says he is going to do his best to keep them here now as fast as the sales demand.

This new car is about the same as the Baby Overland, except it is larger, has a more powerful engine and a longer wheel-base. The body of the car is maroon color and the top is khaki, which makes a mighty attractive general appearance.

REVIVAL BEGIN FIFTH SUNDAY

Rev. E. A. Norris, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church, announced Sunday that the annual revival at that church would begin on the fifth Sunday in July. Rev. J. H. Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Talladega will assist in the preaching. Rev. Thomas is well known in this county, it having been his home all his life until his ministry called him away.

Prof. W. M. Devaughn of Verbena will conduct the singing during the revival. Prof. Devaughn is a splendid singer as well as a director of music.

SHOULTS NEWS

Death of Mrs. John Ellis

On last Saturday morning, God in His infinite wisdom called our beloved wife, mother and friend, Mrs. John Ellis, from this earth to her heavenly reward.

For several months her health had been failing, tho very little, on Friday she seemed very cheerful, talking over the phone after supper as tho she felt as well as she ever did. Saturday morning, Bee, her daughter-in-law, who lived with her, rose early and went her way about preparing the breakfast meal. At the table, her son remarked, "What is the matter with mama." On going to her bed he found her dead. She was still warm and in the position which she always slept. We do not think she even struggled for breath.

Mrs. Ellis was sixty-seven years old. She joined the Baptist church here about thirty-five years ago. She was always to b efound in the rooms of the sick, lending a helping hand to comfort those that were suffering.

There was nothing too good to do for those whom she knew. She lived a life of cheerfulness. When in her presence anyone could never feel lonely or blue.

Be it resolved that we, as friends in her community and elsewhere, cherish the memory of her love as a never failing source of inspiration, and that we shall try to so live that some fair day when we reach the farther shores of that river that separates the wilderness from the king's country we may clasy her hand again and join her in singing praises to our blessed Redeemer in that beautiful land where God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes.

Let us express our appreciation for her loving service as a friend to all with whom she came in contact, that we extend to her bereaved husband and family our heartfelt sympathy, commending these, her loved ones, to the all wise God and the consolations of His grace in their great sorrow.

She leaves a devoted husband, two sons, Aud and Jeff; one daughter, Mrs. William Williams, with a host of friends to mourn her departure.

The B. Y. P. U. will not put on a program next Saturday night, June 30th, as they had planned, due to the fact that a minstrel will be put on at Maplesville. We will decide on the postponing date and let you know later.

Mr. Horton Walker made a trip to Centerville Saturday night.

Miss Daisy Latham entertained at her home on last Thursday night a large number of girls and boys with a candy drawing. Many interesting games were played until a late hour. Then all expressed to the hostess the enjoyable evening they had spent.

Messrs. Morgan Holley and Brady McAfee left yesterday for Tuscaloosa where they will work through the summer months.

A large number attended the all-day singing at Friendship Sunday. They reported a fine singing and too, had lots of good dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Walker had with them on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Burks, relatives from Selma. Mrs. Burks came to attend the burial of her aunt, Mrs. John Ellis.

Mrs. Jane Merchant of Maplesville is visiting relatives and friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lawrence and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun Garner.

Mr. and Mrs. Aud Ellis motored to Stanton Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. Hainrich, mother of Mrs. Ellis.

CEDAR GROVE

Last Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days and we heard a couple of good sermons that were delivered by Rev. Golden.

Our singing society met last Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and we had some of the best singing we have had at all. We had a truck load from Liberty Hill which was welcomed by everyone. The directors for the afternoon were: Prof. J. W. Lowery, Mr. Leonard Culp, Miss Claudie Smith, Mr. Harrison Hayes, Mr. Gresham Lowery and Mrs. Glover Smith. Organists for the afternoon were: Miss Marie Morris, Miss Amelean Littlejohn and Miss Bonnie Littlejohn. We thank the visitors for coming helping us and invite them again. We had a quartet sung by Mr. Leonard Culp, Mr. Glover Smith, Mr. Alphus Littlejohn and Mr. Wilbur Ward. We had another one sung by Mr. Leonard Culp, Mr. Glover Smith, Mr. Paul Littlejohn and Alphus Littlejohn.

Our revival meeting will start the fourth Sunday in July.

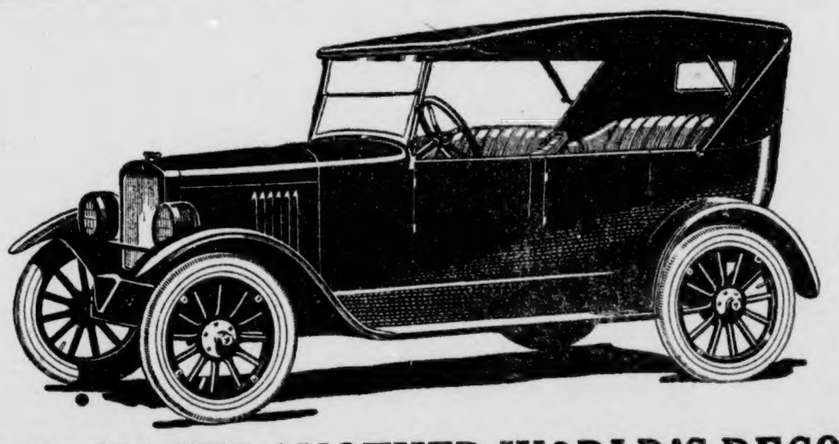
IT'S A GRAY—THE WORLD'S ECONOMY CAR



GRAY MAKES ANOTHER WORLD'S RECORD

The Gray Motor Company, in eleven months, has established a national dealer organization that places it among the leaders in national distribution.

It is exporting cars to about 30 different countries and adding to the number constantly.

Additions to the plant have been made regularly to take care of increased demand.

Plan to construct assembling plants in the South, East, West and Southwest.

The company is one of the strongest backed financially in the industry.

Account of the great demand for Gray cars, we have been experiencing a great shortage of these cars.

We will have a carload in this week, so you will be able to have your new Gray for the 4th. Let us give you a demonstration today.

Next Wednesday is the Fourth of July, and Clanton is the place to spend it. Don't fail to come and stay all day. Something will be happening every minute.

President Harding in his recent speech at Denver expresses strong opposition to changing the liquor law. He is against any modification of the Volstead Act. Bully for Harding!

We wonder what they will be doing with aeroplanes next? They are using them now to kill boll weevils and to play golf with. We guess they will be plowing with them next.

Clanton has some of the best amateur dramatic actors we have had the pleasure of seeing play. The dramatis personae which played "Mr. and Mrs. Polly Tickk" at the high school Friday night certainly made a splendid job of that presentation.

We always thought that the Democrats of the solid South stood for drawing a distinct line between the two races. Well, why is it then that they want white doctors and white nurses to wait on those negro ex-soldiers at the Tusksgee hospital? That looks like a negro's job to us.

Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, I conjure you to believe me, fellow citizens, the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government.—George Washington.

Let reverence for the law be breathed by every mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in schools, seminaries, and colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling books and almanacs; let it be preached from pulpits, and proclaimed in legislative halls, and enforced in courts of justice; in short, let it become the political religion of the nation.—Abraham Lincoln.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," is a divine suggestion today just the same as it was two thousand years ago. But how many of us today even as much as ever think of this passage, much less continually keep it in our minds and let our daily actions be guided by its dictates People now-a-days try to do the other fellow before he has a chance to do us, which is absolutely contrary to the Golden Rule. Before making a deal, pulling a stunt, or making an assertion, why not ask ourselves the question, would I like for the other fellow to do me this way?

Figures say that waste and extravagance characterize our state government. Passage of publicity bills will reduce the unnecessary expenditures of the tax payers' money.—Wilcox Progressive Era. Yes, but better still, if the voters will get that reconstruction prejudice out of their heads and build up two political parties in Alabama, the fellows we put in office won't have to be "exposed" to be made to do the right thing. They will do it right any way, when they know that if they don't the other fellow will. Competition is the life of trade, and without it there is corruption, no matter how much you publish. What Alabama needs is two political parties.

THERE'S A REASON

Very likely some of the readers of The Union-Banner have wondered why it is that the columns of this paper have not been used to answer the criticisms which have been made against us by the editor of the Chilton County News. Well, below and in just as few words as possible, we are going to explain this matter to you.

From the time the first issue of the Chilton County News came off the press, that paper has carried almost every week articles charging the editor of The Union-Banner with false assertions, misrepresentations, ignorance of conditions, and almost everything bad in a political way. In fact, that paper was born into the world wrapped up in a determination to belittle, disparage, and if possible impair the influence and good standing which The Union-Banner has had with its many friends for these thirty years. The arguments which it attempts to use against us are simply the very height of folly. It seems to us that any third-grade school kid could see the utter fatuity of the controversies which they try to raise against us.

It has never been the custom of the editor of The Union-Banner to call folks liars, and say all manner of contemptuous untrue things about them just because we happened to be of a different political faith. We give every man a right to his convictions, and just because the has a view different from our own, we do not believe in calling him all sorts of dirty names and using our influence to make our readers doubt his integrity and honor.

The Chilton County News makes it a rule to oppose almost everything The Union-Banner stands for. They do not look at the validity of any matter other than to see how we stand on it, whereupon they charge that we are either grossly ignorant of the truth or else are maliciously misrepresenting what we know to be the facts. It seems that their sole business is to insult and cast reflection upon the intelligence and integrity of the editor of The Union-Banner.

We cannot argue with them without stepping down and wading with them in these same sloughs of filth and squalor; therefore, we have resolved to simply steer clear of getting into any arguments with them. Our policy is to do and say things that will be elevating and serve to ennoble the county in which we exist. Although our political faith is avowedly Republican, we believe that unless a newspaper makes itself the means of informing and educating its readers religiously, morally, intellectually and socially as well as politically, it has absolutely no right to its existence. And this is exactly the kind of a newspaper we are endeavoring to publish. When it gets so that we can't find anything to print except misleading and contemptuous charges against our fellow beings, we are going to call off the dogs and quit the chase.

The good book says "cast not your pearls before swine," therefore, if you are expecting to see in The Union-Banner answers to these big high-flown political harangues full of dirty mud-slinging, sarcastic snaring and scurrilous accusations, you might as well get yourself screwed up and ready for a miserable disappointment.

I can most religiously aver, I have no wish that is incompatible with the dignity, happiness, and true interest of the people of this country. My ardent desire is, and my aim has been, so far as depended upon the executive department, to comply strictly with all our engagements, foreign and domestic; but to keep the United States free from political connections with every other country, to see them independent of all, and under the influence of none. In a word, I want merican character, that the powers of Europe may be convinced we act for ourselves, and not for others. This, in my judgment, is the only way to be respected abroad, and happy at home.—George Washington.

CLANTON PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Wm. S. Thornington has been selected as pastor of the Clanton Presbyterian church. Rev. Thornington will remain living in Montgomery, but will come up every second Sunday and preach two sermons, one in the morning and one at night. The place of meeting of the Presbyterians is in the Masonic Building.

THEIR NEXT ATTEMPT

Unable to carry out their plans of the contest against the duly and legally elected probate judge of Chilton county and against the wishes of the majority of the voters of Chilton county, a few of the sore-heads of the Democratic party have fallen on another ill-designed scheme to take the affairs of our county government out of the hands of the people and place it in charge of their clique of select marplots. We understand that they will advertise this week a bill to come up before the legislature to abolish our court of county commissioners and in its stead have appointed a board of revenue; also to take the county court away from the probate judge and have a judge appointed to take care of the county's cases.

We do not charge this action against the Democratic party of Chilton county, because we know there are lots of good Democrats here who are absolutely too honorable and upright to stoop to such depths of unrighteousness and corruption; but this is the handiwork of the few in the party who know no end to personal gratification and to their eternal desire to get the reins of our county affairs out of the hands of the people. They consider the interest of the county and the wishes of the masses as nothing in comparison to their consummate determination to have things go their way. We are sure that the Democratic party of this county, as a whole, would resent such actions, but according to the established custom of that organization, the affairs of the party itself is not run upon the wishes of its members. Just a few always do the manipulating and the rest have to keep their mouths shut and follow.

Now let us think a minute. Can it be that our State Senator is going to let these political suicides coax him into supporting this atrocious plot against the rights of the people of Chilton county? Can it be that he is going to spit in the face of these people who only a few years ago bestowed upon him the highest honor which they had to give—that of probate judge of their county? Judge S. M. Adams has in past years been honored with the highest respect and esteem of the people of this county. Although he has changed his view politically, the people granted him that right and still had confidence in his good intentions and integrity. Even in his campaign for the senate, he pledged himself time and again to stand by the wishes of his constituents and the people whom he was to represent. Now, in his declining years, when his political and probably his physical race is about run, is he going to allow his fair record to be besmirched and his keen sense of right and justice squandered by the few contriving, greedy political instigators of the county. We, for one, can't believe that Judge Adams has got to that point yet, and don't believe he ever will.

This scheme, on its face, is the plainest repudiation and insult against the rights and honor of the people of this county we have ever heard of. It is simply a device to take from them their privilege to elect their officers and to say how their business is to be run. It is not only a plain affront in the faces of the citizens of the county, but it is also a direct contradiction to the original principles of our government and nation. This country is supposed to be run by the people and for the people. But when it gets so such contrivances as this are pulled through, the first and all-important clause of that principle will become a memory. This will then be a government by a FEW and for the people. The question at present is: are the men whom we elected to represent us in the legislature going to permit this contemptible ban to be placed on us by these few malicious political conspirators?

MAPLESVILLE NEWS

The negro minstrel that was to be Tuesday night will be Saturday night, June 30th, instead of June the 26th, as the date has been changed. It will be at Mr. Brown's new brick building. Mirandy's Minstrel, home talent,—all women. Admission 20c and 35c. Everybody come.

We are very sorry to learn that Miss Ima Seales has been ill for the past few days.

We are glad to know that we have a good B. Y. P. U. now. Glad to see the boys and girls taking interest in it. We had a good program Sunday night. We have now on roll 54—would like to have more to join. We have for our group leaders, Miss Annie Spivey and Miss Mollie Mae Thomas.

We are also glad we have a good Sunbeam. The Sunbeam met Sunday p.m. and rendered a good program.

There was preaching at the Methodist church Sunday night by Bro. Jones. Everyone seemed to enjoy the sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alzie Bearden of Birmingham are spending a few days with relatives.

Mr. Clyde Kanipe has returned to the navy.

Misses Esther, Zadie Belle and Geneva Smith spent the week-end with Miss Elva Seales.

Wednesday Card Club Metes.

Mrs. John Browder was the charming hostess to the Wednesday Bridge Club, on Wednesday afternoon. The apartments were lovely in gladelioas and zenias. As the guests arrived delicious punch was served from a prettily appointed table decorated in nasturtrims. Miss Jean Johnson presided. In the living room were placed three tables where several interesting games of bridge were played. At the conclusion of these games it was found that Mrs. N. S. Johnson held the highest club score and was presented a deck of cards, and the visitors' prize was won by Mrs. Chas. Baumheim, which was a silver letter opener.

The visitors to the club were Mesdames Baumheim of Mobile, John Bridges of Richmond, Va., Sam Johnson of North Carolina, Guy Higgins and Miss Lurline Harper. The hostess, assisted by Misses Jeane, Myra and Elizabeth Johnson served a delicious ice course.

Mrs. Dudley Smith of Rome, Ga., is visiting her parents here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Reynolds have returned home from a motor trip to Tuscaloosa.

What Is Weevilnip?

It is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors designed to attract the boll weevils and kill them.
Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.
WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

TESTIMONIALS:

"Thorsby, Ala., R. F. D. No. 1, Oct. 31st, 1922. —I don't think now I will ever try to grow any more cotton in this section without WEEVILNIP. . . . I cannot say too much for your WEEVILNIP for I believe it doubled my cotton yield, and anything that I can say or do for it, I will be glad to do so. . . . —G. C. MIMS."

I went to R. B. Roberts farm near here this a.m. and inspected his cotton field of thirty-five acres which he had been treating with WEEVILNIP and I can frankly say that I have had some experience as a farmer with the boll weevils and I know that they are hard to handle and I consider that Mr. Roberts has from 90 to 100 per cent control of the boll weevils. It don't seem reasonable that this could have been done as it has been so rainy. I have bought me two barrels of WEEVILNIP and I am going to put it on my cotton.

VISITED MITCHELL DAM

Rotary Club Was Guests of Alabama Power Company.

The Birmingham Rotary Club was guests of the Alabama Power Company on a trip to Mitchell's Dam Wednesday, and a most interesting visit to a big project was in store for all going. The party passed through Clanton Wednesday morning on a special train from the Louisville & Nashville Railroad station, leaving at 8:45 o'clock sharp, and return in the late afternoon. Mitchell's Dam is one of the big hydro-electric plants of the world and is well worth seeing. Its construction has been rapid, considering its immensity and the power developed. Much of interest was shown the members of the Rotary and the aims and purposes of the big power corporation was noted. The hosts for this occasion looked after the comfort of the visitors and served a dinner at the dam.

We received from Mr. R. N. Connell of Refuge Tuesday a cotton bloom which he said he got from his patch Monday. This bloom had already turned red.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE

Defult having been made in the payment of the debt secured by mortgage executed to the undersigned on the 21st day of September, 1920, by J. M. "PERTINENT REMARKS"

Did you ever play the game of, money, money, who's got the money? The object is to find the thousand dollars that the State Democratic party donated to the local Democratic party of Chilton county. We understand that it is a very difficult game to play, but that the searchers are now on a hot trail.

This $1200.00 that a certain "prominent citizen of Clanton" is now holding which he won on the last election is the cause of his great desire to get something on Judge Reynolds, and get him out of office right now, because he knows that if the contest had gone through and Judge Reynolds had won out by fifty votes or more he would have lost his $1200.00. Be careful friend, for the day of retribution is near at hand, and you might lose your high seat in the Baptist church, as well as your $1200.00. The eye of the wary is on you.

As night follows the day it is invariably the rule that those fellows who are always trying to get something on Judge Reynolds are the self-same ones who have literally tried to rob the county one way or the other and Judge Reynolds has been the cause of their scheme being blocked. If necessary the schemes can be brought to light.

While one side is speaking of cleansing politics, we would like to ask what has become of the corrupt practice act that requires all moneys donated to any campaign to be reported and filed in the probate office? It would seem that the mote had better be cast first.

Wonder if the money a certain fellow won on the election can be used now? Will he have to hold it in trust any longer?

In passing, we would like to know what the people of Chilton county would think of a dozen men here at Clanton trying to abolish the courts and your Commissioner's Court and having these appointed by the Governor, simply because they happen to be politically and personally opposed to the incumbent. If the names of those who were trying to influence Senator Adams to have such a bill passed were published, the next time they had the audacity to holler, more liberties for the dear people, the dear people would tar and feather them. We are all behind Governor Brandon, but there are already too many powers at the Capitol now and not enough back home. Thanks to the broad views of Senator Adams in opposing any bill to deprive the common people of their already diminishing rights.

The great Battle Cry of the Democratic party of Chilton county is, "To Arms," "To Arms," and find who's got that thousand dollars of campaign money.

We wonder if Judge Adams has thought of the fact that these fellows who are trying to use him as a cat's paw in this scheme to wrest the rights of the people away from them are the identical same ones who slandered and maligned him just before his resignation as Democratic nominee for probate judge six years ago?

TALLASSEE DEFEATS CLANTON

Tallassee defeated Clanton here Tuesday afternoon by a score of 7 to 4, the visiting team having "sowed up" the game in the second inning, when their pitcher, Hollingsworth, better known as "Red," knocked the ball over left field fence with the bases full. Clanton made a hard effort to overcome this lead when Tom Mims sent two men over the home plate in the fourth inning with a two-base hit, but the batters following did not do so well, and they only made four runs the remainder of the game.

Webb Parrish started on the mound for Clanton, but soon weakened with bad support in the field, and Allen was put in, who held the visitors for five innings with one hit, striking out ten men. A new catcher was also put in in the fifth inning for Clanton, Mr. Lewis, who held down the "old apple" well.

The following is the box score:

OAK HILL

The United singing society met in regular session here Sunday evening with a large attendance than was expected on account of the rain and a few cases of measles in the neighborhood. But there was enough people who had already had the measles and did not care for the rain, to almost fill the house, and they were almost all singers and did some real good singing.

Those who directed were: Messrs. Paul Wilson, Ivy Matthews, E. L. Glasscock, Henderson Hayes, L. R. Cobb, A. H. Glasscock.

Organists were: Misses Esther Atkinson, Flossie Cobb and Inez Hays. We have the promise of the Clanton quartet the Fourth Sunday evening in July and we hope that the weather will be good and the measles all gone by that time, so that all who will may come and hear them for they are fine singers and will interest you. If you will come and hear them you will never regret it and will be well paid for your coming. And don't forget too that we have Sunday school here every Sunday morning the year round, rain or shine. We cannot boast of our great numbers in our Sunday school but we can say when it comes to loyalty we have the country beat, and we have some of as faithful church and Sunday school workers as there are anywhere in the country. So come and be with us, you are welcome at all times.

We are glad to know that Mr. J. B. Northcutt, who has been sick so long, is improving and hope he will soon be out again.

Mr. Lawrence, father of the Rev. Buford Lawrence, is still very ill, but we hope and pray for him a speedy recovery, that he may not only fill his place around his fireside with his family and loved ones, but that he may take his place in the church and Sunday school, which is in so much need of such good men as he.

We are planning to take our Sunday school on another picnic some time in the near future. Come and join our school if you want to go with us, and have a good time.

With every $2.50 purchase of other merchandise we will give 5 pounds granulated sugar for 45c, or with every $5.00 purchase of other merchandise, 10 pounds sugar for 90c.—W. Z. Hodges Dry Goods Co., Clanton, Ala.

HOW TO KILL THE BUGS

Bugs on tomato plants can be killed by using either of the following on your plants:

Dissolve two teaspoonfulls of arsenate of lead in each gallon of water used. Spray or sprinkle on plants.

Another good spray can be prepared by using one pound of rock lime and one pound of bluestone. Air slack the lime and powder the bluestone, then mix both thoroughly in ten gallons of water and apply on plants.

Most drug stores have prepared powders which can be dusted on the plants and will destroy the bugs.

Child-birth

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

Pay Kash and Pay Less

Today every woman is striving to economize. She wants every dollar to buy as nearly as possible what it would buy before the war. She dislikes to pay war prices. Striving to get the utmost in value for your money is one of your problems—one way is to buy goods which represent a saving in price without a sacrifice in quality—

DEMOCRATS WRONG; REPUBLICANS RIGHT ON EVERY TARIFF TEST

Washington, June 28.—"Records of our foreign trade have disproven the predictions of Democratic leaders in several particulars," says the Republican Publicity Association, thru its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr.

"Democrats in Congress and in editorial chairs of Democratic papers declared that the Republican tariff would serve as a Great Chinese Wall, shutting out importations. The record shows that importations have increased as compared with corresponding months last year under the Democratic tariff.

"Those same Democratic leaders declared that the way to build up our export trade is to encourage imports—that the more we bought from other nations the more they will buy from us. They asserted that by cutting off imports we would injure our export trade. Imports have increased under the Republican tariff but our exports have not increased in proportion. This proves that the Democrats know sothing about the effect of a tariff nor do they understand the principles governing foreign trade.

"Those same Democratic leaders asserted that the Republican tariff would give the American producer a monopoly in the home market enabling him to put an arbitrary and extortionate price on his goods. The record which shows increased importations disproves this, for the American producer has an even larger foreign competition than he had before, as other countries get back on a producing basis.

"Republican leaders declared that the tariff law they had framed was not too high in the import duties it imposed, and increased imports prove this to be true.

"Republicans asserted that because of after-war conditions and cheap monetary values abroad, European nations could compete in our markets even with higher import duties than the Republican law provided. Events have proven this to be true.

"Republicans asserted that the way to restore and retain prosperity in America is to encourage home production as a means of giving every man a job at good wages. Since the Republican tariff law was enacted American industries have been increasing their activity, construction has increased in every line, and there is a scarcity of labor where a few months before there had been a great surplus of unemployed.

"One fundamental and historic difference between the Republican and Democratic parties is on the tariff question. Republicans believe in import duties which will encourage the buying of commodities produced or manufactured in this country. Democrats believe in a tariff which will encourage people to buy goods where they can buy them cheapest. Republicans believe in a tariff which will insure the American workman a job. Democrats believe in enabling the workman to buy where he can buy the cheapest, even if that policy throws him and his associates out of a job.

"The principles of the two parties on this subject are well known and have been ever since the Republican party was founded in 1856. Every test has proven the soundnes of the Republican policy and the unsoundness of the Democratic policy.

"With the most recent demonstration before them, the people of the country ought to have no difficulty in choosing between the candidates of the two parties in the by-elections this year or the general elections next year."

A PERFECT LINIMENT

J. C. Courtney of Maplesville, hands in the following prescription with the advice that all of us have it filled and use it:

One half-pint faith, half-pint virtue, half-pint of knowledge, half-pint of patience, half-pint temperance, half-pint godliness, half-pint brotherly kindness, half-pint charity, one good resolution, well shaken together three times a day with prayer; will cure the devil's rheumatism, evil eye, blasphemy, grumbling, back-biting, tobacco habit, deceit, kills the nerves of prejudice and purifies the blood and if we can get the worst man there is to use this prescription it will restore him back to manhood and respectability with God and man; it will make him love his own wife and children better and he will want to put them under the same treatment.

Now, if we can get this remedy used in the homes of this country, it will cause the ladies to wear full dresses, stop theatre going, cleanse your heart from inbred corruption and preserve your soul blameless; it will stop men's wives from joy riding with other men.

Shake well before using, rub until it affects the heart, keep this up 365 days in a year, and if it don't cure you, you can bankrupt heaven.

BIG DAY AT JEMISON SATURDAY, JUNE 30

There will be a picnic and barbecue at Jemison on Saturday, June 30th. The Governor and other prominent men of the state will be there. The new school building will be dedicated; officers of the Masonic Lodge installed, ball games and other attractions. Everybody come.

WHAT IS IT?

(The following poem was handed us for publication by Mr. W. H. Kendrick of Connell & Kendrick. This curious poem was written by a Methodist preacher in the fifties and quoted recently by a Montgomery gentleman who memorized it as a boy):

God made adam out of dust,
But thought it best to make me first;
So I was made before the man
To answer God's most holy plan.

My body he did make complete,
But without legs or arms or feet,
My ways and actions he does control,
And I was made without a Soul.

A living being I became,
'Twas Adam, who gave me my name,
Then from his presence I withdrew,
Nor more of Adam, ever knew.

But God in me, did something see
And put a living Soul in me,
A son of me my God did claim,
And took from me that Soul again.

And when from me that Soul was fled,
I was the same as first made,
And without feet or legs or Soul,
I travel now from pole to pole.

I do my maker's laws obey,
From them I never go astray,
Thousands of miles I run in fear,
But seldom on the earth appear.

I labor hard both day and night,
To fallen men I give great light,
Thousands of people both young and old,
Will by my death, great light behold.

No fear of death, doth trouble me,
For happiness I can never see,
To heaven I shall never go,
Nor to the grave or hell below.

The Scripture I cannot believe,
Whether right or wrong I can't conceive,
Although my name therein is found,
They are to me an empty sound.

Now my friends these lines you read,
And search the Scripture with all speed,
And if my name you do not find there
I'll think it strange I must declare.

SARDIS NEWS

Our Sunday school is still moving on nicely under the management of our faithful superintendent, Mr. H. L. Ratliff. We had a good prayer service Sunday. Everybody come and help carry on this much needed work. We are looking forward for a grand and glorious revival meeting here this time. We hope the ones who are not interested now may soon take hold and do their part for we are told in the book of James not to be hearers only but doers of thy word.

Well, the moo of the cow and the dingling of many bells tells us the day has come when we must dip. While many are against it, we don't think we will have much trouble about it here.

Mr. J. E. Klinner and children of Burnsville visited relatives here last Sunday.

Mr. H. L. Grooms of near Clanton was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. V. Klinner Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ratliff of Maplesville visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Henry Klinner Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deason of Clanton, Route 3, dined with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White Sunday.

Mrs. Eveline Klinner and children were the guests of Mrs. M. M. Ratliff Sunday.

Miss Malene Ratliff of Maplesville was the guest of her cousin, Miss Anthel Ratliff Saturday night.

Mr. G. Brazier had as his guest Saturday night his brother from Shelby county.

Mr. Ples Lenoir was a welcome visitor to this place Sunday.

Well, as we want to keep in line with the other communities, we are to have a big barbecue some time soon, proceeds to go to build the new Methodist church. Will have a program published later.

MULBERRY NEWS

Mrs. Crayton Rasberry, who has been sick, is reported better now.

Mrs. Lou Rasberry of Birmingham is visiting her sister, Mrs. Crayton Rasberry.

Mrs. Macon from Mobile is visiting her uncle, Mr. D. Martin. She is on her way home from Mentone. She made an interesting talk about her week's stay there at our Sunday school Sunday morning at the Baptist church.

The W. M. U. of Mulberry will give for the benefit of the church at Mr. D. O. Manning's next Friday night a box supper in honor of Miss Loucile Dawson of Marbury.

Mr. Marvin Davenport and his new bride was visiting at his sister, Mrs. Myrtle Williams Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Childress of Thorsby were also visiting Mrs. Williams Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lola Dawson and her daughter, Loucile are visiting relatives in our community this week.

We are glad to report that Mr. Mills of Stanton is moving on nicely with our vocational school house. He has already began to use some paints on some parts of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lecroy and son, Curtis are visiting over in Coosa

LAWLEY NEWS

The people of this place are grieved to learn that Mr. Pounds, telegraph operator here, is moving away. Mr. Pounds and family left last Saturday afternoon to visit their homefolks for a few days, after which they will go to McShan, Ala., to reside in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Pounds are going to be greatly missed, for they have won many warm friends here. They were such good neighbors and a help to our little town. Mr. Gwin has taken the place of Mr. Pounds here as operator. We have not yet learned where they came from. We only hope that Mr. and Mrs. Gwin will be equally as good as our former operator.

Miss Ophelia Lawley, formerly of this place, but who has been working for some time in Selma, was married a few weeks ago to a man of Selma. We did not learn his name. They were here last week visiting their mother, Mrs. Davis Lawley. This newly married couple were returning from a trip to Chicago, St. Louis and other points. They returned to Selma last week where the groom is a successful barber.

Mr. Collie Latham, a graduate of B. C. H. S., but now working for Williams Drug Co., at Centerville, was here Sunday visiting his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Latham.

Those from here who attended the all-day singing at Friendship Sunday were: Mr. John Mitchell and family, Mr. W. P. Hicks and family, Mr. Dalton Hicks and Miss Mamie Hicks.

Mr. Porter Shoults was married a few days ago to Miss Velma Gentry of near Shoults. Velma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gentry. Their friends wish for them a long and happy life together.

Quite a crowd from here are planning to attend the 4th of July celebration at Clanton next week. We hope it doesn't rain that day.

Mr. Charley Collins is looking very lonely now, but we know why, his best girl is in Florida now visiting relatives.

Mr. Roy Latham of Tuscaloosa spent last week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newt Latham.

Mr. Comer Mitchell very delightfully entertained a number of his friends last Saturday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell. Late in the evening ice cream was served to about twenty-five. All present reported a nice time.

We regret to learn that Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McGee are moving from here to Maplesville this week. They will be missed in all church services.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks attended the funeral services of their aunt, Mrs. John Ellis, at Shoults community last Saturday.

This community was made sad last Sunday when news came that Rev. Sutton Smitherman of Randolph, was dead. Rev. Smitherman was pastor of our church several years ago, and we learn about his death with much sorrow.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Miss Ethel York, of Birmingham, teacher of domestic arts in the Troy Normal school, and two other teachers were injured when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by the Atlantic Coast Line passenger train at Troy.

For the past two weeks there has been no rain to hinder the farmers in Cullman county and they have been making good while the sun shines. Most all have their crops in good condition. Crops are very poor for this time of year.

Thomas B. Eaton, of Houston, Tex., has arrived in Gadsden and will take airplane pictures of Gadsden and the district. The pictures will be used in the advertising campaign for more industries, which is being undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce.

Senator John Inzer, of Gadsden, it is said, will introduce into the senate a bill to abolish hanging in Alabama and to substitute the electric chair. The bill will also provide for the electrocution of all condemned criminals at or near Kilby prison.

The announcement from Washington that negro physicians will be placed in charge of the government hospital for disabled negro war veterans at Tuskegee is causing considerable comment among the citizens and open complaint is heard freely.

Dock Jemison, negro, was given 20 years in the penitentiary by a jury in Judge Ben D. Turner's division of criminal court at Birmingham on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Leulda Dunning, negro, at Ketona last March.

Ollie Shorter, who was arrested when the charred body of his wife was taken from the ruins of his house in Alexander City, which had been burned, must go to the penitentiary for 30 years for murder in the second degree under a decision of the supreme court.

Within the next few weeks four new public buildings will be opened to the public at Greenville. The new buildings represent an expenditure of about $150,000, and they are great additions to the fast growing number of new buildings at Greenville.

Members of the Ensley Merchants and Assocaited Business Men have designated week ending June 30 as "Pay Up" week and all persons liquidating their accounts will be given double tickets good for a drawing July 2.

Three men were injured in an explosion in the engine room of the tank steamer Kekoskee at Mobile while the vessel was en route, under tow, from Pensacola to New Orleans.

Adolph P. Reich, of Gadsden, Ala., was elected president of the Alabama Hotel Men's Association for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the organization held at Mobile.

HULL A BALLOON

Chairman Hull's explosion over the "million-dollar junket de luxe" of the Leviathan was a bit ill-timed. The truth is that the trial trip of the ship was provided for in December, 1919, during the Wilson administration and when a Wilson appointee was chairman of the Shipping Board. It was recognized as a necessary part of the reconditioning process, and its cost was included in the general cost of rebuilding. The experts who prepared the plans for the reconditioning, and who still have sole charge of the work, were appointed by the former Democratic chairman of the Board, Furthermore, the trip will not cost a million dollars, but $120,000, about $13,000 of which represents the cost of guests. All the items that went into the cost of making the Leviathan a passenger carrier, including the cost of the trial trip, were fully explained to the House Appropriations Committee about 18 months ago and were approved by its members and later by the House and Senate themselves. Seldom has a Democratic partisan outburst come into such disastrous collision with the facts as this recent reckless fulmination of Chairman Hull.

FACTS ABOUT WILSON DAM

(By S. E. Norton)

Wilson Dam at Muscle Shoals, is not generally known among readers of The Union-Banner, to be by far the largest construction enterprise undertaken by the U. S. government since the completion of the Panama canal.

In the July issue of "The Scientific American" there is a graphic description of this stupendous work, written by Littell McClung, which should be of more than passing interest to every live citizen of Alabama.

The last Congress appropriated ten million dollars for this project and great forces of men, many of them high class engineers and experienced dam builders, under direction of the War Department, are worving day and night on what when completed will be the largest Monolith (or single stone) in the world, all made in one piece, by pouring concrete into massive molds. When completed the structure wil lbe 5000 feet long, 101 feet wide at its base in the river bottom and 125 feet high. The top wil lbe wide enough to provide for a double track electric railway and a Boulevard which will serve as a connecting link for three great continental highways. "The Jackson," Chicago to New Orleans, "The Lee," from the Atlantic seaboard to San Francisco, and "The Scenic," from Jacksonville, Fla., to Seattle, Wash.

Two great navigation locks will be located at the north end of the Dam, each having a lift of 45 1-2 feet, for which the electrically operated gates will weigh each 1500 tons and the 53 crest gates weigh each 33 tons.

Next to the canal locks on the river side, is a long stretch of non-overflow dam, while the spil-way extends entirely across both sections of the river and the island between them.

Extending 1180 feet south from the spill-way, will stand the great power house, where will be located 14 turbines having a generating capacity of 36,000 horsepower each and four others that will develop 30,000 horsepower each, giving a total daily capacity of 624,000 horsepower, to which may be added when desired 100,000 more horsepower, generated at the steam plant, a mile below the dam. This will provide just about double the electric energy produced by the Alabama Power Company at Lock 12, Mitchell Dam and the projected installation on the Tallapoosa river at Tallassee combined.

Next south of the power house stand the high bluffs subject to erosion by the thrust of the swiftly moving water. To overcome this the structure will extend a quarter of a mile into the bluff.

These five sections, the navigation locks, the stretch of non-overflow dam, the long spill-way with its arch supported bridge, the great power house and the land end of the dam set in the bluff, though separately planned must be so synchronized as to be worked together.

To bring into existence such a monolith in a river where the flow of water sometimes reaches 500,000 cubic feet per second, all phases of the work must be considered as a whole, drililng, blasting and excavating; bringing materials for making concrete;b uilding flawless forms; transporting concrete to these forms and the final pouring. To consolidate these factors in a continuous manner requires 27 miles of railroad, two dozen boats and barges, a number of electrical cranes, scores of rock drills, three huge crushing and mixing plants, 30 locomotives and more than 200 cars and gondolas.

When completed this dam will contain 81,000 cubic yards more area than the great Assauan dam on the river Nile, which is at present the greatest of the world's river barriers. There are few precedents to guide in the various phases of the work.

A race with nature is under contemplation by the engineers in the construction of the great coffer dam which is to divert the entire flow of the south branch of the river thus baring the rocky bottom of the strema during the period of low water in summer, when the blasting can be done for the foundation which must be laid and carried to sufficient ehight before high water is likely to return, so that work may then be continued and construction completed during fall and winter.

A bascule bridge will span the navigation locks at the north end and connect with the greater bridge spanning the immense spill-way.

"When finished, Wilson dam will be one of the most beautiful structures in America. Owing to the depth of the power pool, the waters flowing over the crest will be clear.

A magnificent system of lighting will be installed and the boulevard will be swept with evenly distributed rays from reflectors sunken along the parapet.

In the river below the dam, especially built search lights will be anchored. These fans-of-illumination will flood with brilliance the sheet waters, flowing over the crest and apron and the volume of tumultuous tail waters foaming out from the turbines. The idea back of this spectacular illumination is that the dam, being a link in three highways across the United States, will be visited annually by thousands of tourists and should be a creation of shining beauty as well as a generator of vast power."

NO APOLOGY

Internationalists warn us that Europe has a growing ill will for the United States because this country has not accepted the league of nations, remitted the allied debts, refrained from collecting the Rhine army costs, and the other things included in the European conception of America's duty toward those countries. The implication is plain that in the interest of international good feeling we ought to comply with the Old World view of all those matters. Never a suggestion that possibly Europe is in error, and that it is her duty to accept the position of the United States. The fact is, however, that every request made by the United States of European nations has been based on the plain language of treaties or other written agreements, while our refusal to comply with certain European suggestions has been dictated by a proper concern for our own welfare. American international relations need no apology.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court. In Equity. June 19th, 1923. Edie Robinson, Complainant, vs. Annie Lee Robinson, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that her place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her the said Annie Lee Robinson to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 20th day of July, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 19th day of June, 1923.

The Home of the Soul

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

PERSONALS

That good old Republican Baptist preacher, J. N. Scott of Jemison was in to see us a little while Saturday. A visit from Mr. Scott is always welcome, and also we like to have a dose of his "Ignorance Drops" every once in a while to publish in the paper.

Mr. L. O. Dyer of Stanton was a visitor here Thursday. He brought the Banner a club of subscriptions.

Mr. Luther E. Little is back home from Castleberry, where he has been for the past three months doing clerical work in a strawberry organization down there.

W. G. Atkinson, who is a member of the firm of R. B. McNeill & Company of Jemison was in Clanton Thursday on business.

Mr. Charley Foshee of Billingsley was in Clanton Saturday. He came in and had us send his son, Clyde The Union-Banner, who is now in Philadelphia, Miss.

Prof. E. C. Popwell of Midland City in Dale county was here for a few days last week visiting relatives and friends. Ed reports that the farmers in his county have us up here beat on crops. They did not have quite so much rain down there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Taylor and son, Aubrey of Anniston spent the week-end with relatives and friends in Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Parrish of Birmingham were here the past few days with relatives and friends.

We recently received a nice club of subscriptions from our good friend, B. L. Cobb of Jemison. It is to the interest of the Republican party of Chilton that as many people as possible get the news of the county, so it behooves every Republican to see that the Banner is read by as many people as possible.

The Banner man enjoyed a short but interesting visit from Uncle John Patterson of Poplar Sprnngs Monday. He and his wife were here on business.

Miss Vida Poole of Temple Community, has been confined to her bed for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ben Downs left last week in their motor car for Florida, where they will visit a few days with Mrs. Downs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wiley Foshee.

Mr. G. W. Lett of Route 3 was in Clanton Tuesday. He was looking well pleased over the nice shower which we had Monday. Mr. Lett says it was somewhat needed in his section.

DR. F. D. COBERN

Dr. F. D. Cobern, who has recently finished a course in dentistry at the Atlanta Southern Dental College, was in Clanton Tuesday with the view of locating here. Dr. Cobern has just recently passed the State Dental Board, making a good grade. He is the son of Mr. C. C. Cobern of Maplesville.

Mr. H. T. Watkins, Mrs. W. A. Darby and daughter Constance, of Jemison were in Clanton Tuesday. Mr. Watkins was looking after business for the Darby Drug Company, of which firm he is a member, while Mrs. Darby and daughter were shopping.

Messrs. Paul Bulke and J. S. Jennings of Calera were in Clanton looking after some business matters Monday.

CHILTON CONTEST CASE REINSTATED

Fight Between Judge L. H. Reynolds and C. D. Messer Again Before Court.

Reinstatement of the contest case involving the probate judgeship in Chilton county, is the result of a decision rendered on rehearing Saturday by the Alabama supreme court, in the case appealed from the Chilton county circuit court, of M. D. Foshee, as clerk, etc., vs. state, ex rel, C. D. Messer.

Messer and L. H. Reynolds were candidates for probate judge of Chilton county in the general election of November 7, 1922. Reynolds was declared the winner, and thereafter Messer filed a contest, together with the usual bond as security of costs, with M. D. Foshee, then circuit clerk. Foshee, according to the evidence in the case, declined to approve the bond without verification of all the names of sureties appearing thereon.

Mandamus proceedings were then brought by Messer in the circuit court to compel Foshee to approve the bond and place the contest on the regular docket of cases. The trial court granted the writ of mandamus and Foshee appealed. In the original decision, the supreme court reversed the trial court's action, the effect of the decision being to bring the contest proceedings to a close. Application for rehearing was then filed.

This application for rehearing was granted by the supreme court Saturday. The judgment of reversal was set aside and the trial court's ruling upheld, on the ground that Foshee disapproved the security of costs before a proper opportunity for obtaining approval was given, and that his action in so doing was arbitrary.

An application for rehearing in regard to this decision of the supreme court was immediately filed by Judge Reynolds. The supreme court has already adjourned until fall, so no further action will be taken by this body until that time.

DRAINAGE LAWS IN STATE WILL BE CONSIDERED SOON

Agricultural Committee to Meet in Montgomery July 6 and Will Study Drainage Laws.

Consideration of the present drainage laws, enacted in Alabama in 1915, the needs for revision in the laws are being studied and will be discussed by the legislative agricultural committee when it meets in final session, July 6, previous to the opening of the legislature for its summer session.

According to Commissioner of Agriculture J. M. Moore, author of the present drainage laws and who is studying the needs at present:

"Back in January, we called a conference in Montgomery for consideration of this act as to needful changes. The attorney for Fayette and Lamar counties; District Manager Lewis A. Jones, representing the drainage division of the United States Department of Agriculture; B. B. Wooten, of Jackson, Tenn; Professor Nichols, head of the department of chemical engineering at Auburn and others were present at the session.

"We decided that the best interest of land owners and drainage work in the state would be served by a revision of the present drainage act. We then set to work to get our proposed changes before the best drainage authorities.

"It was agreed upon to follow the revised drainage laws of the state of Missouri. The laws of Alabama were tested in detail by both the state and federal supreme courts. After consideration by the American Bankers' association, contractors, engineers, and drainage authorities of the United States department of agriculture, we met at Fayette with Attorney W. W. Monroe to further perfect the proposed measure to the legislative recess committee on agriculture.

"Jones, of federal department said in connection with the Fayette conference 'that the department knew of no proposed drainage legislation that had been so thoroughly considered.'

"The measure is now prepared for consideration by the recess committee and will be thoroughly examined when it again meets for the short session.

"At Fayette, a forty-two-mile channel is being excavated, modern dredges and other implements being used in the drainage project of the bottom lands. These dredges are expected to complete the canal in the course of 18 to 20 months. Five other projects in the section are also underway.

Commissioner Moore is secretary of the legislative recess committee on agriculture.

W. M. WYATT BACK HOME

We are glad to have back with us Mr. W. M. Wyatt, his wife and children from Fort Payne. Mr. Wyatt will remain here until he goes to Montgomery as our Representative in the Legislature. While he is in Montgomery his wife and children will remain here with relatives.

THE BIG BARBECUE

On account of the Banner force taking the Fourth Wednesday we have been unable to get in a full report of the proceedings of the big day in Clanton, but we will make a full report of it next week.

Mr. Will Burnett of Billingsley was here Monday on business. Mr. Burnett says he has never located his negro yet that he paid out of jail several weeks ago.

PLANNING WORLD TRADE CAMPAIGN

Washington, June 30.—In the last session of Congress the sum of $1,000,000 was made as an increase to the regular annual appropriation for the Department of Commerce, with the purpose in view of undertaking an extensive campaign to expand our overseas trade.

The Department of Commerce, it is understood, has practically completed its program for 1924 to carry this purpose into effect. The program calls for the establishment of a number of new foreign offices, the strengthening of others, and the initiation of several new surveys with a view to developing additional markets for American products.

The plan, as approved by Secretary Hoover, includes a new foreign trade office at Batavia, Java, where the chief subject of study will be the rubber resources of that territory, crude rubber being one of the commodities which we must purchase from abroad. We imported 569,000,000 pounds during the nine months ending March 31, at a cost of $98,000,000, nearly 90 per cent of it coming from the British and Dutch East Indies. To balance up on this trade the bureau will study the markets there for American implements, machinery, etc.

At Manila, P. I., the office is to be strengthened in personnel with a view to encouraging greater purchases from the United States, and also to increase our imports of copra, hemp, and other commodities peculiar to the insular possessions. A new office at Pernambuco will cover Northern Brazil and the office at Buenos Aires, Argentina, is to be enlarged, while an additional office at Montevideo will cover Uruguay. Total trade with these four countries during the nine months ended March was, Brazil, $144,000,000, Argentina $166,000,000, Uruguay $29,000,000, and the Philippines $82,000,000. Added personnel will be given to the Colombian service, our trade with that country being $46,000,000.

In Central America an exhaustive survey will be made of trade conditions and steps will be taken to combat the anti-American trade propaganda which has been prevalent there, one of the charges made being to the effect that we are slighting that territory. These charges are not borne out by our statistics, for while trade for 1921-2 totaled $53,000,000 for the nine months ending March, in the 1922-3 period it reached $61,000,000, there being a comfortable increase in both imports from and exports to the Central American countries.

With the West Indies the growth of our trade has been enormous—from $275,000,000 to $411,000,000, but the Department feels that this can be still further increased and steps will be taken to make it effective.

In Milan the bureau's forces will be increased, to cover Northern Italy with special emphasis on industrial possibilities, while an office at Barcelona will maintain watch over the industrial development of Northern Spain. For the period above-named trade with Italy has increased from $153,000,000 to $199,000,000; with Spain from $70,000,000 to $74,000,000.

The staff will be added to in Great Britain in order to make a study of the northern parts of the British Isles, while a special study is to be made of the lumber industry in France, Holland, and Belgium a special industrial trade commission is to be added to the staff in France, and a chemical expert will study the general situation in continental Europe. A new offie is to be started in Alexandria, Egypt, and two specialists will be sent to India, one to study textiles and the other machinery.

The campaign for greater overseas trade will soon be under way. And the ties of trade are the ties which bind.

STATEMENT FROM MR. GULLEDGE ON REGISTRATION

Mr. J. W. E. Gulledge, the chairman of the Board of Registrars of Chilton county, has requested us to call the attention of the people of Chilton county to the sitting of the Board of Registrars this month for the purpose of registering all voters who are entitled to register.

Mr. Gulledge further requested us to state to the voters for him that he desires everybody who is entitled to do so to register, regardless of political faith, and wishes to assure everybody that he is willing and ready to render every assistance possible in helping any voter to properly qualify to vote.

CHESTNUT SINGING

OAK GROVE NEWS

This community was made very sad Sunday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock when a car struck two girls, knocking them almost dead for a few minutes. They were on their way to church and were almost in front of the school building. Three more girls were just a few steps behind them. The car passed them, and hit both the other girls. One was hit on the head and raising a large knot, and on the left side; the other was hit in the back, bruising her almost all over. The doctor said they were seriously hurt, but would get over it in a few days. Those who were in the car were Misses Evla Barnett, Gladys Northcutt, Mr. Tavie Gentry. Those who were hurt were Misses Ola Glass, Myrtle Martin.

Our Sunday school is progressing very nicely, as we elected new officers and teachers. We had to divide one class as there were so many until it made two very large classes. Mr. W. J. Northcutt was elected superintendent. He has been a wonderful superintendent. Every one likes him.

As Sunday was our regular singing evening there wasn't very many here, as most of the people attended the all-day singing at Mars Hill and reported a nice time, and heard some good singing.

Our B. Y. P. U. is progressing very nicely. We have only 48 on roll now as some of our members have left this community. Mrs. C. L. Martin is still our president. Mrs. Martin has been so good we don't see how we could do without her.

Mr. C. L. Martin is spending a few days at home this week.

Several of this place attended the barbecue at Jemison Saturday.

Our revival meeting starts the fourth Sunday in July. Everybody invited to come.

NOTICE OF STOCKHOLDER'S MEETING

To the Stockholders of the Central Alabama Hospital, Inc.:

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Central Alabama Hospital, Inc., will be held at the Court House of Chilton County, Alabama, on Tuesday, the 31st day of July, 1923, at 10 o'clock a.m. Notice is further given that at said meeting a resolution will be voted on to amend the charter so as to establish a training school for nurses that they may assume the title of "Registered Nurse" as provided by law.

COTTON ACREAGE SHOWS INCREASE OVER LAST YEAR

Condition is 68 Per Cent of Normal, Exactly as Was Shown at the Same Period for 1922.

Increased acreage in cotton, condition equal to that of this time last year and generally favorable outlook is carried in the following statement issued by Statistician F. W. Gist of the agricultural department Monday:

The acreage found planted and growing to cotton in Alabama on the 25th of June this year, with a condition of 68 per cent of normal, indicates a crop of 894,000 bales, if conditions remain the same until the crop is picked. The acreage of 3,312,000 is an increase of 18 per cent over the acreage planted last year, 2,807,000 as finally revised.

The condition of 68 per cent of normal is exactly the same as last year at the same date. Reports all agree that the plant looks much better than it did a year ago, but that weevils are much more numerous. Stands are good in most sections, the plant is healthy and fields are clean and well worked. This in spite of unfavorable weather during May and the first half of June and also in the face of a decided labor shortage. It means that farmers have put forth their best efforts in cultivation and have taken advantage of more efficient methods of work, while putting in longer hours. The indicated yield at this time is 129 pounds compared with 142 pounds finally picked last season.

Should conditions continue as good or better the crop in Alabama this year will be larger than last; continued weevil activity can easily leave us a crop smaller than last year.

In making the acreage estimate this year 7,250 fields were actually counted; reports of individual acreage were received from 1,500 farmers; and the judgment of 250 regular crop reporters, 350 rural mail carriers, 150 bankers, 75 farm bureau directors, and numerous private persons regarding the comparative acreage were used. The condition figures were received from regular crop reporters and rural carriers.

Mr. John Lawrence of Jemison died at his home Monday night. Mr. Lawrence had been very ill for several weeks, and his death was not a surprise to his many friends.

This man was the father of our beloved preacher and teacher, Rev. B. Lawrence, and the Union-Banner joins the host of friends of the bereaved family in extending our sympathy in their sad bereavement.

HOLLAND DOUGLAS MAHAN

Holland Douglas, the 5 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Mahan of Vida, Ala., died Sunday morning, July 1, and was buried Monday morning in the Clanton cemetery. Dr. Ezell conducted services, assisted by Rev. Cook of Billingsley.

RECORD CAPTURE OF WHISKY MADE

State and Federal Men Get Big Quantities of Liquor in Three Counties.

The biggest capture of whiskey ever reported to the headquarters of the state law enforcement department in connection with a still raid was made in Cleburne county Thursday, when state, county and federal deputies got two 90 and one 100 gallon still, 675 gallons of beer and 101 1-2 gallons of whiskey and arrested two men, in this raid. Seizure of whiskey in raids of this kind seldom amount to more than a few gallons.

Another big whiskey seizure was reported from Shelby county where 65 gallons of corn liquor was taken in connection with the capture of two 75 and one 80 gallon still, and 300 gallons of beer. Four men were in the Shelby county raids made by state and county deputies.

In Fayette county one 35 and one 40 gallon still were captured Thursday, with 400 gallons of beer; in Walker county, one 35 gallon still; Tuscaloosa county, a 100 gallon still, 300 gallons of beer, and one man.

SETS DATE OF WOMAN'S EXECUTION IN BIBB

The supreme court Thursday overruled the application for a rehearing in the case of Nellie Bestor, Bibb county negro woman, sentenced to hang for the murder of her husband. The date of execution was set for Friday, August 10. An appeal for clemency for the woman is pending before the pardon board. She was at first sentenced to hang June 8, but a stay was obtained when an application for rehearing was filed.

HOW'S THIS FOR FISHING?

When it gets so you can just tie a string of hooks on a line and drag it through the water, without any bait on the hooks, and drag in big ones, little ones and all kinds, then that is real fishing. Well, that is the way reports say they have been catching them at the river lately while the water was low. That's one way to catch 'em.

MRS. E. H. PARRISH

Early last Sunday morning occurred the death of a good Christian old lady, Mrs. Charlotte Elizabeth Parrish, the beloved wife of Mr. Elijah H. Parrish. Death overtook her at the age of 74 after a short illness.

At the age of 18 she was married to Mr. Parrish, and for 56 years has proven to be a wife and a mother deserving of every quality that the term implies. Mrs. Parrish died at the very place where the happy couple has lived together ever since they were united in marriage.

The esteemed old lady leaves as her immediate family an aged husband, three sons, J. Sam, Prof. John M. and Dr. W. L. Parrish, and three daughters, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. E. H. Mims, and Miss Julia Parrish. For 34 years she has been a devoted member of the Baptist church, and has lived a life that has been as noble as that of any wife and mother that has ever trod this terrestrial ball.

The remains were buried Monday morning at Concord cemetery, Rev. C. J. Bentley officiating, assisted by Rev. S. J. Ezell, Rev. M. J. Parrish and Rev. W. J. Armstrong. Undertaker Martin had charge of the body.

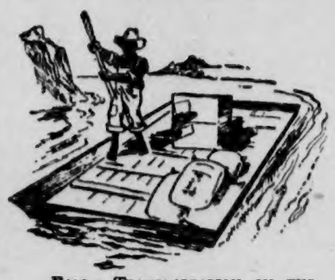
Alabama Rivers

Early efforts toward their improvement



EARLY TRANSPORTATION ON THE COOSA

LOCK 1—FIRST STEP TOWARD RIVER IMPROVEMENT ON COOSA

The improvement of Alabama's rivers was first advocated with the sole view to securing navigation. Many efforts, looking to their improvement by the Government, failed because of the unwillingness of Congress to appropriate the millions of dollars necessary to carry out the plans presented.

For nearly one hundred years river improvement was agitated. In that time was evolved the policy of the several states, including Alabama, and the Government to permit the development of water power by private capital, so as to bring about the improvement of navigation and the control of destructive floods, at no cost to the Government except for purely navigation structures.

A history of the early movements which resulted in this present day policy of the State and the Federal Government is essential to a clear understanding of the subject.

The first known project for the improvement of rivers in Alabama contemplated a continuous waterway from the Mississippi to the Atlantic Ocean. The proposed route was via the Ohio, Tennessee, Coosa, Etowah, Ocmulgee and Altamaha Rivers, with connecting canals.

The Alabama Legislature took cognizance of the plans sometime prior to 1823 and passed an act to improve the Coosa and aid in its connection with the Tennessee. In 1824 Congress assumed control of the project under its constitutional power to regulate interstate commerce, rivers being natural arteries of traffic between the states. But the project was considered impracticable and was never undertaken.

There were no railroads in that day. The rivers were the only arteries of commerce other than the trails which connected the towns and trading posts. Transportation was as vital to the people of that time as it is today.

The earliest known commercial use of Alabama's rivers was flat-boating. Agricultural products were transported from the Upper Coosa, over the perilous rapids from Greensport to Wetumpka, and down the Alabama to the Mobile market. Among the pioneers in flat-boating on the Coosa was John Lay, the grandfather of Capt. W. P. Lay of Gadsden.

About 1838, with the growth of the State, steam navigation was begun on the upper Coosa. Capt. Lay's father, C. M. Lay, was quick to see its possibilities and took up steam boating between Rome and Greensport about 1840. A great part of the commerce of the Cahaba Valley, including Elyton (before the founding of Birmingham), was hauled by boat to Greensport and thence to destination by wagon.

With the coming of the railroads, there arose a demand for through navigation to Mobile. While steamers plied between Rome and Greensport, and between Wetumpka and Mobile, the navigation of the rapids between Greensport and Wetumpka with steam boats was impossible. It was realized that quick and unobstructed navigation was necessary if river transportation were to survive.

As a result of this agitation, the first known instrumental survey of the Coosa was ordered. It was undertaken by Major Walter McFarland, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, at Wetumpka, in September, 1870, and concluded at a point near Greensport, in August, 1872. Major McFarland recommended certain low-lift dams to carry navigation over the rapids.

Thereafter certain work of improving the Coosa was undertaken by U. S. Engineers. Locks and Dams 1, 2 and 3; and a dam at Lock 4 were built with annual appropriations by Congress, and from the data of the McFarland survey.

On March 15, 1887, a Coosa River improvement convention met at Montgomery and memoralized Congress to continue the opening of the Coosa and Alabama Rivers to through navigation.

As a result, by Act of August 11, 1888, Congress directed that a resurvey and revised estimates be made for the improvement of the Coosa from Lock 4 to Wetumpka. This work was undertaken by Capt. Philip M. Price, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army. Capt. Price made the first known maps of the Coosa from the notes of the surveys previously referred to. He designed a system of 27 low-lift locks and dams, which, with Locks 1, 2, 3 and 4, made a total of 31 locks and dams. They were so planned as to open the Coosa to navigation from Rome, Ga., to Wetumpka. The estimated cost of constructing these 27 locks and dams was $6,038,219.

When the Price plan was submitted, Congress refused to appropriate the necessary funds for carrying it out on the grounds that the traffic on the rivers was not sufficient to warrant the expense.

So, with the completion of Lock 4, in the year 1891 or 1892, all improvement of navigation on the Coosa ceased until the construction of Lock 12 by Alabama Power Company. This development opened 25 miles of the Coosa to navigation, at no expense to the State or the Government.

Power developments on Alabama's rivers have been, and must be, in accordance with the laws of Alabama and of the United States, and with the approval of State and Federal regulatory bodies. Each such development is constructed under a separate fifty-year grant from the Federal Power Commission, containing restrictions amply protecting the public interest. Each project is an integral part of a well-defined and comprehensive plan, which, if followed, will ultimately result in Alabama's rivers being made navigable within the boundaries of the State, in the most efficient development of hydro-electric power, and the control of destructive floods.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Rev. J. W. Davenport preached a forceful sermon Sunday morning at the Congregational church on Christ and the individual, calling attention to the many personal interviews he held with all sorts of people during the years of his ministry. The speaker laid emphasis on these manifestations of care on the part of Jesus for each unit of humanity as well as the masses.

After the Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening Mr. Davenport delivered an illustrated lecture on "Passion Week" in the life and death of Jesus. The pictures were upwards of fifty in number and all made from life, representing scenes in what is known the world over as "The Passion Play at Oberomergan, a small town in the mountain section of Bavaria, where from among residents of the town of 1500 people, nearly half of them are participants in some part of this great religious drama which for nearly 300 years has been presented during a somewhat extended season once in ten years. The last presentation for the present decade was given in 1922 when nearly 300,000 people visited the little mountain town to witness the presentation of this soul-stirring religious drama. People of all parts of the world, nearly half of them from America.

The pictures are as beautiful and clear, colored Stereopticon slides, not moving pictures, as the writer has ever seen, and he has had opportunity to see many good ones and the whole combination of lecture and pictures is so forceful in presentation through the medium of eyes and ears the graphic story of those days and scenes in the life of Jesus Christ that no one need have any scruples about attending such a lecture in a church or elsewhere.

Dr. Davenport now ownes this set of slides and the apparatus for presenting them in connection with his lecture on this great subject. It is his intention to carry them to any community, within easy reach of Thorsby, who may desire to have him do so, provided sufficient notice is given him to make the necessary arrangements. There will be no paid admission entertainments, but since the outfit has cost him a lot of money there will be an opportunity given to make an offering to meet expenses and for promotion of the work to carry to others what the audience has enjoyed.

On Saturday evening Messrs. W. L. Leary, A. E. Reagan, W. M. Parnell, C. R. Foss, C. P. Turnquist and C. S. Howard went to Steel Bridge, near Shelby county line and Coosa river, for a boating and fishing outing. They got plenty of boating but no fish, but in spite of that report a very enjoyable play spell.

On Tuesday a lot of Thorsby young people went to Lock 12 for a basket picnic, among them were: Misses Jennye Robinson, Edith Robinson, Marie and Gladys Flummer, Agnes and Ruth Gerald, the Lessleys, Jewell and Ruth Martin, Agnes Leary, with Mrs. Reno Villadsen, chaperon; Messrs. Arthur Villadsen, Sylvester Robinson, Relius and Horace Franklin, Lessley, and Eugene Davenport.

Miss Naemi Turnquist was hostess at a party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reagan, given in honor of little Miss Dorothy Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson, the mother being a sister of Miss Turnquist. The guests were invited to spend the night and gave themselves heartily to games and other forms of amusement until bedtime. The little guests were Katharine and Edith Foss, Christine Bosworth, Edith Johnson, Helen Diefenderfer, and Ella Howard.

Miss Lorena Graham left Tuesday for a visit to friends in Birmingham and Anniston.

Quite a number of Thorsby young people are employed in Birmingham and Clanton, the latter making daily trips to and from their Thorsby homes, and others pay frequent wqeekend visits here. Misses Louise Adams, Palma Dahl, Ruth Peterson, Hattie Davenport, Inga Erdahl and Mrs. Nolia Robinson Woods, are in Birmingham, while for the men there are Mr. L. C. Robinson, D. J. Flummer, J. M. Graham, Ivey Horn, and B. L. Davenport. Our Clanton contingent are Misses Bertha Littleton, Gene Collins, Delene Burnett, Naemi Turnquist, and Messrs. W. M. Parnell and L. E. Diefenderfer.

On Sunday, July 8th, and continuing two weeks the Thorsby Baptist Church will hold revival services daily morning and evening, conducted by Rev. Theo Harris, evangelist, of Birmingham, and Rev. B. F. Atkins, director of music, together with Rev. Samuel L. Heath, pastor of the church. Everybody invited. Messrs. Harper and Billingsley will close their store daily during the morning service.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl C. Peterson Thursday afternoon, July 5th.

Rev. E. W. Butler went to Union Church, seven miles east of Mountain Creek, Sunday to preach in place of N. U. Long, their regular minister who is taking a vacation.

Mr. Ernest Eiland is back at home for a few days. He has been working in Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodgame and Mrs. Littleton and daughters, Bertha and Vescie, spent the day at T. K. Littleton's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Billingsley and Emmett Billingsley dined at B. L. Davenport's Sunday.

Miss Leora Goodgame is spending several days visiting friends in Birmingham.

UNION GROVE NEWS

LYNCHING RECORD FOR THE FIRST SIX MONTHS, 1923

Figures Compiled by Tuskegee Institute in the Department of Records and Research

Tuskegee, Ala., July 2, 1923.
Editor Union-Banner:

I send you the following information concerning lynchings for the first six months of this year. I find according to the records compiled by Tuskegee Institute in the Department of Records and Research, Monroe N. Work in charge, that in the first six months of 1923 there were 15 lynchings. This is 15 less than the number 30 for the first six months of 1922 and 21 less than the number 36 for the first six months of 1921.

Of those lynched, two were whites and thirteen were negroes. One of the latter was a woman. One of those put to death was charged with the crime of rape. The other offenses charged were: Murder, 2; killing officer of the law, 2; wounding officer of the law, 2; no charge reported, 2; assisting man charged with rape to escape, 1; trying to pass for white, 1; resisting posse searching for man charged with rape, 1; participating in depredations connected with railroad strike, 1; cattle stealing, 1; trying to act like white man and not knowing his place, 1.

The states in which lynchings occurred and the number in each state are as follows: Arkansas, 1; Florida, 7; Georgia, 2; Louisiana, 1; Mississippi, 2; Missouri, 1; and Texas, 1.

Yours very truly,
R. R. MOTON, Principal.

UNCLE DOCK'S RHYMES

We have made arrangements with Uncle Dock Wells to get some of his "rippling rhymes" for publication in The Union-Banner. Nearly everybody in the county knows Uncle Dock and we believe our readers will enjoy reading his rhyming paragraphs.

I thought I would commence in time
To compose a riddle and make it rhyme.

There was a man of Adam's race,
Who had a curious dwelling place—
A house that was all covered o'er,
Where never man did dwell before.

Neither on earth, in heaven or hell;
Pray, tell me where this man did dwell.

Put on your studying cap just right,
And let me know by Wednesday night.
If anyone of you can tell
I will give you one next week
On the old Hot Well.
Yours truly,
UNCLE DOCK WELLS.

Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

GRAY CAR HAS REMARKABLE FIRST YEAR

New Motor Car Firm Gets Volume Production and World-Wide Distribution Within 12 Months.

(By J. W. BECKMAN)
Associate Editor, Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record.

Aside from the fact that more and more Gray cars have been observed on the streets from time to time, and the fact that every one at the Gray factory is almost too busy to talk, little has been known by the public at large about what the Gray Motor Co. has done. The progress of Gray, however, is one of the remarkable things in the history of the automobile business. Astatement of a few facts will readily make this apparent. The first anniversary of the production of Gray cars will not be marked until June of this year.

It was at the New York automobile show, January, 1922, that the first Gray car was displayed at the Hotel Commodore. It was a hand made job, and was eagerly looked over by the public because of the interest in what Frank L. Klingensmith, formerly of the Ford Motor Co., intended to produce.

It was from then, January, 1922, to June, 1922, before Mr. Klingensmith and Mr. Beall, would allow a Gray car to go into production. They demanded that the car be a finished product before it got into the hands of the public. They made it an inviolable rule that they and not the public should make the experiment with the new car. So over a period of three or four months, three Gray cars were run continuosuly twenty-four hours a day, with three sets of drivers working in three shifts of eight hours each. By June, they were satisfied that the car met all expectations and would perform satisfactorily in the hands of the public, and production was begun.

Gray, today is thousands of orders behind, and probably will not be able to fill anywhere near all the orders that will be placed for Gray cars this year through their dealer organization. The reason for this tremendous success of Gray is that the car has come into a field hitherto untouched by giving the public what it has wanted, and long waited for, a light weight, quality automobile at a very moderate price. This feat was possible through the fortunate combination of two men at the head of Gray who represented both quantity and quality production.

Frank L. Klingensmith for a numbe rof years was vice-president and treasurer of the Ford Motor Co., and at the time of his resignation to take over the presidency of the Gray Motor Co., in 1920, was one of the three directors of the Ford Motor Co., which consisted of Henry and Edsel Ford and himself. Klingensmith was largely responsible for a great many of the successful policies that the Ford organization adopted, and was one of the leaders in quantity production. F. F. Beall, vice-president, was for years vice-president of the Packard Motor Car Co., in charge of the manufacture. Mr. Beall adds that touch of quality which is making one of the strong selling points for Gray cars. Quality has been built right into the Gray from the start. The result is that this and foreign countries are clamoring for this type of car.

FEEDING OUR HUNGRY MILLS

Washington, June 30.—Some idea of the tremendously increased mill consumption which has taken place since the Republican tariff law began its work of stabilizing industry can be arrived at by scanning the tables of imports for the nine months period ending March 31, 1923, the greater part of which period, and the part during which time these increases became pronounced, was under the Fordney-McCumber tariff law.

To begin with hides and skins: We imported 502,384,000 pounds, worth $99,500,000, an increase of over 80 per cent of the quantity imported for the nine months ending March 31, 1922, when the Democratic tariff law was in operation. This was, of course, due to the increased production of our boot and shoe factories, makers of harness and saddlery, belting, etc. Leather, which is a commodity for further use in manufacturing, increased from $7,255,000 in value for the 1922, to $10,416,000 for the 1923 period. Furs and manufacturers of fur increased from $35,750,000 to $61,180,000, and there was a large increase in the number of undressed furs imported.

The value of oil seeds increased from $27,000,000 to $40,000,000, copra increasing from 191,000,000 to 216,000,000 pounds, and a large increase in flaxseed. The value of oil imports increased from $38,000,000 to $42,000,000 among the largest items showing increases being palm oil 29 to 73 million pounds, linseed oil, 13 to 31, and soya bean oil, 1 and a half to 14 million pounds. There was a 12 per cent drop in coconut oil imports.

Cane sugar imports increased from five to six billion pounds, the vast bulk of it still coming from Cuba. Crude rubber increased from 438,000,000 to 569,000,000 pounds. Gums, resins, etc., from $18,000,000 to $28,000,000. The value of imported tobacco rose from $45,000,000 to $60,000,000, and we imported nearly 200,000,000 pounds of cotton compared with 158,000,000 in the 1922 period, most of it long staple. Cotton and rubber imports reflect auto manufacture.

In the textile crudes we find jute and manufactures increased from $33,000,000 to $59,000,000 in value. This includes jute raw, burlaps, bagging, etc. Raw wool increased from 166,000,000 to 371,000,000 pounds, carpet wool from 110,000,000 to 128,000,000. Raw silk increased from 36,000,000 to 42,500,000 pounds.

There were large increases in imports of wood and manufactures, including paper, all along the line. Coal imports were surprisingly great, anthracite increasing from 11,000 to 344,000 tons, and bituminous from 999,000 to nearly 5,000,000 tons. The strike in the coal mines is echoed by this trade. The value of clay products increased from $10,600,000 to $12,760,000, suggesting greater activity in the pottery plants. Asbestos increased from 57,000 to 113,000 tons.

The increases under the head of ores and metals are truly remarkable, testifying to industrial appetite. Iron ore increased from 98,000 to 1,443,000 tons, iron and steel from $12,000,000 to $30,000,000 in value, and the ferros, chromes, and magaaneses show large increases. Grouped together copper for manufacture increased from 253,000,000 to 473,000,000 pounds; lead from 96,000,000 to 167,000,000; block and bar tin from 69,000,000 to 113,000,000 pounds, and large increases in zinc. The value of chemicals and allied products increased from $53,000,000 to $91,000,000.

All these imports indicate plainly that American industry is on the job again, and so are the workmen.

GASOLINE TAX IS SHOWING INCREASE

Total of $104,885 Was Collected in State During May; Half Goes to Counties.

State Tax Commissioner F. C. Marquis announced Thursday the total collections from the tax of two cents a gallon on gasoline, for the month of May as $104,855. The proportion of this amount to be divided among the 67 counties, is $52,427.50.

A similar amount goes into the general fund of the state under the provisions of the act levying the tax, which specifies that one-half of the total collections is to be divided among the several counties and the other half is to go to the state.

Some idea of the growth in the returns from the gasoline tax since the first month during which it was effective, March, 1923, is gained from the fact that from the March collections, the share of each county was $627.80; for the month of April $732.34; and for the month of May $782.50.

Checks for the equal share of each individual county, was mailed to the respective county treasurers, Saturday by State Treasurer George W. Ellis.

Judge Reynolds would lose $300 a year if the county court were abolished; but the county would lose around ten thousand. Does this look consistent to the tax payers?

There is a bill to come up before the State Legislature to pass a state-wide stock law. We believe if this were done, it would greatly facilitate the eradication of the cattle tick.

A measley dozen men in this county, behind closed doors, have framed a scheme that would rob the tax payers of Chilton county of ten or twelve thousand dollars, just simply because they have some petty grievances against some of our county officials.

Our Democratic friends who work themselves into a fury because Mr. Lasker spent $13,000 taking some guests on the trial trip of the Leviathan, did not even bat an eye when the Democratic managers of the Shipping Board wasted a few hundreds of millions.

The farmers of Alabama are gradually adopting the plan of diversification. As will be seen in the article we are publishing this week by Mr. Luther E. Little about the strawberry business around Castleberry, it pays the farmers to plant other crops besides cotton alone.

Can we afford to sacrifice ten thousand dollars a year in order to save three hundred? That is just what we will be doing if the county court is abolished and all the cases tried in circuit court. A comparison of the receipts and disbursements of these two courts will be published in The Union-Banner in the near future.

It seems that the promoters of the bill to abolish the county court have kindly gotten crossed up on the matter of the county solicitor. We understand that they promised to protect him if the bill passed; however, they are using the elimination of his salary as an argument in favor of the bill. Why not let's call a mass meeting and have all these things explained?

We ought to have a meeting of the citizens of the county in the near future, and show to our Senator and Representative whether or not the people of the county endorse the proposed bills to abolish the county court and the commissioners court. We don't approve of the idea of a dozen men getting behind closed doors and dictating the laws and courts of our county. Let's come out in the open with it.

Some of the good Democrats of Chilton county seem to favor the idea of states rights not only from a national standpoint but from a county standpoint as well. They are trying to give the state executive the power to say who our county officers are to be and how the county government is to be run. The truth of the matter is, they are perfectly willing to sacrifice ALL the rights of the people just in order to have their own personal, petty jealousies satisfied.

Envy.—The Poet—"The editor's bought my 'Ode to a Sparrer'—he was crazy to print it."

The Critic—"That's what I thought when I read it!"—Sydney Bulletin, (Australia).

We have authorative information that Senator Adams will not support the Commissioners Court bill in the State Senate. He also says that he will not support the move to abolish the county court unless a majority of the people of the county want it done. The way to find out how the people stand on these matters is to invite them out to a mass meeting and let them express their views. Would it not be fair to have a meeting of all the citizens of the county at the court house and let both sides present speakers to explain the merits and demerits of the measures?

IF COUNTY COURT IS ABOLISHED IN CHILTON

In introducing a bill before the legislature to abolish the county court of Chilton county, the Democrats are only living up to their established policy of increasing public expenses. At present our county court clears for the county every year between three and four thousand dollars, which money is used to defray the various expenses of the county. On the other hand, the circuit court of the county nothing like pays for itself, due to the fact that the expenses of such court is so heavy and so little is derived in the way of fines. Now, any one can readily see what it would mean to the county in a financial way to abolish the county court and have all these small cases tried by the circuit court. This deficit, of course, would have to be paid for out of the tax money paid in by the people of the county.

So far as Judge Reynolds is concerned, the passage of this bill would not hurt him, since he serves as Judge of the county court for the meagre sum of $25.00 a month, which is very small pay for the amount of work which he has to do. But the trouble would be the tremendous increase in the court expenses of the county. The county can't afford to make this change, from a financial standpoint.

COMMISSIONERS COURT BILL

The desire of the Democrats of Chilton county to abolish the Court of County Commissioners and have in its stead appointed a Board of Revenue is nothing more nor less than a scheme to get the treasury of our county in the hands of a few grabbers of Clanton. If this bill becomes a law, what money the county has together with its credit and good name will go up in blue smoke. This bill provides for five members of the Board of Revenue, a clerk, a purchasing agent and a county engineer. This would place on the county's pay roll four more officers than we now have, but that is not the half of it. What salary are all eight of these officers going to draw? This question is to be answered by the members of the board themselves, and there is no limit in the bill as to what these salaries shall be. Even a fool can see the danger of such a proposition as this.

We wonder what it is that is unsatisfactory about the present Court of County Commissioners. So far as we know, there has never been a straighter bunch of men anywhere than those whom we have for this work. The work which they have done for the county is absolutely beyond reproach, and according to state examiners is without equal in the State of Alabama. The trouble is simply this: They are guarding the treasury of Chilton county with an iron hand, and will not let the money be wasted. Whenever unjust claims are presented to them for payment they promptly turn them down, then of course these claimants get sore because they were halted in their attempt to rob the tax payers. The people of the county cannot afford to sit still and let such actions as this be taken against them.

We believe it would be a good idea to have a mass meeting of the people of the county, and let everybody come out and express their views in regard to this action. Also let the men who are fathering this move be present and show up the merits of the proposed changes.

WORTH THE INITIATION

There appears to be great indignation among certain members of the British House of Commons over the treatment of British immigrants at Ellis Island. The complaint is made that British citizens have been compelled to wait in a large room with 150 people of other nationalities until their cases had been disposed of. The debate in the House of Commons did not bring out any charge that British subjects were not treated as well as the immigrants from other nations, but the impression seemed to prevail that they should have preferential treatment.

If the United States should undertake to provide special comforts for British immigrants, justifiable criticism could be brought by every other nation whose people come to our shores. It is admitted that conditions at Ellis Island are not ideal from the point of view of the immigrant, but immigrants will always be subject to more or less annoyance and disappointment so long as the United States exercises a control over the number and quality of those admitted. British subjects will continue to be treated on an absolute equality with those of other countries, and will be detained at Ellis Island just so long, and no longer, as may be necessary to determine their right of admission. The British government, of course, has no similar problem of its own, because Americans appreciate the relative merits of the United States, and their emigration to England is practically nil.

CONSENT OF THE GOVERNED

"America is trying to be a democracy, and America doesn't know how to be a democracy. America can't think in democratic terms. America still thinks in terms of privilege and possession and position and social clique." Thus spoke the president of Amherst College, whereupon he was properly and promptly deposed by the trustees of that institution. There are two general meanings of "democracy." In the United States it is generally understood to mean a government that derives its powers from the consent of the governed. In Europe it connotes a society based on political, economic, and social equality. There is no question but that we have a democracy according to the former definition, hence the Amherst official must favor a democracy as it is known in Europe. He is not alone in advocating such a change, as there are scores of other radicals of the same mind, many of them holding responsible positions in our institutions of learning. They lack consistency in that they do not take up their abode in Russia, where they will find practical application of their theories.

PRIZE OFFERED

"Our politicians are badly in need of a new baptism of understanding with respect to 'radicalism,' remarks the editor of the N. Y. Journal of Commerce. "Insistently proclaiming solicitous interest in the welfare of the farmer they proceeded to place upon the statute books a tariff law that has unavoidably deeply injured the agricultural industry." The editor aforesaid will be entitled to one large red apple for every honest-to-goodness farmer he can bring forward who will vote against the present tariff rates on farm products, and if he will point to a solitary instance in which the agricultural industry has been injured by the tariff, we will peel that apple for him.

NEW DRIVE POSTS FOR CLANTON

Chief of Police Foshee informs us that the town will put up in a few days five drive-to-the-right posts on the most important corners of the streets of Clanton. One of these posts will be located in front of the Wilson Hotel, one in front of Upchurch Drug Co., one in front of the court house, one at the post office, and one below Lawrence's Garage.

Mr. Foshee also informs us that when these posts are put up, the traffic laws will be rigidly enforced. If he finds a car parked contrary to the regulations, the number of the license will be taken, and the owner of the car will be asked to report to the Mayor's office. It will certainly help traffic conditions here for this law to be enforced.

What Is Weevilnip?

It is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors designed to attract the boll weevils and kill them.
Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.
WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

TEST MADE ON FARM OF J. H. ALLEN EDGEFIELD, S. C.

On June the 21st at about 11 o'clock a.m., WEEVILNIP was applied to about 1-4 of an acre of cotton on the farm of Mr. J. H. Allen, Edgefield, S. C. The cotton was about knee high and contained plenty of squares and forms. Weevils were found to be plentiful, and infestation very heavy.

The same afternoon about six o'clock the cotton was examined by Mr. Allen who says that he was unable to find a single weevil on the part poisoned, either dead or alive, but on cotton in the same field that had not been poisoned weevils were found just as they were in the morning.

The following morning at 10:30 a.m. the field was examined by W. F. Holson, J. S. Scurry, J. L. Prince and J. G. Alford. No live weevils was found on cotton that had been poisoned and one dead weevil was found under a stalk. The cotton was looked closely and no weevil could be found on poisoned cotton, but on the unpoisoned cotton there were plenty of them just as the poisoned cotton was before applying.

While applying the poison it was noticed that a weevil was out on a leaf apparently eating the WEEVILNIP. This weevil was watched closely and in about three hours it was dead.

The Weevilnip Co., Macon Ga.
Gentlemen:

I thought that I would drop you a line and let you know the results that I am obtaining this season from the use of WEEVILNIP.

I have got a field of cotton that I have been using WEEVILNIP on ever since it was chopped out. It's been raining ever since the last of April most every day. But once in a while we would get a day or two of fair weather and I would apply WEEVILNIP and I feel safe to say that I have at least a 90 per cent control of the Boll Weevils and I positively know that a man can control the Boll Weevils if he will use WEEVILNIP according to instructions.

I remain, yours very truly,

NEW SALEM

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. Two very interesting sermons were delivered. Bro. Durbin from Thorsby preached for us on Saturday as our pastor, Bro. Dykes could not be here.

A large crowd attended the singing Sunday afternoon which was real good. Those who directed were: Mr. Henderson Hayes, Mr. E. L. Glasscock, Mr. Vester Campbell, Mr. Gip Melton and Mr. A. H. Glasscock. Organists were: Misses Pauline Maddox, Myrtle Dorminey, Inez Hayes, and Mrs. Maud Cox.

There will be singing here every first Sunday afternoon.

Let's not forget the social on Thursday before the 3rd Sunday. Would be glad for every member to be present and bring some one with you, as Bro. Dykes is expected to be with us. Am sure he has got something good to tell us, so let's go and see what it is.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hayes dined with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bean Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Caton took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Benson Sunday.

Miss Pearl Thacker and Miss Pauline Maddox were the guests of Miss Loutishie Bean Sunday.

HOW TO KILL THE BUGS

Bugs on tomato plants can be killed by using either of the following on your plants:

Dissolve two teasnoonfulls of arsenate of lead in each gallon of water used. Spray or sprinkle on plants.

Another good spray can be prepared by using one pound of rock lime and one pound of bluestone. Air slack the lime and powder the bluestone, then mix both thoroughly in ten gallons of water and apply on plants.

Most drug stores have prepared powders which can be dusted on the plants and will destroy the bugs.

The Value of Land Abstracts

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO STRAWBERRY GROWERS

(By Luther E. Little)

Since there are already some people in Chilton county growing truck crops and others contemplating doing so in the near future, probably it would be beneficial as well as interesting to know what other people are actually doing in this line.

Since there are so many people ready to argue such things as I would like to say in regard to the success of growing such things as strawberries and potatoes in South Alabama, I am having some clippings reprinted from a Conecuh county paper, which I, personally, compared with the books of the Association and found approximately correct.

Special attention should be given to the reports of Mr. E. N. Partin and I. S. Robinson, as these figures are correct.

My motive for writing this is to show the people here what is being done just a short distance South. Also the same things can be raised in Chilton county just as successfully. But perfect co-operation must be manifested to make a total success:

$100,000 Disbursed for Castleberry Berries

It is reported that the paymaster made Castleberry berry growers a happy lot of mortals early this month, disbursing to the Association members something like $100,000. This it is understood, is net to the growers, after deducting advances for fertilizer, crates, labor, etc. A sum of this proportion, distributed among a membership of 115, means a spring purchasing ability not to be sneeded at in a town of Castleberry's size, with a population of about 1,000.

But this is only a part of Castleberry's berry income. The Association shipped about 225 cars, the Lee and Clark organizations about 115 cars, from the same point, and the former about 30 cars from Owassa, making about 370 cars in all from Conecuh county.

Castleberry's total net income from its strawberry operations this season probably approximates $200,000.

Castleberry, Ala., June 8, 1923.
Editor Everpreen Courant:

Here is a true statement of the value of my 1923 berry crop. I had just two acres in strawberries from which I gathered 320 crates.

Gross income	$1236.48
Plant'g and cultivat'g	$ 50.00
Fertilizer	85.00
Mulching	20.00
Crates and gathering	320.00
	$475.00
Net profits	$761.48

You may publish this if you wish.
Yours truly,
E. N. PARTIN.

The Humble Moneymaker

One of the too-large landowners of South Alabama said a few days ago, "Considering the value of my holdings, as strictly farming operations they are unprofitable. Formerly, when there was an abundance of labor available at almost any price and on any terms, and no boll weevils, large acreages made money for their owners, even when inefficiently handled. Now there is keen competition for labor and the worst of it is that when you need hands worst maybe you cannot get them at any price. On top of this there is not the old surety that after the work is done a cotton crop will be produced. In that corner of the field my children found a whole host of weevils this week. If they are showing up this early what may we expect when the crop develops, giving them something to feast on?"

In the sticks, four miles from Castleberry, off the Brooklyn road, is the 95 acre farm of Mr. Isaac S. Roberson, 70 acres in cultivation. This season Mr. Roberson had 6 acres in berries. His yield was about 900 crates that brought him, f.o.b. Castleberry, around $3.50 per crate. On account of his original method of cultivation, this grower used only about half the fertilizer that the average grower used—or to be exact, 1,200 lbs. per acre—and, since his acreage was not large, did all his between-season work without engaging additional labor. Fertilizer cost him 22c per crate, picking 50c, crates 28c. Larger growers figure it costs anywhere from $1.50 to $2.50 per crate to make their berries and put them aboard cars. Possibly Mr. Roberson's bookkeeping is more primitive but, anyhow, he estimates that his patch of 6 acres of berries netted him nearly enough to cover the cost of his entire 95 acres of land. Then he also produces oats, cotton, corn, velvet beans, cowpeas, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, sugar cane, hay, hogs cattle, poultry, all kinds of vegetables, figs, peaches, apples, melons, canteloupes, goats, sheep, etc.

"Paradise Enow"

Four miles from Repton is the splendidly domiciled and developed little farm of B. F. Giddens, 154 acres in all, of which 100 acres are in cultivation, 75 acres clear of stumps. This farmer raises oats, corn, cotton, velvet beans, cowpeas, peanuts, sugar cane, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, hogs, cattle, poultry, all kinds of vegetables, including lima beans for market, pecans, apples, plums, cherries, grapes, figs, melons, canteloupes, and some Satsuma oranges. Nuts off one of the 300 pecan trees sold last season for $30, which does not miss much what the place was bought for, per acre, five years ago.

Among Mr. Giddens' numerous crops this season are 10 acres of Irish potatoes (with cotton between rows). Recently, Mr. Giddens sold his potato crop, still in the ground, for $1250.00, or $125 an acre, and expects a bale of cotton to the acre out of the same field.

Last year Mr. Giddens' potatoes yeilded 128 bushels per acre and this season's production promises to beat the previous record.

Unfortunately, the Giddens' farm does not produce flour, coffee and wearing apparel. Even so, parroting Omar, it might be said this is "Paradise Enow." Where in civilization could folks get so much on so small an investment?

The Spuds Are Moving

The Irish potato movement is in swing. So far the E. C. Lee Farms Co. has shipped between fifty and sixty cars, from its three loading points, Owassa, Castleberry, and Evergreen. Their aggregate for the season will approximate one hundred cars. The same company, by the way, has shipped eight cars of cabbage from Owassa, a sample of which was handed the editor Saturday by our good friend, E. W. Braxton, who ships through the Lee organization. The head, which was not one of the largest, weighed nine pounds.

The season for Conecuh county's potato growers and truckers promises to be quite satisfactory in most respects. The potato yield ranges all the way from 80 to nearly 200 bushels per acre. Over the line, beyond Repton, Geo. Wasden is 'mopping up' and setting a new high record. Joe Skinner and others in the Castleberry district, have fine potatoes. Express shipments of truck from Evergreen have been heavy but only intelligent organization, along some line, will develop this industry to anything like its true possibilities. A central packing shed, with a commercial pack under the supervision of experts and a get-together that will enable the shipment of carloads, are prime essential. The Chamber of Commerce should be on the job 300 days in the year, in such matters. The growers would then have just so much more money to spend with the merchants.

FACTS TO A CANDID WORLD

Washington, July 2.—Republican leaders in Washington are immensely pleased over the character of speeches President Harding has been making during his Western tour. They are pleased because he has dealt directly with facts and has not attempted to substitute oratory for argumentation. Instead of endeavoring to make a special appeal to the selfish interests of different sections of the country, he has courageously presented issues in localities where they are likely to be least popular. This course leaves the Republicans nothing to explain or retract or modify when the campaign for election comes around next year.

There is a general feeling of satisfaction because the President has not endeavored to create high-sounding phrases which might arouse enthusiasm for the moment but lead to reaction later. Not in a single instance has the Democratic press undertaken to controvert any statement President Harding has made regarding the record of his Administration, or the attitude of the Republican party on national issues. Nevertheless, the reluctance of Democratic leaders to make any acknowledgement of the success of the Harding Administration and the high character of President Harding's addresses, is indicated by the statement made by one of the leading Democratic papers of the country which said, editorially,

"What his Administration has done to reduce taxes, which is not much, and to cut down extravagant public expenditures, which is a great deal more, constitutes a real claim to public approval."

This is an unwilling acknowledgement of the cut in taxes made by the Republicans soon after they came into power. It is an even greater acknowledgement that by cutting extravagant expenditures the Administration has paved the way for further reduction in taxes which may not, however, be accomplished before the next campaign has been completed. That this accomplishment "constitutes a real claim to public approval" is a very considerable admission from Democratic leaders who a few months ago were claiming that the Republican Administration had "done nothing" during its more than two years' incumbency.

Democratic leaders are also compelled to admit that although American agriculture has not entirely recovered from the depression it suffered during the closing months of the Wilson Administration, yet the Republican Administration has done everything that could be done by the government to relieve the farming communities. They are forced to admit also that under private management of the railroads as provided for by the Transportation Act, the government has been relieved from a great financial burden which it was bearing under the system of government operation. Since the failure to find purchasers for the government owned merchant ships, Democratic leaders manifest little inclination to further criticize the Republican proposal for a ship subsidy measure. They have nothing better to suggest in its place. Forced to acknowledge the success of the Administration in handling domestic affairs and in securing efficiency and economy in the government service, there are only two issues on which the Democrats now seek to criticize the Republican Administration. One of these is continued refusal to join the League of Nations, and the other is the attitude of the Harding dministration in favor of the maintenance of the prohibition amendment and the enforcement of the prohibition law. At the present time those seem likely to be the leading issues of the 1924 campaign.

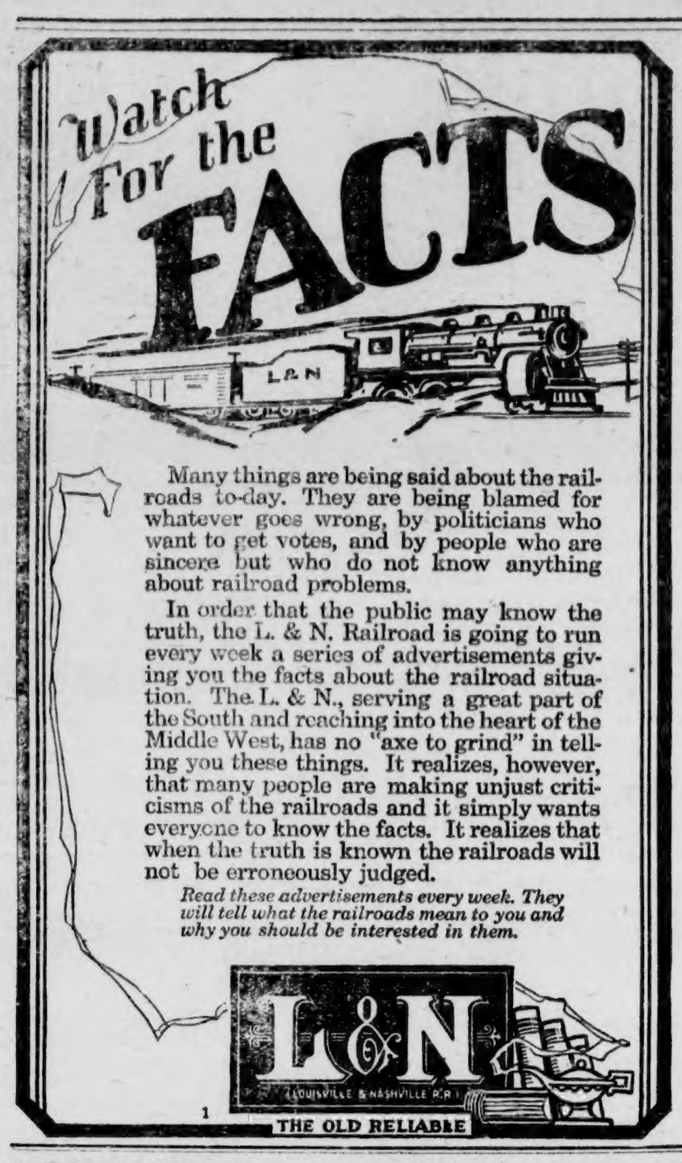
POOR ORIGINAL



Many things are being said about the railroads to-day. They are being blamed for whatever goes wrong, by politicians who want to get votes, and by people who are sincere but who do not know anything about railroad problems.

In order that the public may know the truth, the L. & N. Railroad is going to run every week a series of advertisements giving you the facts about the railroad situation. The L. & N., serving a great part of the South and reaching into the heart of the Middle West, has no "axe to grind" in telling you these things. It realizes, however, that many people are making unjust criticisms of the railroads and it simply wants everyone to know the facts. It realizes that when the truth is known the railroads will not be erroneously judged.

Read these advertisements every week. They will tell what the railroads mean to you and why you should be interested in them.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Hall of Clanton Lodge, Number 423, A. F. & A. M.

Clanton, Ala., June 19, 1923.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Clanton Lodge Number 423, A. F. & A. M.

We, the undersigned committee, respectfully beg leave to submit for your approval and adoption the following preambles and resolutions:—

Our departed friend and brother, Joseph P. VanDerveer was born in the city of Montgomery on November 30th, 1858, on the identical site where the Masonic Temple of that city now stands. Here brother VanDerveer spent his boyhood and early manhood days, receiving a good training and a generous education at the hands of his parents. He graduated from Georgetown College about the time he atained his majority, and soon afterwards moved to Clear Creek, where he resided and engaged in farming until about thirty years of age. It was here that his lot was cast with Miss Cornelia E. McMath of Montevallo, Alabama, in the year 1880, who now survives his death. From here our brother moved to Jemison, Alabama, sojourning there only two years, and it was here that he received his first degrees of Masonry, receiving the three degrees in the year 1891, from Jemison Lodge Number 411. Also while residing brother VanDerveer was elected to the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chilton County, Alabama. Shortly afterwards tre Fates decreed that he should cast his lot in the town of Clanton, Alabama, where he was destined to spend his last reclining years. For a period of thirty-two years our esteemed brother moulded his influence and character into the people of Clanton and Chilton county so deeply that the power of Father Time himself is impotent to remove the impression. The first six years he served as Circuit Clerk, for the next fifteen years he served in the capacity of Tax Adjuster and Abstracting Land Titles until that office was abolished four years ago. Since that time and until his death he was engaged in the Real Estate and Insurance business.

He removed his membership from the Jemison Lodge and affiliated with Clanton Lodge, August the 6th, 1898, where his membership remained until his death. His public activities were numerous and extensive. He was the author of the charter of the town of Clanton of 1897, under which the town now operates, also serving as Mayor and Councilman of Clanton. Another important feature of his life was the installation and operation of the first electric light plant in Clanton and Chilton county, about 1908. He was elected Worshipful Master of Clanton Lodge in 1901, also serving in many other capacities in the Lodge. Brother VanDerveer received the Baptismal Rites of the Baptist Church of Clanton along with his younger daughter, Bessie about fifteen years before his death.

Brother VanDerveer is survived by one son, John M., and two daughters, Mrs. Pattie May Powe and Mrs. Bessie Richards, and by his widow, Mrs. Cornelia E. VanDerveer, two of his sons, William P. and oJseph P. Jr., having preceded him in death.

The Great Giver of life deemed it necessary to take from our esteemed friend and brother the life with which he was so richly blessed, and on Saturday afternoon in the peaceful town of Clanton, the 5th day of the month of May in the year of our Lord, 1923, within the joy of his own home and the confines of his very room, at peace with the world, and prepared to go, just as the twilight of the closing day was approaching and as the golden sun set was sinking beyond the western horizon, so it was in the big heart of our noble friend and brother, the evening sun of his life was closing, and as the shades of night hovered upon the earth as a great protector, so it was that darkness came upon our brother, only to give forth brightness and a new day with undiminished lustre, brighter and happier than any earthly one.

His remains were laid to rest with Masonic honors at Clanton cemetery on May 7th, 1923. The Knight Templars officiating with Clanton Blue Lodge assisting, accompanied by members of Jemison Lodge and other Masons and numerous friends. The Reverend S. J. Ezell of the Clanton Baptist Church conducted the funeral services, assisted by the Reverend Charles C. Wilkerson of the Clanton Methodist Church.

Therefore Be It Resolved, by this Lodge that in the death of brother VanDerveer the community has lost a good and valuable citizen, one who was loved and trusted.

Be It Further Resolved, by this Lodge that in the death of brother VanDerveer his family has lost a kind and affectionate husband and father and that in this their great loss and in this their hour of bereavement may their pangs of sorrow be ameliorated by the Divine thought that he lived the life on this earth, acceptable in the eyes of God, and now resides in those celestial heights above where all is gladness. We extend to the heart-broken widow and to the bereaved children our heartfelt condolence and may the soothing hand of Time remove the sting of death from the grave and place a crown of victory there.

Be It Lastly Resolved, by Clanton Lodge that in the death of our brother a void has been made, a chair left vacant that will always be felt. As a Mason he was, in all sense of the word, what the name implies, loyal, honest and true even until the breath of life had left his wordly body. His life was lead gy the spirits of gentleness, justice and mercy, and in his daily walks of life he had a smile and a kind word for the rich and the poor, the high and low alike, thinking of all mankind as a common brotherhood, thus recognizing the continuity of the Divine and the solidarity of the human life. His smile and loving kindness were features of respect from all those who knew him. In his early life he learned that to be a Mason one must be good and true, and this principle he never deviated from but beautifully as he lived and nobly as he died he was found to be good and true. He was always ready to stretch out a helping hand for fallen brother, with a heart full of sympathy and consolation. He won for himself the love of faithful friends who went with him unmoved into the darkening shadows of life's closing day. He was a man and citizen of rare culture and a source of honest information to the old and young alike, of strong convictions, of high intelligence and great significance. And it was said of him that he could see something of good in everyone, a true friend to the defenseless and oppressed. He was truly the passing Southern entleman of sterling character and chivalrous actions, and like the Rock og ges he remained true to his Masonic trust. One of his outstanding characteristics was his faithful devotion to his Lodge, time nor the elements or anw circumstances ever diminished his great loyalty and love for Masonry, he wa always on hand to attend the sick and bury the dead. His life upon this earth was beautiful and good and all through his life it remained so growing old gracefully, he died a manfully and beautifulyl as he lived. His big heart now lies stilled in the grip of death, but its beat shal lbe felt until the time shall be no more.

We beg to suggest that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the widow and family of our deceased brother.

Respectfully submitted,
GROCER C. HARRIS,
C. FENN JONES,
OMAR L. REYNOLDS,
Committee.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

From 25,000 to 30,000 yards of cloth has been manufactured at the state mill at Kilby prison, the manufacture of shirts has begun there and the state's cotton mill is running full capacity, though not with a maximum output owing to the fact that labor is "green," according to information from the state board of convict supervisors. A piece from the first bolt of cloth made in the prison has been framed and hangs on the office wall of Roy L. Nolen, associate member of the convict board, and another such specimen was presented to the department of archives and history.

A wonderful change is being wrought at Townley this spring, according to Rev. B. F. Tingle, pastor of the Methodist church at that place. Carpenters are repairing houses and families are moving into them as rapidly as the houses can be repaired. Several hundred men are at work in and about mine No. 1, which will be reopened within 30 days, it is said. Dr. Steel Shores has opened a new drug store there. Townley Methodist church is being remodeled and enlarged, and, in fact, the town is in the midst of a real boom, Rev. Tingle says.

It is an interesting sight to see the trucks from the Notasulga canning factory as they go out into every section of Macon county each afternoon to gather up the blackberries that are ripening in every nook and corner. These berries are being picked mostly by the women and children, and are placed in large tubs where the truck can pick them up The crop is not very good this year, but the factory at Notasulga is doing a splendid business. This new industry is bringing many dollars into the rural section.

George A. Lawyer, chief United States game warden, will visit Montgomery for a conference with Commissioner of Conservation I. .T Quinn, on a proposed change in the open season for doves in Alabama. It is stated that while the season in Alaabma does not open until October 16, in Mississippi and Louisiana doves may be shot by September 16, and many sportsmen wish to advance the Alabama season to be on a par with the neighboring states.

A Civil war relic found near Decatur by Thomas Prosser, a local blacksmith, in the shape of a bombshell attracted much interest. The powder in the shell, which had been there since the Civil war, was found to burn with a flash when a match was applied to it. The shell had to be broken open, due to rust. It was nearly 12 inches in circumference and was over five inches long. It contained 18 minnie balls.

A bill giving county boards of revenue and the state of Alabama authority to make appropriations to be used by the Greater Alabama Association, in advertising Alabama and its resources, is being drafted to be introduced in the summer session of the state legislature, according to O. L. Bunn, general manager of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the executive committee of this recently organized association

Business men of Troy have been invited by the Alabama Power company to join the party of Kiwanis and Rotary club members July 12, when they will visit Mitchell dam. They will make the trip from Troy in a special train and will be entertained by the company at luncheon at the dam.

Mrs. E. L. Cross, proprietress of the Gables hotel at Fairhope, has placed the contract for a new hotel structure, to be located at the corner of Fairhope avenue and Summit street. The new building, it is understood, will be of fireproof construction, two stories in height, and will have 15 rooms.

The sentence of Tom Wilson, scheduled to hang last Friday for the killing of Kirby Cole, was commuted by Governor Brandon the day before the date of execution, and Wilson is now in Kilby prison serving a life sentence.

JOHN F. HARRIS

On Thursday morning, June 28, 1923, at Plantersville, Ala., death called from the land of the living John F. Harris.

He was 62 years old, and had been afflicted for more than two years; but he bore his suffering with great patience, never murmuring against the dear Father's will. All that loving hands could do was done for him, but God in His infinite love saw fit to remove him to a home where suffering is unknown.

He was an independent thinker, and, although having an open mind, he was a true forward-looking citizen, a tender devoted husband and a gentle loving father.

He left a heart-broken companion, two sons, Byron and Horace; three daughters, Mamie, Annie Lou and Josephine; four brothers and one sister to mourn his loss.

He was laid to rest at Plantersville cemetery, Brother Jones conducting the services.

May the companion, children, relatives and friends be comforted by the hopes of a future reunion some day.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Reynolds are visitors here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roberts motored to Montgomery on last Sunday.

Messrs. Red Wooley, A. Littlejohn, Buck Roberts and Kennith Danforth returned home Monday from a motor trip to Tuscaloosa.

Boils

THERE is a reason for everything that happens. Common-sense kills misery. Common-sense also stops boils! S. S. S. is the common-sense remedy for boils, because it is built on reason. Scientific authorities admit its power! S. S. S. builds blood-power, it builds red-blood-cells. That is what makes fighting-blood. Fighting-blood destroys impurities. It fights boils. It fights pimples! It fights skin eruptions! It always wins! Mr. V. D. Schaff, 557 15th street, Washington, D. C., writes:

"I tried for years to get relief from a bad case of boils, Everything failed until I took S. S. S. I am now absolutely cured, and it was S. S. S. that did it."

County Court and The Circuit Court

Receipts and Disbursements of Each For Past Six Months Compared.

We stated in last week's paper that we would publish some figures soon of the receipts and expenditures of the County Court of Chilton county and of the Circuit Court of Chilton. So for the information of those who might wish to know, we are publishing below a statement together with figures from the circuit clerk relative to the two courts above named, for the first six months of this year:

About Circuit Court

The Circuit Court of Chilton county has disposed of 26 cases, including dispositions of forfeitures on bonds and attachments for defaulting witnesses, since January the 1st, 1923.

The cost of operating the circuit court for the first six months of the year 1923, for the following items has been as follows:

Grand Jury	$ 342.40
Petit Jury, 2nd week	641.00
Bailiff's Hire	78.00
Total	$1061.40

The above items of expense are probably the greatest in the cricuit court but there are other items that are important and that amount to some bit, for instance there was one case disposed of that cost the county $171.35 to convict him. He was convicted and fined $1.00 and then sent to the jail 10 days for the fine.

There has been paid into the county treasury from the circuit court since January the 1st, 1923, $345.00.

About County Court

The County Court of Chilton county disposed of 118 cases during the first six months of the year 1923. The biggest expense to the county court has been as follows:

County Solicitor	$300.00
Probate Judge	150.00
Total	$450.00

As in the circuit court, there are smaller items of expense attached to the county court. When a cause is nol prossed or the defendant is discharged the cost of prosecution comes out of the fine and forfeiture fund.

There has been paid into the county treasury from the county court since January the 1st, 1923, $5594.22

The expenses of each of the courts as laid out above are not complete, but they embody the major part of the expenses of each. You see from the figures that the circuit court cost the county above what it paid in $716.40. On the other hand, the County Court paid into the county treasury above its running expenses $5,144.22. So one can readily see that the Circuit Court nothing like pays for itself, while the county court pays for itself and at the same time realizes a nice sum to be used to defray the general expenses of the county.

Now, just figure a minute and see what would be the expense of trying all of the small cases of the county by circuit court in comparison with the above figures. Besides depriving the county of the net returns it receives from the county court, this deficit in the running expenses of the circuit court would be doubled or probably thribled, since it would have to handle so many more cases.

If this bill to abolish the county court passes and all the cases are tried by circuit court, the financial condition of Chilton county will soon be beyond redemption.

FLORIDA CONVICT BOSS IS CONVICTED FOR LAD'S DEATH

Second Degree Murder Verdict is Returned Against Slayer of Youth.

Lake City, Fla., July 10.—T. W. Higginbotham, convict whipping boss, on trial here for the death of Martin Tabert, Saturday night was convicted of second degree murder after the jury had deliberated for one hour and 35 minutes. Judge A. M. McMullen adjourned court until Monday morning, when arguments for an appeal was made and sentenced passed.

Reports that the whipping boss was sentenced to 20 years were declared Saturday night to be absolutely false.

The epochal trial of Higginbotham came to a close at 5:30 when the case was turned over to the jury. Just before the body retired Judge M. A. McMullen instructed the jury to disregard all testimony which the state brought out relative to Higginbotham's reputation as a whipping boss.

State's Attorney James Kelley closed the arguments pleading that the jury partially remove the blot which has been "cast upon the name of Florida" by convicting the defendant, who, the state declares, is responsible for the death of the North Dakota youth.

Preceding him, L. E. Wade, chief council for the defense, declared a great slush fund had been raised in North Dakota to send Higginbotham to his death and then compared Attorney General G. Grimson, of that state, to Pontius Pilate, and accused him as being the head of a plot to crucify the defendant.

COMER BUYS SKYSCRAPER FROM ENSLEN INTERESTS

Acquires Jefferson County Bank Building; Age-Herald to Occupy Part of It.

Former Senator B. B. Comer has purchased the Jefferson County Bank Building, 27-story structure on Second Avenue, North, at Twenty-First Street, part of which will be occupied by The Birmingham Age-Herald, according to announcement by Frederick I. Thompson, president of the Age-Herald Publishing Company, Saturday night. In addition to the bank building, Mr. Comer also has purchased the Real Estate Building, a four-story structure adjoining the skyscraper on the north on Twenty-First Street, in order to provide more basement space for the publishing plant, Mr. Thompson said.

The skyscraper, which occupies ground 90x115 feet, will be rechristened The Age-Herald Building, and will be occupied within the next few months, the announcement said. The Real Estate Building occupies ground 40x100, but wil be used only for basement purposes.

The transaction for the bank building follows the obtaining of options on the structure by Eugene F. Enslen, son of Christian F. Enslen, late president of the old Jefferson County Bank under whose administration the building was erected, from the Jefferson Realty and Building Company. Mr. Enslen obtained the options for the Empire Securities Company, a closed corporation, and later transferred them to F. H. Lathrop, son-in-law of Mr. Comer. This transaction was on the basis of $62.50 a share, the original stock being $400,000.

Rev. W. P. Lowery of Thorsby was in to see us Saturday. We were sorry to learn that his wife has been very sick for several weeks. He said that he was thinking of bringing her to the Central Alabama Hospital.

BILL TO ABOLISH TAX COLLECTORS

Abolishment of County Collectors Affects all Counties of Less Than 35,000 Population.

The machinery bill of the revenue bill which it is expected will be introduced in the house Tuesday abolishes the office of tax collector in all counties of Alabama having a population of less than 35,000 people, effective October 1, 1927. This measure, if passed, will do away with our Tax Collector, as the population of Chilton county is around 25,000.

Members of the recess committee which had the preparation of the bill in charge were reticent concerning this feature. They would neither affirm or deny that the bill would carry a section proposing the abolition of the office of tax collector in all counties under 35,000 inhabitants after October 1, 1927. However, the information was secured from a reliable source.

The machinery bill also carries the provision that the term of office of all tax collectors and tax assessors of Alabama shall be extended two years from the expiration of their present terms. In all counties over 35,000 inhabitants, the office of tax collector is retained in the machinery bill.

Sheriffs Collect Taxes

The bill provides that the sheriffs of all counties in Alabama under 35,000 in population will take up the duties of the tax collector who is abolished after October 1, 1927. The sheriffs of these counties are given the same authority as the former collectors. The sheriffs of these counties will receive the same fees and commissions as the collectors formerly received.

It is said to be the theory of the author of the machinery bill that sheriffs of counties under 35,000 inhabitants do not receive a stipend which enables them to maintain themselves. Under the law sheriffs cannot succeed themselves so it was thought, it is said, that these men should draw the stipends which the collectors formerly drew.

It is also understood the bill carries a provision that the agents or assistants of the state tax commission may assist the tax assessor in the valuation of property. It is also understood that this bill carries a provision that any valuation fixed by the tax assessor may be approved by the state tax commission. It is provided, it is understood, that if a tax return has been approved by the state tax commission, the state would have no appeal from the assessment. Provision is made for an appeal by the tax payer.

It is also understood that the bill provides the court of county commissioners or boards of revenue, must sit with the tax assessor at the board's regular February term, and select a chairman. It is also provided, it is understood, that three men, when so sitting, shall receive $10 per day.

It is further understood that the bill provides the franchises or intangible property and assets of every corporation doing business in Alabama, shall be subject to taxation, whether organized or authorized by Alabama or any other state or any other government.

TUSKEGEE SITUATION SOON TO BE CLEARED

Hines Declares Town Will Be Satisfied With Settlement in Near Future.

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, who was here today on his way from Tuskegee, Ala., to Augusta, Ga., declared he believed the situation at Tuskegee growing out of the assignment of a negro personnel to the government hospital there, would be adjusted in a manner satisfactory to the citizens of that town.

Joe Sparks of Washington, chairman of the national rehabilitation committee of the American Legion, accompanied General Hines. Mr. Sparks declared the work of the veterans' bureau under General Hines is meeting with the approval of the American Legion and is working in harmony with that organization.

W. M. WYATT LEAVES FOR STATE CAPITOL

Representative W. M. Wyatt left for Montgomery Tuesday morning, so as to be present to represent Chilton county in the State legislature which reassembled Tuesday at noon. Mr. Wyatt has been away from the county for a few months, but returned to take care of his duties as representative.

The editor of The Union-Banner has made arrangements to have Mr. Wyatt furnish us the proceedings of the law makers as he did when he was in that body last winter. The first installment of his reports will be published next week. Don't fail to get the paper and read them if you want to get first-hand dope on the legislature.

Rev. Marion W. Mims was in Clanton Monday greeting his many friends. Mr. Mims was principal of the high school at Collinsville in DeKalb county last year, where he made a fine record as an educator of tact and ability.

105 STILLS SEIZED IN MONTH OF JUNE

State Law Enforcement Department Has Busy Month Running Down Moonshiners.

Montgomery, Ala., July 10.—One hundred and five stills, 56,000 gallons of beer and 902 gallons of whiskey, were destroyed by state law enforcement officers during the month of June. In addition, 2 Buick cars, a Ford and a Dodge were seized for confiscation. These facts are set out in the report of Walter K. McAdory, chief of the state law enforcement department, submitted to Governor Brandon Tuesday, covering the activities of the department for the month just closed.

Two hundred and fifty-eight arrests were made during the month as follows: Operating a still 22, having a still in possession 7, violating the prohibition laws 97, gaming 53, carrying concealed weapon 12, public drunkness 13, murder 4, disturbing public worship 2, vagrancy 6, conspiracy 13, assault with intent to murder 5, statutory offense 3, violating license law 12, reckless driving 5, larceny 3, abusive language 1.

In the disposition of June cases there were 127 convictions, 15 cases nolle prossed and six acquittals. In these cases one sentence of a year and a day imprisonment was imposed. In previous cases, there was one sentence of 10 years imprisonment and one for from 15 to 18 months. Cash fines assessed totalled $3,423.15, and in previous cases $6,339.83, making a total of $9,762.89. Expenses for the month, including salaries of $2,983.33 and other erpenses of $1,911.69 were $4,895.02; showing an excess of receipts of $4,867.96.

REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CALLED

A meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of Chilton county is called at the court house in Clanton on next Saturday, July 14th, 1923, at 2:00 o'clock, p.m. Every member of this committee is urged to present as there are some matters of grave importance to us as a people and as a party to be discussed and action taken upon. So let every member of the committee be present or have someone to represent you.

Yours very truly,
W. G. CULP, Chairman.

NEW TWO-STORY BUILDING

Masons began Monday morning laying the brick for the new building of Dr. J. P. Hayes between First and Second Avenues and facing Seventh Street, between the Exchange Hotel and Farmers Hardware Co. The new structure is to be two stories high and occupies a ground space of 67 feet front and 40 feet deep. The front of the building will be made of nice pressed brick, arranged so as to make an attractive appearance.

Mr. E. W. Danforth has charge of the work, assisted by Mr. J. B. Farley and Mr. Perry Mims. The lower floor will be divided into three sections, but we understand that all three sections will be used by J. Lee Smith for his wholesale grocery store. The second story, we understand will be made into offices.

LEGISLATURE CONVENES TUESDAY

On Tuesday, July 10, the second session of the Alabama Legislature began with many and varied problems facing the body. Men well informed on legislative affairs predict some bitter struggles over measures which will be submitted.

Some of the matters of major importance which will receive the attention of the legislators follow:

The millage tax of three mills to be used for educational purposes.

Revenue bill, including machinery and license.

Agricultural committee bill, with machinery.

The matter of taking convicts out of the mines.

Amendment to gasoline tax bill, giving entire proceeds to the counties of the state.

Educational bills recommended by the Agricultural committee.

The adoption of a state code.

Mobile Port enabling act providing for issuance of bonds.

Amendment to workmens compensation bill, providing more teeth.

Lee Long bill to abolish two salaries for office holders.

Abolition of State Highway commission, and substitution of three-man commission.

The matter of enforcing a statewide stock law.

Appropriation bills.

These matters are already in sight, and are certain to come up for disposition some time during this session. There are, no doubt, a great many measures not yet known of which will be introduced, and will add to the gaiety of the long summer session.

The legislature is supposed to be in session for fifty days in all. They stayed there only sixteen days in the winter, so the summer session will last at least thirty-four days and probably longer.

Our good friend, W. S. Clark of Mt. Creek was in to see us for a few minutes Monday.

HARDING IN ALASKA ON HIS FIRST VISIT THERE

President and First Lady Celebrate Memorable Wedding Anniversary.

Ketchikan, Alaska, July 10.—President and Mrs. Harding celebrated today one of the most memorable of their 32 wedding anniversaries, by arriving in Alaska, the first chief executive and first lady of the land ever to visit the great northern territory.

Landing at Meta Metlakaptla, site of the historic missionary effort of Father Duncan, known as the "Apostle of Alaska," the presidential party spent three hours, twice as long as had been intended. The President here heard at first hand one Alaskan problem—the natives' struggle for food against the increasing inroads of the salmon canning industry. Members of the presidential party visited the church erected as the result of Duncan's efforts and talked with the Indians.

Ketchikan accorded the President and his party a noisy welcome, fishing boats, tugs, motor boats and other craft meeting the Henderson at the entrance to the harbor and escorting the transport to the dock. Every boat was black with people.

The town, which has a population of 5,400, was decorated with flags and flowers in honor of the most distinguished visitor in its long history. The weather was perfect, clear and pleasantly cool.

The Henderson steamed into the bay at Metlakatla at 6 o'clock and President and Mrs. Harding stepped on Alaskan sail for the first time at 8:15 o'clock.

VIDA LUMBER CO. MOVING

The big saw mill of the Vida Lumber Company, which has been running at Lomax for the past seven years is now closed down, and arrangements are being made to have the machinery moved. The large tracts of timber which the company acquired on Coosa River have all been sawed up, and the mill will be moved sometime in the near future to some point on the M. & O., west of Maplesville.

On account of the closing of the big mill and the many hands leaving that locality, the postoffice at Lomax was discontinued on July 1. Those who have been getting mail there will be served now by Clanton rural route No. 8.

Most of the men who have been at work for the Vida company have been transferred to Leeds, where the company has recently purchased one of the fullest equipped lumber mills in the state. They also purchased a large tract of fine timber in that section.

Clanton Celebrates Independence Day

Baseball, Oratory, and Contests Are Enjoyed by Thousands Here Last Wednesday.

The Glorious Fourth, marking the one hundred and forty-seventh anniversary of the independence of the United States, was a just day of enjoyment, rest and diversion for Clanton and thousands from all over the county and adjacent territory. The crowds began to gather about 9:00 o'clock, and a parade of cars, wagons and all kinds of vehicles decked with red, white and blue, went through the streets at 9:30. The parade ended at the high school grounds where a big barbecue with all kinds of eats, refreshments and drinks were being prepared for the immense hungry, thirsty crowds.

During the day several different stunts and amusements were pulled off, including climbing a greasy pole for a five-dollar bill at the top, catching a wild greased pig, and various kinds of races. At 10 o'clock a representative of the United Farmers of America made a speech, pointing out the many assets of the new farmers' organization. There were two baseball games, one at 11 o'clock and the other at 3 o'clock. Both games were between Clanton and the Birmingham Railway, Light and Power team of Birmingham. The first game resulted in 0-0, and was one of the most interesting games ever played here. In the afternoon the Clanton team licked the visitors with a score of 11 to 4.

The visiting team did excellent playing in the forenoon, but they ate so much kid, mutton and barbecued beef at noon until they were too full and drowsy to do much playing in the last game. Of course, the Clanton boys are accustomed to having lots to eat every day in the year, so the barbecued meats agreed with them all right, and merely added to their vigor and vitality. Both these games were said to be the best Clanton has ever witnessed.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock Representative Lamar Jeffers made a very interesting and appropriate lecture on the reasons for celebrating the Fourth of July.

The weather conditions all during the day was all that the pleasure seekers could wish for. Clear and warm, so the Glorious Fourth went off with a bang and everybody happy. Thus we celebrated our 147th year of freedom and independence as a great nation. Nearly a century and a half ago our forefathers declared us independent, free and unfettered, and spilt their blood to make good the declaration. So, the occasion will long be remembered by those present, who were in number between four and five thousand.

SOCIETY AND PERSONALS

Mrs. R. E. Luckie, Editor

Mrs. Mullins Entertains for Mrs. Hayes.

One of the most elaborate social affairs of the summer was a bridge luncheon given on last Monday when Mrs. Ross Mullins entertained in compliments to Mrs. Wilbert Hayes. The home was a gay floral array, while the broad veranda hung with swing baskets and vases filled with bright garden flowers. Punch was served from a prettily appointed table presided over by Mrs. J. C. Jones. Six tables were arranged for the game of bridge. After a series of games the honoree was awarded a pretty cut glass Mayonaise bowl, Mrs. Guy Higgins a hand-made piece of lingerie as top score prize, and Miss Zeigler a bottle of toilet water as visitor's prize. At the close of the game a lovely plate luncheon was served.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson Hostess.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson was hostess on last Tuesday afternoon at a bridge party, entertaining the Wednesday Card Club and a group of friends. The house decorations were of a patriotic character and thhe national colors were emphasized throughout the party. The club prize was won by Mrs. John Browder, being a deck of cards, while the guest prize, a box of candy was presented to Mrs. Chas. Baumheim.

The hostess served a refreshing ice course at the close of the game. The club visitors were: Mrs. Sam Johnson, Mrs. Chas. Baumheim, Misses Lurline Harper and Miss Bettie Mullins. The club will meet next with Mrs. N. S. Johnson.

Visitor Honored.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Watts Moore was never livelier than on last Monday evening when a dinner party was given as a special courtesy to Mrs. Chas. Baumheim of Mobile.

The central table ornament was a beautiful bowl of yellow marigolds and an elaborate 3-course dinner was served. The invitation list embraced the honoree, Mr. and Mrs. Hance Allred, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburt Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Renfroe Mullins, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Kennedy, Misses Bettie Mullins, Kathleen Mullins, Maud Mullins, Alile Crumpton, Marzelle Mullins, Messrs. John and Harvey Deramus.

Picnic Given.

On last Friday afternoon Miss Marjorie Murphy entertained a few of the young folks at a picnic. GAS FROM FOOD PRESSES ON HEART

If food does not digest it turns into poisons which form gas. This often presses on heart and other organs causing a nervous, restless feeling. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused gas and pressure on heart. Adlerika expels poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowel. EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Upchurch Drug Co.

Acute.—Two students on a train were telling about their abilities to see and hear. The one says: "Do you see that barn over there on the horizon?"

"Yes."

"Can you see that fly walking around on the roof of that barn?"

'No,' but I can hear the shingles crack when he steps on them."—Awgwan.

THE CONVICT LEASE SYSTEM

Statewide Campaign Committee For Abolishment of Convict Contract System Points Out Facts, Figures and Possible Remedies.

The Statewide Campaign Committee for the abolition of the lease or contract system in handling convicts in Alabama, reports very excellent work going forward toward this end all over the state.

Each of the ten Congregational districts has been organized and has a Chairman and many of them report every town in their district well organized. Mass Meetings are being held at which the real facts about the system and the number of substitutes for it are discussed in full. This committee is furnishing speakers and sending literature through the entire State.

The fight for the abolition of the lease system is not a new one nor in any sense one against the present administration, in fact it was started many years ago. In 1915 it was possibly one of the biggest questions before that Legislative session; the people thought the fight was won for the last session of our legislature simply retarded it a year, hoping to perfect the fine program already started for the care of the convicts, so it was considered by the entire state that the fight was over and that this year was the end of the system forever in Alabama; the Governor in his message to this Legislature spoke of the system and stated it should go; it was therefore a great shock to all to have this system extended for four more years. Alabama is the only state with such a system.

Do the people realize that if 47 other States have abolished the system and have gone about re-adjusting their convict plans without financial bankruptcy, Alabama can do the same?

The committee having charge of this campaign is actuated by no sentimental, sympathy for the convict, but thinking people the world over today realize that for the welfare of the state it is necessary to reform a convict while in prison as far as is possible; to return him to society a better man that he may not be a social and financial burden to the state, and this end cannot possibly be accomplished under this system.

The main argument of the opposition to the abolition of the lease system is that the state must have the revenue; the new gasoline tax will take care of that, and the increase in value of taxable property. No sensible person can today believe that the State educational program is depended upon revenue derived from hiring out 1600 convicts; let the people remember that there are 2,000,000 people outside the penitentiary and it is absured to say that these are dependent upon a handful of convicts for their support.

Under the contract the State retains power of supervision. According to present regulations, this power is exercised by having one deputy warden in each mine every day. It is, of course, obvious that one representative of the state in a mine extending several miles underneath the ground cannot serve to protect from abuse several hundred convicts scattered throughout the mines and working individually or in small groups.

The blame for the system and, its desire results, lies not with the companies but with the citizens of the State, it is therefore their duty to see that it comes to an end.

The vital thing for every right thinking man and woman to do now and do it quickly and do it again, and again, if necessary, is to tell his, or her representative in the legislature that he or she demands the end of this iniquitous system in this State; this is the supreme duty of all who love the state right now.

DID YOU KNOW?

—That there in no real difference between "contract system" and "lease system." The effect on the convict is the same?

—That under the lease system, the chief end sought is revenue for the state and the contracting companies, and not the consumation of justice?

—That no sensible person believes that a convict shonld be "coddled" or allowed to avoid the penalty for his crime, but he should be worked and made to support himself and to earn all the revenue that is consistent with the real interest of the state, namely the reclamation of the convict so that upon his reelase he will no longer be a burden and menace to society?

—That Committees from two Legislatures, (1915 and 1919) as well as many organizations of citizens, after thorough investigation, have vigorously condemned the system?

—That if the law is left as at present, it means the indefinite continuation of the Lease System?

—That the people have the power to do away with this blot on our state's fair name? Demand of your representative in the Legislature the ending of this system at an early and definite date DURING THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION?

J. M. Mims of Collins Chapel, one of our commissioners, was here last Monday attending to business.

ALABAMA NEWS HAPPENINGS.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

Most of the wealthy citizens of Attalla whose property was advertised to sell to satisfy liens incurred by the construction of sewers 11 years ago paid up before the sale was held. The sale has been ordered by the United States Court under a decree issued some weeks ago. The city issued $25,000 in bonds to pay for the sewers and assessed the cost against abuting property. Owners refused to pay and after the bonds had matured suit was brought, the bondholders winning.

People in the New Market precinct, 17 miles northeast of Huntsville, have become much interested by the flow of oil reported to have been found in a well on the farm of Mrs. H. L. Jones. The well, which is 137 feet deep, was drilled seven years ago and until about two weeks ago has been flowing good water. Since that time oil has been flowing into the water and the water has been ruined. The oil resembles refined kerosene.

Some highly interesting comment concerning nut grass, the bane of garden and field in many sections of Alabama, is contained in an opinion of the supreme court in a suit where the purchaser of land sought to have the contract set aside for the reason that part of the land was found infested with nut grass, when it had been represented, he alleged, to be good land.

Declaring that the standard of Alabama's teachers today is 700 per cent higher than it was ten years ago, Dr. J. J. Doster, head of the University of Alabama summer school, recently pointed out to Tuscaloosa Rotarians that of the 1,400 students in the university's largest summer school, 95 per cent are working for degrees, and of these 90 per cent are teachers.

Dairymen supplying milk to Montgomery have won their fight for a revision o fthe proposed dairly ordinance. The city commission has announced that amendments will be adopted for the sections which require the delivery of milk to consumers which does not register above 60 degrees in heat, and which restrict the bacteria count on grade A milk to 50,000.

The health department at Huntsville has ordered an inspection of the whole city and outlying sections for the purpose of finding every place where it is possible for mosquitoes to breed. All such places will be eliminated and it will be the culmination of the most determined fight that has ever been made in Madison county against the mosquito.

Farmers of Madison county have had more than a week of good weather since the end of the rainy spell and every available person has been busy in the field. Great progress has been made in getting the cotton out of the grass. Farmers declare there is no labor shortage in Madison county.

It is announced from the office of the county superintendent of education of Lawrence county that 113 boys and girls in the county schools were awarded uniform county certificates indicating their promotion from the seventh grade to the eighth grade and that 105 sixth grade certificates were awarded in the county's schools.

Peter Frances, negro, who claims to have been born in Paris, France, and to have been with Marshal Petain in front of Verdun when the great soldier coined the shibboleth, "They Shall Not Pass," was arrested at Selma while engaged in a dispute with J. S. Sullivan over automobile settlements.

The J. W. Lee Timber Sales Company today completed the sale and transfer to the Nadawah Lumber Company of Wilcox county of 10,000,000 feet of growing pine timber, the cash price being $26,000.

Alabama's prison populations as of June 17 was 2,972, of whom 856 were white men and 1,979 colored men, 9 white women and 128 colored woman. Of the total number of prisoners, 71 are tuberculosis patients.

William T. Kerr, aged 67 years, of Albany, was killed when he fell three stories from the roof of the Albany High School building to a pile of iron piping below.

Open air union church services which have been held in Troy during the summer months for several years will begin the first Sunday night in July.

Miss Erleen Alexander of Brick was awarded an automobile in a popularity contest put on by a number of Sheffield merchants. She received 179,775,000 votes.

POOR ORIGINAL

3,958 MILES TO BE ALABAMA'S QUOTA OF FEDERAL ROADS

More Than 90 Per Cent Nation's Population Is Near Highways.

Washington, July 10.—Definite designations of roads to comprise the federal aid highway system have been made in 34 states by the department of agriculture. These roads and estimates in the 14 states where the roads have not yet been approved aggregate 187,406 miles, connecting nearly every city in the country having a population of 5,000 or more.

Indications are that more than 90 per cent of the nation's population will live within 10 miles of a federal-aid highway. In some states it will be as high as 98 per cent, according to department officials and in none will it drop below 65 per cent. Mileage by states where designations have been made include:

Estimated mileage in states where designations have not yet been approved follow:

Alabama 3,958, Arknasas 5,037, Georgia 5,662, Illinois 4,987, Louisiana 2,667, Massachusetts 1,290, Mississippi 3,290, North Dakota 4,855, Oklahoma 7,889, South Carolina 3,179, South Dakota 8,077, Tennessee 4,564, Texas 11,655 and Wisconsin 5,56.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS

Despite continued activities of the Ensley police department, no arrests have been made in connection with the abduction of J. W. Ross, 4332 Avenue F, Fairfield. Ross was found lying on the front lawn of H. C. Russell's home at 2744 Pike avenue, Ensley, in an unconscious condition, with several strands of wire around his body. He claimed he had been forced to take poison.

In a personal difficulty on board his locomotive engine, J. W. Green, former member of the legislature, in charge of a passenger train on the Southern, was painfully hurt by John Marshall, fireman, while standing at Uniontown en route for Selma. Mr. Green gave directions to his fireman which enraged him and Marshall is alleged to have attacked him with the result that the engineer was painfully, though not seriously injured about the head.

J. A. Bridgman of Riceton, was killed by a north bound Illinois Central passenger train near Corodva. Mr. Bridgman and wife were stopping on the track when they stepped off one track onto another to get ou of the way of a south bound freight train, stepping in front of the passenger train that dragged Mr. Bridgman 20 or 30 feet, killing him instantly.

Collection of taxes in Morgan county this year was the best in the county's history, according to J. H. Hill, tax collector, when he made final settlement with the state auditor. Mr. Hill said the percentage of taxes collected was greater than heretofore, that few insolvencies were recorded and that no lands were purchased by the state at tax sales.

Iron production in Alabama for the first six months of the year shows an increase over the same period in 1922 of 52 per cent. Production is at the rate of 2,883,000 tons a year compared with the record high of 2,950,000 tons in 1917, when every stack in the state was producing for needs of the World war.

A strange animal, said to be an Armadillo from South America, has been captured in the northern part of Huntsville by W. L. Watley, a merchant. How the animal came to be in that neighborhood is not known, but it has been seen several times during the last few weeks.

It is understood that an annual United Confederate Veterans' reunion will be held at Grimes Lake, in Goodwater, June 21, under the auspices of the U. D. C., and all veterans are cordially invited to attend. W. F. Fulton, Sr., is the commander of this camp.

MAPLESVILLE DOTS

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. R. M. Davis has to take another operation. He had just recovered from the other one and returned to Selma last week. We are hoping him a quick recovery.

We were all glad to see the rain Sunday for everything was in need of rain. You can almost see the crops growing. Most of the farmers of this community are laying by their crops, and all are hoping to reap a large harvest. But we think the boll weevil will help us gather the cotton.

We are all glad to see the last of July come, for all the fruits and watermelons ripen then.

The negro minstrel was a good success last Saturday night. The sum of $110 was received. We were glad to see the crowd present that was. Glad to have the crowd from Shoults, Mulberry and Stanton.

Miss Annie Spivey, assistant teacher of the Intermediate A. R. C. S. S. class entertained the members of that class at her home last Thursday night. Cream and cake was served; also games were played and everyone reported a grand time.

There was preaching by Bro. Edwards at the Baptist church Sunday a.m. and by Bro. Jones at the Methodist church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards are teaching a B. Y. P. U. training course here this week. Mr. Edwards is teaching the seniors and Mrs. Edwards the intermediates.

The revival meeting begins here at the Methodist church the 5th Sunday in July.

Next Sunday is our regular preaching day at the Baptist church by Bro. Edwards. Hope to have a large crowd.

We are very glad our B. Y. P. U. is improving. Miss Mollie Mae Thomas was in lead Sunday night, but on account of the rain all wasn't present. We hope to have a large crowd present next Sunday night.

Miss Ethel Mize of Montevallo spent the week-end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mize. Glad to have her in Sunday school.

We are glad to have in our Sunday school Mr. Worth Foshee,, who has been a Methodist. We are glad indeed to have him in our Baptist class.

Messrs. Julian Merchant and Elmer Harris, who have been working in Selma, spent the week-end with parents here.

Mr. Morris Foshee of Birmingham was visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foshee last week-end.

Mr. Howard Kemp of Birmingham spent the 4th with parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kemp.

Mr. Clarence Kemp went to Birmingham Monday a.m. to work.

Mr. Gordon Adams left here Sunday for Columbus, Miss., to take his position as telegraph operator.

Mr. Bert Coleman and wife spent last week-end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coleman, and attended the negro minstrel here Saturday night.

Misses Mattie McAfee, Ollie and Jocie Lawrence were visiting Miss Elva Seales last Saturday.

Misses Gladys and Alma Sexton, Ila Heagler and a few other smaller girls went to the B. Y. P. U. picnic Saturday at Stanton. We are sorry that more could not atetnd the picnic.

Miss Ione Pilgreene is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Nix.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Dennis motored to Clanton Sunday p.m. to see their father who has been ill for a long time.

Misses Daisy and Dot Latham and Fred Oden wee visitors here Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Blass were the guests of their parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Seales, also Mrs. P. C. Pulliam and children.

Mr. Paul McCrary motored to the home of his parents Sunday to spend the day.

Mr. Sam Seales spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. B. E. Christian.

POPLAR SPRINGS

Saturday and Sunday were our regular preaching days. A large crowd attended both days and heard two wonderful sermons.

Singing society met Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Our singing is improving nicely and we expect to do better each time.

We believe the spirit of God was with every one that attended church Sunday.

We are going to start a prayer meeting and Sunday school at this place. The prayer meeting will start next Sunday night, July 15th. Everybody is invited to come and help us to make our church better every day. Our Sunday school will start later on. We want all praying people to pray for this church, prayer for our Sunday school, prayer meeting and other troubles that are in our church. We want all Christians to co-operate with us and show the world that this is a church of God. Every one that can, come next Sunday night. The services will start about 7:30. Be promptly on time.

Our singing society meets every second Sunday morning at 9:30 and every fourth Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring the spirit of God with you.

THANKS FOR HELP

We wish to thank our friends for their kind help and tender sympathy rendered us during the recent illness and death of our little girl. We especially want to thank the Ku Klux Klan for their nice donation, which came in a time in which it was certainly needed. We shall be glad to return the favor if an opportunity is ever afforded.

MR. AND MRS. C. CULP.

LIBERTY HILL NEWS

Sunday was our regular preaching day. Rev. J. D. Hughes delivered a good sermon.

A truck and several car loads from this place went to Highland Sunday afternoon to sing. Il reported a nice time.

Miss Katie Lee Wells was the guest of Miss Sonora Culp Sunday.

Miss Lamurel Littlejohn was the guest of Miss Meadie Sansom Saturday night.

NON-RESIDENT NOTICE

The State of Alabama, Chilton County. Circuit Court. In Equity. June 19th, 1923. Edie Robinson, Complainant, vs. Annie Lee Robinson, Defendant.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register by the affidavit of Percy M. Pitts, that the Defendant is a non-resident, and that her place of residence and postoffice address is unknown, and that such address cannot be ascertained after reasonable effort; and, further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the Defendant is of the age of twenty-one years:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Register that publication be made in The Union-Banner, a newspaper published in the county of Chilton, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring her the said Annie Lee Robinson to plead, answer, or demur to the bill of complaint in this cause by the 20th day of July, 1923, or, in thirty days thereafter, a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office in Clanton, this 19th day of June, 1923.

A Splendid Medicine for the Stomach and Liver

"Chamberlain's Tablets for the stomach and liver are splendid. I never tire of telling my friends and neighbors of their qualities," writes Mrs. William Vollmer, Eastwood, N. Y. When bilious, constipated or troubled with indigestion, give them a trial. They will do you good.

We are sorry to report that Joe Mims is very ill with colitis. He has been sick now for over a week. We hope for him a speedy change for the better.

The Value of Land Abstracts

It is not safe to buy land or to lend money and accept land as security without first investigating the title of the land. Often there are unpaid mortgages, judgments, or other liens affecting the title, which an abstract would set out. Therefore, when buying land or lending money thereon, it is important that an abstract of title be furnished. A few dollars spent for an abstract is cheaper than going ahead and having a law suit a little later on.

We have been expecting to see a bill published by the Democrats of Clanton to abolish our county board of education. We wonder why it is that such action has not been taken?

What do you think of a political party bursting the buttons off its shirt trying to put a man in office who is not even a qualified voter? Is that what you call playing the clean game?

Read the comparison of the expenses of the circuit court and the county court of Chilton county for the first six months of this year. Then see whether or not it would be a wise step to abolish our county court.

A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to permit women to serve as jurors in the courts of our State. If this law is enacted, very likely there will be a change in the judiciary of Alabama, and we hope, for the better.

The first thing the House of Representatives did Tuesday when they reconvened was to renew the fight to have our county superintendents of education chosen by direct vote of the people. It looks now as though this movement will become a state-wide law, which will be a God's blessing to Alabama.

The question of abolishing our court of county commissioners and our county court is not a question of politics, because it will directly affect every tax payer in Chilton county, be he Democrat or Republican. For the sake of our county treasury, let every citizen of the county call a halt against these bills.

If you had one man working for you at three dollars a day and doing your work satisfactorily, would you think of firing him and hiring two men in his place with the agreement to pay them whatever price they said? This is exactly what a dozen Democrats of Clanton want to do to Chilton county by abolishing our court of county commissioners. Get hold of their bill and read it and see if you think it would be a wise law to enact.

KNOCK ANY HEAD

Even the advocates of government ownership of railroads do not assert that either economy or efficiency would be promoted by such a policy. They just naturally believe in knocking any head that appears above the mass, so when some man spends 40 or 50 years training himself to make a success of railroading, and get his property on a good paying basis, they want to "knock his block off." To them, success in business is a near crime.

DIRECT DEFIANCE

The bringing of liquor by foreign liners into our territorial waters was a direct defiance of United States laws, and said to be a test of American nerve rather than of the law itself. We had the necessary nerve and the liquor was confiscated, and now there is a threat that the offending vessels with their captains may be taken into custody if the violations continue. If the infant republic had the courage to stand for its rights in 1776 and 1812 it certainly will not fail in that respect now.

EAST SECOND AVENUE

Second Avenue between the court house and the cemetery has always been the most prominent residence street in Clanton. With the improvements now under way, together with those just completed, this avenue is going to put on a very commanding appearance. Mr. J. T. Rockett is now engaged in the building of two new bungalows on the old Chestnut property, and Mr. M. A. Gore has practically completed his new dwelling on the corner of Second and Fourth. Both Mr. Rockett and Mr. Gore are going to build cement sidewalks on all their property on Second Avenue, which will materially add to the appearance and utility of the street.

We believe that a move should be put on by the property owners on both sides of this street to have all the sidewalks from the court house to the cemetery paved. This being the most important and the most used street in town, we see no reason why the town council should not take up the matter and induce all the property owners to make this improvement to their property. The property owners should not object since it would so materially increase the value of their property. The enhancement of the property would be much more than the cost of the work.

EMBASSY EXPENSES

The salary of the American Ambassador to England is $17,500. The salary of the British Ambassador to the United States is about $80,000, counting numerous perquisites for entertainment and other purposes. The cost of maintaining the British Embassy in Washington is far less than the cost of keeping up the American Embassy in London. Ambassador's Harvey's expense account is probably several times his salary. Fortunately for American prestige in foreign capitals, a bill has been pending in Congress for several years that proposes to reorganize diplomatic salaries in accordance with the dignity of the posts. The measure is gaining support as members acquaint themselves with the true conditions, and gives promise of passage at the next session.

FOREIGN FOOD INCREASE

After a careful survey of the situation the Department of Agriculture finds that the food production of foreign countries will be considerably larger for 1923 than it was last year, as a consequence of which American exports of foodstuffs are apt to be curtailed. The department says there will be a marked gain in the production of wheat in Spain, Bulgaria, Poland, India, Japan, Egypt, Algeria, and Morocco. Figures at hand do not mention five of these countries specifically, so it is difficult to say just what the volume of wheat export to them has been. We have been exporting about 8,000,000 bushels annually to Japan during the past two years.

Of the two groups, "animals and animal products, except wool and hair," and "vegetable food products, oil seeds, expressed oils, and beverages," we exported during the 10 months ended April 1922 about $1,045,000,000, and for the 10 months ended April 1923, $925,000,000 worth. The decrease has been due mainly to larger consumption of such articles in the United States, while agricultural recovery in foreign countries during 1922 has no doubt been some factor in lessening the demands for American foodstuffs. However, exports of these classes of goods are far greater than they were prior to the war.

MR. CLAY BACK IN CLANTON

We are glad to see Mr. Harry Clay, the canning factory man, back in Clanton. Mr. Clay won a host of friends in this county while he was here establishing the organization of the United Farmers canning factory. He is here now kindly inspecting the progress of the building and factory, also rounding up some other phases of the organization. We learn that he will be here only a few days.

THE STREET AND ALLEY BILL

The Town Council is advertising a bill to be introduced before the legislature to empower the town council with authority to "vacate, annul or narrow any street, alley, avenue or other public place in said town, and to convey such portion of any avenue, street, alley or other public place so vacated, annulled or narrowed to the adjacent landowners."

"Now, there may be some good results to be attained through a law of this kind, but it looks to us like a risky piece of legislation. Under this bill, if the town council deemed fit, they could cause some property owners a lot of trouble and ill convenience. It seems to us that just exactly the opposite to what this bill proclaims is what the streets and alleys of Clanton need. There are cases already where buildings are partly in the street and some alleys are completely fenced in and closed to traffic. Well, this should not be the case. We believe the town should retain the right which it already has to force any streets and alleys opened and cleared up where there is any necessity for same.

This bill looks to us like a scheme to benefit just a few property owners and at the same time endanger the interest of others.

NOT A MILITARY GOVERNMENT

Nine out of ten people in the United States will heartily endorse the view expressed by Secretary of War Weeks that the military branch of the government should not be used for the enforcement of the prohibition law. A few thouhtless people—people who do not look ahead—may say that it would be a matter of economy to use the officers and men of the army and navy to enforce laws in time of peace. Undoubtedly some money might be saved in that manner, but the saving of money would be at the sacrifice of a great and highly important principle. Secretary Weeks put the matter briefly but comprehensively when he said:

"Subordination of the military to the civil is fundamental in our government. I would not desire it altered in the least respect. I am opposed to use of the army for enforcement of civil laws unless all civil police power shall have been exhausted and there results that state of 'insurrection and rebellion' which Federal law provides shall alone justify use of troops in affording protection guaranteed state governments by the Constitution."

If Mr. Weeks were governed by inordinate ambition, he might easily subscribe to the view that it is desirable to use the army in time of peace to enforce civil laws. Such a use of the army would make the Secretary of War a very powerful figure in our national life. Whatever his legal status he would be, under such circumstances, almost a dictator. Using the army to enforce the liquor laws would be but the stepping stone to use of the army for the enforcement of other laws, and, with an organized force of law-enforcers subject to his every order, a Secretary of War would be little less powerful than the President himself. His political influence would be enormous.

But Mr. Weeks is influenced by patriotism and far-seeing statesmanship—not by selfish ambition. He fully perceives the ultimate serious consequences of subordination of the civil to the military authority, and he wants none of it. He would not even be a silent recipient of the power that was proposed to be placed in his hands; he warns the country of the consequences that would inevitably follow in the course of time.

The American colonists had some distasteful experience with use of British troops to enforce laws among them, and, when they framed the constitution for the Republic, they took care to define the place of the military forces in the system of government. They gave Congress power to raise and support armies, but, lest the army gain ascendancy, they restricted the authority Congress might grant by providing that no appropriation of money for the support of the army shall be for a longer term than two years. There was expressly reserved to the states the appointment of the officers and the training of the militia, thus guarding against centralized Federal military power in time of peace. No soldier could be quartered in any house in time of peace without the consent of the owner and there could be no search or seizure without warrant issued upon probable cause set forth in affidavit specifying the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized.

These are some of the provisions of our constitution to which Secretary Weeks alluded when he said that "subordination of the military to the civil is fundamental in our government." It is highly gratifying to read his assertion that he would not have this altered "in the least respect." Individual liberty and the rights of the people under our system of representative popular government are entirely safe under an administration made up of men who entertain such ideas of the fundamentals.

FIGHT RENEWED FOR POPULAR ELECTION OF SCHOOL LEADERS

Long Proposes Appeal From Decision to Refer Bill to Education Committee.

Fire-works were imminent for a moment during the opening session of the house Tuesday afternoon, when Representative J. Lee Long of Butler introduced a local bill providing for the election of county superintendents of education by the people, and remonstrated with Speaker Merrill who first referred it to the committee on education.

At Mr. Long's insistence, the speaker finally referred the bill to the committee on local legislation and thereby averted the pyrotechnics which, subsequent remarks by the measurer's sponsor indicated, would have ensued. Mr. Long said that it was his intention to appeal from the chair had the speaker insisted on referring the bill to the committee on education.

The bill for changing the method of selecting superintendents of education in Butler county was one of 23 introduced at the first session of legislature which convened at noon Saturday at the fal lof Speaker Merrill's gavel. Most of these measures had local applications.

Lasts Short Time

The initial session of the house of representatives lasted from noon until 1:10 o'clock when it was adjourned on motion of Representative Allen. A resolution previously adopted by the house and concurred in by the senate provided that with the Tuesday evening adjournment the legislature should be recessed until 1 o'clock Friday morning.

This recess, it was pointed out by the author of the resolution, was deemed necessary for various committees to transact their affairs.

Governor Brandon's message to the house was brief and to the effect that no suggestions will be offered until some provision is made for the state's revenue during the ensuing quadrenium. It was read shortly after the call of counties for the introduction of bills.

Representative Long was sponsor for a bill whose caption read: "To prohibit the court of county commissioners of Butler county, Alabama, from issuing the bonds of Butler county as authorized by an election held July 2, 1910, and as authorized by an election held May 10, 1918."

The caption of Mr. Long's bill the introduction of which all but resulted in a fight on the floor read: "To provide for the election of a county superintendent of education for Butler county, Alabama; to fix his term of office, to prescribe his salary and the manner of payment; to define his qualifications, powers and duties; to provide for a special election to be held to elect such county superintendent under this act and to provide for the election of his sucessor in office." Both this and the other bill was referred to the committee on local legislation.

Start Revenue Bill

The machinery section of the revenue bill was introduced by Representative Tunstall and was promptly referred to the committee on ways, means, and appropriations. The features of this bill were printed in the Advertiser Tuesday morning.

Barber Shop Bill

Representative Sessions brought a ripple of merriment from the house when he introduced (by request) a bill to regulate barber shops in Alabama with a view to public health and safety. The bill as introduced by Mr. Sessions provides for the establishment of another board which would be known as the board of barber examiners. This bill was referred to the committee on public health.

The motion to adjourn came when Representative Allen offered a resolution on the death of the late Representative P. B. Glass of Marengo county. The motion carried in respect to the dead member. Earlier, Henry McDaniel, successor to Mr. Glass, was sworn into office by Speaker Merrill.

The house unanimously concurred in the senate's resolution protesting negro executives in the government hospital at Tuskegee, on motion of Representative Lee Long.—Montgomery Advertiser.

SHERIFFS FORCE WORKING

Sheriff Littlejohn tells us to report that just because they are not getting anybody with whiskey these days is no fault of his and the deputies, because they are working hard every day. Tom says that he finds plenty of places where they have been, but they have moved out. It is hoped that conditions along this line are getting better in our county, and that most of those who have been violating the prohibition laws have decided to reform.

HIS CONSCIENCE TROUBLED HIM

"I know I have done wrong, please forgive me for not doing my duty and writing you before. I am thankful to God for the good remedy He gave you, and would not take $500 for the good the first dose gave me. I have been bothered for many years with gas in my stomach and indigestion, but since taking Mayr's Wonderful Remedy two years ago, have had no such trouble. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Alred Drug Co.

Inactive Liver

"I have had trouble with an inactive liver," wrote Mrs. S. Nichols, of 4412 Spencer St., Houston, Texas. "When I would get constipated, I would feel a light, dizzy feeling in my head. To get up in the morning with a lightness in the head and a trembly feeling is often a sign that the stomach is out of order. For this I took Thedford's Black-Draught, and without a doubt can say I have never found its equal in any liver medicine. It not only cleans the liver, but leaves you in such a good condition. I have used it a long time, when food does not seem to set well, or the stomach is a little sour."

Child-birth

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

No matter how hard your family is to cook for, every one will agree that the biscuits you make with Gilster's Best flour are the best they ever tasted. Light, delicate and delicious—there's a flavor and quality about biscuits made with Gilster's Best that you can't get with any other flour.

And no wonder. Gilster's Best is a quality flour, made for those who appreciate the best in things to eat. Use less shortening with Gilster's Best.

If you perfer a self-rising flour—Gilster's Featherlite or Gilster's Mother's Joy.

"A Dead Shot"

What Is Weevilnip?

It is a liquid compound of molasses, poisons, vegetable and mineral extracts and flavors designed to attract the boll weevils and kill them.

Apply to cotton plant with a hand mop made of a rag and stick. Costs less than $5.00 an acre and insures full crop.

WEEVILNIP is no longer a new remedy. It is being successfully used for the third year.

Augusta, Ga., June 25, 1923.

Weevilnip Co.,
Macon, Ga.

Dear Sirs:

In reply to your letter of June 19th, we wish to state that we have used WEEVILNIP for two years, this being our second season and find where it is used according to instructions, it is needless to say it will kill the weevil, and more than repay the farmer who uses it.

Those to whom we have sold WEEVILNIP have in every instance come back for more, and in each case are more than pleased with the results they have obtained stating that since using it they have been unable to find a single weevil.

It is a hard matter to get some to poison with any kind of poison, especially the negro. We have prevailed on several to use WEEVILNIP, and they are getting results, one of our negro customers told us the other day that he had plenty of weevils, but since using the poison we sold him he hasn't been able to find one.

We have made no special test, but we are expecting to hear from one or two who are making a test along with the Hill's Mixture.

We were talking to a gentleman this morning and during the course of our conversation he incidentally mentioned a farmer who had bought two barrels of WEEVILNIP from us, he said this party told him that since using the poison he had offered his children five cents for every weevil they could find, but none had been found, this being the twelfth day since he had poisoned.

He is now making his second application and he expresses hmiself as being highly pleased, this is the first cotton he has planted in two years because of the weevil.

We have only a few barrels left out of a car we ordered this season, and we expect to have to order more before the season is out, we have handled more than double the amount we did during the past season.

Yours truly,
SMITH & CRANE,
Cotton Factors.

FAMILY REUNION

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams all gathered at the home of their parents on the Fourth of July and with a large crowd of other relatives, neighbors and friends, had a glorious good time. At 11 o'clock we had a sermon by old Brother Honeycutt, followed by old Brother Jones, after which a bountiful dinner was spread out in the beautiful grove, in one corner of the yard, and was enjoyed by all present.

In the afternoon we had the pleasure of listening to some of the old songs of long ago, sung by old Bro. Honeycutt, which were very interesting to all and caused us to think of the time when we can, if we are only faithful, meet in the great reunion above, where our pleasures will not be mored by the thought of having to be separated, as it was there when we began to say good bye and God bless you, and keep you till we meet again; and we hope and pray that we may all be spared to meet again in another reunion some time in the near future.

Those of the immediate family attending were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams and family of Gadsden; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Long and family of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. and H. B. Williams and family of Monmouth; Mr. R. J. Williams of Bessemer; Mrs. Ruth Matthews, Jemison, R. 3; Mrs. Minnie Northcutt of Jemison, R. 2; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Glasscock of Jemison, and Miss Golda Williams who is yet at home still singing Home Sweet Home.

DR. GRAGG IN NEW ORLEANS

Dr. V. J. Gragg left the latter part of last week for New Orleans, where he went to be examined by a noted physician of that city. Dr. Gragg thought that probably he would have to have an operation performed, but we learned recently that there was nothing of such a serious nature the matter with him, and that he would return home after a few days of medical treatment.

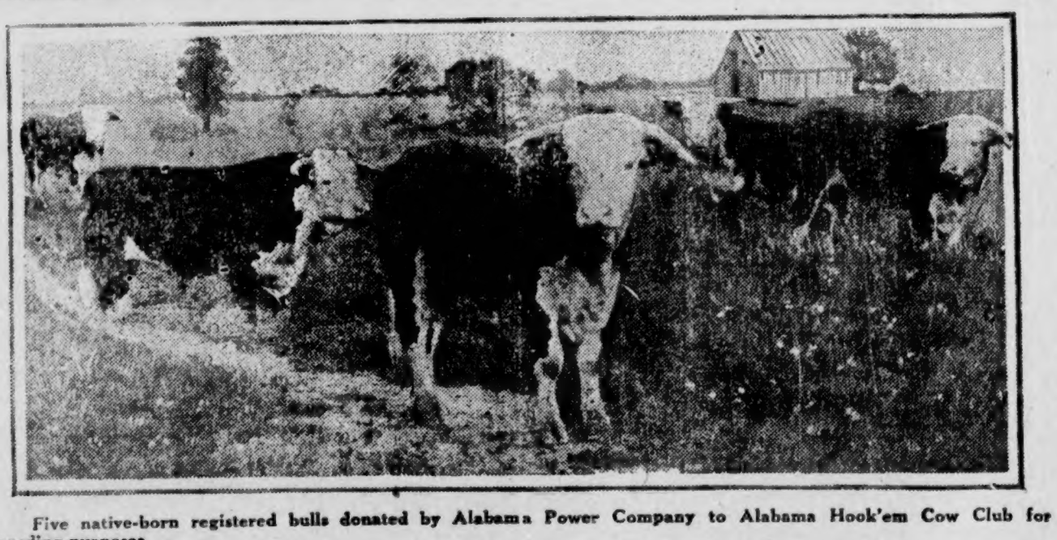
Power Company Donates Thoroughbred Hereford Bulls



Five native-born registered bulls donated by Alabama Power Company to Alabama Hook'em Cow Club for breeding purposes.

Montogmery, Ala., June 30.—(Special.)—The Alabama Hook'em Cow Club, a statewide organization fostering and promoting the production of more and better beef cattle and more profitable farming in Alabama, has received from the Alabama Power Company five native-born, registered, thoroughbred Hereford bulls to be used by the Club for breeding purposes.

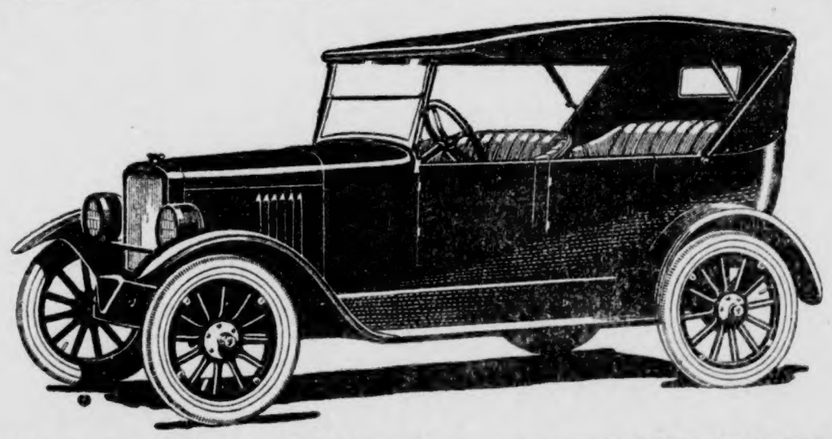
This is the first instance in the history of electrical development, so far as available records are concerned, where a hydro power corporation stepped from its role of a producer of electric energy to assist the producers of livestock. Prompting the rather unusual and generous effort on the part of the Alabama Power Company was a desire to make available an ample supply of home-produced food for industrial workers. The Power Company is conducting a systematic and intensive campaign for new industries and has had assurances that its efforts will not be in vain. President Martin, of the Power Company, stated that it would be both unwise, uneconomical and inconsistent to invite a host of industrial workers to come into the state and then go outside the state for their food.

"Alabama must feed herself," he declared. "It must prepare now to feed those who eventually will be attracted here by the matchless natural resources Alabama offers those who will come. Our future prosperity most certainly will be measured by the extent to which we develop our resources and feed our workers."

The Hook'em Cow Club is an organization composed of one hundred and fifty of the State's leading business men and agriculturists. Its headquarters are in Montgomery, but its activities extend into every county in the state. It proposes to use the Hereford bulls in an effort to encourage the production of this particular breed of cattle in every Alabama County, believing it to be the best suited to Alabama climate and pasturage. The service of the bulls will be tendered every responsible cattleman, the only requirement being that the bulls be protected in every possible way, both while in service and in transit.

Notice has been sent to the leading cattlemen and farmers in each county, advising them of the fact that the bulls are now available and can be secured gratis by addressing the Alabama Hook'em Cow Club, Montgomery, Alabama.

IT'S A GRAY—THE WORLD'S ECONOMY CAR



GRAY MAKES ANOTHER WORLD'S RECORD

The Gray Motor Company, in eleven months, has established a national dealer organization that places it among the leaders in national distribution.
It is exporting cars to about 30 different countries and adding to the number constantly.
Additions to the plant have been made regularly to take care of increased demand.
Plan to construct assembling plants in the South, East, West and Southwest.
The company is one of the strongest backed financially in the industry.
Account of the great demand for Gray cars, we have been experiencing a great shortage of these cars.
We will have a carload in this week, so you will be able to have your new Gray for the 4th. Let us give you a demonstration today.

A Resume of the More Important Events of Interest Condensed To An Epitomized Form.

Ernest Smith, young white man residing in the western part of Coosa county, was shot a few mornings ago as he was seeing, it is said, if there were any fish in a fish trap n Hatchet Creek. It appears that a man named McGrady had a fish trap on the creek, and moving away, had given several people, among them Smith, permission to take the fish from the trap. Smith went early on the morning of the shooting and claims he saw two or three people on the opposite bank whom he recognized, and when he went to the trap was shot from that side of the creek.

Mrs. Thomas M. Owen, director of the department of archives and history, at the request of Governor Brandon, is sending out a questionnaire to the camps of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans and the United Daughters of the Confederacy chapters asking them to make recommendations as to the Confederate heroes who are to be commemorated on the Stone Mountain memorial, near Atlanta. Governor Brandon is chairman of the memorial committee in Alabama, and the state will have five representatives on the perpetual monument to the heroes of the sixties.

A long cherished dream of Hartselle people was brought to realization when the city council voted to give a franchise to John B. Weakley, of Birmingham, to put in a modern water supply system for that city. Mr. Gibson, a member of the council, stated that according to terms of the agreement made with Mr. Weakley work is to begin on the new enterprise within 60 or 90 days. A complete sewer system is to be installed also and it is stated that the council will insist on prompt connection of all business houses and residences with the sewer.

Rejected as unnecessary, proposals for improvement of the Tombigbee River and for a canal to connect the Tombigbee and Tennessee rivers were doomed by an unfavorable report to the War Department by investigating engineers, Earl North, district engineer, with headquarters at Mobile. It is pointed out in the announcement that all interested parties have the right of appeal to the board of engineers for rivers and harbors, a permanent body sitting at Wasihngton, D. C.

The Montgomery circuit court will be called upon to say whether a five-month-old child found on the door steps of the home of Misses Anna and Kate Crosland one cold night in February shall remain in the control of its foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Davis, or be returned to those who claim to be its parents. Notice of appeal from the decision of the juvenile court directing the return of the child to its real parents was granted.

Butler county, at a recent meeting of the Butler county commissioners, purchased a second 10-ton caterpillar tractor, with necessary extra equipment to make a second road building unit. Several months ago the county bought one of these tractors. Officials are enthused over the road building possibilities of the machines, and according to some of them, Butler county will soon rank among the first in good roads in the state.

In response to the many rumors recently current about a change in ownership of the Loveman, Joseph & Loeb department store of Birmingham, members of the firm made a formal statement on the subject, in which it was pointed out that a consolidation of several department stores in the south was in contemplation and that Loveman, Joseph & Loeb was slated to be in this consolidation.

THE OLD HOT WELL

(By Uncle Dock Wells)

Now Mr. Editor, according to request,
This week I will try to do my best.

As most old people in Clanton know,
There was a so-called hot well here
Some forty years ago.

It caused a great deal of excitement,
And a whole heap of money
On it was spent,

One man bought a lot,
And a big hotel was built
To accommodate the sick people
Who drank water from the well.

There were men here for half price
Could have bought a lot;
Their desire was to double their money,
Let the well be cold or hot.

Their whole intention was
A fortune from the old hot well.
But I now cite you to the rich man
Who lifted up his eyes in hell.

Again I refer you to the rich young man
Who said he had kept all the Lord's commands.
The Lord said go sell all thou hast
And give it to the poor. He went off sorrowful
And has never been heard of any more.

Remember the rich man who rebuilt his farms,
And has much goods in store.
It is an evident fact he didn't
Give any to the poor.

God said, thou fool, this night thy soul
Shall be required of thee, and then
What shall these goods be?

So be careful dear friends;
Don't worship the hot well,
And wake up to accompany
That rich man in hell.

If the hot well is of God,
It forever will stand—
Never will be changed by the powers of man.
But if naught, it will soon wind up the ball,
Away goes your fortune, hot well and all.

I guess the readers of the Banner
Will get sick of my rhymes,
But I only wanted to keep you
In remembrance of olden times.

MR. JACK HARRIS CELEBRATES HIS NINETY-FIRST BIRTHDAY

On Saturday, July 7th, Mr. Jack Harris of West Chilton, celebrated his 91st birthday. He invited just his near neighbors, Mr. Sheby Barnes' family, Mr. Batton and wife and son, Mr. C. C. Gay's family, Dr. Martin, Mr. Pierson, Mr. Hogg and Mr. John Morrow and Mr. Frank Harris and family. Mr. Hogg and Mr. Morrow were his soldier friends during the Civil War of the Sixties. These with his eldest daughter, Mrs. Chapman of Birmingham, her husband and two daughters, and Mrs. Teal of Oxford, his youngest daughter. Her husband was kept at home as one of the children had whooping cough.

About 9 o'clock the guests began to gather, and Mr. Harris was sitting out in the big hall ready to talk to all who came, carrying a big smile of happiness all the day long.

Just before the timid clock placed its hands over 12, two long tables were placed out in a big hall with white table linen and a lovely hand-embroidered doily with vase of beautiful flowers were placed in center of each table. Plates were placed around that all could be seated to eat. Just listen to what a dinner was prepared: Kid, chciken, ham, potatoes, soup, butter beans, bread, pickles, jelly, pies, custards, cakes, ice tea, coffee and cream. These dishes were served in all different ways. When the thirty-two had eaten, there were plenty left for double the number.

Now let me mention two special cakes made by his daughters, Matilda and Mary. Both cakes were iced in white icing. Matilda's cake looked like a marble slab as it was rectangle in shape with "91, Jack Harris" wrote on it with the icing, and upon it were placed candy and fifty candles which represented his single life. Mary's cake was also trimmed with candy and forty-one candles which represented his married life.

In the afternoon Mrs. Chapman played the piano, her daughter, Sara Claud the violin and Mrs. Teal the saxaphone, and the crowd enjoyed the music, and last, but not least, Mr. Harris son's wife played the accordion, and when she began playing an old party tune, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Frank Harris, Mr. Shelby Barnes and Mr. Johnnie Morrow stepped out in the floor, and showed the young folks how the old folks use to step about on the floor. Their ages run from 40 to 80. They could not persuade Mr. and Mrs. Harris to get out there with them.

Mr. Harris' son and wife, who lives with him, is due great praise for preparing such a grand celebration for their father's birthday.

The crowd left late in the afternoon feeling good over spending such a pleasant day.

TUSKEGEE POLICY STILL UNCHANGED

Washington, July 10.—The future policy of the Veterans' Bureau in regard to the operation of the Tuskegee, Ala., Veterans' Hospital with negro personnel rests on a determination of whether the good faith of the federal government is involved through promises made to the white committee by the Treasury Department, Director Hines said Monday on returning from a personal inspection at Tuskegee.

For the present, Director Hines said, the hospital will be conducted with the present staff of white doctors and negro nurses, but the process of selecting negro physicians ready to put them in when a definite policy is decided, will continue.

There seems no doubt, Mr. Hines said, that the white committee made promises when land was donated for the institution that it would be under the control of "white personnel." Recognizing that possibly the white committee exceeded its powers in making such promises the Veterans' Bureau head will move cautiously and seek to determine just what was meant.

The Tuskegee Institute, he pointed out, is manned entirely by negro personnel, but has a board of trustees composed of 16 whites and four blacks. It may be that a similar form of control of the bureau hospital was contemplated. At any rate, Mr. Hines said the citizens' committee at Tuskegee seems to have promises in writing, which, it was said, if disregarded, might involve the government's good faith.

Pending conferences with a committee of citizens arranged on his visit to Tuskegee, Director Hines said he would stand pat and make no appointments beyond those already made, either of white or negro and as late as Monday refused to sanction the appointment of some white personnel recommended by the commanding officer, a white physician.

Director Hines set at rest reports that in settling the controversy, he might make the situation a white hospital and move the negroes North. This, he said, he has no intention of doing. The negroes will remain at Tuskegee, he said.

NEGRO STAFF URGED

Hines is Asked to Say That Promise Will Be Kept.

New York, July 10.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Monday telegraphed Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau in Washington, asking for a public statement that the government would not recede from its promise that the negro veterans' hospital at Tuskegee be staffed by negro doctors and nurses.

LAWYEY NEWS

(Received too late for last week).

We are glad to know that the little sons of Mrs. T. B. Collins and Mrs. V. R. Kelley did not eat any glass while rambling in Mrs. Hicks pantry. I think Thomas and Shirley got a plenty of pickles for awhile.

Mr. P. B. Holley left Saturday for Florida where he will work for awhile.

Miss Ruth Lawley entertained a few young people at her home Saturday night. They all played some games and later cream was served. All reported a nice time.

Mrs. E. J. Lawrence spent the day at Mrs. Clyde McGee's Friday.

Mr. Morgan Holley and Mr. Jack Collins motored over to Shoults Sunday and spent the day.

Mrs. P. B. Holley and her daughter, Lula spent the day with Mrs. V. R. Holley Friday.

PERSONALS

Big Tom Jones of Tuskegee dropped in to see us one day last week. Tom, like his brother George, is one of the veteran log haulers and saw mill men of this country. Tom has been near Tuskegee for about three years. Tom talks encouraging about the crops here in Chilton county. He says they are much better than they are in Macon.

Mr. Jerome Vinson, who has been timber foreman for the Vida Lumber company for the past seventeen years, has given up that job since the company has ceased operations in this vicinity. Mr. Vinson will now put his entire time on his bakery business in Clanton.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. O. B. Thompson has gone to Asheville, N. C., on account of bad health. Burnie is the son of Mr. J. Arthur Thompson of Concord, and has been working in Birmingham for the past three or four years.

Dr. S. E. Johnson of the U. S. Navy, who has been stationed at Raleigh, N. C., was in Clanton the week-end. Dr. Sam is being transferred from Raleigh, and will be stationed somewhere in California.

Mr. Newton Aldridge of Montgomery spent the week-end here with his mother. Newton is still working with the Western Union, and says he likes his work fine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burnett and daughter, Fannie Mae, were in Clanton last Friday attending commissioners court, in regard to the cattle dipping question.

Mr. James W. Lowe, who is with the DeKalb Republican at Fort Payne, Ala., came down Wednesday morning to spend the Fourth at home. He remained over till Sunday.

S.S.S. keeps away Pimples

THERE are thousands of women who wonder why their complexions do not improve in spite of all the face treatments they use. They should not continue to wonder. Eruptions come from blood impurities and a lack of rich blood-cells. S.S.S. is acknowledged to be one of the most powerful, rapid and effective blood cleansers known. S.S.S. builds new blood-cells. This is why S. S. S. routs out of your system the impurities which cause boils, pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetter, rash. S. S. S. is a remarkable flesh-builder. That's why underweight people can quickly build up their lost flesh, get back their normal weight, pink, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and "pep."

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Without A Railroad Near by Your Property Isn't Worth Much

Mighty few people realize how important the railroads are. They do not realize that the states or communities with no railroads have few people. In South America, where there are few railroads, there are few people, and you can buy the finest and most fertile land in the world for a dollar or two an acre. Railroads bring in people, and more people make land values go up.

The coming of a railroad into a community has always meant prosperity, growth of population and increased property values.

Do not prevent the railroads from rendering good service by crippling them with unjust criticism and too much regulation.

POOR ORIGINAL

THE PUBLIC AND ALABAMA POWER COMPANY

Coosa Valley Organizes

Captain W. P. Lay

FOR YEARS THE PEOPLE of the Coosa River Valley had worked singly and in groups to have the Government improve the Coosa for navigation, and navigation only. Only meager success had attended their efforts. From 1890 to 1899, despite their labors, nothing was accomplished.

THE COOSA VALLEY then decided to organize. Citizens from Rome, Georgia, to Montgomery met in convention at Gadsden on September 27, 1899, and the Coosa River Improvement Association came into being. Capt. W. P. Lay of Gadsden was elected President, which post he has since held.

THIS CONVENTION addressed a memorial to Congress asking

"that the improvement of the Coosa River in Alabama and Georgia now progressing under the auspices of the Government, be placed on the continuous contract plan, and that $1,000,000 per annum be appropriated to be used in opening the stream to through navigation to the Gulf of Mexico."

THE MEMORIAL ALSO URGED THAT CONSIDERATION BE GIVEN THE COOSA'S WATER POWERS AND THE POSSIBILITIES OF THEIR DEVELOPMENT.

AS A RESULT the Government once more consented to consider the Price plan for opening the Coosa to navigation over the rapids. But the U. S. Engineers stationed in Alabama reported that —the Price plan was inadequate;

—a satisfactory project would entail an expenditure of $20,000,000 to $25,000,000;
—low dams for navigation alone prevented development of the Coosa's water power;
—and for these and other reasons the Coosa was not worthy of improvement beyond completion of Lock 4 and construction of Lock 5.

BUILD POWER DAMS TO GET NAVIGATION

WHEN THIS EFFORT FAILED, Capt. Lay appealed to former Senator Theodore E. Burton, then a member of the House of Representatives, and Chairman of its Rivers and Harbors Committee. Capt. Lay urged as a means of improving navigation that high dams be constructed for development of the Coosa's valuable water powers. Senator Burton then said that if the water powers on the Coosa were as valuable as he claimed, Capt. Lay should get private capital to build them, thereby lightening the burden on the Government.

THE COOSA RIVER IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION then changed its course of action.

THE CAVANAUGH PLAN

AT CAPT. LAY'S REQUEST, the late Congressman John L. Burnett secured a resurvey of the Coosa and Alabama Rivers to determine the advisability of securing six-foot navigation. This survey was undertaken by Capt. J. B. Cavanaugh, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army. Capt. Lay urged the engineers in charge to recommend the construction of high power dams which could be built by private capital and which would at the same time improve navigation. However, the Cavanaugh report, made June 30, 1904, failed to carry out Capt. Lay's suggestion. The Cavanaugh plan called for the construction of 20 dams and locks, from Gadsden to Wetumpka, at an estimated cost of $10,024,706, and channel excavations, etc., on the Alabama River, from Wetumpka to Mobile, at an estimated cost of about $1,000,000.

IN REVIEWING THE CAVANAUGH PLAN, the U. S. District Engineer in Alabama and the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, said:

"The project of securing six-foot navigation on the Coosa and Alabama rivers does not justify the expenditure of anything like the sums mentioned and is not worthy of being undertaken by the General Government at this time."

RIVER IMPROVEMENT on the Coosa was thus given another set-back. Lock 4 having been completed in 1891 or 1892, no work was done on the Coosa until the completion of Lock 12 by Alabama Power Company in 1914. Twenty-five miles of the Coosa were opened to navigation by this development at no cost to the State or Federal Government, and 15 miles additional were made navigable upon the completion of Mitchell Dam in January, 1923.

Congress was and is unwilling to appropriate the millions of dollars necessary for navigation improvement. The only other means of obtaining improved navigation is through water power development.

THORSBY SECTION

(S. E. NORTON, Manager)

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and their son, Walter have gone to spend several weeks with friends in northern states, and Mrs. C. E. Lucas expects to go soon to visit friends in Micvhigan and elsewhere.

During more than twenty years residence in Thorsby the writer has never known a time so many of our people were away from home at any one time, and news items are exceedingly scarce.

Thorsby Hardware Company have just received a carload of fine cedar shingles and it is probable that a good lot of them will be used on the roof of Bates Hall during the next few weeks, as plans have been made to make such repairs during vacation.

Rev. E. W. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Karlson and Mrs. S. E. Norton went to Oak Grove Church, on the Highway north of Jemison, last Sunday afternoon, to attend a district Sunday school convention. Mr. Butler presided at the meeting and Mrs. Norton gave a short talk on graded literature in the Sunday school. On their return trip they were caught in the wind storm which preceded the fine shower late Sunday afternoon. They had plenty of evidence that the highway is not asphalt surfaced and that there is considerable real estate in Chilton county which a warranty deed will not hold, since they accumulated quite a lot of it in the car and on their persons as they came along.

Rev. J. W. Davenport went to Stony Point church, near Deatsville, last Saturday night to give his illustrated lecture on "The Passion Play" as a closing service to the observance of children's day exercises for the Sunday school of that church, which is one of a group of four, in charge of Rev. N. A. Long, who now resides in Thorsby.

The revival services at the Thorsby Baptist church which began last Sunday and are to continue ten days, are now fairly under way with a god attendance morning and evening, 10 o'clock a.m. and 8:00 o'clock p.m. Everybody invited. Good speaking, good singing, good spirit.

In spite of the hot weather there is considerable interest, among a few citizens of Thorsby and Jemison, in reference to securing "White Coal" from the Alabama Power Company. While no definite results have been reached as yet it is known that the power company are considering the matter and have manifested their interest by inviting interested parties both from Thorsby and Jemison to meet them and discuss the subject. During these discussions it was brought out that in the light of past events and some legislation proposed for action by the present legislature, there seems to be a disposition on the part of our law-making body to impose unreasonable taxes and prohibitory assessments on public utilities in general and the Alabama Power Company in particular. Some of them need only to be stated to show how ill-informed are those who originate such bills or how soon they would "Kill the Goose That Lays Gold Eggs."

Many of our legislators are men from among the common people who have never had opportuniyt to know what burdens large business has to bear, nor are they properly informed as to net profits of big corporations, who have more invested in money and brains, necessary to produce results, than the average man knows anything about, and who in certain positions and in combination with others whose only care is to "Soak 'em" may pass legislation that will not only cripple established industries, but by their very import will deter others who might with assurance of fair treatment, be induced to establish many kinds of industries in Alabama. Something the state needs and must have if it is ever to be properly developed.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church held a special meeting at the church Tuesday afternoon, which indicates there will be "something doing."

MRS. J. M. WYATT IMPROVING

The Cattle Dipping Situation in Chilton

AGREEMENTS MADE WITH THE STATE VETERINARIAN

The Letter by Judge Reynolds Below Explains the Cattle Dipping Situation in Chilton County.

Clanton, Ala., July 12, 1923.
Editor Union-Banner:

I feel that something should be said in reference to the cattle dipping situation which now exists in Chilton county. As you remember the commissioner's court refused to appropriate any more money in the furtherance of this work after the county had been released from quarantine the first time. It was then that Dr. Carey, state veterinarian, threatened to mandamus the commissioner's court, attempting to enforce them to appropriate more money for this work. The people requested a mass meeting and Dr. Jackson then met with about six hundred citizens of this county and the commissioner's court in the attempt to come to some understanding in regard to this work. You who were there remember that an understanding was reached by a practically unanimous vote, two men as I remember voted against the proposition, that only the ticky cattle were to be dipped, and that the necessary number of inspectors should be appointed. The commissioner's court was anxious to do whatever the majority of the people of this county desired as was consistent with the law. This same proposition that was submitted to the people and accepted by them is the one under which this work is now being carried on.

At a meeting with the commissioner's court and the people several days ago Dr. Jackson, who was acting for Dr. Carey, state veterinarian, informed the county that it was only expected to furnish the cement and that the inspectors and men in charge of this work would build and keep up the vats, replenishing and providing the same without any cost to the county. It seems to be the desire of some to misplace the responsibility for this dipping law. You who were at the meeting last Friday remember that Dr. Jackson said the United States Government had nothing whatever to do with this law and that it was strictly enforced and carried on under the State law. This much for the enlightenment of those who try to escape the responsibility for this dipping law.

Also as I stated above, the commissioner's court is only doing what the great majority of the people of the county expressed as their desire sometime ago. It semes that a great deal of this confusion and misunderstanding and violating of this tick law is due to some political troublemakers who are taking this opportunity to attempt to discredit the commissioner's court and some fo the officers by placing the blame for this dipping law directly at their feet.

I have said these few remarks that the people might not be misinformed as to the real cause underlying the dipping situation in Chilton county.

HEAVY WEEVIL CROP REPORTED BY HINDS

Entomologist Declares That Farmers Should Fight Weevils With Poison.

Auburn, Ala., July 10.—Numerous reports from all sections of Alabama have been received by Dr. W. E. Hinds, Entomologist for the Alabama Experiment Station and Extension Service, indicating that the present boll weevil infestation is the heaviest in several years, and in view of the threatened heavy destruction he is urging farmers to apply certain control measures.

In a discussion of the boll weevil situation with the county agents in annual session here last week Dr. Hinds said: "Not only is the infestation exceptionally heavy but there appears to be a feeling on the part of the farmers that the boll weevils are in charge of the situation and that there is nothing more for them to do. This is a very serious mistake. From now on collection of squares and dusting are the only control measures recommended. We most certainly recommend dusting where the conditions point to a yield of at least one-third of a bale per acre."

Dr. Hinds told the county agents that with this or larger yields dusting may be expected to pay, and that it is a splendid form of insurance which may pay enormous dividends. To protect the heavy investment already made he urged that farmers should prepare for dusting immediately in order that the dust may be applied at the proper time. It is not too late to save this cotton crop.

Only calcium arsenate made according to the government formula and applied according to standard recommendations is advised by Dr. Hinds.

OTHER CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Through error a few cases disposed of in county court last week were omitted in our report in last week's Union-Banner. Below are the cases and the disposition made of them:

George Freeman, violating prohibition law; plead guilty and fined $50.00 and costs.

Robert Edwards, forfeiture on bond; set aside on payment of clerk's and sheriff's fees.

John Mims, violating prohibition law; fined $50.00; appealed.

Thomas Hite, vagrancy; nol prossed.

MRS. D. C. ROBINSON IN MEXICO

The many friends of Mrs. D. O. Robinson, well known music teacher of Clanton, will be glad to learn that she and her daughter are having a lovely time on their visit. Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Proposed Local Law as set out below will be introduced at the present session of the Legislature of Alabama.

AN ACT
TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

To authorize and empower the Town Council of the Town of Clanton, Alabama, to vacate, annul or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in said Town and to convey such portion of any street, avenue, alley or other public place so vacated, annulled or narrowed, to the adjacent landowners.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1.—That the Town Council of the Town of Clanton, Alabama, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to vacate, annuel or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in the said Town of Clanton, Alabama, upon such terms, considerations, or conditions as such Town Council may deem proper.

Section 2.—That in the event that said Town Council of the Town of Clanton should vacate, annul or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, under the provisions of Section 1 of this act, said Town Council of the Town of Clanton be and they are hereby authorized to convey that part of such street, avenue, alley or public place so annulled, vacated or narrowed, to the adjacent land owners upon such terms, considerations, or conditions as they may deem proper.

Section 3.—That the ascertainment of any fact in connection with the vacating, annulling or narrowing of any street, avenue, alely, or other public place in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, by the Town Council of said Town, shall be conclusive.

Section 4.—Should any court declare any section or sub-division of this act as unconstitutional, it shall not affect the remaining sections or sub-divisions, but the same shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 5.—That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and they are hereby repealed.

LAWLEY NEWS

The revival services at this place will be some time in August. The exact time hasn't been decided upon.

We regret to lose from this place, Mr. T. C. Haley, who has sold out his merchandise and home here to Mr. Jim Cleveland of Woodstock. Mr. Haley is going back to Texas. We only wish he could stay here, for this family will be greatly missed. They were always ready and willing to help with anything that was upbuilding to the community. They came here from Texas several years ago, and they are leaving a great host of friends to miss them.

Everybody here seemed to have had a very pleasant day the 4th. Several gave family picnics. One was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks. Those who attended were: Mrs. Sidera Johnson and three children of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff McGee of Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shoults of Shoults community; Miss Eliza Hall of Shoults; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGee of Plantersville; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Latham, and Mrs. Dewey Vinson of Clanton.

Several car loads from here spent the 4th at Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks and children spent last Sunday and Monday at Plantersville with sister of Mr. Hicks, Mrs. Fred McGee.

On last Friday Mr. W. P. Collins of this place received a letter from his daughters, Ethel and Lilla of the University, stating that they had eaten something that poisoned them. A physician was called, but he heard later that they were able to resume their studies the next day. Several others were poisoned at the same time, all at the place they were boarding.

Mrs. H. F. Head returned home last Thursday after spending several days in Birmingham with her sister, Mrs. Ben Head.

Mrs. Walter Lawley of Tuscaloosa was visiting relatives here last Sunday.

Miss Cornelia Jefferson returned home from Florida last week, where she has been visiting her brother for several weeks.

The W. M. U. met last Saturday afternoon, but only three members were present. We hope to have all the members next meeting.

SLIGHT STORM SUNDAY P. M.

There was a slight wind storm about three or four miles southeast of Clanton late Sunday afternoon. It is reported that in the vicinity of the home of Mitchell Powell several trees were uprooted, and the corn and cotton and other crops were blown down considerably.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New Orleans, July 0.—Declines attended the early trading in cotton today, after which there was a fairly strong recovery under the leadership of July, but in the late trading the new crop positions turned soft again, although July held fairly well. Fairly favorable weather and crop accounts from the interior were the basis for most of the selling of the day, except that offerings were stimulated on the opening by a poor Liverpool. The close was at net losses on the session of 8 to 27 points, July showing the smallest decline and closing at 26.84c a pound. October closed at a range of 22.84 at 22.86c.

Following the first decline of 24 to 88 points, which carried July off to 26.60c and October to 22.70c, the market reacted on the quick stopping of notices for 800 bales here, these constituting the first July tenders in this market. Further steadiness was derived from rumors that the greater part of the New York stock was destined to be shipped out in the near future and July finally worked up to 26.91c and October up to 23.09c, with the list 3 points up to 4 points down, compared with the last prices of Saturday.

Scattered showers over the belt with seasonable temperatures were considered favorable conditions for the crop and much of the late selling was due to the outlook for little change in the weather in the near future.

CANNING FCTORY ALMOST COMPLETE

The work on the canning factory, under charge of Mr. Dixon, has been moving along rapidly for the past few weeks. The building, which is certainly to be a nice one, is almost completed. The machinery is practically all on the ground, and as soon as the cement floor is completed the machinery will be stationed.

Mr. Clay, who stopped off here for a couple of days, says that he is mighty well pleased with the work Mr. Dixon has done, and says that the factory will be ready for business in about three weeks. By that time we presume there will be some tomatoes about ready for canning.

Mr. C. C. Conway of Jemison, manager of the Jemison Hardware Company, was in Clanton on business Monday.

SOIL BUILDING IS STRESSED BY AGENTS

Prof. Funchess Defines Hairy Vetch As "Best Bet" of Winter Legumes.

Auburn, Ala., July 10.—Improvement of the condition of Alabama farm lands received first consideration by the county agents of Alabama in an annual conference here last week.

To get the latest and most authentic information as to how best to improve soils Prof. M. J. Funchess, head of the department of Agronomy, was requested to deliver a series of illustrated lectures, in which he pictured results with different winter legumes and called attention to the advantages and disadvantages of each.

After making this review Prof. Funchess declared that "hairy vetch is the best bet, all things considered." He stressed with much emphasis the importance of soil building, adding that "non-economic production followed by economic marketing does not mean prosperity." With emphasis he said, "Soil building is the biggest problem confronting the farmers of Alabama today."

As a result of this meeting and series of lectures many of the county agents are now preparing to increase the winter legume acreage in Alabama this fall.

JETTIE CHRISTINE CULP

The spirit of little Jettie Christine Culp, age 11 years, was wafted away early Sunday morning. The child had been sick with colitis for only a few days. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crayton Culp of Clanton. The remains were buried at Pleasant Grove, 7 miles southeast of Clanton Monday at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. D. Messer preached the funeral and Undertaker Martin had charge of the body.

The little child had been crippled frim infantile paralysis nearly all its life, and never knew what pleasure was as other children know it. The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathy.

MRS. EMILY C. GILLESPIE

Mrs. Emily C. Gillespie, age 85 years, wife of the late D. A. Gillespie, died Sunday afternoon, July 8th, and was buried the following day at Bethel Cemetery. She was the mother of Hunter and Walter Gillespie, two well-known citizens of this county.

COMMISSIONERS COURT

The Commissioners Court of Chilton county was called together in special session last Friday to hear the reports of the tick inspectors of the county. We understand that the court ruled that they would not build any more dipping vats, but that they would furnish the material for building them where the citizens of any community wanted to build vats.

D. Z. MERCHANT DIES

Mr. D. Z. Merchant died near Pleasant Grove Saturday, and was buried at Macedonia Sunday, funeral services being conducted by his pastor, Mr. Dykes. The many floral offerings were beautiful.

Mr. Merchant was a Confederate soldier, 85 years old, a native of Bibb county. He was married near Macedonia just after the close of the Civil war to Miss Bettie Crumpton. He raised a family of noble children.

His pastor paid a nice tribute to his memory.

FOURTH OF JULY DISPLAY

The Clanton Mercantile Company made a very attractive advertising display in the celebration parade here on the Fourth. Uncle Jeff Blankenship rode through the streets in a Mogul Wagon dressed up with displays of the famous Star Brand's Poll Parrot Shoes, Duck Head Overalls, etc. One of the best displays on the wagon was that advertising ladies' ready-to-wear of the Marquett Cloak and Suit Company of St. Louis.

There were other cars and vehicles in the parade carrying advertising for the various other concerns of the town, which presented a very attractive and unique appearance.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the people of Jemison and surrounding community our appreciation for their kind sympathy and assistance during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. No people could have been better to us than they have been. No care was spared to bring about his recovery and relief, but the good Lord saw fit to call for him.

Friends, he is gone to a better world and one of these days we will understand why he was called so soon. We believe no one was ever better to his family than he. He was a real father and husband.

BROWN IS GLOOMY ON GEORGIA CROPS

Atlanta, Ga., July 10.—Under the existing abnormal conditions during the remainder of 1923, Georgia this year will not produce sufficient food and feed crops to feed its population more than three months and cotton production in the state is one the verge of collapse," Commissioner of Agriculture J. J. Brown stated today. Georgia normally, the commissioner figured, produces enough to feed the population three-fourths of the year.

VOLUME XI. CLANTON, ALA., THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1923 NUMBER 13

Mass Meeting at Court House Saturday, July 28th, 10 a.m.

Every Citizen of the County, Regardless of Politics, Has An Invitation to Come and Express His Views on the Court Bills.

The attention of the public is hereby directed to the fact that there is to be an open meeting for all the citizens of the county at the court house on Saturday, July 28th, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of discussing the proposed bills to abolish the county court and the commissioners court of Chilton county, and arriving at the proper determination of the wishes of the people concerning these measures.

This meeting is not designed as a political affair for any particular political group of people. We are glad to say that the call for the meeting has been given the endorsement of the Republican Executive Committee, which approval is nothing more than a vivid evidence that the Republicans of this county are now, as always, ready and willing to have any public matter subjected to and determined by the wishes of the people whom it concerns. This is one of the cardinal principles of the Republican party, and may the day never come when our party shall depart from it.

The Republicans of this county feel that if a majority of the people want these bills enacted into law, then it should be done. And if a majority of the people do not want them enacted into law, then it should not be done.

In this connection we desire to challenge the position of the Chilton County News in advocating the passage of these two bills. Such challenge is laid upon the question of what the majority of our people want, and we believe that when this is determined the News would, if they desire to listen to the majority, be compelled to agree with us that the bills ought not to be made a law of our state and county.

We do not hesitate to say openly and freely that if it be shown to us that the majority of our people want these bills passed, then we would not offer any obstruction or argument, but our opinion about the merit of the measures could not be changed. This is not a matter of what we think about the bills or what the News thinks but what the majority of the people think and want.

We wish to call upon our friend, The News to take the people into their confidence and make known the names of the dozen men who met behind closed doors with Senator Adams and proceeded to lay down plans to legislate out of office the men who were put there by a majority of the voters of this county, and thereby trample under their feet the things that are of vital concern to every citizen of the county.

The questions that are at issue in these bills are not matters that concern only Judge Reynolds and the Commissioners. Nor does the import of these measures terminate with the interests of the few who have secretly joined the News in advocating the passage of the bills. The matter reaches out to every nook and corner of Chilton county and touches the humblest and the most exalted citizen. Therefore, we feel the importance of first finding out the position of those concerned. We invite The News and that small coterie of its supporters in this matter to join with us and the other citizens of the county at the meeting on the 28th and have an intelligent and candid consideration so as to arrive at what is actually wanted by the people.

We ask The News if it is true, as stated by its editor last week in commenting upon Mr. Curry's letter, that the Democratic organization of Chilton county is behind them in advocating the proposed bills. We believe there are hundreds of Democrats in this county who do not advocate the bills, and we further believe that the fact will be revealed to the editor of The News if he will be present at the meeting on the 28th.

We again urge all people of the county to attend this meeting. Those who do not advocate the passage of the bills will be ably represented by speakers who will explain the demerits of the measures. Those who favor the bills will be given a chance to speak in support of their position, if they desire to be heard.

Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt have been invited to attend the meeting.

Now Mr. News Editor, don't put this matter aside by pretending that you have no invitation to come to the meeting. Don't fall into your time-worn excuse that it is just one of Lewis' schemes to lead somebody into a trap. You have already made yourself silly by such juvenile stuff. Be the big man that you sound like from afar off and come on and join the people of the county in the proper settlement of this matter.

Will you come out and open your eyes and let yourself see what the people of this county want done with your iniquitous schemes that have been hatched out by the few political schemers of Chilton county without any consultation with the people as to what they want?

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

In view of certain Local Bills which are proposed to be introduced in the present session of the Legislature of Alabama, in which all the citizens of the county are vitally interested, a public meeting of the citizens of the county, regardless of political faith, is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Clanton, Alabama, on Saturday, the 28th day of July, 1923, at 10 a.m., for the purpose of considering said bills and taking such action as the citizens deem best for the welfare of the county.

MRS. J. M. WYATT

We cannot find the words to express the grief brought on by our recent bereavement in the loss of our mother, but we suppose those who likewise have come to the same sad hour know what it means to have to give up such a dear companion. However, we are greatly consoled in the fact that she lived a devout Christian life, and we have not the least doubt that she now has already attained a mansion in paradise, where the Lord whom she has worshipped from childhood has her spotless soul in charge.

Mrs. Phairriba Catherine Wyatt was born in the year 1873, on the 29th day of August, and departed this life on July 13th, 1923, at 9 o'clock. She spent her entire life within a few miles of the place of her birth. Her life has always been a simple, loving, gentle one. She joined the Baptist Church at Providence when only a girl, and has been a constant and tireless worker ever since. She was the oldest daughter of two of the best and most faithful Christian people this county affords, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Robinson.

Mrs. Wyatt has enjoyed fairly good health up to six weeks ago, when she took measles. As soon as she partly recovered from measles she contracted colitis, which lasted about four weeks. All during her sickness she suffered very little, and bore her infirmities with manly patience. She was conscious until a few hours before death, and she said several times that she was going to die, but always expressed a complete readiness to go.

The immediate relatives which this good woman leaves behind are, husband, James M. Wyatt; two sons, William M. Wyatt and Thomas E. Wyatt; two daughters, Alice and Edna Wyatt; her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Robinson; five brothers, Rev. W. W. Robinson, R. M. Robinson, C. H. Robinson, G. C. Robinson, and John E. Robinson; three sisters, Mrs. W. L. Bates, Mrs. John Bates, and Mrs. T. G. Wyatt. She was the mother of two more children, one girl and one boy, who died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted at Providence Church in Beat 16, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. J. Ezell officiating, assisted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. E. A. Norris, and Rev. M. J. Parrish. A big crowd of sorrowing and bereaved friends and relatives were present to pay their last respects to the earthly life of this noble Christian woman.

RESOLUTIONS REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican Executive Committee in Session July 14, 1923.

Whereas, bills proposed to be introduced in the Legislature would abolish the County Court and the Commissioner's Court; and whereas the rights of the sovereign people of Chilton county are vitally affected:

Therefore be it Resolved by the Republican Executive Committee of Chilton county, that said bills are inimical to the best interests of the people of Chilton county and are born of political spite and prejudice.

Be it further resolved that we deplore the efforts of the Chilton County News and of certain individual Democrats to make said bills a political issue.

Be it further resolved that we call up Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt to oppose said bills.

Be it further resolved that we favor the calling of a meeting of all the people of Chilton county to be held at the Court House to discuss the merits and the demerits of said bills.

Be it further resolved that Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt be and they are hereby invited and earnestly reuesqted to attend the open meeting at the Court House in Clanton, Alabama, on July the 28th, 1923, at 10 o'clock a.m., and that a copy of these resolutions be sent each of them.

Upon motion of B. L. Cobb the Committee expressed its appreciation of the fair and manly stand taken by Honorable Thos. A. Curry in his opposition to the bills to abolish the County Court and the Commissioner's Court; and hereby request the editor of The Union-Banner to publish, in its next issue, the letter of Mr. Curry which appeared in the last week's Chilton County News.

Upon motion of Honorable J. O. Middleton, a vote of sympathy was given Mr. James Wyatt and family in their great sorrow in the loss of their wife and mother.

J. Z. MIMS, Secretary.

(Below we reproduce the letter of Mr. Thos. A. Curry, which appeared in the Chilton County News July 12, 1923):

"COMMUNICATED

"Clanton, Ala., July 10, 1923.

"Editor Chilton County News:

"I note in your last issue that the present Legislature will be asked to abolish the County Court and also to create a Board of Revenue in lieu of the present County Court of Commissioners for Chilton county. I am sincerely opposed to both of the proposed measures. The County Court is an institution which has proven its value through years of experience in every county in the state. Its worth as a convenience and aid in the maintainance of law and order is beyond controversy and as a time and money-saving tribunal its worth can not be easily estimated. There is not a county in Alabama that is not equipped and always has been, with a County Court or a similar institution with limited criminal jurisdiction in which its procedure insures a speedy and economical administration of the criminal laws so far as they effect petty violations. To say it in a few words: the County Court is a public necessity which by no means, should be dispensed with.

"As to the bill to abolish the Court of County Commissioners, who were elected by a majority of the county electorate and create in its stead a Board of Revenue to be appointed by the Governor of Alabama, the bill displays upon its face the fact that it was 'conceived in iniquity and bruoght forth in sin.' Legislation which removes a citizen from an office to which he has been chosen by a majority, is wrong and iniquitous in its fundamentals and is totally variant from the very spirit of democratic government. If the present members of the Court of County Commissioners are unsurping office, are guilty of malfeasance or are managing the affairs ot the county to the serious hurt of its citizens, the law supplies a remedy and an open forum to which any citizen may resort in orderly form. The Legislature of Alabama is without moral or statutory jurisdiction in the cause.

"Your friend and fellow Democrat.

"THOS. A. CURRY."

PETITIONS AGAINST BILLS

There have been prepared several petitions declaring against the passage of the bills to abolish the county court and the court of county commissioners, as advocated by a few democrats and the Chilton County News. A copy of this petition has been placed with each member of the Republican Executive Committee, and one is left in the Circuit Clerk's office at the court house. So every citizen in the county who is opposed to the passage of these bills should avail themselves of the chance to sign one of these petitions. This is a matter which concerns every tax payer in the county, and every one ought to assert his rights by placing his name in opopsition to such nefarious attacks against the rights of the common people.

DEATH OF MR. W. Y. NIX

It was during the quietness and stillness of the early morning hour, 3 o'clock, of July 15th, 1923, that our Heavenly Father sent His death angel to visit the home of Mr. W. Y. Nix, three miles north of Maplesville, and took away the sweet spirit of our neighbor and friend, Mr. W. Y. Nix.

All was done that children, doctors and nurses could do but we can only submit to the will of God who wants us to trust and obey.

Mr. Nix rendered to this community a long life of loving and faithful service, ever ready to lend a helping hand to those that were in need. He was a member of the Baptist Church at Macedonia.

The appreciation of his love was shown in many ways on the day of his funeral by the presence of so many friends and beautiful flowers.

The body was laid to rest in the Macedonia cemetery about 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 16th.

Mr. Nix had been ill for a long time with a cancer on his side.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one son, Martin and one daughter, Mrs. Fanny Crosby. We extend our greatest sympathy to the bereaved family and may they find comfort in serving God and preparing to meet their loved one where heart aches shall be no more.

MAPLESVILLE NEWS

We are glad to see so many attending Sunday school every Sunday.

There was preaching at the Baptist church Sunday by Bro. W. T. Edwards. Two excelelnt sermons were delivered and were enjoyed by every one present.

Our B. Y. P. U. is still progressing very nicely. Miss Annie Spivey was in lead Sunday night. Group Two rendered an interesting program.

Mr. H. A. Harris has organized an intermediate B. Y. P. U. and we the seniors will have to get on our job or they are going to beat us. Mrs. J. C. Merchant is leader of the senior B. Y. P. U.

Our negro minstrel was quite a success Saturday night. We were glad indeed to have the crowd from Stanton, Shoults and Lawley come back. Saturday night, July 28th, the young people of this place are going to have a play in title, "The Valley Farm." We will tell you more about it next week. We received about $100.00 Saturday night from our minstrel.

Mrs. Ray, Bonnie and Susan Ray of Andalusia are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smitherman.

Mr. Wheeler Walker, Misses Oma and Eva Seales motored to Shoults Sunday p.m. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Walker.

Mr. Bill Mills of Billingsley was the guest of Miss Ethel King Sunday p.m.

Mrs. Ollie Martin of Plantersville spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Merchant.

Mr. W. W. Brooks, the banker, is off on a vacation now. Hope he will enjoy this vacation.

Mr. Holley Lockler has returned from Tuscaloosa. We are glad to see him back.

Mrs. Ed Smitherman and children, Mrs. Ray and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. C. N. Parnell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Edwards were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pullian Sunday night.

Harding Party Now in Land of Midnight Sun

From Head of Railway, President Plans to Make Auto Trip Farther Inland.

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 16.—Having reached the northern end of steel rail transportation, President Harding proposed today to go further into the interior of Alaska by automobile. About the time people in New York and Washington are having dinner tonight and those in the middle west are quitting work for the day, President and Mrs. Harding and a portion of their party will start from here on an automobile trip of 90 miles over Richardson Trail to McCarty, on the Tenana river. The ride will take five hours. It was originally planned that the presidential party should go over the train 372 miles to Chitina and there take the Copper River & Northwestern railroad to the port of Cordova, but the trip was abandoned as possibly too strenuous, much to the regret of Mrs. Harding, who has been urging it.

As now planned the party on reaching McCarty will go aboard a river steamer and steam to Nenana, where on Tuesday evening they will board a train for a 24-hour trip back over the government railroad to Seward. Secretary Wallace and Chief Greely, however, will make the entire train trip.

The presidential party arrived here last night—last night in point of time, only, though, for although it was after 9 o'clock the sun still was shining and it never got dark as the days here now are 24 hours long.

Drives Gold Spike

The president while here visited the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines, the farthest north college in the world, which graduated its first student last June. Before he arrived at Fairbanks the president drove the golden spike signifying completion of the government railroad from Seward through to Fairbanks in June. In a brief address the president said he was happy thus to honor such a monumental engineering work and paid high tribute to Colonel Mears and other builders.

The port of Valdez has been added to the president's southward itinerary from Seward.

The Gridiron Club, the national capital's famous organization of correspondents, held the farthest north meeting in its history last midnight here in the land of the midnight sun, near the Aretic Circle. Eight members of the organization from the American correspondents accompanying President Harding on his Alaskan trip gathered at the Tenaca Club with Scott C. Bone, former Washington newspaper man and now governor of Alaska. The meeting was thus participated in by nearly one-fifth of the club's membership of fifty.

A SAD ACCIDENT

On last Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock occurred one of the sadest accidents ever known, when the 7-year old son of Mr. W. T. White of Mulberry accidentally shot and killed his baby sister, Evelyn, age 2 years. The children were playing with a shot gun when the weapon discharged, the whole load entering the child's stomach.

The little body was buried in Mulberry cemetery Friday at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. J. Ezell officiating.

UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL

HEAVY WEEVIL CROP REPORTED BY HINDS

Entomologist Declares That Farmers Should Fight Weevils With Poison.

Auburn, Ala., July 10.—Numerous reports from all sections of Alabama have been received by Dr. W. E. Hinds, Entomologist for the Alabama Experiment Station and Extension Service, indicating that the present boll weevil infestation is the heaviest in several years, and in view of the threatened heavy destruction he is urging farmers to apply certain control measures.

In a discussion of the boll weevil situation with the county agents in annual session here last week Dr. Hinds said: "Not only is the infestation exceptionally heavy but there appears to be a feeling on the part of the farmers that the boll weevils are in charge of the situation and that there is nothing more for them to do. This is a very serious mistake. From now on collection of squares and dusting are the only control measures recommended. We most certainly recommend dusting where the conditions point to a yield of at least one-third of a bale per acre."

Dr. Hinds told the county agents that with this or larger yields dusting may be expected to pay, and that it is a splendid form of insurance which may pay enormous dividends. To protect the heavy investment already made he urged that farmers should prepare for dusting immediately in order that the dust may be applied at the proper time. It is not too late to save this cotton crop.

Only calcium arsenate made according to the government formula and applied according to standard recommendations is advised by Dr. Hinds.

OTHER CASES IN COUNTY COURT

Through error a few cases disposed of in county court last week were omitted in our report in last week's Union-Banner. Below are the cases and the disposition made of them:

George Freeman, violating prohibition law; plead guilty and fined $50.00 and costs.

Robert Edwards, forfeiture on bond; set aside on payment of clerk's and sheriff's fees.

John Mims, violating prohibition law; fined $50.00; appealed.

Thomas Hite, vagrancy; nol prossed.

MRS. D. C. ROBINSON IN MEXICO

The many friends of Mrs. D. O. Robinson, well known music teacher of Clanton, will be glad to learn that she and her daughter are having a lovely time on their visit. We have a letter from them in San Antonio, Texts, directing us to forward their Banner to Marelvia, Michoacan, Mexico. They will spend the rest of the summer in the old country.

Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally," writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Proposed Local Law as set out below will be introduced at the present session of the Legislature of Alabama.

AN ACT

TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

To authorize and empower the Town Council of the Town of Clanton, Alabama, to vacate, annul or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in said Town and to convey such portion of any street, avenue, alley or other public place so vacated, annulled or narrowed, to the adjacent landowners.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

Section 1.—That the Town Council of the Town of Clanton, Alabama, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to vacate, annuel or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in the said Town of Clanton, Alabama, upon such terms, considerations, or conditions as such Town Council may deem proper.

Section 2.—That in the event that said Town Council of the Town of Clanton should vacate, annul or narrow any street, avenue, alley or other public place in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, under the provisions of Section 1 of this act, said Town Council of the Town of Clanton be and they are hereby authorized to convey that part of such street, avenue, alley or public place so annulled, vacated or narrowed, to the adjacent land owners upon such terms, considerations, or conditions as they may deem proper.

Section 3.—That the ascertainment of any fact in connection with the vacating, annulling or narrowing of any street, avenue, alely, or other public place in the Town of Clanton, Alabama, by the Town Council of said Town, shall be conclusive.

Section 4.—Should any court declare any section or sub-division of this act as unconstitutional, it shall not affect the remaining sections or sub-divisions, but the same shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 5.—That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this act be and they are hereby repealed.

LAWLEY NEWS

The revival services at this place will be some time in August. The exact time hasn't been decided upon.

We regret to lose from this place, Mr. T. C. Haley, who has sold out his merchandise and home here to Mr. Jim Cleveland of Woodstock. Mr. Haley is going back to Texas. We only wish he could stay here, for this family will be greatly missed. They were always ready and willing to help with anything that was upbuilding to the community. They came here from Texas several years ago, and they are leaving a great host of friends to miss them.

Everybody here seemed to have had a very pleasant day the 4th. Several gave family picnics. One was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks. Those who attended were: Mrs. Sidera Johnson and three children of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Cliff McGee of Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shoults of Shoults community; Miss Eliza Hall of Shoults; Mr. and Mrs. Fred McGee of Plantersville; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Latham, and Mrs. Dewey Vinson of Clanton.

Several car loads from here spent the 4th at Clanton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hicks and children spent last Sunday and Monday at Plantersville with sister of Mr. Hicks, Mrs. Fred McGee.

On last Friday Mr. W. P. Collins of this place received a letter from his daughters, Ethel and Lilla of the University, stating that they had eaten something that poisoned them. A physician was called, but he heard later that they were able to resume their studies the next day. Several others were poisoned at the same time, all at the place they were boarding.

Mrs. H. F. Head returned home last Thursday after spending several days in Birmingham with her sister, Mrs. Ben Head.

Mrs. Walter Lawley of Tuscaloosa was visiting relatives here last Sunday.

Miss Cornelia Jefferson returned home from Florida last week, where she has been visiting her brother for several weeks.

The W. M. U. met last Saturday afternoon, but only three members were present. We hope to have all the members next meeting.

SLIGHT STORM SUNDAY P. M.

There was a slight wind storm about three or four miles southeast of Clanton late Sunday afternoon. It is reported that in the vicinity of the home of Mitchell Powell several trees were uprooted, and the corn and cotton and other crops were blown down considerably.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New Orleans, July. 0.—Declines attended the early trading in cotton today, after which there was a fairly strong recovery under the leadership of July, but in the late trading the new crop positions turned soft again, although July held fairly well. Fairly favorable weather and crop accounts from the interior were the basis for most of the selling of the day, except that offerings were stimulated on the opening by a poor Liverpool. The close was at net losses on the session of 8 to 27 points, July showing the smallest decline and closing at 26.84c a pound. October closed at a range of 22.84 at 22.86c.

Following the first decline of 24 to 38 points, which carried July off to 26.60c and October to 22.70c, the market reacted on the quick stopping of notices for 800 bales here, these constituting the first July tenders in this market. Further steadiness was derived from rumors that the greater part of the New York stock was destined to be shipped out in the near future and July finally worked up to 26.91c and October up to 23.09c, with the list 3 points up to 4 points down, compared with the last prices of Saturday.

Scattered showers over the belt with seasonable temperatures were considered favorable conditions for the crop and much of the late selling was due to the outlook for little change in the weather in the near future.

CANNING FCTORY ALMOST COMPLETE

The work on the canning factory, under charge of Mr. Dixon, has been moving along rapidly for the past few weeks. The building, which is certainly to be a nice one, is almost completed. The machinery is practically all on the ground, and as soon as the cement floor is completed the machinery will be stationed.

Mr. Clay, who stopped off here for a couple of days, says that he is mighty well pleased with the work Mr. Dixon has done, and says that the factory will be ready for business in about three weeks. By that time we presume there will be some tomatoes about ready for canning.

Mr. C. C. Conway of Jemison, manager of the Jemison Hardware Company, was in Clanton on business Monday.

SOIL BUILDING IS STRESSED BY AGENTS

Auburn, Ala., July 10.—Improvement of the condition of Alabama farm lands received first consideration by the county agents of Alabama in an annual conference here last week.

To get the latest and most authentic information as to how best to improve soils Prof. M. J. Funchess, head of the department of Agronomy, was requested to deliver a series of illustrated lectures, in which he pictured results with different winter legumes and called attention to the advantages and disadvantages of each.

After making this review Prof. Funchess declared that "hairy vetch is the best bet, all things considered." He stressed with much emphasis the importance of soil building, adding that "non-economic production followed by economic marketing does not mean prosperity." With emphasis he said, "Soil building is the biggest problem confronting the farmers of Alabama today."

As a result of this meeting and series of lectures many of the county agents are now preparing to increase the winter legume acreage in Alabama this fall.

JETTIE CHRISTINE CULP

The spirit of little Jettie Christine Culp, age 11 years, was wafted away early Sunday morning. The child had been sick with colitis for only a few days. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crayton Culp of Clanton. The remains were buried at Pleasant Grove, 7 miles southeast of Clanton Monday at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. D. Messer preached the funeral and Undertaker Martin had charge of the body.

The little child had been crippled frim infantile paralysis nearly all its life, and never knew what pleasure was as other children know it. The bereaved parents have our heartfelt sympathy.

MRS. EMILY C. GILLESPIE

Mrs. Emily C. Gillespie, age 85 years, wife of the late D. A. Gillespie, died Sunday afternoon, July 8th, and was buried the following day at Bethel Cemetery. She was the mother of Hunter and Walter Gillespie, two well-known citizens of this county.

COMMISSIONERS COURT

The Commissioners Court of Chilton county was called together in special session last Friday to hear the reports of the tick inspectors of the county. We understand that the court ruled that they would not build any more dipping vats, but that they would furnish the material for building them where the citizens of any community wanted to build vats.

D. Z. MERCHANT DIES

Mr. D. Z. Merchant died near Pleasant Grove Saturday, and was buried at Macedonia Sunday, funeral services being conducted by his pastor, Mr. Dykes. The many floral offerings were beautiful.

Mr. Merchant was a Confederate soldier, 85 years old, a native of Bibb county. He was married near Macedonia just after the close of the Civil war to Miss Bettie Crumpton. He raised a family of noble children.

His pastor paid a nice tribute to his memory.

FOURTH OF JULY DISPLAY

The Clanton Mercantile Company made a very attractive advertising display in the celebration parade here on the Fourth. Uncle Jeff Blankenship rode through the streets in a Mogul Wagon dressed up with displays of the famous Star Brand's Poll Parrot Shoes, Duck Head Overalls, etc. One of the best displays on the wagon was that advertising ladies' ready-to-wear of the Marquett Cloak and Suit Company of St. Louis.

There were other cars and vehicles in the parade carrying advertising for the various other concerns of the town, which presented a very attractive and unique appearance.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to the people of Jemison and surrounding community our appreciation for their kind sympathy and assistance during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. No people could have been better to us than they have been. No care was spared to bring about his recovery and relief, but the good Lord saw fit to call for him.

Friends, he is gone to a better world and one of these days we will understand why he was called so soon. We believe no one was ever better to his family than he. He was a real father and husband.

Mass Meeting at Court House Saturday, July 28th, 10 a.m.

Every Citizen of the County, Regardless of Politics, Has An Invitation to Come and Express His Views on the Court Bills.

The attention of the public is hereby directed to the fact that there is to be an open meeting for all the citizens of the county at the court house on Saturday, July 28th, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of discussing the proposed bills to abolish the county court and the commissioners court of Chilton county, and arriving at the proper determination of the wishes of the people concerning these measures.

This meeting is not designed as a political affair for any particular political group of people. We are glad to say that the call for the meeting has been given the endorsement of the Republican Executive Committee, which approval is nothing more than a vivid evidence that the Republicans of this county are now, as always, ready and willing to have any public matter subjected to and determined by the wishes of the people whom it concerns. This is one of the cardinal principles of the Republican party, and may the day never come when our party shall depart from it.

The Republicans of this county feel that if a majority of the people want these bills enacted into law, then it should be done. And if a majority of the people do not want them enacted into law, then it should not be done.

In this connection we desire to challenge the position of the Chilton County News in advocating the passage of these two bills. Such challenge is laid upon the question of what the majority of our people want, and we believe that when this is determined the News would, if they desire to listen to the majority, be compelled to agree with us that the bills ought not to be made a law of our state and county.

We do not hesitate to say openly and freely that if it be shown to us that the majority of our people want these bills passed, then we would not offer any obstruction or argument, but our opinion about the merit of the measures could not be changed. This is not a matter of what we think about the bills or what the News thinks but what the majority of the people think and want.

We wish to call upon our friend, The News to take the people into their confidence and make known the names of the dozen men who met behind closed doors with Senator Adams and proceeded to lay down plans to legislate out of office the men who were put there by a majority of the voters of this county, and thereby trample under their feet the things that are of vital concern to every citizen of the county.

The questions that are at issue in these bills are not matters that concern only Judge Reynolds and the Commissioners. Nor does the import of these measures terminate with the interests of the few who have secretly joined the News in advocating the passage of the bills. The matter reaches out to every nook and corner of Chilton county and touches the humblest and the most exalted citizen. Therefore, we feel the importance of first finding out the position of those concerned. We invite The News and that small coterie of its supporters in this matter to join with us and the other citizens of the county at the meeting on the 28th and have an intelligent and candid consideration so as to arrive at what is actually wanted by the people.

We ask The News if it is true, as stated by its editor last week in commenting upon Mr. Curry's letter, that the Democratic organization of Chilton county is behind them in advocating the proposed bills. We believe there are hundreds of Democrats in this county who do not advocate the bills, and we further believe that the fact will be revealed to the editor of The News if he will be present at the meeting on the 28th.

We again urge all people of the county to attend this meeting. Those who do not advocate the passage of the bills will be ably represented by speakers who will explain the demerits of the measures. Those who favor the bills will be given a chance to speak in support of their position, if they desire to be heard.

Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt have been invited to attend the meeting.

Now Mr. News Editor, don't put this matter aside by pretending that you have no invitation to come to the meeting. Don't fall into your time-worn excuse that it is just one of Lewis' schemes to lead somebody into a trap. You have already made yourself silly by such juvenile stuff. Be the big man that you sound like from afar off and come on and join the people of the county in the proper settlement of this matter.

Will you come out and open your eyes and let yourself see what the people of this county want done with your iniquitous schemes that have been hatched out by the few political schemers of Chilton county without any consultation with the people as to what they want?

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

In view of certain Local Bills which are proposed to be introduced in the present session of the Legislature of Alabama in which all the citizens of the county are vitally interested, a public meeting of the citizens of the county, regardless of political faith, is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Clanton, Alabama, on Saturday, the 28th day of July, 1923, at 10 a.m., for the purpose of considering said bills and taking such action as the citizens deem best for the welfare of the county.

MRS. J. M. WYATT

We cannot find the words to express the grief brought on by our recent bereavement in the loss of our mother, but we suppose those who likewise have come to the same sad hour know what it means to have to give up such a dear companion. However, we are greatly consoled in the fact that she lived a devout Christian life, and we have not the least doubt that she now has already attained a mansion in paradise, where the Lord whom she has worshipped from childhood has her spotless soul in charge.

Mrs. Phairriba Catherine Wyatt was born in the year 1873, on the 29th day of August, and departed this life on July 13th, 1923, at 9 o'clock. She spent her entire life within a few miles of the place of her birth. Her life has always been a simple, loving, gentle one. She joined the Baptist Church at Providence when only a girl, and has been a constant and tireless worker ever since. She was the oldest daughter of two of the best and most faithful Christian people this county affords, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Robinson.

Mrs. Wyatt has enjoyed fairly good health up to six weeks ago, when she took measles. As soon as she partly recovered from measles she contracted colitis, which lasted about four weeks. All during her sickness she suffered very little, and bore her infirmities with manly patience. She was conscious until a few hours before death, and she said several times that she was going to die, but always expressed a complete readiness to go.

The immediate relatives which this good woman leaves behind are, husband, James M. Wyatt; two sons, William M. Wyatt and Thomas E. Wyatt; two daughters, Alice and Edna Wyatt; her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Robinson; five brothers, Rev. W. W. Robinson, R. M. Robinson, C. H. Robinson, G. C. Robinson, and John E. Robinson; three sisters, Mrs. W. L. Bates, Mrs. John Bates, and Mrs. T. G. Wyatt. She was the mother of two more children, one girl and one boy, who died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted at Providence Church in Beat 16, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. J. Ezell officiating, assisted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. E. A. Norris, and Rev. M. J. Parrish. A big crowd of sorrowing and bereaved friends and relatives were present to pay their last respects to the earthly life of this noble Christian woman.

RESOLUTIONS REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Resolutions Adopted by the Republican Executive Committee in Session July 14, 1923.

Whereas, bills proposed to be introduced in the Legislature would abolish the County Court and the Commissioner's Court; and whereas the rights of the sovereign people of Chilton county are vitally affected:

Therefore be it Resolved by the Republican Executive Committee of Chilton county, that said bills are inimical to the best interests of the people of Chilton county and are born of political spite and prejudice.

Be it further resolved that we deplore the efforts of the Chilton County News and of certain individual Democrats to make said bills a political issue.

Be it further resolved that we call on Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt to oppose said bills.

Be it further resolved that we favor the calling of a meeting of all the people of Chilton county to be held at the Court House to discuss the merits and the demerits of said bills.

Be it further resolved that Senator Adams and Representative Wyatt be and they are hereby invited and earnestly reuesqted to attend the open meeting at the Court House in Clanton, Alabama, on July the 28th, 1923, at 10 o'clock a.m., and that a copy of these resolutions be sent each of them.

Upon motion of B. L. Cobb the Committee expressed its appreciation of the fair and manly stand taken by Honorable Thos. A. Curry in his opposition to the bills to abolish the County Court and the Commissioner's Court; and hereby request the editor of The Union-Banner to publish, in its next issue, the letter of Mr. Curry which appeared in the last week's Chilton County News.

Upon motion of Honorable J. O. Middleton, a vote of sympathy was given Mr. James Wyatt and family in their great sorrow in the loss of their wife and mother.

J. Z. MIMS, Secretary.

(Below we reproduce the letter of Mr. Thos. A. Curry, which appeared in the Chilton County News July 12, 1923):

"COMMUNICATED

"Clanton, Ala., July 10, 1923.
"Editor Chilton County News:

"I note in your last issue that the present Legislature will be asked to abolish the County Court and also to create a Board of Revenue in lieu of the present County Court of Commissioners for Chilton county. I am sincerely opposed to both of the proposed measures. The County Court is an institution which has proven its value through years of experience in every county in the state. Its worth as a convenience and aid in the maintainance of law and order is beyond controversy and as a time and money-saving tribunal its worth can not be easily estimated. There is not a county in Alabama that is not equipped and always has been, with a County Court or a similar institution with limited criminal jurisdiction in which its procedure insures a speedy and economical administration of the criminal laws so far as they effect petty violations. To say it in a few words: the County Court is a public necessity which by no means, should be dispensed with.

"As to the bill to abolish the Court of County Commissioners, who were elected by a majority of the county electorate and create in its stead a Board of Revenue to be appointed by the Governor of Alabama, the bill displays upon its face the fact that it was 'conceived in iniquity and bruoght forth in sin.' Legislation which removes a citizen from an office to which he has been chosen by a majority, is wrong and iniquitous in its fundamentals and is totally variant from the very spirit of democratic government. If the present members of the Court of County Commissioners are unsurping office, are guilty of malfeasance or are managing the affairs of the county to the serious hurt of its citizens, the law supplies a remedy and an open forum to which any citizen may resort in orderly form. The Legislature of Alabama is without moral or statutory jurisdiction in the cause.

"Your friend and fellow Democrat.
"THOS. A. CURRY."

PETITIONS AGAINST BILLS

There have been prepared several petitions declaring against the passage of the bills to abolish the county court and the court of county commissioners, as advocated by a few democrats and the Chilton County News. A copy of this petition has been placed with each member of the Republican Executive Committee, and one is left in the Circuit Clerk's office at the court house. So every citizen in the county who is opposed to the passage of these bills should avail themselves of the chance to sign one of these petitions. This is a matter which concerns every tax payer in the county, and every one ought to assert his rights by placing his name in opopsition to such nefarious attacks against the rights of the common people.

DEATH OF MR. W. Y. NIX

It was during the quietness and stillness of the early morning hour, 3 o'clock, of July 15th, 1923, that our Heavenly Father sent His death angel to visit the home of Mr. W. Y. Nix, three miles north of Maplesville, and took away the sweet spirit of our neighbor and friend, Mr. W. Y. Nix.

All was done that children, doctors and nurses could do but we can only submit to the will of God who wants us to trust and obey.

Mr. Nix rendered to this community a long life of loving and faithful service, ever ready to lend a helping hand to those that were in need. He was a member of the Baptist Church at Macedonia.

The appreciation of his love was shown in many ways on the day of his funeral by the presence of so many friends and beautiful flowers.

The body was laid to rest in the Macedonia cemetery about 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 16th.

Mr. Nix had been ill for a long time with a cancer on his side.

The deceased is survived by his wife, one son, Martin and one daughter, Mrs. Fanny Crosby. We extend our greatest sympathy to the bereaved family and may they find comfort in serving God and preparing to meet their loved one where heart aches shall be no more.

MAPLESVILLE NEWS

We are glad to see so many attending Sunday school every Sunday.

There was preaching at the Baptist church Sunday by Bro. W. T. Edwards. Two excelelnt sermons were delivered and were enjoyed by every one present.

Our B. Y. P. U. is still progressing very nicely. Miss Annie Spivey was in lead Sunday night. Group Two rendered an interesting program.

Mr. H. A. Harris has organized an intermediate B. Y. P. U. and we the seniors will have to get on our job or they are going to beat us. Mrs. J. C. Merchant is leader of the senior E. Y. P. U.

Our negro minstrel was quite a success Saturday night. We were glad indeed to have the crowd from Stanton, Shoults and Lawley come back. Saturday night, July 28th, the young people of this place are going to have a play in title, "The Valley Farm." We will tell you more about it next week. We received about $100.00 Saturday night from our minstrel.

Mrs. Ray, Bonnie and Susan Ray of Andalusia are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smitherman.

Mr. Wheeler Walker, Misses Oma and Eva Seales motored to Shoults Sunday p.m. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Walker.

Mr. Bill Mills of Billingsley was the guest of Miss Ethel King Sunday p.m.

Mrs. Ollie Martin of Plantersville spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Merchant.

Mr. W. W. Brooks, the banker, is off on a vacation now. Hope he will enjoy this vacation.

Mr. Holley Lockler has returned from Tuscaloosa. We are glad to see him back.

Mrs. Ed Smitherman and children, Mrs. Ray and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. C. N. Parnell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Edwards were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pullian Sunday night.

Harding Party Now in Land of Midnight Sun

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 16.—Having reached the northern end of steel rail transportation, President Harding proposed today to go further into the interior of Alaska by automobile. About the time people in New York and Washington are having dinner tonight and those in the middle west are quitting work for the day, President and Mrs. Harding and a portion of their party will start from here on an automobile trip of 90 miles over Richardson Trail to McCarty, on the Tenana river. The ride will take five hours. It was originally planned that the presidential party should go over the train 372 miles to Chitina and there take the Copper River & Northwestern railroad to the port of Cordova, but the trip was abandoned as possibly too strenuous, much to the regret of Mrs. Harding, who has been urging it.

As now planned the party on reaching McCarty will go aboard a river steamer and steam to Nenana, where on Tuesday evening they will board a train for a 24-hour trip back over the government railroad to Seward. Secretary Wallace and Chief Greely, however, will make the entire train trip.

The presidential party arrived here last night—last night in point of time, only, though, for although it was after 9 o'clock the sun still was shining and it never got dark as the days here now are 24 hours long.

Drives Gold Spike

The president while here visited the Alaska Agricultural College and School of Mines, the farthest north college in the world, which graduated its first student last June. Before he arrived at Fairbanks the president drove the golden spike signifying completion of the government railroad from Seward through to Fairbanks in June. In a brief address the president said he was happy thus to honor such a monumental engineering work and paid high tribute to Colonel Mears and other builders.

The port of Valdez has been added to the president's southward itinerary from Seward.

The Gridiron Club, the national capital's famous organization of correspondents, held the farthest north meeting in its history last midnight here in the land of the midnight sun, near the Arctic Circle. Eight members of the organization from the American correspondents accompanying President Harding on his Alaskan trip gathered at the Tenaca Club with Scott C. Bone, former Washington newspaper man and now governor of Alaska. The meeting was thus participated in by nearly one-fifth of the club's membership of fifty.

A SAD ACCIDENT

On last Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock occurred one of the sadest accidents ever known, when the 7-year old son of Mr. W. T. White of Mulberry accidentally shot and killed his baby sister, Evelyn, age 2 years. The children were playing with a shot gun when the weapon discharged, the whole load entering the child's stomach.

The little body was buried in Mulberry cemetery Friday at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. J. Ezell officiating.
